Chapter 1401: Sort you out when we reach home (2)

“You got yourself bruised and riddled with scars and still dare to ask me if I’m disappointed or not? And although I do admire the fact that you’ve lost so much blood but instead of feeling uncomfortable, you actually feel excited?”

Li Moting’s gaze harshly stared at her as he spoke madly.

Huang Yueli went blank, “Ah.... It feels..... a little uncomfortable.....”

She had immersed herself in the joy of victory and really didn’t notice the unusual condition on her body. Right after Li Moying prodded her, she suddenly sensed that her head was a little giddy and because she had lost too much blood, her hands and feet were icy cold to the point of becoming numb...

Actually the injuries that she had sustained weren’t any lighter than Fang Shaoning’s.

But she had just advanced successfully and obtained victory to the arena tournament so her body was still in a state of stimulation hence she wasn’t like Fang Shaoning who fainted on the spot.

Now, that kind of dizzy sensation was much stronger as though in an instant, her energy was zapped totally.

Huang Yueli’s feet staggered and at the next moment, she suddenly felt her body being lifted into the air. Immediately after, Li Moying’s enlarged handsome face appeared right in front of her.

Li Moying carried her horizontally and at the same time, carefully avoiding the injuries on her body as he protected her in his embrace.

Huang Yueli subconsciously stretched out her hand as she wrapped it around his neck.

“Ah.... So giddy...”

“Giddy and you still push yourself so hard! You’re not allowed to talk, follow me home to rest!” Li Moying stared at her as his tone was still rather fierce.

Huang Yueli pursed her lips in grief, “Orh.... Why must you be so fierce? I’ll listen to you.....”

Just looking at her put on this aggrieved little wife look, no one could imagine that just a quarter of an hour ago, she was the same person who put on an awe inspiring face, winning over the strong. She was a truly strong talented practitioner!

Seeing her acting so obediently, Li Moying’s tummy full of anger from seeing her being injured repeatedly instantly vanished by a major half.

“You are just lacking in lecture, see how I will go back and sort you out when we reach home!” He gave a cold humpf and although he still put on a look of disdain, but his tone had already softened by quite a large bit. When he mentioned the words “sort you out”, the deterrent force wasn’t there and it seemed rather ambiguous.

Huang Yueli looked upwards as she lifted her eyes to see his perfectly contoured lateral view. Those originally taut cold lines had already softened down by quite a bit.

She lightly curled her lips, thinking in her heart that this man was a paper tiger. She knew about this long ago in her past life that no matter how she ruffled him up, as long as she turned obedient, acted cute and coquettishly, she would be able to settle this man. Indeed, even after a lifetime, he was still the same...

She instantly felt reassured as she leaned her head against the man's robust and strong chest, closing her eyes.

She had indeed lost too much blood and moreover it was an intense battle. Plus the fact that she had advanced at a hurried moment, her exhaustion was extreme so the minute she was in her beloved man's embrace, she completely felt safe and ignoring the scenario, she fell asleep dizzily.

Li Moying saw her condition and his heart started to ache.

He lowered his head to kiss her face as he carried her and left.

As he walked, he didn't forget to instruct Mo Yi, "Hurry and go invite all the best doctors in the Sect to my courtyard to do a consultation for Third Miss... wrong, get all the doctors to come over! Quick, go immediately! If you delay any time, then bring your head over to see me yourself!"

Chapter 1402: Sort you out when we reach home (3)

When Mo Yi heard that, he ran off hastily.

Li Moying turned his head towards Murong De's direction as he nodded his head, carrying his young fiancée and left the arena stage with big strides.

By the time he left, the disciples below the stage all started to discuss enviously.

"Junior Sister Bai is really fortunate. Young Sect Master actually carried her.... carried her in the way grooms carry their brides! And even kissed her! If Young Sect Master treated me in that same way, I'd faint in happiness. I envy Junior Sister Bai so much!"

"Tsk, who do you think you are? Why would Young Sect Master want to carry you for? Junior Sister Bai is Young Sect Master's fiancée! There's nothing rare about her being hugged? Moreover both of them have such good looks, just looking at them warms the heart and delights the eye!"

"But it's really a little unimaginable! In the past, Young Sect Master would often put on a cold face. Don't think that Senior Sister Murong keeps following him around all day and tried ways and means but he had always remained distant without any intimate actions. That time I kept assuming that Young Sect Master was those kind of genius whose heart was totally devoted towards cultivation, totally without any interest towards *****! In the end, ever since Junior Sister Bai came to Celestial Light Sect..."

"That's right, ever since Junior Sister Bai came, I realised that it wasn't that Young Sect Master didn't know how to pamper anyone, he's practically a slave to his wife.... Indeed, no matter how cold and powerful a man is, there would be someone who can subdue him. The crucial point is it depended on who that person was!"

“That’s right, Young Sect Master knows it all too well! After comparison on Senior Sister Murong and Junior Sister Bai, the former’s ability lacks the latter by a huge notch, not to mention that Junior Sister Bai is a genius armament master who even President Hu admires and she’s so beautiful. It’s no wonder that Young Sect Master couldn’t help but be touched by her.....”

“Really envy Junior Sister Bai. She has everything, and even a man like Young Sect Master who is faithful to her...”

These discussions which were filled with envy were loud as they didn’t conceal their volumes. That was because everyone felt it right from the bottoms of their hearts that Li Moying and Huang Yueli were a match made in heaven plus the two of them had already left the public square so they didn’t need to hide what they were thinking of in their minds.

No one noticed that underneath a big tree not too far away, laid Murong Fei who had just regained consciousness!

After she was injured by Fang Shaoning earlier, as her injury was too serious, she couldn’t be moved too vigorously hence the doctors moved her carefully below the tree shade.

Whoever knew that she had just woken up to see Huang Yueli being beaten by Fang Shaoning till she was covered in blood and was escaping everywhere in a dishevelled state!

Murong Fei almost laughed out loudly, forgetting all the pain on her body as she hurriedly turned around to ask Li Lingchuan who hurried over to take care of her, “What’s going on? Bai Ruoli that little slut.... how did she run up the arena stage?”

Li Lingchuan had assumed that Huang Yueli would be defeated without any doubt as he couldn’t help but laughed, “Heaven knows, why on earth would she seek death for herself?”

He narrated the scene where Huang Yueli jumped out to challenge Fang Shaoning and the both of them exchanged glances as they burst out laughing, sitting at one corner waiting for Huang Yueli to be beaten till she was either dead or crippled!

For this Murong Fei didn’t even hate Fang Shaoning that much as she was hoping that he would injure that little slut to even more miserable state. The best would be if he could kill her directly then he would become her, Murong Fei’s benefactor!

In the end, even before she could finish laughing, she saw the clouds change and the situation on the arena underwent a reverse twist in a blink of an eye!

Huang Yueli actually advanced just before the battle on the arena state, even breaking out in an unimaginable powerful ability, causing Fang Shaoning to be sent flying down the stage!

Murong Fei’s face instantly turned green.

Chapter 1403: Sort you out when we reach home (4)

She simply couldn’t understand why under the heavens would such a fascinating thing even occur!

Murong Fei thought that she was hallucinating due to her serious injury but the events after that and the crowd's response verified that all this..... had really happened!

After she realised this, Murong Fei was entirely on the verge of breaking down!

She simply could not accept the fact that the little vixen whom she had looked down upon was not only an Armament Master with outstanding talent, moreover she had such abnormal innate talent and ability in the way of cultivation, which was even enough to match Li Moying!

How could that be possible? Why did things turn out to be like this? Obviously she was the woman who was most compatible with Eldest Senior Brother!

That little slut should be someone whom her Eldest Senior Brother was fooling around with and completely wasn't worthy of Eldest Senior Brother. Why.... why had she turned into this kind of talent??

What made Murong Fei even unable to accept was that because of Huang Yueli's outstanding talent, after she represented Celestial Light Sect to obtain the ultimate victory at the arena tournament, everyone treated her as the person who had rendered outstanding service to save Celestial Light Sect as everyone held her in high respect, praising her non-stop.

It was not only those ordinary young disciples, even the Sect's various Elders and including her own father Murong De, were filled with pride as each and every one of them praised Huang Yueli to the skies!

Murong Fei was so upset as her jealous emotions was like a poisonous snake, repeatedly nibbling at her heart.

All these.... should originally have been hers!

It should have been her who was Celestial Light Sect's saviour and she should rightfully be the arena champion, the person whom was adored and respected by all! Why had it become that little slut??

Murong Fei totally did not reflect on the fact that she herself did not have the ability but on the contrary, she felt that it was Huang Yueli who stole everything away from her!

This wasn't the most infuriating thing!

Following this, Li Moying even went down the stage on his own accord and extremely gently carried Huang Yueli. Then he even kissed her on the spot and the both of them totally had no qualms on displaying their love publicly for a short while before they left under the crowd's envious glances!

The crowd's reaction was the thing which truly made Murong Fei almost fainted from anger!

Everyone actually felt that that little slut and Eldest Senior Brother were very compatible!

To the fact that some of them directly said it outright that she Murong Fei couldn't be compared to Huang Yueli, so she couldn't make Li Moying fall for her.

These words totally struck Murong Fei's sore foot like a resounding slap that was viciously slapped onto her face on the spot!

Actually she had already realised this from the inner depths of her heart that Huang Yueli's ability was extraordinary and she was indeed much more powerful than her. It was exactly because of this which made her totally unable to accept it!

She had always had a good opinion of herself, feeling that there was no young lady in South Sky Region who could match up to her. Even if Huang Yueli snatched away Li Moying, it was all because she was shameless!

How would Murong Fei ever admit that she was inferior to Huang Yueli?

The more Murong Fei thought, the more infuriated she got as she couldn't help but turned back and stared fiercely at Li Lingchuan who was behind her, "It's all because of you! Weren't you saying before the match that this time round, I'd be the one who is in the limelight and can make Eldest Senior Brother regret not getting engaged with me! But now??"

Li Lingchuan's expression wasn't pretty as well because Murong Fei had totally vented her anger onto him!

"You have the cheek to blame me for this? What I obviously said was for you to gain victory on the arena stage, obtaining the status as arena champion to get the seventy percent quota for Celestial Light Sect! Only in this way, Eldest Senior Brother would be able to see your ability! But in the end? How would I know that you actually couldn't win Fang Shaoning??"

Chapter 1404: Sort you out when we reach home (5)

Murong Fei hadn't expected that even Li Lingchuan would criticise her as her embarrassment instantly turned into fury.

"You.... what right do you have to say that of me? The last tournament we had with Green Cloud Sect, you also couldn't win Leng Yi Feng and had to rely on Eldest Senior Brother to confront the enemy personally? Green Cloud Sect's practitioners total ability originally are much higher than our Celestial Light Sect, it's not as if you didn't know about this!"

Li Lingchuan was struck right on the sore point in his heart as his expression sunk gloomier.

In the last tournament, he had finally waited for Li Moying's absence and thought that he would be able to hold his fort in the tournament, standing out in the limelight! In the end, he was defeated by Leng Yi Feng, and lost miserably! It was Li Moying who managed to rush back in time to save the losing battle.

The situation then was exactly the same as today! Only the main characters had changed into Huang Yueli and Murong Fei.

Recalling this, he forced himself to suppress his anger. He wanted to steal the position of Young Sect Master from Li Moying's hands and because of this, Murong Fei was the best cooperating partner whom he could not afford to offend. He could not break the alliance between them just because of a moment of fury.

“Alright, it’s useless to say all these now! The fact is you didn’t win Fang Shaoning but it was Bai Ruoli who defeated him instead, becoming the ultimate arena champion! The plans we had previously were all established on the basis that you had obtained the arena champion so it’s of no use now.”

Murong Fei said hatefully, “It’s all that wretched lass’s fault! She is merely an opportunist! If I knew that Fang Shaoning’s cultivation would drop after two hours, I would have also used the delay tactic then the person who won would have been me!”

Li Lingchuan couldn’t help but look askance at her.

Murong Fei made it sound so easy!

Escape? Where could she have escaped to? How could she escape?

Sixth stage realm second level versus sixth stage realm seventh level, that was a difference of five small realms. The disparity in terms of speed was already extremely too obvious.

If it wasn’t for Huang Yueli’s phantom movements and Profound Skill, she totally could not last for an entire two hours!

But he didn’t expose her as he said, “Let’s not mention the things which had already passed. Although this plan failed, we can still think of other ways which could absolutely separate the both of them!”

Murong Fei heard that and a spark of joy flashed past her eyes, “Oh? What idea do you have again?”

Li Lingchuan gave a cold laugh, “That’s right. Although our plan failed today but it’s not as though we didn’t reap any benefits. Today, I discovered that we may have a possible ally and he should be the same as us, anticipating with great hope to separate Eldest Senior Brother and Bai Ruoli!”

“Who are you talking about?” Murong Fei was totally muddled.

“Green Cloud Sect’s eldest disciple — Leng Yi Feng!”

Li Moying’s courtyard.

Huang Yueli was surrounded by a group of doctors as Li Moying sat by the side with a gloomy expression.

Among those doctors present, there were not only Celestial Light Sect’s doctors, there were some other doctors who were sent by President Hu and other various powerhouses and each of them were all renown Divine Doctors in South Sky Region.

Usually if any of them were to give a consultation, the patients would beg earnestly for their help and also accepted a huge consultation fee before they were willing to help. But now, all of them hurried over just to please Young Sect Master Li and his little fiancée.

But this fawning was absolutely nothing good at all.

Celestial Light Sect's main doctor was helping Huang Yueli take her pulse while he wiped off the sweat off his forehead three times, with a trembling in fear look on his face, just short of kneeling onto the ground.

Ever since he placed his fingers on Huang Yueli's slender wrist, he immediately sensed a huge amount of pressure.

Chapter 1405: Sort you out when we reach home (6)

Li Moying's glare was like two sharp blades as it repeatedly and endlessly swept across his body.

Li Moying's coercion was so powerful and doctors were the same as Armament Masters, where most of them were not skilled in cultivation. With his coercion, the doctors were all trembling from shock as all of them went into a daze and used a long time yet still unable to give a precise diagnosis.

This in Li Moying's eyes made him extremely dissatisfied.

"Doctor Ling, how is my Li'er's condition? After such a long time of diagnosis, there's still no conclusion?"

Li Moying's voice was biting cold and that gaze seemed as though he couldn't wait to chop off Doctor Ling's hand which had touched Huang Yueli's wrist.

Huang Yueli thought it was very funny and was full of sympathy for Doctor Ling as she hurried butted in, "Alright, stop being overly anxious. I said earlier that there's nothing wrong with me. I merely lost a bit too much blood and over exhausted my Profound Energy which was why I fell into a coma. So I'd probably recover after recuperating for a few days."

Li Moying gave her a repulsive stare, "I didn't ask you!"

He turned towards Doctor Ling, "What's the result of the diagnosis?"

Doctor Ling immediately retracted his hand and at the same time, wiped his sweat for the fourth time as he answered in fear and trepidation, "Re... Reporting to Young Sect Master, just as what Miss Bai said, she merely over exhausted herself too much which was why she went into a coma."

When Huang Yueli heard that, she tugged Li Moying's sleeve as she raised her little chin speaking a low voice, "I said this right, you're making a fuss over nothing!"

Li Moying totally ignored her as he continued to look at Doctor Ling.

"Just this conclusion and you needed to diagnose for such a long time?"

Huang Yueli looked up into the sky speechlessly. From these words, he said it as though the doctor intentionally took advantage of her! But she was the demon king's fiancée, who dared to do so?

Doctor Ling hurriedly replied, "But Miss Bai's exhaustion isn't quite the same. She wouldn't be able to recover after a few days so quickly. She had suffered a huge loss in blood and Profound Energy so she must use a large quantity of rare treasures to refine into medicinal pill and take it continuously.

Furthermore, it's best that she lay down in bed for the next two months and must take note not to cross hands with anyone!"

Huang Yueli interrupted him, "It's not that serious okay? This little injury needs two months to recover? How could that be possible? Moreover, isn't the ancient mystic region going to be opened in slightly after a month? How can I stay in bed for two months?"

Doctor Ling hurriedly continued, "This... I also know that based on Miss Bai's ability and innate talent, you definitely want to go to the ancient mystic region but the after-effects of Profound Energy exhaustion may be a huge matter. If you don't recuperate properly, it may affect your meridians and dantian and will easily lead to qi deviation when you cultivate in future so please don't think lightly of this condition!"

"But..."

Huang Yueli wanted to say something else but was stared at by Li Moying's cold glare.

"Not allowed to speak. Today you're so disobedient, I haven't even sorted you out yet! You dare to not listen to the doctor's advice?"

Huang Yueli pouted as she didn't want to argue with Li Moying. But she turned around and used a threatening look at Doctor Ling, wanting him to change his words.

The sweat on Doctor Ling's forehead started to drip down uncontrollably. This time he didn't even dare to use his hand to wipe it off.

Helping Miss Bai do a consultation was really an extraordinary tough job. First of all, Young Sect Master didn't even want to let him help her do a check-up and even just taking her pulse on her wrist rendered a death stare. Now Miss Bai even used such a vicious gaze to look at him.

He didn't manage to please any side at all!

This young couple was simply too difficult to please?

Doctor Ling hurriedly replied, "Miss Bai is still young and her underlying condition is good so perhaps it might be possible for her to recover quickly."

Chapter 1406: So shameless (1)

Huang Yueli immediately waved the chicken feather as a token of authority as she turned back and told Li Moying, "See, Doctor Ling said that I'm still young and my condition is good so I'd definitely recover very quickly!"

Li Moying's brows rose, "Li'er, do you feel that my age is catching up so there's a problem with my hearing? Doctor Ling obviously said 'maybe' and not 'definitely'. Don't use your small intellect on your husband, that's useless!"

Huang Yueli was exposed on the spot but she didn't feel embarrassed at all as she rolled her eyes at him and mumbled softly, "What husband, we are not even married yet!"

Doctor Ling saw through that they were exchanging sweet nothings so he hurriedly added, "I will go prescribe some medicinal pills for Miss Bai and once it's successfully refined, I'll send it over to Miss Bai immediately. I'll be excused!"

"Mn!" Li Moying nodded his head.

Doctor Ling slipped away immediately as though his feet were smeared with oil!

This was simply too terrifying. A man with such a cold character like Young Sect Master actually said such mushy stuff to Miss Bai which made Doctor Ling's goose bumps all fell onto the ground! If he didn't slip away quickly, he would probably be disgusted to death!

The minute Doctor Ling left, Li Moying immediately walked over, putting his hand on Huang Yueli's shoulder and pushing her onto the bed.

"Alright, you've been tired for the entire day so it's time to get some rest!"

"Aiya, wait a minute!" Huang Yueli nudged her shoulder as she attempted to escape from the evil force's coercion.

But Li Moying's strength was very powerful and with just two hands gently pushing on her shoulder without even using any strength, it rendered her totally immovable.

He frowned as he looked at his little fox wriggling like a caterpillar.

"Alright, can you stop moving? Don't you feel pain when you move in this way and rub against your wounds?"

Earlier before Doctor Ling entered, he used up all his self-restraint to help Huang Yueli apply medicine on her wounds. That entire bloody scarred body made his heart wrenched in multiple folds of pain, wishing that he could drag Fang Shaoning out and chop him into eight pieces!

Huang Yueli said, "Since you know that I will feel pain then just stop pressing on me!"

"If you obediently sleep, then I naturally won't press down on you. But you're so disobedient so I have to supervise you!" Li Moying's brow rose as he said that.

Huang Yueli couldn't help but give him a stare, "How could you be so overbearing! I ask you, surely you won't force me to stay in bed for an entire two months right? The ancient mystic region will be opening up in slightly over a month and I've wasted so much effort to gain the quota so I must enter! You're not allowed to stop me!"

When Li Moying heard that, his face sunk, "I know you want to enter but if your body condition doesn't allow that, then I cannot possibly agree to let you take the risk! There are plenty of chances for experience training but if you really hurt your body's fundamentals, by then no amount of rare treasures will be able to nurse your body back!"

Huang Yueli pouted, "What, you're not allowed to leave me and go to the mystic region alone!"

Li Moying continued, "What are you thinking of? How could I possibly leave you to go on an experience training alone? If you really are not able to recuperate, then I will stay behind in Celestial Light Sect with you to recuperate. Otherwise how can I rest my heart?"

Huang Yueli went into a short blank and following that her eyes turned wide with disbelief.

She said those earlier purely because she was being arrogant and had mainly wanted to see Li Moying's vexed look. In actual fact, she had no intention to not allow him to go to the mystic region.

In the end, she had not expected that this man actually planned in advance that if things didn't go well, he would give up the chance to enter the ancient mystic region like her, staying behind to accompany her.

Chapter 1407: So shameless (2)

In actual fact, in a place like South Sky Region, the amount of resources which Li Moying was able to obtain as compared to his past life, was really too little.

Moreover he needed to revert back to his past life's cultivation quickly, or even surpassing his past life. In this way, the chance to enter the mystic region was already an extremely rare thing and it was extremely useful for him to raise his cultivation, so he really shouldn't miss it.

But because of her, he didn't hesitate in giving it up..

Huang Yueli bit on her lips as a sour feeling arose in her heart. This man was always like this, no matter if it was in their past lives or now, he would forever place her in first place, willing to give in to her.

But it was exactly because of this which was why she must absolutely get well soon. She absolutely cannot drag Li Moying down!

Li Moying saw her dazed look and seemingly red eyes as he anxiously questioned, "Li'er, what's the matter? Had your wound split open again? Quick let me take a look!"

Huang Yueli saw a light in her mind and suddenly recalled something.

She stretched out her arm and grabbed Li Moying's shirt in front of his chest as she said, "I remember now! I have a way to get well immediately. Probably don't even need a month, just ten days and I'd be able to completely recover, ten days!"

Li Moying totally didn't believe in her, "Alright, Li'er, I know you still want to go to the ancient mystic region and I promise that I will bring you to other places for experience training so don't be so stubborn..."

"I'm not joking with you! Let me go first!" Huang Yueli gave him a stare.

His little fox's glare was too vicious so Li Moying had no choice but to obediently let go of his hand to see what she was up to.

Huang Yueli's right hand waved and right in the middle of the bedroom appeared a super large bath tub.

Li Moying was stunned as he didn't expect to see this.

“What is this? Don’t tell me... you want to take another medicated bath?”

Huang Yueli nodded, “Almost there, take a look at what’s in the bathtub?”

Li Moying heard her words and gave her an astonished look as he walked to the side of the bathtub.

The bath tub was filled with pungent red sticky liquid as an intense blood stench whiffed over!

At this moment, he was able to sense clearly that this red liquid contained an extremely powerful and dangerous energy! This kind of presence even brought along an indescribable pressure, capturing one’s soul. If it was someone with weaker determination, that person would probably not be able to stand firm by the side.

Li Moying couldn’t help but creased his forehead, “What is this?”

Huang Yueli gave a sweet smile as she showed her sharp little fangs, “Do you remember that I told you previously about the reward which I obtained in the inheritance tower, which was to soak in the Phoenix Blood Pool? Before I left, I took a little Phoenix Blood away conveniently...”

Li Moying was speechless, “This is a little?”

An ancient spiritual beast’s bloodline was long extinct in Soaring Heavens Continent.

But many of the strongest powerhouses in the Continent still reared in groups of nine grade magical beasts to collect their blood as a kind of medicinal ingredient, to aid their disciples under their wings to advance.

But even for those disciples who had contributed heavily towards the Sect, the amount of reward they could obtain each time was generally a small bottle.....

What Huang Yueli took out was the extremely powerful ancient spiritual beast’s Phoenix Blood!

She actually took out such a big tub like this??

Huang Yueli laughed dryly, “That’s right, just a little. That Phoenix Blood is very large! Although I’ve already filled all of the containers I have in my space, filling up several tubs but I’d at most taken less than ten percent...”

Chapter 1408: So shameless (3)

The corner of Li Moying’s lips twitched, “How many pails?”

She really was his Li’er, so she had conveniently taken away not just this little bit! He really underestimated her!

Huang Yueli continued speaking, “Last time when I was in the inheritance tower, I’d suffered from quite an amount of injuries at the last stage but perhaps due to the fact that I’m a part of the Sacred Phoenix Race, after entering the Phoenix Blood Pool, the multiple injuries on my body from external to internal all speedily recovered. It didn’t even leave a little scar and further, I even advanced!”

Li Moying heard that and evidently heaved a sigh of relief.

"I've never expected that you have such good stuff with you! Since that's the case, hurry up and soak in it. If it's really effective, then I can rest my heart at ease a little."

Huang Yueli nodded as she used her arm to prop herself against the bed, wanting to get onto the ground.

Li Moying shot up like an arrow as he carried her up from her waist, into the bathtub.

Huang Yueli used her hand to push his chest, "You... you can leave now. I can manage these few steps on my own, no problem at all."

Li Moying's feet didn't even nudge as he stared at her intently, "I'm still worried. You are so weak now, what will happen if you faint in the bathtub which is very dangerous as well! Alright, stop being why, which part of you haven't I seen before? Have you forgotten that earlier when I applied the medicine for you I've already seen everything!"

"... Ah??"

Huang Yueli's eyes widened in disbelief as she didn't expect Li Moying to say such shameless words out!

However, Li Moying wasn't just saying only, he directly took action.

His slender long fingers went round her waist as he undid her loose waist belt, attempting to take off her inner shirt directly.

Earlier for the convenience of applying medication, Huang Yueli had taken everything off including her undergarments so now she didn't wear anything on the inside as she instantly felt the man's scorching large hand patted on her naked skin around her abdomen, causing her to shiver slightly as that area which he touched started to burn up!

"Hey, you can't do this! Earlier when you were applying medication, I had already fainted otherwise I wouldn't allow you to do as you wished! Quickly go away! ..... Where are you looking at? Not allowed to look, I won't allow you to look!"

Huang Yueli cried out utterly discomfited. If not for the fact that her body was weak, she would probably have jumped up to hit him long ago!

Li Moying's vision swept across her bosom area and propped up his chin while in deep thoughts, "Earlier I didn't take a close look. From the looks of it, it seems that you've grown quite a bit? Looks like I've taken quite good care of you!" If she is a little more well fed, it's almost time to prepare for a bite!

Huang Yueli looked at his gaze as she simply wanted to murder someone!

Li Moying then lowered his head as he laughed softly, "Such good spirits, your wounds really don't hurt anymore? Relax, I'm not some beast so how would I bear to lay my hands on an injured woman? Obediently soak in the bath. I'm really worried about you so just let me stay here, I won't touch you!"

Huang Yueli had already been stripped naked by him and she curled up entirely in his arms without even raising her head as she cursed him more than ten times silently.

Hearing that, she hurriedly replied, "Make sure you keep your words!"

Li Moying shook his head as he laughed, "Keep, of course I'll keep my words! When had I ever lied to you?"

"That's very hard to say, you've lied to me so many times already....." Huang Yueli mumbled.

This man was usually very reliable but every single time he wanted to get fresh with her, the things he said were no different from a fart at all.

Chapter 1409: So shameless (4)

The current situation really made her unable to rest her heart at all.....

Although she thought in that way, she still obediently hugged Li Moying's neck, allowing him to place her inside the bathtub.

Huang Yueli just sat inside when she immediately moaned.

"Ughh....."

The wounds on her body haven't healed yet and the energy contained in Phoenix Blood was too strong hence it stung her wounds making her feel a sharp pain, crying out unbearably.

Li Moying immediately rushed over nervously, "Li'er, you.... are you alright?"

Huang Yueli clenched her teeth hard as she tried her best to turn over to give him a glance, "I.... I'm alright. It'd be better after a little while, don't... don't be too worried....."

Li Moying looked at her tightly creased brows as he felt an instant heart ache but he also knew that this was unavoidable, so he could only try his best to control himself.

Luckily this torturous stage which tormented the duo didn't last for too long and after a while, Huang Yueli's wounds started to heal at a speed which was visible to the naked eye.

After two hours later, those bloody wounds had all closed up and although it wasn't able to completely seal up but they could tell that it wouldn't take much longer for her to be healed completely.

This made Li Moying finally rest his heart down. It really was an ancient spiritual beast's blood, using it luxuriously for a bath soak and its effect was indeed extraordinary!

Huang Yueli was soaked in the bathtub and initially she was mostly in a daze as all her determination had been used to resist against the pain from her body. But as the wounds started to get better, she didn't feel that unbearable slowly and gradually opened her eyes.

The minute she opened her eyes, she was so shocked that she jumped up. Because Li Moying was actually sitting by the bathtub with his eyes staring at her fixatedly!

Although she knew that the lustre of the Phoenix Blood was dark red and Li Moying actually couldn't see her body while she was soaked in it, hence he could only instinctively see something. But being stared at by her own fiancée still made her cheeks blush a shade of red.

"Mn, that... Moying...." she opened her mouth as she whispered.

Li Moying immediately leaned nearer, "Li'er, what's the matter? Are you feeling better now?"

Huang Yueli nodded, "My wounds seemed to have closed up and it's not that painful already..."

Li Moying heaved a sigh of relief, "That's great! You can soak a little longer because the energy in Phoenix Blood is extremely abundant. Moreover it is compatible with your attribute so if you soak in it long enough, it will also repair the damage in your meridians."

Huang Yueli nodded, "I know, that's right!" She suddenly thought of something, "Do you want to take a soak as well? That time when I took the Phoenix Blood out, it was so that you and Little Wang Cai could have a soak in it but as there were plenty of matters happening later on, I forgot about it..."

She hadn't completed her sentence when she saw Li Moying's eyes lit up.

"Li'er, are you inviting me to have a lover's bath?"

"Lo... Lover's bath??" Huang Yueli was flabbergasted as she went into a daze and then furiously stared at him, "Love your head! You go over to that tub to soak!"

Saying that, her right hand waved and a bathtub appeared in the room. It was filled completely with Phoenix Blood as well but this bathtub was obviously much smaller than hers by two sizes.

Li Moying turned his head and took a look as he couldn't help but frowned, "This small?"

Based on his tall figure, this bathtub really seemed a little too small. If he sat in it, he probably needed to curl up entirely.

Chapter 1410: So shameless (5)

Huang Yueli took a look and realised that as she said helplessly, "This... my space only had that little tub! But I have several tubs here! Why don't you go look for a bigger tub and pour two tubs of Phoenix Blood into it then you can wash yourself with it."

Li Moying's lips curled, "Why so troublesome?"

He gave a devilish smile, a little different from usual but still had the same handsome and tempting look which made Huang Yueli's heart skip a beat as her senses were slightly off.

By the time she regained her senses, she discovered that Li Moying had deftly stripped all his clothes off!

Furthermore he wasn't shy at all as he totally had nothing on him and specially walked over calmly.

The minute Huang Yueli opened her eyes, she happened to see the spot where she wasn't supposed to be looking at...

"You... how could you suddenly remove all your clothes! Pervert! Shameless!" Huang Yueli flusteredly covered her eyes, feeling her own face burning up.

Li Moying innocently replied, "Wasn't it you who asked me to have a soak? Don't tell me you want me to have a soak with my clothes on? How unbearable would that be?"

“But... but you can tell me first!”

“Since you said to have a soak, then isn’t the next step to take off the clothes? Such an obvious matter and I still need to inform you beforehand?” Li Moying put on an innocent look.

Huang Yueli was stuffed. If it wasn’t for the fact that she knew this man’s true character, just looking at the expression on his face, one would really thought that he was a just good male who was framed! He was really so bad that he was shedding dregs!

Huang Yueli was extremely melancholic as she hurriedly replied, “Alright, since your clothes have already been taken off, then hurriedly go into the bathtub to soak! Why are you wasting time?”

She was thinking that if Li Moying went into the bathtub, then whatever shouldn’t be seen would not be seen, then the both of them would be able to have a good chat.

Otherwise, she would probably get a stye from seeing something that she shouldn’t be looking at!

Although she said that but in Huang Yueli’s mind, the earlier scene kept popping out.

Li Moying’s figure was tall and robust; from his broad shoulder one could tell that it was filled with strength. His sturdy muscle lines were perfect and flawless and following that pectoral muscles all the way down.... Ughh.....

Huang Yueli couldn’t help but covered her face once again. She... what was it that she saw earlier! She actually remembered it so clearly? Could it be that she was a **** in her bones?

Li Moying gave a response and stopped right there.

Huang Yueli was just feeling bewildered when she suddenly felt the bathtub which she was sitting in shook gently. Subsequently, the contents in the bathtub suddenly rose upwards and with a “splash” some water spilled onto the ground.

A warm body squeezed in and plastered tightly to her back.

Huang Yueli suddenly turned her head as she saw the man had already entered the bath and that chest which made her full of imagination suddenly appeared right in front of her eyes.

“Li Moying—!!” Huang Yueli couldn’t help but screamed, “Who allowed you to enter???”

Li Moying laughed softly, “Hmm? Wasn’t it you who asked me to hurry and come over to take a soak earlier? I’m so obedient, listening to whatever you tell me, why are you still angry?”

Huang Yueli was so infuriated that she almost threw up blood!

“Don’t you understand human language? I asked you to go over to that bathtub for a soak!”

Li Moying replied, “This... how would I know where you want me to do? You didn’t make it clear earlier and now that I’ve already jumped in, can you don’t be so picky! Moreover, that bathtub is so small, don’t you feel sorry for me?”
