

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 191

The next morning.

Lin Ran arrived at his friend's construction site early with Luo Cheng, and to Lin Ran's surprise, Luo Qiqi actually came with him.

When he arrived at the construction site, Lin Ran found that it was a floor under construction, the main body had been completed, but the walls had not yet been tiled, and Lin Ran could see the tiling work halfway through from a distance.

“Old Luo, you're here, where's brother Lin Ran?”

Soon a young man with yellow skin and a slightly chubby build came running over, he was about Lin Ran's age and looked very competent with his construction site helmet.

“This is Lin Ran!”

Luo Cheng introduced with a smile.

“Hello brother Lin Ran, my name is Chu Nan!”

The youth said with a smile.

“Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran extended his hand and shook his, then asked with a smile.

“What’s wrong with this construction site of yours?”

“It’s like this, brother Lin Ran, let’s talk about it as we walk!”

Chu Nan said busily.

Lin Ran nodded, and in a whirlwind, the group of people walked over towards the site and went inside.

On the way, Chu Nan told the situation once again.

It turned out that there had always been a strange phenomenon at his construction site, from the time the main body of the building was first constructed, whenever it exceeded three storeys in height, something strange would appear at the southeast corner of the house.

In the beginning, it was the building as a whole, and the southeast corner was drying out faster than the other locations. At first, people thought it was because the sun was rising from the east and didn’t care.

However, as the main building was completed and work began on the windows and other external wall laying, the problem arose.

Initially, when renovating the windows in the south-east corner, workers were often inexplicably primed with vertigo and even had trouble seeing out of their eyes.

Later, when painting the external walls, still in the south-east corner, several workers were burnt in different groups.

There was even a worker’s rope that was inexplicably burnt off later on, but people working at height are not allowed to carry fire sources at all!

“In recent days, several workers were putting up bricks, but somehow they got burnt, and some even suffered heat stroke! This”

Chu Nan said at the end, simply a little frantic, everywhere else was fine, it was this southeast corner that kept having problems.

“How are the workers’ bodies after treatment?”

Lin Ran asked.

“After treatment their bodies have all recovered, but as soon as they started working, they had heat stroke again, and now there are already people among the workers saying something about it being haunted, and it’s causing panic!”

Chu Nan was puzzled, seeing that the deadline was approaching, if he could not finish the work on time again, when the time came, it would be a small matter to deduct the wages of the workers, but it would be a big matter to delay the salary payment of a group of people under his command.

“Don’t worry, since I’m here, I’ll naturally do my best!”

Lin Ran said.

“Then, thank you, brother Lin Ran!”

Chu Nan said gratefully.

The group soon arrived at the dormitory of the sick employees, and under Chu Nan’s arrangement, Lin Ran met with these people and then helped them check their bodies.

Taking this time, Chu Nan then pulled Luo Cheng aside and ran, whispering.

“Old Luo, you’re not fucking kidding me, this friend of yours is even younger than me, can he do it?”

“What the hell do you know, my friend used to be the director of the Chinese medicine department in Tanjiang City, and is even more proficient in feng shui, just this little shit of yours, I guarantee that just this once, he will be able to give you a good look!”

Luo Cheng said.

Chu Nan, however, had a difficult look on his face and said.

“Don’t lie to me, that kid Xi Bei has also found someone, if I let him solve this, I won’t be able to save my face in front of the boss in the future!”

“Xibei? What kind of person could he find?”

Luo Cheng said disdainfully, he had heard of this person, Xi Bei, said to be Chu Nan’s rival, both of them are doing engineering contracting, now both are in this construction site, just responsible for different areas.

“I heard that he is a feng shui master, originally this is my place, it is not his kid’s turn to interfere, but the boss saw that my side has not been done for half a month, that’s why he asked him to help!”

Chu Nan said.

Luo Cheng nodded at his words and said blandly.

“Don’t worry, you’re still not sure about the person I found!”

“That’s fine!”

Seeing that Luo Cheng was so sure of himself, Chu Nan could not say anything else, he just nodded and did not say anything more.

Luo Cheng suddenly thought of something and opened his mouth to remind.

“I can tell you, this friend of mine is a person with real ability, don’t say everything, if you offend him, even I can’t protect you!”

“Really?”

Chu Nan looked surprised and didn’t quite believe it.

“You’ll find out later!”

Luo Cheng didn’t say much, smiled blandly, and then swirled into the room.

In the room, Lin Ran had already checked the physical conditions of all the employees who had problems.

“How is it?”

Luo Cheng came up and asked.

“Yes! Brother Lin Ran, how is it going?”

Chu Nan also followed in and hurriedly asked.

“We don’t know the exact situation yet, but their heatstroke is very special!”

Lin Ran said.

“Very special? What do you mean?”

Chu Nan didn't understand, wasn't it just heatstroke? Why is it still special?

“To put it simply, normal heatstroke is because the weather is too hot, at this time, the patient's whole body temperature will rise, but these workers of yours, only have a very high localized body temperature!”

Lin Ran said, bringing two electronic thermometers and said.

“This is what I just measured, their back temperature is nearly twenty degrees different from the temperature of the other locations!”

“This”

Chu Nan was a bit at a loss for words, and Luo Cheng, who was at the side, saw this and asked.

“So what now? Are there any problems with their bodies?”

“There's nothing wrong with their bodies, the cause of the problem should be upstairs, we have to go to the field to take a look!”

Lin Ran said.

“Upstairs?”

Hearing Lin Ran's words, Chu Nan's face instantly turned very ugly.

The building was modified by him, if anything really went wrong, the consequences of this would not only be losing his family's money, but he might even have to go to jail.

“Don’t worry, things shouldn’t be as serious as you think!”

Lin Ran comforted, but it was obviously of little use, Chu Nan’s face still looked very ugly.

“Let’s go, since we’ve come across this matter, we always have to solve it!”

Luo Cheng patted Chu Nan’s shoulder and said.

“Ai! Alright!”

Chu Nan sighed helplessly, he actually understood in his heart, except that when he ran into this kind of thing, he really didn’t want to think about the building, after all, that was all he had.

Just as the group was about to leave the room, suddenly, a voice was the one that rang out from outside the door.

“Where else are you going? There’s no need to go, I’ve already sorted things out!”

“Xi Bei! You bastard!”

Chu Nan’s face instantly turned blue when he heard that, this was not just about the construction site, but also about ability and face.

If something happened on his own site and he let Xi Bei, the other site, decide, how could he be allowed to work on his own site in the future, and how could he still have any prestige in front of his men in the future?

The four men followed him out of the room, only to see outside, a dark-skinned young man, about the same age as the others, wearing a safety helmet, with a smug smile on his face.

Next to him stood an old man, over half a hundred years old, with white hair, holding a floating dust in his hand, looking immortal.

Seeing a few people come out, Xi Bei pointed to the old man beside him and laughed.

“This is Daoist Master Li, he has already found out the reason for the matter, so you guys don’t need to waste any more effort!”

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 192

“Bullshit you! When did you find out, why don’t I know!”

Chu Nan questioned.

“Just now!”

Xibei said smugly, while beckoning the helpful old man to tell him what had happened.

Seeing this, Daoist Master Li, with a wisp of his beard and a picture of virtue, laughed and said.

“In this matter, I have indeed found out that it was because of a missing step during the heavenly ritual that caused the Heavenly Master to be enraged, thus sending down the calamity!”

“Sacrifice to the heavens?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words.

“What the hell? Sacrificing to the heavens? Why don’t you enter the earth!”

Chu Nan retorted.

“Ignorant little child, what do you know!”

Daoist Master Li raised his cold eyebrows and scolded.

“In building a house and building a room, sacrificing to the heavens is a very important process, and one thing is missing that needs to be worshipped!”

Chu Nan sniffed disdainfully.

“Don’t show off to me, I can do construction work without knowing this, I have worshipped every time before the construction work starts!”

“No, no, no! You may have worshipped, but your worship was wrong!”

Daoist Master Li said with a clear mind.

“Then tell me, where did I go wrong?”

Chu Nan sneered, he didn’t believe this Daoist Master Li’s words, if he really worshipped wrongly, how come all his previous projects were fine, but this one was the only one that had problems!

“It’s actually very simple, you were missing one very important thing when you made the worship!”

Daoist Master Li said, probing his hand and taking out a bottle with some liquid inside.

“What the hell is it?”

Chu Nan asked.

“This is celestial water!”

Daoist Master Li smiled mysteriously.

“Heavenly water? You’re not going to say that it’s raining, are you!”

Chu Nan said disdainfully.

“That’s right, it is the rain that falls, the rain that does not fall to the ground, also called rootless water!”

Daoist Master Li said smugly.

“I’ve never really heard of worshipping rootless water! You’re afraid you’re not a liar!”

Chu Nan said.

Daoist Master Li smiled blandly at his words, and then said.

“Ignorant little child, how can a Feng Shui course be understood by a mere mortal like you?”

Chu Nan laughed coldly at his words.

“Then why was the project completed safely when I didn’t worship the rootless water before, but not this time’s?”

“This”

Daoist Master Li was dumbfounded by the question and pondered for a moment before saying.

“That is because rootless water is not the main material for worship, normally the heavens turn a blind eye to it and forgive you for the sake of the goodness of the heavens, but this time the heavens do not see your sincerity, so they send down frequent calamities!”

At this explanation from Daoist Master Li, Chu Nan was somewhat at a loss as to how to respond, and could only turn his head to look at Lin Ran.

“Daoist Master Li, can you lend me this rootless water of yours to take a look at!”

Lin Ran stepped forward two paces and smiled blandly.

“Unbridled!”

Daoist Master Li’s face snapped and he said.

“This rootless water of mine has been enchanted with magical power, how can it be touched at will by a mere mortal like you?”

“Is that so? It’s fine not to look, but I would like to ask, Daoist Master Li, how much did you pay for this rootless water?”

Lin Ran continued.

“You ignorant little boy, I’ve said it’s rootless water, how can you buy it with money!”

Daoist Master Li chided.

Lin Ran smiled faintly at his words, and then said.

“That’s strange, why does this rootless water of yours look just like mineral water?”

“You What nonsense are you talking about! What mineral water, this is rootless water for me!”

Daoist Li hurriedly defended.

Lin Ran, however, turned his eyebrows and said.

“That’s not right! I’ve seen rootless water before and it all has impurities in it, how come this rootless water of yours has nothing in it and looks just like mineral water!”

“You”

Daoist Li was so angry that he blew out his beard and said once again.

“I’ve said it, I’ve said that this is rootless water that has been treated with magic power, how can it be compared to ordinary rootless water!”

“O? Is that so?”

Lin Ran said, circling around Daoist Master Li, then asked with a smile.

“Daoist Master Li, do you prefer hot tea water, or the mineral water sold in shops outside?”

“What?”

Daoist Master Li was a little confused at his words and frowned.

“Nonsense, of course that’s hot tea water!”

Generally virtuous people liked to drink tea, so naturally he didn’t say anything about mineral water.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, followed by what was actually a very unexpected slap directly on Daoist Li’s waist.

Just as the crowd looked dumbfounded, they heard a “bang” and a mineral water bottle fell off Daoist Li’s waist.

“Great! What is this?”

Chu Nan’s quick eyes and quick hands, before Daoist Li could pick it up, he snatched it up and put it in his hand.

“Give it back to me!”

Daoist Li said with an ugly look on his face.

Lin Ran, however, stepped between the two, and then laughed.

“Daoist Master Li, you said you like and tea right, then this mineral water should not have touched a single sip, right?”

“Who said that, I was unbearably thirsty just now, so I took a sip!”

Daoist Master Li said.

“Really? Then it looks like you took quite a few sips, there’s a fifth of water missing from this water bottle!”

Lin Ran said, taking the mineral water bottle and placing it next to Daoist Master Li, laughing.

“But how do I see this rootless water, it seems to be mineral water, Daoist Master Li, why don’t you pour the rootless water in and see? Maybe it just happens to be a bottle!”

Daoist Master Li’s face instantly changed at his words, this so-called rootless water of his was indeed poured out from inside the mineral water, he forgot to throw the bottle away in the rush to come just now, and this was why it stayed on his body.

“What? Daoist Master Li doesn’t dare?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“I think it’s 80% mineral water, this kind of person actually has people believing his bullshit, it’s simply idiotic!”

Chu Nan chimed in beside him again.

“You!”

Xi Bei’s face turned blue at his words, and he turned to Daoist Master Li.

“Daoist Master Li, just do it and show them, you are so capable, can’t you still be afraid of their slander!”

He was very trusting of Daoist Master Li.

“This

Hearing Xi Bei’s words, Daoist Master Li stammered and looked embarrassed.

“Daoist Master Li! What is there to hesitate about!”

Xi Bei once again urged.

“Xi Bei, it seems that Daoist Master Li is a thief with a weak heart!”

Chu Nan laughed beside him again.

“You!”

This time it was Xi Bei’s turn to look ugly.

Just as the two were tit-for-tat, suddenly Chu Nan moved, and he took advantage of Daoist Master Li’s inattention to actually snatch the rootless water out of his hand.

“Give it back to me!” Daoist Master Li was instantly panicked.

But how could Chu Nan give it back to him? With a shake of his palm, he followed and poured all the rootless into the mineral water bottle without pulling a drop.

Luo Qiqi exclaimed at the side.

Chu Nan looked at Xi Bei and laughed.

“Xi Bei, did not expect ah, just a bottle of mineral water to get rid of you, you are really good at fooling ah!”

“You!”

Xi Bei blushed ugly and turned to look at Daoist Master Li.

“Daoist Master, what is going on here!”

Daoist Master Li naturally could not admit it and said.

“It just happened, moreover, now that the rootless water has fused with the mineral group water, you can’t conclude that this is mineral water just because it’s synthesized into a bottle of water!”

“That’s really shameless!”

Chu Nan said coldly, he had seen shameless people, but he had never seen such a shameless person.

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 193

“Humph! Cut the crap, if you want me to admit that this is mineral water, then show the evidence, without evidence you are slandering!”

Daoist Master Li said directly, clearly as if he would not admit it without producing evidence.

Seeing this, Chu Nan got a little angry and was just about to explode, but he was stopped by Lin Ran.

“Fine, in that case, then please ask Daoist Master Li to cast a spell now and solve the problem of this building, if the problem is solved, then this rootless water only claim of yours will naturally be confirmed, if it is not solved, then won’t it be uncontradicted!”

“Right! Cast a spell now and see!”

Xibei said hurriedly at his words, if it really could be solved, this would be considered his credit.

“Lin...”

Chu Nan was a little anxious, if it was really solved, then he would be passive.

“Don’t worry!”

Lin Ran patted him, signalling that there was no need to be nervous.

“Don’t worry, Brother Lin Ran won’t do anything that he’s not sure of!”

Luo Cheng also came up to persuade.

“That’s fine!”

Seeing that Luo Cheng had said so, Chu Nan could not say anything else and had to agree.

“Daoist Master Li, can we start now.”

Lin Ran turned his head and looked at Daoist Master Li.

“This...”

Daoist Master Li had a difficult look on his face.

“What? Dao Master Li still has questions?”

Lin Ran smiled lightly.

“What a waste of words, how could Daoist Master Li still have a problem!”

Xi Bei stood out and said, at this point in time, it was already very obvious, whether or not he was really capable, all he needed to do was cast the spell on the spot and the truth would be revealed.

“Daoist Master Li, let’s begin! Let this group of ignorant children see your true ability!”

Xi Bei said triumphantly.

“This”

Daoist Master Li still tried to find an excuse to shirk, but Xi Bei was a little impatient and said.

“Daoist Master Li, what are you hesitating for? If you don’t start, I’ll have to start over and consider cooperation again!”

“Good! Start, this is how it starts!”

Hearing the reconsideration of cooperation, Daoist Master Li hesitated, it was about the honorarium.

“Please!”

Lin Ran greeted with a smile.

Daoist Li’s face was filled with an ugly look and he gave Lin Ran a fierce glare before he reluctantly walked towards the construction site.

A group of people followed behind and soon reached the floor where the accident had occurred.

Only to see Daoist Li greeting the workers in a decent manner and setting up a table, then taking out the tools for casting spells.

The only thing that surprised Lin Ran was that this guy had actually taken out another half bottle of the so-called rootless water.

“This is the last half bottle, if you guys are messing up, there’s nothing I can do to help!”

Daoist Master Li said, while placing the Rootless Water on the table.

Seeing that the crowd around him was silent, their eyes fixed on him, Daoist Master Li knew that it was impossible to put this off, so he could only use his lifelong mastery and recite all the spells he knew.

“Mamma mamma boom, heavenly thunder rolls through the heavens, today’s sacrifice to make up for the crossed beams, I hope the heavens will be gracious and return my construction site to build a building!”

The first thing that happened was that the charm seal in the hand of Daoist Li was flung, and it burned to powder with a “boom”, a scene that really bluffed a lot of people.

“See! This is the strength of Daoist Master Li, can you do it?”

Xi Bei laughed triumphantly.

Chu Nan and the others looked ugly and didn’t say anything, but Lin Ran laughed and shook his head helplessly.

“Originally, in my professional ethics, I didn’t want to say anything, but you’ve said it, so I can only say it!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his hand, and at the same time picked up a talisman seal, before flicking it out, followed by a “boom” as the seal actually burnt up as well.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

This time, Luo Cheng and Chu Nan both looked over, their eyes filled with astonishment.

“There is white phosphorus on this seal, it will become natural when it meets the air, a jianghu trick!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

Luo Cheng and Chu Nan smiled as they were suddenly in a daze of realization.

“You!”

Daoist Master Li’s face was ugly, his own tricks being poked at by Lin Ran made him come to his face a little embarrassed.

“So what if you know the trick, Daoist Master Li can get up to the will of heaven, can you?”

Xi Bei said, still smug.

Lin Ran found that this kid seemed to be lacking in tendons, he couldn’t even see such an obvious trick, he really didn’t know how such an IQ could sit in the management.

“Brother Lin Ran doesn’t need to be surprised, this kid is brainless in all aspects except for the site matters.”

Chu Nan laughed beside him again.

Lin Ran smiled slightly at his words, then looked at Daoist Master Li, who by now had already started packing up his things with a relaxed look on his face.

“Daoist Master Li, is this the end?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Or what? The rootless water has already been sacrificed to the heavens, this won’t happen in the future!”

Daoist Master Li said confidently, he had enquired before coming here, this strange thing didn’t happen every day, so he was done with this false shot.

When problems arose later, he would have already slipped away, so who would care about what happened here.

“In that case, then would you also ask Daoist Master Li to test it out?”

Lin Ran suddenly said with a smile.

“Test?”

Daoist Master Li’s face sank, but Xi Bei on the side said with glee.

“No problem! I agree with this brother’s opinion, only after testing will it be more convincing!”

Xi Bei said with a face full of triumph, he did believe in Daoist Master Li, if the latter could go up and test it out himself, wouldn’t that stiffen his back!

“That’s not right, I’m an old man, do I have to hang from a height of more than ten metres?”

Daoist Master Li said as he wisped his beard.

Lin Ran smiled at this but said.

“No need, didn’t the workers who installed the glass before also have problems, you can just stand at the window for a while!”

“Yes! No problem!”

Xi Bei agreed straight away, which made Daoist Li’s face sink and his heart panic a little.

“It only happens once every few days, I shouldn’t be that unlucky!”

Daoist Master Li thought in his mind, for the sake of the hundreds of thousands of honorarium that Xi Bei had promised, he still decided to take the risk.

“Yes! But”

Daoist Li said and turned to look at Xi Bei, reaching out his hand to gesture, the meaning was very obvious that he had to add money.

“Don’t worry!”

Xi Bei nodded at him, indicating that it was no problem.

If he could show his face in front of his boss this time, there would be endless projects to do in the future, so he would not care about this honorarium.

The group of people soon arrived at the floor where the accident happened, a building located on the sixth floor.

Chu Nan had someone open the room, and then led the group to the window where the previous accident had occurred.

The window here hadn't been installed yet as it had been out of order before, but at this moment, the sunlight outside was kind and there was only a small breeze blowing on this sixth floor, which was very comfortable.

“Let's get started!”

Lin Ran greeted.

Daoist Li snorted coldly at his words and followed, then went to the window, then turned backwards and leaned against it with his back.

Although it was a gamble on luck, one's own safety had to be taken care of, and it was better to use one's back against the window than one's chest, and if something did go wrong, at least it would be farther away from one's heart, and one more chance of survival.

But just after Daoist Li stood by the window, just half a minute later, the faces of the crowd changed, looking at Daoist Li, everyone's face was filled with shock and fear.

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 194

“What kind of eyes are you all looking at!”

Daoist Li's heart trembled as he watched, it had only been a mere moment, how the eyes of the crowd had changed.

“Li... Daoist Master Li, behind you... Smoke... Smoke is coming out!”

Xi Bei was the first to speak up.

“What?”

Daoist Master Li was a little confused at his words, how could smoke be rising from behind him, he immediately turned his head to look, but where could he see his back, he could only see wolf smoke rising behind him, it was very scary.

“Oops!”

Suddenly, Daoist Li felt a hot roll on his back, so frightened that he hurriedly fell to the ground and rolled.

“Quickly save him!”

The men behind him rushed forward, pouring water on him and pounding on him, and finally extinguished the flames on his back.

But at that moment, looking at Daoist Master Li, his whole body had been smouldering like charcoal, and there was not a single piece of good skin left.

“Daoist Master Li, how could this happen, didn’t you say you had solved it?”

Xi Bei looked at Taoist Master Li with doubts in his eyes.

“Can’t you see? Also Daoist Master Li, you’re simply a Li liar!”

Chu Nan said.

“Impossible, how can Daoist Master Li be a liar!”

Xi Bei did not want to believe it, he really trusted Daoist Master Li.

“It’s your business if you don’t believe it, but anyone with a little use of intelligence can see it!”

Luo Qiqi said again beside her, her words were pertinent, and all those present, except for Xi Bei, could really see it.

“You are blinded by the fight!”

Luo Cheng stood out and said, shaking his head at the same time.

“That’s impossible!”

Xi Bei was still unconvinced and snapped his head around to look at Chu Nan.

“You say that Daoist Li is a liar, could it be that the person you are looking for is not? If you have the guts, you can find out the reason yourself!”

Daoist Master Li was dumbfounded by the sniff and hurriedly looked at Lin Ran who was to one side.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

Luo Cheng also looked over, and Luo Qiqi on the side likewise cast her gaze over.

“I’ll take a look at the situation first!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

He then went to the window.

Daoist Master Li’s face was ugly as he stood by the side and didn’t leave, he wanted to see what name this hairy boy in front of him could see.

“Daoist Master Li, you’re still here, aren’t you? The clothes are rotten!”

Chu Nan saw what he was thinking and opened his mouth to mock.

“Not leaving!”

Daoist Master Li said in a cold voice, at this moment he was harbouring a breath of anger in his heart, he just had to wait for Lin Ran’s result, if this kid was a fraud like himself, then he could still save some face, or at least not lose too much face.

“Be my guest!”

Chu Nan laughed without speaking and turned to look at Lin Ran.

By now Lin Ran had already reached the window, he stared outside and didn’t notice anything strange.

The layout of the entire district, which he had seen in his office before, combined with the field survey after arriving here, did not reveal anything strange.

But there was no problem with the feng shui, so where could the problem lie?

Lin Ran's heart was puzzled and his gaze involuntarily glanced towards the distance.

Suddenly, Lin Ran felt a blinding light shine on his eyes, causing him to dodge away, but even so the momentary glare still stung his eyes.

“What's wrong?”

Luo Qiqi was attentive, and when she saw Lin Ran's face suddenly change, she hurriedly came over.

“Nothing!”

Lin Ran shook his head while quickly mobilising his True Qi to suppress the burning pain on his eyes.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

Luo Cheng and Chu Nan also hurriedly came over, very concerned.

“It's really alright, I need a piece of paper!”

Lin Ran said.

“I have it here!”

Chu Nan hurriedly took out a piece of paper from his pocket.

Lin Ran took it, followed by placing the paper at the window and began to move the position back and forth.

“What's this? Is this a big dance?”

On the side, Daoist Li, who had been waiting for a long time, finally found the time to speak up and sneered.

“Shut up! If you don’t speak, no one will take you for a mute!”

Chu Nan opened his mouth and scolded.

Xi Bei couldn’t listen to him anymore and sneered.

“What, your people can’t find the reason, what’s the rage at my people!”

“Who said that Brother Lin Ran couldn’t find a way, isn’t this already a browbeat!”

Chu Nan retorted.

Xi Bei smiled at his words but laughed.

“Find the eyebrows? Is that how you jump to the gods? Haha!”

“Shut up!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran turned his head and scolded, his gaze was so cold that it didn’t enter any emotion, and for a while it scared Xi Bei so much that he didn’t dare to make a sound.

The surroundings quieted down before Lin Ran turned his head and continued to look around.

Soon he noticed something was wrong.

“How is Lin Ran?”

Seeing Lin Ran turn around, Chu Nan hurriedly stepped forward and asked.

“Yeah, how is it?”

Luo Cheng was equally curious.

Luo Qiqi was even straining her ears, waiting for Lin Ran’s conclusion.

As for Master Li, and Xi Bei, who were on the side, they had disdainful faces, as if they didn’t believe Lin Ran could find the key to the problem at all.

Lin Ran smiled lightly, then pointed out the window and said.

“Looking out from here, what can you see?”

The crowd could not help but be stunned at his words, and each of them looked towards the window, and upon this glance, they could not help but be confused for a while.

“Lin... Brother Lin Ran, isn’t this outside the district?”

Chu Nan said in confusion.

“Could it be that the feng shui outside has affected this place?”

Luo Cheng was equally puzzled.

“Kid, don’t sell a story, just say something!”

Daoist Master Li said impatiently, he didn’t believe Lin Ran could find the reason at all, at this moment he had a belly full of sneers ready, just waiting for Lin Ran to speak.

“Kid you’re afraid you don’t dare to!”

Xi Bei likewise sneered.

Lin Ran looked at the two, shook his head helplessly, and then laughed.

“You can just about see it from here, the TV tower in Temperance City!”

“Pfft...”

The moment those words left their mouths, the crowd all almost didn’t spurt out a mouthful of old blood, wasn’t that nonsense.

The tower of the Tamagawa City TV station was a landmark, and they were not far from the station, so they could see it very clearly, even that telescope could see the scene of people working inside.

“Kid! You’re out of your mind, even a child can see from such a close distance, do you think we’re all idiots!”

Daoist Li said disdainfully.

“Exactly! If you can’t find the cause, say you can’t find it, find such a cheap excuse, fooling the devil!”

Xi Bei likewise scoffed.

Luo Cheng and Chu Nan were a little embarrassed and wanted to ask what was going on.

But at that moment, Luo Shanshan, who was at the side, spoke up.

“You guys are indeed stupid, what Lin Ran told you to look at wasn’t even that!”

“You!”

Luo Shanshan's words immediately caused the crowd to blush, and even Luo Cheng and Chu Nan couldn't help but feel their cheeks burning hot.

"Then what is it that you are looking at!"

Luo Cheng asked busily.

Luo Qiqi smiled mysteriously and glanced at Lin Ran, seeing that the latter smiled and did not stop before continuing.

"What Lin Ran is showing you is, the glass of the TV station tower!"

"The glass?"

The crowd was stunned at the words, and then looked again, and under this look the crowd's hearts were already, vaguely thinking of something.

Luo Qiqi laughed at the situation and said.

"That's right, if I'm not wrong, it should be the glass outside the TV station tower, reflecting the sunlight to here, and by chance and coincidence, gathered together, thus causing this situation!"

With that, Luo Qiqi found a board and followed it to block the window, while later she found a piece of paper and placed it in the place where the fire had previously caught.

And this time, after putting it for a full two minutes, the paper didn't change at all, instead, smoke soon rose from the board.

"It's a physical phenomenon!"

Luo Qiqi said triumphantly.

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 195

“This How is this possible!”

Daoist Li's face was ugly, he couldn't believe that he had engaged in daytime white-knuckle work and in the end it was actually because of a TV tower.

“Isn't this experiment enough to explain everything?”

Luo Qiqi raised the board and paper in her hand, and Daoist Master Li looked dumbfounded.

“Daoist Master Li! This”

Xi Bei wanted to say something else, but Daoist Master Li said with an arch of his hand.

“Not as skilled as others, farewell!”

“Hey hey Daoist Master Li! Daoist Master Li!”

Xi Bei hurriedly chased after him, and the two soon disappeared into the to building.

“Wimps!”

Watching the two leave, Chu Nan laughed smugly, he was very happy to have defeated Xi Bei this time.

“Right, brother Lin Ran, so how is this problem going to be solved!”

Luo Cheng, who was at the side, opened his mouth and asked.

Only then did Chu Nan remember that the matter had only found the cause, it had not yet been said how to solve it.

“Right, brother Lin Ran, how is this reflection thing going to be solved!”

“You want to ask me about this matter too?”

Lin Ran looked at Chu Nan with a smile.

Chu Nan felt his head dizzy, snapped his thighs and laughed bitterly.

“Look at this brain of mine, I’m engaged in construction sites, I’ve actually forgotten about this matter!”

Kidding aside, how could a person who was engaged in construction sites not know the solution to the reflection, Chu Nan was also confused in a hurry.

Moreover, Lin Ran’s performance just now was so eye-catching that he had already taken Lin Ran as his main backbone, which was why he didn’t think about it for a while.

“Stupid you are!”

Luo Cheng said beside him again, in fact he had forgotten about this just now, and at this moment he covered up his embarrassment by counting out Chu Nan.

“Haha, well no more fooling around, I’ll go and arrange it, noon must be my treat, let’s go for a rubdown!”

Chu Nan laughed.

“No need!”

Lin Ran laughed and shook his head, however, Luo Cheng came over and said.

“Don’t, this meal must be on him today, this matter has been settled, he is earning several millions, a meal only!”

“After the sacrifice, you’re kidding!”

Chu Nan laughed, and promptly ran off to arrange for someone to handle the reflections.

The restaurant at noon was set at a nearby three-star hotel, to which Lin Ran also opinion, after all, this kind of thing he did not care at all.

The four people who came to eat together were still Lin Ran, but in order to show his sincerity, Chu Nan ordered a large table of dishes, which made people’s eyes greedy.

Luo Qiqi was like a nobody, burying her head in the food she liked, and from time to time, she even gave Lin Ran some food, which made Luo Cheng, who was looking at the side, feel very sad.

“I say Qiki ah, I’m your brother, you haven’t even passed the door yet, is it necessary to be so active?”

“Didn’t you say that?”

Luo Qiqi looked at Luo Cheng with a serious face and said.

“What did I say? What did I say?”

Luo Cheng was astonished, how could he not remember what he had said.

“You said that you should take the initiative to attack the target you have identified, aren’t I trying to attack now?”

Luo Qiqi said.

“Er”

Luo Cheng was speechless, and Lin Ran was even sweating as he listened.

“Qiqi ah, actually there are still many boys better than me, you may have seen too little, in the future you may come across a boy better than me”

Before Lin Ran could finish his words, Luo Qiqi gave an interruption.

“No way, I’m not a philanderer, I’ll just recognize you!”

.....

“That, little beauty, consider the feelings of these single dogs, okay!”

Chu Nan said with tears in his eyes.

“Haha, you remind me of someone with that comment!”

Luo Qiqi laughed, she remembered Wang Yifeng, this guy had said the same thing yesterday.

“Wang Yifeng?”

Lin Ran smiled at that, it was lucky that he didn't shout at this guy today, otherwise this guy could definitely make things more complicated, even more complicated than even Daoist Li.

Luo Cheng knew Wang Yifeng, but from the mouth of Luo Qiqi, the specific two did not have a deep friendship, as for Chu Nan, he did not know Wang Yifeng at the press level.

The four talked and ate, and soon a large portion of the meal was down, but after all, there were only four people, and in the end there was still a lot left.

Just as the four were about to leave with a big bag.

Suddenly, Luo Qiqi actually covered her stomach and slumped onto the table, her expression looking very painful.

“Lin Ran, I

Luo Qiqi was so uncomfortable that she couldn't even say the words at the end.

“Kiki!”

Luo Cheng was worried about his sister and just wanted to come over to help, but as soon as he got up, he followed his own stomach that hurt as if it was cramping and was unbearably uncomfortable.

“Chu Nan, what the hell kind of rice are you fucking looking for”

A sentence did not finish, followed by Luo Cheng also pain lying on the table can not move.

And in looking at Chu Nan, at this time, the pain has long been green in the face.

“Food poisoning?”

This was the first thought that popped into Lin Ran’s head.

He was definitely fine because of the true qi in his body, which could be said to be invulnerable to all poisons, food poisoning could not possibly hurt him at all.

“Save the people first.”

At this moment, the situation was urgent, so Lin Ran didn’t care about anything else and hurriedly rushed to Luo Qiqi’s side, pouring a strand of true qi into it.

This was followed by Luo Cheng and Chu Nan.

After infusing the three strands of true qi in, Lin Ran was ready to go and ask for the two rooms, although the true qi had been infused in, the side effects of food poisoning could not be completely eradicated, after all, this true qi was Lin Ran’s and when it arrived in their bodies, the degree of fit was limited.

“Quickly, someone, food poisoning!”

“Someone come quickly”

As soon as he left the private room, cries of food poisoning were heard throughout the building, and Lin Ran’s entire face instantly changed.

“Can’t be the whole hotel, all of them have food poisoning, right!”

Lin Ran was shocked and looked at the two private rooms one by one, and found that the people inside, actually all really looked sickly.

“This is troublesome!”

Lin Ran calculated in his mind how exactly to proceed.

Just then, a group of people suddenly rushed in from the entrance of the building, and Lin Ran’s eyes lit up at a glance.

“Li Zheng! Qin Bing! What are you doing here!”

The people who came were none other than the doctors from Temperance City, not only Li Zheng, but also Qin Bing and the others.

“It’s a long story, hurry up and save the people!”

Qin Bing greeted, while Li Zheng said as he ran.

“We were doing a charity clinic in the next neighbourhood, and when we heard that something had happened here, we rushed over.

“Good!”

Lin Ran nodded, his heart dropped when these people came.

Whirling back to the hotel, he used the chairs to set up three barely-formed beds and placed the three on them to rest, following which he rushed out of the room to help save the people.

A three-star hotel, a massive food poisoning, even attracted journalists.

The food poisoning of hundreds of customers, on such a large scale, was not only rare in history, but also in the entire city of Tamagawa.

Lin Ran didn't have time to ask Li Zheng and the others for medical equipment, but of course he didn't need them either.

Under the frantic consumption of true qi in his body, the toxins in each individual's body were rapidly expelled.

However, the toxins were expelled, but these people did not get well immediately, they still needed to go through a process, a process of running and straining.

The rescue was in full swing, but Lin Ran did not know that at the entrance of the hotel, two figures were looking at each other, with a sneer on their faces and smugness in their eyes.

“How about it Brother Qi, this trick of mine definitely works, the media are here today, I still don't believe I can't cure this kid!”

Jianhao looked at the busy scene inside the hotel and was pleased with himself.

And beside him, Qi Yin was also wearing the same smile and laughed.

“Practicing medicine without a license, that's a crime that's enough to make this kid drink!”

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 196

In the hotel, it was still busy, but after Lin Ran joined in, it was obviously much faster.

“Luckily, you're here this time, otherwise we wouldn't know when we'd be able to settle the fight!”

Li Zheng laughed bitterly, the scale of the food poisoning in the hotel this time was simply surprisingly large, fortunately it wasn't serious, otherwise I'm afraid it would have been another sensational disaster.

“It's just a coincidence for me too, this should be the last room of patients!”

Lin Ran said with a pale face, out of the hundreds of guests, he himself had treated nearly half of them, with so many people, even he who carried his condition like an ox was a bit overwhelmed at this point.

“The last room, your friend is really good, he's coming to help even after all this!”

Li Zheng said and looked at Luo Qiqi and the others next to him.

These were the first people Lin Ran had helped treat, and although they still had some discomfort in their stomachs, they were much better.

Lin Ran smiled and was just about to get up to go see the next patient when suddenly, from the doorway was a group of people rushing in.

“Why are there so many reporters?”

Seeing the people coming, Lin Ran frowned slightly, and Li Zheng also frowned slightly.

Generally speaking, for such big accidents, there would be special people to deal with reporters, and it was rare for such things to happen when reporters barged into the scene.

“Who knows, maybe this is what the top meant!”

Li Zheng laughed, Lin Ran nodded at his words and didn't bother to think too much about it as he continued to get busy.

But just as he got up, this large group of reporters were directly surrounding him.

“May I ask if you are Dr. Lin Ran Lin?”

“May I ask if you are the former head of the Chinese medicine department at Tamkang Hospital?”

“Please ask

A crowd of reporters asked.

Lin Ran frowned slightly and spoke.

“Who let you in?”

“I let them in!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, a familiar voice came from the doorway, followed by two figures walking in.

Lin Ran turned to look and was stunned, before revealing a bitter smile, the visitors were none other than Qi Yin and Jian Hao, who had obviously come to find themselves in trouble again this time.

“What, you still want to make trouble at this hour?”

Lin Ran laughed lightly.

“Making trouble? No, no, you’re mistaken, we’re here to deliver justice!”

Qi Yin laughed.

“Right! To do justice!”

Jianhao chimed in beside him again.

“Doing what justice?”

Li Zheng opened his mouth and asked.

Seeing Li Zheng, Jianhao and Qi Yin did not have a smile as the latter said.

“Director Li is also here, that’s just right, let me ask first, Director Li, is this the former director of the Chinese Medicine Department of Temperance City in front of you, Lin Ran?”

“Yes!”

Li Zheng returned with a frown.

“Very good!”

Qi Yin revealed a satisfied smile, then looked at Lin Ran and continued.

“Director Lin, have you taken up a position at another hospital?”

“No!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

“Haha! Very well!”

Qi Yin instantly smiled even wider.

And at this moment, the reporters at the side had been waiting for a long time, and when they saw this, they asked directly.

“Mr. Lin, after you left the hospital, you didn’t go to another hospital, may I ask if you have a license to practice medicine?”

“Or are you practising medicine without a licence for this rescue?”

“May I ask if there is a hospital or a guarantor who can vouch for your level of medical skills?”

One by one, the reporters were busy asking questions, but Lin Ran’s face was cold, and even Li Zheng, who was at the side, was a little angry.

“Enough of you! As a doctor, he treats people and saves them, and now you are all obsessing over whether he has a medical license!”

Li Zheng roared.

“Are you all fed up and have nothing better to do!”

“This gentleman, are you speaking for him because you used to be a colleague?”

“This gentleman, do you have a license to practice medicine?”

The reporters immediately asked towards Li Zheng again.

“I am a doctor, you tell me!”

Li Zheng was so angry that his face turned blue, how could there be such a group of reporters who did nothing but come here to cause trouble.

“Have you asked enough!”

Suddenly Lin Ran got angry and pointed at the guests who were still lying on the table at one side.

“These people are still waiting for their lives to be saved, are you guys done!”

“Mr. Lin, you are annoyed, aren’t you?”

“Mr. Lin, are you avoiding answering questions?”

However, no one paid any attention to Lin Ran’s question, and continued to do as they pleased.

“Haha, Lin Ran, you’d better answer the questions honestly, this isn’t the Tamkang Hospital, there’s no one to back you up!”

“That’s right, I think you’re weak-minded!”

At the side, Qi Yin and Jian Hao said at just the right moment.

Lin Ran gritted his teeth and clenched his hands, he had seen shameless people before, but not such shameless ones.

There were still people waiting to be saved, and these two guys were actually bringing a group of reporters here to grill him.

“I’ll say it one last time! Get the hell out!”

Lin Ran chided in a cold voice.

“Get out? On what grounds?”

Qi Yin laughed coldly.

“That’s right, who are you? Let us go out?”

Jianhao chimed in beside him again.

“Get out!”

Suddenly, a customer at a nearby table roared angrily, he was so hard he was practically dying, just waiting for the doctor to save his life, but these guys kept stirring the pot.

“Get the fuck out of here!”

With the first person speaking up, a second followed.

“Fuck off, a bunch of retards!”

Soon, the room full of patients cursed.

Qi Yin and Jian Hao’s faces turned blue, and even the group of reporters were a little shaken as to whether they should leave or not.

“Humph! Practicing medicine without a license is a big deal, we must get it right today!”

Qi Yin’s face sank as he scolded.

The guests were all unwell, so where could they shout at him at this point, and soon they were silent again.

Lin Ran looked at Qi Yin and Jianhao, as well as the group of reporters, showing no signs of leaving at all, and his heart was completely cold.

“You guys aren’t leaving are you!”

Lin Ran asked indifferently.

“Not leaving! What can you do to us?”

Qi Yin sneered.

“That’s right, what can you do? Come and beat me up? There are so many reporters here, come and fight if you dare!”

Jianhao laughed smugly from the side.

“Beat up the reporters? I’m afraid you’re not stupid, if you dare to beat up a reporter, you won’t be able to get along in other cities, not to mention Tanjiang City!”

A reporter arrogantly said.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran nodded, but the corners of his mouth were tinged with a cold smile.

“Li Zheng! Qin Bing, Luo Cheng! Chu Nan! Qiqi! Close the door!”

“Huh?”

Qin Bing and Li Zheng were stunned at the words, but Luo Qiqi Chu Nan and Luo Cheng were the ones who didn’t even ask, a light flashed in their eyes and they immediately ran to close the door.

There were four doors in this hall, and the five men closed them all in almost the blink of an eye.

“You... What do you want!”

Having seen Lin Ran's methods, Jian Hao couldn't help but have his heart raised at this point.

“What do you want to do? What would he dare to do, with so many cameras pointed at him?”

A reporter laughed.

Lin Ran didn't answer, he just showed a touch of a cold smile and followed.

“Keep an eye on the guys, no one is going to get out today!”

With that, Lin Ran turned to look at Qi Yin.

“Like to play right, I'll play with you all to the end today!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, he moved after Lin Ran, his speed was so fast that it was like a shadow, no one could see where Lin Ran was.

From the camera, a reporter only saw a black shadow flash by, followed by a “bang”, the camera was directly smashed into pieces with a punch.

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 197

“My camera!”

The journalist screamed, but no one paid any attention to him, the others were in a difficult position to protect themselves, so they had no time to pay attention to others.

“Lin Ran! Don’t you dare”

Qi Yin shouted.

However, he was met with a slap in the face!

“Lin Lin Ran, this There are reporters here, you... You... don’t want to die!”

The voice of Jianhao trembled, but as soon as his voice fell, he heard a muffled “bang”, and then his whole body flew backwards and hit the ground heavily.

“Call the police! Call the police!”

A group of journalists could no longer remain calm and hurriedly took out their mobile phones to call the police.

However, no matter who they were, no matter what kind of mobile phone they took out, they were definitely greeted with a “bang”.

Sometimes it was a flying bottle, sometimes a chicken bone, or even a smelly shoe, anything that was there could be a weapon for Lin Ran.

“Is this still a fucking human being!”

The journalist who had spoken first was filled with horror at this point, he had no idea that such a horrible existence existed in the world.

“Bang!”

With a muffled sound, Qi Yin's entire body was thrown out after him, landing on the ground, unable to utter a single word in pain.

On the other hand, those reporters were much better off, and were not fatally beaten by Lin Ran, but only had their cameras and cameras and other equipment destroyed.

At this moment, the whole room was in a mess, wailing and screaming, but a group of guests and people waiting for treatment, but clapped their hands and shouted.

“Li Zheng! Qin Bing continue to see the doctor!”

Li Ran suddenly paused for a moment and said.

“Good!”

The two men nodded at his words and immediately ran off to continue seeing patients.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, did not stop as his figure flickered once again, following a group of journalists whose tops were taken off one by one.

Lin Ran then tied all these clothes to them, and the group of journalists, directly tied into a huge circle, were unable to move at all.

“You! Lin Ran you! You wait!”

Qi Yin stood up at this moment and roared in anger at the situation.

“Right! You wait, treating a reporter like that, you'll die a horrible death!”

Jianhao came back to his senses and hurriedly echoed the words.

“Is that so? Then now I’ll let you know what an ugly death looks like!”

Lin Ran snorted coldly, following which he rushed straight to Jianhao’s side and raised his hand to slap him.

“Slap.”

The sound of a crisp slap resounded through the room, everyone looked over, especially these reporters, and their faces turned pale as they watched, this slap directly slapped Jian Hao around in place, half of his cheek swelled up directly, the force of it was imaginable.

“Call the police! Call the police!”

Finally someone couldn’t take it anymore and shouted out, but their mobile phones had long been destroyed by Lin Ran, so what could they do to call the police at this point.

“Are you afraid? Didn’t they all strut their stuff and not leave just now? Now don’t even leave!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice, and the few clients who had been treated in the distance couldn’t help but clap their hands at this point.

For these people who cloaked themselves in the name of journalists and went around causing trouble, they didn’t have a good feeling at all, especially since the content these people usually reported, south of the border didn’t match the actual situation at all, all of them were fakes to gain eyeballs.

“You What the hell do you want!”

A reporter couldn’t help but ask.

“No what!”

Lin Ran said calmly, then swept his gaze around and said.

“From now on, you two and these reporters, whoever opens their mouths again and says a word will get a slap on the wrist, try it if you don’t believe me!”

“Who the fuck are you scaring! There are so many people here, I’m really afraid...”

But before he could finish his sentence, he heard a whoosh, followed by the slap of a lady’s high heel directly on his face.

“You and them, there are so many of us, you can hit them all if you want...”

Jianhao said in defiance, but this time, before he could finish his sentence, he heard a “weng” sound, a white wine bottle smashed directly on his face.

This time, the bottle didn’t joke with him, and immediately cut his cheek several times, blood flowing.

“Ahh

Swordsman screamed in pain and the next moment another shoe “snapped” at his face.

Finally Jianhao stopped making noise, not even daring to let out a painful scream, and could only hold in the pain, not daring to squeal.

“Anyone else want to try?”

Lin Ran asked in a cold voice as he swept his gaze around.

This time no one dared to speak, and the private room suddenly became quiet.

“Very well!”

Lin Ran nodded his head, and immediately turned around and went forward to help.

There weren't many patients left, and with Lin Ran's help, all of the scared patients were quickly treated.

However, although the speed of these people had been removed, there would still be after-effects, and some of them were not too sure and decided to go back to the hospital to consolidate.

Lin Ran greeted the people and opened the door wide, letting everyone out for what happened next, which no longer had anything to do with him.

But just as the group of patients were about to leave, suddenly a group of uniformed staff rushed in at the door.

The staff quickly surrounded the place, and a man in the lead asked directly.

“Who is the doctor? Someone has reported that someone is illegally practicing medicine here, come forward and stand still, and you can also mitigate the crime at your discretion!”

Hearing this, everyone's eyes looked at Qi Yin who was on the side, everyone remembered earlier that it was this guy who had called out Lin Ran for practicing medicine without a license.

“What? No one admits it?”

The male staff member asked once again.

Qi Yin, who had been waiting for a long time at the side, stood up at this moment and busily said.

“It’s me! It’s me!”

“You are the one practicing medicine without a license?”

The male staff member asked with a sullen look on his face.

“No... It’s not me, I’m the whistleblower!”

Qi Yin said busily.

“Right, right! We are the ones who reported it, I know who is practicing medicine without a license, it’s him it’s him!”

Jianhao was busy standing up and said.

“What’s the name?”

The male staff member turned to look at Lin Ran and asked.

“Lin Ran!”

“You’re the one practicing medicine without a license?”

The male staff member continued to ask.

“No!”

Lin Ran shook his head.

“It’s him! It’s him, it’s definitely him!”

Jianhao immediately retorted at his words.

“What proof do you have that you have proof!”

The male staff member asked.

“And do you have and evidence that I don’t have proof?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically.

“You’re asking me rhetorically?”

The male staff member’s face sank with an unkind look.

“What? No? You said you were a staff member, do you have your papers?”

Lin Ran continued.

“Yes, yes!”

The male staff member, with a cold smile, whirled and took out his documents.

“This is my ID, where’s yours?”

“Right! Where’s yours!”

Jianhao chided from the side.

“How dare you need someone else’s ID when you don’t have one yourself, it’s a laughing stock!”

Qi Yin likewise sneered.

“What evidence or not, Lin Ran was just saving people!”

On the side, Luo Qiqi couldn't bear to look at this and spoke up and chided.

“Right! She was saving people!”

Qin Bing also hurriedly agreed.

“You have to investigate the people who saved people, too, why don't you investigate these troublemakers!”

Li Zheng said likewise.

Some of the guests around who hadn't left yet, seeing this, also stood out and agreed.

“Why should we investigate him? Why don't you investigate those reporters who are causing trouble!”

“That's right! Lin Ran is the good guy, they're the bastards!”

“Investigate them!”

“Investigate them!”

Lin Ran looked at the crowd of people sticking up for him and couldn't help but feel a warmth in his heart as he laughed.

“See, I'm a good guy!”

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 198

“Good people don’t work with me either, please show your medical license!”

The other party did not relent.

“What’s wrong with you guys? You’ve said he’s a good man, there’s no end to it, is there?”

Li Zheng couldn’t stand it anymore.

“That’s right, what do you want! Is it a relationship between the two of them!”

Luo Cheng also followed and stood out.

“Brother Lin Ran don’t be afraid, today by me Chu Nan, see who dares to touch you!”

Chu Nan also followed.

“And us!”

A group of people behind them all stood out, Lin Ran had just offended these reporters for their sake, they all saw it in their eyes, how could they stand by and do nothing at this moment.

“What! Do you want to break the law!”

Jianhao stood out and scolded.

“That’s right, we’re journalists, and that Lin Ran guy, he just assaulted us!”

Followed by some journalists shouting.

“Right! They just beat someone up, look at my face, it’s still swollen!”

Jianhao hurriedly came forward and said.

“And you beat someone up?”

The staff member looked far away thinking about Lin Ran, his eyes cold.

“Did I hit someone?”

Lin Ran stretched his hands with an innocent expression.

“No! How come we didn’t even see it!”

“Right! I didn’t see it either!”

The group of onlookers around them immediately drank in.

“I saw that they were the ones who delayed the rescue and tried to physically attack!”

Luo Cheng said again beside him.

“Right! This I testify, it was the two of them with a group of reporters who delayed the doctor’s rescue here!”

Chu Nan also shouted.

The situation in the field was in chaos, with people from both sides saying their own things and arguing incessantly.

“All right!”

The staff member snapped, his face grim as he looked at Lin Ran and said.

“We’ll talk about the rest later, take out your work permit first!”

“Are you sure?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Sure! What’s not sure, I think you just don’t have a work permit and are afraid!”

Qi Yin said beside him again.

“Right! That’s what I think!”

Jianhao chimed in.

“Gotta see it right!”

Lin Ran asked once more.

“Right!”

“If you’ve got the guts, take it out!”

“Haha, he can take it out, don’t be ridiculous, a man who was sacked from the hospital, how could he possibly have a license to practice medicine!”

The three men laughed.

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly and immediately took out his phone, just as he was about to call, a voice suddenly came in from the doorway.

“There’s no need to call, old man I’m already here!”

Following the voice, Lin Ran couldn’t help but be stunned.

“Dean Yang, you’re being unpredictable?”

“What unpredictable, it was Qin Bing who called me!”

Dean Yang laughed as Qin Bing, who was on the side, spat out her tongue and said.

“As soon as they came in, they said something about work, I wasn’t sure, so I called Dean Yang!”

“The right call! Otherwise we could have let our little miracle doctor suffer today!”

Dean Yang laughed.

“You are?”

The staff member looked at Dean Yang with a puzzled face.

“Yang Jianmin, the president of Temperance Hospital, don’t you want to check Lin Ran’s medical certificate, it’s all here to check slowly!”

Said Dean Yang and handed a bag to the other party.

The other party returned the smile and instantly checked it out.

Inside the bag, all the documents were complete, which Dean Yang had prepared a long time ago.

Seeing Dean Yang appear, Qi Yin and Jian Hao's faces changed, they didn't expect this old thing to actually come in person and bring Lin Ran's information.

“What now!”

Jianhao asked busily.

“What are we afraid of! This kid has been sacked, no job if Yang Jianmin can still produce his papers, then it's a fake, let's end it together with him!”

Qi Vagina.

“Right, right! It must be a fake!”

Jianhao was busy saying.

The staff checked for a moment and then returned the documents to Dean Yang, laughing.

“It's been checked and everything is normal, it looks like someone reported the mess on purpose!”

“Normal? How is that possible!”

“Yeah, it's impossible, how can it be normal!”

Qi Yin and Jian Hao were both dumbfounded, Lin Ran had clearly left his job just like them, so how could it still be normal.

“Comrade, are you mistaken, he has clearly left his job, how could it be normal!”

Qi Yin said undaunted.

“Right! I can testify that we left in the same batch!”

Jianhao also said from the side.

“There is no mistake, you two come with me, slandering others requires you to be investigated!”

The staff member said.

“Defamation? How is that possible, he has already left his job!”

Qi Yin couldn’t believe it.

Jianhao even looked at Lin Ran angrily and growled.

“How can your procedures be normal, you’ve clearly left your job!”

“Who told you that I left my job?”

Lin Ran laughed lightly.

“You How could you not have...”

After Jianhao finished his sentence, Qi Yin at the side seemed to have understood and turned to look at Dean Yang at the side.

“Dean Yang, you!”

“That’s right! It’s me! Who told you that Lin Ran had left?”

Dean Yang laughed.

“You clearly said that day that he left with us!”

Qi Yin said in a low voice.

“I did say that we left together, but did I say that Lin Ran was sacked?”

Dean Yang asked rhetorically.

“You!”

Qi Yin was so angry that his face turned blue.

Undeterred, Jianhao questioned.

“Then what is his current position!”

“Are you sure you want to know?”

Dean Yang asked rhetorically.

“Speak!”

Jianhao chided.

Seeing this, Dean Yang smiled blandly, then said.

“Yes, Lin Ran has left the Chinese Medicine Department, but it is not a departure, but a promotion, he is an honorary professor of my Temperance Hospital, he does not need to work in the hospital anymore on weekdays, and will only be called back to work under special circumstances!”

After saying that, Dean Yang looked at Qi Yin and Jian Hao.

“Do you guys understand now?”

“Honorary Professor?”

Qi Yin and Jianhao were dumbfounded, a student who had just graduated from university was actually an honorary professor of Temperance Hospital?

“Dean Yang, wouldn’t this be inappropriate for you, his age, is he suitable for the honorary professor piece?”

At the side, the staff member was a little surprised and asked.

“Are you questioning his ability?”

Dean Yang asked rhetorically.

“You could say that!”

The other party was also very direct, without being able to hide it.

“Do you know how many difficult and complicated cases he has treated? Do you know who looked after Song Yujiang when he was in our hospital?”

Dean Yang asked rhetorically.

“It wouldn’t be

“That’s right! It was him! With this ability, is this honorary professor high?”

Dean Young continued.

“Not high! Not high!”

The other party finally conceded, and even the gaze he looked at Lin Ran changed, jokingly, by giving Song Yujiang no medical treatment, just this friendship was worth redefining Lin Ran’s status.

“Do you have any questions now?”

Dean Yang looked towards Qi Yin and Jian Hao with a teasing look on his face, if it wasn’t for these two people in front of him, he wouldn’t have had to come up with this move to keep Lin Ran in the kettle.

“No... No more.”

“No.”

The two men said with their heads bowed, as embarrassed as they could be, practically groundless.

Seeing this, Dean Yang nodded in satisfaction, and then greeted a group of doctors to go back to the hospital, which was very busy after such a big incident today.

Lin Ran then also left with Luo Qiqi and the others, only before leaving, but he saw that a group of reporters all ran after the two Qi Yin, one of them also chanted.

“Hurry up and get the equipment, reporting someone and getting hit in the face instead, that’s a good headline for today!”

“Right, right! I see that everyone else has gone, let’s go too!”

After leaving the hotel, Chu Nan left, but before he left, he strongly requested to treat him once more to make up for what happened this time.

But for his proposal, Lin Ran and the others were determined not to agree, such things as food poisoning can happen, I really do not know if this guy is born with bad luck.

Luo Cheng went straight back to the company, saying that he had something to do, but in fact Lin Ran understood that this guy was just trying to create an opportunity for his sister.

Luo Qiqi pestered Lin Ran to take her home, so Lin Ran had no choice but to send her home.

The toxins in Luo Qiqi's body had been cleared, but the after-effects were not so bad, as she had to run to the toilet every half an hour.

In the end, she was a beautiful woman, so weak that her skin turned yellow.

“I'm so hungry!”

Lying on the bed, Luo Qiqi's little femininity was full of flavor, although she was not looking well at the moment, but her natural beauty could not be concealed in the slightest.

“Is there anything to eat at home.”

Lin Ran asked, he was also a little hungry, although the toxin was useless to him, but he still had some running belly diarrhea.

The big meal he had just eaten at noon was already completely useless in the blink of an eye, which left the two of them very speechless.

“There are dumplings left over from the Dragon Boat Festival in the fridge, or else you can cook some?”

Luo Qiqi said.

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head and immediately ran off to cook some zongzi.

The zongzi were very ordinary, only white rice and red dates, but the two of them were hungry, so they ate them sweetly.

But before they could eat two, Luo Qiqi’s face turned pale and she screamed that her stomach hurt.

“Bear with it, you’ve just recovered from your illness, it’s easy to get this way when you eat something like this!”

Lin Ran explained.

Luo Qiqi, however, was in unbearable pain and her voice trembled.

“Is there anything I can do to relieve it? It really hurts!”

“Massage.”

Lin Ran said.

“Then what are you waiting for, start quickly!”

Luo Qiqi gave him a blank look and followed, nonchalantly lifting up her clothes to reveal her flat little belly.

“Don’t don’t”

Lin Ran was so startled that the dumpling in his hand almost fell aside, hurriedly pulling his clothes down again with a ruthless hand.

“What for? Not to massage?”

Luo Qiqi said in surprise.

“There’s no need to lift your clothes for a massage, it’s fine through your clothes!”

Lin Ran said awkwardly, sweat breaking out on his head.

“Does that work well? I don’t mind direct contact!”

Luo Qiqi blinked her big eyes and said.

“Er The effect is the same!”

Lin Ran was full of embarrassment, thinking, “You don’t mind, but I do sister, I’m not married yet and I’m still an old virgin Male ah!”

“Really?”

Luo Qiqi asked, her eyebrows slightly raised.

“Really... Really!”

Lin Ran's cold sweat was coming down, he should have known that he should have left after sending this nee-san home... this was good, he didn't leave, he felt like he was about to be wiped clean.

“Then I'll start!”

Lin Ran warmed his palm with the dumpling, and immediately placed it on Luo Qiqi's stomach, gently massaging it.

As he was too hungry, Lin Ran was holding the dumpling in one hand and massaging it with the other.

However, he was so skilled that one hand was still very effective.

“Hmm! I didn't realize it, you have such great massage skills!”

After only pressing for a while, Luo Qiqi couldn't help but praise.

“Haha right!”

Lin Ran laughed awkwardly, not answering the question, and just ate the dumpling by himself.

The dumplings felt very good to the touch, and Lin Ran ate several of them feeling that they all tasted very good.

“How does it feel?”

Seeing Lin Ran eating with great interest, Luo Qiqi couldn't help but ask with a smile, this was personally wrapped by her, although the ingredients used were less, but the taste was definitely one of the best.

Lin Ran was coincidentally attracted by the feel of the dumplings, and without thinking much about it, he replied back.

“It feels very soft in the hand!”

“Very soft?”

When she heard this answer, Luo Qiqi’s face turned red, he didn’t even know that Lin Ran said it was a dumpling because she was asking how it tasted and felt, but this guy replied that it felt very soft in his hand, which was a complete mockery of the words.

“Yes, it feels very soft to the touch, just like a puddle of water!”

Lin Ran said with a straight face.

“You Rascal!”

Luo Qiqi’s face had flushed to the base of her neck, her whole body unconsciously tensed up, and the warmth coming from her stomach made her feel as if her whole body’s strength had been drained away.

“Rascal?”

Lin Ran asked with a dumbfounded look on her face.

“Big beauty, how is eating a dumpling a rogue!”

“You You’re still asking!”

Luo Qiqi’s pretty face turned even redder, this guy was touching his stomach and actually pretending to be stupid, he was really a rogue to the core.

“What did I ask?”

Lin Ran was even more confused, what was all this with.

“You Nasty as hell.”

Luo Qiqi sheepishly covered her face with the quilt, her pretty face was flushed at this point, which simply made her afraid to face Lin Ran.

“Uh

Lin Ran was dumbfounded and suddenly thought of something, cold sweat came down and he was busy asking.

“The feeling you just said, isn't it the feeling of a dumpling?”

“It is!”

Luo Qiqi said with a red face as she uncovered the blanket.

“Then what happened to me saying that it felt soft to the touch?”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“I asked about the taste, what did you answer!”

Luo Qiqi was on the verge of saying no more.

“Taste? It tastes good, I'm talking about the feel of the dumplings!”

Lin Ran said seriously.

“What kind of feel are you talking about?”

Lin Ran suddenly asked.

Luo Qiqi's pretty face turned even redder at that, and she directly buried her head into the blanket again.

“What’s wrong? You haven’t answered me yet!”

Lin Ran asked busily when he saw this.

“Rascal!”

Through the blanket, Luo Qiqi yelled.

“How is that hooliganism!”

Lin Ran was speechless, he didn’t seem to be doing anything, so how could he be a hooligan.

Just as he was puzzled, suddenly, Luo Qiqi’s stomach moved, and suddenly Lin Ran’s heart thumped as he thought of something.

“This”

Lin Ran was a little embarrassed and hesitated for a moment before withdrawing his hand.

He then muttered to himself.

“Here the feel of It’s actually quite soft too!”

“You”

Luo Qiqi’s pretty face reddened even more at her words, and she couldn’t help but say back.

“Stinky rascal!”

“Eh”

Lin Ran was speechless and hurriedly withdrew his hand.

“That, I still have something to do, so I’ll go first, your stomach should be fine already, pay more attention to rest and drink more hot water!”

Saying that, Lin Ran rushed out of the room as if he was fleeing, and left Luo Qiqi’s house as fast as he could.

“Hey!”

When Luo Qiqi reacted, Lin Ran had already left the house and arrived downstairs.

“Explicit... It’s still scary!”

When he reached the downstairs, Lin Ran couldn’t help but exhale, fortunately he had slipped away quickly, otherwise I’m afraid he would have had to end up here today.

“My little Nuan is still good!”

Thinking of Song Nuan, Lin Ran sighed with relief and immediately got into his car and hurried back towards home.

However, just as he reached the halfway point, his mobile phone rang, and when he picked it up, he saw that it was actually Wang Yifeng, Lin Ran was a bit helpless.

“Hello! What’s up, Master Wang!”

“Bullshit! Don’t joke with me, I have a tricky job here, come and visit me quickly, by the way do you know how to trace a thousand miles!”

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 200

As the name suggests, it can be used to trace people, even if they are thousands of miles apart.

However, this method is not omnipotent, for example, it is very costly, and each time you want to trace a thousand miles, the person you are looking for will lose nearly thirty years of life, so usually no one would use it at all.

According to the address provided by Wang Yifei, Lin Ran arrived at a tea house and met the former inside.

“Brother Lin Ran, let me introduce you!”

As soon as he entered and took his seat, Wang Yifeng hurriedly introduced himself.

“This is Mr. Hu, his son is missing, so he wants to help find him!”

“Hello, my name is Hu Ming, my son, Hu Tian, has been missing for almost a week!”

The other party was a middle-aged man in his early thirties, very well-dressed, and at a glance, he was well-off, but his face had a tiredness that was hard to conceal.

“Do you have any clues?”

Lin Ran didn't say any nonsense and got straight to the point.

“No!”

Hu Ming said disappointedly.

“After Xiao Tian disappeared, I looked for a private detective and even cooperated fully with the police in their search, but there was never any progress!”

“Later, a friend of mine who knows some feng shui said that we could use the ancient method of feng shui, so we might be able to find it!”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words.

“Boss Hu, with a status like yours, there should be no shortage of feng shui masters around you!”

Hu Ming revealed a bitter smile at his words and shook his head .

“I have all sorts of people around me, but how many of them are really capable, most of them are just flatterers!”

He said, raising his head, with a light in his eyes.

“But I heard that Mr. Wang is a very famous Feng Shui master in this area, so I looked for him!”

“Haha! I am indeed a famous feng shui master in this generation, but as the saying goes, there are specialties in my field, and I am not really good at finding people, as long as I specialize in catching ghosts and subduing demons!”

Wang Yifeng said and patted Lin Ran next to him, assuring him.

“But don’t worry, this brother of mine is an all-round talent, not to mention tracing, even if a person dies, he can pull you back from the Palace of Hell alive!”

“Ah? That powerful?”

Hu Ming was stunned.

Lin Ran laughed helplessly.

“Don’t listen to his nonsense, I’m actually a doctor, healing and saving people, isn’t that just snatching people from Hades!”

“Ao! That’s how it is!”

Hu Ming was slightly disappointed, and Wang Yifeng sneered at this.

“Why are you disappointed? Do you know who he is?”

“Who”

Hu Ming’s heart thumped, can’t it still be a big shot?

Wang Yifeng pretended to be old, wispers pressed the beard, said.

“The former director of the Chinese medicine department of Tamkang City, the current honorary professor of Tamkang City, known as the little god doctor Lin Ran!”

“Lin Lin Ran!”

Hu Ming was even more surprised at his words, the news this morning was a sensation in the entire Temperance City, and Lin Ran’s fame was even louder than some celebrities.

He was already an honorary professor of the city's best hospital at a young age, and it was even rumored that he had once treated Song Yujiang, so this ability was enough to make him look up to him.

“Aiya, I am really ignorant of Mount Tai, I hope little friend Lin Ran will not take offense!”

Hu Ming said busily.

“No harm done!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded, then asked.

“Can you tell us about your son's situation?”

“Yes! Yes!”

Hu Ming sniffed and nodded busily, following through.

Hu Tian was only ten years old, a very cute little boy, and the accident happened to be on a Monday when school started.

He went to school by himself as usual, but halfway through the day he received a call from his teacher saying that he hadn't come to school, and then it was as if people had evaporated, and no clues could be found.

“I went to the police station to ask about this matter, it should be related to the recent missing person case in Tamagawa City, the police comrade said that it was probably done by the same group of people!”

Hu Ming said, his eyes unconsciously red.

“Brother Lin Ran, we can’t ignore this matter, although the top didn’t ask for our help, but for the sake of Hu Ming who loves his son so much, we have to help too!”

Wang Yifeng said.

“Help? How can we help?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically.

“Don’t you know how to trace a thousand miles?”

Wang Yifei asked, and Hu Ming came over nervously, he really wanted to help Hu Ming, but he didn’t know the way to find a thousand miles himself.

“Thousand-mile tracing? Do you think it’s as simple as just talking about it?”

Lin Ran laughed bitterly.

“What all does that entail!”

Wang Yifeng hurriedly asked.

“That’s right! What does it all cost for this thousand-mile search? My family has money, I can pay for it!”

Hu Ming said again beside him, for the sake of his son, not to mention the cost, he wouldn’t have the slightest hesitation even if he had to pour out his family’s money.

“Is that so?”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Hu Ming, and then said.

“Using thirty years of your son’s life, are you willing to do so?”

“Thirty... Thirty years of life span!”

Hu Ming was instantly baffled, his son was only ten years old, if he subtracted this thirty years of life expectancy, wouldn’t that be the equivalent of being forty years old now, with a few years to live.

Half of his life had directly passed, wasn’t this too cruel for a child who was only ten years old?

“This matter, you’d better consider it carefully, it’s not something I can just cast out with a thousand miles of tracing!”

Lin Ran said seriously, this matter was indeed a very serious matter, once it was not handled properly, it would probably leave very many hidden dangers.

“Brother Lin Ran, isn’t there any other way?”

On the side, Wang Yifeng hurriedly asked, the cost of this thousand-mile search was indeed too great.

“No, the price required to find a person’s trail out of thin air is not as easy as you might think.”

Lin Ran said.

“Can we use other people’s lifespans instead?”

Suddenly, Hu Ming, who was on the side, spoke up and asked.

“In theory, it’s possible!”

Lin Ran said after thinking about it.

“Then use mine!”

Hu Ming said decisively.

“Are you sure?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically, Hu Ming was now in his thirties, and if he subtracted that thirty years of life expectancy directly, I was afraid that the remaining age would only be ten years, or no more than fifteen at most.

After all, Thousand Mile Tracing was a miraculous art, it could be more than just consuming thirty years, the after-effects it brought about were also very powerful, and it could even be outright fatal if one wasn’t careful.

“This Thousand Mile Tracing is very taxing on the body, it can even be said to be the life of a child.

Lin Ran said.

Hu Ming smiled a relieved smile at his words.

“Life is just, from the moment the child is born, whose life is still their own, is not all for the child!”

Hu Ming laughed bitterly, then waved his hand with a firm face and said.

“Little friend Lin Ran, when can we start?”

Lin Ran smiled with some difficulty and spoke after a moment of contemplation.

“This matter can’t be rushed, I’ll give you half a day, think it over carefully, if you really decide, I’ll come to you first thing tomorrow morning!”

“But I can’t wait!”

Hu Ming said, his son’s life and death were unknown, how could he be willing to wait!

Lin Ran smiled but shook his head.

“No, you have to think about it for half a day, I hope you will consider it seriously, you have to think not only about your son, but also about the rest of your family!”

Saying this, Lin Ran got up straight away, clearly his mind was made up.
