Chapter 1021: Where has Li'er gone to? (1)

The black robed man surveyed the forest several rounds but returned without any achievements.

The forest was once again restored to its dead-like quietness.

Even though there wasn't any sound but Huang Yueli was pretty sure that the black robed man had not given up and he was still in the forest, changing his stance from proactive to passive while waiting for the prey to appear by itself!

She must find an opportunity to leave this place.

Right now she was merely waiting for the night to dim so that she could avoid the black robed man's search. By the time dawn broke, there would be no way for her to hide.

Just as Huang Yueli was racking her brains, suddenly some voices were heard from not too far away.

"..... Earlier I was too engrossed in the manual which I was reading in the Scripture Depository and had forgotten the time. The sky is not young anymore! Oh dear, now we have to walk the night street! Everyone be careful, this forest is full of little birds and if you're not attentive enough, your head will be filled with bird shit...."

"Haha, Junior Brother, have you forgotten? I belong to fire attribute. I only need a small fireball technique to light up the pathway so there's no need to worry...."

Huang Yueli suddenly realised that the situation was disadvantageous for her!

But before she could make any moves, the passing students had already used their fireball technique to light up their torches and instantly, the forest's surroundings were lit up brightly!

Huang Yueli was just hiding in this portion of the forest because she had used the moment where Little Phoenix had messed up the momentum to move herself to the boundary of the forest. So the light cast from the torches had revealed her whereabouts, leaving her with no place to hide!

Besides that, some students cried out in surprise.

"Hey, look over there quickly, is there someone in the forest? Why hide in the forest in the middle of the night...."

Before the student could complete their words, Huang Yueli had already felt a burst of murderous intent approaching her fast!

She tipped her toes and flew swiftly into the forest!

But it was all too late.

The black robed man had already locked in her position and aimed his attack towards her precisely!

But the black robed man had prepared himself this round and avoided most of the Profound Armaments, going after her in hot pursuit!

“Shall we go up and lend a hand?”

The few students had the heart to help but as Huang Yueli and the black robed man’s speed was simply too fast, adding on to the fact that they were only ordinary second and third stage realm practitioners so they couldn’t keep up at all!

“Young Sect Master, Young Sect Master! You’re finally back, I’ve been looking for you for the entire day! Mo Yi and the rest mentioned that you are busy and refused to bring me to go look for you, sigh!”

Li Moying had been busy with his matters for an entire day and the minute he returned to Celestial Light Academy, his only wish was to hurry back to his little fox’s residence and have dinner with her, followed by cultivating and sleeping together.

Although they only chatted under the same blanket and not do any bad things, but there were still chances where he could steal a kiss or something like that.....

Li Moying was filled with beautiful thoughts in his mind but had been stopped by Jiang Tuxin and it was imaginable on why his mood suddenly worsened.

He wanted to pretend that he didn’t see Jiang Tuxin but Jiang Tuxin kept chasing after him reluctantly so he could only stop in his footsteps.

Li Moying’s brows raised slightly as his expression was grave and stern but his tone was extremely sinister.

Chapter 1022: Where has Li’er gone to? (2)

Li Moying’s expression became even more impatient when he heard that.

“Just this little thing? What matter is it of mine whether Sect Master has many people or not? My purpose in this trip is to loan an accommodation temporarily based on my personal status. Sect Master’s men, you can handle them yourself and need not ask me.”

Saying that, he turned around and walked away.

Jiang Tuxin had already delayed him for so long for such a small matter when this time could originally be spent with Li'er intimately!

"Young... Young Sect Master, wait a minute!" Jiang Tuxin chased up to him in haste.

"Young Sect Master, if other people were to come to Celestial Light Academy, I would definitely not dare to disturb you but..... this person.... insists on meeting you, furthermore..."

"Insist on meeting me, then I must meet that person?" Li Moying replied icily.

"No....."

"Eldest Senior Brother, you don't even want to meet me?"

A purple robed young lady walked over elegantly, her long dress hem swayed along with her graceful steps, rippling like flowing clouds. Accompanied with her almond eyes and peach cheeks, cloudlike black hair, she looked as though she had walked out from a painting!

Any man who saw this peerless beauty would be uncontrollably attracted.

However, Li Moying only casted her a cold glance and not only did he not reveal any smile, he became even distant.

"Why are you here for?"

Murong Fei showed a hurt expression as she spoke in an aggrieved tone, "Eldest Senior Brother, it had been close to one month since you left the Sect for Sky Cloud City..... Celestial Light Academy's cultivation conditions totally cannot be compared to the Sect and furthermore, there's no one to take care of your daily lifestyle, I'm worried... so I've came specially to look for you....."

Li Moying replied icily, "What concern is it of yours on where or how I cultivate? This isn't a place where you should come so go back to the Sect right now!"

Murong Fei had not expected that she came over specially to look for her but not only did Li Moying appeared unhappy to see her, on the contrary, he even set down a direct order to send her back!

Even if Li Moying and her weren't linked romantically, but just based on the fact that she was the Sect Master's daughter, Li Moying shouldn't treat her in this manner right? They were childhood friends!

The more Murong Fei thought, the angrier she got and she couldn't help but recall the rumour which she heard about previously.

That little slut who had seduced Eldest Senior Brother in South Yue Kingdom was also at Celestial Light Academy. Furthermore, she had already fooled around with Eldest Senior Brother, even claiming that she's Li Moying's fiancée!

Looked like the rumour wasn't false, that little slut had even hooked Eldest Senior Brother's soul away! This was why Eldest Senior Brother treated her so coldly!

Murong Fei couldn't wait to chop Huang Yueli up into thousands of pieces to let her know what the consequences of fighting for a man with her were!

But now in front of Li Moying, she had to bear with this, pretending to have an able and virtuous look.

"Eldest Senior Brother, don't chase me away! I can take good care of you while I'm here. I brought you many pills and medicinal herbs this round and I can personally prepare medicinal cuisine for you....."

"I'm saying this for the last time, go back to the Sect immediately! Don't stay here and be an eyesore! Otherwise I'd personally get someone to tie you up and send you back!"

"Eldest Senior Brother, Eldest Senior Brother, where are you going!"

Murong Fei wanted to chase up to him but Li Moying's speed was extremely fast and with a flash, he couldn't be seen anymore.

Chapter 1023: Where has Li'er gone to? (3)

Murong Fei looked at Li Moying's departing figure as she stomped her feet hard, biting her lips.

Jiang Tuxin wiped the sweat on his forehead as he said in a low voice, "Eldest Young Miss, the day is no longer young and I've arranged your accommodation. Although it cannot be compared with the Sect, but that location is filled with the most abundant Spiritual Qi, do you want to take a look at it? Additionally, I've also arranged a welcoming dinner at our academy's assembly hall for you....."

"You're so irritating! Our Sect gives you so much money, is it for you to arrange banquets? You can't even settle a small matter properly!" Murong Fei replied him with an angry stare.

Jiang Tuxin lowered his head speechless as he felt extremely melancholic inside his heart.

Young Sect Master's luck with the ladies was a little too prosperous! Moreover, this attitude was just too severe.

Murong Fei was, after all, the Sect Master's eldest daughter, an eight grade talented lady. So many large Sect's successors chased after her but she had to take interest only in Young Sect Master, even coming personally to Celestial Light Academy so that she could stay by the Young Sect Master's side.

The result was Young Sect Master didn't even bothered to look her straight in the eye. He even left her here alone so no wonder Murong Fei was so angry to the point of going mad!

It's just too bad for those subordinates who were stuck in between.....

Murong Fei suddenly turned her head around and said, "Principal Jiang, I recall that I had warned you previously to expel Bai Ruoli that wretched slut, and to be clear on whom you should serve your loyalty to. In the end.... you made me very disappointed!"

“Eldest Young Miss, you should also understand my situation! Miss Bai and Young Sect Master are always seen together so where would I find the guts to go against Young Sect Master’s commands? Moreover, I had already explained previously that Miss Bai’s innate talent is outstanding and is a rare find, which you probably don’t know about it right? Miss Bai had just successfully obtained the qualifications for a first tier Armament Master in the Armament Master certification assessment yesterday!”

“... What did you say??” Murong Fei’s face changed colour as her mouth opened wide in shock.

Hearing that Jiang Tuxin said Bai Ruoli and Li Moying were inseparable, she subconsciously clenched her hands into a fist, so jealous that she could go mad.

The position beside Eldest Senior Brother.... That belonged to her! What rights did that little slut had, to dare to hang on to Eldest Senior Brother?

But following that, she heard the atomic bomb which Jiang Tuxin threw out!

That wretched lass had actually.... actually became an Armament Master??

Where in heavens would there be such a ridiculous thing?

She had long heard about others talking about Huang Yueli’s innate talent and knew that she was the most outstanding student whom Celestial Light Academy had recruited in the past few decades. But Murong Fei self-admitted that her innate talent was also extremely outstanding so naturally she wouldn’t bother about a countryside lass, and she didn’t think that she could surpass her!

But now.... she actually became an Armament Master??

A fourteen year old Armament Master, no matter if it was in the continent’s centre’s Soaring Heavens Continent, she would be a genius whom various major powerhouses wanted to recruit! Moreover, her innate talent in cultivation wasn’t bad at all!

This wretched lass..... on what basis did she have? Why had she taken all the advantages?

Murong Fei stared fiercely at Jiang Tuxin, “Are you telling the truth? Bai Ruoli really knows how to refine armaments? Or did she make stuff up? That’s not possible. She’s from the countryside South Yue Kingdom, so how could she possibly refine armaments?? Who did she learn it from?”

Jiang Tuxin looked at her sinister expression as he sighed secretly in his heart.

No matter how talented and good looking a lady was, the minute she was entangled by affairs of the heart, her appearance would become malevolent.

Chapter 1024: Where has Li’er gone to? (4)

Even Murong Fei, this kind of talented lady who had outstanding innate talent and looks were not spared.

Unfortunately.... No matter how she insisted, or how she schemed, it probably wasn't of much use at all.

Anyone who had seen how the both of them got along with each other would know how clear Li Moying's feelings towards Huang Yueli was and there wasn't any space for Murong Fei to even put a foot into.

Jiang Tuxin felt sympathetic for her so when he spoke, his tone brought about slight remonstrance.

"Eldest Young Miss, what kind of place is the Armament Guild? President Hu had personally presided over the certification assessment so what tricks could Bai Ruoli possibly play? Her armament refining innate talent is extremely shocking and there were so many students who had witnessed it personally, so she had no way to play any tricks! Furthermore, it was rumoured that Bai Ruoli has an exceptionally powerful Master, and seemed to be some big shot in the Armament Guild Headquarters. Eldest Young Miss, why not just get over it, after all there's so many young talents under the skies....."

"Shut up!" Murong Fei stopped him sternly.

"I don't need you to bother about my affairs! So what if she's an Armament Master? What is her background? A countryside bumpkin and even dare to claim connections with Eldest Senior Brother, this kind of large Sect's successor? Why doesn't she just weigh her own self? It's so laughable!"

Based on Huang Yueli's innate talent, it was an easy feat for any large Sect to take her in as a direct disciple. As soon as her news got out, the entire South Sky Region's large Sects would probably come snatching for her when they heard the news!

In Soaring Heavens Continents, as long as you have the ability, one's status could be raised easily.

It was obvious that she and Li Moying were very compatible but only Murong Fei twisted words and forced logic on others to belittle her.

But Murong Fei wasn't waiting for him to reconcile with her as she immediately added on, "Where is that little slut staying right now? Tell me and I'll go look for her! I want to see for myself what she is capable of, and how does she even have the guts to seduce Eldest Senior Brother!"

How would he dared to betray Huang Yueli? If this was spread to Li Moying's ears, he probably wouldn't be able to see the next day's sun!

But this Eldest Young Miss Murong was rather hard to handle.....

Murong Fei continued to pressurise him, "Why? You dare to ignore my orders? Quickly talk!"

"Eldest Young Miss, this..... it's not that I don't want to tell you. But Miss Bai is just staying next to Young Sect Master. If you just ran over like this and anger Young Sect Master, then the one to get into trouble would be you....." He found an excuse to dismiss her.

Murong Fei was fuming when she heard that.

"What? They are staying next to each other?? Good, very good! Bai Ruoli, just you wait and see!"

Jiang Tuxin however, was feeling apprehensive.

After Li Moying got rid of Murong Fei, he hurriedly returned to the courtyard which Huang Yueli was staying in.

He did not expect the courtyard to be so dark, without a lighted lamp at all.

“Li’er, I’m back, what are you doing?”

Li Moying pushed opened her courtyard door and walked in to discover that the room was empty, with no one inside.

He couldn’t help but frown.

Huang Yueli didn’t like to have any social interactions with people she didn’t know well so every day she would leave to settle her own matters. By noon time, she would normally have returned to her courtyard to cultivate or refine armaments and never took part in the various gatherings that Celestial Light Academy conducted.

Chapter 1025: Where has Li’er gone to? (5)

So every time Li Moying returned at night, he would be able to see Huang Yueli. This was the first time that he didn’t see her.

Furthermore, Li Moying had returned rather late today. Usually by this time, they would already have dinner.....

Where... did this young lass go to? Why wasn’t she back at such a late timing?

Not knowing why, an ominous feeling arosed in Li Moying heart!

Although he was very clear that Huang Yueli’s innate talent was outstanding, adding on to the fact that she was also black bellied yet smart, and had a character which didn’t allow her to be taken advantage of. Every time she went out, it would be good if she didn’t bullied others, when would there be a time when others dared to bully her?

But his concern was thrown into disorder. After all she was his little fiancée and since she went missing, it made him extremely frustrated!

Worse of all was usually he would let Mo Yi follow Huang Yueli but today Mo Yi was sent to handle an important errand and it was just for a day and Huang Yueli had disappeared! He simply couldn’t stop himself from thinking too much!

Just as he was feeling restless and prepared to leave to find her, he suddenly heard footsteps at her doorstep.

Li Moying revealed a pleasantly surprised expression and not waiting for the party to knock, he had already rushed to the door to open it.

“Li’er, you’re finally back, where did you.... who are you?”

“Li.... Senior Brother Li??” The young lady at the door spoke in a tongue tied manner as he looked at the man who had appeared in the room, “This..... this.....”

Li Moying looked frustratedly at the love struck idiot standing in front of her. Since he was young, he simply had to face too many women who drooled at him!

He frowned in disapproval, “Why are you in a blank? Who are you? Here to look for Li’er?”

The young lady was scared stiff by his cold and discerning sight when she got back to her senses, “I... I’m called Su Qingyue, I’m... I’m here to look for Junior Sister Bai. I... I made some tri coloured crystal dumplings and this is one of the speciality snacks from the south border so I was thinking that Junior Sister Bai might miss our hometown taste so I brought some for her.....”

Su Qingyue was originally stuttering but towards the end, she got a lot smoother in her speech.

Although this was a rare chance to be able to look at Senior Brother Li’s handsome as celestial beings face, but Senior Brother Li’s power field was too overbearing which made her not even daring to lift up her head, not to mention looking at him in close up view!

Li Moying heard what she said and lowered his head to discover that Su Qingyue was really holding on to a plate of tri-coloured crystal dumplings. It was exquisitely made and it was tantalising.

“I thank you on behalf of Li’er. She’s not back yet, do you have any idea where she went to?”

Su Qingyue was stunned, “Ah? Hasn’t she gone to the Scripture Depository to exchange for manuscript? How could she possibly not be back after such a long time? Could it be that she is too engrossed in selecting a manuscript?”

“I met Junior Sister Bai this morning and that’s what she told me. I even invited her over to my place for dinner tonight and she accepted but didn’t turn up, so I came over to send her these crystal dumplings.... It’s so late already, the Scripture Depository should be closed by now isn’t it? She’s still not back yet...”

“Thank you for telling me these.....”

The uneasy feeling in his heart grew even more obvious, feeling that something major was about to happen.

Chapter 1026: Hanging by a thread (1)

In the forest, Huang Yueli rose the Profound Energy within her body to the maximum and ran for her life!

At the same time, she threw out various Profound Weapons which she had refined and all sorts of explosive sounds could be heard continuously, stopping the black robed man in his footsteps!

But the black robed man's cultivation was that high so even if he had been struck by quite a number of concealed weapons but his speed was still astonishing and the distance between the both of them shortened and very soon, it was merely a few meters difference.

"Bai Ruoli, you still want to hide? I'll see where you can escape to!" The black robed man sneered.

Huang Yueli replied, "Alright then, I shall not escape any further!"

"What?"

The black robed man didn't manage to react in time as Huang Yueli had abruptly turned around and in her hand was an icy cold long sword. The sword blade was wrapped with a layer of maroon coloured flame and she struck out aiming for the black robed man's chest!

This move of hers was extremely swift and furthermore, she had used an exclusive Profound Skill which she relied on in her past life to become famous – Daimon Seal!

Although the black robed man was able to react just in time and managed to retreat immediately but the long sword still brushed past his chest!

A black red flame in the dark night drew out a ray of firelight, and although it just barely scratched past his chest, a burning meat smell filled the air!

The black robed man only felt a sharp pain on his chest and almost groaned. It took quite a while before he felt the pain easing off a little but he felt a slight anaesthetic feeling at the injured position.

Apparently the muscles at that area had all been necrotized! Without a few months, it would probably be difficult to recover fully!

The black robed man sweated profusely, thinking that it was lucky for him to have reacted in time and retreated swiftly!

This was just a slight abrasion on the surface. Otherwise he might have been injured even more seriously and what if the long sword had pierced right through his body.....

Huang Yueli could only look to her heels when she saw him evade her attack successfully as she thought to herself what a waste it was.

Although she might be able to cause serious injury to the black robed man if she had rushed over to strike once more, but with her current cultivation, she could only use the Daimon Seal once and it had already used up close to eighty percent of her Profound Energy! So it was not possible for her to extend the same powerful move again. On the contrary, if she were to choose to go near him now, it would highly possibly result in fatality!

So her only choice was to escape!

The fury in the black robed man's heart was raised to the max after he had been stabbed!

He had originally thought that with his seventh stage realm cultivation level, assassinating a third stage realm junior was a slight effort and no matter how heaven defying innate talent Huang Yueli had, after all, she was still young. In terms of cultivation or hands-on battle experience, she would definitely be way below him so doing away with her was just a small matter which could be done anytime?

But the result was that he had turned into a total mess, not only was he plopped with a headful of bird shit, he was even injured now!

Till now, the pain in his chest was still hurting faintly and he had no place to wash off that head of shitty smell as the disgusting smell kept revolving around his sense of smell.

"BAI – RUO – LI, you're looking for death!"

The black robed man gritted his teeth as he went after her in hot pursuit. Furthermore, his fury had aggravated his potential, making his speed go up by several notches!

Huang Yueli had been dodging left and right but was futile as that black robed man managed to chase up to her, stopped her in her tracks right in front of a huge tree.

"How is it? Didn't you want to run away? Don't you have a lot of tricks up your sleeve? The result now? You've still fallen into my clutches!" The black robed man fleered.

Huang Yueli smiled and replied innocently, "Then who asked you to chase after me? If you didn't chase after me, then I definitely wouldn't run!"

The black robed man sneered, "Still acting tough? Still thinking of other means to escape? I'm telling you, the minute you've fallen into my clutches, your wings are clipped so don't even think about escaping!"

Chapter 1027: Hanging by a thread (2)

Saying that he took a piece of swarthy chain as he clasped it onto Huang Yueli's wrists.

Huang Yueli lowered her head and instantly felt she was in a bad situation right now.

This chain wasn't unfamiliar to her. It was a sixth tiered Profound Armament called Eight Astro Intertwined Chain! This chain was specially used to restrain those practitioners whose cultivation levels were very high and it was impossible to use brute Profound Energy to tear it apart. On the contrary, the stronger one's Profound Energy was, the tighter it would get! The minute one had been chained, it was practically impossible to rely on oneself to get out of this.

"Do you know what this thing is?" The black robed man asked.

Huang Yueli gave a cold laugh, "I say, this..... uncle, you really think too highly of me! The Eight Astro Intertwined Chain is a very expensive thing! As compared to ordinary sixth tier Profound Armaments, it is much pricier and generally it's used to chain up practitioners of seventh stage realm and above! I'm merely in third stage realm so using this.... isn't it a waste?"

"You're really South Sky Region's most talented Armament Master, your knowledge is indeed wide to even know about such a high levelled Profound Armament!"

"Oh, you've flattered me!"

She had passed the Armament Master certification only yesterday and this man already knew about it, surely news hadn't gotten out so quickly!

"Stop playing dumb with me! Since you know this is the Eight Astro Intertwined Chain, then you should know very clearly that there is no chance for you to escape from my clutches today! The reason for me to throw in so much money naturally is to service you well.... I wonder if your baby skin and little arms and legs will be able to withstand...."

The black robed man made out a strange laughter and kept looking at her from top to bottom. That sinister glare made one shiver from within.

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes and not only did she not show that extremely terrified look which the black robed man had expected, she actually laughed out.

"Straight forward people like us don't resort to insinuations. You've expended so much effort in catching me alive, isn't it just because there are things which you want to know from me? We all know it clearly so why employ these scare tactics for?"

The black robed man sneered, "How do you know that I have things to ask you? He he, I'm catching you alive just to torture you properly so don't think too much!"

Huang Yueli replied indifferently, "Really? Then..... the matter that happened eleven years ago, you don't want to know about it?"

"You.....!!!" The black robed man's expression suddenly changed, "What do you know?? WHAT DO YOU KNOW??"

He suddenly got agitated and pounced towards Huang Yueli using his hand to grip her neck as his fingers closed in tightly!

Huang Yueli felt her breathing became more and more difficult and the colour on her face slowly turned green.....

But she still replied while coughing, "Cough cough, Earlier I opened the secret compartment.... You.... chased after me soon after.... Apparently.... You wish to know.... about the secret compartment matter....."

The black robed man heard what she said and abruptly let her go.

"Bai Ruoli, you're very smart, you're indeed Bai Liufeng's daughter! But smart people may not necessarily have long lives! If you wish to live for a few more years, then you'd better answer all my questions honestly today! Otherwise....." His tone was filled with threat.

Huang Yueli had finally regained freedom as she gasped heavily for fresh air and simultaneously, started thinking of ways to deal with him.

This black robed man was heartless and cruel and his ability wasn't ordinary at all. He had even brought out the Eight Astro Intertwined Chain so today's matter would probably be very difficult to deal with.... Could it be that today would be her final ending?

Chapter 1028: Hanging by a thread (3)

By now, Huang Yueli started to regret her actions.

It was all because of her negligence that today's matter happened, all because she only wanted to understand the puzzle which Bai Liufeng had left behind. But she never expected that while the mantis was stalking the cicada, it was unaware of the oriole behind.....

If she had knew this earlier, she should be able to prepare herself beforehand for this.....

The black robed man say her not saying a word and abruptly pinched her delicate chin as he raised it upwards with force.

"My words... have you heard it clearly? Speak!"

"Heard... heard it clearly...." Huang Yueli coughed as she spoke, "But, the things you want to ask, really.... too long ago. I was only three years old then and at such a small age, I can't remember it at all, there's also so many things which I cannot remember....."

The black robed man sneered when he heard that, "Don't even think of stalling for time. Since you can't remember, then I'll bring you back and think about it slowly!"

Saying that he struck out a hand gesture and the Eight Astro Intertwined Chain automatically tightened itself, bundling Huang Yueli into a dumpling shape.

Huang Yueli subconsciously struggled and immediately felt that the chain became even tighter, restraining her chest area, rendering her unable to breathe!

She secretly bled in her mind: The reason for her to say that was indeed to stall for time but this black robed man was very cunning and didn't fall for her trick.... Looks like getting off the hook wasn't going to be an easy task.

Huang Yueli staggered and didn't managed to hold her footing as she fell towards the front. She was just about to fall face down onto the ground, with a mouthful of mud.

However just as she was about to hit the ground, her waist was suddenly caught hold of which prevented her from her falling position.

Following that, her back leaned against a warm and strong built body.

What was going on?

Huang Yueli had yet to react when she heard the black robed man crying out in shock, "You.... it's you.....??"

"You have a lot of guts to dare touch my people!"

Huang Yueli unbelievably turned her heard around and saw Li Moying's distinct protruded, perfectly sculpted handsome face, as though it was plastered next to her cheek but locked on her waist was his firm and strong arm.

"You... Li Moying?"

Hearing the young lady in his embrace making a sound, Li Moying's palm which was holding on to her slender waist grew even tighter, but didn't turned around to look at her.

At this point of time, his face was filled with frost and his handsome features looked extremely cool and stern as his Profound Energy around him uncontrollably penetrated out of his body, unveiling the berserk fury that this man was feeling in his inner heard!

The instance the black robed man saw Li Moying, he resolutely made a decision.

He immediately turned around and used his fastest speed to escape.

Thunder attributed Profound Energy in the forest charged insanely towards his sword vanguard and when his long sword shook out, a blinding thunder streak shot towards the direction of the black robed man!

The black robed man displayed his footwork in an attempt to evade but he was too late as the thunder streak struck his back, giving off a terrifying explosive sound.

Pain filled his entire body and his organs seemed to be completely shattered so he couldn't bear it any further and shrieked out in pain!

Li Moying's foot shifted and taking the opportunity while the black robed man's speed had dropped, he chased after him!

Under the intense excruciating pain, he forcefully controlled himself and conjured up his strongest move as he turned around and struck!

This target of this move was not Li Moying but rather it was aimed at Huang Yueli who was in his embrace!

Chapter 1029: Senior Brother Li's taste is so heavy (1)

Li Moying's expression suddenly changed!

A seventh stage realm practitioner's strongest strike was not a joking matter. The surrounding air turned extremely scorching hot and the few tall trees nearest to them had been affected by the energy waves as those trees were uprooted instantly!

As the black robed man's target, the pressure that Huang Yueli had to take on was much stronger than that by ten times!

Her soul trace was much stronger than most ordinary practitioners and at the first instance, she had already seen clearly the black robed man's attack direction and method.

But her cultivation level was just too low and even if she knew how to ward off his attack, but she didn't have the ability to make it happen as her body's reaction could not match up to her thoughts.

What was worst of all was that she was now bounded entirely by the Eight Astro Intertwined Chain and was totally immobile so she could only watch on as the killer move got closer and closer to her.

Li Moying's reaction was much faster. He used one hand to hold on to Huang Yueli's slender waist and turning to one side, he held her behind his body while the robes of his sleeve threw outwards as his Profound Energy was unleashed!

The two Profound Energies clashed in mid-air and gave out an earth shattering explosive sound, making the entire ground trembling vigorously!

Sand and stone, branches and leaves swirled around in mid-air swiftly as the Profound Energies clashed against each other giving off a violent airflow. The violent wind worked upwards, making one unable to stand properly, not even to open their eyes.

After a while, the violent wind subsided.

Huang Yueli regained her senses to discover that she had actually... actually acted like a weak young lady, throwing herself into a man's embrace, seeking for protection!

Moreover, this man's chest was actually so warm, so strong, making her feel extremely safe and unwilling to leave it...

This thinking was way too dangerous!

Huang Yueli realised what she was thinking about as her face flushed red. The alarms in her heart rang and she hurriedly struggled for a moment, attempting to leave the man's embrace.

Li Moying noticed her movements and his strong and powerful arms remained at her waist, not allowing her to retreat. At the same time, he lowered his head to look at her, asking her with concern, "Li'er, are you alright? Are you hurt anywhere?"

The two of them seemed to have completely stuck to each other as the perfectly silhouetted face got closer and the scorching man's breath blew onto her delicate little face, as his deep magnetic voice rang beside her ear..

Huang Yueli's face grew even hotter and she bit her lips as she said in a low voice, "No...Nothing, I'm alright, and I'm not injured. How about you?"

Li Moying shook his head, "Just based on that clown, he doesn't have the capability to hurt me! Only.... This fellow is just too crafty, he actually attacked you to confuse my vision then took the opportunity to escape! Damn it, unable to capture him alive....."

His expression looked slightly off. He actually allowed the scum who had bullied his Li'er to escape from beneath his eyes! This was simply his largest stain of his entire life!

Huang Yueli replied, "No matter, I'm already very fortunate that you came and saved me! If it wasn't for your timely entrance, I would have probably gotten into huge trouble today! Although you're not able to capture him on the spot, but this black robed man was able to enter the Scripture Depository freely, then it meant that he must be hiding somewhere in Celestial Light Academy so there would definitely be a chance to meet him again."

Li Moying's expression grew even darker. Of course he knew this reasoning so all the more he was vexed at not being able to capture that person on the spot!

If there was this kind of fellow with murderous intent towards Huang Yueli hiding in the academy, then didn't that mean that his Li'er would constantly be in danger?

Moreover Huang Yueli usually didn't like anyone following her around and often diverted his Shadow Guards away to act independently. Facing this kind of dangerous situation, there wasn't much chance for her to defend herself.....

Suddenly, Li Moying thought of a critical question.

The Scripture Depository was a place in the entire Celestial Light Academy which had the highest security. His little thing had just made a trip to the Scripture Depository and actually had someone pursuing her life!

This was just too abnormal and apparently, this little thing must have done some special stuff which made others keep a close watch on her. As for this matter.... as her fiancé, he knew absolutely nothing about it!

How many more things was this lass going to hide from him?

Did she even treat him as her man?

Thinking of this, Li Moying turned around and stared at Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli saw his fierce look and blinked her eyes innocently, asking curiously, "Why? You're still upset? Don't worry, anyway the next time the black robed man appears, we will be able to capture him, so don't be too.... ouch!"

She felt a sharp pain on her lower jaw as Li Moying pinched her chin and lifted her face up forcefully.

After that, he used all his strength to press down on her lips!

Li Moying's kiss was very sudden and furthermore, it wasn't gentle. It was skin to a violent crush onto that cherry blossomed-like delicate lips, and even biting her hard!

Huang Yueli cried out in pain but that allowed Li Moying to take advantage of the situation as he let his tongue into her mouth, exploring everywhere hurriedly!

Huang Yueli turned her head around in an attempt to struggle free but the man's fingers were strong as though a metal pincer holding on to her lower jaw, even causing her to be in pain.

She couldn't struggle free so she could only helplessly allowed the man's overbearing force to intrude!

As time went past, Huang Yueli didn't even have the breath to pant when this kiss finally came to an end.

Li Moying stepped back a little and lowered his head to see her flushed face and moistened eyes. His heart pounded and couldn't help but bit her lips once again!

"You! Are you born in the year of the dog? Wh... Why did you bite me? I'm warning you...."

Huang Yueli questioned him, feeling that her lips were both painful and numb, it probably had been kissed swollen by him!

This man was just too savage isn't it? He actually bit her when their thoughts collided and later on kissed her till she grew groggy, totally unable to gauge where she was....

Li Moying put his forehead onto hers and laughed deeply, "Warn me? What you do want to warn me about? Hmm?"

Following his closing in, the strong man's breath filled her nose and the pressure was just too intense, making her heart pound, biting on to her lips not making a single sound.

"Tell me, what do you want to warn me about?"

Huang Yueli started crying foul in her heart! What's the big deal about being handsome? Why... Why did he show this look... Ah ah ah... what else should she say?

After some time, she finally forced out a sentence, "You... you let me go! Quickly let go!"

Li Moying shrugged his shoulders, "Alright, since you strongly requested for it, then I'll let you go!"

“Quick!” Huang Yueli urged.

Li Moying’s eye flashed a mischievous intent and his arms really loosened, letting her go.

Huang Yueli felt the pressure on her waist disappeared and was heaving a sigh of relief but she discovered that her body actually uncontrollably fell towards the back. She tried to maintain her balance but she wasn’t able to move her hands and feet.....
