Chapter 1081: I've heard that you've been ditched (1)

On the comfortable big bed, there was only her alone and no sight of Li Moying.

What situation was this? Could it be that last night.... She had been dreaming?

Wrong, there seemed to be an indentation on the bed, which represented that someone had slept on it.... this was definitely left behind by Li Moying! He probably awoke and left first!

"Anyone! Is there anyone there?"

A maid whom she had never met before pushed the door open and walked in, "Miss Bai, you're awake? You've slept for such a long time, do you feel dizzy? I've prepared some porridge and side dishes, do you want to eat a little?"

Huang Yueli shook her head and asked, "How long have I been sleeping for?"

"You've slept for an entire day and night and it's now midnight."

Huang Yueli asked again, "Then..... have you seen Li Moying? Where did he go to? Why isn't he resting in the room since it's already midnight?"

"Ah? You are referring to that tall handsome Mister Li?" The maid's eyes widened, "Mister Li had already left Celestial Light Academy this afternoon, saying.... he's returning to Celestial Light Sect and will not be coming to our academy again!"

"What?? What did you say??" Huang Yueli cried out in shock, "How could that be possible??"

Huang Yueli tried hard to control her own emotion as she lowered her volume, "You say.... Li Moying has returned to the Celestial Light Sect? Are you sure? Did you get the information wrong?"

The maid looked at her apprehensively and continued, "I.... I won't get it wrong. Principal Jiang asked me to come over and take care of Miss Bai so when we came over today, we ran into Mister Li. He personally told us to take good care of you and that he was leaving the academy. This afternoon, a huge flying ship came and picked him up, that flying ship is really so beautiful and mighty! So many students saw it and we're all very envious!"

While she was speaking, Huang Yueli kept looking at her in the eye, not hesitating to use that little bit of Profound Energy which she had regained, forcefully executing her Piercing Sky Eye Technique!

The result proved that the maid indeed wasn't lying and Li Moying had really left!

Huang Yueli lifted the blanket aside and got off the bed but her head was still dizzy and she almost fainted.

The maid hurried up to stop her, "Miss Bai, you.... don't anyhow move around! Doctor Yang says you need to rest in bed for at least three days!"

Huang Yueli waved her hand and said, "I know already, please leave the room!"

After the maid left, she immediately stood up by supporting herself with the side of the bed, her heart was flustered with only one thought in mind.

Furthermore.... He left without bidding farewell!

How was that possible? Usually wasn't he difficult to be chased away? Why did he ran away while she was in lethargic sleep? Could it be that something had happened in Celestial Light Sect?

Her hands moved and seemed to touch something. She lowered her head to take a look and discovered a folded letter.

Huang Yueli hastily picked it up as she read it against the light.

Li'er:

'By the time you see this letter, I should have left Celestial Light Academy.

Knowing that you already have someone in your heart, my feelings are extremely complicated. I don't wish to leave your side but I'm really afraid, that one day.... I will be rash and lock you up, hiding you in a place where only I know about, confining you, possessing you and not allowing you to see anyone else except for me.'

Am I very scary?

In order to stop myself from making this mistake, I must leave. Forgive me for not having the courage to bade farewell to you.

I believe that with a powerful and respectable man like Liu Buyan beside you, you don't feel lonely.

Wishing you both a long-lived harmonious union, living to a ripe old age in conjugal bliss.

The letter was very simple and in the end there wasn't any signatory sign off but from that arrogant and overbearing grass script, Huang Yueli would not be mistaken.

Li Moying's writing was calm and in the end, he was exceptional enduring while wishing her bliss, but from what Huang Yueli saw, she seemed to be able to clearly feel the deep pain which the man was feeling in his heart.

Writing such things, he really wanted.... To separate from her?

Huang Yueli was stuffed for a moment before angrily patting the letter onto the table, "Li Moying, what do you mean? I already said there's nothing between me and Liu Buyan! You actually made up images in your own mind! And wishing us conjugal bliss?? If I really get married to him, you can go cry, hmph!"

"And what's more, you don't even dare to face me and talk, not even daring to bid farewell. What a scardy cat, coward! Not like a real man at all, I'm so angry that I can die!"

"Yesterday you exposed your own identity and made me full of queries and now without giving me a chance to ask properly, you actually ran away?? If you have what it takes, don't let me find you, otherwise.... I will definitely let you see some colours!"

Huang Yueli decided on the spot that this absolutely cannot just end like that! She must find Li Moying and ask him clearly!

Actually after last night, she was around ninety percent sure that Li Moying probably was Mu Chengying but didn't know what had happened to him.

Now that she saw him escaping hastily once dawn broke out, he probably couldn't remember what happened after his illness relapsed and wouldn't be able to recall if his memories had anything to do with Mu Chengying.

Moreover that Soul Detachment Illness was extremely strange, in this..... there was definitely a huge secret which she didn't know about!

Just some time ago, she was almost forced into lunacy by Li Moying!

She obviously wasn't some flowery hearted person and in her past life, she had so many pursuers and yet she clearly knew who she liked. Why was it that after she reincarnated, the first man she saw, she had a change of heart?

Now there was a huge possibility that the both of them were the same person then it would show that she wasn't flower hearted. On the contrary, she had great foresight. Even though both of them bore different identities, but subconsciously, she was still able to tell that the person she liked was there.....

But even after thousand words were repeated, the most urgent matter now was to find Li Moying and find out from him what exactly happened to him.

Huang Yueli was determined as she secretly returned to her own room and started packing her luggage.

The next day, while dawn had just broke out, Huang Yueli woke up very early and prepared to set off on her journey.

Although Li Moying sat on a huge flying ship, she probably wouldn't be able to chase up to him, but the earlier she got to Celestial Light Sect, the better.

She first went to Su Qingyue and informed her that she was going on a journey to learn through experience and left her some secret manuals and pills, allowing her and Yu Xinyang to cultivate properly.

After this was done, Huang Yueli headed directly to the entrance of the academy.

Whoever knew that the minute she walked to the public square, from afar, she saw Li Xue'er walking right up to her.

Chapter 1083: I've heard that you've been ditched (3)

Huang Yueli had not met Li Xue'er for quite a number of days already.

As compared to her usual glamorous look, the current Li Xue'er cut a sorry figure and her face was pale. Furthermore, she seemed to have lost weight as her cheek bone was already popping out.

Usually when Li Xue'er saw her, she would go on a detour simply because she was scared of being beaten up and afraid that she could find some handle over her and get a beating again.

But today, not only did Li Xue'er not avoid her, she even walked up to her in big strides as a smile of ridicule hung on her face.

"Bai Ruoli, I heard.... that you've been ditched by my Second Brother! That's just so satisfying!"

Huang Yueli's footsteps took a halt as she swept a cold glance at her, "Xiao Ming's grandpa isn't a practitioner but he managed to live till one hundred and twenty years old, do you know why?"

Li Xue'er didn't expect her to say that and went into a blank, "... Why?"

"Because he never meddled in other people's business!"

She had no time to tangle herself with this dumb thing!

However, after Li Xue'er realised what she said, her face turned into livid and she pursued her relentless, blocking her way as she cried out utterly discomfited, "You... what do you mean? Bai Ruoli, you still dare to be so arrogant?"

Huang Yueli sneered, "What do I mean? I mean exactly what the words mean! Care about your own affairs first! After you've been chased out by Master Tang, your days in the academy isn't that easy going right? To tell you the truth, Principal Jiang didn't expel you because of your Second Brother, so if you don't tuck your tail behind properly, then better return back to South Yue Kingdom earlier!"

"You....." Li Xue'er's almost gagged on her own anger but didn't dare to make a move against Huang Yueli, so she could only stare daggers at her and she said meanly, "Enough, stop pretending! Yesterday a lot of people in the academy had already seen it, that Second Brother of mine sat on a luxurious flying ship and left Celestial Light Academy. Beside him... was an outstanding beauty!"

Hearing that, Huang Yueli was stunned.

"... an outstanding beauty?"

Li Xue'er saw her surprised look and thought that she had poked through her thoughts, her heart began to gain some balance as she became pleased with herself.

"Hehe, actually a lot of people know about it, that my Second Brother.... Is Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master right? Tsk tsk, he really had that hidden very well! As for you, you are also able to be able to tell that my Second Brother's identity is extraordinary but still pretended not to know and plastered yourself onto him. This tactic is really high! But your calculations have gone haywire! Do you think my Second Brother will really marry you?"

"I'll tell you about it! Yesterday that outstanding beauty who left with Second Brother, is rumoured to be.... Celestial Light Sect Sect Master's daughter, a real Sect's daughter. Her status is invaluable and moreover she's an eighth grade peerless genius. As compared to her, you're not even an ant! Who let you be so complacent several days ago? How about now? Second Brother left you in the academy and went back along with the Sect Master's daughter?"

"Now, the entire school knows Second Brother is sick of you and have ditched you!"

The more Li Xue'er said, the more complacent she became and she almost couldn't help but laughed out loudly.

Ever since the day she was openly humiliated by Huang Yueli and Li Moying at the Profound Weapon Chambers, and thrown out to run around naked, her reputation in the academy had fallen to the bottom of the deep abyss!

In the past, there were large families talented sons surrounding her.

But now? Even if an ordinary trash student dared to hit on her, it was obvious that it was done with the intent of fooling around with her.

Chapter 1084: I've heard that you've been ditched (4)

This kind of humiliation... was all due to Huang Yueli!

Luckily, karmic retribution within one's lifetime came very quickly!

It was finally this wretched lass's turn to become an abandoned woman!

Huang Yueli seemed to not have heard her ridicule, but only lowered her tone while lost in her thoughts, "So.... he brought Murong Fei away?"

Sigh, Li Moying was just too nice to her. He already left dejectedly but was so considerate of her, taking away all those who could possibly hurt her.....

Such a good man like this.... Mn, she must grab hold of him properly and not make the same mistake as in her previous life!

Li Xue'er saw that she was neither shocked nor upset, but instead she began to smile and she couldn't help but frown.

"Hey! Bai Ruoli, have you gone crazy? Or has water gone into your head? What are you laughing at?"

Li Xue'er looked at her for a while and suddenly she started laughing out, "Oh, right, you'd always been day dreaming that you will be able to marry Second Brother, flying up to the branch to become a phoenix? Now that your beautiful dream is shattered, no wonder you're going crazy! Why don't you take a mirror and check yourself out. Did you think that you have settled Emperor Father and made him confer the marriage arrangement to become Second Brother's official fiancée? Let me tell you! For Second Brother, a genius in the Sect, only the Sect Master can preside over his marriage. Emperor Father's words are not accurate at all! Which means to say..."

She paused for a moment and intentionally said out word by word, "You are not Second Brother's fiancée! Only his plaything!"

Huang Yueli knew that Li Moying had done so much for her so all the more she wanted to find him quickly and had lost her patience to talk further with Li Xue'er.

Unfortunately, Li Xue'er didn't know she was courting her own death as she kept chattering non stop by the side of her ear.

Huang Yueli couldn't be bothered to say anything else to her, and couldn't care less about teaching her a lesson so she shoved her aside and wanted to continue on her way forward.

Li Xue'er didn't know that she had escaped a calamity but still continued to tug at her sleeve.

"Hey, Bai Ruoli you're leaving just like that? Com'on, let's have a good chat. After all, you'd almost become my Second Sister-in-law..... Ah——!!!"

Li Xue'er had not expected her to make a move and fell heavily onto the ground!

Immediately following that, a burst of flame arose within Huang Yueli's hands and flew circling towards her!

"Ah! Help! I'm going to be burnt to death——!! Bai Ruoli is murdering someone!!!"

Li Xue'er saw a crimson red flame heading towards her and a scorching feeling pouncing over. She was panic stricken and kept rolling around on the ground screaming and screeching.

The both of them were originally in the public square and there were originally a lot of people but as the both of them were hiding behind the wall, so not many people noticed them.

"Ah! Isn't that.... Bai Ruoli? And that person rolling on the ground, isn't that.... Li Xue'er?"

"It seems so! What's the situation now? Why did the both of them started arguing again?"

"No idea? I heard that Bai Ruoli was ditched by Senior Brother Li! Could it be that.... her mentality took a perverted change after she was jilted and took it out on the fiancé's sister?"

All the people crowded around curiously to look at Huang Yueli and Li Xue'er. Apparently Li Moying's departure yesterday had spread throughout the entire academy.

The flame on Li Xue'er's body flashed for a moment and was immediately extinguished.

Chapter 1085: I've heard that you've been ditched (5)

Li Xue'er had not noticed that the flame had disappeared and continued to roll around on the ground, screaming agonizingly.

It was the surrounding students who realised that something was amiss.

"Yi? Why isn't Li Xue'er wearing any clothes?"

"Wrong, it's not that she didn't wear anything but her clothes had all been burnt by Bai Ruoli!"

"Right, right! That means to say... Bai Ruoli's control of fire is just.... too powerful? Li Xue'er clothes were burnt cleanly but there isn't a single bit of injury on her! What's more it's under the circumstance that she kept rolling around while burning.... Her skills are simply miraculous!"

"Tsk ts, quickly take a look! Li Xue'er's figure isn't bad at all! Her waist is slender and her breasts are huge, I'm getting turned on by her..."

Li Xue'er rolled around on the ground and when she heard the crowd's discussion, she finally realised that something was wrong and stopped her actions.

She blankly lowered her head and the next moment, she used her hands to cover her chest as she started screaming while jumping up.

"You.... you.... Bai Ruoli, what did you do to me? You burnt all my clothes??"

Huang Yueli smiled calmly, "Why? Don't tell me you like me to burn your skin along with it? Such heavy taste? I can oblige to your wishes?"

Seeing Huang Yueli raised her hand, Li Xue'er was scared stiff, "You.... don't come over, don't come closer!"

She looked left and right and only saw a group of people crowding around to enjoy the show, especially those male students. Their sights were simply vulgar and wretched, looking extremely disgusting!

Li Xue'er hugged her chest with both her hands as she screamed and ran through the crowd.

There were some male students with bad intentions and purposely didn't allow her to leave easily as some of them tried to grope her as she was trying to leave.

It took some effort on her part before Li Xue'er finally got rid of these fellows and disappeared like a wisp of smoke into the campus!

Huang Yueli sneered slightly, "Looks like the last naked run didn't make you learn a lesson, so this time... I hope you can grow some brains!"

She turned around and wanted to leave.

But she didn't expect the crowd to not only give way, but many of them started discussing she and Li Moying's matter openly.

Huang Yueli's expression sunk and Profound Energy was instantly unleashed from her body. A powerful pressure shot out to its surroundings!

She was now a third stage realm peak practitioner and among the students in Celestial Light Academy, the existence of her outstanding potential stood firm!

Most of the students were only second stage realm or even at first stage eighth or ninth level cultivation.

The disparity of the potential was too huge so Huang Yueli's pressure to them was like a stick banging onto their heads!

There were even some students whose abilities were too weak and immediately threw up blood or fainted directly onto the ground!

Huang Yueli didn't even bother to look at them and didn't want to spend any energy explaining to these short sighted people as she walked directly out of the academy's main entrance.

It was until her figure disappeared, those students who were under pressure climbed up challengingly.

They exchanged glances with one another and could see the terror in the other party's eyes!

"It's really..... Bai Ruoli, a third stage realm peak's ability..... is fully justified!"

"Right, let's all be careful and not talk carelessly. Beware that trouble starts from the mouth!"

"That's right, that's right, although Senior Brother Li has left, but Bai Ruoli is no soft stone as well! Crushing us is no different from crushing an ant?"

Chapter 1086: Who did you say was a little slut? (1)

They finally recalled that the delicate and gentle beauty wasn't some soft persimmon at all.

Not only was she Li Moying's fiancée, even without that name, she was still a shocking powerful third stage realm peak practitioner. Within a mere number of strikes, she was able to defeat the Martial Arts Stage number two super talent! Furthermore, she was a skillful and certified Armament Master!

But Huang Yueli was different. Even without Li Moying beside her, her presence was still invulnerable! Relationship to her was merely a brocade which made her even more perfect!

On Celestial Light Sect's flying ship.

"Eldest Young Miss, you cannot enter! Master's Soul Detachment Illness acted up a few days ago and until now he hasn't fully recovered so he needs to rest properly. Please don't disturb him, kindly leave!"

Mo Yi and Mo Er blocked the entrance of the cabin as they spoke expressionlessly.

Murong Fei's expression was extremely ugly as she gritted her teeth and said, "I know Eldest Senior Brother's body is unwell so I'm especially here to take care of him! I've personally made some soup to aid in his recovery, give way and I'll get some for Eldest Senior Brother to drink!"

Mo Yi's tall stature didn't budge, "Eldest Young Miss, Master had just instructed that no matter who comes, he does not want to meet so thank you for your understanding."

Murong Fei said unhappily, "Why? Even if Eldest Senior Brother refused to meet any other people, but he will definitely see me! I am his Junior Sister who grew up together with him, I care for him and want to visit him, isn't that a normal thing? You all give way! This Rain Ginseng Chicken Soup that I made for him was prepared for an entire night with a thousand year Rain Ginseng! If Eldest Senior Brother didn't managed to drink it, can you be responsible for it?"

Mo Yi practically ignored what she was saying and stood by the door dutifully.

"Eldest Young Miss, I am merely obeying Master's instructions so please don't make things difficult for me!"

"You.... simply don't know what's good for you! I want to meet Eldest Senior Brother, is that something that you two lowly servants can obstruct?"

Mo Yi was of age and his character was steady so although he heard these words, he remained expressionless.

On the contrary, Mo Er wasn't that patient. Although they, the Shadow Guards had recognised Li Moying as their Master but in Celestial Light Sect, they were not ordinary outer disciples nor were they servants. They were all outstanding inner disciples and there were some who were even direct disciples.

Speaking of that, they were considered as Murong Fei's Senior Brother as well but to be called as a servant at her beck and call, who could tolerate this?

Mo Er laughed out immediately, "Eldest Young Miss, even if the few of us are servants, we are Young Sect Master's servants. As the saying goes, you see who is the Master of the dog that you are beating. Even Master's fiancée Miss Bai treats us politely, you really don't treat yourself as an outsider!"

When Murong Fei heard these words, she grew angrier.

“You... actually dare to use a little slut to oppress me? What scheme did that little slut use, to bribe you? Hehe, it’s no use even if you act loyally to her, Eldest Senior Brother has already ditched her! In future, I will be your future Mistress and you dare to offend me.....”

Murong Fei was still giving unbridled orders.

Suddenly a cold voice rang above her head.

“You say...who is the little slut?”

That deep magnetic voice was extremely familiar.

Murong Fei hurriedly raised her head and her expression was filled with joy.

“Eldest Senior Brother, you’re finally out! I knew it, you’d definitely see me!”

Chapter 1087: Who did you say was a little slut? (2)

Li Moying didn’t even bother casting her a look as he shifted his gaze back towards Mo Yi and Mo Er, chiding them sternly, “You can’t even do such a small matter properly, what use do I have you for?”

The sweat on the two Shadow Guards foreheads dripped down along their necklines as they lowered their heads not daring to say a single word.

Murong Fei looked complacent as she stared at Mo Yi and Mo Er thinking who dared to let them obstruct her, serves them right that they’ve gotten their lesson now?

She felt that these two were lectured too little and in order to make them understand her prowess, she stood by the side of Li Moying, snitching on them.

“Eldest Senior Brother, I’ve come to look for you specially knowing that you had a relapse several days ago. It’s just too dangerous so I think your internal injury is rather serious right? Look, this is the thousand year Rain Ginseng Chicken Soup that I specially prepared for you to aid in your recovery! These two blind fellows actually dared to block my way, they simply don’t have any respect for you!”

She intentionally suppressed her tone, making herself sound sweet as she talked, pretending to wipe a tear off the corner of her eye, putting on an act which looked like she was bullied by someone.

When Mo Er heard the misrepresentation, he was so angry that he almost jumped at her. It was Mo Yi who was stopping him from behind.

When Li Moying heard that, he cast his glance onto her but his words turned out to be, “Mo Yi, Mo Er, I’ll give you a chance to redeem yourselves. Send Eldest Miss Murong back to her own cabin and make her stay inside to cultivate properly, and stop heading outside. If I see her again... then the two of you need not follow me anymore.”

When Mo Yi and Mo Er heard that, they shivered and hastily replied, “Yes, your subordinate obeys! We will definitely get this matter settled!”

Saying that, the both of them went up and pulled Murong Fei.

Murong Fei stared at them in disbelief and tried to shake them off as she cried out loudly, "Eldest Senior Brother, you.... what do you mean by that? I am here specially to deliver the soup to you!"

Li Moying threw a chilly glance at her as he gave a cold growl from the back of his throat.

"What do I mean? Let me ask you, who did you say earlier..... was a little slut?"

Murong Fei was tongue tied, "I..... I..."

She had not expected Li Moying to hear what she said outside and immediately felt extremely embarrassed.

But she felt that she didn't scolded her wrongly. Only that she usually appeared as a refined young lady in front of Li Moying and now he heard her scolding vulgarities so that damaged her image....."

Li Moying coldly replied, "Bai Ruoli is the best girl who I've met so what right do you have... to use such a term on her?"

Murong Fei was filled with grievance as she cried out in dissatisfaction, "Eldest Senior Brother, you... how could you say that? I've heard the others talk about it, that Bai Ruoli and the other men have something going on and even caught red handed by you, which was why you ditched her right? This kind of wanton and unconservative slu... AH——!"

Murong Fei was talking halfway when she suddenly felt a sharp pain in her chest and upon a "Wa" sound, she spat out a mouthful of blood!

Li Moying couldn't take it when he heard how she insulted Huang Yueli and the might from his surroundings was unleashed as it struck out towards Murong Fei!

Even though Murong Fei was a sixth stage realm practitioner but in front of Li Moying, she had no sliver of a chance to resist against him. Just one gaze from him was enough to quake her chest into an unbearable pain as all the bones in her entire body seemed to be crushed immediately!

Murong Fei kept trembling and she was almost going to fall limp onto the ground.

At this moment, a chilly feeling ran down from the back of her spine.

Chapter 1088: Who did you say was a little slut? (3)

She had always knew that Li Moying was very strong but it was only until now that she discovered that she had underestimated him!

The pressure which Li Moying had unleashed was not like an ordinary seventh stage realm practitioner! Even with her father Murong De's imposing manner, he could not be compared to Li Moying at all!

"Murong Fei, remember this clearly. No matter how Bai Ruoli is, it's not up to you to criticise her. Even if she's not my fiancée, I will still protect her for life! Don't even dream about having any chance to hurt her! If I hear you say one more bad thing about her.... don't blame me for not giving your father any face!"

Once the sentence was laid, Murong Fei suddenly felt the powerful aura pressure disappeared instantly.

She fell limp onto the ground, her inner heart filled with immense terror not daring to say a single word.

When Mo Yi and Mo Er came up to drag her away, she totally lost all energy to resist and was dragged back to her room directly.

It was until a quarter of an hour later when she finally regained her senses.

Recalling Li Moying's stern and ruthless look, she was filled with love and admiration even though she was stricken with terror!

Eldest Senior Brother he.... really was very powerful, too powerful!

In Soaring Heavens Continent, such an exceptional abled practitioner would make others revere him, winning all the ladies' admiration!

Li Moying's ability was much stronger than her imagination and that increased Murong Fei's determination to win his heart!

If a man like Li Moying could become her husband, she would become the envy of many young lady? In future for Li Moying becomes a ninth stage realm top expert, was a matter of fact. With his peerlessly handsome looks, having such a husband was a matchless glory!

She.... absolutely cannot let go of this man!

Although Li Moying only had Bai Ruoli in his heart now, not... hadn't the two of them broken up? She had lots of chances now to make Li Moying have a change of heart.

But.... as long as that little slut lived, she was still a disaster! There was no guarantee that Eldest Senior Brother would reignite his feelings for her.

Murong Fei suddenly recalled something when she thought of this and her eyes widened.

"Right, so that's the case! I was still thinking why Eldest Senior Brother would suddenly think of me and brought me up the flying ship back to the Sect! So... he's worried that after he left, I will bring harm to that little slut? No wonder.... After I boarded the flying ship, he paid no attention to me at all!"

Murong Fei had originally thought that Li Moying brought her back to the Sect and did not mentioned Huang Yueli was because he finally realised her good points!

In the end, after they boarded the ship, Li Moying refused to even meet up with her and had been cultivating in the cabin alone.

So she had misunderstood, Li Moying's thoughts.... Were still on that woman!

After Murong Fei thought it through, she was so jealous that she was going insane!

“Little slut, don’t even think of trying to stand in between Eldest Senior Brother and me. Eldest Senior Brother is mine and you’re not worthy of him! Humpf, don’t think that after I left Celestial Light Academy, I can’t do anything to you!”

“Luckily, I’m not the only one who wants to claim your life! And I’ve already made prior preparations! Eldest Senior Brother, you haven’t thought of this right? Although you’ve made me stay by your side, but your little lover.... Still must die!”

Chapter 1089: Targeted by someone (1)

But when she was walking on the streets, she suddenly felt that something was amiss, as though someone was looking at her with ill intentions.

Huang Yueli swiftly turned her head but could only see passing pedestrians behind her and every one of them seemed very ordinary, so it wasn’t possible to find any suspicious characters.

She frowned as she silently turned on to high alert mode.

She walked into the stable and quickly picked a Dark Lightning steed and told the stable’s footboy, “I want this horse, how much does it cost?”

The footstep saw someone picking the most expensive horse in the stable and was initially overjoyed but when he saw clearly that the young lady who was standing in front of him only looked fourteen to fifteen years old, his face crashed.

He spoke out in a bad mood, “Miss, this horse isn’t suitable for you. It’s better that you take a look over that side.”

The footboy rolled his eyes at her and said, “Miss, do you know what horse is this? The Dark Lightning steed, it’s a third tier magical beast. It can travel five thousand miles a day and it’s price.... Is something unimaginable for you! Since you can’t afford it, then why are you asking so much for? Wasting our time! It’s better that you go over to that time and look at those ordinary horses!”

He waved his hand as though swatting houseflies, hoping to shoo Huang Yueli away.

Huang Yueli’s face sunk as an unpleasant feeling arose within her heart.

This was simply looking down on her! Looked like her age brought about this problem, furthermore in order to rush on the journey, she was dressed more casually than usual which resulted in the market’s footboy giving her such expressions?

Huang Yueli didn’t say much and took out a palm size badge from her realm ring as she slowly pinned it onto her chest.

Footboy originally wasn't paying attention and added on some cynical remarks, "Miss, what are you bringing out? Your family's treasure to buy this horse? Looks nothing especially....."

Saying that, he suddenly saw the badge on Huang Yueli's chest clearly as his eyes opened wide, as though he had seen a ghost, and he became tongue tied.

"You... you.... this..... Armament Master's badge??"

"Why? You can't recognise this?"

"But.... this.... how is this possible? You're just fourteen or fifteen years old!"

Huang Yueli sneered, "Why not? I think no one dares to fabricate an Armament Master's badge right? Do you think that a certified Armament Master is not able to afford a horse?"

Footboy was so scared that he almost knelt down in front of her.

The Armament Guild's badge was absolutely not a fake!

Because this badge itself was a high levelled Profound Armament and other than the designated Master, other people would not be able to pin it on their chests.

An Armament Master's position in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent was incomparably valuable and this Armament Master in front of him was so young, that meant that she must be some highly valued super genius in the Armament Guild!

This kind of people, was not someone who a small footboy like him, who was working in a stable, could afford to offend. They just needed to say one word and he would lose his job!

"No.... no... of course not.... This Master, it's.... it's me who has eyes but cannot see properly..... please will you..... will you be appeased..."

The stable had quite a number of other customers.

A valuable Armament Master personally visiting the stable to buy a horse, that was a rare sight.

The stable's boss quickly heard the news and when he came over, he immediately and politely lowered his head to show his apology towards Huang Yueli.

"Respectable Master, please accept my sincere apologies. I know this has affected your mood and this is our responsibility, so we hope you will be understanding."

As he was saying that, he stared fiercely at the footboy.

The footboy's hair was drenched in sweat and he cowered in one corner, trembling with fear, as he cried out in agony in his heart.

He usually treated people according to his observation and a young lady like Huang Yueli was generally various academy's students and were mostly from the countryside. So they weren't able to afford any good horses. Since he didn't earn much from them, he usually treated them impolitely.

This ordinary looking young lady, actually.... actually was an Armament Master?? Sky Cloud City actually has such a young Armament Master??

Recalling what he said earlier, the footboy couldn't wait to just kill himself by throwing himself into the wall!

He actually ridiculed an Armament Master not being able to afford a horse! Who didn't know that Armament Masters were the most profitable occupation in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!

Huang Yueli raised her lower jaw slightly as she spoke out in an aloof tone, "You're this stable's boss? I had originally saw your stable was the largest in the entire market so I came over and take a look. Looks like I'm too naïve, your horses here are too high class and I cannot afford to buy one. I think I better visit elsewhere to take a look!"

Saying that, she raised her feet and wanted to leave.

The boss broke out in sweat and hurriedly stopped her as he said anxiously, "No, no, no, Master you're mistaken! Our horses are one of the best in Sky Cloud City and how could a valuable guest like you not be able to afford it? It's this fellow who doesn't know how to talk! Master, please don't leave. Whichever horse you've taken a fancy to, let me know and I'll give you a twenty.... no, forty percent discount! I'll give you a forty percent discount!"

What joke was that, the shop finally had such a valuable guest and even an Armament Master came to purchase a steed at his stable. If that spread, that would be a living advertisement, so how could he miss out on such a good chance?

Moreover, if this Master were to leave in anger, and if she were to say a few things to Sky Cloud City's Merchant Association, then he probably would be blacklisted by the Association!

"Since that's the case, then I'll stay around and take a look!"

To tell the truth, if it was usual times, after such a scene, Huang Yueli would absolutely not want to continue shopping around in this shop.

But unfortunately she was pressed for time and was urgent to get on her journey. This stable was indeed the largest in the area so she had to make do with it for now.

The boss saw her nodding and wiped the sweat off her head as he heaved a sigh of relief.

Following that, he eagerly attended to Huang Yueli, personally bringing her around the stable to take her pick.

Huang Yueli impatiently said, "Alright, I'm rushing for time. I want that pure black coloured Dark Lightning steed, how much?"

"Ugh, this.... this Dark Lightning steed is something which three fourth stage realm practitioners worked together to capture it, look at its shiny hair and four limbs..."

The boss wanted to exaggerate a little to raise the horse's value.

He could only reply, "A total of hundred thousand mid quality spirit stones and one thousand upper quality spirit stones."

Huang Yueli nodded and without saying anything else, she took a few bags out from her interspatial ring and threw it onto the boss's hands, and walked over to lead the horse by herself.
