

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 71

Aaron Samuel

“This is all your fault!” Sebastian walked in and I nodded agreeing to him.

“I’m sorry, okay? I don’t even believe that she did that to me.” Nic said and I sighed.

“They already left, let’s follow them.” Luke said.

“I don’t trust Chloe in this.” Nic turned Sky for saying that.

“Me too, she’s evil.” Alex said.

“Angel too! She taught my wife to drive!” Max hissed.

“What?” Luke asked Max disbelief.

“Let’s just go to Miami.” I said because I’m quite anxious.

“I send Benard already.” Sebastian said and we all turned to him.

“Good.”

“Alissa will notice him, sometimes Benard is dumb.” Sky said and I sighed.

"I told him, if he got caught, I will fired him." Sebastian as he took a glass of water from the counter.

"I planned to build a base." Nic said and I raised my eyebrows.

"For what?' Alex asked.

"Our kids. We need to train them too, we're getting stronger and they amount of enemy that hunt us will double." Nic said.

"Base where?"

"Side of New York, everything will be in there to train." He said.

"No matter if we have a daughter too?" Max asked.

"Yes, boys or girls still need to train. We need to train again too. We need to get them be an expert in what they like." Nic added.

"That's a good idea." Max agreed.

"I agree too."

"Double up the protection and I already designed the Gold Card to be so private. We need finger print too." Nic added.

"Agree, when will we build that?" Sebastian asked.

“in 3 years, the design still not perfect. I need your help too.” He said and he turned off the light to show the design in 3D table.

“We need to make the fence tall so people can’t see it from outside.” I suggested.

“Make it all indoor.” Alex said.

“Outdoor too.” Luke said.

“How many floors?” Max asked.

“I’m planning to make 4 floors.” Nic said.

“Should we add a big swimming pool?” Luke asked and we all turned to him.

“Do we really need that?” Sebastian asked.

“What? Swimming is good..” Luke said and I rolled my eyes.

“The girls need to start training too.” Nic stated.

“They will understand right?”

“I’m not repeating what happen in Lemiere.” Nic said and we understand that so well.

“We need to make our kids 3 times stronger than you were Nic. We need to train them in sorts of ways. We can’t just train them boxing, guns.. and basic things.”

“Of course not, I want them to learn how to ride every transporation. Helicopter, jets, boats, bikes, cars.. and even diving too.”

“We need a pool.” Luke said and I just shook my head wanting to smack him.

“Sky diving and things like that related to heigths so they can be brave.” Max added.

“Everything..” Nic said.

“It might be hard for them.. you know.. they’re kids.” I said.

“We have no choice, Aaron. It’s for their future so they can protect themselves if something happens.” Nic said and I nodded.

“The Lemiere needs to be more stronger.” Alex said.

“Definitely. I want my kid’s ability 3 times more than me. I want to train them until they can beat me.” Nic said and we all smirked.

“We’re gladly will watch that.” I said.

“I want to eat a popcorn while that happen.” Luke laughed.

“If you have a daughter?” Max asked.

"She needs to be tough! Tougher than me.." Nic said.

"I hope you have 5 daughters.." Alex said and we all laughed.

"I need a son, idiot!" He hissed.

"Goodluck.." Sky said.

"Now, how about our wives?" Luke asked,

"We have Benard, if something happens.. We got our man there." Nic said.

"Just let them go." Sky said.

"I hate this idea.." I said.

"Not only you bud."
