

Weaponsmith 1261

Chapter 1261: Liu Buyan appears (4)

Liu Buyan decided immediately that he must grab this opportunity to let the young lady before him know that he was an abled and reliable man!

But Liu Buyan had his own pride. He didn't immediately agree to it diligently but maintained his usual kind of indifference on the surface.

He raised his tea cup and took a sip before he said, "How do you want me to help exactly? Let me hear about it first?"

Huang Yueli replied, "It's the matter which we agreed upon previously, to do consultation for a friend of mine! He has had that illness for ten over years and recently it's been deteriorating. The last time because I met with danger hence, we missed the agreed timing to meet up. After dragging for so long, I'm afraid that it would become more and more dangerous, so I'd like to trouble you to set aside some time to do consultation for him."

When Liu Buyan heard about this matter, he couldn't help but laughed as he said, "You should know that the price to ask me to do consultation is very high. Last time you've made me a meal which made me satisfied so I agreed to your request. But at that time, you didn't appear during our agreed timing, so it's considered as you giving up that chance. Now that we're speaking on the same matter again, I will not acknowledge this debt."

Huang Yueli pursed her lips as she berated Liu Buyan the wily old fox secretly, thinking that he would probably come out with something else to make things difficult for her!

She was considered quite close to Li Buyan, and in her past life, they were all friends so she naturally knew that every single time this fellow helped someone to do consultation, he would definitely not let it go easily if he didn't make the other party go crazy from it.

But did she have a choice since she needed him to do her this favour? To Huang Yueli, Li Moying's health was much more important than anything else. So for that, she was willing to pay any price, moreover just merely lowering her stance to beg him?

Huang Yueli immediately spoke in a humble manner as she said, "Divine Doctor Liu, last time you'd already agreed to it! Moreover, I didn't intentionally not meet up, I really almost lost my life! Furthermore, aren't you asking me for help this time as well? Don't tell me you're only intending to make me help you for free and not intending to pay me any reward? How about this, we do one favour for each other and that's considered settled!"

She used the carrot and stick approach, as she tried to befuddle Liu Buyan.

Liu Buyan heard her clever and eloquent look and felt a little like laughing. The way she spoke really resembled that young lady from fourteen years ago.....

Thinking of the person in the past, Liu Buyan sighed silent in his heart and at the same time he reminded himself that since he had already missed it once, he absolutely cannot miss it the second time!

This time round, he must grab the opportunity!

Liu Buyan heard that and said, "There's no logic in your saying! Your answering to a few questions of mine was as easy as lifting a finger but if I have to do consultation for your friend, that would waste a lot of my effort so how could it be the same? You just want to use a few questions to exchange for I, Liu Buyan's help?"

How would such an intelligent person like Huang Yueli not understand what he meant by that, as she immediately realized that. Liu Buyan was prepared to agree to it but she was still acting that he didn't agree to it.

She hurriedly added, "This is easy, what else do you want me to help you with? Just list it out and I'd do my best to satisfy your demands!"

Liu Buyan laughed and intentionally shot a disdainful look at her, "Can you satisfy all my demands? I don't believe that based on your ability, I really can't tell that what help you can help me with?"

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him in displeasure, "What do you mean by that? Don't you dare belittle me! I'm telling you, I'm very rich!"

Chapter 1262: You're engaged?? (1)

"Moreover, not only do I have spirit stones, I also have many rare materials and Profound Armaments. You only need to list out your demands and I'll think of a way to do it!"

Even if she wasn't able to do it, there was still Li Moying, so she could still go back home and discuss with her fiancé on how to go about it!

Huang Yueli was very sincere when she raised this but Liu Buyan didn't believe her.

From how he saw it, no matter what Huang Yeuli said, she was merely a fourteen to fifteen year old young lass. Even if she had outstanding innate talent, but cultivation itself required a lot of expenditure on resources so how much money could she have saved?

Retreating back ten thousand steps, even if she really did have savings, was it comparable to him Liu Buyan? One must know that the two occupations in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent which earned the most were Armament Masters and Alchemists!

Ever since Huang Yueli died fourteen years ago, the position of a nine ranked Armament Master was still vacant till now whereas for nine ranked Alchemist, it was Liu Buyan himself!

In other words, he was the richest man in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent. So no matter what this young lass had, surely she would not be able to show him anything that he had interest in right?

Furthermore, if he were to woo her now, who on earth would woo the lady and still demanded things from her?

Liu Buyan thought for a moment and replied, "Money, I have plenty of it. For that little bit of yours.... I am not interested!"

Huang Yueli's lips twitched as she wanted to debate further but endured it.

Alright, Pill Masters were indeed rich and for Liu Buyan to be so arrogant, he had his own reasoning. Who asked him to be the one that she had to beg for help? She would endure with it!

"... But, if you can copy what you did like last time, to make another meal for me, then I can give you another chance, to help your friend do consultation. What do you think?" Liu Buyan raised his request slowly.

Huang Yueli delightfully nodded when she heard that, "Alright, this is simple. Don't say one meal, even if it's ten meals, it's not a problem too! As long as you're able to cure him then you will be our best friend. So, we welcome you to our house to be our guest!"

She had not expected that things were actually that simple. Liu Buyan's request was actually for her to make him another meal!

Huang Yueli felt that it was inconceivable. She knew that her culinary skills weren't bad but was it really that good to this extent? To even be able to let the difficult Divine Doctor Liu to do a consultation for her just for one meal? Wasn't this just too magical?

She herself didn't even felt that it was really good usually??

But no matter what, Liu Buyan had agreed to it so it was some great news. Huang Yueli didn't think much of it and just treated that it was his special preference as she immediately agreed to it joyously.

But Liu Buyan on hearing her reply, not only did he not felt happy, instead he started to frown.

Somehow, he felt that.... Huang Yueli's words earlier sounded a little strange.

What was called.... "our house"? What was called..."welcome you to our house to be our guest"? Whose house was it?

Liu Buyan kept thinking about it and felt uncomfortable so he couldn't help himself and asked, "Miss Bai, why did you say.... Our house? This friend of yours, is staying with you?"

When Huang Yueli heard this question, she suddenly paused as a shade of red uncontrollably filled her face.

She realised that she was too excited and actually put the words "Our" into her mouth. Although it indeed was the truth, but she and Li Moying were not officially married and were staying together... the feeling was a little embarrassing...

Liu Buyan had not expected that over such a question, Huang Yueli actually blushed!

Chapter 1263: You're engaged??(2)

This made Liu Buyan's alarms ring louder as he immediately asked for an answer, "Why are you not talking? Is it inconvenient to speak about?"

Huang Yueli then shook her head as she said, "There's nothing inconvenient to talk about. Actually... the person whom I wanted you to help do consultation for, is my fiancé!"

“Fiancé??”

Liu Buyan cried out in alarm as his hand uncontrollably shook and the teacup in his hand instantly dropped, smashing onto the ground.

Following the crisp “plop” sound, the tea cup was smashed to smithereens, shattered into fragments, just like his broken heart.

Liu Buyan repeated in disbelief, “You say... fiancé?? You have a fiancé??”

Liu Buyan totally couldn’t believe that such a thing had happened!

Just when he was filled with determination to woo a young lady, he suddenly discovered that the only party who made his heart moved, actually.... already had a fiancé??

Why was he so unlucky, to be just late by one step every single time? This couldn’t be true!

Huang Yueli had not expected him to be so agitated and she totally didn’t understand why as she looked at him vacantly, “That’s right! Right before I was born, we already had this prenatal betrothal! Earlier this year we officially got engaged to become fiancé and fiancée.”

Liu Buyan replied, “Your fiancé.... Was in a prenatal betrothal with you?”

Huang Yueli looked at him in puzzlement once again, not understanding why he kept asking her about her personal matters but she still nodded her head.

Liu Buyan then recovered from shock that this beautiful lady was a married woman and on seeing Huang Yueli nod her head, his heart started to quieten down.

Although this young lass was so young and had a fiancé, this was really out of one’s expectations which increased the variations in uncertainty during his process of wooing her.

But at least the good news was, she and her fiancé were betrothed prenataally! That also meant that their marriage arrangement was totally out of the elder generation’s arrangements, purely the type which was similar to drive the ducks onto the perch so there probably weren’t much feelings between the both of them.

Towards this Liu Buyan was very sure of it. Because Huang Yueli had mentioned this earlier, that her fiancé’s body was very weak and had sustained ten over years of illness. Moreover from her tone, her fiancé’s illness was getting more and more serious by the day and if this continued, it would bode more ill meanings than positive signs!

This kind of man, what abilities did he have? No matter how good his innate talent was, to have such a serious illness, his cultivation would probably not be any higher.

Whereas how about this young lass? Her innate talent was exceeding and her ability was outstanding, with both beauty and brains. For a young lady like her, how could she possibly be willing to marry a fiancé with that kind of illness?

From this, one could tell that the young lass was probably doing it out of morality, feeling that she should take care of her seriously ill fiancé, so she chose to stay with him instead of rejecting the marriage.

There were really not many young ladies who had both affection and faith and this made Liu Buyan's evaluation towards Huang Yueli raised another notch.

Huang Yeuli totally didn't know that in such a short span of time, Liu Buyan's brain had been nourished with so many thoughts and it was totally not fitting the truth.

She only had one question in her mind, "When are you free to help my fiancé do the consultation? We have a full set of culinary equipment in our kitchen so just arrange a time and when before you drop by, I can prepare the things in advance. I'll make a few more dishes for you to taste in our home and after that, you can help him do the consultation!"

Huang Yueli looked at Liu Buyan with ardent hope and expectation, feeling that her plan was extremely perfect!

Chapter 1264: You're engaged?? (3)

But Liu Buyan's heart was burning with jealousy.

The girl he liked actually had a marriage arrangement. No matter what the reason was for her engagement, this still made him extremely dissatisfied!

Even so, he still immediately agreed to it, "Alright, we shall do as you say then!"

He wanted to see for himself who this fiancé of this young lass's was, and what qualifications did he had to possess such a perfect goddess!

What Liu Buyan had on his mind was, he had to utilise his fullest hard work, to hurriedly cure this young lass's fiancé.

In this way, this lass had no moral obligation towards him, nor would she be denounced as a fiancée who abandoned her severely sick fiancé.

On the other hand, he had to personally negotiate with this lass's fiancé, to make him realise that he and this young lass's difference, to let him know that he wasn't fit to be with this young lady! Then making him feel ashamed of his inferiority thereby automatically withdrawing the marriage!

Liu Buyan had indeed weaved beautiful thoughts on it. Furthermore, if he hadn't misunderstood the other person's words, this plan might possibly be executed beautifully.

But Huang Yueli's next sentence once again grabbed him from heavens all the way into hades.

"Alright then you need to grab hold of time quickly. Rather than choosing a date, let's make it tomorrow instead. Later I'll drop by the small town's market to get some ingredients. What do you want to eat, just tell me! Oh right, I forgot to tell you, it's very simple for you to find me. You just need to go to Celestial Light Sect and find any disciple, tell them you're Divine Doctor Liu and later tell them that you're looking for Young Sect Master Li Moying will do!"

“Li Moying?? You say your fiancé... is Li Moying??”

Liu Buyan had not imagined hearing this name from Huang Yueli at all!

Even though he had suffered several blows earlier and felt that he could take on anything else, but now, he still felt deeply shocked and helpless!

Had he heard wrongly? He must have heard wrongly right?

How could it be Li Moying? How could it be..... him??

Huang Yueli saw his deep setback look as she asked curiously, “What’s the matter? You should know him right? Li Moying is my fiancé! I heard the people in his Sect mentioned this before that you’ve done a consultation for him previously and even refined pills for him. That Soul Detachment Illness of his is very rare so I think you shouldn’t have forgotten about him right?”

Liu Buyan clenched his teeth as he tried hard to control himself, to make his own tone sound as peaceful as possible.

“Right.... Yes, I’ve done a consultation for him previously!”

Huang Yueli smiled, “It’s great that you remember it! This time I’ve looked for your help because his Soul Detachment Illness is getting more and more serious and I’m very worried about him! Of course, I know this illness is extremely hard to cure so I won’t just use one meal to dismiss you. No matter how many meals you want, as long as you can cure him, I’d definitely fulfil my promise, cooking for you any time that you want!”

Saying that, she seemed to have recalled something as she continued, “That’s right, my Moying seems to repel you a little, is it because the way you treat him is too rough therefore leaving a trauma when he was very young? Will you please be gentler then, otherwise be careful that I’d add spit into your food okay~?”

Huang Yueli finished whatever she was saying and when she raised her head, she saw Liu Buyan’s head tightly creased with an exceptional unpleasant expression, as though he was experiencing some torture!

His both hands which were on the table were clenched into fists and his lips were tightly pursed into a straight line.

Chapter 1265: You’re engaged?? (4)

Huang Yueli asked in puzzlement, “Divine Doctor Liu, Divine Doctor Liu, what’s the matter with you?”

She suddenly became apprehensive, not knowing why had Liu Buyan turned so agitated the minute he heard Li Moying’s name?

She heard Li Moying mentioned this previously that he didn’t like Liu Buyan but Huang Yueli assumed that it was because of Liu Buyan’s violent ways of treatment. She heard that Li Moying was only seven or eight years old when he was being treated by Liu Buyan, so it was no wonder that he would be traumatised.

But now, seeing Liu Buyan's unpleasant complexion.... Did it mean that the both of them had a serious friction?

Huang Yueli had not considered the fact that Liu Buyan knew about Li Moying's past identity.

Because Li Moying himself didn't know who he was and no one beside him knew his identity. So how would Liu Buyan possibly know?

Moreover, Liu Buyan and Mu Chengying had already turned from friends to foes. From Liu Buyan's stance previously, he couldn't wait to see Mu Chengying die! If he were to find out that Li Moying was Mu Chengying, would he still try to cure him? Apparently not possible!

In actual fact, Huang Yueli's thinking was totally wrong this time.

Liu Buyan's understanding towards Li Moying had exceeded her imagination. Furthermore... he even knew more than what she knew!

He clenched his teeth as various thoughts flew past his mind.

But most of all, was a kind of indescribable jealousy and hatred!

That year, he was short of a step in confessing to Huang Yueli and could only see her walk into Mu Chengying's embrace. He chose to give up, but Mu Chengying wasn't even able to protect that lady!

After Huang Yueli died, Liu Buyan had a huge fight with Mu Chengying and Mu Chengying also made a bold decision.... To stake all in one throw!

But he ultimately still failed.

From then on, Huang Yueli's spirit completely disappeared, entering an eternity of non-reincarnation whereas Mu Chengying adopted another form of living.

Even though Mu Chengying failed, but this made Liu Buyan's hatred towards him lessen by quite a lot so he continued to treat the reincarnated Mu Chengying.

But Liu Buyan knew that he and this Li Moying, would never be friends again.

Luckily, Li Moying didn't have any past life's memories so the both of them were just strangers in this world, which was the best ending.

But Liu Buyan had not imagined that Li Moying would have a fiancée, and he actually really got engaged!

How could he do this? Where had he placed that person who died fourteen years ago? Had he completely forgotten about it all? Even though he knew that Li Moying had no past life's memories, but Liu Buyan couldn't accept that he actually got engaged with someone else!

Furthermore, his engagement partner, was coincidentally the girl who he liked....

When Liu Buyan thought of this, various complicated emotions started to surge as he couldn't control himself and stood up from his seat.

Huang Yueli had a huge shock as she asked, "Divine Doctor Liu, you... what's the matter with you? Had my fiancé offended you?"

Liu Buyan trembled as he turned his eyes back onto Huang Yueli.

The young lady before him bit her lips lightly, as her brows were creased, looking extremely apprehensive.

She was so innocent, not knowing anything at all, and not knowing that her fiancé was a cruel and unscrupulous fellow! He wasn't worthy of her!

Liu Buyan spoke out, "Miss Bai, do you know that Li Moying, he actually..."

Chapter 1266: You're engaged?? (5)

Liu Buyan's words were by the side of his mouth, when he suddenly stopped.

The young lady didn't know anything at all. She was doing it out of moral obligations, to take care of her severely ill fiancé only.

How would he be so cruel, to tell her the cruel truth? Furthermore, she probably wouldn't believe him, so why take the trouble?

Huang Yueli frowned as she continued to ask, "Divine Doctor Liu, what are you trying to say? Why are you suddenly.... acting so strangely?"

Liu Buyan's thoughts flew by quickly, "Miss Bai, I'm afraid that you'd be cheated by a scum and be hurt by him! Do you know that he, Li Moying is the famous handsome male in the South Sky Region and the number of women beside him are just too many. Not to mention that your Sect Master's daughter Murong Fei, had always been by his side no matter where he went. Other people only consider Murong Fei as his fiancée, and don't know who you are! Together with a Casanova, you won't have any good ending!"

Liu Buyan gathered all the recent gossip that he heard around Celestial Light Sect and gave a plausible reason which sounded like it was true.

When Huang Yueli heard that, the creases on her forehead started to loosen as she laughed, Divine Doctor Liu, you're so concerned about me because you treat me like a friend?"

Liu Buyan hurriedly explained, "That's right. To be frank, I've met so many ladies and only the food that you cook tastes the best. In order to be able to try your cooking anytime, I am willing to be your friend!"

Huang Yueli laughed as she said, "It's my pleasure to be friends with Divine Doctor Liu. But you are really thinking too much. My relationship with Li Moying is great. Regarding the matter between him and Murong Fei, that's just a story with no fact spread by others. Rumours with no basis will be stopped by intelligent people so you need not mind too much over it."

Liu Buyan's heart was raging unceasingly as he really wanted to tell her that those rumours were really nothing. None of the rumours described just how much of a scumbag was Li Moying this fellow!

However, he still endured it.

“Alright, I understand your meaning now. You don’t need to worry, I will go and help your.... friend to do consultation. But you might need to wait a little while more. Beside this I suddenly recalled that I’ve already arranged a meeting with someone else to do consultation at another place tonight. Now that it’s quite late, I have to be on my way. Furthermore, I won’t be able to make it back on time tomorrow so I won’t be dropping by your side to have a meal.”

Liu Buyan was distracted as his thoughts were in turmoil. He didn’t want to continue staying in front of Huang Yueli otherwise he would definitely give the game away.

So he could only find a reason to quickly leave.

Although Huang Yueli felt that his actions were abnormal, but she didn’t ask too much and only replied, “Alright, then we shall arrange another time to meet. But please do put aside some time soon. I feel that Moying’s condition is worsening by the minute and it cannot be dragged on any longer.....”

Liu Buyan heard that all she was worried about was Li Moying as he got even more frustrated.

He half-heartedly nodded his head and waved casually then as though he was fleeing, he quickly left the small town.

Huang Yueli saw his departing figure as she frowned.

...

During night time, when Huang Yueli returned to Li Moying’s courtyard, she continued to think back about what happened in the afternoon.

Li Moying had gone out to another place to deal with some matters in the day and in order not to be separated with his little fiancée, he hurried back through the night.

He toiled for long hours and was travel-worn by the time he reached back. His hair was slightly dispersed and a lock of his jet black hair had fallen to the front of his forehead. His face still bore the signs of frost as his thin lips curled upwards with a smirk of lazy smile, giving off an exclusive man’s charm.

He walked towards Huang Yueli’s back as he wrapped his hands around her slender waist.

Chapter 1267: Li Moying gets jealous (1)

It was until Li Moying’s warm breathe blew against her neck before Huang Yueli suddenly awoke from her thoughts.

“Ah, Moying, you’re back.....”

Li Moying’s face revealed a slight displeasure. He didn’t like the feeling of being disregarded by his fiancée, so he lowered his head and bit Huang Yueli’s neck gently.

Huang Yueli gave a shrill cry as she hurriedly used her hand to protect her neck, “What are you trying to do? You’re not a puppy and you’re biting me again! I told you this long before, you’re not allowed to plant any love bites on my neck, I don’t want to be laughed at by others anymore!”

Li Moying gave an indifferent reply as he gave a low laugh, "Who dares to laugh at you? Tell me and I'll help you beat them up! I think the others are not laughing at you, only jealous that we're showing off our love....."

"You think everyone's as shameless as you! Go to one side!" Huang Yueli turned and looked at him angrily, trying to push him aside.

However, Li Moying stuck on to her even more as he grumbled, "You still dare to say me? Why don't you reflect on yourself, I'm already back for quite some time and you totally didn't notice me? What are you thinking of? Still thinking about what happened in the small town this afternoon?"

Huang Yueli replied in surprise, "You know about it?"

Li Moying gave a humpf as he said, "I've just stepped into the door when Elder Wang stopped me and threw me his disciple whom he had bundled up saying that he had offended me unknowingly so he's here to receive his punishment! After I've asked then I realised that that fellow didn't grow any eyes and actually tried to attack you?"

Huang Yueli thought that Li Moying found out about her meeting with Liu Buyan so she had not expected that what Li Moying was talking about was the conflict she had with Feng Li Kun this afternoon about the ores.

That matter, she no longer put it in her mind.

A small character like Feng Li Kun, merely used his own identity as direct disciple which enabled him to tyrannize everyone in Celestial Light Sect. Actually he didn't have much ability so right after Huang Yueli punched him, she totally casted him out of his mind.

She wouldn't bother about such a small matter. What made her more worried was Li Moying's Soul Detachment Illness.

Li Moying replied, I asked Elder Wang to drive him out of his faction and from now on he's just an ordinary outer disciple. Other than that, Elder Wang heard that you liked ores so he gave you a huge box of sixth tier and above high grade ores. I've already left it in your armament refining room so take a look yourself tomorrow."

"Wow I've struck it rich this time! Thank you!" Huang Yueli gave him a peck on his face to express her gratitude.

Li Moying satisfactorily accepted the beauty's kiss, but when he was thinking about hugging his fragrant fiancée to sleep, he discovered that she was still frowning as though there was something on her mind.

Li Moying immediately frowned as he coughed softly.

However Huang Yueli was lost in her thoughts and totally didn't hear him at all.

Li Moying coughed again but still didn't get the reaction he expected so he immediately became upset as he grabbed hold of Huang Yueli's arm and brought her into his embrace.

"What are you thinking about again?"

Huang Yueli replied, "Not thinking of anything...."

Li Moying became even unhappier as he lowered his head pressing against her, meeting his eyes to hers without blinking.

"Don't like to me, you have something on your mind. Looks like you're not upset over that fellow surnamed Feng, so what's this about?"

Seeing Huang Yueli hesitate, he added, "You're not allowed to lie to me. You said this yourself, from now on we'll remain honest with each other and there are no secrets between the two of us."

Huang Yueli was stunned, recalling that this was really something that she had said.

Chapter 1268: Li Moying gets jealous (2)

She was afraid that Li Moying would cover up about his illness but now this same sentence was thrown back by Li Moying to herself.

She replied helplessly, "Actually... actually there wasn't anything. Just... ughh, I met an acquaintance while drinking tea alone this afternoon."

Li Moying's instincts told him that something was wrong as he pursued for an answer, "Acquaintance? Who?"

Huang Yueli hesitated for a moment, "Emm, he's.... he's Liu Buyan...."

The minute she said that, she instantly felt Li Moying's body turning stiff as the arm embracing her loosened slightly.

Following that, Li Moying's voice was heard above her head and this time round, it wasn't as gentle as before. Instead there was a tinge of bitter cold to it.

"I'd never expected that this fellow actually found his way here! Didn't you say you don't have any relations with him? Why did you still talk to him??"

Huang Yueli knew that he definitely wouldn't be happy but she had not expected that his jealousy was so obvious to the fact that she could even smell the sour smell from eight hundred miles away.

She helplessly replied, "Don't be like this.... I indeed don't have any relation with him. We are merely acquainted but he had after all saved my life so when we meet, how can I not even say hello?"

"So what if he saved you? Don't tell me when he helps other people do consultation, he doesn't accept consultation fees?" Speaking of that, Li Moying suddenly recalled a question which he had neglected for a long time. He suddenly had a bad feeling, "That's right, I haven't had the chance to ask you. Previously why did Liu Buyan treat you? He isn't those kind who could be bribed with a little spirit stones, what did he ask you to help him do??"

Huang Yueli totally didn't expected him to bring up this matter as she was stunned.

"Ah? This.... about this...."

If she were to tell him that Liu Buyan asked her to accompany him for seven days, wouldn't Li Moying go mad from anger??

"What on earth did he make you do?" The more Huang Yueli hesitated, the more suspicious Li Moying got as he insisted on finding the answer!

Huang Yueli started sprouting cold sweat on her forehead as she felt embarrassed to the max. She obviously hadn't done anything so why did she suddenly feel so guilty?

Li Moying stretched out his hand to hold up her face as he forcefully raised her head to look at him.

Four eyes were exchanging looks and Huang Yueli was stared intently by that pitch black eyes till her heart started pounding wildly, almost not being able to breathe.

"You.... what is that attitude? Don't tell me you suspect that I have something going on with him? If you don't trust me then just ignore me!"

Huang Yueli glowered at him as she pamperedly and arrogantly turned her head over.

Although Li Moying looked aggressive and was unexcelled in the world, but in actual fact he was just a paper tiger in front of Huang Yueli. On seeing his little lass getting angry, his fire immediately extinguished.

"Don't... Li'er, don't be angry. I don't mean it in that way. I was only... alright, I only feel that Liu Buyan that fellow had something for you! I suspect he has ulterior motives towards you!"

Huang Yueli looked at him shockingly as she almost laughed out in anger, "What nonsense are you talking about? How could Liu Buyan have any ulterior motives on me? Let me tell you then. The last time I was saved by him, he indeed wanted me to stay in his residence to accompany him for a few days...."

Hearing that, Li Moying's expression turned extremely gloomy as the arm holding on to her uncontrollably tightened its restraint.

Huang Yueli was in pain by his action as she pushed his chest hard, in an attempt to push him aside.

Chapter 1269: Li Moying gets jealous (3)

"What tantrum are you throwing again? Let me go... mmph!"

Her objections were being blocked by an urgent kiss.

Li Moying's kiss was very sudden and Huang Yueli originally wanted to push him aside but she hesitated for a moment but later she put her arm around his neck and proactively deepened this kiss.

Actually she could also feel Li Moying's anxiety from his inner heart.

This was probably because she had previously rejected him repeatedly and it could also possibly be the shadows left behind in their past lives. So in conclusion, he had always been fearing that she would leave him.

Although Huang Yueli sometimes was frustrated over the fact that her fiancé was a little too sticky, but after thinking through, she felt that Li Moying was so restless because of her so she had always been accommodating to him to use actual actions to tell him that towards him, she... would never leave or abandon him, always placing him in first place.

As the young lady in his arms was extremely obedient, Li Moying's uneasiness in his heart was soon placated. His urging kisses slowly turned gentle and the ambiguity slowly upgraded.

Upon feeling Li Moying's palm moving up from her slender waist, Huang Yueli immediately pushed him.

Li Moying's hand stopped as he loosened her in a fluster and even pushed her aside.

He quickly walked to the tea set and poured a cup of tea as he downed it.

Huang Yueli touched her lips which were kissed till it turned red as she threw him a humorous smile while watching his action.

Li Moying had always been insistent that he must recover his memories and officially marry her before they take their relationship to the next step.

Huang Yueli knew that on one hand this was the respect he had towards her and on the other hand, it was because he had not been able to marry her in their past lives so this became an obsession in this man's heart.....

But as Li Moying liked to tangle himself around her, kissing her whenever he got the chance so it also led to his utmost suffering.

The tea on the table was brewed in the afternoon and by now it was already icy cold. Li Moying drank the entire pot with great effort before he finally cooled down the fire within him.

By the time he put down the teacup and turned round, he saw his little fox propping up her cheeks as she beamed at him in a relaxed and contented expression.

Li Moying's eyes turned chilly as he gave a cold harrumph.

Huang Yueli saw that he was still behaving in a pampered and arrogant manner so she walked over and proactively hugged his slender waist.

"What on earth are you angry about? You got suspicious of me for no reason, so the person who should be angry should be me alright? Don't tell me you feel that I'm those kind of fickle-minded woman?"

Huang Yueli raised her head as she looked down towards him and pouted.

Li Moying was most afraid of her being unhappy so no matter how uncomfortable he was feeling inside, he barely managed to hiss out a sentence from the slits of his teeth, "I'm not angry!"

This was called not angry!

Huang Yueli couldn't help but burst out giggling and afterwards, she wasn't surprised to see that Li Moying's face had turned even darker.

She hurriedly replied, "Alright, will you listen to whatever I have to say first alright? I

M telling you, Li Buyan has someone in his heart and moreover he has liked this person for a long time. I also don't know why they got separated but Liu Buyan often thinks of the person through an object so obviously his feelings for her are very deep. Furthermore, although he asked me to accompany him for a few days, but he didn't do anything off the scale. He just made me play the zither for him so I'm guessing the person he likes knows how to play the zither very well?"

She was afraid that Li Moying would misunderstand again so she explained really quickly and she just uttered everything at one go while blinking her big, watery eyes looking innocently at her own fiancé.

Chapter 1270: Li Moying gets jealous (4)

Li Moying listened to her explanation but he felt that things couldn't be that simple. However, on knowing that Liu Buyan had not done anything too offending, he felt slightly better.

Plus the fact that Huang Yueli used that kind of doleful eyes on him, no matter how unhappy he was, he had no way of directing his anger at her.

He gave a light humpf and said, "Anyway, don't get in touch with him. Even if he really has someone who he likes, but he's also not able to be together with her isn't it? Perhaps he might just shift his affections and fall in love with you instead?"

Huang Yueli was amused, "How could that be possible? Who do you think I am, what kind of woman had Divine Doctor Liu not seen before. Even if he wanted to shift his affections, there are so many women who are willing to be with him, why would he be interested in me? You are the only one who likes me so much!"

When Li Moying heard that, he lowered his head and lightly caressed her face, "You're absolutely right, I'm the person who likes you the most then how about you towards me?"

He still had this feeling that towards a young lady like his little fox, which man wouldn't be interested? So what if Liu Buyan was the number one Divine Doctor? If he really had no interest in Huang Yueli, why would he come looking for her so many times?

But he had no intention to continue with this question. Anyway Li'er was obviously not interested in Liu Buyan so as long as she didn't give him any chances to go near her, everything should be alright.

"I....." Huang Yueli heard such an ambiguous question as her face immediately surfaced a shade of pink.

Li Moying gave a deep laugh and just as he was about to say something else to tease her, Huang Yueli suddenly popped out a sentence, "That's right, I have another matter to tell you. Today when I was chatting with Liu Buyan, we mentioned about your Soul Detachment Illness. I've already got him to agree to come to Celestial Light Sect to do a consultation for you when he's free."

Li Moying went into a blank, "What did you say?"

Huang Yueli pulled his hand as she put on a worried look, "I know you don't like Liu Buyan but it is undeniable that his medical skills are indeed the best in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent. Your Soul

Detachment Illness is getting worse every single time it acts up and I'm really worried, so won't you let him to come take a look?"

Li Moying's expression sunk even deeper and this time, he actually brushed aside Huang Yueli's hand.

"Impossible, I rather die of sickness than to allow him to do another consultation for me!"

Huang Yueli's eyes widened like full moons, "Wh.... Why? Can you stop being so childish? It's no good to hide a sickness for fear of treatment! Do you know that every single time your illness acts up, how heartbroken I am? Brother Mo Yi and the rest are very worried as well! For me, can't you just put aside your prejudice and let Liu Buyan take a look?"

Li Moying's face was gloomy as he spoke icily, "I know my own body best! If Liu Buyan could cure my illness, he would have done so ten years ago so why wait till today? He's indeed helpless! Moreover, every single time my illness acts up, it was all because of some agitation. Now that you're by my side, even if it's a full moon's night, my illness can be controlled. In future it will slowly get better so why do we still need to look for him?"

Huang Yueli didn't expected that he would be so stubborn as she was so angry that she stomped her feet.

"You.... why are you like this! This is totally a different matter alright? Although on the surface it looks as though when I'm by your side, your illness doesn't act up. But in actual fact, your Soul Detachment Illness totally isn't getting any better! If one day I'm not beside you and if your illness acts up, it will be much more serious than now!"