Chapter 13

Justin Hammel felt that he was on the brink of sanity. What the heck is going on here? Why is Anthony Stewart Jonah Jones' master?

"Third Master, are you calling me?" Justin said timidly. His legs were shaking uncontrollably.

"Idiot! Don't you know that you have almost got him killed! Someone, chop off his hands..." Jonah was furious. Jonah's master had called him and requested him to pick Anthony up from the train station. However, when Jonah came to the train station, Anthony had already left.

After some difficulty, he found out that Anthony had gone to Hammel's Heaven. There, Justin had almost hurt Anthony. If the Master and Grandmaster found out about this, he would be severely punished. The Grandmaster said that Anthony was very important, and had to be protected no matter what.

Justin's legs gave way upon hearing Jonah's order, and he crumpled onto the floor. "Third Master, please have mercy. I was wrong. I didn't know that Anthony is your Master. Please have mercy on me!"

Anthony was shocked by Jonah's order too. Chopping off hands? That's too cruel!

"Ahem, Master Jonah, it's alright. Justin didn't hurt me. I am willing to release him as long as he promises not to disturb my friends and I in the future!" Anthony had a kind heart. He could not help but to defend Justin when he saw him in a pitiful state.

"Master Anthony, I am unworthy for you to call me Master. Just call me Jonah. Justin Hammel, you have Master Anthony to thank for saving you." Jonah shouted at Justin. In actuality, Jonah was also not planning to chop off Justin's hands. Although Jonah was not afraid of the Hammel family, hurting Justin would still cause a lot of trouble.

"Anthony... No, Master Anthony, thank you. I will never do it again..." Words could not describe the injustice Justin felt. It felt as if someone had slept with his wife right before his eyes.

After resolving the incident concerning Justin, Anthony introduced Steven Rodgers and Peter Park, "Jonah, these are my friends!"

Jonah gave a slight nod, "Oh, Steve Rodgers, the mayor's son, and Peter Park of the Park family. We have met a few times before, but I think we shall meet more frequently from now on!" The guests that evening were all prominent people in New York. Even if they didn't usually meet, they pretty much knew each other.

After the incident, Anthony felt that he could no longer remain there. Jonah offered courteously, "Master Anthony, would you like to go to my place tonight, or do you have other plans? The Second Grand Master will only arrive after a few more days..."

Anthony glanced at the other side of the great hall. Poppy had told him that she had another surprise for him that evening. So, Anthony wouldn't miss it for the world, "Poppy and I have other plans. I will go another time."

What kind of person was Jonah? Well, he was someone who was experienced with how the world worked. With a glance, he immediately understood Anthony and said, "Alright, Master Anthony. This is my number. You can call me any time!" He left after giving Anthony his name card.

After stepping out of the door with his four bodyguards, Jonah lowered his voice and said to two of his bodyguards, "Claw. Fang. Both of you are to follow Master Anthony stealthily and protect him. Do you understand? If anything happens to Master Anthony, you are both dead!"

"Understood, Master Jones!" The bodyguards answered and disappeared into the shadows. Master Jones had spent a lot of money hiring expert bodyguards from overseas who were highly skilled in hiding and guarding.

In the main hall, Steven and Peter could finally relax after Master Jones had left. "Anthony, you sneaky bastard. Why didn't you tell us that you are a Master of the Third Master?" Steven said as he punched Anthony's chest good-naturedly. Steven was secretly glad that he had chosen to befriend Anthony.
