Chapter 1291: Things are in bad shape (3)

Murong De's tone apparently was filled with frustration and disagreement.

Luo Jiyun didn't bother to explain any further as he only said, "Master, rest assured. Now that Sister-in-law is here, nothing might happen to Eldest Senior Brother! Elders please don't be overly anxious. Just watch on by the side, Sister-in-law will handle things properly!"

Murong De totally didn't believe in his pack of lies.

"Jiyun, you... why are you so muddled? Don't you know by now how terrifying it is when your Eldest Senior Brother acts up? He totally doesn't recognise anyone, even for your Master he will also attack me! Usually he might indeed be docile and obedient towards his fiancée but now it is not like the usual times! You.... sigh!"

Murong De was just about to continue leading the Elders to save the day when he also saw Li Lingchuan standing up.

"Master, it's better that you make preparations first. If Eldest Senior Brother really erupts, then protecting the Sect is the number one priority! Now even if we want to save that Miss Bai, it's too late so why not just stabilise the array first! Moreover speaking..."

He took a look at Luo Jiyun, giving off a smile of ridicule, "Since Fifth Junior Brother has vowed so solemnly, so perhaps Miss Bai really has some ability! She might not even need us to go save her! Even if something really happens, in future if Eldest Senior Brother really wants to blame anyone, that would be Fifth Junior Brother's 'credit' ah!"

Li Lingchuan had long wanted Li Moying to die faster!

If that young lass surnamed Bai was really dead, Li Moying would be so disoriented that he left Celestial Light Sect in fury which will give Li Lingchuan a chance to climb up to the position of Celestial Light Sect's Sect Master!

Otherwise that Eldest Senior Brother whose innate talent was excellent would always be above him! He would never be able to hold his head up high!

That time in Dark Moon Forest, he wanted to use the opportunity to kill Li Moying who was seriously injured but in the end he was almost counter-killed! For a long time after that, he didn't even dare to return to the Sect!

Today, he finally got such a good opportunity to make Li Moying go crazy and beg for death so how could he possibly miss this chance!

Indeed, after Li Lingchuan's interruption, Huang Yueli had successfully managed to reach Li Moying in the short period of time.

The two of them were only a few steps apart where they were able to touch each other the minute they stretched out their hands.

When Murong De saw this, he knew that no matter how he tried, he had no way to save Huang Yueli so he couldn't help but let out a long sigh.

He had already ascertained that Huang Yueli was finished, Li Moying was finished and Celestial Light... Was also finished!

Li Lingchuan's face surfaced a delighted smile as he was extremely happy beyond words.

Even Murong Fei who was unable to get up while lying on the ground revealed a sliver of sinister smile. That little slut.... was dead for sure this time round!

Only Luo Jiyun glanced around and shrugged his shoulders as he sat down underneath the shade of a tree.

Among those people present, he was the only one who had once seen Huang Yueli placate Li Moying in the Dark Moon Forest when he acted up. That time he and Mo Yi and the rest were half dead from the fright but in the end?

But Luo Jiyun knew that no matter how much he said, no one would believe him so it was better for the truth to do the talking!

At this current moment, Huang Yueli totally didn't know what the others' response were. She was fully concentrated on the man in front of her.

Li Moying suddenly lowered his head as his piercing cold stare swept towards her. That pair of gloomy eyes penetrating with bitter frost brought along a kind of force which could convulse one's heart. It seemed as though it came from hell and was enough to make anyone who met this pair of eyes plead for mercy while trembling in fear.

Chapter 1292: Things are in bad shape (4)

Li Moying watched her and the explosive thunder attributed Profound Energy seemed to have restrained a little but he still remained silent and his expression sunken.

Everyone's gazes were concentrated on both of them.

Almost everyone was sweating profusely for her as all of their hearts were filled with trepidation.

Such a pretty and slender young lass, if she were to die in the hands of her own fiancé, that would really be.... A tragedy in real life!

Murong Fei had long forgotten the pain on her body as a smile was seen on her twisted face!

She could actually witness that little slut being killed by Li Moying personally! Such a scenario was something that would make her smile even in her dreams!

Huang Yueli looked at Li Moying for a while and gently sighed as she continued to walk towards his direction.

All of them held their breaths, feeling that at any moment now, Huang Yueli would be struck flying away!

But even until Huang Yueli reached Li Moying, this scene did not materialise.

While the crowd were rubbing their eyes and touching their chins, Huang Yueli suddenly came out with an action which shocked everyone.

She suddenly tipped her toes and placed both her arms around Li Moying's neck and putting strength into it, she dragged him towards her as her slender body pressed tightly against the man's robust chest, without leaving a single opening!

Some of them couldn't help but gasped out loud!

Because everyone could tell that Li Moying's body was surrounded by electric currents, which was an obvious sign of powerful thunder attribute Profound Energy around him. So no matter who went near him would be electrocuted to a crisp, not to mention going close to him at zero distance?

Did this young lass find her life too long? Li Moying didn't actively attacked her whereas she herself went up to look for death?

However, of course Huang Yueli didn't die.

The electric currents on Li Moying was indeed terrifying and this kind of ninth stage realm strong expert's powerful pressure almost made her collapse entirely.

But just as she plastered herself onto Li Moying's body, the electric currents disappeared suddenly.

When she hugged Li Moying, she totally didn't feel any pressure from the electricity, only feeling Li Moying's strong body and a pure man's power lying underneath it.

Huang Yueli raised her head as her lips plastered against his tightly pursed lips. She stretched out her tongue and licked him lightly and after caressing him several times, she tried to probe her tongue into his mouth.

But out of her expectations, Li Moying totally refused to coordinate with her this time as his lips remained pursed and his body totally not moving, as though he was not tempted by her seduction and influence.

For a split moment, Huang Yueli had thought that she lost the ability to stop his illness from acting up!

But with a change in thought, she felt something was amiss. If Li Moying really wasn't under her influence totally and being plastered by her in such a way, he would probably had exploded and she was now a dead corpse. How would she continue licking this man in this way?

So.... so this man was.... acting in an arrogantly pampered manner?

Huang Yueli raised her head to look at his contoured yet strangely cold handsome features.

Li Moying stared coldly into a distance away, not even casting a glance at her with his peripheral view, as though he didn't care about her.

But his tightly clenched fists revealed the struggle within him.....

Huang Yueli was melancholic because he had really not seen such a petty man before. At this juncture where he had lost his senses and didn't recognise anyone, but he still... remembered the fact that he was still in a quarrel with her??

Chapter 1293: Things are in bad shape (5)

What kind of rare oddball was this!

But moments later, she was appeased....

Because for Li Moying to act in this way, it represented that she held an irreplaceable existence in his heart...

Even though he had lost his memory or even lost his senses, even though he didn't recognise anyone and attacked anyone without any difference.

But in his heart, she still held that special existence in it.

So special that... even if it was a small matter which concerned her, it became an obsessiveness in his heart.

Huang Yueli sighed gently and increased her strength as she hugged him rightly, placing her lips onto his as she muttered, "Moying, are you still unhappy? Don't tell me you don't want me, and don't like me anymore? Are you going to abandon me?"

Li Moying's body jolted but immediately resumed its immobile state.

Huang Yueli said again, "If you're not angry then I'm going to kiss you now. You must kiss me back alright!"

Li Moying still didn't have any expression nor did he say a word.

But Huang Yueli seemed as though nothing had happened as she leaned nearer to him, placing her soft ruby red lips onto his.

This time, at the moment when their lips touched, Huang Yueli felt a scorching warm weak and numbness. Li Moying had immediately taken control, viciously kissing her!

This kiss.... was exactly the same as previous times when Li Moying's illness acted up. Not only was it intense, it bore a near-desperate passion which was enough to make one's soul incinerate!

Huang Yueli obediently raised her little chin, allowing him to kiss her in any way he wanted recklessly.

Li Moying was kissing her when he got extremely excited and his firm and muscular arms tightly locked her slender waist, bringing that delicate and soft body into his embrace entirely.

Gradually, Li Moying's kiss started to slow down its anxious pace and slowly became gentle and longing.

This kind of intimateness made Huang Yueli even more drunk and this made her feel that the arguments and gaps between the both of them for the past few days had slowly disappeared in this kiss.....

After some time later, Huang Yueli felt that the man's body which was hugging her had slowly relaxed and the action of kissing had also slowly stopped.

She hurriedly stretched out her hand to hug him tightly.

Indeed, the next moment, Li Moying was totally depleted of his energy as he fainted into her arms.

Huang Yueli's figure was petite and carrying a tall man like Li Moying naturally wasn't convenient at all.

She turned her head around wanting to find someone from Celestial Light Sect to help her but instead she met with pairs of shocked and dazed eyes.

Almost everyone used an expression which seemed as though they had just seen a ghost as they watched her intently, totally unaware that she needed help.

Huang Yueli was extremely speechless. She knew that it was indeed a shocking matter for her to be able to settle Li Moying who was in a rage but.... surely not all of them needed to put on this look right? People like Sect Master Murong and the few Elders, they were ninth stage realm practitioners so by right they should have at least seen this kind of thing before. Why were they all so shocked that they've turned silly?

Luckily, Luo Jiyun had long predicted that this scenario would happen.

He hurriedly ran up and said, "Sister-in-law, let me help you carry Eldest Senior Brother back!"

The minute Huang Yueli saw him, she gave a smile, "So it's Fifth Junior Brother... long time no see!"

Luo Jiyun was piggybacking Li Moying on his back and at the same time he was saying, "Actually since Sister-in-law have come to Celestial Light Sect, I should visit you and pay my respects but I was out for experience training and have just returned a couple of days. Eldest Senior Brother says you were in closed door cultivation these days so he asked me to drop by a few days later instead."

Chapter 1294: Things are in bad shape (6)

Huang Yueli replied, "No wonder...."

At the same time, she quickly realised that Li Moying had intentionally not allowed Luo Jiyun to come over to look for her.

He probably didn't want Luo Jiyun to tell that they were quarrelling!

Huang Yueli naturally wouldn't exposed her own fiancé in front of outsiders so she immediately added on, "That's right, I've been refining armaments for the past few days! Otherwise we would have invited you over for dinner."

Hearing that, Luo Jiyun immediately revealed an excited expression, "Sister-in-law, you're refining armaments again! What good things are you refining, can I take a look?"

He was very clear on Huang Yueli's armament refining standard. Previously in Dark Moon Forest, Huang Yueli had once gifted him with various Profound Armaments and later on, she even refined the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror directly on the spot so since then on, Luo Jiyun totally admired her from the bottom of his heart.

Huang Yueli was thankful to him for speaking up for her in front of Sect Master Murong and the Elders and immediately agreed to it.

The two of them chatted while passing by the crowd.

Those crowded around them had not reacted in time and they were still immersed in that scene till the moment when they were about to leave the array's boundary did Murong De finally regained his senses.

He cried out loudly, "Wait a minute, Jiyun and that..... ughh....."

Huang Yueli's footsteps halted and she slowly turned around to face Murong De, "I am Bai Ruoli."

Murong De hurriedly said, "Right, Miss Bai! Miss Bai, earlier you.... how were you able to.... ughh.... control Li Moying? Usually whenever his illness acts up, so many ninth stage realm practitioners like us may not be able to make him calm down? And his current condition now, you sure he's alright?"

Huang Yueli said, "To be honest, I also don't know why I can placate him but previous few times I've succeeded. As for his current situation.... resting for a couple of days and he should be alright."

Murong De heaved a sigh of relief, "Oh, that's great, that's great!"

Now that the people from West Sky Region were coming, the last time they had a tournament, Li Moying was totally in the limelight as he suppressed every single person there. So if he were to lose his battle power because of his illness, then Celestial Light Sect would have their reputation down in the dumps!

Huang Yueli could tell that his expression wasn't quite right but she couldn't be bothered to ask too much.

Just as she was prepared to leave, she heard a intermittent rant, "Bai.... Ruoli.... You... this.... slut.... you harmed.... me so terribly....."

Those present heard her cursing and turned towards her direction as they saw Murong Fei holding up her body which had been struck badly by electrical currents shedding a dishevelled look with messy hair as her eyes opened wide like full moons, staring furiously at Huang Yueli.

When Murong De saw his daughter bearing such a sorrowful look, he couldn't help but frown.

Huang Yueli saw that and sneered coldly in his heart as she put on an embarrassed look speaking in a soft voice, "Miss Murong, really..... really sorry! I was in a hurry to save him earlier and hadn't noticed that you were following right behind me. I'd not expected you to be so unlucky, oh, this is all my fault. I ask for your forgiveness if there's any ways which I had offended you."

Murong De originally felt a little angry, feeling that Huang Yueli definitely had something to do with his daughter turning out in this state and he was already planning to make things difficult for her.

Who knew that Huang Yueli would come out with these words.

In actual fact, those with eyes were able to tell that it was Murong Fei herself who challenged Huang Yueli first and that caused her to be beaten up by Huang Yueli instead.

Chapter 1295: Things are in bad shape (7)

Furthermore, when she ran over to the thunder region, she didn't insisted on dragging Murong Fei along right? It was she herself who insisted on tagging along which was why she had been struck by lightning. So how could she blame Huang Yueli for causing harm to her?

Moreover speaking, Huang Yueli risked her life to enter that place wasn't for fun, but was in a hurry to save someone! Fact had proven that she indeed had the ability to save Li Moying!

Then why did Murong Fei still did that? Fighting for affection, creating trouble, not understanding the severity of the whole scenario!

If Huang Yueli were really beaten flat by her, then Li Moying would really be a goner!

Everyone were breaking out into cold sweat for her, feeling that it was just too dangerous earlier! Murong Fei really didn't ignored the general interest!

Generally speaking, the person who should be angry isn't Murong Fei but Huang Yueli instead!

But not only did Huang Yueli not blame her, instead she even placed all the wrong-doings onto her own self and automatically apologized to Murong Fei!

In comparison, it showed how magnanimous she was whereas Murong Fei was seen to be arrogant and selfish!

In a second, everyone's gaze towards Murong Fei changed as they bore a taste of criticism towards her.

Even Murong De was feeling ashamed because of his earlier thinking. This young lass, she indeed was the fiancée whom Li Moying chose personally. She knew how exactly how to behave properly and she was big hearted! It was obviously his daughter's fault but she was still willing to magnanimously admit the wrong-doing... this kind of lady was really one of a kind!

As he was feeling ashamed, he naturally wouldn't find trouble for Huang Yueli and only replied, "How can we blame you for this? Luckily you came in time and your response is swift, otherwise if something really happened to Moying, it will be too late for regrets! Fei'er is injured because of her own carelessness, so we cannot blame you for it."

When Murong Fei heard her own father saying that, she was so infuriated that she almost fainted once again!

Huang Yueli gave a calm smile, "This is what I should do. You'd better hurry and get a good doctor to do consultation for Eldest Miss Murong. Earlier I saw her falling onto the ground, she crashed head first so I hope nothing happens to her during that fall?"

"You're really considerate." Murong De felt that she was meticulous and was so considerate. It was no wonder that Li Moying took an interest in her and as compared to his own daughter, other than innate talent and beauty, what else did she had? This temper of hers really made one unable to sing her praises.

Murong Fei was so infuriated that she almost threw up blood again because wasn't this cursing her to be brain dead? But too bad her father couldn't tell her sarcasm and even thought that this little slut was a good person!

Huang Yueli smiled, "Since there's nothing else, then I'll bring Moying back now. What he needs most now is rest."

"Good, good, hurry on and go back! Don't let him be too tired these few days."

Huang Yueli nodded as she gracefully nodded towards Murong De and the other Elders then leaving with Luo Jiyun.

The minute she left, the Elders gave her departing silhouette an approving look as all of them were full of praises for her.

"No wonder Young Sect Master likes her so much, there indeed was a reason to it eh?"

"Isn't that so? In the past I'd only heard rumours and only know that her innate talent is very ordinary and her background isn't very good. But I'd not expected that seeing her in person was so out of the ordinary?"

"Her innate talent is ordinary? That's as compared to Young Sect Master right? At her age, to reach fourth stage realm and living the small country at the borders without much resources, this innate talent is at least seventh grade upper level and above. Perhaps she might even be an eight grade talent!"

Chapter 1296: Reconciled (1)

"Eighth grade talent?? Then isn't she the same as Eldest Young Miss?"

"So that's why her innate talent is not bad and she's so enchanting plus the fact that she is so magnanimous and humble, there's nothing strange about Young Sect Master choosing her at all!"

Hearing the crowd's discussions, Murong Fei gnashed her teeth so hard that she almost broke them!

That wretched lass was actually said to be "magnanimous and humble?" What was the matter with them? The most crafty, sinister woman on this earth was her! She was merely putting on an act in front of these Elders!

Those Elders, including her father, were they all blind? They actually couldn't tell the real face of that wretched lass??

Just as Murong Fei almost fainted from anger, suddenly a cold and mellow make voice rang above her head.

"Eldest Senior Brother's young fiancée.... Isn't simple at all! No wonder you're not her match at all."

This voice sounded familiar so when Murong Fei heard that, her heart quivered slightly as she raised her head.

Li Lingchuan was just standing beside her with an unfathomable look and on seeing her, he gave a cold sinister smile.

“You’re finding it strange on why my thinking is different from the Elders? Third Junior Sister, I’ve already encountered this lass’s power beforehand, so naturally I’m not bewitched by her! Forgive me for being straightforward but with your plans, it won’t be easy for you to defeat her.”

Murong Fei clenched her teeth, “What do you mean by that? I know she is very scheming but I.... I might not lose to her!”

Li Lingchuan lowered his head as he helped her wipe the dirt off her face and smiled, “Third Junior Sister, you’ve misunderstood my meaning! I just wanted to say that your background is so elegant and you’re such a kind young lady who only thinks of cultivating, how could you possibly win a scheming wild lass like her, who grew up from that kind of small place?”

People all loved to hear nice things and especially for a rare handsome guy like Li Lingchuan to say such things to comfort her while she was feeling unbearable made Murong Fei felt much better.

She felt touched as she said, “Second Senior Brother, you’re the one who understands me even more.....”

Li Lingchuan stared at her for a moment before sighing gently, “You finally realised that Second Senior Brother treats you well. I thought that you only had Eldest Senior Brother in your eyes and will never realise that there are others who will be worried for you!”

Murong Fei was stunned as she apparently looked towards Li Lingchuan in a flustered manner.

Li Lingchuan was interested in her so she naturally knew about it. But she always had doubts over how much sincerity he had towards her.

After all, marrying her would result in a huge possibility to become the future Sect Master of Celestial Light Sect. Li Lingchuan’s innate talent could not surpass Li Moying’s so he required the Sect Master’s daughter as a heavyweight chip to add points for himself.

But not caring if he was genuine or was faking it, now that Murong Fei had been repeatedly rejected by Li Moying and after she was tortured to such an extent by Huang Yueli, hearing his words was enough to make Murong Fei felt touched.

At least... someone else liked her.

“Second Senior Brother...” Murong Fei’s eyes turned wet.

Li Lingchuan hurriedly said, “Third Junior Sister, please don’t cry, is your wound hurting again? I’d better hurry and send you back! Hurry get a doctor to come over to take a look otherwise if you don’t treat your internal injury properly, it will affect your future cultivation!”

Saying that, he carried Murong Fei like a princess as he sent her back personally.

Murong Fei immediately went teary eyes, "Thank you Second Senior Brother!"

Chapter 1297: Reconciled (2)

Li Lingchuan smiled and said, "What's there to thank me for? We're Senior and Junior brothers and sisters, so it's my duty to take care of you!"

Murong Fei only cared about being touched and had not noticed a cold glint flashing past Li Lingchuan's eyes.

He already found Li Moying's fatal spot and that was his fiancée! From today's situation, if that young lass died, it was an absolutely fatal strike to Li Moying!

Only thing was that although that young lass's cultivation wasn't high, but she had always been under the tight protection of Li Moying, so if he wanted to deal with her, it wasn't any simpler than dealing with Li Moying. So at this point of time, he needed an ally whom he could use.

Murong Fei was naturally the most suitable candidate. Both of them had the same enemy so they would definitely be able to kill that young lass.

By that time, Li Moying would be so heartbroken and if a little accident were to happen.... Murong Fei could only fall into his embrace so Celestial Light Sect would naturally become his!

On the other hand, after Luo Jiyun followed Huang Yueli to Li Moying's courtyard, his eyes had been drifting meaningfully towards her armament refining room, but he didn't open his mouth.

Huang Yueli understood what he was thinking about. This young man obviously took an interest in the Profound Armaments which she had refined!

Luo Jiyun was Li Moying's favourite Junior Brother so naturally he was the same as her own brother. Huang Yueli herself didn't mind gifting him a few pieces of Profound Armament. But now was not the right time. Li Moying was still unconscious and all she had on her mind was to take care of him, with no mood to do any other things at all.

She only said, "Junior Brother Luo, the night is not young anymore. Your Eldest Senior Brother and I are going to rest. Today I must thank you and if you don't mind, please come over for dinner tomorrow."

When Luo Jiyun heard that, he hurriedly replied, "I'm so sorry, Sister-in-law. I shall not disturb you from resting anymore, I'll make a move now."

After sending Luo Jiyun off, Huang Yueli returned to the bedroom and looked at Li Moying's pale handsome face, as she couldn't help but sighed gently.

She wondered what was it that made Li Moying's illness suddenly acted up?

Could it be that.... it was related to their quarrel yesterday?

The more Huang Yueli thought, the more possibility she felt. After all, today was not full moon's night and Li Moying's condition recently had been stable, not like his illness would suddenly act up.....

Thinking up to this point, she couldn't help but felt guilty as she regretted a little in insisting for him to see Liu Buyan.

"Sigh, forget it, since you're so insistent... I have no other way as well. Hurry up and wake up, I won't force you to do anything anymore...."

Unknowingly, she fell asleep as she leaned against the side of the bed.

But as her heart was still hanging onto Li Moying's condition so she woke up in abruptly.

The minute her eyes opened, she felt something was amiss and the minute she regained her consciousness, she discovered that Li Moying had already regained his consciousness and was staring intently at her.

Amidst the first sun rays in the morning, his arm was propping up her head as he sat up halfway, his gaze deep and serene.

"You... you're awake? Are you feeling uncomfortable anywhere?" Huang Yueli asked and at the same time stretched out her hand as she wanted to touch his forehead.

But her hand which was outstretched halfway was stopped by Li Moying.

He held on to her hand and placed it on his chest asking in a mellow voice, "Yesterday.... Had my illness acted up again? You're the one who saved me?"

Huang Yueli was stunned, "That's right, yesterday Mo Er returned heavily injured saying that your illness suddenly acted up, asking me to go over and save you immediately."

Chapter 1298: Reconciled (3)

Speaking of this, she seemed to have thought of something as she started to frown.

"That's right, what happened to you yesterday? Why did your illness suddenly act up? Moreover, your Shadow Guards were all injured. The minute Mo Er came to me, he fainted! So, what's going on? Don't tell me you were sneaked attack by someone?"

Li Moying went silent for a moment, "Nothing happened. I was feeling down and perhaps I thought too much so my illness suddenly acted up. Mo Er they all.... were all injured by me because they didn't manage to evade in time."

He decided not to tell Huang Yueli the exact scenario at that time. On one hand, it was because he was defeated by Liu Buyan and to an arrogant man like him, it was an extremely embarrassing matter. On the other hand, since Liu Buyan secretly admired his Li'er so he must absolutely reduce the chances of their interaction.

When Huang Yueli heard that, she didn't quite believed him, "Surely not right? Somehow I feel that Mo Er's injuries aren't caused by the thunder attributed Profound Energy....."

“You might have seen wrongly? Moreover, I don’t only have thunder attribute, my thunder attribute innate talent is merely stronger than the others.”

Seeing Huang Yueli’s head tilt to one side and giving out a puzzled look, Li Moying was worried that she might think too much and realised the suspicious points in between hence he hurriedly tried to change a topic.

“That’s right, when my illness acted up, there were some scenes which flashed past my eyes. I feel that... I seem to have recalled some things from my past life.”

Huang Yueli was stunned for a moment before she gave an overjoyed look, “Really? What have you recalled?”

Li Moying said, “Actually I can only remember fragments of it. Like the first time we met, and..... the adventures when we went to explore those ancient mystic regions.....”

Huang Yueli laughed when she heard that, “Really? You recalled the first time we met! Then do you still remember that you were acting like a ruffian that time and forcefully kissed me? I developed a heart to murder you at that time! How could you act in that way?”

Li Moying recalled the past. The first time the both of them were engaged in a close distance, Huang Yueli was also around this age, fourteen to fifteen years old and like a flower with blossoming petals, delicate and charming with an immature look which still hung on their faces.

In a blink of an eye, it had been a long long time ago....

In the past, he felt that there wasn’t anything good about his past life’s memories and even if he did recall anything about it, it probably wasn’t some beautiful memories. But now he changed his train of thoughts. Every single moment with Li’er were extremely valuable and precious memories so how could he forget about it?

He smiled and said, “It was indeed my fault at that time but then, I was.... a little too young and rash. Originally I intended to just greet you but I’d not expect that not only did you ignore me, you actually thought that I was there to snatch your treasure and just attacked me without any warning! If it wasn’t for the fact that my cultivation wasn’t too bad, I’d probably be seriously injured by you then! A young lass like you was simply too vicious!”

When Li Moying recalled the scenario then, he couldn’t help but laugh.

The Huang Yueli then was indeed different from this lifetime. At that time, she had not suffered any setbacks and had always been the idol in everyone’s eyes so she was pretty arrogant.

Huang Yueli also recalled the same moment as her lips twitched, “Oh please, you suddenly came over at that time, if it wasn’t to snatch my treasure, then what were you there for? Wouldn’t anyone just avoid that scene normally? You actually still dare to say that to me?”

Chapter 1299: Reconciled (4)

Li Moying tried to make himself seem extremely innocent as he said, "How would I know you would think so much? Every time I saw you, my senses go awry. You don't know that I've been secretly admiring you for a long time?"

Huang Yueli was stunned as her eyes grew wide, "You secretly admire me? How was that possible? That day was the first time we met!"

Li Moying stroked his chin as he gave a mysterious smile, "That's your first time meeting me but that doesn't equate to my first time meeting you..... You don't know how long I've been spying on you for! Plus the fact that you were so cute that day.... I just couldn't control myself."

Huang Yueli's mind turned blank for a moment and very quickly, two shades of red appeared on the sides of her cheeks.

"I... I won't listen to your rubbish! Anyway, you forcefully kissed me the very first time we met, that's simply too much! That made me feel that you're a scoundrel who goes around flirting with other girls!"

Li Moying laughed uncontrollably, "I only want to flirt around with you, so how is it possible for me to go around harassing other girls? But if I had known that that moment of rashness would cause so much misunderstandings about me, then I probably wouldn't be so rash. At the very least, I'd endure till our second meeting before I.... kiss you!"

He lowered his tone as his eyes dimmed slightly, intentionally speaking in an ambiguous manner.

Huang Yueli was so upset that she almost fell down from the bed and stared at him angrily, "You, you, you... you still think you are logical! Anyway from what I see, you're not a good person!"

She pushed Li Moying and originally she thought this man would definitely not feel any pain or itchiness but who knew that Li Moying actually followed her push and fell down from the bed.

She blinked and recalled that Li Moying's illness just acted up yesterday so today he should be in an extremely weak condition. Probably he couldn't take her kind of "trample"!

She hurriedly leaned over and asked in a careful manner, "Moying, are you alright?"

Li Moying moaned, "I'm alright, I'm already used to it. It's not the first time that you've attempted murder your husband anyway...."

"You!"

Huang Yueli wanted to punch him but her fist had just raised up when she couldn't bear to do so as she withdrew it back.

"Right, I heard you mentioned about this earlier, you really recalled the past about your past life? Then can you tell me that after I died in my past life... what happened to you? Why were you reborn as well?"

Li Moying frowned when he heard that as he tried to recall but only felt dizziness in his head. If he were to continue recalling, the pain would become even more intense.

He was worried that if he carried on in this way, his illness would act up again so he could only give up trying as he said, "I... I can't remember anything about this! I can only remember what happened very long ago. The times when we started to get along with each other and several times when we argued and made up. But for things that happened later on.... I just can't recall it at all. Including the matter which you told me about you being in Northern Ice Fields, I totally have no impression at all. The minute I tried to think about it, my head would hurt like mad."

Huang Yueli was most afraid that his illness would act up and upon hearing that, she hurriedly said, "Alright then, don't think about it, please don't think about it! Do you know how scary you looked when your illness acted up yesterday? You seemed a lot more serious than previous few time and I was so worried that something would happen to you!"

Her little face was pale like sheet and that made Li Moying's heart extremely pained.

"Don't worry, nothing will happen to me." He gently held Huang Yueli's wrist, "Take a look, haven't I started to recall a bit of the past already? Perhaps the more intense my illness acts up, the faster it represents on the recovery of my memories so you don't need to be so anxious."

Chapter 1300: Reconciled (5)

Huang Yueli actually didn't believe in these kind of words because when Li Moying's illness acted up, not only did his head hurt badly, it was also accompanied with intense fluctuations of Profound Energy leaking out from his body. She had never seen anyone's Soul Detachment Illness with such a symptom!

But Li Moying wasn't willing to spare her any time to think as he comforted her, "That's alright, I know my own body conditions. I think as long as I recover all my memories, then my Soul Detachment Illness will recover without needing any medications. You really don't need to worry, I will also agree to seeing Liu Buyan."

Huang Yueli was obviously surprised because Li Moying had been resisting that for the longest time ever and even going into a cold war because of that to show his stand that he refused to budge!

Now when she had already decided to give up, in the end, Li Moying actually agreed to do a consultation?

But since he'd already said this, if she didn't agreed to it, she'd be the silly one.

Huang Yueli revealed a radiant smile and said, "Alright then we're set on this. Today I'll get someone to send the news over to Divine Doctor Liu, asking him to make a visit to the Sect.

Li Moying nodded his head, not saying a word.

By this timing, Liu Buyan had long left this place out of anger so if Huang Yueli was able to find him, it would be really absurd!

Furthermore, even if she could find him, there was a Liu Buyan ninety percent chance that Liu Buyan would not see him so by then the person who fell out with Huang Yueli would be Liu Buyan!

This move was called leading the misfortune to others, which meant to let others take the brunt of the losses on one's behalf by unscrupulous means. So for this role, it's better to leave it to his love rival to take up.

Li Moying schemed Liu Buyan with a peace of mind but while facing Huang Yueli, he revealed a deep smile.

“Alright, I’ll listen to you entirely, as long as you don’t continue quarrelling with me.”

Huang Yueli pouted as she replied unhappily, “Since when did I quarrel with you? It’s you who was unreasonable!”

Just as the two of them were acting intimately, Mo Er’s voice suddenly rang from outside the door.

“Young Sect Master, Third Miss, are you both awake?”

Li Moying had just leaned closed to Huang Yueli’s face as just as he was preparing to kiss her, in the end the two of them were just a distance of half an inch away, they were actually interrupted just like that!

Li Moying wasn’t able to take a bite of the fatty meat which was by his mouth and his mood became extremely irritable as his face sunk immediately.

“What are you howling about so early in the morning?” He replied in a bad mood.

Mo Er seemed to be shocked by his fierce tone as he paused for a moment before he started trembling in fear, “Master... Master, it’s not that I want to disturb the both of you, but.... that Young Master Luo is here early in the morning and had been waiting for the past hour in the guest hall. He looked very restless as though there’s something urgent so...”

Li Moying’s immediately creased tightly, “What’s that fellow here for? Haven’t I told him that you’re in closed door seclusion and asked him to come over in a few days’ time? Could something really have happened?”

Huang Yueli couldn’t help but laughed, “Yesterday when I went over to save you, I met him. He seemed as though he wanted me to help him refine some Profound Armaments so that’s why he’s so anxious. Yesterday I chased him away and asked him to come over today but in the end, he actually came by so early in the morning!”

Li Moying’s expression turned even uglier, “What on earth? You’re my fiancée, not his, what right does he have to have such specialised service?”

Especially when he interrupted their intimacy.

The two of them were in a cold war for several days and that represented that they hadn’t been intimate for a few days!

Huang Yueli laughed as she placated him, “Alright, alright, stop being so calculative with a child! No matter, I have ready made Profound Armaments for him so we’ll be able to settle this within a quarter of an hour.”
