Chapter 1201: Third Miss, you're still alive? (3)

Although Murong Fei was publicly known as the number one beauty in the entire South Sky Region, but if she were really to stand next to Huang Yueli, she was just not enough to be compared with her.

Huang Yueli retrieved a bronze mirror as she looked in the reflection, and felt slightly dissatisfied.

Previous life.... She was much prettier! Helming an incomparable astonishing beauty.

It was rumoured that, Mu Chengying had just taken one look at her from afar, and it was love at first sight.... Now she wasn't as beautiful as before, if he were to regain his memories, would he be dissatisfied?

But, even it was too late even if he was dissatisfied. She had already relied on him, so don't he even dare to think of ditching her!

The man whom she, Huang Yueli chose, how was it even possible for him to escape from her clutches?

Although she had this thinking, Huang Yueli rearranged a new hairstyle and smeared a little lipstick on her lips, before she nodded her head in satisfaction.

But after she had prepared everything, Li Moying still hadn't returned.

Huang Yueli guessed that it must be an extremely important matter which Murong De was discussing with him, which was why Mo Qi couldn't be found either. But she wasn't anxious, so she continued to tour around the house.

She had been to the initial few rooms yesterday, and there were still a number of rooms at the end of the corridor which she hadn't been to.

Huang Yueli continued to look around, and while looking, she exclaimed in admiration, "Wow, Li Moying is really rich! He has so many of these ninth tier materials here! Who on earth set up these mechanisms for him? Just short of me by a little... En, very good, he's so rich, looks like he will be able to provide for me!"

Huang Yueli mumbled to herself in satisfaction, as she reached the last room's entrance at the end of the corridor.

She casually pushed open the door and unexpectedly realised that the door didn't open up!

Huang Yueli lowered her head, and discovered that the door had been set up with an array, which will obstruct those without any identification to enter the room.

Huang Yueli placed her hand on the door and injected some Profound Energy, and this time the room door immediately opened up.

"Weird, why would he set up a lock in his own house..... just how much treasures are stored in this room? I gotta look carefully, not allowing him to have his own private stash in future!

As Huang Yueli taunted, she walked in and as she stood in the middle of the room, she turned around to look at the surroundings and immediately she went into a daze.

Celestial Light Sect's main hall.

Mo Qi was negotiating with the guards at the entrance.

"Senior Brothers, I'm so sorry but I have something extremely important to inform Young Sect Master, so will you please help me to inform him!"

But the guards took no action.

"Protector Mo, Sect Master and Young Sect Master are discussing very important things, if you have anything urgent, can't you just wait a while?"

"But my matter here is extremely urgent! I must inform Young Sect Master immediately!" Mo Qi anxiously replied.

The guards blocked his entrance, refusing him entry.

"Protector Mo, we are considered as friends so I'll tell you the truth. West Sky Region's Green Cloud Sect has sent someone over again! Last time they suggested a tournament with our Sect, in the end they were beaten hands down by Young Sect Master. So this time not knowing what trickery they are up to, they actually sent someone over again! I heard that something big is going to happen!"

"Ah? There's such a matter?" Mo Qi replied in surprise.

"Isn't that so? So no matter how important your matter is, can it be more important than the Sect's benefits? Just wait a while more!" The guards patted Mo Qi's shoulder, as they closed the main door's entrance in his face.

Mo Qi really wanted to cry but no tears came out. He dared to bet that in Li Moying's heart, Third Miss's matter was the most important matter which overtook his own life!

Chapter 1202: Third Miss, you're still alive? (4)

What West Sky Region's Green Cloud Sect, the Sect's life and death, as compared to Third Miss, was all a fart!

However, others wouldn't think in the same way as him.....

So, Mo Qi was sorrowfully rejected outside the door, and no matter what he said didn't go through.

But luckily, he was here to deliver good news, so even if Li Moying wasn't pre-informed about the news where Huang Yueli had returned, it was just a matter of being happy a little later, and it would not lead to any serious consequences. So Mo Qi didn't take any drastic action, only walking around anxiously at the entrance of the main hall.

For Murong De to look for Li Moying, it was definitely for a huge matter.

Because beside the two of them, there were several Elders in the Sect, who were in the main hall, discussing for an entire day and still not coming out yet.

It was only in the evening around 7pm when the main hall's door suddenly opened.

Li Moying's tall statue, appeared from the entrance.

Mo Qi shot up like an arrow and was just about to open his mouth when he suddenly noticed that standing right beside Li Moying was Murong Fei!

The words which were by Mo Qi's mouth, were swallowed back instantly.

Everyone knew that Murong Fei couldn't stand all those ladies who appeared beside Li Moying, especially jealous of Third Miss. The last time she was in Celestial Light Academy, she even went to look for Third Miss's trouble. And now, she was just standing there so if he were to speak about Third Miss's whereabouts, would it cause trouble for Third Miss?

Just this but of hesitation from Mo Qi, Li Moying had already departed forward continuously.

Tonight, was full moon's night and now that the day was starting to turn dark, there was a possibility that his Soul Detachment Illness would act up anytime, so he didn't dared to delay any time, and must rush back to his own courtyard quickly.

Li Moying's speed was extremely swift, even Mo Qi couldn't catch up to him.

But, taking a turn of thoughts, wouldn't Li Moying see Huang Yueli when he returned? There was no difference whether he reported or not, so he might as well stop pursuing him.

But even though Mo Qi didn't pursue, Murong Fei on the other hand followed him closely, blindly following suit by Li Moying's side.

"Eldest Senior Brother, what do you think of it? Earlier, my father's suggestion.... You don't seem to agree to it totally?"

Li Moying replied coldly, "I respect Master's decision, as long as he feels it can be done, I have no objection."

"Really? But... Eldest Senior Brother, wait for me, you're walking so fast, I can't catch up at all!"

Li Moying's footsteps were so brisk that even though he didn't need to use any body movements or Profound Skills, Murong Fei was already having a hard time catching up.

Just a little while later, she was already panting hard, and so tired that her feet turned to jelly, as she shouted out from behind, hoping Li Moying would stop in his tracks.

But Li Moying totally ignored her, as he flashed and dashed into his own courtyard.

When Mo Er, who had been following Li Moying, saw Murong Fei's withered look, a gloating smile appeared on his face, as he specially stopped and laughed, "Eldest Young Miss, thanks for your trouble, following my Master even though he's gone back to rest! But unfortunately, today is full moon's night!"

Murong Fei was filled with thoughts of following the man, and totally forgot what day was today.

It was only after Mo Er's reminder when she suddenly recalled, and her expression instantly changed.

"Ah... So... tonight is full moon.... yes, it's my negligence...." Murong Fei immediately wiped off the sweat on her forehead, "Then.... I won't disturb Eldest Senior Brother from his rest today, I.... I'll go back now!"

Saying that, Murong Fei immediately turned around and ran!

What joke was that, when Eldest Senior Brother's Soul Detachment Illness acted up, that was extremely terrifying!

Chapter 1203: Third Miss, you're still alive? (5)

Furthermore, by that time, he won't recognise anyone and would kill anyone he met!

She, Murong Fei was still young, so why would she not care about her own life?

The Senior Eldest Brother at this timing, it was best to avoid him far, far away!

Anyway, they have a long way ahead of them, so when he had returned back to normal, she would then continue to seduce him!

Looking at Murong Fei's back as she left in a hurry, Mo Er gave a cold harrumph of disdain, "Only know how to run away at this juncture, no wonder Master only likes Third Miss, and not like you!"

Although they were only Shadow Guards, but Li Moying was surrounded by intelligent people, so it wasn't any wonder that they could differentiate the person's character rather well?

Li Moying was usually extraordinary handsome, overbearing and strong, so naturally he was every female's favoured match, but whenever his Soul Detachment Illness acted up, at his deepest pained situation, when he turned into a devil from hell, no one was able to get close to him, so how many could treat him in the same way as before?

Probably, there was only Third Miss who could do that!

On full moon's night, Li Moying could not do without anyone taking care of him. Mo Er just raised his foot as he was preparing to step in when he saw Mo Qi panting heavily right behind him.

"Wait, wait! Second Brother, don't go in!"

Mo Er was stunned, "What happened?"

Mo Qi hooked his arm around his neck as he couldn't help but laugh out, "Tell you a piece of good news, Third Miss is back and she's alright! Moreover, she's in Master's room right now...."

"What? How is that possible?" Mo Er was extremely shocked.

"It's real, even more real than a real pearl! So, let's stay away further tonight! Anyway, even if Master's Soul Detachment Illness really acted up, Third Miss will be able to settle it, so let's not go disturb them exchanging their lovey dovey words..."

Mo Er finally got out of his shock as he slowly revealed a smile, "You're absolutely right! He doesn't need us here now, come, let's go grab a drink!"

As long as Third Miss was back, to everyone, life had instantly been lit up in colours once again.

...

At this moment, Huang Yueli was just walking to the last storage room at the very end of the corridor, as she admired Li Moying's collections.

The room which she was in right now, was the secret room which Administrator Chen was talking about, but she herself didn't know that this room was out of bounds, furthermore she didn't feel that there was any problem at all.

Because, this place had stored.... All the things which were related to her!

Including the various Profound Armaments which she had gifted Li Moying during their outdoor training, and various medicinal pills.....

Even the cloth which she used to help bandage his wound when they fell off the cliff, and the wooden tub which she gave to him with the Spirit Saint Spring water, were all kept here, and arranged neatly in the room. An anti-dust array was even set up, storing it carefully as though it were some precious gems.

The only thing which was missing, was the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror which she had refined personally, but Huang Yueli didn't need to think before she knew that this item, must have been kept by his side.

Seeing Li Moying valued the things which she had given him, Huang Yueli's heart was touched, as her eyes started to sting slightly.

"What is this, this stinky man is really a scrooge, a cheapskate! I took so much time to refine the Profound Armaments for him, and he actually can't bear to use it! I gave it to him for defense, and isn't it a complete waste to not use it? Really....."

Huang Yueli quietly mumbled to herself and although her mouth was filled with complaints, but she was feeling incredibly sweet on the inside.

Just at this moment, she suddenly felt an immense danger approaching!

Chapter 1204: I've returned! (1)

Immediately following that, the half opened door behind her was pushed open with violent force and an overbearing and pure thunder attributed Profound Energy came charging mercilessly towards her back!

Huang Yueli hastily moved aside!

But the attack speed of the person behind her was simply too fast, as he used lightning's power, giving out an air breaking sound!

Just hearing the sound alone made Huang Yueli's scalp turned numb. She knew that she absolutely could not evade it so she could only chose to scream out loudly, "Li Moying, it's me!"

"What??"

When Li Moying was heading back from the outside, he already felt his head getting heavier and heavier, as there was a faint pain, which were the signs of Soul Detachment Illness acting up.

He tried his best to suppress this feeling, hoping that he would not lose his self-control so quickly.

But the more he tried to control it, the more uncomfortable he felt.

Just as his body was turning hotter and hotter, as the thunder attributed energy was about to explode out, he suddenly heard..... a noise coming from his house!

Furthermore, it was coming from his most valued secret room!

The items in that room weren't extremely valuable, but it was all given by Huang Yueli to him personally, and those were all his warmest memories!

In future if he and Li'er were really to separate, then he would use those objects to curb his missing her!

But someone, actually entered that important room??

Li Moying hadn't got the time to think carefully yet on why that heavily secured room which was set up with various arrays was opened up by someone. Right now his judgement had been invaded with the raging Profound Energy, and there was only one thought left, which was to immediately strike that daring thief to death on the spot!

How dare he touch the things which Li'er gave to him! It simply was.... dying ten thousand times wasn't enough!

Li Moying instinctively struck his first move, and on seeing that thief about to be struck down, he suddenly discovered... that this thief's figure, seemed a little familiar...

Following that he heard a melodious and ultra familiar voice, as it rang from not too far away.

"Li Moying, it's me! What were you trying to do to me??"

That voice.... Was like a bolt of lightning in broad daylight, as Li Moying quivered and instantly awoke.

This... this was Li'er's voice!

His body had already made a reaction over his brain, as he charged towards Huang Yueli immediately!

Thunder attributed Profound Energy had already left his body, and it could not be retrieved, but Li Moying's own speed was much faster than the lightning!

He managed to reach Huang Yueli's side on time as he tightly hugged her slender waist, embracing her as they rolled on the ground.

The lightning struck heavily on Huang Yueli's original position, and there was just half a meter of distance between that area and where they were lying on. As for the mahogany table which was struck, it had already turned into a charred piece of wood, as it kept fuming choking smoke repeatedly.

When Huang Yueli turned back to take a look, and she immediately broke out in sweat.

Heavens, she knew Li Moying was very powerful but this was just too strong, and his speed was just too fast!

In the past, she had never experienced it personally and had just seen Li Moying beating other people up, so she didn't know any better. Now that she herself became Li Moying's attack target, she then realised the extent of how powerful Li Moying was!

Being the same seventh stage realm practitioner, in Ling Wenbin's hands, not only was she able to escape, moreover under special circumstances, she was able to counter-strike beautifully!

Chapter 1205: I've returned! (2)

But when facing Li Moying, she didn't even have a sliver of possibility to escape at all!

At the instance when she was enveloped by Li Moying's overbearing thunder attributed domain, she had been locked in as his target, invaded by that invasive presence as her mind went blank and her body totally immovable, only able to stand still and wait for death to descend.....

This simply was.... too terrifying!

Even though she had escaped death, but just recalling it made Huang Yueli's heart palpitate wildly as sweat kept sprouting.

It wasn't only her who was anxious, Li Moying was in fact even more anxious than her. The arm which he hugged Huang Yueli's slender waist, kept trembling non-stop.

It took quite a while later before he regained his composure, as he stretched out his hand and gently caressed her hair, as though he was afraid that she would disappear.

Such carefulness, made Huang Yueli's heart quiver.

She hurriedly raised her head up, meeting Li Moying's gaze.

She thought she would be able to smile and greet him, but the minute she raised his head, he saw Li Moying's deep and painful black eyes, she couldn't bring a smile to her face at all.....

After some time, a sentence was forced out of her throat, "Li Moying, I'm fine, I..... I've returned!"

"You....."

Li Moying said one word, and immediately stopped.

Huang Yueli heard his gagged tone and instantly widened her eyes because she could tell that Li Moying seemed as though he was about to cry.....

She hurriedly hugged Li Moying, pouncing herself onto him, as she showed her pure and beautiful face which she had intentionally put on make-up in front of him.

“Hey, what do you mean by this? Aren’t you happy to see me at all Give me a smile?”

“Of course I’m happy... Li’er, you’re alright, you’re really alright?? Am I not dreaming about this?”

Li Moying locked her tightly as the force in his arm became stronger and strong, as though he was about to break her waist.

Huang Yueli originally thought about enduring it but Li Moying was so agitated that he totally forgot to control his force, and she couldn’t take it any further as she gave out a moan!

When Li Moying heard her moan, his arm relaxed a little, but didn’t totally let her go.

Huang Yueli wiggled a little in his embrace, in an attempt to struggle free.

“You let go first.... Wu wu!”

Following that, she had yet to finish one sentence before Li Moying moved closed to her and pressed his lips onto hers.

Li Moying’s kiss was very, very passionate, and extremely strong, overbearing, resolute, not allowing any rejection.

Even though Huang Yueli was in his embrace, she almost fainted due to suffocation, but what he did was only to release her for one breath’s time.

Just as Huang Yueli rose her head up to take in air, he had once again sealed her lips!

Once and again, repeatedly, as though there wasn’t any stopping at all.

After a long, long time later, Huang Yueli already lost track of how much time was lost, only knowing that her brain had already turned into a mess, other than Li Moying who was tightly holding on to her, there was nothing left.

Eventually, after Li Moying felt that missing corner in his heard had been slightly filled, he finally let her off.

By now, Huang Yueli’s lips had already turned into a bright red colour, as though it was about to drip blood.

She lightly pursed her lips, indeed, it had become numb with no sense of feeling.....

Huang Yueli secretly called him “beast” in her heart as she used her eyes to stare daggers at Li Moying, with the intention to express her fury towards him!

Chapter 1206: I’ve returned! (3)

But she herself hadn’t noticed that her pair of watery eyes, had already become blood filled due to suffocation and desire.

Her two eyes were bright red, like a rabbit, and that furious pressing and anxious look, rather than saying that it posed any threat, might as well say, it was filled with an unspeakable temptation.....

Li Moying saw this and there was a slight change in his gaze, as he suddenly felt that a certain part of his lower body, turning slightly rigid and uncomfortable.

But, now wasn't the best time to get intimate.....

Being stared at intently by that pair of deep and penetrating peach blossom eyes, Huang Yueli felt like she was starting to lack oxygen once again, as though she was about to faint...

That pair of eyes was simply too beautiful, totally the same as Mu Chengying..... that kind of deep gaze which could enter one's soul, was something which no one could imitate.

Huang Yueli's little hand tugged onto his shirt at his waist and was just about to speak.

Suddenly, she heard Li Moying opening his mouth first.

"I'm sorry!"

Huang Yueli went into a blank before she gave a puzzled reply, "Sorry?"

Why did this word suddenly pop out? Should it be "I miss you so much"?

However, Li Moying continued speaking, "I should have kissed you, I'm only.... I'm only too agitated from seeing you still alive, and slightly.... slightly lost my control. I know I shouldn't do that, and I'll try my best to keep a distance from you. I'm extremely sorry for offending you this time."

His voice started to chill slowly.

Earlier he had missed Huang Yueli too much. Furthermore, he thought that he was really in an illusion of a dream.

Since he was dreaming, then naturally he wanted to kiss, to hug, and in reality when he dreamt of Huang Yueli in the nights, he had done even more villainous matters....

So, he unhesitatingly kissed her, but as he kissed, he became aware that the Li'er in front of him... was actually real!

In the midst of shock and joy, to ensure that the young lady in his embrace really existed, his kiss became even more intense.

But now that his rationality had returned to his head, he discovered that he had committed a huge mistake.

His Li'er.... no she was no longer his.... Anyway, Li'er already had someone who she liked, and he didn't dare to use the fact that he was a man, and the advantage that his cultivation was much higher than hers, to coerce her to accept his kiss and touch.

Thinking of this, Li Moying's heart crumpled into a burst of twitching pain.

But he still loosened the grip on her arm, as he stood up.

Huang Yueli was originally pressed against the rug on the ground being kissed wildly, and her clothes disoriented, face flushed red. In the end this man actually just patted his ass and ran away, displaying a regretting past deeds expression, then leaving a word “sorry”?

Wasn't this scene a little too funny?

Huang Yueli first went into a short daze, then subsequently grabbing Li Moying's lower hem of his robe, as she tugged him hard downwards!

Li Moying was still nursing his distress and he wasn't standing properly, hence he totally didn't expect to be sneaked an attack by Huang Yueli at all.

So, just that tug alone made him lost his balance immediately as he fell down onto Huang Yueli!

Seeing that he was about to fall onto Huang Yueli, Li Moying finally reacted in time, and at the last moment, he stretched out his hand to prop himself up, hovering just above Huang Yueli's body.

“You... I'm sorry, I didn't stand properly....”

Li Moying said that and was just about to get up.

Huang Yueli was utterly flustered and exasperated!

She might as well use both her hands to hug onto Li Moying's neck, and using force, she flipped over and pressed him below her.

Chapter 1207: I've returned! (4)

Li Moying was stunned for just that one moment when Huang Yueli had already squeezed herself to his face, and her pointed nose touched against his nose's tip, as that pair of watery large eyes was right in front of his face.

Li Moying's breathing became heavy.

The young lady's soft body was tightly pressed against his, warm and tempting.

This young lass had never been so obedient, doing what she was told, so proactive before....

For a moment, Li Moying wanted badly to lock her tightly, pressing her down and then doing what he wanted to do. That desire was extremely strong, as though he had been thinking about it for many years, for a long, long time, which had already set in deep into his soul.....

His two hands which were hanging on the ground clenched into fists, as his fingers sunk into his palm, forcing himself to control himself.

Because he still clearly remembers, the expression and tone when Huang Yueli said she had someone whom she liked....

That kind of tender yearning was something which he couldn't hope to have.

However, just as his self-control was about to collapse, Huang Yueli suddenly lowered her head and gave him a peck on his face.

Her action was light and quick, like a dragonfly touching the surface of the water, when it withdrew back immediately.

Li Moying took a couple of breath's time before he finally reacted, he seemed to have been.... snuck a kiss by her??

Huang Yueli's face was filled with a suspicious red blush, "En... that.... I'm sorry, because you're just too handsome, so.... I kissed you. Anyway being kissed by me, you don't lose anything right?"

Li Moying was tongue tied, as he felt that he must be going crazy! Was he in a dream, or had he developed hallucination?

His Li'er would automatically kiss him, and gave such a bashful smile?

Had his Soul Detachment Illness became so serious that the minute it acted up, it actually revealed the dream in his mind, turning it to become so alike as though it was real....

Huang Yueli lowered her head to see his dazed look and suddenly felt slightly comedic. She had never thought that the man whom she liked, was usually so overbearing and powerful.... And he actually had a dazed moment like this!

This intense difference made Huang Yueli's heart filled with warmth, because this man only appeared in this way in front of her....

For the longest time, he had only shown such difference towards her.... the gentleness in his eyes, were only for her.....

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli just wanted to explain the whole truth to him clearly and quickly!

They had already wasted so much time, wasting a total of two lifetimes, so in future... they must cherish their affinity, and stay happy together.

But seeing Li Moying still in a daze, Huang Yueli's hand turned itchy as she pinched him on his face, as she was gasping how smooth his skin felt, as she sat up and pulled Li Moying along with her.

"Get up, I have something very important to tell you!"

She used her strength to grab his arm upwards, but after tugging him for some time, he actually didn't budge at all. This man was just too heavy!!

Li Moying finally felt some actuality, as he saw his little fox rolling her eyes back several times at him, he finally remembered to climb up.

"Li'er, why are you..." he agitatedly grabbed Huang Yueli's shoulders and wanted to speak.

"Shut up, can you listen to me first??" Huang Yueli broke off his words.

Li Moying didn't expect to be howled at by her, as he went into a daze again and nodded his head

Huang Yueli pointed her chin, like a mighty queen, "Sit over there, and listen to me."

Chapter 1208: I've returned! (5)

Li Moying was helpless, as he could only listen to her commands and sat on the chair by the side, as he turned his eyes to look at the young lady's dainty face that was bright like sunlight.

He was finally slightly awake.

Earlier the warmth in his embrace was real, especially when the two of them were intensely tangled together that kind of satisfaction which melted the terror in his heart, other than Li'er herself, there was no one else who could do that!

So, his Li'er had indeed returned?

But, Li Moying's heart was filled with countless doubts. He just wanted to ask but was shoved back by Huang Yueli.

Helpless, he could only sit there obediently, waiting for his queen to give further instructions.

Huang Yueli stood in front of him, as she said out the words clearly, "Li Moying, I like you!"

Li Moying had finally managed to regain some senses, in the end, the minute Huang Yueli opened her mouth, it seemed like a bolt of lightning, striking him disoriented once again.

His thick brows creased slightly, as his penetrative black pupils stared at Huang Yueli for a moment and his first reaction was actually, "Li'er, are you... are you alright? Are you sick? Or have you lost your memories?"

Huang Yueli was stunned, as she didn't expect that for the first time in her life in confessing to the person she liked, the male lead actually had such a response??

She went into a mad rage instantly, as she shot upwards to Li Moying like an arrow, grabbing his collar, "Hey, what do you mean? Didn't you hear me say I like you? You actually asked if I'm sick or lost my memories? Are you getting your facts right? The one who is sick or lost memories is you! Is it because you don't like me anymore, or are you regretting it now? So, you're intentionally acting silly?"

"I... I didn't.... I wouldn't dare??" Li Moying was unable to give a convincing explanation for self-defence.

After being tortured by his violent little fox, he began to reminisce, "You..... I really didn't hear you wrongly? You like me? How is that possible?"

A huge shocking joy arose from his inner heart, as he simply didn't believe in his ears, not believing that what he heard was the truth!

To win Li'er's heart was something that he had yearned for night and day, but every time he had some hopes raised, but it was broken completely by Huang Yueli once and again!

Just as he was completely devastated, and was prepared to give up any hopes, to silently protect her, his Li'er actually said.... she liked him??

Even in his dreams, it wasn't so beautiful!

Huang Yueli pouted her lips, "Why is it not possible? You're so handsome, and so powerful, and you treat me so well, if I don't like you, who else should I like?"

Hearing Huang Yueli's non-stingy praises, Li Moying's lips started to curl upwards, as he couldn't control his smile at all.

"Although.... What you say is a reality of what everyone knows, but, uhhh, the last time you obviously told me that you already have someone you like, so you cannot like me?"

Huang Yueli's smile froze, as she embarrassedly replied, "Uhhh, about this.... this was actually a mistake. It's all my fault for being too dumb.... Of course, you're also very dumb...."

Her last two sentences were said so softly, as though she was mumbling to herself so Li Moying didn't heard it clearly.

He frowned and asked, "What did you say? What mistake? I remember it clearly! You said, you liked a person for a long long time, and he is a ninth stage realm peerless top expert! And furthermore, he loves you and treats you really well, he's able to let you become the person whom all the young ladies in Soaring Heavens Continent envy?"

Recalling Huang Yueli's resolute words, Li Moying's heart started to grow in pain silently.

Chapter 1209: Past and present life (1)

The gaze which he threw onto Huang Yueli, started to become estranged.

Although he didn't know why Huang Yueli suddenly confessed to him, and he indeed loved her till the end of his life, but.... he wasn't silly at all.

There had been no one at all, who would change their character within a short period of time, to like another person.

For Huang Yueli to say this, there would definitely be a reason, a motive.

Actually, Li Moying didn't mind if the girl he liked had any motive, and no matter what Huang Yueli wanted him to do, he would disregard the price, or ask for any payback and helped her do what she wanted!

But she didn't want to hear that kind of false confession, because.... he really would treat it as real, he really would believe her!

And if in the end, Huang Yueli were to regret once more, this would definitely throw him deep into the abyss, consigned to eternal damnation...

Before he met Huang Yueli, Li Moying had already thought of himself as having a heart of stone, there was nothing which he couldn't do, but now, he gotta admit that he had a fatal weak point, which was this young lady in front of him, who could easily make him totally refuted....

Seeing Li Moying's face revealing a pained expression, Huang Yueli's heart also started to tremble.

She immediately pounced over to hug him, "I'm not lying to you, I really like you! I've always... always only liked you! But... but there is really some misunderstanding, and I didn't expect it to turn out like this.... are you willing to listen to my explanation?"

Hearing the young lady in his embrace making a solemn vow repeatedly emphasizing her feelings, Li Moying's heartbeat started to speed up.

Should he look forward, to this time... she's really.... decided to open her heart to him.....

Li Moying stretched out his hand to hold on to hers, as he replied in a deep voice softly, "Alright, I'll listen to you, but... you cannot bluff me....."

Huang Yueli looked at his eyes, "I will not bluff you, but, I'm afraid you will not believe in me."

Li Moying seemed to have felt her apprehensiveness, as his gaze turned gentle.

"As long as you're willing to speak, I'll believe (you)."

In actual fact, Huang Yueli felt that there was a ninety nine percent chance that Li Moying would think she's taking nonsense, but at least hearing his pacification, her heart started to quieten down.

Huang Yueli sat by his side, as she thought for a moment before she opened her mouth, "This matter, needs to start from our past life....."

"Past life??"

Li Moying had already decided that, no matter what Huang Yueli said, and how ridiculous it was, he insisted on believing the person whom he liked.

But even though he had this sort of determination, at the first instance when Huang Yueli opened her mouth, the first sentence made him stunned.

Huang Yueli firmly nodded her head as she replied, "Right, previous life! Why are you so shocked? Didn't you said that you will believe me regardless?"

"I'm only.... A little shocked. Alright, do continue." Li Moying was only astonished for a moment when he settled down.

Huang Yueli was reminiscing as she spoke softly, "You probably couldn't believe that I still had my past life's memories when I entered this body. But for the first fourteen years of my life, my memories had been sealed, and had always been very blurry. Until one year ago, it was because of one life and death incident where I had suffered provocation, hence recovering my past life's memories. Recalling my identity from my past life."

If any ordinary person were to hear this, they would probably think she was still sleep talking.

But to a top expert with broad knowledge like Li Moying, he had heard of rumours of practitioners whose souls had reincarnated, so he could still accept this news.

He turned and looked at Huang Yueli as he asked curiously, "What is your identity... in your past life?"

Chapter 1210: Past and present life (2)

Huang Yueli raised her eyes as she looked at him, as she spoke out the words distinctly, "Mythical Flame Palace's Young Palace Master Huang Yueli!"

A clang sound was heard as a ceramic cup which Li Moying was holding on to, fell onto the ground, shattering into pieces.

His eyes widened like full moons, "What did you say? Your previous life.... Ws Mythical Flame Palace's Young Palace Master Huang Yueli? Soaring Heavens Continent's number one Armament Master??"

Huang Yueli nodded.

"This...."

Li Moying felt that his heart wasn't able to accept such a huge shock!

Who was Huang Yueli? Even though she had already passed on for more than fifteen years, but her reputation still remained through the entire Soaring Heavens Continent, like thunder!

The previous number one beauty of Soaring Heavens Continent, number one Armament Master, and the strongest among the fire attributed practitioners! Her beauty, as well as her exceptional yet unconventional refining art, was something which no one could mimic even until today!

And... the tear jerking relationship she had with the number one top expert Mu Chengying....

Thinking of this, Li Moying's heart jumped swiftly!

But Huang Yueli didn't notice his slight change of expression, as she continued listing down examples, trying to convince him of her identity.

"I know this kind of thing sounds unbelievable. But if you think carefully, you'd discover many evidences which could prove my identity. Armament refining is such a difficult skill to learn, but I've never had any Master, yet easily became an Armament Master. To the fact that even when I still couldn't cultivate, I could already refine third grade Profound Armament, don't you find it weird? That's because of my previous life's experience, which allowed me to display my potential to the greatest degree!"

"And, you also know that, I also know how to set up arrays right? Haven't you ever thought of this, why is it that at my age, I had such high accomplishments in armament refining and arrays? Most people, even if they started learning while still in their mother's womb, they couldn't possibly be this incredible? That's because, these are all things which I've learnt in my previous life. But because of my cultivation that I was limited hence could not display my full power!"

"Furthermore, in my first fourteen years, I had always been treated like trash who could not cultivate. But it has only been barely a year, not only am I not trash, I've also reached fourth stage realm in a jiffy, don't you find it ridiculous? All these are because of the cultivation method which I'm using to train, which were also obtained in my past life's memories!"

"And...."

Huang Yueli added more and more examples, all of which were obvious evidences, just because she was afraid that Li Moying wouldn't believe her, so she made it especially detailed.

However, Li Moying only heard the first few bits and had totally believed her saying.

Because these suspicious points on Huang Yueli, was something which he was knew especially well!

A strong, intelligent, elegant young lady, while attracting all his attention, she had indeed many suspicious points on her.

Li Moying always knew that his Li'er had secrets on her, and furthermore, a huge amount of secrets, so all these suspicious points which Huang Yueli mentioned, he had all thought of it previously.

But at that moment, Li Moying didn't think of investigating thoroughly because the familiarity towards her came from the deepest depths of his heart, trusting and liking her.... Even though those are her secrets, it also made Li Moying felt that she was lovable.

Now that Huang Yueli expressed her past life's identity, then those suspicious points, had instantly became explainable.

In this way, what reason did Li Moying had, to not believe her words?

However, Li Moying remained silent.
