

Visible World chapter 17 read online

Chapter 17 Poppy Was About to Be Raped

A black mud-like substance completely covered his body and clothes. Even his bed sheet was not spared, and the black substance was the source of the stench!

My skin looks good? Anthony checked his arm and found that he had smooth baby skin. He wondered if the stones also had beautifying abilities. At this point, Anthony still had not made the connection between the golden lights from the previous night and the changes to his body.

After a bath, Anthony put on the same t-shirt and jeans from yesterday. He called the hotel's housekeepers to tidy up the room and bring his suit to the laundry. It was then that Anthony suddenly remembered that Poppy had a meeting that day to negotiate on a contract. He wondered how it went.

"Hello Poppy, where are you?" Anthony asked the moment the call went through. However, a scream came from the other end, "Justin Hammel, you bastard! What are the ropes for? Anthony, save me! Grandeur Apartments, eighteenth floor..." Her phone was taken from her before she could finish speaking.

Anthony could not hear the last few words of what Poppy said. However, he had heard the word 'rope' and felt that something was not right. Having failed to woo Poppy, that bastard, Justin, resorted to force instead.

At this moment, in an office on the eighteenth floor of Grandeur Apartments, Justin was grinning viciously as he tied Poppy securely to the sofa, "Stupid woman, how dare you fight me? Didn't you like to play? Well, you are getting it today, let's if you are still proud after this... If I live-stream your downfall, it's even better isn't it? Hahaha..."

Last night Justin was thoroughly humiliated at the welcoming banquet for Poppy. Initially, he wanted to ask the Third Master of New York to put Anthony in his place. However, the tables were turned, and Anthony turned out to be a master to the Third Master. In the end, Justin was thoroughly humiliated.

In New York, Anthony was supported by the Third Master, so Justin did not dare to go against him. However, yesterday, Justin called his cousin, and his cousin promised to bring people to help him today.

As he thought of his cousin coming to help him, Justin had a wicked thought. While negotiating a contract with Poppy, Justin planned to force himself on Poppy. He wondered if she would still dare to refuse to work with the Hammel family afterwards.

“Justin Hammel, you should consider the consequences carefully! If you do anything to me, Anthony will come for you, so will the Third Master!” When Poppy realized that she had no way to escape, she became unusually calm.

Justin tied Poppy’s legs to the arms of the sofa and pushed her skirt up, “Haha, Anthony? Oh, I’m so scared. I’m scared that he doesn’t show up. If he shows up, I can resolve everything together!” There was a ferocious gleam in Justin’s eyes. He believed that his cousin had disembarked from the plane and should arrive at the Grandeur Apartments in another twenty minutes. Just now, he had deliberately let Poppy make the phone call to lure Anthony to this place.

Justin estimated that Anthony would take around ten minutes to travel by car from the hotel. So, Justin thought that if he starts to force himself on Poppy now, there should be enough time. After all, Justin couldn’t last that long. Furthermore, he had already placed a hundred bodyguards on the ground floor. It would take Anthony a lot of time to rush up here.

“Hehe, Poppy, we shall begin our show now!” Justin set his camera on a stand and started taking off his clothes, “Do you know that I have desired your body for so long? Haha, you have nowhere to run now. Remember to scream loudly. The louder you scream, the more it excites me... Haha...”