“Haha, it really seems to be getting old and unconvincing!”

Liu Mu laughed as he greened his beard.

Liu Dingtian, however, had already gone straight down heavily to the bidding arena, this pair of crocodile cream he was bound to get.

“Grandpa Liu, my father him?”

Liu Xuan didn't follow down and asked Liu Mu with a puzzled face.

“The seller is very powerful, your father doesn't dare to buy it privately, so he can only resort to this.”

Liu Mu explained with a smile, then looked at Liu Xuan and said.

“Xuan'er, now you believe in my words, this Lin Ran is definitely someone who possesses real skills, the grudge is not deep, it is better to settle it as early as possible!”

Saying that, Liu Mu turned around and left, leaving Liu Xuan alone and baffled in the same place.

“People with real abilities?”

There was some hesitation in Liu Xuan's heart, he really did not believe that Lin Ran could be someone with real ability, but this scene in front of him was real.

“It's better to be observing and watching!”

Liu Xuan thought in his mind, anyway, the grudge was already there, the big deal was that he would stop first and see how this kid would develop.

At this moment in the bidding arena, after a long period of silence, followed by an uproar, everyone was attracted by the two pieces of bone covered gold in Lin Ran's hand.

“Cao, this is actually Yin Yang crocodile paste, this kid stepped in shit this morning!”

“That's right, it's fucking shit luck!”

"I opened two pieces of bone-covered gold in a row last time and didn't even get a hair, is this kid human!"

Everyone looked at Lin Ran with red eyes.

Under normal circumstances, the chances of a piece of bone wrapped gold opening a crocodile cream were very slim, let alone a piece of bone wrapped gold opening a yin and yang crocodile cream, that was as slim as winning a lottery ticket.

"Yin and Yang crocodile cream, two pieces in one, the little divine doctor is really no ordinary person, I'm afraid this will sell for astronomical figures!"

Li Tang's face was envious, but at the same time he was glad that he and Lin Ran were friends, if they had become enemies, I'm afraid they would have had a headache.

"How about it, I told you that the little divine doctor is not an ordinary man!"

Luo Cheng laughed smugly, as if he was the one who had prescribed the bone-covered gold.

On the other hand, Li Wansan on one side was equally dumbfounded, his mouth grew in surprise and he didn't say anything for a long time.

He had been worried about Lin Ran before, but now when he thought about it, it all seemed superfluous, as he had already made up his mind.

"Duke Huai, why is there something wrong at home!"

Suddenly, Lin Ran, who was standing on the stage, spoke up.

Everyone looked at Huaiking, only to see him at this time grayly trying to bolt, at this time by the crowd to take a look, feel the face hot and hot.

"I A bit of a stomach ache!"

The first thing I did was to help Liu Xuan out, but I didn't think I'd be embarrassed now.

Lin Ran looked at Huaiking felt funny and said.

"A stomachache is not that bad for a second or two, come on, I'm waiting!"

"You!"

Huaiking was so angry that his cheeks turned blue, there were so many people present, asking him to call Lin Ran dad, how could he stand it.

Just as Huaiking was thinking about how to untie the situation in his mind, Liu Dingtian and Liu Xuan arrived at the bidding arena one after the other, seeing Liu Xuan, he was relieved and hurriedly padded over.

“Brother Xuan, help me out!”

Huaiking said hurriedly, but Liu Xuan, with a cold gaze, gave him a look and said.

“How can I help you when you made the bet yourself, shout hard!”

Liu Xuan said, he was not allowed to be dealt with Lin Ran for the time being, so naturally he could not help Huaiking.

“You!”

Huaiking’s face was blue and he said in a deep voice.

“I just did it to help you, unloading you are not going too far!”

“Did I ask you to help me?”

Liu Xuan said blandly.

“You! Good! Good for you Liu Xuan, I, Huai King, am really blind to call you a brother!”

Huai King was so angry that his face turned blue, and he was also bloody, as he turned around and shouted at Lin Ran.

“I admit to having fallen into your hands today, don’t be complacent either, if you offend me, I’ll have plenty of ways to deal with you!”

Huaiking shouted coldly, and immediately turned around and was about to leave.

“Wait, you’re leaving after a harsh word? That bet doesn’t count? It’s up to you how you want to deal with me, but first settle today’s account!”

Lin Ran chided in a cold voice.

Wycking’s face grew gloomier and gloomier as he looked at Lin Ran and said in a deep voice.

“You really want to make an enemy of me? You’ll regret it!”

“That’s my business!”

Lin Ran’s face was bland.

“Fine! Good!”

Wycking shouted twice in a row, but his face was already green enough to drip water, he looked at Lin Ran, hesitated for a moment, and finally shouted out.

“Dad!”

“Bah! I don’t care to have a loser son like you! Get lost!”

Lin Ran chided, he didn’t have a half-hearted feeling towards people like Huaiking, naturally those who had an axe to grind would avenge and those who had an injustice to hold.

“Little friend Lin Ran, what happened before was my son’s rudeness, I hereby apologise to you for him!”

Liu Dingtian bowed and said, this scene shocked the people present, what kind of status was Liu Dingtian, a person who would make the entire business community in Tanjiang City tremble when he stomped his foot, but now he was apologizing to a university student dressed in rags, it simply made their eyes drop.

“No need!”

Liu Xuan helped Liu Dingtian up and looked at Lin Ran and said.

“It’s my business, I’ll do it myself!”

“It was my fault before, I hope that Brother Lin Ran will be lenient!”

Liu Xuan said with a cold face, he was high-minded and arrogant, although in his heart he did not want to be fighting with Lin Ran, but apologising to the other party, this really made him very unhappy in his heart.

“Forget about the apology, I can’t afford it, besides, this title has to be changed, after all, how can someone of my status call me brother to the Liu family’s grandson.”

Lin Ran said indifferently, but his words were filled with indifference.

The previous attitude of Liu Xuan towards Huaiking had disgusted Lin Ran in his heart, making friends was most taboo, and Liu Xuan had been marked as unsociable in Lin Ran’s impression.

Liu Dingtian naturally saw Lin Ran’s attitude, but now the crocodile cream is the most important thing on his mind, his son and Lin Ran’s relationship, can only wait until later to slowly make up for it.

Thinking of this, Liu Dingtian looked at Lin Ran and said.

“Little friend Lin Ran, I wonder if I can sell this crocodile cream to you, just ask me how much it costs! I will never say anything!”

“Ao? But I’ve already entrusted it to you, Wandering Pawn, so it’s not appropriate to back out now!”

Lin Ran laughed, he didn’t really care how much he sold it for, what he cared about was who he sold it to, it was a matter of whether he could get out of this day.

“No problem!”

Liu Dingtian laughed, and then looked at the bidders and said.

“I, Liu Dingtian, do need this crocodile cream urgently, if you treat me as a friend today, please raise your hand, if you don’t treat me as a friend, afterwards, I, Liu Dingtian, will definitely draw a clear line with you all!”

His words seemed to be polite, but the threat was very strong, and although the crowd was upset, they did not dare to say anything more.

In Tanjiang City, Liu Dingtian and Luo Ming were both at the level of big brothers, and although these people had some at the moment, they did not want to offend these two easily.

“Little friend, make a bid!”

Liu Dingtian was very satisfied when he saw that no one had spoken up, and looked towards Lin Ran and smiled.

“Mr. Liu is really good at this, since that’s the case, then I won’t be polite either.”

Lin Ran’s face showed a bitter smile as he whirled and extended a heeled finger.

“One Ten million?”

“Holy shit, this kid is a lion, he only paid 5.5 million for it, and in the blink of an eye it’s doubled!”

The crowd exclaimed at the sight, because there was no clear price for this crocodile cream, so the crowd could only estimate the price in their minds, exactly how much Lin Ran would want they didn’t know.

But this one, it must be ten million, it could hardly be one million, wouldn't that be a loss!

"Little friend, is this price too too low!"

Liu Dingtian was a smart man and felt that Lin Ran's offer of ten million was indeed a bit low, knowing that this was Yin Yang Crocodile Cream, whose value was immeasurable.

"When did I say 10 million?"

Lin Ran looked at the crowd with a confused look, it didn't seem like he had said he wanted ten million.

"That's one million? Little friend, how can you make me accept this!"

Liu Dingtian felt a little guilty in his heart, but Liu Xuan on the side was smiling and nodding his head.

"Those who know the times are handsome, brother Lin Ran, you have impressed me! In this way one million I'll pay!"

Just when a group of people thought that Lin Ran was prepared to do a favor due to the Liu family's power, Lin Ran looked at Liu Xuan with a gaze that looked at a fool and said.

"You're a fool, right, one million, do you think it's a stall?"

Liu Xuan smiled grimly and said in a deep voice.

"Then you still want ten million!"

"No, no, no!"

Lin Ran shook his head, stretched out his finger and looked at Liu Xuan with a smile, and said.

"One hundred million! I won't sell it for a penny less, big deal, I won't leave today, I'll just eat this crocodile paste myself!"

"You!"

Liu Xuan was instantly furious, one hundred million what kind of joke is that, their Liu family's entire family fortune leaves only a billion or so, to offer one hundred million at once, this is simply a knife in their heart.

"I what I, love to buy or not!"

Lin Ran smiled and took the bone wrapped gold in his hand and said.

"I'll only give you guys a minute to think about it, I'll eat it myself if no one buys it!"

Lin Ran said as he took the knife aside, seemingly ready to scoop out the crocodile paste and eat it himself.

Liu Dingtian looked nervous and hurriedly spoke up.

"Little friend, I'll pay for this! I'll pay!"

"Father! You're crazy!"

Liu Xuan looked at his father, his face full of disbelief.

"I'm not crazy, the money can be earned, but if the person is gone, it's really gone!"

Liu Dingtian looked at Liu Xuan with complicated eyes, in his heart his wife was the most important, but in Liu Xuan's eyes, I'm afraid that money was the most important.

For Liu Dingtian, his life was undoubtedly very successful and the envy of millions, but only he knew that his life was also a great failure because his son was too indifferent and this was the downfall of his life.

"But"

Liu Xuan still wanted to say something else, but the words reached his mouth, but he could not say anything.

Such an astronomical amount has undoubtedly put Liu Dingtian in the spotlight, and the same goes for Lin Ran.

The amount of money was so huge that it was eventually done in private. Lin Ran prepared an empty card and when all the money had arrived, he left through the back door with Li Wansan and the others.

"Little divine Doctor, this has made you completely hot, I'm afraid that many people will soon come to you by name!"

On the way back, Luo Cheng laughed on the side.

His car was arranged to be driven back, and a group of people were all crammed into Li Wansan's car.

"Yes, Little Divine Doctor, you have to hide well, those people are very annoying!"

Li Wansan said again beside conforming, their family had been selling traditional Chinese medicine for generations and had some family wealth, they were usually annoyed enough by those who came to their door to borrow money, invest and look for cooperation, not to mention sudden burgeoning fortunes like Lin Ran.

"Don't worry!"

Lin Ran was fine with this, he lived in a house provided by Song Yujiang, the community was very heavily guarded and strangers could not usually get in, the only thing he needed to worry about was being in the hospital.

"Right little divine doctor, you came to see me today for something?"

Li Wansan suddenly remembered that Lin Ran had come to see him today, so he couldn't help but ask.

"Indeed there is something, the first is to see how the old man's body is recovering, the second is that I want to make a trip to your residence, there are some things I need to investigate!"

Lin Ran said with a smile.

"My house?"

Li Wan San smiled a little surprised, that house of his own had been bought years ago, there was really nothing to see.

"Sanwan, your attitude is not right when a guest comes to your home!"

Li Tang reminded him again, and Li Wansan suddenly dawned on him and hurriedly laughed.

"Hey, look at my brain, I'm really sorry, I really can't wait for the little divine doctor to come here, I'll arrange it right away, arrange it right away!"

Li Wansan smiled and took out his mobile phone, he then hurriedly asked his own mother to cook delicious food and treat Li Ran well.

"Then I can and will have to dine at lunch today!"

Luo Cheng laughed at the side.

Lin Ran originally wanted to refuse, he just wanted to go home to see if there were any clues to the devouring demon pearl, but he didn't expect Li Wansan to be so polite, and with Luo Cheng's concurrence, he really had no way to refuse at this point.

The car arrived at Li Wansan's house quickly and the latter wanted to help, but Lin Ran declined with a smile and looked around the house alone.

Li Wansan's house is not very big, the whole is only square meters, was bought when Li Tang and his wife got married, so many years business is getting bigger and bigger, but the house has not been changed.

Lin Ran first searched the living room kitchen and other places, seeing no clues to the devouring demon beads, before finally arriving at Li Tang's room.

This was the main bedroom of the whole room, and the light was very good. When he first came here, it was because of Master Qi's request that the curtains in the room were covered, and the room was idle and gloomy, but at this time the curtains were open and the light was very bright.

Lin Ran searched the room for a while, but found no clues, helpless, turned around and asked.

"Brother Wan San, I wonder if the house has been infested with rats recently?"

"Rats?"

At Lin Ran's sudden enquiry, Li Wansan was a little surprised, but still thought about it and said.

"Although our neighborhood is a bit old, it's still a good environment, I haven't heard of any infestation of rats."

"No, it's haunted!"

Suddenly Li Tang, who was standing at the side, spoke up.

"I just retired some time ago and handed over the property to Wan San to take care of, at that time this kid was in the company every day and seldom came home, just in those days the house was infested with rats!"

Said Li Tang and took out two bottles of medicine from the side drawer, said.

"For this reason, I even went to buy two bottles of rat poison, but unfortunately, that rat disappeared later, and this medicine was useless!"

Lin Ran nodded at his words, and then turned his gaze towards the floor of the room.

There were dead ends in everyone's house, and these dead ends were not usually cleaned unless they were moved or the furniture was moved.

It was these places that Lin Ran wanted to check at this point, and they were the only places that would leave traces of mice.

He patiently searched everywhere, and sure enough, he soon found rat tracks under Li Tang's bed.

In front of these rat tracks, Lin Ran found a circular trail, which was formed by something covering the floor, so the dust was less than the surrounding area.

Lin Ran took out the devil devouring pearl and compared it, and the size was indeed a smudge.

"It seems that these five poisons are really related to the devouring demon pearl, so it should all be the killer's doing, but what the hell is he doing with these things?"

Lin Ran was a little confused for a while.

Lin Ran did not tell Li Wansan about these things, but only instructed him to tell him if anything unusual happened at home.

Finally, Lin Ran left another jade pendant at Li Wansan's home. This jade pendant was bought from Gu Yu Zhai earlier and was very cheap, but the quality of the jade was very good, only that it was not worth much because of its bad shape and hydration.

These jade pearls were all imbued with some true qi by Lin Ran, so that whenever something evil came near the room, these jade pearls would crack on their own and thus Lin Ran would be able to tell.

Lin Ran had kept one of these jade pendants in his own home and had also given one to Song Nuan at the beginning, but of course these two jade pendants were different from the one he had first given to Elder Luo.

For lunch, Lin Ran and Luo Cheng had to stay behind and ate and drank at the hospitality of Li Wansan.

When it was time to leave, Master Li even invited Lin Ran to come as a guest next time, and Lin Ran could not refuse, so he agreed with a smile.

"Little divine Doctor, where to next?"

Leaving the district, the two of them walked on the road, Luo Cheng asked with a smile.

“Don’t call me Little Divine Doctor, call me Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran said with a smile, Little Divine Doctor always felt strange, his own age wasn’t too young by definition.

“Good! Brother Lin Ran!”

Luo Cheng laughed, he had always wanted to get closer to Lin Ran, at this moment Lin Ran’s words were clearly giving the opportunity.

“I’m going to go near the hospital later!”

Lin Ran said.

“Fine, then I’ll go with you, it’s fine anyway!”

Luo Cheng laughed.

Lin Ran smiled at that and didn’t say anything, where would Luo Cheng be fine in this capacity, I’m afraid that all sorts of training was waiting at home, it’s just that the boy didn’t want to go.

Li Wansan’s family had already been confirmed, there was another place that Lin Ran had to go next to make sure, and that was Xiao Nan’s family.

At the hospital Lin Ran found the fire refining red snake inside him, if he found the same thing at Xiao Nan’s house, then the relationship between the five poisons and this devouring demon pearl would be solid.

The two of them had no words on the way and took a taxi and soon arrived at Xiao Nan’s house.

Upon learning of Lin Ran’s arrival, Mr. and Mrs. Lin Shan couldn’t say how excited they were, after what happened last time, their son Xiao Nan had completely recovered, making them all incomparably grateful to Lin Ran in their hearts.

“Where is Xiao Nan?”

Lin Ran asked as he sat down on the sofa and observed the layout of the house.

“He’s downstairs playing, you guys probably didn’t see him when you came in a hurry! I’ll go get him now!”

Lin Shan smiled and was ready to go out, but Lin Ran waved his hand and said.

“No need, I’m here today mainly to see the room where Xiao Nan lives, as a sort of rehabilitation review!”

Lin Ran laughed, in order to avoid trouble, he simply made up a random reason.

“Good!”

Lin Shan agreed in one breath, if this question had been asked by anyone else, he might have found it strange, how could he need to see the room when he was treating a patient and saving him, but when it was put to Lin Ran he was relieved.

After all, the last time Lin Ran had seen a doctor and saved a person, the methods he used were not quite normal, and at the end, he even said that Xiao Nan had struck an evil spirit, a normal doctor would not say such things.

But no matter what the solution was, they were just happy to be able to cure Xiao Nan’s illness.

Xiao Nan’s room faces south and is well lit. There are lots of toys in the room, and it looks like a child’s room.

“How long has Xiao Nan been studying martial arts under Xue Ding?”

Lin Ran saw the photo on the bedside table, which was taken by Xiao Nan and Xue Ding in their martial arts clothes.

“It’s been two months, I think, which isn’t that long!”

Lin Shan laughed.

As the two were present, Lin Ran didn’t dare to search openly, he only had to mobilise a sliver of the true qi in his body to help himself to probe which areas were not good to probe.

However, after searching the entire room, Lin Ran could not find any clues, let alone any traces of the Devil Devouring Pearl.

Having no choice, in the end Lin Ran had to return to the living room and ask.

“Mr. Lin, I wonder if your house has been infested with rats recently?”

“Rats? Little divine Doctor is joking, although our house is not very wealthy, it is also a high-rise community, and things like rats have not really been infested!”

Lin Shan said with a smile, always feeling that Lin Ran was asking a strange question.

“What about you?”

Lin Ran asked, looking to one side at Lin Shan’s daughter-in-law.

“Really and truly no, I’ve always been the main person in our house, all the rubbish in the house is cleaned up every day, there’s really no sign of mice!”

Lin Ran frowned at his words, this was strange, Xiao Nan obviously had one of the five poisons, the Fire Refining Red Snake, but why was there no trace of the Devil Devouring Pearl in the house?

Could it be that he had arrived late? Did he not erase all the traces?

Or did the five poisons really have nothing to do with the Fire Refining Red Snake?

Then what was the explanation for the traces of the Demon Devouring Pearl in Li Wansan's house?

Lin Ran pondered for a moment and found that he didn't have any clue, so he changed his way of thinking and asked.

"Has Xiao Nan not been living at home for long periods of time recently?"

"Not living at home?"

Lin Shan smiled a little surprised, pondered for a moment but did not expect it.

On the side, Lin Ran's daughter-in-law, however, thought of something and spoke.

"Little divine Doctor is like this, my husband is usually busy with work, he just falls asleep when he gets home, he doesn't know, these two months Xiao Nan is on summer vacation, he is following Xue Ding in martial arts training, he usually lives in the dormitory near the martial arts school."

"Since he got sick last time, we didn't feel at ease, so we picked him up!"

"The martial arts school dormitory?"

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, he had almost left this matter out, it was Xue Ding who had sent Xiao Nan over when he was sick before, which meant that he must have been living in the dormitory at that time.

"Good! I got it!"

Lin Ran smiled and got up, quickly bidding farewell to the couple and preparing to contact Xue Ding.

But just as they walked downstairs, they saw Xiao Nan's figure.

Between the two buildings, there was a huge square, which was currently filled with people, all old people and children, and Xiao Nan was clearly among them.

"Let's go, go over and take a look."

Lin Ran laughed, Luo Cheng naturally had no problem with it, and the two of them walked over towards the crowd.

But the closer they got to the crowd, the more Lin Ran's brow furrowed, as he gradually heard two familiar voices.

"Passing by don't make a mistake, hanging pots to help the world with a miraculous hand, the divine doctor is practicing all over the world, the medicine can cure the disease!"

"This master, is a wise man who practices medicine all over the world, don't miss out if you need it, the people in the last neighborhood were cured of many diseases!"

Lin Ran quickly squeezed through, and as soon as he got out of the crowd he saw two familiar figures, it was actually Master Qi and Qi Muyu.

"How did these two people get together!"

Lin Ran was surprised.

"Why do you know them? Are they enemies or friends?"

Luo Cheng also squeezed over at this point and hurriedly asked.

Just as the words left his mouth, he saw Master Qi and couldn't help but be stunned.

"Why is it this old thing, he almost killed Lao San's father last time, and he still dares to come out and give medical treatment!"

"Huh who's that guy again?"

Seeing the oddly eyed words, Luo Cheng revealed a puzzled look.

Lin Ran shook his head and said.

"This person is a charlatan who makes his living by selling relics, I wonder how he got together with Master Qi."

Luo Cheng smiled at his words but laughed.

"A good match, a con man and a poison master, wouldn't that be the best combination for selling medicine in the Jianghu!"

The two of them were talking when the crowd was already starting to come forward to heal.

Most of the people in the district were old people and children, who did not understand this kind of jianghu tricks, in addition to the three Suns of the Qimu language, on the side just listened for a while, Lin Ran and Luo Cheng were close to believe.

“Xiao Nan!”

Lin Ran did not rush forward, but came to Xiao Nan’s side.

“Big brother!”

Seeing Lin Ran, Xiao Nan was very excited and hugged Lin Ran’s thigh for a long time, unwilling to let go.

Lin Ran smiled as he picked Little Nan up and asked.

“What do these two people do?”

“Ao, they say they are divine doctors, but I think they are liars, little brother you are the divine doctor!”

Little Nan said childishly, but her face was very serious.

“Little one, can’t you see, you and I both have good eyesight!”

Luo Cheng laughed beside him again.

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly and continued to ask.

“Then why do you think they’re liars?”

“I judged it myself!”

Xiao Nan said seriously, and then said.

“They were in the next neighbourhood yesterday, my friend Ah Mei lives in the next neighbourhood, his grandfather has leg pain, he bought the medicine from them yesterday, but today the pain is worse, just now Ah Mei said that their whole family went to the hospital!”

“Haha, Xiao Nan is very clever!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

Xiao Nan, however, said with an aggrieved look.

“But the people in the community don’t listen to me, they say I’m a brat and don’t understand anything!”

Saying this, Xiao Nan seemed to have thought of something and looked at Lin Ran seriously.

“Big brother, you’re the divine doctor, can you stop them, don’t let them pit people anymore!”

“Good!”

Lin Ran smiled as he nodded his head, and Luo Cheng next to him straightened his back and said to Xiao Nan.

“Little one, there’s still big brother me, I’ll help too!”

“You?”

Little Nan revealed a puzzled look, looked Luo Cheng up and down and shook his head.

“You can’t, you’re not a doctor, I’ve never even seen you before, and your body is so skinny, you’d better hide aside with me, don’t take off big brother’s hind legs!”

“I Where am I skinny and weak!”

Luo Cheng was speechless, he was a bit stronger than even Lin Ran, how come Lin Ran could not himself.

“Big brother is a divine doctor, what are you?”

Little Nan asked, and Luo Cheng was speechless for a moment.

“You little guy, I’m too lazy to bother with you!”

Luo Cheng couldn’t say anything to Xiao Nan, so he simply played lazy.

Lin Ran looked amused, and his afterglow saw that Grandmaster Qi had already started to take someone's pulse, so he immediately stopped the two of them, and then padded over.

"Hmm! According to what you said about the illness, it's caused by rising deficiency fire in the body and fear of bruising, the situation is not optimistic!"

Master Qi said with a stern face, scaring the old granny who was looking at the patient even more nervous.

"Then this master, what medicine do I need to take for this illness?"

"Medicine? You don't want to think about how there would be so many patients in the world if medicine worked!"

Master Qi said, and at the same time took out a small bottle, the contents of which were too dark to see.

"Use this from me and you'll be fine in three days, guaranteed!"

"What is this?"

Old Granny asked.

Master Qi gave a smile of some kind and said.

"This is all good stuff, I have used a dozen kinds of herbs to configure it, it is extremely effective in treating your kind of physical weakness!"

"How much does that cost?"

The old granny asked.

Master Qi smiled and said.

"Talking about money hurts our feelings, we are wandering doctors, in order to heal the world and help the world, how can we ask for money, but for the sake of more people in the world, you still have to give some money for all the herbs, otherwise I won't have money to configure the medicine!"

Said Master Qi, stretching out three fingers and laughing.

"Let's just give three thousand!"

"What? Three thousand? I don't have that much with me!"

The old granny was puzzled, but looking at the divine medicine in Grandmaster Qi's hand she wanted it very much and finally said with a clench of her teeth.

“Master, wait a moment, I’ll go back and get the money!”

She got up and was about to leave.

Lin Ran saw this and immediately went forward and laughed.

“Old granny, I also have this medicine, and I don’t want three thousand, I only want three, do you want to come and buy it from me?”

As soon as Lin Ran’s words left his mouth, everyone immediately looked over, especially the old granny, who looked at Lin Ran with burning eyes and asked.

“Young man, three pieces? Is that medicine you have there? It can’t be a liar!”

“Big brother isn’t a liar, he’s!”

Little Nan was again beside himself with defiance and wanted to say something about Lin Ran’s identity, but before he could finish his words, he was stopped by Luo Cheng.

“Little one, you can’t say that now, it’s meaningless if you do now!”

“Why?”

Little Nan looked at Luo Cheng in confusion.

Luo Cheng, however, smiled mysteriously and said.

“To beat someone’s face, since we are going to smash the scene, the identity definitely can’t be said now, do you want to see those two crooks get defeated?”

“Want to!”

Xiao Nan naively to.

“Good then, from now on you listen to me, if I don’t let you talk, you don’t say anything!”

Luo Cheng laughed.

“Mm!”

Xiao Nan nodded seriously and immediately shut up and didn’t say more.

“What is he?”

Old Granny asked, then seeing that it was Xiao Nan, she couldn’t help but frown and pretend to be angry.

"You child, just now you called someone else's master a liar, and now you don't say anything in the middle of the sentence, you are really naughty!"

Said the old granny and was about to leave, but Lin Ran stopped her with a smile and said.

"Don't worry about this medicine of mine, it's guaranteed to be the same as this dab of his!"

"Bastard!"

On the side of the room, Qi Muyu couldn't stand it anymore and went forward to beat up Lin Ran, how could he bear to delay his business and actually try to rob the customers?

But when he walked through the crowd and saw that it was Lin Ran, his entire face immediately turned gloomy.

"How come it's you?"

"How can't it be me?"

Lin Ran smiled at the oddly eyed words.

The old granny at the side was a little surprised to see this.

"How come you guys know each other? You can't be a gang, can you!"

"Big brother!"

Nan also looked a little sad, fearing that Lin Ran was in cahoots with these crooks.

"No, I've only met with this Mr. Qimu Language, the last time I met him was a month ago, back then he was a merchant who collected antiques, I didn't expect him to become a master healer in a month's time, I'm puzzled in my mind too!"

Lin Ran's voice was raised very high with these last words, and at once everyone looked at Qimuzhang, a month ago he was an antique dealer, and a month later he had become a master healer.

As long as everyone wasn't stupid, this was clearly a lie!

"You... You're talking nonsense! Who's an antique dealer, and it's not like I'm the one seeing the sick!"

Oddly-marked words were hurriedly defended, but Lin Ran laughed.

"You're saying you're not an antique dealer? Everyone who doesn't believe me can ask at the Gu Yu Zhai in Antique City, the owner there can testify!"

Said Lin Ran as he looked at Luo Cheng and laughed.

"The fake Guanyin statue that Liu Xuan gave your grandfather last time was bought by this guy!"

"What?"

Luo Cheng's face instantly chilled at his words and he stepped forward and said in a cold voice.

"Damn it, making a fake product to fool my grandfather, I won't smash your stall today!"

At that moment, Master Qi in the distance was getting a little impatient, he had waited for so long, but Qi Muyu had not yet finished the job, which made him very annoyed.

"What's going on? What a noisy mess, how dare you let me see the doctor!"

Said Master Qi and walked over, but the moment he saw Lin Ran, a look of shock filled his face.

"You How is it you!"

"Greetings, Master Qi!"

Lin Ran greeted with a smile.

Master Qi looked but his old face was ironic, he knew in his heart that these two people were clearly here to smash the scene.

"What do you want!"

Master Qi scolded with a sullen face.

"No what!"

Lin Ran's face was bland.

"Then go, don't delay my treatment, so many friends are waiting, can you afford it?"

Master Qi opened his mouth and scolded, wanting to use the people around him who were anxious to see the doctor to help his own momentum.

"That's right, if you guys are fine, just hurry up and leave, don't be our doctor!"

"Yes, yes!"

No need to say, Master Qi was still very good at mobilising people's hearts, and soon the hearts of the people around were mobilised in their eagerness to see a doctor.

Lin Ran saw this but was in no hurry and laughed.

"I can understand everyone's anxiety to see a doctor, but do you know what this Master Qi does?"

"Nonsense, a healer is of course a doctor, there's no need to ask!"

"That's right, are you jealous of someone else's ability!"

Someone sarcastically said, Xiao Nan couldn't bear to hear this and wanted to come out and speak for Lin Ran, but was stopped by Luo Cheng.

Lin Ran took a look at his detractor, a middle-aged man in his early forties, and said with a smile.

"I do have red eyes, but it's not for this, it's for a poisoner who uses poison to cure illnesses, and so many people actually believe in it!"

"Poison?"

"How can that be poison!"

The surrounding crowd listened to the hair in their hearts, although there were not many who believed in Lin Ran at this time, but the crowd was afraid to try the medicine in Master Qi's hand again for a while, this was from the heart of the crowd.

"Nonsense, who said that I have poison here!"

Master Qi scolded.

"That's right, if it was poison, would the people in the last community have bought it?"

Qimu Whisper also chimed in.

"Yeah, yeah, a lot of people in the last block bought it, I don't think it's poison!"

"I don't feel it's either!"

Murmurs recalled from the crowd.

"Kid, why don't you get lost, delaying everyone from seeing the doctor, what is your intention!"

The strange eye language continued to intimidate.

Lin Ran, however, smiled and shook his head, saying.

"We'll know if it's poison or not once we try it, Master Qi, do you dare to try the medicine?"

"How do you want to try it?"

Master Qi looked at Lin Ran with a grim face.

"Find a bowl of water, put some of this medicine of yours in it, and then probe the poison with a silver needle!"

Lin Ran said with a calm face.

"Nonsense, the good medicine that I have worked so hard to prepare is not for you to squander!"

Master Qi's face was gloomy, he knew his own medicine best, if this was really used to test the medicine with silver needles, it would not be a disagreement with himself.

"What, you don't dare?"

A bashful smile appeared on Lin Ran's face.

"Who... Who doesn't dare!"

Grandmaster Qi's face was embarrassed, somewhat at a loss for words.

"Master, just try it, you're such a powerful master, are you still afraid to test the medicine?"

"That's right Master Qi, we all think highly of you, just try the medicine!"

"Yes, we support you!"

The crowd shouted, but Master Qi's head was sweating.

So many people were cheering for him and supporting him, if the test really turned out to be poison, then he would be beaten to death by the crowd.

"That or next time, I don't have much medicine with me today, one less bottle will save one less person, that's not what I want!"

Master Qi said resentfully, but Lin Ran smiled and said.

"Master Qi, if this medicine of yours really works, I can get you a lot of it in a minute, now you can try the medicine!"

"You! Don't push people too far!"

Master Qi looked at Lin Ran with cold eyes, he had nothing good to say about Lin Ran after the last incident with Li Wansan's father, and he didn't expect to run into each other here today.

At this moment, this kid was even trying to smash his own rice bowl, so how could he not be angry.

"Master Qi, how can you say that, no one is forcing you, we are doing this for your own good, aren't we thinking of letting you prove your innocence?"

Luo Cheng, who was at the side, said with a smile.

"You!"

Master Qi was so angry that his old face turned red, he flung his hand and scolded.

"That's just it, I'm an old man and I have to be wished on by you here, I won't see this illness today!"

"Meguyu, pack your things and let's go!"

Master Qi greeted Qi Muyu, who nodded his head repeatedly at his words and said respectfully.

"Yes Master!"

With a whirl, he ran off to pack his things.

Lin Ran looked a little surprised, how could this Qi Muyu be so respectful to Master Qi, according to reason, even if Master Qi was older, he did not need to be so respectful, and just now, there was clearly awe in Qi Muyu's eyes, which made Lin Ran a little puzzled.

“Hey, Master Qi, why did you leave, you still haven’t shown me this illness!”

“Right, Master Qi, what about our illness!”

“Master Qi”

Seeing that Master Qi was leaving, one and all of the grandparents couldn’t sit still.

“Humph! This guy is messing up here and you guys still don’t believe me, I can’t see this disease, if you want to see a doctor, go find him!”

Master Qi used the slope to put the blame all on Lin Ran, and in a flash of smoke had left the district with Qimanyu.

“Hey! What the hell is wrong with you, people are seeing patients for a good reason, why are you causing trouble, this is great, everyone can’t see the doctor!”

“That’s right, what’s wrong with being young, you have to ruin someone’s place!”

Some people in the crowd started to accuse Lin Ran, but he didn’t mind, these people didn’t know the facts, and it was only natural that they misunderstood him.

Luo Cheng, on the other hand, couldn’t stand it anymore and stood out and said.

“Do you still have a conscience, that Master Qi just now, used poison, Lin Ran saved all of your lives!”

“Bah! Who knows if Master Qi used good medicine or poison, it’s obviously you guys who messed up here that pissed Master Qi off!”

“That’s right!”

A group of people were completely deaf to Luo Cheng’s words, and were so angry that Luo Cheng chided them.

“He’s already been scared away, can’t you guys see that? If it’s really a good medicine, why don’t you dare to test it!”

“You...”

Luo Cheng’s words left the crowd speechless, but the gaze that regarded the two Lin Ran still stayed unkind, clearly still angry.

“Alright, I can understand if people don’t believe us, but I have a way to make them believe!”

At this moment Lin Ran, who was standing in place, finally spoke up.

"A way? What solution?"

Immediately, someone asked.

Lin Ran smiled faintly at his words and immediately took out a bottle, the very same kind of medicine that Master Qi was holding just now.

"Just now I asked Xiao Nan to smooth out a bottle, whether it's poison or not, we'll know once we try it!"

Lin Ran laughed, then opened the bottle and poured the ointment inside directly onto the leaves on the side of the tree.

At once, there was a sound of "blazing", followed by a wisp of black smoke, followed by a pungent smell.

When everyone looked back and saw the leaves, they had been completely corroded, leaving only a hole the size of a fist.

"This How is this possible!"

"This is really poison!"

"Bastard, that old thing really is a liar, it looked like it to me just now!"

"Yes, yes, I also said he was a liar, but you guys don't believe me!"

At this moment, seeing the scene in front of them, each one immediately shifted their stance, looking at Lin Ran and Luo Cheng as they shook their heads helplessly.

Finally Lin Ran looked at the crowd and said.

"I can understand everyone's feeling of wanting to see a doctor, but you still have to go to a regular hospital for treatment, this kind of charlatan doctors are mostly frauds, so if you really want to see a doctor, you must shine your eyes!"

With that, Lin Ran took Luo Cheng and Xiao Nan and left.

Lin Ran and Luo Cheng sent Xiao Nan home and then left the neighbourhood.

"Hey, Blackie, that kid has left the subdivision and is driving east, when are you guys going to do it!"

Inside a black Land Rover by the subdivision, Huaiking was holding the phone and said with a grim face.

He had been humiliated by Lin Ran at Wanding Pawn in the morning, causing him to hold a grudge, and then actually followed Lin Ran all the way until now.

“Brother Huai, don’t worry, as long as we wait for these two kids to get to a less crowded place, we really didn’t have a chance in the district just now!”

A hoarse voice came over the phone.

“Good! I’ll wait for your news!”

Wycking said in a cold voice, while hanging up the phone and told the driver to hurry up and follow the two Lin Ran, he didn’t want to miss out on the exciting scene later.

When he arrived at the martial arts hall, Lin Ran felt a surge of familiarity, he had stayed here for several hours when Wang Shilong asked him to duel here before, and he couldn’t help but feel a surge of emotion when he thought back on it.

It was also since the last time that Wang Shilong had indeed been quite honest and had not come to trouble himself again, that time had probably really scared him.

“Let’s go!”

It was mid-afternoon and there weren’t many people outside the martial arts school, so Lin Ran greeted him and prepared to go in.

But at this moment, suddenly a black van was parked not far away, followed by four or five youths wearing black vests coming down from it.

The young man at the head of the van had dark skin and looked like a black charcoal head, Lin Ran was very impressed after just one look.

“Which one of you two is called Lin Ran?”

The black charcoal head asked with a cigarette in his mouth, disdainfully.

“You guys have something?”

Luo Cheng frowned slightly and stepped forward to ask, while his hand was already pressing on his mobile phone, as long as the situation was not right, he would immediately call Ah Hu, although this was the East City and Ah Hu was in the South City, as long as he greeted him, this guy would definitely come as fast as he could.

"It's alright!"

Lin Ran suddenly raised his hand and pressed Luo Cheng's hand, knowing the latter's intentions, but distant water could not quench his thirst, he still had to find a solution to this matter at hand himself.

"Coming to you, of course there's something!"

Black Charcoal Head sneered, throwing away the cigarette in his hand, then looked at the two.

"Now tell me who's name is Lin Ran, or I'll get down to business later!"

"Yo-ho, what, you want to fight, I haven't been afraid of anyone in a fight!"

Luo Cheng's face sank as he stepped forward and scolded, as a rich second generation, he had grown up fighting and looking for trouble, he really hadn't been afraid of anyone in this.

"My name is Lin Ran, you guys should be from Huai King, right?"

Lin Ran asked indifferently.

Luo Cheng listened but frowned slightly, he had forgotten about Huai King, he had just made a deal with this guy this morning, he didn't expect to strike out at Lin Ran so soon.

"Do you know quite a lot, since you know we are Huai's men, I advise you not to struggle, lest you will have to suffer flesh and blood later!"

Black Charcoal Head laughed smugly.

Lin Ran, however, laughed and shook his head.

"Following Huaiking is really hard for you guys, finding you to take a beating when you have nothing better to do!"

"What? Get beaten up? Kid, you've been kicked in the head by a donkey!"

Black Charcoal Head laughed, in his opinion Lin Ran was just scared by his own group.

"Look at what's behind here!"

Lin Ran wasn't in a hurry and pointed to his body and laughed.

"Ding Mei Martial School? What the hell!"

Black Charcoal Head saw the huge signboard at the back, but laughed out loud.

“There are a lot of martial arts schools these days, and there really aren’t many that can fight when pulled out, why do you think you can bluff your Master Black by standing in front of the martial arts school?”

“Then how about trying?”

Lin Ran revealed a smile, while taking out his mobile phone.

Black Charcoal Head’s face sank as he watched, knowing clearly in his heart that he could open a martial arts school at least the instructor inside still had some real skills, he didn’t want to delay at that moment, lest he also dream long and hard.

“Do it, directly waste this kid to me!”

“Yes!”

The words fell from the black charcoal head, and at once one by one, all the punks copied the guys in the car and rushed out.

However, they had just taken up their positions and were about to go up and beat up Lin Ran when a group of people rushed out from the hallway of the martial arts school behind them, led by none other than Xue Ding.

“I’ll see who dares to make a move today, damn it, do you really think that my martial arts school is just for show?”

Xue Ding scolded, followed by a dozen of people, and beside him were two men who seemed to be coaches, each with a sturdy body, and who could bluff people just by looking at them.

Just now, Xue Ding had been watching from above for half a day, and when he saw that Lin Ran was in trouble, he directly greeted the people from the martial arts school and rushed down.

“Little divine Doctor, is everything alright!”

Xue Ding asked with a smile as he came in front of Lin Ran.

“It’s fine!”

Lin Ran smiled slightly, then looked at Black Charcoal Head in front of him and said.

“I’m fine, but it’s hard to say if you guys are fine!”

After saying that, Lin Ran directly turned around and retreated to the side, this was Xue Ding's place, and he was too lazy to make a move.

"Take these few scum of society and beat me out!"

Xue Ding understood Lin Ran's meaning and immediately shouted coldly, at once a kind of disciple coach behind him, like a tiger descending from the mountain, pounced towards the group of Black Charcoal Heads.

There was no comparison at all between the trainers and the punks, and with almost one impact, Black Charcoal Head and the others were all wiped out, and soon there were cries of pain.

Only to hear Black Charcoal Head shouting from where he was.

"Help me, Brother Wai, help me!"

"Hmm? There's still help!"

As soon as he heard Black Charcoal Head's words, Xue Ding immediately greeted a few disciples and started searching around.

A Land Rover was listening to the parking space next to him, and Huai King was hiding inside the car. When he heard Black Charcoal Head's words, he was so angry that his brain turned green, and he hurriedly greeted the driver to go quickly.

But the car had just started, but Xue Ding had already arrived with his men.

He was directly pulled out by Xue Ding. He was pinned to the ground and beaten up, with Luo Cheng standing by to cheer.

"Yes, yes, this is the guy, give me a good beating, dare to trouble my brother Lin, simply looking for death!"

"No! Don't fight, I quit, I'm really wrong!"

In no time, Huaiking started to beg for mercy.

He was a professional businessman, how could he be a match for this group of martial artists, and there was not a single piece of good skin on his entire body by now.

"It's alright!"

A moment later, Lin Ran called out to Xue Ding, only by now, Huai King and Black Charcoal Head had long since been beaten beyond recognition, all topped with pig heads.

“Get out of here!”

Huaiking cursed angrily, scaring Black Charcoal Head into rushing over, helping him to the car and firing it up to run straight away.

Before leaving, however, Huaiking was looking at Leng Ran viciously and said in a cold voice.

“You kid remember, I will take revenge sooner or later!”

“And you dare to say vicious words, I’ll get you to death!”

Xue Ding, who had a violent temper, took off his shoe and smashed it towards Huai Jing in the window of the car.

“That hurts!”

Luo Cheng’s face was red and he laughed as if he had just been involved.

“Haha, yeah painful!”

Xue Ding couldn’t help but laugh as well, running a martial arts school was all about teaching every day, to have this kind of actual combat was simply an outburst for him.

“Hey right, little divine doctor, what brings you to my place? Looking for me for something?”

Xue Ding greeted the crowd back at the martial arts school while looking at Lin Ran and smiling.

Lin Ran smiled, nodded, and then said.

“I want to go to the dormitory where Xiao Nan used to stay!”

“Xiao Nan’s dormitory?”

Xue Ding smiled and was very confused, why did he need to see the dormitory for a good reason.

However, Xue Ding didn’t ask much, and after greeting him, he took Lin Ran and Luo Cheng with him, and headed straight to the dormitory area.

The dormitory was opposite the martial arts school, in a small community, and Lin Ran and the two of them followed Xue Ding and soon arrived at the dormitory.

It was a single dormitory, which should only be occupied by Xue Ding's personal disciples. Lin Ran took a look at the furnishings of the room, which were very simple and had a small amount of dust, so it should obviously have been unoccupied for some time.

"This is it!"

Xue Ding said.

Lin Ran nodded and then walked in, while Luo Cheng very sensibly stood at the door and chatted with Xue Ding.

The entire room was only twenty square metres, and Lin Ran spent just a few minutes to completely explore the inside.

In the end, he did find traces of the Demon Devouring Pearl under the bed, which was the same as the one in Li Tang's house, and it was obvious that the Demon Devouring Pearl had already been taken from here.

"Looks like everything can be confirmed!"

Lin Ran got up but there was no hint of a relaxed smile, the implementation of the matter left him with nothing but heaviness in his heart.

"Let's go!"

Leaving the room, Lin Ran greeted and whirled away with Luo Cheng.

Xue Ding looked confused, but since Lin Ran didn't want to talk about it, he didn't ask, he still had a sense of proportion in such matters.

It was already four o'clock in the afternoon when he left Ding Mei Martial Arts School, and Lin Ran was too lazy to go back to the hospital, so he parted from Luo Cheng and went home alone.

"Hey, did class end yet!"

Lin Ran arrived home and found that Song Nuan hadn't returned yet, so he went to call the latter.

"No class this afternoon!"

Song Nuan said a little tiredly.

“The school’s stage is being rebuilt, it’s helping out!”

“Do you need help?”

Lin Ran asked, he was a little worried about Song Nuan’s safety in his heart, now that he had confirmed the relationship between the Devil Devouring Pearl and the Five Poisons, it made him very worried about Song Nuan’s comfort, even going to school didn’t feel too safe.

“Need, bring some water over!”

Song Nuan said.

“Mhm!”

Lin Ran didn’t ask much, and whirled around and left the house, heading straight for school.

The stage of Temperance University was located in the playground, and the nearest shops around it were a ten-minute walk away, so Lin Ran bought water from the shops on his way and quickly arrived at the playground.

At this time, the stage on one side of the playground had been dismantled and was being rebuilt, and there were many workers all busy.

“Why is she here too?”

Seeing Su Rou who was busy in the crowd, Lin Ran was a little surprised, he hadn’t seen this nee-san for some days.

“Lin Ran, what brings you here?”

Su Rou also saw Lin Ran and came over with a smile.

“Delivering water on purpose!”

Lin Ran smiled as he looked at the water he was carrying in his hands and gave a bottle to Su Rou, who took it and laughed.

“Thanks! It was Xiao Nuan who told you to come!”

Su Rou guessed the reason and laughed.

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran nodded.

“Why do you have something on your mind?”

Seeing that Lin Ran was not in a very high mood, Su Rou asked with a smile.

“Nothing!”

Lin Ran smiled back and didn't say much, the matter of the five poisons did make his heart a little depressed.

While the two of them were talking, Song Nuan was walking over from the side, getting angry as she did so.

“It really pisses me off, this bastard, still trying to cut corners, fortunately I found out!”

“Who is it?”

Su Rou asked with a slight frown at his words.

“Just that fatty Zhao, who came to the construction in person and actually tried to cut corners, what an abomination!”

Song Nuan said angrily, while taking the water from Lin Ran's hand and gulping it down twice.

“Let's go, let's go find him!”

Su Rou was also a bit angry, as the teacher of the school's dance department, she was responsible for the reconstruction of the stage this time, if something went wrong, how could she afford to do that, naturally she had to pay more attention to it.

The three of them soon arrived at the construction site, only to see a fat man squatting on the ground to check the construction situation, obviously the target was him.

“Looking for fatty, how did you say to me at the beginning, guarantee the quality of construction, how come I heard that you cut corners!”

Su Rou said angrily, this fatty Zhao and she had some friendship, kind of old hometown, which agreed to contract the work to this guy, never thought this guy actually cut corners.

“I say, Su big beauty, am I, Zhao Zhuang, such a person? This is a private job, and I have to protect my image, otherwise whoever has a private job in the future will still look for me, I really didn't cut corners!”

Zhao Zhuang said as he got up and turned around, however when he looked at Lin Ran, his face suddenly changed.

“You How come it's you! How come you're here!”

“How come I can’t be here?”

Lin Ran had a faint smile tacked onto his face, smirking.

“You guys You guys know each other?”

“Yeah, you guys...”

Su and Song Nuan both looked stunned, how did these two people in front of them look like they should know each other ah, a construction company owner, a freshly graduated college student, or a doctor, how could they have crossed paths.

“Not really acquaintance, just met once, last time your father approached me, we met in the office building!”

Lin Ran explained with a smile.

Zhao Zhuang’s face however had changed to a different expression, very flattering as he stepped forward and smiled.

“That, brother Lin Ran it’s been a long time, how was your chat with Master Song last time!”

“Well not bad!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded his head.

Zhao Zhuang’s face lit up with joy at hearing this and said with some embarrassment.

“Then, Brother Lin Ran, if you have the chance to introduce me to Master Song some day, I will certainly never forget this great kindness.”

“I’m afraid I won’t have the chance!”

Lin Ran was a bit embarrassed.

“Why?”

Zhao Zhuang was a little anxious and hurriedly asked.

“Because, you’ve offended Master Song’s daughter, and I’m afraid he won’t see you!”

Lin Ran said solemnly.

“What? When did I offend his daughter, I don’t even know who his daughter is, if I knew, I would definitely be treated like an ancestor, how dare I offend her!”

Zhao Zhuang hurriedly said, offending Master Song’s daughter, he was afraid that he didn’t want to get along.

“Haha!”

Su Rou at the side couldn’t help but laugh out loud, her heart was also impressed with Lin Ran, she didn’t expect this kid to tell lies with his eyes open, his ability to fool people was really something.

She was very close to Song Nuan and knew that Song Nuan’s father was Song Laozi, she just didn’t want to reveal it at this moment and just wanted to watch the show.

“Sorry, you’ve really offended her!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

“When?”

Zhao Zhuang was a little helpless, he really didn’t know when he had offended someone.

“Just now!”

Lin Ran said with a smile, Zhao Zhuang must have been stunned for a moment, then he turned his head and his gaze fell on Su Rou, somewhat incredulous.

“You’re Master Song’s daughter, I’ll be damned no way, Master Song turned out to be a door-to-door son-in-law, his daughter’s surname is actually Su!”

“Get lost! Your father is the one who is the son-in-law of the family!”

Song Nuan on the side couldn’t bear to look at this and opened her mouth to scold.

“No, then who the hell is it!”

Zhao Zhuang was a little confused.

Song Nuan glared at him and said.

“It’s this lady!”

“You”

This time Zhao Zhuang completely understood, the bitter smile on his face was instantly replaced with a flattering smile, smiling as he prepared to go forward to hold Song Nuan's hand to pull the relationship, but was directly dodged by Song Nuan.

Song Nuan looked at him and said seriously.

"Don't try to pull strings, build the stage properly for me, or I'll tell my father that your company cut corners in construction!"

"Don't! Don't, I'm doing this as a private job, if I get caught, it's all over!"

Zhao Zhuang hurriedly said, looking close to tears, and hastily added.

"Miss Song don't worry, this time the job I will let them do a beautiful job, if there is jerry-building, I Zhao Zhuang is the king crawling in the river!"

After saying that, Zhao Zhuang hurriedly went to greet the workers to do a good job, at this time in looking at the attitude has been a world of difference from before.

"You guys rest first, I'll go and talk to him!"

Lin Ran suddenly spoke up and said.

"You want to talk to him? What do you have to talk about?"

Song Nuan looked at Lin Ran in confusion, when did this guy become so fond of chatting?

"Just chatting!"

Lin Ran laughed awkwardly, the reason for this was something he couldn't explain, after all, it was his own heart, he didn't really want to share it with others, after all, it wasn't something happy.

"Come on, let's go and rest!"

Su Rou greeted Song Nuan with a smile, she could tell that Lin Ran seemed to have something on his mind.

In the evening Lin Ran mentioned the day's findings to Song Nuan and told her to be more careful at school before going to bed.

Early the next morning, Lin Ran was just getting ready

After the two women left, Lin Ran went straight to Zhao Zhuang, sat down on the stone steps at one side and said with a smile.

"How long has brother Zhao been in the building materials business?"

"Some years now!"

Seeing that Lin Ran had arrived, Zhao Zhuang smiled and said.

"I wonder if there are any interesting stories about your building materials world?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile, seeing Zhao Zhuang reminded him of some ways to find out, the obvious clues to his parents' matter had been broken, but he didn't want to give up and wanted to see if he could find out something.

"An interesting story? Then you've asked the right person, but it's not about our building materials sector, it's about the real estate sector!"

Zhao Zhuang said smugly.

"Well, then I'm all ears!"

Lin Ran laughed.

Zhao Zhuang was worried about finding an opportunity to get close to Lin Ran, so when he saw that he seemed to appreciate his interest, he opened his mouth and said.

"In the real estate industry, every time before construction starts, a worship ceremony is performed.

"It's just a comfort for the heart!"

Lin Ran laughed.

Zhao Zhuang smiled but shook his head and said.

"It's not just a comfort in the heart, it's actually a kind of blessing and warding off evil spirits?"

"Ao?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile, in fact, he had a clear mirror in his mind, just to keep this Zhao Zhuang's mind a little mysterious, so that he could sell it, so that he could reveal more information, so he did not say it through.

"The things used for worship are specially treated, so they can serve as a blessing and ward off evil spirits!"

Zhao Zhuang smiled smugly and then added.

"Do you know why some construction sites are inexplicably stopped halfway through construction? That's because the boss is short of money! Haha!"

Lin Ran sniffed speechlessly and then said.

"I wonder if Brother Zhao has ever heard of Wang's Company before?"

"Wang's company? You're talking about that Wang's Real Estate in the eastern part of Temperance City?"

Zhao Zhuang asked.

"No!"

Lin Ran shook his head, Zhao Zhuang was talking about Wang Qiang and his family, while Lin Ran was asking about the Wang Real Estate from fifteen years ago, which was Wang Kun and his family.

"It's the Wang's real estate from fifteen years ago!"

Lin Ran said.

Zhao Zhuang smiled at his words but laughed.

"I say brother, you're deliberately teasing brother, right? Fifteen years ago I hadn't even entered this business yet!"

When he said this, Zhao Zhuang seemed to remember something and said with a frown.

"But I seem to have heard about this Wang real estate from someone somewhere, it's said that it seems that many people died back then and it finally went out of business!"

"Right! That's the one, do you know what all the construction sites he had accidents at back then?"

Lin Ran hurriedly asked, there were many construction sites under Wang's back then, and many of them had accidents, plus the fifteen years of change, the surroundings had changed too much, Song Yujiang didn't find the exact places.

"I'm not really sure about this, but a friend of mine told me once that there was a building under him next to one of the accident sites back then, right next to their company!"

Zhao Zhuang suddenly said.

"Where is it?"

Lin Ran asked hurriedly.

"Near Divine Terrace Square, my friend's company is in Divine Terrace Square!"

Zhao Zhuang said.

Lin Ran was shocked at his words, before Song Yujiang had told him that back then Wang Kun's company was located in Divine Terrace Square, he didn't expect that Zhao Zhuang's friend's company was also in Divine Terrace Square, and there was an accident site right next to it.

Thinking about this, Lin Ran couldn't help but feel a burst of clarity in his heart, not expecting that this chat had actually found a hint of a clue.

"Thanks a lot brother Zhao, I'll be free to kiss you for dinner later!"

Lin Ran laughed, but Zhao Zhuang said.

"How can I do that? I'll have to treat you when I have the chance, I'll have to rely on you to introduce me more later!"

"Haha!"

Lin Ran laughed and did not answer, he knew what this Zhao Zhuang was thinking, Song Yujiang was what kind of identity, this was something he would not do.

"Well, it's getting late, I'll leave now, we'll talk again next time we have the chance!"

Lin Ran got up and patted the dirt, smiling as he left.

When it was time to leave school, Lin Ran waited for a while and then left with Song Nuan and Su Rou.

However, the routes were different and soon the group separated, with Lin Ran taking Song Nuan straight back home.

The next morning, Lin Ran woke up early and took Song Nuan to school, then went to the hospital, as he hadn't been to the hospital for the last few days, he felt a bit uncomfortable.

After all, he was the head of the Chinese medicine department at Tamkang Hospital, but if he wasn't at the hospital all day, he would feel a bit corporeal.

"Yo, how did Director Lin suddenly remember to come back to the hospital, what a rarity!"

Just after entering the hospital gate, he bumped into Qin Bing head on, the latter said in an odd voice, which made Lin Ran a little embarrassed.

"That there's something going on recently, I'm rather busy!"

Lin Ran said awkwardly as he messed with his head.

"Busy dating your little girlfriend?"

Qin Bing said with an odd face, but Lin Ran was looking a little amused, that was clearly a jealous face.

"Is this you being jealous?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

"I... Yuck! Who's jealous, off to work!"

Qin Bing's pretty face flushed and she rushed away as if fleeing.

"Even this iceberg beauty can blush!"

Lin Ran laughed and shook his head, then swirled and went back to his office.

Recently, the number of patients in the hospital had dropped, not because the hospital treatment was not good, but because in autumn, the number of cases of heatstroke had decreased significantly, thus making the number of people coming to the hospital much less.

Li is discussing with some nurses about the prescriptions, which are the most important thing for the TCM department, unlike Western medicine, which requires comprehensive treatment and various tests.

Li Zheng came from a family of Chinese medicine practitioners and was naturally able to cure common illnesses, so in Lin Ran's absence recently, he alone took care of everything in the Chinese medicine department.

Lin Ran greeted everyone and immediately went back to his office, he was a bit overwhelmed by the number of things he had to do recently and was ready to get in the right frame of mind and work well at the hospital for a day today.

But he wanted to, but God seemed to be playing a joke on him again, just sitting down, his butt was not even warmed up, the phone rang.

He picked it up and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he hesitated a little, but quickly picked it up.

“Hello! Who is it!”

Lin Ran asked.

“Yes, Zhao Zhuang, brother Lin Ran, yesterday I saw that you seemed very interested in my friend’s company, today I happen to be making a delivery this afternoon, do you want to come along and have a look?”

Zhao Zhuang said with a smile on the other end of the phone.

Lin Ran smiled as his eyebrows twitched and he nodded his head.

“Good!”

There was no way around it, the matter of work was important, and when compared to the situation of his own parents, it seemed somewhat less important.

“Promoting Chinese medicine is a long-term process, there’s no rush for this moment, it’s my parents’ matter that’s almost clear!”

Lin Ran reassured himself, and then walked out of the office to go and give an account with Li Zheng.

“Director Lin, our Director Qin is looking for you! There’s an emergency that needs you to come out together!”

Lin Ran had just finished explaining to the nurse from the Chinese Medicine Department when the nurse from the Western Medicine Department ran over and said.

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, then he nodded and followed him over.

Although he had an appointment with Zhao Zhuang this afternoon, the emergency clinic was more important, so if it was not possible, he would put it on the back burner.

"Hey, why isn't Director Lin at the hospital every day these days, that's not very nice!"

After Lin Ran followed the Western Medicine nurse and left, a group of small nurses got together and Aya said, she was the one who didn't go to the last departmental dinner because something came up.

"Xiao Ya don't say that, Director Lin must all be busy with something big, Dean Yang didn't even say that, let alone us!"

Liu Wenjuan suffered at the side.

"Yes, Director Lin is very nice, and I heard from our family that mouth, he even went to our martial arts school yesterday, said he was checking things out!"

Li Mei said, she was none other than Xue Ding's fiancée.

"What kind of things are you checking, making it so mysterious!"

Xiao Yu said with a frown.

"Who knows, it's better for everyone to stop asking about the director and get ready for work!"

Li Zheng suddenly said, by now patients were already starting to come in.

"Xiao Yu!"

After a while, Qi Yin was the one who ran over, with breakfast in her hand.

"Aigoooooo, how envious!"

Seeing this scene, Liu Wenjuan and Li Mei both couldn't help but smile.

"You guys have it too!"

Qi Yin laughed, giving a share to all of them.

As the group was tempted by the food, Qi Yin took the opportunity to glance towards Lin Ran's office and casually asked.

"Your Director Lin is not here again!"

"Yeah, he's not at the hospital every day, hey, we really have no leader in the group!"

Xiao Yu said as she ate.

Qi Yin nodded at his words, but a hint of smugness swept through the depths of his eyes.

.....

Besides, on Lin Ran's side, when he arrived at the Western Medicine Department, Qin Bing had already packed his things, and when he saw Lin Ran, he directly dragged him and left the hospital.

"Going somewhere?"

In the car, Lin Ran asked.

"Divine Terrace Square!"

Qin Bing said, a few moments of gloom between her brows.

"Is the patient's condition serious?"

Lin Ran asked.

"It's hard to say, the caller just said he couldn't get his breath and was lying on the ground, not daring to move!"

Qin Bing said, she had also just been informed, so she didn't know much about the patient's condition.

"Hmm!"

Lin Ran didn't ask any more questions, and the ambulance once again fell into silence.

However, there was one thing that was very surprising to Lin Ran, and that was that the place where the consultation was taking place this time was actually also at the Divine Terrace Square.

The destination wasn't too far away, and the car soon arrived at the Divine Terrace Square.

Lin Ran was not in the mood to look around at this time, and followed Qin Bing all the way in towards the Divine Terrace Plaza building, and then went straight up to the 20th floor.

"This is it!"

When they arrived at the entrance of a company called "Daily Construction", Qin Bing pushed the door directly and walked in, followed by Lin Ran and the others.

"Hey, hey! The doctor is here, here and here!"

Just as they entered, they heard someone shouting, and Lin Ran and the others looked over to see a young woman who seemed to be an employee of the company.

Lin Ran and the others, led by the other party, quickly arrived at the general manager's office, and immediately saw a man in his early thirties, lying on the floor, his eyes flushed with white, his chest rising and falling weakly, in critical condition.

"Do a quick check!"

Qin Bing hastily greeted, and several nurses got busy.

Lin Ran squatted down beside the patient, his eyes sizing him up, but his heart was a little surprised.

This man had a dignified appearance and his face was very rosy, so he should not be suffering from such an urgent condition, but the current situation was not optimistic.

"The patient's breath is weak and he is suffering from chest congestion and shortness of breath!"

The doctor who quickly examined him said.

Lin Ran smiled and reminded.

"The patient has a history of smoking, it is recommended to sit for a lung check!"

Qin Bing glanced at him with some doubts in her mind.

Lin Ran could see Qin Bing's confusion and pointed to a box of cigarettes that had been opened on top of his desk.

Due to the previous incident with the five poisons, Lin Ran had now become very sensitive. He came behind the patient unnoticed and wanted to see if there were any strange marks on the patient's body.

But after looking for strange marks for half a day and not finding them, Lin Ran found a strange problem.

The man's shirt seemed to have not been changed for a few days, and there were obvious marks on the collar, seemingly left by bodily fluids mixed with oil stains from the body.

However, Lin Ran found that there was a clear difference between the skin tone above the patient's right ear and the rest of the body, as if something had rubbed against it often and had sucked up all the oil stains, thus causing a clear difference between the skin tone and the rest of the body.

“Director Lin, the lungs have been checked and it seems that there is a foreign body blocking them!”

The news soon came from the doctor who had done the examination.

“Let me take a look!”

Lin Ran said as he got up, and immediately placed his palm on the patient’s chest, and at once a surge of true qi was poured in.

There was a foreign body in the chest, a very dangerous situation, the possible cause of the illness was this, once the foreign body shifted, it was likely to cause the patient’s condition to further worsen, a dangerous one could directly cause shock and thus death.

Just as Lin Ran was quickly checking the patient’s physical condition, suddenly another group of people crowded by the door, while a voice came through.

“Where’s my uncle, what’s wrong with my uncle?”

“Don’t make any loud noises!”

Qin Bing frowned tightly and turned around to scold, but Lin Ran was into his eyes closed and ignored, at this time he was probing the patient’s lungs with full body attention.

“How is”

The person who came in and saw Lin Ran was stunned and just wanted to open his mouth to stop, but when he saw Qin Bing’s murderous gaze, he swallowed his words.

The person who came in was none other than Huai King, who had just been beaten up by Xue Ding yesterday, and the owner of this daily construction company, named Wu Huo was his own uncle.

Soon Lin Ran’s probing was over, he put away his palm, his face was a little ugly, after some probing, he had fully understood what was wrong.

“You’re actually a doctor!”

Seeing that Lin Ran had gotten up, Wycking then spoke.

“It’s a small world, I didn’t expect to run into you here, looks like the beating you took yesterday wasn’t that bad!”

Looking at the redness and swelling still on Huaiking’s face, Lin Ran laughed.

“Cut the crap, what’s wrong with my uncle?”

Huai King asked as he looked at Lin Ran with a gloomy face.

"It's nothing serious, a blockage in his chest caused by smoking, he'll be fine in a while!"

"What? It'll be fine in a while?"

Huai King smiled but his face sank and he chided in a deep voice.

"Bullshit, do you know who my uncle is? I'm telling you, take my uncle to the hospital right now, or if something happens to him, I won't let you off!"

Huaiking said angrily, today he came over to look for his uncle, just to bring help to deal with Lin Ran, but he didn't expect that the wrongdoers would run into each other here.

"Unrestrained, how can you talk, are you a doctor?"

Qin Bing couldn't stand it anymore, this was the first time he had come across such an unreasonable family member.

"Unrestrained? What are you, I'm telling you, my uncle is worth billions, if you can't cure him, see if I don't kill you!"

He was settling old scores with new ones and deliberately made his words very heavy.

Lin Ran knew what this guy had in mind, he didn't care and laughed.

"Healing and saving people is my job, you don't need to tell me that!"

"So are you taking him to the hospital today or not!"

Wycking looked at Lin Ran and scolded.

"No need, taking him to the hospital will only delay things!"

Lin Ran said firmly.

"Fine! Fine, then I'll see how you can cure him here today!"

Wycking's face was grim, while he took out the phone and called over and said.

"Bring the men and block the entrance of the company for me!"

Hearing Huaiking's words, Qin Bing and the others' faces sank.

Hanging up the phone, Huai King looked at Lin Ran and the others and sneered.

"If my uncle doesn't wake up today, none of you will be able to leave!"

"You!"

Qin Bing was so angry that she gritted her teeth and just wanted to explode, but she was stopped by Lin Ran.

"Don't worry, you will personally ask us to leave later!"

Looking at Huai King, Lin Ran laughed lightly, then pointed to the desk and said to the crowd.

"Carry the patient to the desk, I need acupuncture!"

"Acupuncture?"

Huai King looked at Lin Ran with disdain between his eyebrows.

"Kid, I'm warning you, if anything happens to my uncle, not only will I make you unable to leave today, I'll also kill you, do you believe me?"

"If you keep talking nonsense for a while, maybe your uncle will really be hopeless!"

Lin Ran said indifferently, without raising his head.

"You!"

Huaiking was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

However, Lin Ran didn't bother to pay any attention to him, and quickly took out the silver needles he carried with him, and then started to work.

He didn't know anything about acupuncture, but he had seen many masters of acupuncture, all of whom were elders who had seen half a hundred years.

"Uncle is a man of every penny, if this boy is not cured later, when I don't need to ask afterwards, uncle will naturally find him to settle the score!"

Huaiking calculated in his mind, his uncle's health he knew, long had a history of chest congestion, this time it was probably a relapse of an old illness, so he wasn't really that nervous.

If he dared to say that, even if he was Wu Huo's own nephew, I'm afraid he would have to take a beating.

Time passed by minute by minute, and now Lin Ran's control of acupuncture was getting faster and faster. With the cultivation of the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia and Lin Ran's own efforts, in just a few minutes' time, a full thirty-six stitches had all fallen.

Looking at Wu Huo on the desk, Huaiking looked tense, but in his heart he was still hoping for Lin Ran's failure, after all, this was the only way he would have a chance to fight back.

"Well?"

Qin Bing asked as he came up.

"It'll be fine in a moment."

Lin Ran said with a nod, then turned to look at Huai King and said.

"Go prepare a basin and come over!"

"A basin?"

Huaiking smiled and frowned slightly as he said in a deep voice.

"What do you need a basin for if you're treating a disease!"

He resisted Lin Ran, feeling that if he were to go, wouldn't he be bossed around by Lin Ran, which was unacceptable to him, and stood still without moving.

"Here's the basin!"

The female employee of the public office at the side was obedient and went to find a basin and gave it to Lin Ran.

As a result of the basin, Lin Ran looked at Wycking and smiled.

"I'm afraid this nephew of yours is a fake, he's not as good as the employees of the company, I really don't know if it's your uncle's sadness or your family's family style is like this!"

"You!"

Huaiking was so angry that his face turned blue, and he could feel the contempt in the gazes cast by people around him at this moment.

“Don’t be ridiculous, I’m just afraid that you’ll do something bad to my uncle, so I’m here to watch you!”

Huaiking hurriedly defended himself, but not many people believed this.

“Humph!”

Huaiking snorted coldly and did not say anything, but in his heart he was calculating.

“You’re so proud of yourself, I’ll see what you do if you can’t be cured later!”

Ten minutes passed quickly, but Wu Huo on the desk still did not show the slightest sign of recovery, still lying on him, breathing weakly, without any change.

“Kid! Ten minutes have passed, isn’t it time for you to explain!”

Huaiking pinched his watch, and just after ten minutes had passed, he spoke up and chided, pretending to be very concerned about his uncle.

“Why are you in a hurry?”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Cut the fucking crap, you’ve already delayed my uncle for almost twenty minutes, I and I don’t have time to spend with you, if you can’t cure him, get lost, don’t delay me from taking my uncle to the hospital.”

Huaiking scolded.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“I’m the doctor, where else are you going to send him?”

“Bullshit, so what if you’re a doctor, it’s not like you’re the only hospital in Tanjiang City!”

Huaiking sneered.

“O? Is that so? Then it seems you don’t want to save your uncle after all!”

Lin Ran laughed, and as a kind of people around him didn’t quite understand, Qin Bing said at just the right moment.

“Shentai Square, the nearest one is the Tanjiang Hospital, and we are from the Tanjiang Hospital, can't it be that you still want to sacrifice the near and send your uncle to a hospital that is far away?”

“I”

Huaiking didn't know how to retort for a moment.

Lin Ran interjected.

“It seems that you have another plan, ah, if this matter is known by your uncle, will he think that it is his own nephew who does not want to save himself!”

“You don't have to talk nonsense, the relationship between Laozi and my uncle is not something you can provoke!”

Huaiking was a little anxious, if this was known by Wu Huo, then he would really be unable to wash his hands in the Yellow River.

When he was about to find a reason to retaliate, Wu Huo, who was lying on the desk, twitched a few times and then sat up directly, crawling towards the side and vomiting.

This vomit, just all in the basin next to him, the surrounding people looked a little shocked.

The people around him were all a bit shocked. They saw that what Wu Huo vomited out was burnt black, as if his body was full of ink.

“How could this happen!”

Seeing the contents of the basin, Huai King was equally shocked and pointed at Lin Ran, berating him.

“What did you do to my uncle, why did you even vomit out bile!”

“Don't talk nonsense if you don't know, is this bile!”

Qin Bing scolded, she had long looked at Huaiking unfavourably, now she had a chance to refute the other party, naturally she would not let go.

“Then what do you think it is!”

Huai King chided.

Before Qin Bing could reply, Wu Huo, who was sitting at the table, spoke up.

“Bastard, the doctor is looking at the patient, what are you blindly participating in on the sidelines, if not for you bastard, Laozi’s illness would have been cured long ago!”

Seeing that Wu Hugh could still speak, the crowd couldn’t help but sigh with relief, but Huaiking was upset in his heart and hurried to explain.

“No uncle, I was afraid he would delay your illness!”

“Delay my condition? He’s your doctor, you’re a doctor, you don’t understand and still get involved blindly, fortunately I’m fine this time, otherwise I wouldn’t be able to spare you!”

Wu Huo glared at Huai King, scaring the latter to stop talking nonsense.

“Aiya, thank you so much!”

Wu Hugh got down from the table, shook Lin Ran’s hand and thanked the group of doctors.

“No need, it’s what we should have done!”

Lin Ran laughed.

Wu Hugh glanced at Lin Ran’s badge and then laughed.

“By the way, Doctor Lin, what is this illness of mine, why is it so sudden? Not only did I commit it suddenly, I got well so suddenly too!”

Wu Huo tried to take a few deep breaths and found that there was no longer any sign of a chest.

“This is caused by you smoking!”

Lin Ran said, while pointing to the basin on one side and letting him see for himself.

When Wu Huo saw what was in the basin, he was taken aback and hurriedly asked.

“How can this be, how come the one I spat out is black, it’s not right!”

Lin Ran smiled as he stepped forward and laughed.

“There’s nothing wrong, you’re not like the others, you’re smoking human oil cigarettes!”
