Chapter 1351: Heard of the lovers' bath? (4)

This man was simply.. simply too sinister. When on earth had he entered the room?

Just as she was prepared to enter the bath, she had already locked the room before releasing Little Wang Cai out.

This man had suspiciously appeared here, he absolutely wasn't up to any good! Whereas she was still so silly to have not realised that, almost stripping all her clothes in front of him!

The more Huang Yueli thought, the more stuffed she felt as she shot him a dissatisfied look while retorting angrily, "Get out now!"

Li Moying immediately put on a grieved expression, "You... How could you be like this, tearing the bridge apart after you've crossed it? Earlier when you used me, why didn't you ask me to get out?"

Huang Yueli was so angry that she stomp her feet, "You still dare to argue irrationally! Have I asked you to come in or not?"

Li Moying appeared even more aggrieved, "I just heard you and Little Wang Cai arguing so I came in to help you? You really don't appreciate a good person's heart! And you actually act so fiercely towards me! Aren't you a little too violent towards your fiancé?"

"I... violent??" Huang Yueli's eyes turned wide, looking at him in disbelief as she really imagined that this man's shamelessness had once again broken a new record to even be able to turn black into white.

Furthermore, what's more nonsensical about this was when she saw him frowning slightly with the clear and gloomy eyes, even though she knew he was pretending, she actually felt a slight heartache for him??

Really seen a living ghost!

Huang Yueli pushed his chest hard, "Alright, now that you've already helped, I don't need you already so you can retire yourself now!"

She used a warning expression while looking at this man.

Li Moying saw that she was going to fly into a rage and knew that he couldn't continue to tease her so he could only rub his nose as he awkwardly turned around to leave the room.

What a pity. Seeing that this young lass was in a daze today, he thought he would be able to see a beauty getting out of a shower!

Huang Yueli shut the door tight as she placed her ear on the door listening for quite a while to ascertain that there weren't any movements outside before returning to the bathtub, then removing her clothes and jumping right in.

The medicinal bath was boiling hot as usual. Furthermore as Little Phoenix advanced, the flame became even more intense.

Huang already felt her skin being burnt off a layer soon after she just stepped into the medicinal bath.

"Ssss—" She drew in a mouthful of cold air.

This feeling was just too painful and it was any other ordinary practitioner, they would probably not even be able to stay for one breath's time while screaming to get out.

However, Huang Yueli knew clearly that the more painful it was, the more she was able to sharpen herself and the greater possibility that she could raise her own ability. Only those who could face the problem directly, were able to stand out, becoming one of the real strong top exponents!

She hurriedly held her breath as she congealed her senses, trying to bear with the pain as she moaned, forcing herself to quieten down her heart while working on the cultivation incantation recorded accordingly in <<Nine Phoenix Transformations>>, operating the cultivation method.

After the Profound Energy in her body went round her meridians for three to four cycles, the fire attributed energy merged with her and she gradually became more and more relaxed.....

Later on, she totally couldn't feel the scorching heat from the medicine bath. She felt as though she was lying in a warm current as her entire body completely extended out while fire attributed energy continuously surged into her body.

The room was extremely quiet as Huang Yueli silently leaned against the side of the bathtub with her eyes tightly shut. Her entire body was devoted to cultivation as she could not sense the situation in the outside world.

So she didn't know that in the corner of the room, unknowing when Li Moying's figure appeared once again.

He didn't let out any sound, only concentrating his gaze on the stunning young lady lying in the bathtub.

He had once again entered the room not because he harboured any evil intentions. Actually after he was chased away by Huang Yueli earlier, he didn't want to affect her cultivation hence he silently stood guard outside the door.

However when Huang Yueli jumped into the bathtub, she suddenly gave off some irrepressible moans which made him so uptight that he almost charged right in!

After entering the room, Li Moying started to cool down slightly.

Soaking in a medicinal bath which was filled with fire attributed high grade medicinal herbs, it would be a wonder if it didn't hurt like hell and this was part of the process which Huang Yueli had to go through for advancement.

He understood the logic very well but upon seeing Huang Yueli being in such a painful state, his heart was twitching as he basically used up all his self-control before he managed to stop himself from dragging her out!

Luckily, about one hour ago, Huang Yueli started to relax and no longer moaned as her forehead also started to loosen.

This short hour to Li Moying, seemed as though an entire year had gone past...

Li Moying heaved a sigh of relief but he didn't nudge at all, unwilling to let Huang Yueli leave his sight. Even though he knew that Huang Yueli was filled with experience for matters related to advancement and that prescription of the medicinal bath from God Realm was extremely safe, but he still felt uneasy if he didn't witness it with his own eyes.

Several hours went by and the sky started to darken. Night fell and gradually turned bright.

It was until the second day's wee hours in the morning when Huang Yueli suddenly gave out a low moan, "Wu...."

Li Moying's forehead creased as he shot upwards to her, his pitch black eyes filled with worry.

"Li'er, are you alright?"

The minute he got closer, he realised that other than her face turning slightly red, there wasn't anything odd with Huang Yueli so he could finally set his heart slightly at ease.

By this time, Huang Yueli actually didn't feel any pain.

Following the absorption of the fire attributed energy in the medicinal bath being taken in by her, the Profound Energy in her body grew abundant and more powerful as the speed of the Profound Energy going round her meridians getting faster and faster, to the point of starting to gush towards her Dantian!

Huang Yueli quickly realised that this was.... the premonition of advancement!

The profound energy in her body was already so abundant to a dangerous point and as long as she followed the flow and worked a little harder, there was a huge possibility that she could successfully advance to the fifth stage realm!

Entering the fifth stage realm, her potential would once again be upgraded and there would be another chance to have a complete change in her body structure!

Following the increase of cultivation, the difficulty of breaking through a huge realm gets harder and harder and ninety nine percent of practitioners.... Weren't able to enter the door of the fifth stage realm!

But to Huang Yueli, the fifth stage realm was just right before her eyes. She just needed to stretch out her hands to reach it!

Everything had been so smooth as the temptation was so strong, but Huang Yueli frowned and found back her rationality, curbing the temptation to immediately advance!

She knew that her foundation wasn't stable enough so this time.... It wasn't a good time for her to advance!

When she broke through to the fourth stage realm, it was just too fast. And now it's just been a month's time and she's about to advance into the fifth stage realm, then her foundation would become more and more unstable.

It was a huge taboo in terms of non-stability in a practitioner's cultivation.

If one couldn't stabilise his cultivation properly and merely just pursued the speed of advancing, then his actual ability as compared to same stage practitioners would be heavens apart!

This way, no matter how high his cultivation was, it was merely an illusion as he didn't have the compatible ability to go with.

Huang Yueli knew this point deeply so she held her breath as she congealed her senses, gathering all the power that she had, not to advance but to curb herself from the urge to advance!

If any outsider were to see this, they would absolutely be shocked beyond words!

Because to ordinary practitioners, it was their dream to be able to advance as too many of them had tried all the ways they had but they still weren't able to step over to the fifth stage realm for their entire lives!

Whereas for Huang Yueli? She actually easily advanced and so swiftly. But as ironically.... she didn't want to advance at all!

But, wanting to advance was difficult, not wanting to advance wasn't an easy task to achieve as well.

Huang Yueli tried her best to control the surging profound energy within her body and risked her risk to suppress the energy in her dantian, thinking to control it during the critical state of advancement.

But the profound energy in her body was overflowing with abundance and wasn't something which she could control with her own energy. Even though she had already exhausted all her energy but the speed of the flow of the profound energy slightly decreased for a moment but immediately after that, it started to strike her dantian again.

Once and again, the energy continued to grow stronger!

Huang Yueli's little face had already flushed red as sweat started to drip down profusely. The scorching pain in her chest seemed as though it was going to explode immediately!

But all these were in vain.....

At the present moment, the profound energy in her body had already been led into a continuously accumulating cycle and wasn't at a state where she could stop anytime she wanted to.... she was almost certain that she would be able to advance successfully this time round.

Huang Yueli clenched her teeth tightly as she stubbornly refused to give up!

Originally, different practitioners' profound energy were incompatible with one another and when other practitioners' profound energy flows into their body, it would meet with the body's basic instinct to resist.

But, Huang Yueli only felt slightly uncomfortable while this burst of profound energy initially entered her body. Following that, she seemed to feel a familiar and assured feeling as the external profound energy slowly seeped into her body. Not only did it made her felt uncomfortable, instead it made her scorching hot body slowly loosened up.

"Li'er, follow the direction that I'm leading to move your profound energy."

Right then, Huang Yueli's attention was placed totally on her own profound energy and meridians so her brain practically had no spare space to think about who the man behind her was.

She only felt instinctively that the voice of the owner made her extremely, extremely assured so she immediately followed his instructions.

Li Moying sensed her submission and immediately laughed softly, "So obedient. Now listen to my instruction, slowly loosen up.... don't be overly anxious, don't be afraid, just listen to me..."

Powerful profound energy continued to surge inwards but it didn't make Huang Yueli feel invaded or offended.

Her profound energy and Li Moying's mixed together as it was led by him, slowly recovering to a peaceful state.

Chapter 1354: Heard of the lovers' bath? (7)

It was after a very long time before Huang Yueli sensed that the urge to advance had completely disappeared. Besides that, under the use of the medicinal bath, the profound energy in her body solidified and became purer as there was an obvious increase in her own ability.

She finally heaved a long sigh as her long lashes fluttered slightly, slowly opening her eyes.

However, the minute she opened her eyes, the scene she saw gave her a huge shock!

Huang Yueli's eyes grew wide as she cried out sharply, "You.... how did you... how come you're here, you're so shameless ahhhhh—!!!"

In front of her eyes was an extremely seductive picture of a handsome male coming out from the bath.

Li Moying showed off his robust chest as he leaned against the bathtub. He was just sitting right behind her as water droplets dripped down from his collarbone, and dripping along his fair skin, across his chest and against that perfectly sculpted abdominal muscles, lastly....

Huang Yueli's gaze followed all the way down only to realise that Li Moying's lower part of his body was soaked in the water and she couldn't see anything beyond that...

Just as she was in a daze, Li Moying suddenly laughed, "Li'er, what are you looking at? The expression on your face looks so horny, and so disappointed... do you want me to stand up so that you can take a close look?"

Huang Yueli's face instantly flushed red as though she was about to run a fever.

"You.... you.... I.... I don't want to see it!" Usually sharp-tongued, she suddenly realised that she wasn't able to say a word now.

Li Moying intentionally leaned closed towards her as he intentionally suppressed his tone, while his voice bore an obvious seductiveness.

"What's the matter? Really don't want to take a look? I guarantee.... You will like what you see..."

Saying that, his body started to move upwards, as though he was about to stand up.

Huang Yueli grew anxious as she grabbed his arm, "You.... are not allowed to stand up!"

Li Moying's vision followed downwards from her slender hand. Huang Yueli too subconsciously lowered her head and went into a pause as she suddenly realised that while soaking herself in the bathtub, she had stripped off completely!

Furthermore, the bathtub's water was originally full but after she had absorbed about ninety percent of the energy, the amount of water greatly decreased and now, the water in the tub was only enough to cover the position of her lower abdominal.

Which meant to say, anything above her , was totally.... exposed....

She had been seen cleanly by this shameless man!

No wonder the gaze he gave her earlier was so ambiguous and had even shamelessly bit her back saying about her expression??

Ah ah ah, where on earth had this scummy pervert popped out from!

Hearing the man giving off soft laughter once again, Huang Yueli was so angry that her face turned green as she stared at him in anger, "How on earth did you come in. When I was soaking the medicinal bath, I had obviously made you leave! You actually ran in by yourself again? You.... You actually peep on young ladies bathing?? Do you even have a baseline of a human?"

Huang Yueli saw his regretful look and almost jumped up in anger. Luckily she recalled that she wasn't wearing anything on her lower half of her body so she tolerated the urge to do so.

Li Moying admired her kinky, angry and embarrassed expression as he aside her in a lazy manner, "Li'er you cannot not see a good person's heart! You actually framed me in this way? You're my fiancée so looking at you is open and upright. Haven't you heard of the lovers' bath?"

Huang Yueli's head almost started to smoke!

"What are you saying..... lo.... Lovers' ..."

"Lovers' bath." Li Moying helped his fiancée, who was suddenly stuttering, completed her sentence out of goodwill.

"Lover's bath your head!" Huang Yueli completely turned her embarrassment into anger, "You, you, you.... quickly get out!"

She pushed Li Moying's chest in frustration as she tugged and dragged him, trying to whisk him out but the man's body was strong and well built and his cultivation was far above hers so she couldn't move him at all.

Overwhelmed with shame and rage, her right rose rose up as a burst of scorching fire glint congealed in her palm.

Li Moying was shocked as well. Although his cultivation was very high and there wasn't anything which Huang Yueli could really do to him, but she still had a genuine deviant flame in her hands and that was enough to cause a certain amount of damage to him.

At such a close distance, he could neither hide nor strike back so if he was badly bruised by this young lass and his subordinates saw it, then he would really not be able to lift his head up high in the household anymore!

He hurriedly pulled onto Huang Yueli's slender wrist as he hastily explained, Li'er, don't be agitated, you've really misunderstood! When you made me go out earlier, I really went out and had been standing guard outside the door. But you kept moaning in the middle of the night from your room and I was worried if you'd run into an accident in the middle of your cultivation so I ran in."

"Ah..."

She suddenly recalled that when she almost advanced, her entire body felt terrible and just when she thought that she was unable to control herself, in the end...

Li Moying gave an innocent and pitiful expression, "So do you understand it now? When I entered the room, you looked as though you were about to advance but you don't seem to be able to control it properly so I had to give you a hand. But your cultivation method is just too overbearing, so much that even for me, it wasn't easy to suppress your profound energy. In order to help you in a better way, I had no choice but to jump into the bathtub... you know it best, while passing on the energy, the fastest way would be through skin to skin contact."

"In the end, whoever knew that while you were working up your energy, you were not clear minded and sensing that my profound energy could lower the fire in you, you kept closing in to me and even touched me everything. I'm already so pitiful and yet still being maligned by you in this way!"

He said it in an extremely aggrieved way as though he was an upright young man, and it was all due to the circumstances which led to him being molested by a masher.

Heaven knew that when Huang Yueli closed in to him, how excited he was and on the first timing, he wanted to lie flat to allow her to tease him.

Li Moying pointed to his own shoulder, "Did you see this, this set of teeth marks was left by you yesterday night!"

Huang Yueli's gaze moved and she indeed saw two rows of neat teeth marks on Li Moying's well-built shoulders, and in fact it was bleeding...

"Alright, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have maligned you. Yesterday.... Yesterday thank you for helping me. If it hadn't been for you, I'd definitely have to advance!"

Huang Yueli blinked, "Are you serious? You're really angry?"

Chapter 1356: Heard of the lovers' bath? (9)

Li Moying naturally wouldn't put on airs over such a small matter with his little fox but this was a good chance to abduct this young lass so if he didn't grab it properly, then he would change his surname from Li to others!

Thinking of this, his face became even more arrogantly pampered.

"Would I even dare to be angry at you? Anyway I am a man who harbours ill intentions so whatever I do is to take advantage of you!"

"Umm, I don't mean it in that way!"

Huang Yueli couldn't tell the jocosity in his eyes and upon hearing him say that, she immediately started to get anxious.

She had already forgotten the fact that she had nothing on and pounced over to him, hugging his waist and raising her head to look at him from below with twinkling in her watery big eyes, attempting to act cute to get past this.

"I absolutely don't mean this. In my heart, Li Moying is the best man!"

She was just short of lifting her fingers, vowing to heavens to prove her loyalty.

Li Moying lowered his head and looked at her in the eye. Hearing her say such romantic words, actually Li Moying wanted to say that he had already forgiven her, but....

Huang Yueli met a pair of star studded jet black eyes when she suddenly felt something was amiss. After a moment later, she realised that her lower body seemed to be pressing against a rock hard thing....

T..Th..This... surely it wasn't the thing she was thinking about right?

This beast was actually turned on??

Huang Yueli's expression changed instantly as she simultaneously realised that this man harboured ill intentions, purposely tricking her.

Li Moying had realised that he had gone overboard and the sweat on his forehead started to drip down. But he felt as though he was treated unjustly. Things had developed to this stage wasn't entirely his fault. It was Li'er who had pounced over by herself and kept rubbing him up so as a normal man, how was it possible that he had no reaction at all?

However, at this juncture, his little fox was already seething with anger so whatever he explained was of no use...

In the silent dawn, Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master's mansion suddenly rang a young lady's crisp and angry howl!

A few Shadow Guards had already stood guard near their Master's bedroom for an entire night and were about to fall asleep.

In order not to disturb their Master and future Mistress from being intimate, they had intentionally hid themselves far, far away, just in case they heard something which they shouldn't hear.

Now, when this ear deafening howl rang, it instantly woke everyone up in shock, as they gazed shockingly towards the door of the master bedroom.

Immediately following that, they saw a scene which they would never forget in their entire lives!

A loud "Bam" resounded as the master bedroom's door was kicked open and their mighty, awe-inspiring Master was chased out of the bedroom!

Not only that, he had nothing on him, not even a pair of pants as he was walking around with his “bird” in the wee hours of the morning, which was simply an eyesore.

All the shadow guards flashed a thought across their minds: Master had been kicked down from Third Miss’ bed??

However, although they thought about it secretly, no one dared to say it out. They didn’t even dare to raise their lips a little, afraid that Li Moying would vent his anger on them!

One needed to know that this Master of theirs was naturally overbearing and although he didn’t have any face or skin in front of Third Miss, but that was only limited to Third Miss alone!

Anyone else who dared to challenge his authority would die an extremely horrible death.

Actually, it wasn’t just the Shadow Guards who were feeling embarrassed. Li Moying himself was feeling the most embarrassed!

He had not succeeded in coaxing his fiancée into throwing herself at him, he had actually been thrown out by her. Such an embarrassing matter actually fell on him. If it was one year ago, he absolutely would not believe this but now, he felt that this was probably just the beginning.....

When Li Moying was outside the door, he started to cool down as his icy cold glance shot past that row of shadow guards who hung their heads low.

Very good, none of them dared to laugh.

“Your subordinate is here!” Mo Er was already rolling around the ground laughing in his heart but his face still showed a respectful expression as he lowered his brows and eyes while responding to him.

“Go get me a set of clothes.....”

He hadn’t finished his words when another “Pong” sound was heard and the bedroom door opened once again.

This time, a set of dark gold long robe was thrown out of the door, which was exactly what Li Moying wore the night before.

The edge of Li Moying’s brows twitched as he picked up his clothes and swiftly got dressed. Without even buttoning it properly, he turned around to knock the door.

“Li’er, open the door. I guarantee that I won’t ughh, do that thing, so will you please don’t be angry.”

Huang Yueli replied to him icily, “I want to grab time to cultivate so don’t you come and disturb me!”

He pushed the door hard but the door refused to budge.

Li Moying deeply felt that having an armament master who specialised in mechanisms as a fiancée was really a tough matter.....

He called out for her a few more times but Huang Yueli totally ignored him.

He thought about it for a moment and knew that Huang Yueli was still angry and didn't want to bother about him. At the same time she had just completed her medicinal bath and was really in need of cultivation.....

Huang Yueli spent a total of three days in this time's closed door cultivation and Li Moying wandered around for three days, being an abandoned grudging man for three days.

It was until the morning of the arena tournament when Huang Yueli suddenly opened the door, officially coming out of her closed door cultivation!

The minute Huang Yueli stepped out of the door, she saw Li Moying standing in front of the room and his hand had already raised to his chest level. From the looks of it, he was prepared to knock on the door but was still hesitating to do so.

"Li'er you're finally out. I thought you're so angry that you don't even want to take part in the arena tournament anymore!"

Huang Yueli gave a cold humpf, "I'm the one who wanted to take part in the arena tournament and it had nothing to do with you. Why should I not take part in it because of you?"

Li Moying was shot back by her saying as he couldn't say a single word.

Because he realised that his little fox was extremely vengeful and until now, she still wasn't appeased yet....

He could only continue to coax her patiently, "I really am just cracking a joke with you. If you're not happy, then I won't do this to tease you ever again, please stop being angry?"

Huang Yueli raised her chin, "We'll see your future performance then!"

Saying that, she raised her foot to step out of the door.

Li Moying hurriedly chased up to her as he held her hand.

No matter how Huang Yueli tried, she couldn't shake him off so eventually he just allowed her to hold on to her hand.

Li Moying held her on tightly, worried that his Li'er would run off so he tried all ways and means to coax her to make her happy.

He hadn't realised that just as Huang Yueli turned her head, a non-existent smile was already showing on her lips

Chapter 1358: Boosting with self-confidence (1)

Hmph, who asked this man to pretend to be angry, cheating her to throw herself into his arms!

Then she could also pretend to be angry, cheating him to be meek and subservient!

The two of them walked hand in hand as they headed towards the public square where the arena tournament was held.

When this couple appeared, it attracted various envious and jealous glared.

There were too many young ladies who liked Li Moying whereas after that day's banquet, there were also plenty of young men who secretly admired Huang Yueli.

Everyone's eyes fell onto their tightly clasped hands.

There was no denial that when Li Moying and Huang Yueli walked together, they were simply too compatible. No matter if it was in terms of looks, temperament or innate talent, they seemed to be a pair made in heaven making everyone jealous but there was no choice but to admit that they themselves weren't worthy of this pair!

But those inferiority thoughts were only from those ordinary people.

To self-professed geniuses like Murong Fei or Leng Feng Yi, other than an eye-piercing scene, it was just too eye-piercing! They couldn't wait to replace the other party immediately!

As Young Sect Master, Li Moying's seat was at the stage, at a striking position. Furthermore, as he wasn't required to take part today, it added a detached feel.

This time, someone had already arranged another joint seat next to his, apparently for Huang Yueli.

Li Moying raised his head and saw this arrangement as he silently nodded his head, his mood improving by quite a lot. This meant that he and Li'er had already been recognised by the masses, an official couple!

He held Huang Yueli's hand as they walked through the arena tournament's competition grounds, walking up the stage.

Along the way, both of them walked past Murong Fei.

At this moment, Murong Fei was surrounded by a large crowd of direct disciples as everyone wasted no effort in fawning on her.

"Isn't that so? Eldest Young Miss's surrounding Profound Energy is abundant, apparently your ability has reached another notch higher again!"

Murong Fei displayed an unconcealable complacent look as she intentionally said reservedly, "For the Sect's glory, to gain the quota for everyone to enter the mystic region, I have been cultivating hard for the past few days until I've forgotten to eat or sleep! Finally I had successfully advanced last night, from sixth stage realm first level into sixth stage realm second level!"

"Wow! Sixth stage realm second level! Eldest Young Miss hasn't even reached eighteen years old and already at sixth stage realm second level!"

"Wasn't it said that after the sixth stage realm, it was extremely difficult to advance for each small realm. Really didn't expect Eldest Young Miss to improve yet again in such a short time!"

"This is really great. Eldest Young Miss is so talented, able to upgrade so quickly. No matter how many abilities Green Cloud Sect's people have, how could they be compared with you? Today they'd definitely be beaten pants down!"

"That's right, today's arena tournament's judges comes from South Sky Regions' various large Sect's elders or top exponents. After today, Eldest Young Miss's name will have spread throughout the entire South Sky Region!"

Murong Fei pretended to stop them from talking, "Stop spouting nonsense. Green Cloud Sect is an established large Sect and their abilities cannot be underestimated. I don't dare to say that I will definitely win in today's arena tournament."

Although she said that, but whoever saw the smile on her face would tell that she was full of confidence, feeling that this time's arena champion was already in her bag!

Just as Murong Fei was riding high, she suddenly saw Li Moying walking over.

The moment she saw Li Moying, her senses jolted as she intentionally overlooked Huang Yueli who was beside him.

Chapter 1359: Boosting with self-confidence (2)

"Eldest Senior Brother..."

She greeted him proactively but Li Moying didn't even bother to glance at her from the side of his eyes, totally treating her like air as he directly walked around her.

Murong Fei stood on the spot awkwardly, so embarrassed that she was put on the spot!

How could this be possible? Murong Fei's eyes grew wide as she simply could not believe that such a thing happened!

From what she thought, today was the important day where she fought for glory for the Sect. So even if Li Moying usually didn't want to see her, under today's occasion, he would definitely give her some face and to encourage her.

After all if she didn't show her potential to the fullest, the entire Celestial Light Sect would be affected!

However, Li Moying persisted in his old ways, without any concern for this at all!

Murong Fei's gaze shot towards the young lady who was standing beside Li Moying, as her eyes totally sunk into gloominess.

Eldest Senior Brother wasn't someone who didn't know how to act properly. In the past when he hadn't met Huang Yueli, he would at least give her some face. For occasions like this, he would act out the part of a Senior Brother and never been so cold to this stage?

So all of these were probably instigated by that little slut beside him! It was because of her who used her foxy ways to seduce Eldest Senior Brother, and even blowing pillow wind in front of Eldest Senior Brother for this to have happened!

The more Murong Fei thought, the angrier she thought as her hands clenched into fists.

Murong De was on the far end of the stage and had been noticing the situation here. On seeing her expression changing, he hurriedly called out, "Fei'er, the competition's right about to start. Quickly return to your own seat and stop blocking the way."

Murong Fei then regained her senses as she sat back to her seat, but she was still feeling infuriated in her heart.

Which of the surrounding direct disciples didn't know what the situation was?

Originally they should have followed suit to condemn Murong Fei's love rival, to give her encouragement but they had all seen how much Li Moying pampered his fiancée in the past few days. So no one dared to say a single bad thing about Huang Yueli, just in case it falls into Li Moying's ears, they would die without a burial ground!

The atmosphere instantly turned stiff.

It was after some time later when someone spoke out, "Third Junior Sister, what are you doing? The competition hasn't even started and if your emotions are affected by some unrelated person, what will you do if you act out of your normal self at the arena tournament?"

Murong Fei turned her head back and saw Li Lingchuan as she spoke back in an upset manner, "Second Senior Brother, you've seen it for yourself! Eldest Senior Brother actually didn't give me any face for that little slut! If he doesn't even care about the result of the arena tournament, then why should I bother?"

Even Li Lingchuan had been injured by Li Moying at the banquet, although he had taken several high grade medicinal pills, but his recovery still took a lot of time.

Until now, he had to rely on the clutch as he limped along the way, not to mention crossing hands with someone at the tournament.

Even so, he held out in spite of difficulties to the scene, not to see Murong Fei's embarrassing look.

He hurriedly spoke out, "Third Junior Sister, how could you think in this way? Think about it, why does Eldest Senior Brother like that wretched lass so much? Wasn't it because she was the genius Armament Master whom President Hu values so much? But you are not any worse off than her. Your cultivational talent is especially strong. An eight grade innate talented female practitioner, there aren't many in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!"

"So what if I'm a genius? Eldest Senior Brother only had that little slut in his eyes and totally couldn't see my innate talent and potential!" Murong Fei gritted her teeth as she said that.

Li Lingchuan said, "That's why you must grab the opportunity today! This is a chance which Heavens had given to you. As long as you're able to display your outstanding ability at the arena tournament stage today, sweeping away all the other opponents, it would definitely make Eldest Senior Brother see you in new light! Think about that, that wretched lass is an Armament Master so in terms of cultivation she definitely doesn't have that much innate talent than you so how much common topics would they have together? By then, Eldest Senior Brother would surely feel.... That you and him are more compatible!"

Murong Fei's eyes started to light up upon hearing his explanation.

"Second Senior Brother, you treat me the best! What you say is correct, I must perform properly today and when Eldest Senior Brother regrets it and comes together with him, I will viciously humiliate that little slut!"

Li Lingchuan hurriedly added, "You're not right in doing that. When Eldest Senior Brother regrets it and you get together with him, if you let him get you so easily, how would he know how to cherish you? So even if Eldest Senior Brother sees you in a new light, you cannot agree to him readily!"

Murong Fei was stunned, not expecting him to say that at all. But upon careful thought, she felt that it really seemed reasonable.....

She questioned puzzledly, "Then... then what should I do? What should I do to make Eldest Senior Brother value me?"

Li Lingchuan saw her look which earnestly begged him for his teaching and knew that she was already hooked as he couldn't help but reveal a deep smile.

"Actually it's all very simple. After Eldest Senior Brother regrets it, the more you cannot agree with him. Moreover, you must get together with someone else, in this way it would make him have a rude awakening! This will then make him come chase after you!"

When Murong Fei heard that, she frowned, "How would that do? I take no interest in the other man so even if it was just a pretence to get together with them, I also can't take it! Just looking at their pug look makes me disgusted that I want to throw up!"

Li Lingchuan heard that and laughed coldly in his heart.

This eldest young miss had really been spoiled rotten, totally not knowing anything about social snobbery. Other people admired her but she treated them as dogs, insisting on sticking onto the cold Li Moying. No wonder she was hurt all over!

Today's outcome was something that she asked for, so she couldn't blame him for scheming on her.

Li Lingchuan replied, "This you don't need to worry, I can help you! When Eldest Senior Brother regrets it, just tell him that you're with me and I will coordinate with you to make him have a rude awakening! Surely you don't feel that your Second Senior Brother is repulsive right?"

Murong Fei went blank for a moment, totally not sensing that Li Lingchuan was up to no good.

She gave a joyous look, "Second Senior Brother, you're willing to help me? You're the best! I'll all depend on you then!"

Li Lingchuan nodded, "Hurry back to prepare for the competition, you cannot lose to anyone at the arena tournament!"

"How could that be possible? Without Eldest Senior Brother and that Leng Yi Feng, an eighth grade talent like me is hard to come by so I don't believe that Green Cloud Sect can find someone who can match up to me!"

Murong Fei's self-confidence was already boosting, thinking that later on she could make Eldest Senior Brother regret it, falling below her feet made her extremely excited.

She didn't know that Li Lingchuan's lips had already revealed a chilly smile.

This ignorant woman really thought that Li Moying was that kind of capricious scum male? That kind of overbearing man, to be frank, totally didn't care what innate talent his woman had. If he liked her, that meant that he liked her!

But he was thankful for Murong Fei's ignorance, giving him the chance to cheat the Sect Master's daughter into his hands so easily.
