Bai Cheng didn't answer, why hadn't he thought of this solution, not only could he keep his position in Li Jun's group's heart, he could directly eliminate Lin Ran forever, but could he really do it?

"I'm not sure!"

This was the worry in Bai Cheng's heart, Lin Ran's skills were too terrifying, he had seen them before, he really did not have the confidence that he could eradicate Lin Ran completely.

And once he failed to eradicate him, then the consequences would be fatal not only to himself, but even to the entire Bai family.

For a moment, Bai Cheng was a little hesitant.

"Young Master Bai! Don't hesitate any longer! The opportunity cannot be lost!"

Li Jun was a little anxious in his heart, seeing Bai Cheng hesitating, his heart had begun to cool.

"How can I take the 10,000 zhang gold without taking a desperate step!"

Suddenly, such a thought popped up in Bai Cheng's mind, handing Li Jun over, even though it could maintain their Bai family's relationship with the Luo family for a while.

But looking into the future, wouldn't Lin Ran become a stone to restrain their Bai family, an existence that not only Bai Cheng, but even the entire Bai family could not agree to.

"I'm afraid that father will accept this reason!"

Bai Cheng thought in his mind, and was just about to order Li Jun to take action and eradicate Lin Ran regardless of the consequences, but just then, there was the sound of footsteps coming from upstairs again, followed by Bai Yuguo actually walking down from upstairs.

Seeing the confrontation downstairs, Bai Yuguo guessed what was going on, he looked at Bai Cheng with a hint of fire on his face, before looking at Li Ran and said with a smile.

“Little friend Lin Ran, what brings you to my place, and you didn’t say hello in advance so I could make some arrangements no!”

Bai Yuguo smiled as he stepped forward and shook Lin Ran’s hand.

“You’re welcome, Mr. Bai, it’s just a meal, no need to make any arrangements!”

Lin Ran laughed, his face as usual without the slightest ripple.

“My goodness, this is the head of the Bai family, I didn’t expect your boyfriend to know him too, my goodness, I’m so jealous!”

“That’s right, even this kind of person knows him, what exactly does senior Lin Ran do? Is he really just a poor student?”

“I don’t believe it’s just a poor student, maybe he’s a hidden rich man with a lot of money!”

Song Nuan, however, was at the side with a worried look on her face.

The people in front of her, whether it was Bai Yuguo or Bai Cheng, were all people eaters, and because she had gotten Lin Ran into a fight with the Bai family again, this made her feel somewhat self-conscious.

Lin Ran and Bai Yuguo exchanged a few casual pleasantries, then looked at Bai Cheng and smiled.

“Duke Bai, I wonder how it has been considered? Are you handing over the person?”

“Hand over people? What kind of person?”

Bai Yuguo heard it really well from the side and looked at Bai Cheng with a slight frown.

Bai Cheng’s face was ugly and he did not say anything.

He was not allowed to make up his mind that he was ready to completely turn over with Lin Ran, but he did not expect his own old man to suddenly appear, this time he had already missed his chance, in front of his own old man, I was afraid that he would already be captured by his old man before he even gave the order.

“O yes so,....”

Lin Ran smiled as he told the story, hearing Bai Yuguo’s brow frown slightly as he looked towards Bai Cheng and chided him.

“Ridiculous! Don’t hand them over yet!”

“But...”

Bai Cheng was about to say something else, but Bai Yuguo’s face sank and his eyes burned as he glared at him, scaring him so much that he didn’t dare to say anything else.

As the head of the Bai family, where would he not know about Li Jun, it was just that at this stage it was an important time to negotiate with the Luo family, and with the relationship between Lin Ran and Luo Ming, it made him have to pretend that he didn’t know and hand Li Jun over.

There was absolutely no shortage of fighters for a super big family like theirs, and they could train one up after losing one, but the cooperation with the Luo family was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, so if they missed it, they really missed it.

As for Lin Ran, Bai Yuguo didn’t even put it in his eyes, when Luo Ming’s relationship with this kid became shallow in the future, he had plenty of ways to clean up this kid.

“Yes father!”

Bai Cheng finally compromised, he glanced at Li Jun and spoke.

“Go out, and if you’re still alive, come see me again!”

After saying that, Bai Cheng directly turned around and left the Bai’s Mansion.

“Little friend, please also go out and settle this, I’m open for business here, it’s not quite suitable for fighting and killing!”

Bai Yuguo laughed.

“That’s natural!”

Lin Ran nodded, and immediately led Song Nuan and the others out of the Bai’s Mansion.

Bai Yuguo soon left as well, leaving Li Jun alone with a gloomy face standing in place for a long time.

“Ai, the Bai family is really something else!”

After a long time, Li Jun finally gave up the insistence in his heart, and he slowly walked towards the door, the gangster who had been following beside him, worried.

“Brother Jun, I’m afraid that if we go out there, we really won’t be able to come back!”

"You have a solution?"

Li Jun turned his head to look at him and asked.

The punk was dumbfounded, he was just a small follower, even the Bai family had given up on him, how could he, a small follower, have any solutions.

"Let's go, it's a blessing not a curse, a curse can't be avoided, I'm afraid this is retribution!"

Li Jun said with a bitter smile.

He had known that this day would come, but he had never thought that this day would come because of a poor boy, which made him feel a bit unhappy.

At the entrance of the White House, Lin Ran's group waited quietly.

Song Nuan was a little puzzled and asked Lin Ran.

"Are you really going to teach that man a lesson after all?"

Although she didn't know Lin Ran's person very well, but at least during this recent contact, she found that Lin Ran wasn't the kind of person who was unforgiving, and even lazily ignored such punks a lot of the time, not knowing what it was about today, she was actually being penny-wise and pound-foolish.

"Is it really because of herself?"

Thinking about what Lin Ran said earlier, Song Nuan couldn't help but feel warm in her heart, since she was young, no one had really cared about her so much except her grandfather and father.

Thinking of this, Song Nuan couldn't help but look at Lin Ran and say, "Thank you!"

"Thank me for what?"

Lin Ran was a little surprised, he didn't even know that Song Nuan had thought so much in this instant.

While the two were talking, Li Jun had also walked out of Bai's Mansion, and when he saw Lin Ran and the others waiting at the door, he couldn't help but sigh, the last trace of luck in his heart shattered.

"It's my bad luck to fall into your hands today, I'll do whatever I want to kill you!"

Li Jun looked at Lin Ran with a very calm look in his eyes.

"Hm!"

Lin Ran replied indifferently, and then said.

“You can go.”

“I ....”

Li Jun was stunned, didn't he say he was going to clean up after himself? How come this was letting himself go?

“How do you let him go?”

Song Nuan was equally puzzled at the side.

Lin Ran looked at Song Nuan and explained with a smile.

“He has been given up by the Bai family, this is already the biggest lesson for him, let's go, let's go home, there's no need to waste time here!”

Said Lin Ran, who had already gone to drive.

Song Nuan stood in place, a little baffled, it turned out that this guy really didn't care to bother with such a punk, so wasn't his own worry just now self-serving? And this guy didn't seem to be that angry because he was being molested.

Thinking of this, Song Nuan was very unhappy in her heart.

“This bastard! I knew he didn't care about me that much, and he still talks about his daughter-in-law and father-in-law every day, it's just a scum performance! Scum to the core!”

Song Nuan couldn't help but curse in her heart.

Amidst the envious gazes of each of his housemates, Lin Ran took Song Nuan with him and left.

When he returned home, it was already eleven o'clock at night, but just as he entered the door, Lin Ran's face turned gloomy as he stared at the living room scanning from side to side, becoming more and more sure of what he had in mind.

“What's wrong?”

Song Nuan saw that Lin Ran's face didn't look right and went up to him and asked, while looking towards the living room, which, as usual, was not any different.

"Something has come in the house!"

Lin Ran said in a deep voice.

"Something? Ah ....!"

Song Nuan was startled and hastily hid behind Lin Ran, she heard clearly that Lin Ran was saying that something had been here, not directly that it was a person, which made her feel creeped out.

"Don't be afraid, just be careful, that thing shouldn't be strong, the residual aura is very weak!"

Lin Ran said, while leading Song Nuan to start looking around the living room.

Song Nuan felt that something wasn't right and opened her mouth to ask.

"How do you know something has been here? Is it hard to believe that you've installed a camera in the house?"

Thinking about this, Song Nuan couldn't help but tighten her clothes, this guy in front of her couldn't still be a peeping Tom, right, and actually installed that kind of thing in the house.

"I don't have that kind of hobby."

Lin Ran was speechless, this nee-san had been quite concerned about herself at Bai's Mansion before, how come this attitude had suddenly changed so much, she actually thought she was a peeping tom.

"Then how did you know that something strange had come to the house?"

Song Nuan pursued, she really didn't understand, on what basis did Lin Ran judge.

"The scent!"

Lin Ran said back.

Song Nuan was confused and asked, "What kind of scent?"

Seeing that Song Nuan was still curious, Lin Ran explained.

"Everyone has their own unique scent, there will never be two people with the same scent, this house is usually just the two of us, only our two scents remain, but just now when I entered the door I smelled a scent that has never appeared before."

“And, what do I take it for, couldn't it have been some little insect flying in?”

Song Nuan felt that Lin Ran was making a fuss, and instead of continuing to hide behind him, she went straight to the sofa and did it on her butt.

But as soon as she sat down, Song Nuan's whole body froze, and then she let out an “Ah!” She almost didn't get scared out of her wits.

“What's wrong!”

Lin Ran rushed over to her, and Song Nuan was so frightened that she jumped into Lin Ran's arms, not even daring to put her feet on the ground, her whole body hanging in the air and being held in Lin Ran's arms.

“What the hell is going on?”

Lin Ran asked as he swept his gaze around.

Only to see Song Nuan's voice trembling as she said.

“Under the coffee table, there's a human .... Human face .... It's only slap... Size!”

Song Nuan said and buried her head all into Lin Ran's arms, too scared to look again at all.

Lin Ran just hugged Song Nuan, gently sat down on the sofa, looked towards the position the latter pointed to, and really found that, under the coffee table where the light could not shine, there was a hidden human face, looking at himself motionlessly, extremely seeping.

“You hide aside first!”

Lin Ran greeted, releasing Song Nuan, who hurriedly trotted and hid to the side, but didn't dare to run too far for fear that there were others elsewhere.

“You be careful!”

Song Nuan hid well and opened her mouth to remind, although this guy Lin Ran was a bit of a scumbag before, but after all, he was also trying to protect himself, at this time, Song Nuan still couldn't help but open her mouth to remind.

“Mm!”

Lin Ran casually replied, and then he found a stick and plucked something out from under the coffee table, and the moment he plucked it out, Lin Ran saw it for real, it was actually a rat.

It was just that the rat's features were very similar to a human's, it was stiff and motionless, obviously dead.

“Don’t be afraid, it’s just a rat!”

Lin Ran said, while carefully examining the rat once, and found that apart from the human-like features, there was no difference between this thing and an ordinary rat, so his hanging heart could not help but drop.

Song Nuan walked in two steps at this time, and when she heard that it was just a rat, her heart was relieved, but when she saw the rat’s features, she was so scared that she ran back again, while shouting.

“Why does that rat have a human face!”

“It’s not a human face, it’s just cool! In the hot zone across the ocean, there are rats like this, and the locals call them ‘uneven’, which means sinful!”

Lin Ran explained.

“Sin? What does this have to do with the fact that rats look like people?”

Song Nuan asked as she hid aside, she had never even heard of such things.

“These sins are the source of these rats!” Lin Ran continued to explain “I once read an article in a magazine, it was said that the locals believed that these rats with five senses were actually painted by people who had sinned greatly in their previous lives.”

“In their previous life they sinned so much that they turned into rats in this life to receive the ordeal of being shouted at by millions of people.”

Song Nuan listened in confusion for a while, and as she herself was not at all convinced by such legends, she asked.

“Whatever you say it is, the point is, this thing you have said is on the other side of the ocean, how could it come to our house!”

Lin Ran smiled with a slight frown and his face turned serious as he said.

“This thing, it’s something that is very much used in the feng shui line, the reason why this rat appeared here, I’m afraid that someone is controlling it!”

Lin Ran said.

Song Nuan’s face turned white as she listened, remembering her previous experience, she felt a sense of dread, she had been in the dormitory before, but now that she had moved back home, the other party was actually looking for her.

“What does he want? I don’t even know him, why is he targeting me like this?”

Song Nuan said angrily.

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly, stating that he didn't know either.

After disposing of the rat's corpse, Lin Ran carefully checked again at home and found that there were no other rats before declaring the alert lifted.

Song Nuan had long been nervous and sweaty, and when she heard that the house was fine, she ran straight to take a shower. Although Lin Ran was also sweaty, he had no choice but to wait first, as ladies came first.

But just as Lin Ran was getting a little sleepy and confused, there was a cry of alarm from Song Nuan in the bathroom.

Lin Ran instantly woke up and rushed towards the bathroom.

"Bang!"

The washroom door was smashed open by Lin Ran, only to see Song Nuan wrapped in a bath towel on the floor, her ankle already red and swollen.

"What's wrong?"

Lin Ran hurriedly asked, while stepping forward to help her up.

Song Nuan, however, had a slightly red face, fortunately she had finished washing herself, if she hadn't would she not have been exposed to everything by this guy, just thinking about it made her pretty face feel hot.

"Hey! What the hell is wrong, why is your face so red?"

Seeing Song Nuan's pretty face was very red, Lin Ran asked worriedly.

"Nothing... Nothing!"

Song Nuan said with some embarrassment as she came back to her senses, then remembering the scene she had just had before she fell, she couldn't help but turn around and look while saying.

"I seem to have just stepped on something, a round one, that's why I slipped and fell!"

"Stepped on something?"

Lin Ran was speechless for a while, but went to help look for it, and soon he found a round bead in a corner, only the size of an egg, and the whole was transparent, but the colour was a grey colour.

When he picked up the bead, Lin Ran's face immediately changed, for he recognised it.

It was a “Devil Devouring Bead!”

In the room, there was silence.

Lin Ran sat on the sofa and lit a cigarette for the first time, he didn't smoke at all before, but the many things that had happened recently had left him clueless and his mind was really a little irritated.

“You said this bead is called the Devil Devouring Bead, what exactly is it for?”

Song Nuan had changed into a set of pajamas at this time, and her clear appearance was unbelievably beautiful against the backdrop of her crisp pajamas.

“It's for devouring essence!”

Lin Ran puffed on his cigarette and blandly returned.

This kind of devouring demon bead was very rare, even in the feng shui line, and only some evil feng shui masters would use it to achieve certain goals.

“If you put this kind of bead near the target person, it will gradually suck the essence from the person's body, because the amount absorbed is very small it usually won't affect the target, but if the essence is sucked for a long time, the person's body resistance will drop and many minor illnesses will be enough to kill them!”

Lin Ran explained, Song Nuan was startled at his words and hurriedly threw the beads aside and said.

“Wouldn't that be the same as AIDS!”

“Sort of!”

Lin Ran threw away the butt of his cigarette, found a glass and put the beads in it, before shaking it with force and infusing it with true qi, directly shattering the beads in the glass.

“This thing is getting weirder and we have to be more careful!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

Song Nuan nodded worriedly, she understood that it was herself that the other party was after, Lin Ran was merely trying to protect himself, but now it was dragging him into it as well.

Lin Ran did not think so much about it, at this moment he felt as if the whole thing was a bureau, from the appearance of three of the five poisons, to the discovery of the devil devouring pearl now, it seemed to be one ring after another, he did not know what the other party intended to do, but the current situation was not optimistic.

“Go to sleep, soldiers will come, water will come, there is always a way out!”

Lin Ran said.

Song Nuan nodded at his words and then destroyed his room.

But this night was destined to be sleepless for both of them, I’m afraid that any other person would not be able to sleep in peace, there was a person hiding in the darkness, always watching, Song Nuan did not go crazy, it was already a very good performance.

The next morning, Lin Ran sent Song Nuan off to school before coming to the hospital himself.

The work of the hospital was going on in an orderly manner. Many of the patients initially came here because of Lin Ran’s name as a miracle doctor, but when they found out that Lin Ran was often absent and that Li Zheng was treating them well, they all stayed to see the doctor.

Nowadays, Tamkang Hospital is not what it used to be. Not only is the reputation of Tamkang Hospital well known, but also the reputation of the Chinese Medicine Department of Tamkang Hospital is not weak at all.

It was just that everyone knew that the little miracle doctor was very busy, and it was very difficult to get him to see patients personally.

Lin Ran stayed in his office, his mind still thinking about what happened last night, he always felt that there was a connection between this devil devouring pearl and the five poisons, but he couldn’t figure out where the connection point was.

“It’s better to confirm it first!”

Lin Ran thought this, picked up the phone and dialed out.

“Hey, Little Divine Doctor, you’ve finally taken the initiative to find me, what is it, just say I’ll do it for you!”

When he received Lin Ran’s call, he knew that something must be wrong, so he naturally boasted first.

"I want to meet Li Wansan's father, please help me arrange it!"

Lin Ran said.

"Okay, no problem, I'll come to the hospital to find you!"

Luo Cheng said and hung up the phone straight away.

Lin Ran then packed up and went straight to the entrance of the hospital to wait.

Whether this Devil Devouring Pearl was related to the Five Poisons or not, one test would tell.

The five poisons appeared in Song Nuan, Li Wan San's father Li Tang, and Xiao Nan respectively. The devouring demon pearl was found in Song Nuan's house, and if it was also found in the other two people's houses, then it was enough to confirm that this devouring demon pearl was definitely related to the five poisons, which was why Lin Ran had to go to Li Wan San's house.

Luo Cheng soon arrived at the entrance of the hospital in his pull-out Phantom, this kind of car was so luxurious that it attracted quite a few people to look around.

Lin Ran had no choice but to get into the car with a stiff upper lip.

"You don't have to drive such a nice car even if you go out!"

Lin Ran was a bit helpless.

"Haha, this car usually does not drive, this is not you looking for me, I only deliberately drive out!"

Luo Cheng didn't hide it and said with a smile.

Lin Ran smiled and became even more helpless, daring to say that it was because of himself, this Luo Cheng really looked up to himself.

"By the way, has Li Wansan been contacted yet?"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and asked.

Luo Cheng made a gesture of reassurance and laughed.

"Don't worry about my work, Lao San has already been contacted, but this fellow is not at home right now, saying that he will be attending an auction later, it seems to be for medicinal herbs!"

"What about his father? We can go straight to his house!"

Lin Ran said, Li Wan San's father, Li Tang, and his home was his destination.

"No, his old man is also going, this guy is recovering well, he's suffocating at home, he's following along today to join the fun, there's no one at home at all!

Luo Cheng said.

"Then where are we going now?"

Li Ran was completely speechless, Li Tang's house was empty, this guy still came to pick himself up where to go?

Luo Cheng "hehehe!" A smile, mysteriously said.

"Of course we're going to find them, I've asked the auction will end soon, there are only five lots, we'll go find them first, and as soon as the auction ends, we'll go straight to his house."

Lin Ran smiled helplessly, but when he thought about it, he was relieved, attending an auction was fine, just think of it as an eye-opener, and it was an auction for medicinal herbs, it was good to go and have a look.

The two of them sped all the way to the Wandering Auction Building in the city centre in just over ten minutes.

The Wandering Auction Building was very famous and was the largest auction house in Tanjiang City. Of course, there was no way to compare the total assets with Luo's, but in terms of the entire ranking industry, it was definitely at the leading level.

"Come on, let's go in."

Under the leadership of Luo Cheng, the two of them quickly arrived at the twelfth floor.

However, as soon as the two of them stepped out of the lift, they were shocked and could not help but be taken aback, only to see that this originally very wide hall was actually packed with people, many of whom were standing and only a few of them were sitting.

"That's right, those who came to participate in the auction to buy medicine, I'm afraid that their families are not bad, so many people actually bidding are only those who are sitting, while the rest of those who are standing are obviously bodyguards and other accompanying people.

"Come on, over there."

Luo Cheng greeted with a smile, and Lin Ran just allowed Ben to go over with Luo Cheng.

Suddenly, at the doorway, another group of people came in, and very coincidentally, one of the young men who was surrounded by the crowd was actually someone he knew.

It was none other than the rich young man, Liu Xuan, whom he had met at the old man's rehabilitation banquet.

At the beginning, this guy had been encouraged by Bai Cheng to find himself in trouble, only to be severely beaten in the face by himself, but he had never expected to run into him again here today.

"Hey hey, do you know this person? His name is Liu Xuan, he is the future successor of the Liu family, this Liu family is about the same strength as our family, this kid keeps climbing with me again!"

Luo Cheng also saw Liu Xuan and lowered his voice and said in Lin Ran's ear.

Lin Ran nodded, he didn't have a good feeling about this Liu Xuan, but it was a bit surprising for him to bump into him here today.

Just as they were talking, Liu Xuan also saw Luo Cheng, while Lin Ran happened to be in the path of a man who did not see him.

Upon seeing Luo Cheng, Liu Xuan could not help but smile at once, and immediately walked over towards this side, while laughing aloud.

"Yo, isn't this the Luo family grandson, why is he interested in coming to this kind of place to play when he's not studying business properly at the company? Has he been given up by your Luo family?"

"Put you ...."

Luo Cheng just wanted to retort, but saw that beside Liu Xuan, a middle-aged man and an old man followed together, the words that reached his mouth only had to be forcibly swallowed back, and then said.

"You fart, I came here to find a friend, that is like you every day just know how to play!"

After the words were finished, Liu Xuan and the three of them had already arrived in front of Luo Cheng.

Seeing that Lin Ran was actually there, Liu Xuan's face was instantly ice-cold, last time it was this kid who made himself lose face, I didn't expect to actually run into him here again today.

"Uncle Liu, I didn't expect you to be here too!"

Luo Cheng didn't bother to pay attention to Liu Xuan, turning to look at the middle-aged man beside the latter and arching his hand and smiling.

"Haha, Xiao Cheng, I didn't expect to run into you here, why didn't you give me a greeting in advance if you were coming over to play, there are good things reserved for you too!"

The middle-aged man laughed, his name was Liu Dingtian, he was none other than Liu Xuan's father, the head of another leading business family in Tamagawa City.

In Tanjiang City, Liu's family and Luo's family did not want to go up and down, but the latter mainly elite real estate, and restaurant chain category, while the former is mainly operating real estate and pawnshop category, so except in the real estate piece, other aspects are not in direct conflict, so the relationship is not bad.

In particular, Liu Dingtian and Luo Ming, but also a kind of sympathetic feeling, the two often get together to drink and chat, the relationship is very good.

On the contrary, the two juniors, Luo Cheng and Liu Xuan, had a less than good relationship.

"Uncle Liu is kind, I'm just here to find a friend today!"

Luo Cheng laughed.

"Looking for a friend? Haha, is it hard to find this one beside you?"

Liu Xuan smiled at his words but laughed.

"What, you know this one beside me?"

Luo Cheng frowned slightly, Lin Ran was the one he was desperately trying to bring in, he didn't want to see that Lin Ran and Liu Xuan still had any friendships.

"I know him, the last time your grandfather recovered from the banquet, you weren't there, this Liu Xuan brother I've met!"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and smiled.

Luo Cheng's heart sank at his words, last time he had just finished his surgery and was recuperating, so he didn't go to his grandfather's recovery banquet, he didn't expect Liu Xuan to actually take advantage of the situation at this time.

"Unbridled!"

Just as Luo Cheng's mind was thinking of how to stubbornly cement his relationship with Lin Ran, Liu Xuan was the one who suddenly spoke up.

Hearing Liu Xuan's words, Luo Cheng's heart could not help but feel relieved, it seemed that he had thought too much, the way Liu Xuan treated Lin Ran, it was obvious that the relationship between the two was not good.

"What's your status, calling me brother, are you worthy?"

Liu Xuan's face showed disdain, he had a grudge against Lin Ran for what happened last time, he naturally wouldn't miss the chance to hit him in the face.

"Xuan'er, how can you talk!"

Liu Dingtian's face sank as he opened his mouth to scold.

"Father, you don't know how dirty this man is, he has a lot of heart!"

Liu Xuan said, seeing that his father didn't quite believe him, he continued.

"His name is Lin Ran, he's just a graduate from Tamkang University, and he comes from the countryside, his family is very poor, but it's this kind of origin, he first sat as the head of the Chinese medicine department of Tamkang Hospital, and later he even befriended Uncle Luo Ming, this kind of person's city is frighteningly high!"

Liu Xuan said it as if there was really something to it.

Lin Ran, however, laughed as he listened.

"Haha, brother Liu Xuan is really concerned about my affairs, it seems that the last blow made you remember me in your heart, you even sent someone to investigate everything about me on purpose!"

"Liu Xuan, aren't you going too far, Lin Ran is our Luo family's life-saver, you actually said that he is having a city, are you trying to say that all of our Luo family are people are stupid?"

Luo Cheng's face was gloomy, before he had to take into account Liu Dingtian's face, but this person Liu Xuan's words had obvious loopholes in order to strike Lin Ran, so he naturally wouldn't miss it.

“Luo Cheng words can not be said nonsense, your father and I are close friends, Xuan’er will not have this intention either!”

Liu Dingtian said, at the same time couldn’t help but glance at Lin Ran, listening to his own son’s words, he was also a little more curious about this young man called Lin Ran in front of him, wanting to know how this kid had transformed from a poor student to the point where he was now.

“Uncle Liu, Lin Ran is my friend, if Liu Xuan does not welcome him, he can pretend not to see, although this Wandering Pawn is your place, but this way to bring guests, I’m afraid it is not appropriate!”

Luo Cheng continued to exert pressure, Liu Xuan listened with an ugly face, he had already realized the loopholes in his previous words, but having said it all, it was useless to regret it now.

“Xuan’er is young to speak without thinking, don’t forget your heart!”

Liu Dingtian laughed, and then looked at Lin Ran and said.

“Your name is Lin Ran? And you’re the director of the Chinese Medicine Department at Temperance Hospital?”

Lin Ran nodded, he didn’t know how this Liu Dingtian was as a person and didn’t want to say too much.

“Aiya, if I remember correctly, you should be the legendary little divine doctor!”

Liu Dingtian suddenly thought of something and looked at Lin Ran with a surprised expression.

“Little miracle doctor? Dad are you going to laugh at me? What era is this, a little miracle doctor, I think it’s more like a little miracle stick!”

Liu Xuan laughed coldly beside him again.

But Liu Dingtian’s face was chilly as he glared at Liu Xuan and scolded.

“Shut up!”

“Dad...”

Liu Xuan still wanted to retort, but Liu Dingtian moved his mouth and said softly.

“You know what your mother’s situation is now, but anyone who has the hope of curing your mother, you dare to offend me, you won’t even get a penny of my property!”

His own son, Liu Dingtian naturally knows best, the doting from childhood has made this guy not afraid of the sky and the earth, the only thing he is afraid of is not inheriting the family fortune.

"I also love my mother very much, okay!"

Liu Xuan retorted with displeasure.

Liu Dingtian was too lazy to pay any attention to him and turned to look at Lin Ran, taking out a business card and handing it over.

"Little friend Lin Ran, I've heard of your little miracle doctor's name many times, but I've heard that you're very difficult to meet, so I haven't dared to go and bother you.

Liu Dingtian said politely.

This made Lin Ran a little surprised, Liu Dingtian was a person of almost the same status as Luo Ming, but he was actually so polite to himself.

Only he didn't know that Liu Dingtian had heard of Lin Ran's name because Luo Ming had actually told him.

"I'll definitely pay a visit some day, but I'm just afraid that the Liu family's grandson might not welcome me!"

Lin Ran was a little embarrassed.

Liu Xuan's face sank at his words, and then beside him, he said coldly.

"Pretending to be polite, pretending to be good, you come, I would like to see, what are you capable of! I'm waiting at home, come over if you have the guts!"

Liu Dingtian saw this and just wanted to scold Liu Xuan, but Lin Ran was one step ahead of him and opened his mouth to laugh.

"Haha, since that's the case, then I'm respectful, after all, I'm the one with the real skills!"

Originally, Lin Ran was still a little hesitant, but when he heard Liu Xuan say that, he had a thick skin and directly agreed.

"You! How shameless!"

Liu Xuan was so angry that he gritted his teeth, he didn't expect Lin Ran to be so thick-skinned in addition to being deep in the city, which really surprised him.

"Then it's a deal, I have things to do, I'll leave now, I'll call you later!"

Liu Dingtian smiled and rounded up the situation, and then led the others away.

"Hey, you're really going to his house? Isn't that a sheep into a tiger's mouth!"

As soon as the former had left, Luo Cheng hurriedly came up and said.

"A tiger's mouth? The Liu family isn't even close!"

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words, not saying anything more.

"Gutsy, worthy of being my Luo Cheng's friend!"

Luo Cheng gave a thumbs up and laughed, he appreciated Lin Ran's domineering, defiant attitude, poor? What's wrong with being poor, as usual, I don't put you rich second generation in my eyes.

You have your own family fortune, I have my own pride, although not rich, but very proud!

"Uncle Mu, what about this kid?"

On the other side, after parting with Lin Ran, Liu Dingtian asked directly.

Liu Mu, an old man at the side, nodded and smiled.

"This son was not afraid or angry just now, he did not even get angry at Xuan'er's words that were so unpleasant, so he can see the excellent nature of his heart, and the last sentence that was deliberately cheeky to anger Xuan'er carried some of the temperament of a young man!"

Speaking of this, Liu Mu revealed a difficult look, a moment later received.

"This son gives me a very mysterious feeling, the body has both the calmness of the old and the impetus of the young, the future achievement is afraid of extraordinary!"

"Grandpa Liu Mu, are you mistaken, this guy comes from such a poor background, he can actually know Uncle Luo, it can be seen the depth of the city, what kind of crap achievement can he achieve in the future!"

Liu Xuan listened to the displeasure in his heart on the side and opened his mouth to belittle.

“You give me ....”

Liu Dingtian was just about to open his mouth to scold, but Liu Mu interrupted him with a pat, and then looked at Liu Xuan father and son, and said in a serious tone.

“Old me has been in this Wandering Pawn for decades, I have seen not 10,000 but 8,000 people, I think I am very accurate in reading people, this son is indeed extraordinary, you better not offend easily!”

After saying that, Liu Mu looked at Liu Xuan and said with a sigh.

“Xuan’er, you were born with the golden key in your mouth, you can’t see through many things, but grandpa must advise you of one thing, to be able to muddle through from poverty to your current achievements, sometimes it’s not city spirit that you rely on!”

“Then what is it?”

Liu Xuan asked after him.

Liu Mu smiled faintly at his words and said.

“True ability!”

“The same kind of real ability as your great grandfather!”

“True... Still the same as Grandpa Tai, how is that possible!”

Liu Xuan’s heart was shocked, unwilling to believe it.

Their Liu family had been destitute at the beginning, but it was because their grandfather had followed their father to the four corners of the world since they were young, and had developed a pair of discerning eyes by selling pawned goods, that the Liu family had made its fortune and become what it was today.

All of this was due to his wisdom, and Liu Mu was trained by him.

Now that Grandpa Liu Mu had actually said that Lin Ran might have real skills, it made him both upset and a little surprised at the same time.

“Could this guy really have real skills?”

Liu Xuan’s heart wavered a little, resounding with the attitude Luo Cheng had towards Lin Ran.

Luo Cheng was a person of the same status and position as himself, yet he took that kid very seriously, could it be that he was really inferior to Luo Cheng when it came to this skill of reading people?

.....

At the other end of the conversation, Lin Ran and Luo Cheng soon found Li Wansan, who was accompanying his father as he viewed a bronze Buddha, and the two were chatting happily.

“Yo, little divine doctor, why have you even come here in person!”

Seeing Lin Ran, Li Wansan was very excited, the young man in front of him was responsible for his father’s healing.

“Wan San, this little brother is my life-saver?”

Li Tang asked suspiciously, he was in a coma at the time and had not seen Lin Ran, only later heard from his own son that he had been saved by the little miracle doctor from the Temperance Hospital.

“Yes, that’s him!”

Li Wansan said with a smile.

Li Tang was very excited and came over, holding Lin Ran’s hand and saying gratefully.

“Little brother, thank you so much, saving a life is no thanks, in the future if you look up to me, Li Tang, if you need anything, just look me up, I will help if I can!”

“Sure!”

Lin Ran laughed, the fact that Li Tang could say this was enough to show his sincerity, as for whether he would have the chance to ask him for help in the future, Lin Ran didn’t care, what he valued in making friends was his heart, not anything else.

“Uncle Li, are you looking at the bronze Buddha?”

Luo Cheng looked on in wonder, both of them were selling herbs, how come they were still interested in this Chinese antique.

“Haha, this you do not understand, medicine and martial arts do not separate, so this medicine and antiques are equally related, many ancient very valuable medicinal herbs, many are unearthed from ancient tombs, so love the house and the crow, the old man and I also have a few interest in antiques.”

Li Wansan said, Luo Cheng smiled as if thinking, then seemed to think of something, a pat on the side of Lin Ran, laughing to Li Wansan father and son said.

"Both of you, speaking of this literary game, you should change both of you don't know the strength of little friend Lin Ran!"

"The little divine doctor still knows about literary play?"

Li Tang was a little surprised, and Li Wansan was equally very surprised, looking at this Lin Ran.

"Little divine Doctor, you still have dabbling in literary games?"

"That's not true!"

Before Lin Ran could answer, Luo Cheng came to his senses and said.

"When my grandfather was seriously ill, it was the Little Divine Doctor who took care of him, and later on at the recovery banquet, the Little Divine Doctor was the one who poked holes in a fake Guanyin statue, which was sent by that kid Liu Xuan!"

"Liu Xuan?"

Li Wansan frowned slightly at his words, he had heard of this Liu Xuan, it was the young proprietor of this Wanding Pawnshop, the grandson of the Liu family.

"Later, the little divine doctor even gave my grandfather a jade pendant, it was said that the jade pendant could keep peace, at first I didn't believe it, but recently my grandfather looked better and better, there were some signs of rejuvenation!"

Luo Cheng laughed.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head as he listened on the sidelines, this guy was really blowing it up without bounds.

"Don't listen to his nonsense, it can only nourish the body and moisten the qi and blood, and ward off evil spirits and good fortune!"

Lin Ran explained, he was really afraid that if he let Luo Cheng go on, he would blow him up into the sky and into the earth.

"Little divine Doctor, a true hero emerges from a young man."

Li Tang couldn't help but exclaim in admiration.

Li Wansan also listened with a surging heart, feeling that he had met a valuable person, but he was after all young, plus Luo Cheng had also bragged about it before, so he still had to verify some things for himself.

Immediately, he looked at Lin Ran and smiled.

“Little friend Lin Ran, I wonder what you think of this bronze Buddha?”

Lin Ran heard this and turned to look at the bronze Buddha, then a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth as he looked at Li Wansan and smiled.

“Brother Wansan, do you think this thing is real or fake?”

“Hm?”

Li Wansan was a little surprised at his words and said busily.

“Could it be that little friend Lin Ran thinks this is a fake? The headquarters of Wandering Pawn, it’s unlikely that this item is a fake!”

Li Tang, who was listening at the side, stepped forward and said.

“To tell the truth, Sanwan and I both think this is a treasure, whether from the workmanship or the patina on it, as well as the colour, it is a very well-preserved bronze Buddha.”

“Right!”

Li Wansan said with the same nod.

Lin Ran smiled but shook his head.

“But you guys have overlooked one thing!”

“What?”

Luo Cheng asked curiously, he had no research on this kind of antiques, but Li Wansan and Li Tang’s research on antiques was very high, he used to buy things without consulting this father and son, but he didn’t think that today there was actually a time to look away.

“The steel mark on the bottom!”

Lin Ran laughed.

Li Tang was startled at his words, seemingly thinking of something, while Li Wansan was a little puzzled, seemingly not understanding what Lin Ran was saying.

Lin Ran smiled lightly and looked towards Li Tang.

At this moment, Li Tang's gaze had already fallen on the bronze Buddha once again, this time he looked extremely carefully, turning in a circle to look the bronze Buddha over carefully, before finally sighing and saying.

"We were mistaken, this is indeed a highly imitated piece of fine art!"

"Quickly tell me what the problem is!"

Li Wansan hurriedly urged, this not knowing the truth made his heart itch like scratching an itch, and he was in a hurry.

"The steel seal that little friend Lin Ran said was actually just for us to pay attention to looking at the bottom of the bronze Buddha!"

Li Tang said, and then looked at Lin Ran.

"Little friend, am I right?"

Lin Ran nodded, and then said.

"Ancient bronze smelting techniques were very high, and even some of the lost techniques are even better than the current ones, but there is one thing that is not as good as the modern ones, and that is the delicacy of the modelling and carving."

"Bronze doesn't want to be ceramic, it's very difficult to carve a very delicate shape on bronze, so a lot of ancient bronzes are known for their resemblance!"

Said Lin Ran, pointing to an immortal crane carving at the bottom of the bronze Buddha and smiling.

"This immortal crane is delicately shaped and has obvious missing legs and the bottom of the bronze Buddha, which would never have appeared in ancient times, and it appears here, I'm afraid it was for the purpose of sealing the steel seal in the first place!"

Speaking here, Lin Ran said with a faint smile.

"In order to make this bronze Buddha more like a treasure, they didn't leave the steel seal, but they did leave the location where the steel seal was to be struck, which was the first break, and the second break was the absence of this crane leg!"

After saying that, Lin Ran looked at Li Wan San and Li Tang and laughed.

“And do you think about it, although Wandering Pawn is very strong, but this is after all their company, a place with a very high flow of people, if it was a precious item, it would be very unsafe to put it here, that’s why they made a fake one!”

“But for the sake of their Wandering Trading Firm’s reputation, they didn’t dare to use a fake that was too inferior, so they came up with this high imitation, and I’m afraid that the breakage below is something they purposely left for their own convenience to differentiate, between the precious and the fake!”

Lin Ran said a lot in one breath, making Li Wan San and his father and son dumbfounded as they listened, they did not expect Lin Ran to think so much in such a short period of time, and to be so comprehensive.

“The little divine doctor is really something!”

Li Tang couldn’t help but exclaim, and even Li Wansan couldn’t help but give a thumbs up.

“How about it, I told you that the Little Divine Doctor can do anything!”

The more powerful Lin Ran showed his abilities, the happier he was, after all, it would only do him good to have such a powerful friend.

When he thought of this, Luo Cheng was glad that the conflict with Lin Ran had not intensified, otherwise he would have missed out on such a good friend, just like Liu Xuan.

“Attention everyone who is attending the auction, the auction will start soon, please take your seats.”

While the crowd was talking, a voice did ring out.

Lin Ran and the others looked at each other, and then Li Sanwan smiled and said.

“Since we’re here, let’s all take our seats together, maybe little friend Lin Ran can shine today!”

“Lao San, you’re afraid you don’t want little friend Lin Ran to help you with your eyes, I can tell you, little friend Lin Ran’s appearance fee is very high, helping you is fine, at least you have to treat us to a meal at a five star hotel!”

Luo Cheng laughed.

Li Wansan shook his head with a smile and said.

"You kid, am I, Li Wan San, lacking in this amount of money? What I lack is long insight!"

"Haha!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but laugh as well at his words.

The four of them quickly took their seats, and the lights in the entire hall brightened up at once.

Soon Lin Ran noticed that at the front of the entire hall, a small stage had actually risen, and a curvaceous beauty had appeared on the stage.

She was wearing a classical cheongsam, and her already shapely figure was outlined in a mouth-watering way.

And in front of her stood, side by side, five carved Chinese white jade pillars, each with a large metal bowl clasped to it, and it was clear that the item up for auction today was underneath these five large bowls.

"All right, everyone, there are still only five lots today, and as advertised before, they are all rare medicinal herbs.

The beautiful lady said a simple sentence and immediately sparked the atmosphere of the scene, Wandering Pawn did a very good job of getting straight to the point and saving time.

Under the operation of the beautiful host, the big metal bowl of the first lot was soon unveiled.

At once, everyone saw that on the tray below, there was a crystal clear fruit, which was milky white in colour and the size of a dragon fruit, making people salivate and want to take a bite.

"The first lot is the Ice Dragon Fruit, which was picked from the Ice Dragon Snow Mountain just yesterday!"

The beautiful host made a very short introduction and did not say anything about the effects of the fruit.

This was not because she was negligent, but it was the rule of Wandering Pawn, when auctioning something at Wandering Pawn, they would never say a lot of information about the product, it was all based on their own eyesight.

As Wandering Pawn had already introduced, this was a special auction of medicinal herbs, and naturally the herbs for sale were medicinal herbs, but as to how the herbs were, and whether they were real or not, it was entirely up to the bidders to decide for themselves.

“Okay, the starting price for the Ice Dragon Fruit is thirty thousand, each time the bid is raised, it cannot be less than one thousand, now the bidding begins!”

The beautiful host said with a smile.

“I bid forty thousand!”

“Forty-five thousand!”

“Forty-six thousand!”

As the beautiful host’s words fell, the atmosphere immediately rose to a high level, and countless people began to raise their bids frantically.

“Sixty thousand!”

When the price was fixed at fifty thousand, Li Wansan suddenly opened his mouth and added ten thousand directly.

At once, everyone’s eyes looked over.

Although this ice dragon fruit was rare, it was a modern herb after all, and could be obtained if one waited patiently, and the market price was only around 40,000 to 50,000.

Li Wansan, however, did not care and said with a smile.

“This Ice Dragon Fruit is said to be able to remove dead flesh and create white bones, and is very effective in replenishing the essence of the elderly, this is something that I am determined to get!”

Lin Ran nodded secretly at his words, he understood that this Li Wansan wanted to buy it for his father to consume, the normally shrewd businessman was just a filial son at this moment.

Li Wansan’s action made Lin Ran very appreciative as he smiled and spoke.

“If there are still bids, brother Wan San might as well let go of this item, the next lot will definitely be better than this one and more suitable for the old man’s health!”

When Li Wansan heard this, he looked at Lin Ran with a light in his eyes, he didn't expect that Lin Ran would actually be willing to help him, so he was immediately happy and nodded his head at once.

"Good!"

"Sixty-one thousand!"

As the two were talking, someone really did bid again, only this voice sounded somewhat familiar.

"Bastard, it's Liu Xuan!"

Luo Cheng whispered from the side, Liu Xuan's voice was too familiar to him.

"It's alright!"

Lin Ran laughed lightly.

Li Wansan was originally determined to win, but hearing Lin Ran's words just now, he still dismissed the idea of continuing to raise the price.

But just as Li Wansan was about to give up, Lin Ran suddenly spoke up.

"Seventy thousand!"

"Little divine Doctor, you ...."

Li Wansan was a little confused, and Li Tang and Luo Cheng looked at Lin Ran with equal surprise.

"Don't worry, he will continue to increase it!"

Lin Ran, however, smiled blandly.

"You!"

Luo Cheng seemed to have thought of something, and a hint of brightness could not help but appear in his eyes as he looked in the direction where Liu Xuan was, with a wonderful smile on his face.

Liu Xuan was looking at the direction where Lin Ran was at this moment with a face full of disdain, this Ice Dragon Fruit was of no use to him at all, and the only reason for bidding was to frustrate Lin Ran and the others, to show them who was the real boss in this Wandering Pawnshop.

“Seventy thousand, it’s nothing to me at all!”

Liu Xuan smiled blandly and once again raised his bid-raising card.

“Eighty thousand! Someone has bid up to eighty thousand, but there is a higher bid!”

The beautiful host on stage could not sit still, usually an Ice Dragon Fruit was only 50,000 at most, but today it was actually 30,000 more directly, which made her very surprised.

“Eighty thousand once!”

The beautiful host waited for a moment and when she saw that no one had raised the price, she couldn’t help but say.

“Eighty thousand twice!”

The beautiful host continued, and still no one raised the bid.

At this moment, Li Wansan could see that Lin Ran was drinking water from his cup of tea and had no intention of raising the price.

He did not know what Lin Ran was doing with this hand.

“Liu Xuan and Lin Ran have a problem, just now this kid raised the price over you, Lin Ran just raised the price a bit, deliberately angry with him!”

Luo Cheng explained from the side, and only then did Li Wansan suddenly wake up.

“It’s just as well to be angry, this Wandering Pawn is all owned by their family, money can’t really be helped.”

Lin Ran laughed and shook his head.

Liu Xuan on one side saw that Lin Ran did not raise the price, his heart could not help but be a little angry, looking at Lin Ran’s side before he raised the price decisively, he expected that Lin Ran they must be determined to win, who knew that he raised the price twice and then put it and did not follow, this made him feel like being teased.

“Good boy, we’ll see about that!”

Liu Xuan’s face sank and he leaned back in his chair and stopped talking, the money was not lost, but he just couldn’t swallow the anger.

“Eighty thousand three times, no one raises the bid, the bidding is over!”

With the last hammer falling from the beautiful host, the bidding for the Ice Dragon Fruit finally came to an end.

“Ai, Xuan’er is still too young, he’s impatient!”

On one side, Liu Dingtian watched with a slight frown, and then couldn’t help but sigh.

“Don’t worry, Xuan’er is still angry with Lin Ran, it’s good to learn a lesson this time, you’ve spoiled him since he was young, it’s not a good thing for him to experience this now.”

“Mm!”

Liu Dingtian nodded at his words, and then looked in Lin Ran’s direction, a complicated look in his eyes.

“Alright, the second lot will start here!”

Along with the beautiful host person’s words, the second metal lid was instantly uncovered.

“This is!”

Seeing what was under the second metal lid, everyone instantly revealed a puzzled look.

They saw that on the second tray, a palm-sized lump was quietly placed, just like a steak, but it was half white and half red, and looked somewhat like a piece of meat.

“This is Red Flame Condensation, those who need it can begin, the starting bid is ten thousand, each increase must not be less than one thousand!”

“I bid ten thousand!”

“Eleven thousand!”

“Twelve thousand!”

With the same beautiful host’s words, the bidding began again.

But this time, it was obvious that many people were not interested, and only a few people raised their bids.

“Little friend Lin Ran, what should we do?”

Li Wansan looked towards Lin Ran, wanting to see what he had to say.

He had listened to Lin Ran's advice to give up on the last Ice Dragon Fruit, and he was also waiting for Lin Ran's decision on the Red Flame Condensation this time.

"Directly bid 30,000!"

Lin Ran sipped his water and said confidently.

"Thirty... Thirty thousand!"

Li Wansan was a little surprised, he knew about this Red Flame Condensation, the market price was only around thirty thousand, even if he offered thirty thousand to buy it back it would only be no loss but no profit!

"Yes! That's 30,000!"

Lin Ran was still sipping his tea confidently.

Seeing this, Li Wansan sighed and was very puzzled, but as things had come to this point, he naturally had no reason to backtrack, so he immediately gritted his teeth and quoted a price of 30,000.

"Thirty thousand! First time, is there any more bids?"

The beautiful host laughed.

Liu Xuan on the side looked in the direction where Lin Ran and the others were with interest and a teasing look on his face.

"Trying to shade me again, just because I'm an idiot!"

Liu Xuan spared interest, but did not follow, the last time he followed the price, the other party directly put to give up, although on the surface is his own get the thing, but he knew, as long as he bought it, basically means that the thing is aborted, after all, his own family's industry, and he does not need to give money, not sold to others, belong to their own deficit.

"Thirty thousand three times, sold!"

The beautiful host soon dropped the hammer.

Seeing that he had actually bought it for thirty thousand, Li Wansan could not help but sigh in relief and look at Lin Ran as he asked.

"Little divine Doctor, can this really replace the Ice Dragon Fruit? My father's body ....."

"Don't worry, this thing is definitely more suitable for the old man than the Ice Dragon Fruit!"

Lin Ran laughed lightly, and then smiled as he saw that Li Wansan still seemed unsure.

“You know Old Master Li’s situation, his body is stagnant with herbal medicines, and the white part of the red indignant condensation is a great way to dissolve the poison of herbal medicines.”

“And the red indignant red inflammation can tone the body and restore it to its original state!”

“Is it that amazing?”

Luo Cheng listened to the clouds, he had never heard of this red inflammation condensation at all.

“It’s that magical, the toxicity of herbal medicine is Yin, the Red Flame part can remove these Yin Qi very well!”

“One yin, one yang, one detoxification, one consolidation, of these five items today, this is the only one most suitable for Old Master Li!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

Li Wansan, however, had already listened with excitement.

Lin Ran was a little divine doctor, and he had said that this item was most suitable for his old man, so how could Li Wansan not believe him.

The price was generally cheaper than the Ice Dragon Fruit, but the effect was the best. This result confirmed what Li Wansan wanted, and at this moment, he admired Lin Ran even more.

“This son is truly extraordinary!”

From afar Liu Mu couldn’t help but nod his head and say.

Liu Dingtian smiled a little puzzled and asked.

“Uncle Mu, what does that mean?”

Liu Mu smiled as he glanced at him and laughed.

“I heard from a friend that this Li Wansan’s old man is sick, and the ice dragon fruit he grabbed just now was supposed to be for his old man!”

“But it was snatched by Xuan’er, and I’m afraid this Red Flame Condensation is the target they wanted, the last one was just a deliberate bait to raise the price.”

“Unfortunately, Xuan’er still fell for it!”

Liu Mu sighed, the gaze in his eyes towards Lin Ran was already changing quietly.

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 108

/ Wonder Doctor
"Bastard!"

Liu Xuan originally did not know that this Red Flame Condensation was the target of Lin Ran and the others, but when he saw Li Wansan's surprised look after getting the item, it was immediately clear in his mind that he had been fooled again.

"I'll make sure you guys look good next!"

Liu Xuan's face was grim, and he grasped the teacups in his hands with a loud bang.

Li Wansan was happy to have bought what he wanted, so he was not interested in the next item, but seeing that his old man seemed to be interested, he patiently continued to look at the next item.

The third lot was a nine-leaf snow lotus, which was as rare as the ice dragon fruit, but much more powerful than the former.

However, this herb was very difficult to preserve and the prices on the market were uneven, so in the end Li Tang only made two tentative bids before giving up.

They had been selling Chinese herbs for generations, a kind of merchant's trade, and seeing that there was no profit to be made, they naturally gave up.

The fourth item, on the other hand, was something that no one had expected, it was actually a piece of amber herbal medicine.

The whole piece of amber was only the size of a palm, and the ginseng was even smaller than a palm.

This kind of thing is technically no longer considered in the category of herbal medicine, it should be considered in the category of antiques, but modern technology is so advanced that it can be completely stripped out of the amber, so it was brought hard to the auction stage.

"This amber ginseng, the starting bid is one hundred thousand dollars, each increase must not be less than five thousand!"

The beautiful host laughed.

“One hundred thousand ..... Wandering Pawn is crazy!”

When Li Wansan heard the price, he was speechless.

A good ginseng could not be sold for 100,000 unless it was a thousand year old ginseng, but the ginseng inside this amber was only the size of a palm, at all that could not be considered a good thousand year old ginseng, this price was simply a pitfall.

“Wan San, this is where you are wrong!”

Suddenly, Li Tang on one side spoke up, with a smile on his face and green beard.

“This kind of ginseng is at least thousands of years old, what Wandering Merchant Company sells is not the value of the ginseng, but the overall value, this thing is not difficult to buy back for collection, when you meet a destined person, it is not difficult to double the price, but the difficulty lies in, this destined person!”

“But this thing ..... Is it really worth that much?”

Even if amber ginseng is very rare, it should not be worth that much. 100,000 is enough to open a shop.

Li Tang shook his head at his words and laughed.

“The value of something is not in what it is, but in its preciousness. This kind of amber ginseng will never be opened by the buyer unless he meets a fool, as long as he puts it at home and waits for the right person to come to his door it is definitely a sure profit!”

“Father, then we should buy it?”

Li Wansan asked.

“No!”

Li Tang shook his head and said with a smile.

“We are businessmen, not investors, this kind of thing is not for us.”

Lin Ran listened genuinely from the side, there was nothing wrong with what Elder Li said, this item did need to wait for the right person, ordinary people really couldn't appreciate it.

In the end, this lot was bought by a Hong Kong businessman with a large body.

As Lin Ran and the others did not bid on this lot at all, Liu Xuan naturally did not get involved, his goal this time was to mess up for Lin Ran.

"It's coming to the last piece!"

On one side, Liu Mu opened his mouth and said.

Liu Dingtian heard but looked tense, his gaze fixed deadly on the last lot on the stage, anticipation and eagerness in his eyes as he whispered to himself.

"Shu Yi's illness can be cured or not, just look at the things!"

"All right! This is our last lot of the day!"

On the stage, the beautiful host laughed and whirled around to remove the metal lid, instantly revealing what was inside.

"Holy shit! What is this thing!"

"It looks like a statue!"

"It's not a statue, it looks like a stone shaped foreign stone!"

Seeing what was on the tray, the crowd speculated.

Lin Ran and the others likewise looked and found that there was actually a strange piece of something about ten centimeters lying on it.

The surface of the object was green and looked as if it was covered in moss, and the overall material looked like a stone, but they couldn't decide whether it was a stone or something else.

With a smile on her face, the beautiful host stared for a moment, seeing that everyone was already confused, before smiling and explaining.

"This thing, called bone covered gold, is said to have been found from inside a huge crocodile abroad!"

"As we all know, crocodiles are known as modern dragons, creatures that are related to ancient dinosaurs, and this bone-covered gold was found inside an ancestral crocodile!"

As she spoke, the beautiful host observed the crowd's expressions, and when she saw that everyone seemed to have little interest, she immediately laughed and said.

"According to the information that we at Wandering Pawn had before, this piece of bone-covered gold probably has a fist-sized piece of crocodile paste inside it!"

“What? Crocodile paste?”

When they heard the words “crocodile paste”, everyone was immediately interested, their eyes glowing as if they had been beaten with chicken blood.

All the people present were proficient in herbal medicine and had heard of this crocodile cream.

“Yes! But we at Wandering Pawn have followed the wishes of our guests and decided to open the bidding, but of course, we at Wandering do not guarantee whether there is crocodile paste in it or not!”

The beautiful host laughed, then he looked to the crowd and spoke with a wave of his hand.

“This auction is too precious, the starting price is 500,000 yuan, each time the bid is raised, it must not be less than 10,000 yuan, and there is one requirement, the person who bids for it, must cut it open on the spot!”

As soon as the beautiful host said this, the bidders were not happy, and several of them stood up and said.

“Isn’t that a bullying clause? Why do we have to cut it open on the spot? In case there’s nothing inside, won’t we be slapped in the face!”

“That’s right, if you buy it, it’s your own, why do you have to cut it open on the spot!”

The beautiful host’s face changed and she said with a smile.

“This is Wandering’s rule, so please cooperate!”

“Co-operation? When did Wandering have this rule, how come I don’t know it!”

“Exactly!”

The two men who stood up were obviously a little upset, how could they sell something and then have to cut it open on the spot, there were so many people here, if there was really crocodile paste inside, wouldn’t they be exposing themselves.

These people have been in society for many years, and they all understand the principle of not revealing their wealth.

“That’s enough!”

Liu Xuan saw what was really going on and got up and chided.

“Talking to tell you guys, the reason why this thing has to be cut on the spot is because the seller’s request is like this, you can not buy it if you think it is unreasonable, but we must comply with the seller’s request, otherwise where else would people come to us to auction something?”

“You!”

Liu Xuan’s words rendered these two people speechless.

For an auction pawn company, the most important thing was not the guests, but the employer. As long as there were good goods, there was no worry about finding people to buy them, but the fact that good goods were hard to find was the most important thing.

A silence fell over the room and no one spoke up. Although this item might have crocodile paste inside, if they really bought it and opened it on the spot, they would probably not even be able to take it with them, and this was their greatest fear!

However, just when everyone didn’t know whether to make a bid or not, suddenly Lin Ran was the one who stood up and said with a smile.

“Since everyone is so polite, I’ll pay half a million for this item!”

“Half a million? Kid, are you out for a laugh?”

One of the bidders got up and laughed, and when he saw Lin Ran’s outfit, he couldn’t help but laugh.

“It’s really out for a laugh, I’ll bid 700,000!”

“Eight hundred thousand!”

Lin Ran continued.

When the other party heard this, his face couldn’t help but sink as he chided.

“One million!”

“Two million!”

Lin Ran followed suit, this made Luo Cheng as well as Master Li Wansan look baffled, why was Lin Ran suddenly so gung-ho, was there really crocodile cream inside?

“Little miracle doctor, are you crazy, buying a piece of this for 2 million? What if there’s nothing in it, wouldn’t it be a loss!”

Luo Cheng asked anxiously from the side.

Lin Ran, however, smiled faintly and didn’t say much, still looking at the people around him with burning eyes.

It was just like gambling on a stone, some people thought it was worth a million, but others thought it was worth nothing, because no one could be sure what was inside and whether there was a crocodile cream worth a lot of money.

“I bid while two and a half million!”

Liu Xuan suddenly stood up and looked at Lin Ran with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth.

No one had noticed him before, and after what had just happened, everyone recognised the gentry, and one by one, their faces turned odd as they thought to themselves.

“Your family runs the auctions and you’re here to bid again, you really have had enough, why do you want it and still bring it out, just negotiate a price with the seller and buy it!”

But soon, someone noticed that something was wrong, this Liu Xuan seemed to be targeting Lin Ran, the two previous auctions, when he bid, it was after Lin Ran called for a price, it seemed that these two had a conflict.

In response to the crowd’s speculation, Lin Ran was unconcerned as he looked at Liu Xuan with a smile and said.

“Since Brother Liu Xuan is also interested, let’s do it together, I’ll bid three million!”

“Four million!”

Liu Xuan continued to raise his bid.

“Nonsense!”

Liu Dingtian on the other side was looking grim and scolded, and immediately took out his mobile phone and called.

This thing was a matter of his daughter-in-law Qin Shuang's life, so how could he not be nervous.

"Bastard, stop it right now or I will immediately cut off relations with you!"

Liu Dingtian scolded.

Liu Xuan was stunned at his words and asked with a gloomy face.

"Why!"

Liu Dingtian gritted his teeth and scolded.

"What do you know, if there is really crocodile cream inside this thing that can save your mother's life, if you've made enough trouble then get back to me, if you mess up the auction, I'll directly expel you from the Liu family!"

Liu Xuan was stunned at his words and his face became even uglier as he scolded in a low voice.

"Then why don't you just buy it back, half a million dollars and you're using it for auction, do you have any humanity left!"

"Shut up, you little brat, what do you know!"

Liu Dingtian was dying of anger, if he could buy it back directly, he would have paid ten times the price to buy it back, but the seller was too big, and he had to bid for it by name, so he dared not do anything rash.

Once he did so, not to mention not getting the item, even their Liu family might suffer the calamity of extinction.

"You'd better give me an explanation!"

Liu Xuan chided, and promptly hung up the phone.

"I'll be back to play with you later!"

Liu Xuan dropped a sentence and whirled away from the bidding arena.

Lin Ran, however, was indifferent, his face not showing the slightest rise or fall in expression.

"Four and a half million!"

Lin Ran suddenly spoke.

Only then was the crowd's attention drawn back to the merchandise.

The beautiful host laughed at the situation and said.

“Is there a higher price than this?”

As the voice fell, no one raised their bid for a long time, and just as the beautiful host was about to count down, a voice suddenly rang out.

“Five million!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look and found that it was the same youth who had looked down on him at the beginning, so he couldn't help but frown slightly.

“Kid, you really like this bone covered gold, so raise the price!”

The other party looked at Lin Ran and laughed, his eyes full of teasing.

“Little divine Doctor, this guy is deliberately raising the price to make you spend more money!”

Luo Cheng warned from the side.

Where Lin Ran was not clear about the other party's intentions, he smiled and nodded before speaking.

“Five and a half million!”

“This friend, if you like it, by all means raise the price, this is my maximum offer, take it if you like!”

After saying that, Lin Ran directly did so on his butt.

Five and a half million dollars for a piece of bone covered gold, this had to be said to be a great loss, no one knew whether there was crocodile paste in it or not, and even if there was, how much was the quantity, this was all unknown.

In their opinion, it was almost hopeless to make money from this piece of bone-covered gold, but it was very hopeful to lose money.

“Haha, joking, I'm just joining in the fun, since my friend likes it, just take it, but don't cry your eyes out when you open it later!”

Said the youth also did down, obviously giving up.

“Do you know this person?”

Lin Ran asked as he turned to look at Luo Cheng.

Luo Cheng shook his head at his words, but Li Wansan, who was on the side, came over and spoke.

"I know him, his name is Huaiking, his family is in the business of exporting herbs, and he has some friendships with Liu Xuan!"

"Hmm!"

Lin Ran nodded, no wonder this guy was hostile towards himself, it turned out that he and Liu Xuan were in the same boat.

"Five and a half million, last time! Sold!"

As the beautiful host's final cry fell, the bone-covered gold was finally bought by Lin Ran.

And at this point, Luo Cheng finally voiced the doubt in his heart.

"Ah Little Divine Doctor, are you sure that there's really crocodile paste inside when you're dropping so much money on this item?"

Lin Ran shook his head and laughed.

"Not sure, just certain, exactly how much is inside can only be seen after cutting it open!"

Lin Ran laughed, seeing this bone covered gold before, he had a premonition that there was definitely something inside.

According to the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, his ancestor had seen this bone covered gold several times before, and on two of those occasions, he had found crocodile paste inside.

It was based on these two experiences and after comparing it with this piece of bone-covered gold in front of him that Lin Ran decided he was ready to give it a try.

"The item has been sold, we will open it on site next, buyers please be patient!"

The beautiful host said with a smile.

Soon there were two professionals walking up with instruments, since it was going to be opened, it must be opened in public, otherwise no one would know what was inside after Miles opened it and was privy to it.

Huaiking smiled at this point and stood up, looking at Lin Ran and said.

"Brother, I really admire you, how to smash in 5.5 million, if you can't open something later, I'm afraid you'll go out lying down!"

“Then I don’t need to bother you much brother!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

A single word topped off Huaiking’s speechlessness.

“Humph! Then we’ll see about that!”

Huai King snorted coldly and then sat down without saying a word.

At this moment, everyone’s eyes fell on the stage, where two staff members were carefully cutting the bone-covered gold.

Soon the outermost layer had been cut off, revealing the inner layer.

But to the crowd’s surprise, the inner layer was actually the same colour as the outside, and some of them immediately turned their eyes towards Lin Ran.

This layer was three or four centimetres thick, so even if there was crocodile paste inside, the amount would not be too much, and it was already very good to get back the money.

When Huaiking saw this, he laughed and stood up to look at Lin Ran and said.

“Kid, are you panicking? I feel panic for you, over five million is about to go down the drain!”

“Dry tongue!”

Lin Ran looked at him and scolded, then got up and walked towards the stage.

“You, Mr. Lin?”

The beautiful host saw Lin Ran come up and couldn’t help but frown slightly, at this point the cutting hadn’t even finished!

“I’ll do it myself!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You’re coming in person?”

The pretty host was a little surprised, this kind of cutting was all fine work, and this young man in front of him didn’t look like someone who could cut.

Huaiking couldn’t help but laugh at the situation on the side.

“I say beauty, you just let people come personally, spent five and a half million, only to let you cut open inside nothing, you say the injustice who can bear!”

“Uh ...”

The beautiful host was dumbfounded and looked to one side where Liu Dingtian was, and seeing that the latter did not object, she signaled the staff to hand the tools to Lin Ran.

Seeing this, Huaiking smiled and said.

“Kid, do you want me to call the emergency number for you first? I’m afraid you’ll go into shock from anger later!”

“No, but I do suggest you book an ophthalmology appointment first, so you can go see an ophthalmologist later!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Haha! Big talk, I’d like to see what kind of golden phoenix you can open with this bone covered gold today, if something this fart-sized can open a crocodile cream worth five and a half million dollars, I’ll recognize you as my father on the spot!”

Huaiking sneered.

His family has been in the business of exporting herbs for years, and he has seen this kind of bone-covered gold a few times, but none of them could open anything, and in his opinion, even his professional herbalists did not have that kind of luck.

Let alone this poor boy in rags in front of him, if he could open the crocodile paste, I’m afraid he would have to wait until his next life.

“Are you serious?”

Lin Ran turned around, and a hint of interest finally appeared on his presumably non-wavy face.

Seeing this sudden change in Lin Ran, Huai King’s heart couldn’t help but tighten, could this guy really be able to open something of immense value?

“Bah! I don’t believe it, this kid must be scaring me!”

Huaiking's heart quickly calmed down as he looked at Lin Ran and sneered.

"Naturally, I'm serious, but what if you can't open it? Be my son don't you dare!"

"Yes!"

Lin Ran laughed, then turned around and without saying a word, he picked up the cutting blade in his hand and slashed it directly at the bone-covered gold.

The next moment, the blade, which was as deep as the palm of his hand, had already sunk into it, and all he had to do was lift it up, and the bone-covered gold would turn into two pieces.

Everyone looked at Lin Ran like a fool, even Li Wansan and Li Tang regretted that they hadn't gone up to stop him.

Huai King even jumped straight up and pointed at Lin Ran, laughing.

"You're a fucking idiot, now even if there's crocodile paste in there, it's not worth a fucking penny, don't you know that crocodile paste can't be destroyed? It's only worth money when it's whole, you stupid bastard!"

Lin Ran did not have any expression on his face, calmly looking at Huai King, already the strange looks cast by the others, while his palm was slowly pulling the blade out.

Everyone held their breath, wanting to see if there was crocodile paste inside or not.

But after Lin Ran's palm pulled back the blade, the bone covered gold was not cracked from the middle, this scene made the crowd couldn't help but be a little disappointed.

"Kid, why are you still standing there! Open up! What's the matter is it quit?"

Huaiking looked at Lin Ran with triumph, his words couldn't even print the smug look on his face.

"Why are you in a hurry? Is it a lack of fatherly love?"

Lin Ran turned around and said with a calm face.

The moment these words left his mouth, they caused the crowd to burst into laughter.

Wycking's face was ugly as he stared at Lin Ran and said in a cold voice.

"Sharp teeth, I'd like to see who cries out to who for daddy when we open it later!"

In the distance, Liu Dingtian looked tense, and Liu Xuan, who was still looking ugly on the side, did not dare to make a sound to disturb him, as he was at a loss to understand in his mind why his old man did not just buy this bone covered gold.

“Uncle Mu, with your vision, will there be crocodile paste in this?”

Liu Dingtian suddenly looked at Liu Mu and asked.

“It’s hard to say, I don’t understand this kid’s strength, but judging from the speed of his knife just now, I’m afraid there won’t be any inside in nine out of ten!”

Liu Mu said.

Liu Dingtian’s face changed at his words and he was a little disappointed.

“I really hope there’s one in there!”

He had hired a famous doctor and wanted to treat his wife’s illness and needed crocodile paste, so he searched for it all over the place, so he could easily come across it here, but Liu Mu was the one who said that there was none inside in nine out of ten cases, which made it a little hard for him to accept for a while.

“Don’t be anxious, maybe it’s because my old eyes are dizzy, that kid has already cut open the bone-covered gold, it will naturally be clear later!”

Liu Mu spoke up and comforted.

Liu Dingtian nodded, gathered his emotions and waited patiently.

“Kid, if you don’t dare to open it, just say so, I can help you, so dryly waiting to whet everyone’s appetite, do you really think everyone is idle?”

After waiting for a moment and not seeing Lin Ran open the bone packet of gold, Huaiking was not the time to stand out and taunt.

“I don’t know if everyone is idle or not, but I think you are quite idle!”

Lin Ran smiled at him and whirled around.

“Get lost if you’re tired of waiting, it’s not like anyone is forcing you to stay!”

“You!”

Wycking’s face was grim, he found himself verbally taking the slightest advantage of Bu.

"You can be proud of yourself for a while, later on when you open it without the crocodile cream inside I'll see how you get off!"

As he thought in his heart, a cold smile appeared on Wycking's face.

The situation today, which of the people present did not know clearly, this bone wrapped gold is a hot potato, the scene does not open okay, once opened, want to return to the whole body is more than the sky.

Even if there was crocodile paste inside, it would not be easy to take it away.

There were many pairs of eyes outside the auction hall, and once they received the signal, I was afraid that the moment Lin Ran went out with the crocodile cream, countless people would come out and grab it.

This is also the reason why those present did not rush to make a bid, but instead waited and saw what would happen.

Just because you bought it didn't necessarily mean you could own it; in the end, it all depended on the strength of the buyer.

"Strength? Dressed like this, you can have strength? What a joke!"

Huaiking's mouth was tinged with a cold smile.

Suddenly, just as the crowd was speculating on what Lin Ran would do to open the bone wrapped gold, this guy was speaking out in a shocking manner.

"Everyone, I wish to bid on the crocodile paste in this bone-covered gold, again in an auction situation!"

Lin Ran said, suddenly turning to look at the beautiful host on one side and smiling.

"I wonder, can your Wandering Pawn take this deal?"

The beautiful host was stunned, then laughed.

"Naturally, but you have to open it first and make sure that there is really crocodile paste inside."

"That's natural!"

Lin Ran laughed.

Huaiking laughed similarly at his words.

“Kid, even if there really is crocodile paste inside, it’s all broken by you, it’s not worth anything, at most it’s sold by the pound, and you still want to auction it off? You’re out of your mind!”

“O? Is that so?”

Lin Ran smiled, and then directly picked up the bone covered gold, only to hear a “click”, and directly broke it into two pieces.

When the crowd saw what was inside the bone wrapped gold, they were all stunned.

Huai King’s mouth grew wide in surprise, and his face felt hot.

Inside those two pieces of bone-covered gold, there were actually two complete pieces of crocodile paste, even clearly and exceptionally completed, sweetly a pair of twin crocodile pastes.

“Damn, this salted fish actually really turned over!”

Huaiking couldn’t help but curse.
