Chapter 1271: Li Moying gets jealous (5)

When Li Moying heard that, his glare became extremely scary as he shot up and grabbed Huang Yueli's wrist with force.

"You... what do you mean? Don't tell me you're still thinking of leaving me?"

Huang Yueli was in pain by his clutch as she started to struggle, "Let go of me. I never said that I'm going to leave you. I'm just saying.... IF! IF, do you understand or not?"

Li Moying saw her struggles but he still clasped on to her hand tightly.

"What IF? If there are any ifs, I'd rather die than let you leave me! If something like what happened in our past life happens again, I will immediately accompany you to leave this world, so I don't care if it acts up or not!"

Huang Yueli was in so much pain that her bones were about to be broken as she spoke teary eyes, "You... let go of me first!"

"I'm not letting go!"

"You... you're causing my hand to be in a lot of pain!"

Li Moying then realised it and hurriedly loosened his hand. On seeing Huang Yueli touching the position where her shoulder had been pinched in a pitiful look, he immediately became regretful.

"Li'er, I'm sorry, I didn't mean it..."

Huang Yueli almost lost balance and immediately hugged his neck as she shouted, "What are you doing? Let me down!"

Li Moying put her down on the bed as he stretched out her hand to unclasp the hook in front of her chest.

Huang Yueli's face immediately turned green as she started twisting her body while struggling, "I.... I'm warning you, Li Moying! Don't you dare to..... use the handsome male trick upon disagreement! That's useless! Today you have to listen to me.... yi??"

Li Moying pulled off her outer shirt but didn't continue to undress her any further. Instead he frowned when he looked at the blue black bruises on her shoulder which had been pinched by him.

Huang Yueli saw that there was a chance to exploit him and immediately shrank her shoulder while acting pitiful. At the same time she used an accusative glare to look at him.

Li Moying naturally was feeling heart pain but his face remained cold. However the actions of his hands were extremely gentle as he retrieved a bottle of ointment from the beside and gently applied it for her.

Huang Yueli took a glance at it to discover that this was a bottle of sixth tier Amethyst Jade Hibiscus Ointment which could aid in growing flesh or joined bones, or reconstruct meridians. This was a spiritual medication which could make heavily injured practitioners revive from the brink of death but now it was being used to treat a small bruise on her.....

This man was really too jittery.....

Huang Yueli's heart turned warm and just as Li Moying was about to leave after applying the ointment, she tugged his sleeve as she used an extremely gentle and soft tone, "Moying.... please, will you listen to me? Alright?"

"Not alright!" Li Moying swept her a profound glance, "If you're really afraid that I will lose my life because of my illness, then why don't you stick close to me, not leaving even one step. In this way, nothing will happen to me. Very simple isn't it?"

Where on earth was this simple??

Huang Yueli suddenly felt annoyed again.

No matter how loving the couple was, surely there was no reason for them to stick to one another from day to night wasn't it?

Moreover speaking, how could plans ever be able to chase up to changes. With a hidden illness on Li Moying, no one can tell when it would act up! Rather than being in constant fear every day, it was much better to treat the illness at one go. Even if he was unable to be cured, at least they had made an effort right?

But Li Moying apparently didn't think so.

Even though Huang Yueli coaxed and pestered him for half a day, he still refused to relent.

Chapter 1272: Li Moying gets jealous (6)

Huang Yueli was finally ruffled up as she gave Li Moying the last diplomatic note.

"I'm asking you once more, are you going to listen to me or not, to let Liu Buyan take a look at your illness? I'm warning you, if you don't agree to it, then I'll never bother about you again! Next time your illness acts up, I will not help you so just die of illness!"

Huang Yueli put up a bravado as she said those sharp words, putting on a determined expression to break off relations to scare Li Moying.

Usually Li Moying was most afraid of her ignoring him so as long as there was a little spark of her showing her anger, he would automatically beg for mercy, giving in and agreeing to whatever she wanted.

The result this time was, Li Moying giving a cold huff declaring, "I, Li Moying don't need my woman to go beg others for me to continue living! Anyway I will absolutely not go meet Liu Buyan and you are not allowed to meet him too! If you don't want to bother about me then don't!"

Saying that he actually flicked his sleeves as he walked off.

It was until she heard the guest room's door shut with a loud bang before Huang Yueli realised what happened.

The both of them.... Were considered to be.... In a cold war?

Li Moying usually couldn't wait to stick to her every single moment and today he actually ran off to the guest room to sleep??

He was using physical actions to express his own stand, that he would absolutely not let Liu Buyan do any consultation for him?

Huang Yueli really didn't understand just how much of the enmity and hatred there was between the both of them. Previously when Liu Buyan talked about him, he also bore an angry and awkward look....

But in the end, Liu Buyan at least agreed to do a consultation for him. Unlike Li Moying who acted so pampered and arrogant, even starting a cold war with her!

He obviously knew that she loved him dearly and couldn't bear to really ignore him nor leave him unattended when his illness acted up wasn't it?

The more Huang Yueli thought, the angrier she got. She was plainly considering on his behalf so why did he need to act in such a way? She could give in for other matters but for matters related to his health.... she absolutely would not give in!

Huang Yueli was determined that if Li Moying didn't agree to her request, she would absolutely ignore him, absolutely!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli got up and locked the room door then removing her clothes, she blew out the candlelight and pulled the blanket up to her chin, wrapping up her body.

Sleep!

Li Moying was also suffering from a bundle of anger in the guest room next door.

Did his young lass know what she was saying? She didn't know how Liu Buyan had humiliated him that year. So he would look for anyone to save his life, but definitely not Liu Buyan!

Moreover, Liu Buyan hated him so much so why would he casually agreed to do a consultation for him? It was definitely Li'er who agreed to some ridiculous request from Liu Buyan, such as accompanying him for another seven days or something like that?

Huang Yueli herself was ignorant but as a man, how would Li Moying not sensed what Liu Buyan was thinking about? That fellow absolutely had designs on his Li'er!

Perhaps Liu Buyan had agreed to do a consultation for him so that he could intentionally drive a wedge between them! As if he would let him get his way!

Anyway, Li Moying had also decided not to give in for this matter. Furthermore he wanted to use this opportunity to express his attitude towards Huang Yueli. Although he valued his wife like she was his life but there were certain things which he cannot give way, and would not listen to everything she said!

After making the decision, Li Moying too blew out the candlelight and climbed onto the bed to sleep.

In the middle of the quiet night.

Huang Yueli sat on the big bed alone as her body was wrapped up in that thick blanket with her eyes tightly shut.

Chapter 1273: Their first cold war (1)

She tried her best to hypnotise herself in an attempt to quieten down her heart to sleep faster but the more she thought, the more she couldn't sleep.

After attempting various times and still unable to enter dreamland, she might as well give up and sit upwards as she prepared to meditate while cultivating in order to get past the night.

But even if it was cultivation, it was hard for her to quieten down her heart as she repeatedly was at a loss for quite some time before she could finally force herself to settle down.

It was around one o'clock in the morning when Huang Yueli who was in the middle of cultivation suddenly opened her eyes.

She had instinctively heard a slight noise from a place not too far away. Although it was very light, but her senses were extremely sharp so she still heard it.

Following that, her room door was pushed slightly by someone.

Naturally as she had locked it earlier, the room door did not open up.

"Damn it! This worrisome young lass actually locked me outside??" Li Moying's discomfited voice was heard growling from the outside.

Although he had just quarrelled with Huang Yueli earlier but after running over to the guestroom, he couldn't sleep as he kept thinking about Huang Yueli who was in the next room.

It was now in the middle of autumn and the weather had turned chilly. The young lass had the habit of kicking her blanket away in the middle of the night and if he wasn't beside her, who knows if her sleeping posture would be so bad that she would catch a chill?

Forget it, even if she caught a chill, she deserved it! What did it have to do with him?

Although he thought in that way but the more Li Moying thought, the more worried he got. He finally couldn't take it any longer as he got up, thinking of sneaking into the room to take a look at Huang Yueli and leaving after that. Anyway he would definitely not let Huang Yueli discover that he had been over!

However, after running to the bedroom door, he discovered that he had been locked outside!

Li Moying simply had no way to describe his current feelings! He was so melancholic that he was going to go crazy!

Huang Yueli actually hadn't been sleeping as her eyes were tightly fixed on that door. For a moment she thought that Li Moying would break in but at last he finally chose to leave.....

Huang Yueli bit her lips as her heart was stuffy and totally unable to quieten down her heart to cultivate so she could only stay up the entire night till dawn broke.

The next morning, Li Moying and Huang Yueli both had two dark eye rings as they met at the entrance of the room door.

Usually they would have breakfast together and talk about their plans for the day.

But today, they didn't even look each other in the eye as they silently finished their breakfast and without even a goodbye, they went on their own ways.

This scene made Mo Yi and Mo Er totally astonished.

While this couple was having their meal, the two of them had stayed in the corner using their eyes to exchange thousands of messages....

This... What was the situation? It looked as though they had quarrelled?

But these two had been separating and reconciling and after such a long time, they had finally harmoniously got together officially. Just now long had it been only and now... they actually quarrelled?

Did they need to be so misleading?

Shadow Guards were all teary eyes as they almost knelt down to them!

What's there to quarrel about over nothing? Couldn't they just quietly show off their love and torture the dogs? Why must they quarrel!

Furthermore, every time they quarrelled, the ones who would run into bad luck would be those Shadow Guards who were by Li Moying's side.

At this kind of time, it was absolutely apt to describe it as accompanying the sovereign was akin to accompanying a tiger.

Chapter 1274: Their first cold war (2)

Everyone tucked their tails in properly.

Indeed as expected, from that day onwards, Li Moying resumed his normal severe and aloof nature. Almost all the Shadow Guards around him were blasted by him and momentarily all of them were feeling precarious as they wanted to cry but had no tears.

Everyone went to look for Mo Yi for help, hoping that he could work from Huang Yueli's side to stop the quarrel.

Mo Yi naturally was duty bound because Li Moying was now a raging dragon. No one dared to pull his tiger's whiskers. But although Huang Yueli also put up a cold face, but she was still courteous to the Shadow Guards, not directing her anger on them.

"Third Miss, Mo Er was punished by Master again yesterday... and Mo San....."

The minute Mo Yi opened his mouth, Huang Yueli already knew what he wanted to talk about.

But meeting his hopeful eyes, she set her heart to reject him, "Brother Mo Yi, you should know that I'm not someone who kicks up a fuss over nothing. It really is because Li Moying is too much so I definitely will not give way so please go back!"

Mo Yi saw that acting pitiful couldn't help so he immediately switched a way, "Third Miss, you understand Master well. His character is just too hard and not refusing to submit but his heart absolutely places you in number one place! Actually these few days, he will ask me over to check in detail regarding your daily activities. When he heard that you've taken one mouthful less of food, his heart ached for the entire day! Whereas without you by his side, he often forgets to eat and he doesn't sleep well at night too. I can tell that his spirit is getting worse, surely his illness is not going to act up again right....."

When Huang Yueli heard that, her heart started to ache.

In actual fact, she had already noticed every single time Li Moying looked for Mo Yi and she also discovered that Li Moying would sneak into the room in the middle of the night to help her put on the blanket and sometimes even kissing her secretly. No matter how tough this man was, he still loved her dearly.....

Furthermore Li Moying's body hadn't been very good. Every single time his illness acted up, it brought along a serious liability. Their quarrel was actually regarding his health but if it caused his Soul Detachment Illness to act up, wouldn't that be stressing the incidental over the fundamental?

Sigh, this man just wanted his face and was unable to put it down... forget it, who asked her to like him so she shall give him a stage to step down!

Huang Yueli thought for some time and finally nodded her head, "I know already. Don't worry, I will go see him tonight."

When Shadow Guards got wind of this news, all of them were overjoyed feeling that they were about to escape from the abyss of suffering, finally being saved!

That night, Huang Yueli boiled a bowl of nourishing soup personally as she knocked on Li Moying's study room's door.

“Who is it? Haven’t I said this earlier that no one is allowed to come and disturb me? Are you tired of living??”

Li Moying’s mellow harsh howl was heard from the study room and it was accompanied with something dropping and smashing on the ground.

Her words had just stopped when the room immediately turned silent. Li Moying didn’t say a word and no one knew what he was doing.

Huang Yueli waited for a little while before she pushed the door open.

On the ground of the study room was filled with shattered pieces. The ceramic flower pot which was previously on Li Moying’s study table was missing, apparently smashed to pieces by him.

Huang Yueli couldn’t help but feel the pinch. Although that antique ceramic flower pot lines in gold wasn’t any Profound Armament but that was an antique which had been passed down from ancient times and had a long history, which made it extremely valuable!

Chapter 1275: Their first cold war (3)

This man... was acting a little too much like a wastrel!

Huang Yueli left the serving tray on the table and her footsteps stopped without any sound.

Li Moying’s eyes were shut and he felt a little strange that the surroundings had quietened down.

Initially he was determined not to open his eyes as he leaned against the back of the chair, pretending to be dead. But after a while more, there still wasn’t any movements and he was worried that something had happened to Huang Yueli so he hurriedly opened his eyes.

“You.....”

“I heard from Mo Er that you haven’t had dinner, aren’t you hungry?” Huang Yueli turned her head into an angle as she looked at him and asked.

Li Moying held on to her wrist as he shifted her finger aside and said, “I’m hungry.”

To be frank, he was indeed very hungry but he was in no mood to have his dinner so naturally he didn’t feel hungry. But the moment Huang Yueli brought in the soup through the door, Li Moying immediately felt his hunger.

Huang Yueli's culinary skills had always been top notch and this time in order to successfully reconcile with Li Moying, she specially made her speciality as she expended an entire day's effort to brew the soup. Under all the hopeful eyes of the Shadow Guards, she entered the study room.

So this soup tasted exceptionally great.

Huang Yueli personally brought the soup to him, "Then drink a little. I heard that you had been sleeping in the study room recently and this is too damaging to your body so I've specially made you some soup."

Li Moying thought that Huang Yueli would continue with the quarrel until the end of time and had not expected her to initiate her goodwill so in this way, he started to feel guilty over this.

He stretched out his hand to touch Huang Yueli's face as he said softly, "I... I'm alright. Thank you for being so concerned about me. These few days.... I'm in the wrong so don't be angry with me already, alright?"

Huang Yueli's eyeballs rotated. The minute Li Moying started to coax her, her pampered-ness and arrogance started to act up, "You also know that you're in the wrong? You actually don't admit to your mistake proactively and even throwing a tantrum daily. How many cups had been smashed by you recently? No matter how rich you are, you cannot be such a wastrel! You even made me worried!"

Seeing his little fox puffed up her cheeks in an angry look, Li Moying's anger extinguished totally and could only raise his four limbs to surrender.

"Alright Li'er, it's my fault. It's all my fault. I guarantee that I won't be wasteful from now on and I will not make you worry. Stop being angry with me, if you continue to be angry, you'll turn ugly....."

"You're the one who will turn ugly!" Huang Yueli retorted angrily, "I'll become prettier by the day!"

Li Moying realised that he said the wrong thing again as he hurriedly changed his words, "Yes, my Li'er is most beautiful and if I don't see you, I miss you so much that I have no mood to eat and turn ugly from hunger....."

Huang Yueli stared at his face for quite some time to discover that he indeed became thinner, apparently suffering from serious mental torture.

She sighed in her heart. In actual fact she realised that from their past life, this man had always had this temper so they had their moments of arguments during their past lives.

Only then, she was rather young and impetuous and plus the fact that she hadn't gone through much setbacks and she was still the Young Priestess who was clamoured by the masses, so naturally her temper wasn't good at all.

For example, doing things to initiate goodwill like today was something which she would never do in her past life.

Chapter 1276: Their first cold war (4)

Because of this, the amount of conflicts in their past lives accumulated more and more as both of them refused to give in to each other, hence separating and reconciling was a common affair.

Now, after they have experienced life and death and later on after she had experienced the process of transforming from trash to gradually overcoming it, she was no longer as arrogant as in her past life.

She began to treasure the affinity with Li Moying, not wanting to affect their relationship over some minor reasons.

How many people were like them, to have experienced death once and then reuniting once again and from then continuing to be together?

The days which they were together was a blessing from the heavens and worthy of them cherishing it greatly.

Li Moying slowly drank the soup which she brewed while Huang Yueli looked on from the side, occasionally giving him a smile. That sweet and obedient look made Li Moying's heart melt.

The two of them finished their food in sweetness and Li Moying no longer wanted to stay in the study room.

He had already wasted a few nights of not being intimate with Li'er so how could he possibly continue to waste young nights?

Huang Yueli was brought into his embrace as he kissed her but amidst the passion, she didn't forget about the official matter.

"Wait, Moying, first let me confirm when are you free? I've already checked it out, Liu Buyan is pretty busy recently and he can only do a consultation tomorrow or the day after. Perhaps I can invite him over tomorrow..."

Li Moying's kissing paused as she looked at him in disbelief.

He had not expected that the mood was so good now but Huang Yueli actually brought up the old issue again!

He thought that Huang Yueli had already given up her stand and listened to him since she came to look for him today. She would not get in touch with Liu Buyan so naturally would not agree to him going for a consultation.

In the end... it actually wasn't like that?

"You...." Li Moying regained his senses and his expression turned ugly once again, "Can you not mention about this matter? We are doing great now so why talk about this again?"

Huang Yueli said anxiously, "How can I not mention it? This concerns your body! Moreover, if we miss these two days, Divine Doctor Liu will be leaving to another place to do consultation again so god knows when he will return! I don't want to keep dragging like this, I will be very worried!"

She indeed had initiated the goodwill and hope that the both of them can reconcile but she felt that what she was doing was correct so she would not give up. Letting Li Moying do a consultation was one matter, quarrelling with him was another so she wasn't some weak young lady who would easily give up her own stand.

Li Moying saw that she was so insistent and immediately felt that he had been cheated as his mood turned downcast.

"So... today you brew the soup for me and said so many things to coax me wasn't because you miss me, but only wanted me to go for consultation?"

Huang Yueli was flabbergasted, "Can you stop being so unreasonable? If I'm not concerned about you, why would I make you do the consultation? Will you die if you just let Liu Buyan take a look?"

"Of course I won't die, but it'd be much more serious than dying."

He would absolutely not allow his love rival to do the consultation for him, this was a matter of pride!

Moreover, Li Moying still remembered that Huang Yueli said this before that the man she liked was a ninth stage realm top expert who could satisfy all her materialistic needs.

Although that person was himself in his past life, but he was after all not a ninth stage realm practitioner now but Liu Buyan was!

This kind of love rival was different from those small shrimps like Yuan Zeyu, he was a huge threat.

Chapter 1277: Their first cold war (5)

If he were to owe his love rival a favour then how was he going to deal with Liu Buyan in an underhanded method in future?

Huang Yueli didn't know that he was so easily jealous to such an extent, with so much absurd considerations.

She only knew that Li Moying this man was just too difficult to deal with! She had already lowered herself to please him and yet he didn't appreciate it! He was simply too much!

She also had her own pride alright? She wouldn't lower herself to beg him and for her to initiate sending him soup was a huge step back. Why can't Li Moying also take one step back to satisfy her request?

This was a win-win situation for them, wasn't it?

The more Huang Yueli thought, the angrier she got as she questioned, "So no matter what I say, you will not receive a consultation, is that right?"

Actually he himself wasn't too sure. Although a man's pride was important, but if Huang Yueli really ignored him, then his pride would only meet ghosts! But they hadn't gone to this step yet so he absolutely would not show this. Otherwise his position in the house would really be unimportant...

So Li Moying braced himself as he said, "Saying all these are of no use. I've already decided on it and no one can change my mind, including you!"

Huang Yueli was hurt by this sentence. She raised her head and gave him a cold stare as she lightly spat out the words, "Very good!"

It was until now that Li Moying realised that things were in bad shape and after going into a blank for a short moment, he chased after her.

But Huang Yueli's speed was equivalently fast so by this time she had already returned to the bedroom and immediately locked the door and activated the mechanism.

Li Moying knocked hard on the door from outside, "Li'er, don't be angry. I'm in the wrong, will you please open the door first?"

However Huang Yueli refused to bother about him as she hid in the room to sulk.

Li Moying called out again, "Regarding..... the matter about the consultation, there's still some room for discussion. I'm just.... just not mentally prepared. Will you give me some time to consider? I didn't say that.... I definitely won't be consulted....."

Hearing that, Huang Yueli's icy cold voice was heard, "Oh? Really? Haven't you said this earlier that you definitely won't go? Why is it that you're saying that you didn't say this?"

"I... I don't mean it in that way. It's just..... something I said in a moment of anger."

Li Moying was tongue tied as he tried hard to explain.

By this time, he realised that having an intelligent and powerful fiancée really was a twisted thing. Usually when she was with him abusing the dregs, it felt really good and when they displayed their love, it felt very sweet. But when he couldn't win her in an argument, that became very bitter.

But no matter what, at this point of time, other than begging for mercy, he didn't have any other choice.

"Li'er, I haven't been using my brain when I talked earlier. It's probably due to the fact that I didn't have enough sleep so can you not take it against me? Please have some pity on me and open the door....."

"Not opening. Anyway I will be inviting Liu Buyan over these two days and after he has given you a consultation and you accommodating to his treatment then I will forgive you."

Li Moying was totally helpless, feeling that he had moved the rock over to smash on his own feet.

If he knew that the ultimate ending was still him giving in, he should have agreed to it right from the start. Now not only did he needed to see that disgusting Liu Buyan's face, the quarrel between him and Li'er had worsen.....

Chapter 1278: Their first cold war (6)

Li Moying stood at the door for quite some time but Huang Yueli still hadn't opened the door for him so he could only leave gloomily.

It wasn't that he didn't want to break into the room but the mechanisms in his house had all been modified by Huang Yueli to increase the safety notch.

Usually the mechanisms in the house to him as Master of the house was naturally not fortified but now that Huang Yueli got angry and shut him outside, he then discovered that he was powerless against these mechanisms.

Having such an intelligent fiancée, to a man, was a huge challenge.....

They originally thought that Third Miss would definitely reconcile with their Master but they didn't expect that the both of them started quarrelling again.

Mo Er gave Mo Yi a glance, "Eldest Brother, what should we do next?"

Mo Yi was extremely helpless too. He really didn't expect that his own Master's EQ would be so low to such an extent!

But thinking of it, it seemed that Li Moying was a man who got whatever he wanted since young and no one had ever dared to defy his wishes so his character was originally strong and overbearing. Plus the fact that he was so handsome looking, when ladies saw him, all of them were like houseflies which saw flesh, no matter how he tried to chase them away. So if he understood how to coax woman would really be something strange!

"Ai, I have no idea too. But I can tell that in front of Third Miss, Master can only admit defeat. I think we had better stop worrying over nothing. Just endure with it for now. When Master goes to find Third Miss to beg for her forgiveness, then everything should be alright....."

"Eldest Brother, I feel that your words cannot be trusted! What kind of person is Master, would he really go beg Third Miss? Wouldn't the sun will rise from the west side?"

Mo Yi only said, "Up to you to believe or not, just wait and see!"

Saying that, he waved his hand, "Let's all disperse now. Those on duty hurry on and go. Master is now infuriated so everyone better keep your skin on tightly."

This night, Li Moying tossed and turned restlessly in bed.

If someone told him one year ago that he would go head over heels over a woman to this state, even to the fact that just quarrelling over a few words made him unable to sleep, he would absolutely not believe in such a thing.

Not only would he not believe it, he might possibly even laugh out loudly.

There were so many ladies around him and he didn't feel anything for them. That went to show that he was totally emotionless towards the opposite gender, so why would he be distraught with anxiety over a woman?

It hadn't been easy for him to survive until dawn broke. Li Moying rushed to the bedroom door as he wishfully waited for Huang Yueli to get out from bed to have her breakfast.

But the room door remained tightly shut.

Mo Yi bowed in front of him as he conveyed Huang Yueli's instructions, "Master, Third Miss said she will be going into closed door cultivation today and will not be meeting anyone. So will you please put yourself at ease and at the same time, get mentally prepared for the consultation....."

Li Moying's eyes looked as though he was about to spew out fire as he stared viciously at Mo Yi.

Mo Yi's heart was apprehensive but he could only lower his head not making a sound. He was very sure that no matter how angry Li Moying was, he couldn't possibly deal with him now. After all, he was now one of Third Miss's subordinates.....

At the same time, thinking of those miserable days which Mo Er and the others had been leading recently, Mo Yi was extremely glad that his Master had given him to Third Miss.

Indeed, after Li Moying stared at him for a while more, he was totally helpless as he could only rushed out angrily.

His mood was vile to the extreme and he left swiftly.

Chapter 1279: Love rivals meet (1)

Those Celestial Light Sect disciples who passed by didn't dare to offend him.

But halfway on his route, someone blocked his way.

"Li Moying, we haven't met for so many years and you're still bearing that disgusted look!" A voice bearing ridicule was heard from his left side.

Li Moying's footsteps halted as he frowned and turned back to take a look.

"It's you... Li Buyan!"

Li Buyan walked near to him and he finally stopped around ten meters in front of him.

He didn't intentionally exercised restraint on his imposing manner because he knew his biggest advantage now was that his cultivation had far surpassed Li Moying's! This was the largest advantage which he didn't had in his past life!

Even though he was an Earth attributed practitioner and he wasn't as strong and overbearing as a thunder attributed practitioner but he was a genuine ninth stage realm practitioner so the moment he unleashed his grandeur around him, all those practitioners who had lower abilities than him had no choice but to bow their heads and submit to him!

Li Moying's shadow guards couldn't take this tremendous pressure as they all fell onto the ground.

Only Li Moying stood quietly on the original spot and his expression was as normal as usual, as though he wasn't affected by Li Buyan at all.

Two tall, handsome males were a mere distance from each other as they sized each other up.

The previous time they met, Liu Buyan's expression was haggard, his thoughts seemed flustered as his mental condition wasn't very good at all. Whereas Li Moying was still a child with arrogance and outstanding innate talent but he was tortured by that strange illness.

Today when they met again, the circumstances were totally different.

Li Moying finally met a genuine top rated expert's imposing manner and potential. Even for a genius like him, he must exhaust all his energy to control himself from not lowering his head in front of Liu Buyan's imposing manner!

Whereas Liu Buyan was indeed as what the rumours were, handsome and outstanding, with a mixed refined and elegant temperament. As compared to his power and overbearing manner filled with invasiveness, it was totally different which made him a unique kind of handsome male.

This raised the threat in Li Moying's heart to the highest point!

Whereas Liu Buyan's glare became even more complicated.

The Li Moying in his eyes as compared to his past life was much younger and although his cultivation had weakened by quite a bit, but his biting cold inviolability imposing manner hadn't undergone much change. That good looking face was slightly different from his past life but that pair of peach blossom eyes hadn't changed at all. He was still able to sweep a young lady off her feet with just a gaze.

And this person.... was still the same as his past life, he was still his love rival!

The minute he met Li Moying, Liu Buyan seemed as though he had seen Mu Chengying fourteen years ago and momentarily, all sorts of complicated feelings surged upwards and for a moment, he had a feeling as though he wanted to give up.

But he quickly regained his senses. This was not Mu Chengying from the past but Li Moying.

Now he wasn't the number one top expert in Soaring Heavens Continent, and not the Sect Master of Soaring Heavens Continent's number one stronghold Blue Profound Sect, or even... not even with a healthy body.

So he Liu Buyan was absolutely the one who had the greatest advantage.

Chapter 1280: Love rivals meet (2)

After they exchanged glances for quite some time, the sparks from enmity and hatred was seen from their eyes.

After a long time, Liu Buyan started off first, "Li Moying, you should know why I'm here to look for you!"

Li Moying's corners of his lips tugged slightly and his voice was extremely cold, "Oh? What should I know? Divine Doctor Liu had graced your presence to Celestial Light Sect which had truly brought light to our humble dwelling. But what I don't understand if no one invited you and you've come over. When had Divine Doctor Liu's value dropped to such a standard!"

He and Huang Yueli were still in a cold war because of Liu Buyan and he had not expected that Liu Buyan actually ran over to Celestial Light Sect on his own accord!

This was simply a direct provocation to him!

Was there a need to even say out his purpose of this trip? As a man, with just one look, he was able to tell the other party's motive.

Liu Buyan could tell the obvious provocative tone from Li Moying's words and his glare changed slightly, apparently angered by his words.

But he quickly calmed down as he gave a cold laugh, "You are pretty bold to speak to me in this manner! Aren't you afraid that I'd kill you right here?"

"Oh? Divine Doctor Liu really feels that.... yourself is the number one top expert in Soaring Heavens Continent? Or do you feel that... as long as I'm not around, you will have the chance to.... get my woman?"

Liu Buyan's body shivered slightly. Although he already knew that the young lass was Li Moying's fiancée but hearing his kind of declaration from his mouth still made him feel uncomfortable. Just like fourteen years ago when he saw Mu Chengying and Huang Yueli display their affections openly.

That kind of regret, envy, jealous complicated feelings.

Liu Buyan clenched his teeth as he started at his eyes, "You.... You indeed already know about it! Then I shall speak openly then, I am indeed here because of Bai Ruoli! I will give you two choices. If you know what's good for you, leave her on your own initiative and I will be responsible for curing your Soul Detachment Illness! You should know that you have extraordinary potential and you're only dragged down by your Soul Detachment Illness. As long as you are cured, it will just be a matter of time before you become Soaring Heavens Continent's number one top expert so by then there will be endless women for you to choose from, isn't it?"

"Moreover, Bai Ruoli doesn't truly want to be with you. I already know that she's in a prenatal betrothal with you! For the sake of morality which was why she is staying with you. Why must you drag her down? Let her go and let her find someone who can truly take care of her!"

Ever since that day at the bottom of the mountain in the small town after Huang Yueli threw him such a huge bomb, he had been feeling frustrated as using the excuse of going out of town to do a consultation, he travelled around to drive away his worries.

It was until yesterday night when he suddenly thought about it.

No matter now, Li Moying had no right to deserve such a nice lady whereas he was Soaring Heavens Number One Divine Doctor and moreover he was in the ninth stage realm. In terms of looks, he wasn't too far off from Li Moying so as long as he could drive Li Moying away, it shouldn't be a difficult thing if he wanted to woo Bai Ruoli.

The current situation was very different from fourteen years ago. The current Li Moying was not his match at all! He had the ability to make Li Moying back out.

So that was why Liu Buyan arrived at Celestial Light Sect early this morning.

He would raise his request for the exchange which was very simple. Li Moying had to make a choice between his life and future or his fiancée.

Anyone with a normal state of mind would know which was more worthwhile.
