

Prodigiously Amazing Weaponsmith

Chapter 13: The Money is Delivered to the Door

South Yue Kingdom's biggest store, Thousand Treasure Pavilion.

Customers were streaming in and out continuously.

Although Huang Yue Li was the Manor's Young Miss, due to her ordinary looking clothes, no one paid much attention to her.

After walking around the shop, she found that Thousand Treasure Pavilion truly deserved its name of being the number one shop in South Yue Kingdom. All the medicinal herbs on her list were available here. It was just...in regards to the price, it was equivalently heart wrenching.

For example, a stalk of Purple Basil Grass was worth ten silvers, while one flower bud of the Fire Sunflower was eight silvers....

And – these were only prices for the lowest grade of herbs. If one wanted a higher grade of herbs, the prices multiplied by a few fold.

Gritting her teeth and looking at the list given by the little phoenix, she needed at least one hundred of each. On top of the fact that they needed to all be high grade too. In all, if she wanted to obtain everything, she needed at least thirty thousand silvers.

Rubbing her money pouch wryly, Huang Yue Li felt that the reality was cold and harsh.

Before leaving, she had questioned the maid Cai Wei. Afterwards she was told how pitifully poor she really was.

Ever since the disappearance of Bai Liu Feng, her second uncle Bai Liu Jing had used various "excuses" to assume control over family finances.

Bai Ruo Li did not possess a single cent. Previously she had relied on pawning various antiques in order to survive the days.

The fifty silvers within her possession were only obtained yesterday after extorting Bai Ruo Yan. With them, she could only buy five stalks of Purple Basil Grass.

However, she did not pin any hope in purchasing many herbs from a measly fifty silvers. She had already long planned it out; She was not the continent's number one Armament Refiner for nothing. Even though the current her was greatly weakened and could not absorb any Profound Qi, creating a few toys were beyond trifling. Through that, will she earn her money.

But after one lap, she tragically discovered something.

She wasn't just ordinarily poor, she was miserably poor!

Turned out that even the lowest materials for refining exorbitantly priced! There was no way for the current her to afford it!

In her eyes, an extremely crappy, rotten iron low grade furnace already cost eight hundred silvers. Not to be mention the other items. It was basically highway robbery.

In actual fact, she didn't know that the Armament Profession was built upon money.

The previous her, was born into a large family. Coupled with her genius innate talent, all kinds of precious materials were easily obtained. Naturally she couldn't put these low grade products within her view scope. But in the South Yue Kingdom, these low grade materials were luxury products that only royalty and aristocracy could afford.

As Huang Yue Li was pondering the question of earning more money, a familiar voice sounded beside her.

"This profound weapon, how much is it?"

Turning her head, she saw that it was Bai Ruo Yan behind her.

This incidental meeting caused Huang Yue Lie to smile. Her luck seemed to be quite good. Just was she was thinking how she lacked money, someone came to deliver money to her.

By then, Bai Ruo Yan had also noticed her, and her facial expression immediately turned hostile.

"Bai Ruo Li! You cheap slut, why are you here??"

Huang Yue Li sneered and replied: "Did you lose your mind? You even need to ask why? The sole purpose in coming to a store is to purchase merchandise."

Bai Ruo Yan sarcastically laughed too: "On what basis can you do that? Can you afford anything within Thousand Treasure Pavilion? You are so poor that you probably can't even afford a single stalk right?"

Huang Yue Li smiled: "Whether or not I can afford it, does not seem to be related to you right? On the hand, I find it quite puzzling. Just yesterday.....someone was involved in such a scandal yet dare to go out today. They really do have skin thicker than the city walls!”

At the mention of yesterday’s events, Bai Ruo Yan couldn’t help but want to kill her: “You still dare to appear in front of me! Yesterday...yesterday’s affairs were orchestrated by you right? You dare to fool me like that, I will whip you to death, you slut!”

As she spoke, she pulled out her whip and lashed out.

Huang Yue Li had long predicted this. Stepping out, she dodged the strike.

Lashing out spitefully, Bai Ruo Yan couldn’t even touch a even a single thread on Huang Yue Li’s clothes.

Her anger was aroused further. Just thinking back to yesterday’s shame on the street when she was being ridiculed and pointed at. She was nearly kicked out too. All she wanted to do now, was to whip Huang Yue Li to death and relieve the hate and anger she harboured deep within her.

Chapter 14: So Overcome with Rage that Words Fail

Bai Ruo Yan was so overcome with anger that she continued whipping furiously, not noticing that none of the lashes had landed on Huang Yue Li. On the contrary, she had startled quite a number of Thousand Treasure Pavilion’s customers.

Swiftly, the security of Thousand Treasure Pavilion came to stop them.

“My two Misses, our Thousand Treasure Pavilion does not allow any fighting in here. If you are not here to buy things, then please leave!”

The shadow boss of Thousand Treasure Pavilion was rumoured to be from the Royal family. So he had placed regulations whom no one dared to violate.

Hearing the guards words, Bai Ruo Yan didn’t dare to continue further and obediently stowed her whip away.

“Slut, I’ll let you go this once! Just you wait!”

As she declared this, she turned to the shopkeeper she was speaking to earlier. Pointing in Huang Yue Li’s direction she said: “Shopkeeper Sun, with your Thousand Treasure Pavilion fame and high status, aren’t your customers all those with status?”

This girl is a penniless beggar who cannot afford anything in the store. Her sole purpose is to stir up trouble. Hurry and drive her away!”

Shopkeeper Sun recognized her, she truly was the Wu Wei Manor’s Fourth Young Miss.

Although Valiant Martial Manor cannot be compared to when Bai Liu Feng was here, but they could still be considered one of South Yue Kingdom’s influential powers. Naturally the young misses of the Bai family could not be offended.

Raising his head, he asked Huang Yue Li: “This Young Miss...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Huang Yue Li already displayed a pitiful expression and said in a low voice: “Fourth sister, how could you say such words like those.....”

An expression of astonishment was seen on Shopkeeper Sun’s face.

Fourth Sister?

Could it be that she was the rumored and sole daughter to Bai Liu Feng’s? That beyond good-for-nothing Third Young Miss, Bai Ruo Yan?

“You are actually the Bai Family’s Third Young Miss?”

“It was long said that the young misses of the Bai Family were not harmonious. Presently, Wu Wei Manor also did not treat their niece well, could it be that was all true?”

“Can it be false? Just now, didn’t you see that Fourth Young Miss directly pulled out her whip to attack her own cousin. She really lack manners. Tsk tsk, the tea truly turns cold when one leaves. That year, it was because of Bai Lie Feng that the Wu Wei Manor rose to such a height. Now when he is missing, even is his daughter is bullied like that.....”

“Isn’t this Bai Fourth Young Miss born of a concubine? Yet possesses such a domineering attitude! She is basically relying on someone else to bully people!”

“Isn’t it said that the Bai Family’s Second Young Miss wanted to marry the Crown Prince? Coming from such a family, how is she qualified to become the Crown Prince’s Imperial Consort?”

Listening to the murmuring of the crowd, Bai Ruo Yan become more and more red.

‘Clearly that it was that slut who was the mastermind yesterday causing her to lose all her face. Even if she whipped her to death, it wouldn’t clear her grievances. So how did it change to relying on others to bully her?’

Yet she could not explain. Those feelings.....

Cautiously she looked at her before weakly speaking again.

“Fourth Younger Sister, I know that you are angry over yesterday’s affairs. But I really do not know how it became like that. I can explain to you. Actually it was like this.....”

“You, shut your mouth!”

As soon as Bai Ruo Yan heard her mention yesterday’s affairs, she hurriedly interrupted her.

A face full of grief, Huang Yue Li bit her lip: “Then.....Fourth Sister, the money that you owe me.....when do you plan on repaying me.”

Bai Ruo Yan gave a blank look: “What money?”

“You forgot? Yesterday you wrote an IOU.”

Taking out a piece of paper, Huang Yue Li waved it around.

Bai Ruo Yang recognized that sheet. When she was delirious and muddled-headed, Huang Yue Li was tricked her into signing it!

With the passing of yesterday’s events, the fact that she did not kill Huang Yue Li was already her good fortune. She still dared to take that out and ask for money!

Bai Ruo Yan was extremely angry, and angrily stepped forward in an attempt to snatch the IOU away.

