

Weaponsmith 1391

Chapter 1391: Close call (4)

A loud bam was heard and everyone present had a big shock as they turned back in surprise.

In the end, they saw Green Cloud Sect's eldest disciple Leng Yi Feng being sent flying just by one word from Li Moying as he directly rolled down from the high stage.

Momentarily, everyone was tongue tied.

Leng Yi Feng got up in a dishevelled state only to realise that he hadn't suffered any injury.

But he detected various mixtures of emotions from his surroundings, ranging from shock, ridicule and sarcastic glares which made his face turn fiery red, as though he had been given a tight slap on the face!

Apparently, Li Moying indeed couldn't injure him too heavily due to the current occasion.

But he intentionally created such a loud sound so that everyone could see himself being sent flying by Li Moying with the intention to humiliate him!

Li Moying was a person who was conscious of his own status and he had extremely strong pride. By doing this, it was much worse than heavily injuring him, which made Leng Yi Feng unable to accept it!

Cui Yuan Shan and Murong De were also attracted by the loud sound as they turned around and saw this scene.

Both of them went into a daze but Murong De quickly realised what had happened as he laughed, "Brother Cui, looks like the battle on the arena has dragged on for too long and the other disciples were all getting impatient so they couldn't help but started to spar outside the stage. Sigh, this disciple of mine is just too straight and doesn't know how to be gentler. Although Mister Leng is Green Cloud Sect's eldest disciple but his potential versus Li Moying's was just too huge, he should have taken care of your disciple's reputation?"

Cui Yuan Shan's face turned black like ink.

This fellow was just too embarrassing!

On stage was a sixth stage realm seventh level disciple who couldn't take down a fourth stage realm outer disciple which was embarrassing enough. Now Leng Yi Feng actually came up with such a wicked idea!

Cui Yuan Shan berated furiously, "Yi Feng, why did you run over to Young Sect Master Li's side for no good reason? Get back to your own seat right now!"

Leng Yi Feng was shouted at by his Master and felt that all his face was all thrown away.

He lowered his head not daring to look at other people's gazes as he gloomily turned around and left.

Right at this moment, his hatred and jealousy towards Li Moying rose and at the same time ascertained that Li Moying was so cold blooded so he must make Huang Yueli see through his real face!

This little episode only attracted the crowd's short attention for a few seconds.

Very soon, everyone's attention went back to the arena.

Right now, Huang Yueli had already reached an extremely dangerous state, just one step away from failure!

The traces of blood on her body almost soaked her entire clothing red and the arena stage's floor were full of little droplets of blood which came from her.

Her speed was much slower than before and at this moment, one didn't require too high of a cultivation level to see her movements clearly.

But, she was still holding on.

Fang Shaoning on the other hand appeared extremely frustrated. Although he had also lost a lot of blood resulting in the depletion of his energy but he still forcefully held on as he used all his might to pursue Huang Yueli. Strike after strike, with no signs of loosening up at all.

As he pursued her, he kept shouting, "Bai Ruoli, you'd better admit defeat! You're already injured so severely so even if you don't admit defeat voluntarily, there's no way that you can win! If you continue on like this, if I accidentally slip up causing you an untreatable serious injury then you'd not gain any advantage at all!"

Huang Yueli pursed her lips rightly. Her lips had turned palely white because of the huge loss in blood.

She didn't respond to him because if she did, her speed would drop another notch!

Chapter 1392: Close call (5)

Seeing that Huang Yueli refused to give up, Fang Shaoning hastened the speed of his attack.

In this way, Huang Yueli was in a precarious situation once again and there were a few times when she was almost sent flying.

Below the stage, the number of voices which urged her to give up grew louder and louder. There were many Green Cloud Sect's disciples who were touched by her and didn't want to see her being tortured any further.

However, Huang Yueli clenched her teeth as she refused to say a single word of defeat!

Just at this moment, she suddenly saw Fang Shaoning's movements take a sudden halt and subsequently, the expression on his face changed abruptly as the speed of his pursuit suddenly slowed down.

While Huang Yueli was escaping, she had been keeping watch on Fang Shaoning's movements from the corner of her eye. Seeing him stop, she abruptly turned and actually charged right towards him!

"What's this situation? What's Bai Ruoli trying to do?"

"Is she looking for death? Why did she run back for?"

“That’s right, Fang Shaoning’s speed suddenly became slow and instead of grasping time to escape, she actually turned back??”

Amidst the crowd’s shocked gazes, Huang Yueli was already displaying her footwork as she flew speedily towards the front of Fang Shaoning.

Her feet totally didn’t stop as a cold blaze sparked in her hand and several flying daggers were shot out from her hands, aiming towards Fang Shaoning’s several main vitals, flying straight towards him!

Fang Shaoning had not expected her to have the guts to turn back and without even a single bit of hesitation, she just struck out like that!

His reaction was slower than usual as he couldn’t evade in time and with a “whoosh” sound, he was struck by two daggers!

“You.... you actually....”

Sharp and thin flying daggers flew past Fang Shaoning’s shoulder and the expression on his face was extremely shocked, giving an annoyed look.

“Bai Ruoli, you are really something! Today is the second time you’ve hurt me! So, you don’t only know how to escape, you also know how to face the battle upfront? But this is the end for you. Based on your earlier speed, you’re destined to be unable to escape!”

His embarrassment turned into rage as he shot up like an arrow trying to grab Huang Yueli.

However, Huang Yueli was prepared as she gave a cold laugh, “Really? I’ve heard you say that several times today but unfortunately... I think you have no more chances!”

Saying that, she flew backwards to retreat, easily evading him.

The two of them continued with one pursuing and the other escaping. On the surface it looked as though it wasn’t any different from earlier but very soon, those sharp eyed spectators realised the difference.

“Strange, why do I have a feeling that Fang Shaoning’s speed.... Seemed to have turned slower?”

“If you don’t say it I haven’t noticed at all. But now that you mentioned this... that’s right, Fang Shaoning’s speed is much slower than before! Before this, Bai Ruoli was about to be chased up by him but now, he actually couldn’t reach Bai Ruoli at all?”

“Right! Bai Ruoli’s speed seemed to become a little faster but Fang Shaoning’s speed had obviously decreased! This... what actually happened? Was it because he was hit by Bai Ruoli earlier? But he was hit because of the decrease in his speed isn’t it? What happened during that moment?”

Since the bystanders were able to discover that something was wrong with Fang Shaoning, what more about Fang Shaoning himself, who naturally understood the real reason for his own difficulty!

This was all because his state of maniacization could only hold on for a mere two hour duration. The minute he exceeded that time frame, his cultivation would fall back, it would even fall back much lower than his normal cultivation!

Earlier the reason for his sudden halt was because the time limit of his maniacization was up.

Chapter 1393: Close call (6)

When it's time for his state of maniacization to end, it meant that his condition at that time was at its weakest.

This moment, the Profound Energy in his meridians suddenly underwent an intense change as his entire body was hurting and he had no way to continue pursuing her. It was entirely based on his strong determination which was why he had not fallen down yet, making a fool out of himself!

Earlier, Fang Shaoning was rather hasty as he wanted to take the opportunity before his state of maniacization ended, to push Huang Yueli off the arena or to make her admit defeat!

The result was this young lass actually didn't take both carrot or stick. She was like a slippery eel, totally unable to catch hold of!

What made Fang Shaoning even shocked and furious was Huang Yueli's eyes were so sharp, and she was so good at grabbing opportunities. Just as he was in the changing state where he was at his weakest, she suddenly gave him a heavy blow!

Don't think that Huang Yueli had been struck ten over injuries and lost quite an amount of blood. She was especially apt at the quintessential of evasion and attack, so none of her injury were at her vital points.

But Fang Shaoning was different. He had suffered three slashes, all of which were meticulously stabbed at an artful angle and the position she chose was extremely precise, which would cause a certain amount of damage towards his arteries!

So Fang Shaoning's current situation was extremely bad and as time dragged on further, the after effects of his maniacization became obvious.

He had no other choice except to grab hold of Huang Yueli right now to end the battle!

But Fang Shaoning wasn't the least worried towards gaining victory.

After all, even if he wasn't in the state of maniacization, he was at least a sixth stage realm practitioner. So even if his ability fell backwards, he would at least be on the equivalence of a fifth stage realm eighth level practitioner. Just based on this kind of potential, taking care of a fourth stage realm young lass was more than enough wasn't it?

But reality and his expectations were extremely different.

Earlier Huang Yueli who seemed to be staggering had suddenly tuned up her speed and he totally could not catch up to her!

Fang Shaoning was both anxious and angry as he shouted loudly, "Bai Ruoli, ever since you came up the arena stage, you've been escaping. Is this even considered as a challenger? Aren't you just wasting everyone's time? If you really have the ability then stop running and let's fight to the end!"

His shout was purely to vent his anger so he totally hadn't expected Huang Yueli to really stop.

However when Huang Yueli heard that, she actually halted in her footsteps as she stopped.

Fang Shaoning went into a blank, "What are you doing?"

Huang Yueli replied, "Didn't you want to fight to the end? I'll satisfy your request and have a face to face battle with you!"

Fang Shaoning's eyes grew wide and thought he heard her wrongly, "What joke are you cracking?? Are you insane? You want to have a face to face battle with me??"

It wasn't only Fang Shaoning who was shocked.

Everyone present didn't believe it as they dug their ears.

"What's wrong with Bai Ruoli? She actually wanted to go face to face with a sixth stage realm expert? She had spent so much time trying to escape earlier so if they cross hands now, she would definitely be sent flying off the stage!"

"I'm guessing she probably doesn't want to continue escaping but don't wish to admit defeat as well so she wanted to end this properly!"

"Since she's going to lose anyway, might as well admit defeat. Face to face battle.... There's a ninety nine percent chance that she will be injured seriously!"

Huang Yueli turned a deaf ear on the various discussions and raised her head as her eyes stared right onto Fang Shaoning's.

"You didn't hear me wrongly!"

"Ha ha ha! Is your mind unclear? You think that you used your flying daggers to injure me and now you can defeat me? Even if I'm injured, dealing with you is still like an appetizer!"

Fang Shaoning started to laugh out loudly.

Chapter 1394: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (1)

Huang Yueli replied calmly, "What you said is correct. With just fourth stage realm cultivation and wanting to win over you is still impossible, so.... I have no choice but to advance!"

Fang Shaoning went into a blank, "What?"

He felt that he must have heard her wrongly. He seemed to have heard that this young lass was saying.... advance?

What joke was that, with her current age to have reached fourth stage realm ninth level, she was considered as an outstanding talent but wanting to breakthrough to fifth stage realm? She's not even Li Moying!

Furthermore, what occasion was this? Was advancing that simple of a thing? She could advance just because she wanted to?

The practitioners below the stage were a little dazed.

“Did you heard clearly what Bai Ruoli said earlier?”

“She seemed to have said.... advance?”

“Impossible, you must have heard wrongly?”

However at the next moment, everyone present suddenly quietened down as all of their gazes were fixated tightly onto the young lady on the arena, not daring to blink putting on an expression as though they had seen a living ghost!

On the arena, Huang Yueli’s surrounding suddenly exploded with a gust of strong Profound Energy fluctuation as the scorching fire attributed energy dispersed, making the entire public square heated up.

Immediately following that, faint golden rays started to emit from her body as fire attributed energy within the radius of several miles all started to gather towards her as the centre point!

Whereas Huang Yueli’s aura and Profound Energy’s intensity continued to soar at a speed which was visible to the naked eye!

“You.... you.....”

Fang Shaoning was totally in a daze when he saw that!

This scene was truly unexpected. Even though he self-admitted that he was one of the top talented youths in the West Sky Region, but he had not expected that there was someone who could suddenly advance right on the spot at this kind of occasion!

The other spectators below the stage were all astounded as they couldn’t even raise any sound.

But it was merely one joss stick time when Huang Yueli’s aura suddenly underwent an earth shattering change. Her Profound Energy climbed up and as she slowly gathered the surrounding fire attributed energy, everyone could tell that the Profound Energy on her was no longer the same as before!

For a moment, Fang Shaoning thought that he was in a dream and totally forgot that he was still standing on the arena and should make a move to attack her.

Cui Yuan Shan realised that the situation was not going well so he hastily stood up and shouted loudly, “Shaoning, why are you in a daze? Quickly take the opportunity while she had just advanced and her state is not stable, kicking her off the arena! She couldn’t have really advanced, it’s probably some other kind of cultivation method which is similar to maniacization, only temporarily raising her cultivation!”

Fang Shaoning’s face showed an enlightened look, “So that’s the case, I almost got cheated by you! State of Maniacization cannot last for too long, moreover, even though you’ve advanced, you’re still short of my cultivation by seven to eight small realms so you.... have no chance of victory at all!”

Huang Yueli lightly curled up her lips, “State of Maniacization? Then you can try, to see if I’m a genuine fifth stage realm or not!”

Saying that her feet started to move and her body swayed. Immediately her figure disappeared in an instant!

Fang Shaoning was suddenly shocked!

Because after Huang Yueli advanced, her speed was raised by at least two notches as compared to earlier!

Earlier her speed at fourth stage realm was already comparable to his at sixth stage realm seventh level. Now she had successfully advanced while Fang Shaoning's cultivation level dropped.

In this way, Huang Yueli was much faster than him!

As expected, not waiting for Fang Shaoning to react, Huang Yueli had already stole to his rear as her hand held on to an ancient zither!

Chapter 1395: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (2)

Although Fang Shaoning's speed wasn't enough but his cultivation was still much higher than Huang Yueli's after all and he was able to sense that she had already appeared right behind his back!

This speed.... was simply so fast that it was perverted!

Fang Shaoning was so scared that he broke out in sweat. He thought Huang Yueli would definitely come out with her killer move to attack him hence he hurriedly retreated backwards quickly to evade her! At the same time he put on his defence stance!

But what welcomed him was not palm wind, nor was it sharp blades but ---

“Zzng!”

A crisp melodious zither tone rang by the side of his ear. Although it was a short note and the volume of it wasn't considered very high but it was like a thunder which exploded in his mind!

Momentarily, he only felt a wave of dizziness in his head!

Something was wrong!

Fang Shaoning acutely detected that this condition was not right and he hurriedly held his breath while he congealed his senses to control himself. At the same time he wanted to see what that young lass was up to.

However she didn't give him a chance to see clearly. That strange zither sound rang continuously for several more times!

Huang Yueli's fingertips were plucking the strings and the tune she was playing was not from those scores which she had played in her past life, but the ancient zither score which she had obtained several months ago in Celestial Light Sect's Scripture Depository.

Even though she had to display her musical talent in order to gain victory but she wasn't prepared to expose her own identity so she could only use the contents in that half zither score to fight it out. At least if anyone were to become suspicious, she was still able to find a reason to stuff it up.

Coincidentally, what that zither score recorded was originally specializing in mental attacks.

Even though there was only half a book left and it's might was limited, but Fang Shaoning had never encountered any mental attack previously so he was totally caught unaware!

With regards to the mental control from the zither's sound, unless one was prepared right from the start then would they not be affected.

Otherwise after they had fallen right from the first note, when the other notes were played, it would only led to his conscience becoming more and more unclear. Unless they had heaven defying determination, otherwise it was impossible to even wake up in the middle from it!

Fang Shaoning's gaze started becoming dazed as his movements also became sluggish.

Huang Yueli saw that the mood was just nice and immediately drew out a short sword hidden behind the zither as her right hand turned and struck out towards Fang Shaoning's direction!

A "chi la" sound rang!

Fang Shaoning was stabbed on his right leg and his feet stumbled, almost falling onto the ground!

"Heavens, Fang Shaoning is injured again!"

"Right, this time it's actually not a sneak attack but a proper attack right in front of him!"

"What happened earlier?? Surely I'm not in a dream right??"

The practitioners down the stage were stupefied and had just started regaining their senses at this present moment as they looked at each other in dismay.

"Bai Ruoli.... Has she really advanced successfully? Is she really a fifth stage realm practitioner??"

"From the aura emanated from her, she indeed is in the fifth stage realm! But... this.. this is a little too ridiculous right? How could she advance as and when she wanted? Really treating advancement as simple as having a meal or taking a drink? Furthermore normally when we advance, we definitely would enter a state of weakness for a long time but she's actually not affected at all? And even crossing hands with a sixth stage realm top expert immediately??"

"Haven't you heard what Sect Master Cui said? Hers might be another kind of Maniacization cultivation method!"

"I don't think so! Hasn't Bai Ruoli said it herself, she's a genuine fifth stage realm practitioner!"

"Perhaps she was just scaring Fang Shaoning? Otherwise she's just too abnormal? How old is she this year? Is she even fifteen already? And she's already in the fifth stage realm??"

Chapter 1396: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (3)

The crowd was discussing amongst themselves, each sticking to their own argument.

Towards Huang Yueli's cultivation, there were various sorts of sayings as there was no unanimous decision.

But there was something which everyone had no choice but to admit.

And that was Huang Yueli's ability was indeed powerful enough! Furthermore, the battle power which she was exhibiting now was not an entry level practitioner to the fifth stage realm. After she advanced to the fifth stage realm, her speed, attack and defence had all raised by a huge notch!

As compared to Fang Shaoning whose ability had a huge fall, she was no longer in a disadvantageous position, furthermore.... she was about to hurt him directly in his face!

Many of them were shocked by the fact that Huang Yueli's sudden retrieval of her zither.

"This.... what is this? A zither?"

"When the zither note rang, my head was in terrible pain! This... this zither tune must be a kind of mental attack!"

"Heavens, too.... too abnormal!"

This was the first time for ordinary disciples to see this, using a zither as a weapon for attacking.

Although Huang Yueli in her past life was famous for this but it had after all been a good fifteen years. Fifteen years, to those young disciples who were present was simply the same as something that had happened in the previous generation!

Although Huang Yueli still remained her name as the Number One Armament Master in Soaring Heavens Continent, but to the younger disciples, she was a legendary character so who would know just how powerful.... was she then?

But Murong De and Cui Yuan Shan were one of those who had gone through the times when Huang Yueli's reputation spread throughout the entire continent in her past life so seeing her using the zither for attacks, both of them were filled with astonishment and shock!

"W.... Wasn't it said that after Grandmaster Huang passed on, her zither talent had also gone missing? Bai Ruoli.... How was it possible that she could control the zither?? What exactly is her background?" Zui Yuan Shan enquired in shock.

However, Murong De's sight was still in a daze as his shock was comparable to his.

"I'm not sure too! Bai Ruoli isn't really Celestial Light Sect's disciple. She came to Celestial Light Sect because of Moying.... but I'd let someone checked on Bai Ruoli's background previously. She seemed to be an ordinary practitioner from South Yue Kingdom and although her father's innate talent was rather good, but he had gone missing long ago. She had never left South Yue Kingdom since young and it was only a year ago when she came to Sky Cloud City..."

This experience didn't sound too extraordinary.

Any talented practitioner from the smaller countries all seemed to have gone through this experience.

Since young she had inherited her father's outstanding talent and not resigned to wasting her youth in a small country, so after her potential had reached a certain standard, she went out to a big city to seek more experience training chances.....

Cui Yuan Shan frowned, "Then how did she and Li Moying get engaged?"

Murong De replied, "Moying himself is a prince of South Yue Kingdom and their engagement was a betrothal when they were a little boy and little girl arranged by the parents from both sides."

Cui Yuan Shan was rendered speechless momentarily.

This kind of explanation really made him unable to find any suspicious points.....

At this moment, President Hu suddenly butted in as he said, "I know a little about her. Miss Bai once said that she had been taken in as a disciple by an Armament Master who happened to pass by South Yue Kingdom. That Grandmaster came from Sky Emperor City and that was where she learnt her armament refining skills. If that Grandmaster himself was Grandmaster Huang's good friend or disciples under her in the past, then it wouldn't be strange if she knew how to control the zither right?"

"So it's like this!"

Cui Yuan Shan and Mruong De were suddenly enlightened.

What President Hu said was the most reasonable explanation.

That year when Huang Yueli was in charge of Mythical Flame Palace, she had recruited numerous Armament Masters under her wing.

Chapter 1397: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (4)

Although Huang Yueli had never officially taken in any disciples but if there were one or two disciples under her wing who were favoured by her, then being taught the skill of controlling the zither wasn't anything strange at all.

The two of them had not once suspected that Bai Ruoli on the stage below was Huang Yueli herself.

Because Huang Yueli had self-exploded fifteen years ago at the Northern Ice Fields and her soul had dispersed. This matter was known to all those top exponents in Soaring Heavens Continent.

For the soul to be dispersed, it was not even possible to wrest control of the soul or reincarnate so she absolutely had no way to come back, which was something that everyone believed in resolutely.

Because of this, the duo quickly concurred with President Hu's guess.

Murong De's face instantly revealed a delighted smile as he stroked his beard with a broad smile. If it wasn't for the fact that the occasion wasn't right, he might even have jumped up and laughed out loudly three times!

"Good, good, good! This eldest disciple of mine indeed has good foresight. I thought he was smitten by beauty so he agreed to be engaged with Miss Bai. So Miss Bai actually has this background! The Grandmaster whom she is under probably is from Mythical Flame Palace! Tsk tsk, just based on this, her future is totally boundless!”

Although Huang Yueli had passed on fifteen years ago, but her Mythical Flame Palace was still a recognizable top powerhouse in Sky Emperor City which her senior brother was holding the reins.

As there was no one who could surpass her name as Number One Armament Master in Soaring Heavens Continent, so even if she was no longer around, there were still countless excellent Armament Masters who went in fame, asking to join Mythical Flame Palace.

Whereas just based on the respectable statuses of Armament Masters in Soaring Heavens Continent, Mythical Flame Palace naturally was on a transcendent position.

The minute Murong De realised that his eldest disciple’s fiancée actually had a relationship with such a large powerhouse, he felt extremely delighted in his heart.

This was a super powerhouse which was much more powerful by a hundred times than the Leng family!

Cui Yuan Shan originally listened to those gossip but when he heard Murong De’s delighted laugh, his face sunk immediately.

“Hmpf, Brother Murong, this Sect Master really doesn’t understand what right you have to be complacent about? Even if you’re able to recruit Miss Bai into Celestial Light Sect, that isn’t based on your own ability, but your disciple’s! She might not even feel grateful to you!”

Murong De’s mood was soaring right now and his smile beamed even further when he saw Cui Yuan Shan’s envious and jealous gaze.

“To be able to take in such a good disciple like Moying, isn’t that my ability? Don’t think that you’ve taken in so many disciples, which one of them could match up to Moying? If I don’t recall wrongly, your eldest disciple was just... sent flying by just one word from Moying!”

Cui Yuan Shan’s expression grew uglier, “Yi Feng is from the Leng family and your disciple simply doesn’t know how high the heavens are or how thick the earth is!”

Murong De smiled, “So what if he’s from the Leng family? My disciple’s fiancée is possibly a disciple from Mythical Flame Palace? Furthermore, the seventy percent quota to the ancient mystic region is going to be in Celestial Light Sect’s grasp very soon. So there’s nothing strange about this Sect Master being happy right?”

“What??”

Cui Yuan Sha’s heart jolted when he heard that! He totally forgot about the arena tournament!

He sat upright in a fluster as he turned around to take a look at the situation on the arena.

Right now, the battle on the arena stage had entered into the last segment.

Right after Fang Shaoning was struck by Huang Yueli’s zither chords attack, he started to have a splitting headache and even delving into hallucination as his speed grew slower and slower, and his judgement also decreased greatly.

Not long after, he was stabbed by Huang Yueli continuously as his entire body was soaked in blood.

Chapter 1398: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (5)

Fang Shaoning simply didn't dare to believe how things had developed to this stage!

Just a joss stick timing ago, he was still standing on the arena stage holding on an absolute advantage whereas this young lass was escaping everywhere, cutting a sorry state while being beaten by him and she wasn't going to hang on any further.

But now? The situation had completely reversed and the person who was wildly escaping around became him, Fang Shaoning!

But the person on the arena stage with a higher ability was obviously him ah??

Even if that young lass really advanced successfully suddenly, but there was still an evident gap between the both of them. He should still hold the absolute advantage, right??

Furthermore, how could she possibly advance?? This was just too ridiculous??

Actually, what Fang Shaoning didn't know was that Huang Yueli's advancement, was actually all thanks to his selfless aid!

Just as the both of them were pursuing and escaping earlier, under Fang Shaoning's Profound energy clash and coercion, Huang Yueli had met with a few near-death situations as she escaped from death. This kind of crisis sensation caused the speed of the flow of Profound Energy in her body to raise to the limit!

Simultaneously, her Profound Energy in her meridians kept on condensing and contracting. After so many rounds of clashes, it became even more condensed and pure.

Although Huang Yueli cut a sorry state under Fang Shaoning's pursuit earlier but only she herself knew just how glad she felt in her heart!

Although it was only under this kind of circumstance when she could agitate the potential with her body in the greatest degree, allowing those empty, superfluous surging Profound Energy to stabilise itself in the shortest amount of time.

The pursue match between Fang Shaoning and her was a kill on two birds with one stone. Not only did it drag Fang Shaoning's maniacization time, it also allowed her the opportunity to stabilise her own cultivation.

By the time Fang Shaoning's cultivation resumed back to normal, the Profound Energy in her would be condensed enough which allowed her to advance smoothly!

Ordinary practitioner's advancement process was actually very risky as it required a very long time to go into closed door cultivation and meditate as it would repeatedly crash against the dantian!

But Huang Yueli had almost succeeded in advancement previously during her medicinal bath soak. If it wasn't for Li Moying who aided her in suppressing the urge to advance, she would have been a fifth stage realm practitioner long ago.

With the previous experience, there was no difficulty in the process when her dantain crashed again and hence she worked it at one go and successfully broke through on the stage!

Fang Shaoning's injury was getting more and more serious as his mind grew heavier and heavier.

Finally Huang Yueli gave a clear cry as her right hand encircled a flame which launched towards Fang Shaoning's chest!

By now Fang Shaoning totally had no resistance power as he was directly sent flying, falling out of the boundary of the arena!

Huang Yueli's strike was actually not very heavy but as Fang Shaoning had lost too much blood and suffered from a heavy blow, he fainted.

The entire public square was totally silent.

Even though they had seen Huang Yueli gaining all the advantage, but when she really threw Fang Shaoning down the arena stage and gained victory, this scene made many still in a state of disbelief!

Right from the start, no one had considered the fact that Huang Yueli could actually win!

A fourth stage realm practitioner challenging a sixth stage realm seventh level practitioner and still hoped to win??

If it wasn't for the fact that they had witnessed it with their own eyes, anyone would just treat this as a joke!

However, right at this moment, this scene realistically appeared in front of everyone's eyes. Huang Yueli... she really did it!

Huang Yueli turned her head as she looked at the judge who was standing at the corner in a daze.

"Senior, is it time to announce the arena tournament's result?"

Chapter 1399: Advance! Fifth Stage Realm! (6)

The referee then recollected his senses, "Ah, ughh... oh, right right, yes. This round's competition, Celestial Light Sect's Bai Ruoli challenging Green Cloud Sect's Fang Shaoning, the victor is —Bai Ruoli!"

When the last note fell, Celestial Light Sect's side immediately exploded into an ear shattering cheer!

"Junior Sister Bai, you're too amazing!"

"Junior Sister Bai is simply my idolllllllll!"

"That's great, that's so great, Celestial Light Sect won! The arena champion belongs to us!"

Celestial Light Sect's disciples' joy exhibited their feelings in their speech as everyone weren't able to suppress the agitated feelings in their hearts and some of them even shed tears of joy.

Originally, everyone thought that this arena tournament was already lost and no matter what, there simply wasn't any turn of events. Facing Green Cloud Sect's disciples' complacent ridicule, which of them were able to not nurse a grievance?

When Huang Yeuli went up the stage, none of them held any hopes or even felt that as long as she wasn't beaten to death by Fang Shaoning, it was considered that she had extraordinary ability. Whoever would have thought that she was actually able to win the arena tournament to become the new arena champion?

Happiness came too suddenly!

Especially to those direct disciples, Huang Yueli's victory meant that Celestial Light Sect's quota to the ancient mystic region had changed from thirty percent to seventy percent!

There were many amongst them who needed to be grateful to Huang Yueli for giving them the chance to enter the ancient mystic region for experience training. This to a third rated sect such as Celestial Light Sect's disciples was equivalent to a once-in-a-lifetime chance!

In the instance, Huang Yeuli's reputation reached the peak!

"Junior Sister Bai is really incredible. She is a certified Armament Master which meant that she was already an outstanding genius. I'd not expected that her cultivation innate talent to be so strong, a fourth stage realm challenging a sixth stage realm and even won! This innate talent... is almost chasing up to Young Sect Master!"

"No wonder Young Sect Master likes her so much. Junior Sister Bai and Young Sect Master are really too compatible! Their innate talents are so strong that we don't even need to say any further, their looks are so compatible so just looking at them is an eye candy!"

"Just listen to what you're saying. When Junior Sister Bai just came, you said she was a road lusting after a swan and had tainted our God-like Young Sect Master!"

"Aiyo, did I really say such things? Impossible! Why would I say such retarded words? If Young Sect Master doesn't stay together with Junior Sister Bai, who should he be with? Whoever dares to say that they're not compatible, I'd be the first to slap him!"

In the Soaring Heavens Continent where cultivation was honoured, ability talked.

So, Huang Yueli seldom refuted because she knew there was no need to do so.

Today she had exhibited such heaven defying innate talent and potential so those voices which had questioned her instantly disappeared.

Murong De grinned from ear to ear, feeling even happier than when Li Moying gained victory every single time.

Because Li Moying's victory was taken for granted and something which everyone had long expected so their happiness was limited.

But Huang Yueli's performance today on her innate talent and ability was something which he had never dreamt of, simply like a cake which had fallen from the sky!

“Brother Cui, thank you for letting us win ah! This time it’s all thanks to your idea to use the arena tournament method to split the quota. Otherwise I really can’t think of such a way and it’s even impossible for her to get seventy percent of the quota once! Furthermore, you also let this Sect Master realise that our Celestial Light Sect’s fourth stage realm outer disciple actually had such strong ability!”

He intentionally emphasized the words “fourth stage realm” and “outer disciple”.

Cui Yuan Shan was shaking with rage as he heard those words.

Chapter 1400: Sort you out when we reach home (1)

But unfortunately Murong De was still unwilling to forgive, “Today is really a good day! Worth to celebrate properly! Tonight I will continue to hold a banquet at the main hall so will everyone here who witnessed today’s scene please join in to celebrate along with her!”

He turned his head towards Cui Yuan Shan and said, “Brother Cui, we can’t do without you tonight! You must bring along your disciples to attend the banquet!”

Cui Yuan Shan couldn’t take it any further as he banged his hand on the table and stood up in fury.

“Murong De, you’re won this round because this Sect Master had not expected you to have a crouching tiger and hidden dragon under your wing. Not only Li Moying himself is incredible, even the fiancée whom he finds also has such outstanding talent! But even if we Green Cloud Sect had lost, that was only temporary so don’t be delighted too soon!”

Saying that, without waiting for Murong De’s reply, he immediately turned around as he flicked his sleeves and left!

Murong De was still calling out behind him hypocritically, “Ai, Brother Cui, what’s the matter with you? Why are you in a hurry to leave?”

The disciples below the stage were totally speechless.

Green Cloud Sect had lost in such a terrible state and Murong De still kept on provoking him, would he not leave in anger? Murong De obviously was doing this on purpose and yet still pretended to be innocent! If it wasn’t for the fact that the occasion wasn’t right, Cui Yuan Shan would probably be so infuriated that he would murder someone!

The minute Cui Yuan Shan left, the other Green Cloud Sect’s disciples had no face to continue staying so most of them started to leave silently.

But these did not escape Celestial Light Sect’s disciples’ eyes. On seeing this scene, many of them bore an expression which rejoiced at one’s misfortune.

“Look, those few Green Cloud Sect’s disciples just left in this manner, not even daring to lift up their heads!”

“Earlier weren’t they rather arrogant, saying that we only have Young Sect Master as Celestial Light Sect’s only top expert and we are bound to lose this time! Now they’ve been slapped on the face right? If I were them, I’d also not have any face to continue staying here.”

“Haha, look at their dishevelled faces, it really makes me want to laugh! Their sixth stage realm talent in Green Cloud Sect can’t even defeat our Celestial Light Sect’s fourth stage realm! Still have the cheek to claim that they have plenty of outstanding talents in their Sect? Today’s competition really makes one feel comforted!”

Amidst the joyous atmosphere, someone suddenly cried out in shock.

“Hmm? Quickly look over there! Young Sect Master came down!”

On hearing the three words ‘Young Sect Master’, many of them immediately turned their heads as they cried out in astonishment.

“He really is, Young Sect Master is heading towards our direction!”

“Whoa, Young Sect Master’s expression doesn’t look very nice! This is the first time I’ve seen him frown but even though he puts on this expression, he’s still so handsome that it makes one suffocate....”

“Stop being star studded! Young Sect Master isn’t heading towards our direction, he’s heading towards the arena!”

“Ah.... So he’s going over to look for Junior Sister Bai....”

Everyone had guessed his motive and couldn’t help but get excited as all of their eyes widened as they fixed their sights onto the duo.

Actually, recently Huang Yueli and Li Moying had been showing off their love but usually most of them felt that they were incompatible. This was the first time that they were surrounded by all of Celestial Light Sect’s disciples and almost all of them gave envious gazes which were filled with blessings!

Li Moying’s footsteps were swift and it only took a few steps before he reached the arena stage.

Huang Yueli kept watching as he walked over as she smiled and opened her mouth, “Moying, I told you before that I will definitely gain victory! How about it? I haven’t disappointed you right?”

However, Li Moying kept a black face on as he hollered, “Keep quiet!”
