Janet Stanmore

I walked around anxiously because my dad is currently in the surgery room. I kept praying and praying for my dad's surgery.

I gulped nervously and I really can't stop crying.

I looked at the clock on the top of the door and it's already 3 hours since they started. I'm nervous as hell and really hoping that this will work. I really hope it to happen.

"Janet." I turned to see Sky standing there with his hands in his pocket, I quickly wiped my tears.

"What are you doing here?" I asked but tears kept coming out from me eyes. Suddenly he hugged me tightly, I cried harder and hugged him back tightly.

"I'm here." He stroked my hair slowly.

"Heyhey stop crying, he's going to be okay." He wiped my tears and kissed my forehead.

"I'm sorry about yesterday I wasn't thinking." I cried again and apologized to him.

"It's okay." He hugged me again.

Sky was just there hugging me, holding my hand and sometimes kissed my forehead. I feel a little bit calm than before. He only said words that encourage me to keep praying.

"Have you eat?" He asked.

"No."

"Let me buy you something or you wan-"

"I'll stay here." I said, he stood up and walked away.

"Sky." I called and walked to him.

"Why? Do you-" I gave him a peck on his lips.

"Thankyou." I said and he smiled.

"Wait for me okay? I'll just for 10 minutes tops." He said and I nodded. He walked away and I sat back. I really need my dad to come out alive, I will make him happy.

Please please please..

I bet my eyes are so puffy right now and I bet I looked like a crap right now. Double shoot.

"I got you an ice coffee and some sandwiches." Sky plopped beside me and gave me the plastic bag.

"Thankyou." I said as I took out the coffee, opened it and drink it slowly. Sky helped me to open up the sandwich and gave it to me.

"When will your brother come?" He asked.

"I don't know, I don't know which flight did he take." I said as I bite the sandwich.

"Uhhh." He suddenly took something out from his pocket. I looked at him weirdly.

"Since I broke your phone twice , I- I kinda bought a new one for you. Your data has been transfered there." He said and I smiled.

"Thankyou."

"Only thankyou?" He asked, raising his eyebrows. I leaned to him and gave him a peck on his lips.

"I can't thank enough Sky, thankyou." I smiled and continue eating my sandwich. I looked at the clock and now it's been 4.5 hours. I can't believe this. After done eating, I walked around worried.
