Chapter 1141: Incredible speed (5)

“Why are you now not living up to expectations! You actually made this little master lose the bet! With this, are you even considered as a heaven grade genius?”

Little Phoenix continued to nag, and Huang Zixiao was irritated by his incessant chatterings so he lifted it by the neck and threw him aside.

“Alright, stop nagging, your Master is already very powerful! With her current speed, the first six storeys passing speed, she is already much stronger than the second fastest person by several times! If she’s called disappointing, then what should you, a dysplasia phoenix, be called?”

“You... who did you say was dysplasia?” Little Phoenix was infuriated.

Huang Zixiao didn’t say a word but that rising almond shaped eyes shot towards little phoenix’s tummy which jutted outwards.

Little Phoenix quickly took a deep breath and sucked in his tummy, and at the same time stomping his feet, “I... I am storing energy for the sake of growing up! At least I’m not like you, you’re already so old and for several thousands of years, there’s no way you can continue developing, so are you jealous of me?”

“He he...” Huang Zixiao smiled with a profound meaning as he didn’t continue.

Dare to be disrespectful to a senior like him? He he, just wait to say goodbye to chicken drumsticks! Anyway it was having chicken drumsticks which left to this little fellow being dysplasia. He taught Huang Yueli the proper way to rear a phoenix, not to give him a hard time, but to help him!

Why.... did it suddenly have an ominous feeling?

“Congratulations Huang Yueli, you’ve successfully passed the sixth storey of the inheritance tower, using a total of twenty four hours. In the past ten thousand years among the practitioners who had passed the sixth storey, your rank is number one. Your reward is ...”

Earlier she took a long time to pass the sixth stage because the sixth stage opponent was out of her expectations, not only was his cultivation stronger than hers, furthermore, in terms of speed, it was an exceptional talented practitioner.

Huang Yueli couldn’t catch up with him at all and in the beginning she tried various methods, trying to get close to him but all she suffered were losses, without any winning options!

Moreover, the opponent was just too fast, so it was very difficult for her to even escape and there were several times when she was almost struck by the opponent, cutting a sorry state.

But after experiencing the first few hours of disorder, she managed to find out an inkling from the opponent's motion.

The opponent's speed was indeed very swift, but it wasn't due to the disparity between their cultivations, but purely because the opponent's motion skills were exceptional! Furthermore this set of Profound Skill wasn't too difficult. If she had a way to take a clear look, with time to figure it out, she might be able to learn it!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli intentionally provoked the opponent several times more, and while escaping, she observed the opponent displaying the Profound Skill's method.

It didn't take long before she mastered the initial steps of this set of motion work.

Although she couldn't be matched against the opponent's innate speed and wasn't as experienced as the opponent when utilising the Profound Skill, but at least she wouldn't be too far back and had ways to display her own methods, fighting it out with the opponent.

After several hours of trial and conclusion, she finally defeated the opponent!

In the end, she became the fastest person to pass the sixth storey and obtained a reward. It was actually a set of heaven grade Profound Skill <<Agility Dance Steps>> cultivation scroll!

It was until this moment, that she found out that the set of cultivation method which she stole from the opponent, was the <<Agility Dance Steps>>.

Chapter 1142: Incredible speed (6)

Furthermore, what the opponent displayed earlier, wasn't just the first level of the Profound Skill.

The real <<Agility Dance Steps>>, had a total of seven levels, only the last level could only be mastered when the cultivation grade had reached tenth stage realm.

Golding the cultivation method scroll, Huang Yueli pondered deeply.

"Looks like this refinement is not just an assessment only, the refinement itself was a chance, and every time we passed a storey, those were all assessing the practitioner's comprehension, innate talent and determination, as well as the state of one's psyche to remain calm under pressure. And through various ways deployed to win the opponent, the experience itself was already a kind of reward."

"So things really is fishy, how could my opponents in the previous storeys... Be possibly so weak?"

So according to the designer's train of thought for this refinement, each storey should have its own meaning to it.

But as she had an instant win in those storeys, she couldn't tell what the meaning was for those storeys...

“..... Four! Three! Two! One! Start!”

Huang Yueli had yet to find out why when she was sent to the seventh storey.

At the seventh storey, she finally met a real opponent which was of great threat to her – Fourth stage realm fifth level’s heaven grade genius!

Using her fourth stage realm first level, going up against a fourth stage realm fifth level!

If it was an ordinary fourth stage realm fifth stage practitioner, Huang Yueli wouldn’t even bat an eyelid.

In the past when she was only a second stage realm ninth level practitioner, hanging the fourth stage realm Imperial Tutor upside down and beating him up, was already an easy peasy matter to her. Now that she had broken through to fourth stage realm, her potential was much stronger than before!

The problem was, the opponent whom she was now facing, was a heaven grade genius just like her!

It was only until now that she finally had the chance to find out how strong the God Realm’s heaven grade geniuses were!

Facing this kind of opponent, even Huang Yueli was unable to avoid entering a tough battle!

During the battle, there were several times when she got injured, but using the <<Agility Dance Steps>> initial level skill which she had just acquired, she managed to escape and hid in one corner as she repeatedly comprehended and grasped the experience which she had just obtained from the battle.

Not only that, while she was facing extreme conditions during the battle, her cultivation had also hit a breakthrough.

Huang Yueli had spent a total of seven days in the seventh storey and during this period, she had continuously advanced twice, reaching fourth stage realm third stage!

Under the fact that her cultivation was merely two small realms away from her opponent, and that she had spent exactly seven days to observe her opponent carefully, Huang Yueli finally accumulated enough knowledge and used it to her advantage as she defeated the opponent!

“Finally ... ended!”

“Congratulations to Refiner Huang Yueli, for passing the second stage of heaven grade assessment perfectly! You are the first in ten thousand years to have passed this assessment! Your reward will be awarded by the inheritance tower’s guardian! Ten breaths later, you will be transported out of this refining mystic region.”

“Ten, Nine, Eight..... Three, Two, One!”

Following that, a blinding ray shone and Huang Yueli was once again sent to the bottom of the inheritance tower.

“You... you actually did it, you actually passed the heaven grade refinement perfectly, furthermore..... so quickly!” Huang Zixiao said in disbelief.

Huang Yueli’s lips arched upwards as she smiled, “Small matter, I said long ago that I could do it.”

She sounded cocky when she said that. If she had said this right before the refinement, Huang Zixiao definitely would silently cursed this youngster for her arrogance and self-satisfaction.

But since she only waited till now to say this, he couldn’t say a word of rebuttal.

Chapter 1143: Phoenix’s blood (1)

Because, she had already used her potential to explain everything!

Huang Zixiao was still in disbelief as he looked at Huang Yueli from head to toe, sizing her up as he shook his head and muttered to himself, “How could this be possible? How on earth did you do it? Could it be that your bloodline is purer than those direct descendants? Or is it because of your excellent power of comprehension which no one could match? Strange, this is really too strange!”

Saying that, he stared at Huang Yueli in the eyes as he questioned, “How on earth did you do it? The first stage’s opponent’s potential is a heaven grade genius who is the same as you, and in every stage following that, the opponent’s cultivation would increase significantly, most people would already expend a huge amount of effort trying to deal with the first opponent! Although there are some cases where the disparity of the practitioners are very huge and could use a few breath’s time to pass through the first stage, but those are top geniuses who failed during the innate testing assessment, and most of them would miss out just by a little to join the next grade, which was why they were able to display such standard in this assessment!”

“However, you’re already a heaven grade genius, don’t tell me you still surpass ordinary heaven grade geniuses by a huge chunk?”

When Huang Yueli heard this, she suddenly went into a blank for a moment, “You say.... The opponent in the first storey, is a heaven grade genius whose potential is equivalent to mine?”

Huang Zixiao failed to understand that, “That’s right, why? Don’t tell me you didn’t feel it?”

“I....”

Huang Yueli was shocked but she managed to shut her mouth in time, not telling Huang Zixiao the truth.

Because when she first entered the refining mystic region, the opponent she met on the first storey was so weak that he collapsed at the first blow! It was until the fifth storey’s opponent before he could barely battle her for a longer period of time!

According to Huang Zixiao’s interpretation, her first storey opponent should be a fifth storey’s potential...

Why..... was her opponent so weak then?

Just at this moment, she suddenly recalled that right before she started her refinement, Huang Zixiao told her this, "Don't blame me for not reminding you! The difficulty of this stage is related to your age and not comparable to your actual potential!"

To tell the truth, you're going to turn fifteen but still at an early stage of fourth stage realm cultivation. As compared to our Sacred Phoenix Race in ancient times, your cultivation is considered low. The enemies you encounter when you enter now will be much stronger than what you can imagine!"

Her opponent, had nothing to do with her potential, but related to her age!

Huang Zixiao thought that her cultivation wasn't enough because she was going to turn fifteen soon, but her cultivation was only at fourth stage realm. To a God Realm's heaven grade genius, this cultivation speed was really slow.

But what Huang Zixiao didn't know was.... she just started cultivating barely half a year ago, and in her past fourteen years, she was a trash who didn't have any Profound Energy!

The refining opponent's difficulty, to put it more precisely, wasn't in accordance to her age, but according to the number of years of cultivation!

To God Realm's top geniuses, they started cultivation at the age of four or five, and that was a commonly seen thing, so by the time they reach fourteen or fifteen years old, they had already cultivated for almost ten years. Only at fourth stage realm, indeed wasn't outstanding at all.

But, what if one had only cultivated for less than a year?

Less than a year, and already advanced into fourth stage realm, shocking should be the word to describe this!

And the refining opponents whom she met were accorded based on her cultivation time, so naturally they would be much, much weaker than her!

Chapter 1144: Phoenix's blood (2)

In this way, all the strange things that she had met with earlier, were all explainable!

"How is it? Why are you not saying a word?" Huang Zixiao urged.

Huang Yueli's eyeballs rolled as she smiled, "I can't remember what my first storey opponent was like, but he simply felt too weak! Just like what you guessed, looks like as compared to ordinary heaven grade geniuses, I'm really much more powerful than them!"

Huang Zixiao was rendered speechless as saying that was equivalent to not saying anything at all!

But saying that, if she was really so strong to such an extent, then defeated the opponent who was much weaker than her indeed didn't take much effort. To describe how she had won was indeed a tough thing to do.

In this way... could it be that this unremarkable young lass, really had the innate talent to crush all the other geniuses among the Sacred Phoenix Race?

Huang Yueli took a look at his confused expression as her lips curled upwards but she kept silent, letting his imagination run wild.

Actually, what she had said earlier, was not to trick Huang Zixiao.

Because she was able to use a time frame of less than a year, before she was able to attain at the same cultivation level as the other heaven grade geniuses, who had spent many years, although there were other elements mixed in this, but in totality, this also proved that she indeed was much stronger than the other geniuses! At least in terms of cultivation speed, she seemed to be much more outstanding, shining above the others!

"That's right, Senior, since I've already passed the second stage of refinement perfectly, then am I entitled to a reward? You know, if it wasn't for the advantages, I wouldn't take part in some refinement!"

Huang Zixiao took a helpless glance at her, as he almost forgot that this young lass was not only an incomprehensible genius, she also had an incomprehensible money grubber!

"Of course you'd have a part of the reward, follow me!"

Saying that, Huang Zixiao waved his hand and a large door appeared in mid-air once again, as he led Huang Yueli into it.

She had thought that behind this door, was a treasure vault, pill refining room, or at worse, a secret room?

In the end, there was actually a huge hot spring and the water within gave out a strange crimson colour, and it was obviously boiling hot, as smoke kept fuming out.

"This.... what is this?"

Huang Zixiao replied, "This is your reward for scoring perfectly in the second stage of refinement!"

Huang Yueli went into a blank, "Ah? But... this, how am I supposed to take this back?"

Hearing that, Huang Zixiao's eyebrow twitched as he replied in a sarcastic tone, "Still want to bring this back, keep wishing! The reward that you have won..... is to soak in it once!"

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes and following that, she made an action which showed that she was spitting up blood.

“What on earth? I’ve expended so much energy, risking my life to pass through so many stages, in the end just let me soak in this once? This deal feels like I’ve lost out a big deal!”

This scheming merchant tone made Huang Zixiao almost lose his calm as he tried his best to tone himself down, “Looks like you’re despising this? Since you don’t want to soak in it then forget it. There are plenty of people who can’t wait to grab this opportunity! What do you think is in this hot spring? Just ordinary spring water?”

“Surely not to that extent right? I think, probably some spirit spring in the God Realm?” Huang Yueli guessed.

Chapter 1145: Phoenix’s blood (3)

“How would the Sacred Phoenix Race use that measly thing as a reward? Although God Realm indeed has a God grade spirit spring which could improve one’s cultivation by leaps and bounds, but this hot spring water is much more valuable than that kind of spirit spring!”

Hearing that, Huang Yueli’s spirits was lifted immediately, “Really? What kind of water is this?”

Since Huang Zixiao didn’t even care about the God grade’s spirit spring water, it went to show that this reward really was very valuable.

Huang Zixiao used the corner of his eyes as he shot a glance at Little Phoenix who was tugging at Huang Yueli’s hem as he slowly revealed the answer, “This is Phoenix’s blood!”

“What?”

“What?”

He had just finished his last word when two shocked voices were heard ringing at the same time.

Huang Yueli’s tone was shocked and joyous, as the expression in her eyes immediately turned different.

How valuable was the Phoenix, a spiritual beast’s blood, that didn’t require anyone to tell her! Anyone knew that if they could use a spiritual beast, like the True Dragon or True Phoenix’s blood to clean their entire body, the effect was to cleanse their meridians and expand their arteries, giving a huge leap to their physique!

To a practitioner, their usual way of cultivation was mainly to absorb the Heaven and Earth’s Profound Qi, using it to expand their arteries and expanding their Dantian, but towards their own physical bodies, to improve it through cultivation was very difficult. Although there were specialised ways to strengthen their bodies using some secret cultivation methods, but the effect was not as good as compared to cultivating Profound Qi.

So although everyone knew that it was important to strengthen their own bodies, but there seemed to be no way to do so.

Because to strengthen one's physical body, they mainly needed to use some rare treasures but those were something which they hoped to obtain but could not wish for! Whereas among these rare treasures, the most, most valuable of it all were spiritual beast's blood!

Of course, there was no longer any more spiritual beasts in Soaring Heavens Continent, so using the spiritual beast's blood to strengthen one's body, this only existed in Ancient manuals and legends...

But now, Huang Yueli was facing a pool of Phoenix Blood, furthermore... such a huge pool of it!

Not only could she use it to clean her body, she could even soak in it!

Just what concept was this?

Huang Yueli felt that she was in a dream! She only had one thought right now, Sacred Phoenix Race was indeed a true God Realm aristocrat, the definition of this was called rich and imposing!

Just as Huang Yueli was getting excited, Little Wang Cai's heart was filled with shock and fury.

He used his sharp and tender little shota voice to scream out loud, "What? How could you be like this? How can you kill Phoenixes and let out their blood?? How could such a cruel, terrifying and scary matter happen? This is an absolute humiliation and maltreatment to us Phoenix Race!"

He was feeling indignant at injustice as his little body started to shake entirely.

Huang Yueli had yet been able to pacify him in time when Huang Zixiao opened his mouth, "Why? We killed Phoenixes and let out their blood, what can you do about it? Cry out some more, beware that I'll kill you as well and let out your blood!"

"YOU—!" Little Wang Cai shook even more violently, as though it was about to faint at any moment.

Huang Yueli helplessly rolled her eyes as she said, "Senior, earlier when I was in the refinement, had my Little Wang Cai offended you somehow? Please stop scaring him, he's still young, and isn't used to be scared!"

She didn't believe that the Sacred Phoenix Race would kill Phoenixes and let out their blood. After all, this clan used 'Phoenix' as part of its name and furthermore there were often heaven grade geniuses who could contract Phoenixes, so that meant that Sacred Phoenix Race and the Phoenix Race's relation should be rather good.

Huang Zixiao had said those, obviously intentionally, so she didn't know what trouble the little fellow Wang Cai had gotten into again?

Chapter 1146: Phoenix's blood (4)

Huang Zixiao gave a humpf and he lectured, "This phoenix of yours is really trashy, all because of how you have pampered him! I have a book here <<Guide to raising a Phoenix>>. Later before you leave, I'll give it to you, so bring it back and learn from it properly!"

Huang Yueli immediately replied, "Okay, that's just great! I'm grateful to Senior!"

She had long suspected, why her little phoenix didn't grow up, so it's because the method which she reared it wasn't correct. Huang Zixiao was so generous to send her a book on rearing phoenixes, such a good thing, it would be weird if she didn't agree to it!

Although she knew that it was because of her outstanding potential, so Huang Zixiao was trying to entice her but Huang Yueli was still rather grateful.

But Little Wang Cai, on hearing these words, seemed to be standing on an empty field as the skies were filled with lightning, and it had just struck onto his head as he was struck dumb.

Finished, finished, it's all finished! Earlier that evil intentioned old man said he should be eating chicken drumsticks and now he even gave female devil a guide book on how to rear phoenixes! There was no need to even think, to know that there must be several ways in it on how to torture it!

Female devil was already malicious enough, and how with this <<Guide to rearing a Phoenix>>, his future days.... Will there still be any good days to pass?

But, not waiting for Little Wang Cai to protest, Huang Zixiao suddenly changed topics as he pointed to the red water and said, "This is real Phoenix blood, but it wasn't obtained by hunting for phoenixes. Ten thousand years ago, the Sacred Phoenix Race's Clan Leader had contracted an extremely powerful Phoenix spiritual beast. But the clan leader had unfortunately died in a battle within the God Realm. His phoenix didn't want to live alone so it decided to end its own life. Before its death, it agreed to donate all its blood to the Sacred Phoenix Race."

"That year, Sacred Phoenix Race wasn't as strong as it is now, this Phoenix Blood Pool, was one of the flourishing reliance that we had! Numerous arrays were set up around its surroundings, and using a huge amount of rare treasure, did we managed to ensure that the Phoenix Blood Pool staying intact even after ten thousand years, and even till today, it's major effect to cleanse meridians and strengthen arteries!"

Huang Yueli's expression was filled with admiration, "This is so incredible!"

But Little Wang Cai however still put on a look which didn't believed in him as it questioned, "Who are you trying to bluff? One Phoenix had that much blood? How many Phoenixes did you all murder, to obtain such a big pool of blood? Or should it be said, after murdering the phoenix, then considered as 'donation'?"

Huang Zixiao shot him a glance filled with disdain as he sneered, "You think all Phoenixes are suffering from dysplasia like you? To tell you the truth, a true matured phoenix, it's wings extends to several thousand miles, and when it's soaring up into the sky, it's already to hide the sky and cover the earth, extremely overbearing! This is just a portion of the phoenix blood which was left by that phoenix, a large portion of it is stored away in God Realm's clan. If every phoenix were like you, would they even dare to be called as a spiritual beast? What difference are you from those mother hens who other people rear in their backyards?"

"You..... You....."

Little Wang Cai had thought that it's questions were witty but it had not expected to be looked down upon, and got so worked up that it almost fainted.

Huang Yueli saw that both of them were not on the same page and deeply worried that they might start arguing again so she caught Little Phoenix and threw him back into the Sky Phoenix Ring.

In this way, they weren't able to argue but after Little Phoenix was confined, he was overturning the skies inside as he tried his hardest, hooting about in the Sky Phoenix Ring, asking Huang Yueli to let him out immediately!

Chapter 1147: Cleansing the meridians, strengthening the arteries (1)

Huang Yueli pretended not to hear anything as she turned around and asked Huang Zixiao, "Then, can I go into the water right now?"

Huang Zixiao nodded, "You can soak yourself for however long you want to, but a person's body's absorption towards Phoenix blood is limited. After you reach the limit, there wouldn't be any more effect for the time being, so by then, you can come out."

Huang Yueli nodded, "I understand."

Huang Yueli didn't waste any time as she directly took off her outer robe and jumped into the Phoenix Blood Pool.

She had originally braced herself that soaking in the Phoenix Blood, would be especially terrible feeling. After all, the past few medicinal baths which she had soaked in were basically like that, the more the effect, the more difficult the process of the bath!

But reality made her slightly surprised.

Because Phoenix Blood was actually very mild, although the water temperature was very high, but it was still within the limits of an ordinary person.

Huang Yueli sat within the pool and felt as though she had returned to an infant, that warm and sticky fluid enveloped her entire body, following that meticulous energy started to flow into her body through every pore in her body.

Initially, she felt a little ticklish, but gradually, that slight feeling became more and more intense, itch turning into pain, and furthermore..... it was getting more and more painful.

Even though she was in extreme pain, but Huang Yueli's consciousness was still extremely clear.

Her skin continuously peeled off and continuously grew out, as though a Phoenix rebirth, obtaining new life.

This process was extremely long and the intense tickling and pain repeatedly switched, as though there was no end.

It had been after quite a long amount of time, when Huang Yueli felt the feeling of her body becoming numb, whereas the Profound Energy within her became strangely abundant, as it followed her meridians, gushing up continuously towards her dantian!

The Profound Energy went round all the meridians in her body, every time it went one round, it intensified by one percent. The layers piled up and accumulated in the dantian finally broke through the advancement checkpoint.

Fourth stage realm... fourth level!

Fourth stage realm... fifth level!

Fourth stage realm... sixth level!

Huang Yueli could distinctly felt that the Profound Energy within her body becoming stronger and stronger and that swelling feeling, was about to crack open her dantian!

Her advancement speed was very fast, and while she was still suffering from fuzzy consciousness, she had already advanced continuously for three small realms!

After that, the Profound Energy within her meridians were still accumulating but the speed seemed to have slowed down a little, and after another long period of time, she slowly stepped into fourth stage realm seventh level.

Right after this, the increasing speed of her Profound Energy had once again slowed down, slower and slower, slower and slower.....

Until finally, her Profound Energy almost stopped growing, but she was quite a distance from fourth stage realm eight level's checkpoint.

Huang Yueli suddenly opened her eyes as a cold glint flashed past her eyes!

She felt that she should still have enough energy, and was still able to advance, and had not reached her limit, but..... why did she stop here?

Suddenly, she thought of something and held out both her hands to get a handful of water, as she raised her head and sent it into her mouth!

Phoenix Blood followed her throat and flowed into her body, her lower abdomen, and instantly a scorching feeling was felt.

Initially, the temperature was very low, just barely swelling up, but slowly, the energy from the Phoenix Blood was unleashed and her body became hotter and hotter!

“Ugh—!!”

Huang Yueli's forehead cringed tightly, as she couldn't help but gave a low moan!

Just as her body was about to be torn apart by that scorching hot sensation, Phoenix Blood's energy suddenly exploded, turning into shreds, entering her meridians.

Huang Yueli felt an indescribable pain tormenting her four limbs and skeletal bones, her meridians and skeletal bones seemed to be crushed inch by inch by someone then fixed together again inch by inch, repeatedly occurring...

This pain, was much more serious by hundred times than just purely soaking herself in the Phoenix Blood!

This went to show that the Phoenix Blood in her body, changed it from inside to outside. As compared to from outside to inside, it was much more effective, and much more.... dangerous!

From the inner part of the body to reconstruct her meridians, furthermore such an intense method, if there was any accident, then her dantian would burst apart, leaving in a dire consequence!

This was also the reason why, Huang Zixiao only allowed her to soak in the Phoenix Blood and not drink it.

Because.... the risk is simply too huge!

As the spokesperson for Sacred Phoenix Race, Huang Zixiao didn't want the clan's top rated heaven grade genius to take this kind of risk!

However even though she knew that such a risk existed, Huang Yueli still drank the Phoenix Blood without any hesitation!

After experiencing various matters in the inheritance tower, she had already confirmed that this body's innate talent had exceeded everyone's imagination, simply to the point of heaven defying! The Phoenix Blood was provocative yet intense, but she should be able to take it!

As long as she had enough determination, she should be able to get over it!

Although she had this confidence, but the process was extremely hard to endure.

Huang Yueli laid in the Phoenix Blood Pool semi consciously, her consciousness was sometimes clear, and sometimes blurry.

After god knows how long later, she finally felt the intense pain within her body's inner portion gradually subsiding, and her meridians had been widened while the Profound Energy within had been compressed, causing it to become purer than before!

At the same time, Profound Energy in the meridians flowed much quicker as it started rushing towards her dantian!

Fourth stage realm.... eighth level!

This checkpoint had been passed by easily.

Fourth stage realm... ninth level!

Profound Energy kept accumulating and very quickly, she reached the peak of fourth stage realm!

Huang Yueli knew that, at this point in time, she must muster up all her strength to continue breaking through to fifth stage realm, there was a certain rate of success.

But she didn't do that. Instead she stopped the flow of her Profound Energy as she calmed her heart to congeal qi, as she started solidifying her own cultivation.

Ever since she entered the inheritance tower, these days, she had continued to advance repeatedly. This kind of advancement speed was simply too fast, so fast that it was ridiculously perverted!

In this way, her cultivation would become unstable easily as her foundation wasn't stable, then she would not be able to bring out the corresponding grade of potential which she should have! Furthermore, there was a possibility that it would affect her future cultivation speed.

In the past, although her cultivation speed was fast, but she was after all a third stage realm low levelled practitioner so no matter how unstable her foundation was, the influence wasn't that great.

From the fourth stage realm peak to fifth stage realm... that was a huge realm promotion!

Such a short span of time, to continuously promote two large realms, no matter what, it was just too fast!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli coerced herself to stop absorbing the energy, but chose to continue staying in the Phoenix Blood Pool to solidify her cultivation.

After some time, Huang Yueli felt her own cultivation stabilising and since there was no more effect of Phoenix Blood to her, she sat there and felt no different as when she was soaking in an ordinary hot spring.

Huang Yueli recalled that Huang Zixiao telling her that, a person's body towards Phoenix Blood absorption was limited in a short period of time.

Looked like even if she continued to soak in this, the effect wouldn't get any better.

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli climbed out of the pool, as she clearly understood that it was now time for her to leave.

But turning back to take a look at that pool of lustrous colours, Phoenix Blood which emitted a powerful presence of energy, Huang Yueli really couldn't move her feet.

So much Phoenix Blood, and its effect was so good, but yet she could not take it away.....

Wait, perhaps it wasn't that she could not take it away!

Little Phoenix had been throwing a tantrum for several days, wanting to come out. When it finally saw Huang Yueli opening the Sky Phoenix Ring, it instantly got agitated as it pounced towards her.

“Female Devil, you’ve finally found your conscious! Willing to let me go out and play already?”

Huang Yueli replied, “Ugh.... This going out to play can wait till slightly later. Help me get all the containers and tubs which can be used to contain stuff out, I must try all possibilities to save a little Phoenix Blood.”

Little Phoenix instantly deflated as it turned around and used its butt to face her, “Hmpf, you only know how to ask me to work and not feed me chicken drumsticks, not allowing me to go out and play too, I don’t want to work for free!”

“Forget it if you don’t wish to help. Anyway you’re so fat, you don’t have much energy so I think you’re probably not of any help anyway!”

Huang Yueli shot him a look of disdain as she held two bathtubs, running out to fill it with blood.

Very quickly, Phoenix Blood filled all the wooden bathtubs in the Sky Phoenix Ring and neatly lined up into a long straight line, right under the room’s window sill.

Huang Yueli nodded her head in satisfaction as she touched her chin, secretly planning, Phoenix Blood, a drop of it is priceless. There’s so many tubs here, if I bring it out to auction..... wow, how much would it be worth!

But she was also clear that the more priceless treasure was, the more it shouldn’t be shown to others, otherwise, it wouldn’t just be money which she would be getting, but also fatal disaster!

Her experience in her past life was the best example!

Even if she had absolute ability to crush everyone, but she would still meet with various kinds of harassment.

“Sigh, looks like selling it for money is not going to do, so I better keep it for myself! I wonder how long should I wait before using it for the second time? Right, when I return, I can let the handsome dude at home soak in it as well, and I can also see the good looking man come out from his bath! Hehe.....”

The minute Huang Yueli recalled the last time she saw Li Moying’s sturdy and firm chest and that vaguely visible eight pack muscles, her senses started floating.

Little Phoenix was propping up his chin as he watched her from the sides, and questioned out in curiosity, “Yi? Female Devil, why is your saliva dripping down? Have you dreamt of some good food? What flavoured chicken drumstick is that?”

Huang Yueli touched the corners of her lips when she heard his question and she really felt some dampness.

Her face flushed red as she threw Little Phoenix into the Sky Phoenix Ring.

Hmph, what kinda lousy spiritual pet was it, it had no ability to make discerning judgements and still dared to ridicule its Master? Continue to stay in confinement!

Huang Yueli had just kept the Phoenix Blood and changed into a new set of clothes as she left the room.

Seeing Huang Yueli coming out, he looked at her from head to toe as he gave a surprised expression.

“You’re finally out, you actually stayed in the Phoenix Blood Pool for such a long time, I almost thought something happened to you! Now it looks like you’ve benefited a lot from this Phoenix Blood Pool. From.... Fourth stage realm third level, you advanced to fourth stage peak??”

Huang Yueli smiled as she asked, “Why? Have I broken the record again?”

Huang Zixiao said, “That isn’t so. Phoenix Blood’s strengthening effect differs on each individual. Some effects are especially good, even possible to leap over two large realms! But as your previous cultivation speed was slow, fourteen or fifteen years old and still have not advanced to fourth stage realm, so now you suddenly advanced so quickly so that made me slightly surprised.”

She didn’t tell him about her cultivating for just one year as instinct told her that this shocking matter would be better be left as her ace.

Huang Zixiao continued, “Now you know how good the inheritance tower’s rewards are? Now that you’ve passed the second stage of heaven grade assessment perfectly, then when you reach ninth stage realm, you can come to the inheritance tower once again and accept the third stage refinement. If your refinement succeeds, you’d obtain an even better reward! Of course, that includes the chance to enter the Phoenix Blood Pool again.”

Huang Yueli blinked, thinking to herself that she had already collected a huge pool of Phoenix Blood in the Sky Phoenix Ring, so she had a guilty conscience.

She had already taken so much Phoenix Blood, and whether she had the second chance to enter the Phoenix Blood Pool, it didn’t seem that important now.

Only..... this resourceful thinking, surely she wasn’t the only one who had thought about it right?

Huang Yueli was puzzled so she might as well have tried to probe to get the answer, “Senior, earlier when I was in the Phoenix Blood Pool, you didn’t keep an eye on me, aren’t you afraid that I’d steal some Phoenix Blood?”

Huang Zixiao was stunned for a moment, then subsequently as though he had heard an especially funny joke, he started laughing out loud.

“Ha ha ha! I say, young lass, aren’t you thinking just a little too much? Actually you can try to keep some Phoenix Blood into your realm ring earlier! Then you’d know that this is practically impossible!”

“Ah? Why?” Huang Yueli went blank.

Huang Zixiao replied, “Because Phoenix Blood is an existence which is much higher than God Relic so ordinary realm rings practically aren’t able to contain the pressure from the Phoenix Blood, so it’s cause the space to distort, thereby causing the realm ring to shatter directly! Want to put the Phoenix Blood into a realm ring and bring it out? That's just a beautiful wish! Phoenix Blood can only be stored in a higher levelled existence than a God Relic! For example... this inheritance tower!"

Huang Yueli was stunned, "So that's the case, I've gained more knowledge again....."

Although she said that, but her heartbeat was starting to speed up.

Realm ring would directly shatter when it meets Phoenix Blood? Some higher levelled existence than God Relic could store the Phoenix Blood?

Then why... had she easily stored the Phoenix Blood into the Sky Phoenix Ring?

Linking it to her innate testing earlier, her Profound Energy was depleted, and the Sky Phoenix ring unleashed a gust of energy, helping her pass the difficult juncture.....
