Chapter 1461: Li Moying's thunder attribute (4)

Huang Yueli should have known this point much earlier but right from the start she had assumed that the Qilin spiritual beast's thunder attribute innate talent would definitely be higher than Li Moying's because it was after all an ancient spiritual beast!

But the scenarios which happened later on made her rather stunned.

Because the person who slowly gained an upper hand, was actually Li Moying!

This meant to say that Li Moying's thunder attribute innate talent was above the ancient spiritual beast's!

What kind of innate talent was that? What kind of potential was that?

Even if Huang Yueli self-admitted that her innate talent had surpassed most people and that she had been through huge waves but just the thought alone left her trembling in fear!

Wasn't Li Moying a little.... too perverse?

At this moment, Li Moying and the Qilin spiritual beast were entering the end of the battle.

Li Moying had based his innate talent to deflect most of the Qilin's damage and even in this abundant thunder attributed profound qi environment, he kept on absorbing the energy from the surroundings to build up his own power.

Under this kind of huge pressure battle to improve himself, his speed became faster and faster as his moves were getting more and more precise and overbearing.

Huang Yueli's eyes grew wider and wider because Li Moying seemed as though he was entering the state of advancement again!

It had only been half a year since he advanced into seventh stage and right now he was going to breakthrough to seventh stage realm sixth level!

According to this speed, he would be able to break through to the ninth stage realm in under two years!

Even when he was in his previous life, the speed of advancement was much slower, and was totally incomparable.....

Li Moying's imposing manner was getting stronger and stronger whereas the Qilin spiritual beast's power was gradually becoming weaker and weaker under his attacks.

Roughly after two hours, Huang Yueli could see from her naked eyes that the virtual image of the Qilin was becoming more and more illusory and blurry.... This was the display that its energy was becoming weaker and weaker and that meant that its battle power had already dropped drastically.

Huang Yueli heaved a long sigh as she knew that they should be able to get past this stage.

Indeed, Li Moying's last consecutive moves lit up the sky in dazzling rays, making one become blurry eyed and lastly a sword glint stabbed viciously into the Qilin's heart!

With a "Peng" sound, the purplish lighting which enveloped the Qilin's virtual image was completely shattered by him!

The virtual image turned into specks of thunder attributed energy as it slowly dissipated into the sky.

Li Moying's face revealed a smile as he kept his sword.

Huang Yueli immediately pounced towards him as she anxiously checked on him from head to toe, "Moying, are you alright! Earlier I was really scared to death. That was an ancient spiritual beast!"

Li Moying shook his head and laughed, "No need to worry, that was just a virtual image of the spiritual beast thoughts being trapped here. It had been so many years and it could at most preserve ten percent of its actual ability! Plus the compatibility of the attribute, dealing with it wasn't especially difficult."

Huang Yueli stared at him, "Do you think I'm a fool? Using these words to coax and lying to me! You really think that I couldn't tell that you almost got into trouble initially! Look at all these wounds on you....."

She used her hand to rub Li Moying's largest wound on his chest, making that man suck in a deep breath of cold air immediately.

Even though he was able to neutralise most of the thunder attributed profound energy which had caused damage but those electric currents still caused damage to his physical body and that was something unavoidable.

Now, there were numerous external injuries on his body and some of these malicious wounds were still bleeding.

But it merely looked serious on the surface only.

Chapter 1462: Li Moying's thunder attribute (5)

To a practitioner, this standard of external injury was easily healed.

Seeing his little fiancée getting so worried and anxious, Li Moying was touched but he also found it a little comical.

"Alright, alright, stop being so tense. The injuries I've suffered in the past were much heavier than this and you were never that tensed! Now what happened?"

Huang Yueli retorted angrily, "That... how could that be the same??"

The smile in Li Moying's eyes grew deeper as he leaned in closer to her speaking out softly, "What's not the same?"

Huang Yueli felt her face burning up due to his closing in and at the same time felt embarrassed from his question.

Not the same, of course not the same.

She hated this man in the initial stages in her past life, feeling that his character was too overbearing and he didn't know how to respect her. Furthermore, he was extremely full of himself, thinking that since he was the number one top expert in Soaring Heavens Continent, then she must marry him?

So during that time when he was injured because of her, she would silently say that he deserved it!

But not too long after, her feelings underwent a change.....

Li Moying saw her silence and roughly guessed the thinking in her mind as his lips gave off a gentle smile, slowly leaning in closer to her.

Just as their lips were about to meet, Huang Yueli suddenly regained her senses as she subconsciously pushed him at his chest area.

“Sssssss—”

Li Moying immediately gave a sharp cry as his expression became twisted from the pain, “Li’er, you... are you trying to murder your own husband!”

Huang Yueli realised that she had done something wrong as she bit her lips in embarrassment. Earlier she got a little too worked up and had forgotten the fact that Li Moying was still injured. Especially the wounds on his chest area were not just a little, so this push probably made that man want to throw up blood right?

She hurriedly retrieved medication pills from the Sky Phoenix Ring and stuffed it into his mouth while explaining, “This Blood Inducing Pill is most effective for treating excessive bleeding symptoms! And this Nine Karlgren Intermittent Ointment is for applying on your external wounds. Quickly apply some, it’s really very effective. If it’s purely an external wound, you’d recover completely within three days, not leaving any scars behind!”

Looking at his own fiancée’s anxious expression, Li Moying felt a warmth rising in his heart.

Huang Yueli did a basic first aid treatment on Li Moying’s wounds and later on as she still wasn’t rest assured, she kept asking him on his condition.

Li Moying hurriedly replied, “Rest assured, I’m really fine and I won’t take my own body as a joke! First stop busying yourself. Now that the secret room’s door is finally opened, shouldn’t we be taking a look inside to see what’s hidden in it?”

“Ah right, treasure!” Huang Yueli jumped up only to recall that she had forgotten the most important thing!

She hurriedly turned around and ran towards the secret room.

Li Moying looked at her departing figure comically as he shook his head.

How would his little money grubber miss any chance usually to make money from the treasures? But now because of the fact that he was injured, this young lass had completely forgotten about the treasure which was within reach and had been intertwining on that little injury of his.....

He especially liked this arrogantly pampered hypocrisy!

After the Qilin's virtual image had been crushed by Li Moying, the secret room's door had opened up entirely.

Although Huang Yueli was anxious to see what was inside but she was after all an experienced practitioner so she remembered that she had to act carefully and cautiously.

As she walked, she kept on checking the distribution of the surrounding mechanisms, ruling out the various dangers that could possibly exist.

Chapter 1463: Li Moying's thunder attribute (6)

Li Moying was especially reassured while he followed behind her as the two of them walked into the room.

This secret room looked extremely ordinary on the exterior but upon walking inside, they discovered that its space was much bigger than what they had imagined.

The place nearer to the door had two vertical rows of altars raised high up and each row laid sixth pieces of Profound Armaments in order.

These Profound Armaments were all ninth tier upper grade armaments and the six pieces were a set. One was for increasing attack power while the other was to increase defence.

Huang Yueli walked to the front and when she saw these, her eyes instantly lit up!

To tell the truth, the refinement of ninth grade Profound Armaments was a difficult process for each piece and in the past hundred years or so in Soaring Heavens Continent, only she was able to refine it.

Needless to say, ninth grade Profound Armaments set was to refine all six pieces into an entire set. The amount of Profound Energy exhausted was not a mere simple six folds but at least a total of twenty to thirty folds!

This astonishing exhaustion was something that even Huang Yueli could not afford. So she could at most refine a three piece set of ninth tier lower grade armament and that was already a top range quality Profound Armament within Soaring Heavens Continent.

Whereas for now, appearing right here was a six piece ninth tier upper grade Profound Armament set! If one could equip oneself with those at the same time, it would probably exhibit the same effect as a half God Relic!

The value of it was something which didn't require more talking.

"That's great, I knew it. For a large clan like the Cloudy Qilin Clan, the things that they left behind in the mystic region must be good stuff! We haven't made a wasted trip this time round!"

Her mood was extremely good and she stretched out her hand to pick up the Profound Armaments on the alter one piece after another and after observing it for a moment, she blatantly kept it in her own space, not leaving a single piece for Li Moying.

Li Moying totally treated as though nothing had happened as he smiled lightly standing behind her. Seeing her moving excitedly to explore around the place, he kept his security senses tight just in case some accidents happened and he was still able to react in time to protect his Li'er.

Huang Yueli kept all the Profound Armaments carefully and turned back to take a look at him, asking curiously, "Why? You let me keep it all away? Aren't you going to ask me what I want to do with it?"

Speaking of that, these ninth tier upper grade Profound Armaments were all of the thunder attribute, the main reason probably being the fact that most of the Cloudy Qilin Clan were of thunder attribute!

So the most suitable person to use them was Li Moying. If Huang Yueli were to use them, she might not be able to exhibit even half of the effects at all.

Moreover speaking, when both of them entered the mystic region, Huang Yueli didn't say anything as she just kept everything away. If it was another person, he would have had a huge fight with her over it long ago!

Even a biological father, son or brothers would turn into foes immediately!

Li Moying gave a disapproving smile as he replied, "You have your reasons for taking it. Perhaps after it went through your hands, the power of the Profound Armament would become even stronger and I'd be the one gaining the advantage....."

Huang Yueli heard that and knew that this man's heart was linked to hers as he could tell her intentions in one look.

Although she wasn't able to use the ninth tier upper grade Profound Armament set, but as a ninth rank Armament Master, she was extremely interested in the structure and refining method of the Profound Armament so she was thinking of doing some research on it before giving it to Li Moying.

Besides that, Huang Yueli had collected some ancient methods to attach magic onto the ninth tier Profound Armaments and after she had treated it successfully, she would return it to Li Moying. The effects would definitely be much better than now.

She was thinking of that in her heart and did not say it out but she had not expected that Li Moying had already guessed her motive.

Chapter 1464: This is your Mistress (1)

Huang Yueli felt very happy but she was still expressing her coquetry on the surface, "Who said I was going to give it to you? I'm keeping it for my own collection!"

Li Moying gave a warm and gentle smile, "Alright, alright, you can keep it as long as you're happy. Anyway I am yours as well, all yours!"

Huang Yueli swept him a glance as she wanted to continue being arrogantly pampered but her lips uncontrollably rose up to an arc.

Just as the both of them were speaking, suddenly a soft whimpering was heard from the inner part of the room, sounding like a little kitten meowing.

In that quiet and serene room with such a strange sound being released, it made Li Moying and Huang Yueli stunned for a moment as they immediately shut their mouths up at the same time as they searched everywhere for the origin of the sound.

Very quickly, they noticed a small tall counter in the deepest part of the secret room. But due to the dim light inside, they could only faintly see the tall counter being covered by a scarlet red rug but unable to tell what thing was on the counter.

They exchanged a glance and saw the astonished look in each other's eyes.

Huang Yueli said, "What's that? It feels like... some kind of living thing? Let's quickly head over and take a look!"

As she said that, she turned around and wanted to walk over but her wrist was held on tightly by Li Moying as he wrestled her back.

"Wait, what are you so anxious about? This secret room is filled with mechanisms so aren't you afraid that there would be danger? I'll head over first, you follow me." Li Moying gave her a stare.

Huang Yueli replied disapprovingly, "I've already cleared all the mechanisms earlier and moreover speaking, I can judge by myself. I'm an Armament Master, and.... alright, you go first....."

Li Moying gave her another stare and Huang Yueli felt rather guilty as she pouted and her voice grew softer and softer.

Li Moying let go of her as he headed up first.

This room was very deep inside so sunlight couldn't reach in at all. It was virtually covered in pitch darkness in the deepest end.

Li Moying stretched out his arm as he casually waved his arm and a bright light lit up, instantly splitting into eight sparks, slowly separating out into the eight different directions as it hovered in mid-air.

This move made Huang Yueli's eyes lit up!

To be able to grasp such good control of fire attributed elements meant that this man's fire attribute innate talent was extremely shocking. Even though he couldn't be compared to her, but he had at least ninth grade and above.....

Li Moying's innate talent in this life was indeed much more powerful than in his past life....

Suddenly she heard that weak whimpering sound again as she turned her head urgently towards the tall counter.

This time with the aid of the sparks, they could distinctly see a small bundle under the red rug, as it kept on trembling. Evidently it was a living little thing.

Huang Yueli sensed something and observed the surrounding situation. After she made sure that there was no problem, she shot upwards like an arrow and lifted up the rug.

Underneath the rug laid a small little magical beast which curled up. It was only a foot long and its entire body was filled with fine scales. But its scales were still rather fine and soft and those little pieces were exceptionally dazzling. Under the surrounding fire sparks, it radiated with brilliant lights which was extremely beautiful.

Huang Yueli took a look and revealed a delighted expression.

“Wow, this is a little Qilin? It’s so pretty!! So adorable!!”

She stretched out her hand and wanted to carry the little Qilin but whoever knew that her slender fair finger was just about to touch that dazzling scale when she suddenly felt an enormous amount of energy exploding from that little Qilin!

She was caught unawares and immediately sent flying back from the shock!

Chapter 1465: This is your Mistress (2)

Huang Yueli’s body was sent flying back in a split second.

Li Moying had always been watching her in full concentration and alertness and on seeing this, he immediately moved!

His figure turned into a dash of brilliant light which was so shockingly fast and managed to catch hold of her before Huang Yueli crashed onto the wall.

Huang Yueli crashed heavily onto her own fiancé’s chest and she had yet to settle her shock when she heard the man’s dull moan from behind. She hurriedly turned over and asked anxiously, “Ah.... Moying, you... are you alright?”

“I’m fine, the one in trouble is you!”

Li Moying stared fiercely at her and on seeing her pulling back her shoulder pitifully, he was still not appeased as he couldn’t help but pinch her nose, turning it all red.

Huang Yueli hurriedly covered her nose, “Boo hoo, now you’re conducting domestic violence? I’m really so pitiful!”

“You’re pitiful? I’m the one who’s pitiful! I told you ten million of times that you must be careful! It’s merely just a little Qilin, what’s there to be excited about?” Li Moying replied her in an upset tone.

Huang Yueli couldn’t help but rebutted, “What do you mean by ‘just’ a little Qilin! This is an ancient spiritual beast! Don’t tell me you don’t know what a young sapling of a spiritual beast means in Soaring Heavens Continent? I’ve grown until this big and only seen an ancient spiritual beast in drawings!”

Li Moying gave her a chilly stare, “You don’t even draw up a draft when you’re bullshitting, only seen it on drawings? Then what’s that stupid bird called Wang Cai?”

“Ughh...” Huang Yueli was speechless as she stomped her feet, “You’re intentionally picking on me! Anyway, other than Wang Cai, have you ever seen any other living spiritual beasts? Even if it’s Wang Cai, it’s merely just a spiritual body! Whereas this.... is a living ancient spiritual beast!”

She intentionally emphasized once again as she added, “Moreover, it’s so cute....”

Li Moying was flabbergasted but he also understood that what Huang Yueli said was correct.

The sapling of an ancient spiritual beast, if he nurtured it properly, it would become a powerful aid in future!

Especially after their rebirths, no matter in terms of their cultivation or the backing behind them, it was totally incomparable to their past lives. They needed to resume back to the peak and to find out the mastermind who harmed Huang Yueli then, so powerful battle power was definitely required.

With this little Qilin, it indeed was doubling their power!

Li Moying hugged Huang Yueli and let her just, “Alright, let me do it! You worrisome young lass, move aside!”

Huang Yueli anxiously followed behind him, “You... be careful! Earlier I went to hug that little Qilin and had already observed carefully. There aren’t any special mechanisms in the surroundings so it’s the little Qilin’s spiritual power which expelled me! Although it had been sealed away for so many years, it’s ability is definitely not ordinary so you must be very... careful....”

Huang Yueli had not yet completed her sentence when her eyes suddenly widened as it was filled with indescribable shock.

She saw Li Moying walk over to the tall counter in big steps. He first observed the surroundings and after hearing Huang Yueli mentioned that there weren’t any mechanisms, he directly reached his hand out towards that little Qilin.

His action was very gentle, very slow and moreover he had worked up his Profound Energy, preparing for a fierce battle at any point of time.

But reality was out of their expectations.

When Li Moying’s finger touched that little Qilin, he didn’t feel any resistance, or perhaps.... it could be said that he didn’t feel any Profound Energy fluctuations at all.

Chapter 1466: This is your Mistress (3)

He stretched out both hands as he directly held the little Qilin and lifted it up.

For the entire duration, the entire process was unexpectedly smooth and he totally didn’t show any signs of expulsion.

Huang Yueli was totally dazed upon seeing this scenario and after some time, she walked up and said in a dissatisfied tone, “What’s going on? How could it be like this? Why is it that you can hug it while I was being rejected in such a harsh manner!”

Li Moying replied, “Well....”

He was about to say something when he felt the little thing in his hand suddenly nudged.

Little Qilin's body shook several times in his hand and slowly opened its eyes.

That pair of clear and lively crystal like eyes was bright and sparkly as brilliant lights radiated from it, merging as one with its gorgeous scales on its body.

"Wow..."

Huang Yueli was just about to exclaim that this little thing was just too adorable but she had not expected that immediately after the little Qilin opened its eyes, it turned its head towards Li Moying and stuck out its little tongue, licking Li Moying's palm several times.

This obedient look was just too adorable.

Huang Yueli instantly forgot to lecture it as she stretched out her hand wanting to touch it.

Whoever knew, this time was exactly the same as previous. Her finger had yet touched the little Qilin when she felt a huge wave of energy coming at her! Luckily she was prepared this round and managed to retract her hand in time while retreating several steps, getting rid of that strength.

"This... what situation is this??" Huang Yueli's eyes widened like full moons.

"Aw aw....." Little Qilin raised its head and cried out in her direction.

Although she didn't understand the Qilin language, but just from the tone alone, Huang Yueli could instinctively tell that this little Qilin was filled with disgust towards her...

Li Moying couldn't help but laughed out.

Honestly speaking, he had never seen Huang Yueli putting on such a deflated expression in front of a spiritual pet. Because she had always been given the gift of attracting young saplings since her past life. She was especially able to gain various high levelled magical beasts younglings' favourable impression and she would always receive various spiritual pets when she went on experience learning.

It was Li Moying whose nature was cold hence many young magical beasts were afraid of him. Those spiritual pets which were contracted by him were usually coerced by his power and not out of their own willingness, unlike Huang Yueli who had many spiritual pets coming over to request for her to accept them.

This was the first time that this little Qilin actually liked Li Moying so much, and on the contrary, hated Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli's face turned black, "You still dare to laugh! What bewitching soup did you give this little thing??"

Li Moying hurriedly replied, "I'm innocent, I didn't do anything at all.... there's probably a reason why it doesn't like you, probably because..... ah!"

He was talking halfway when he felt a sharp pain from his wrist as he couldn't help but cried out in alarm.

The two of them lowered their heads and saw little Qilin after licking Li Moying several times, suddenly revealing its sharp fangs as it bit down hard on his wrist!

Little Qilin's fangs were exceptionally sharp and in an instance, it had caused Li Moying to be injured.

A malicious wound appeared on his wrist as blood started to flow outwards.

Little Qilin leaned its head over and licked several mouthfuls of blood. At the same time, its body started to change evidently.

Seeing its body slowly turning huge, almost inflating to twice its length, the scales also obviously turning harder.

It raised its head and gave a loud roar resplendently!

Chapter 1467: This is your Mistress (4)

“Roar——-!!!”

A bright voice broke the room's silence and little Qilin's scales gave off a blinding radiance!

Li Moying's expression turned grave as he pursed his lips and his right hand gathered a dim blue purplish glow, drawing out a blinding mark in mid-air!

The speed of his movements was extremely fast and within three breaths of time, he had already struck out ten over incantation gestures!

Little Qilin followed his actions and moved its little head to the left and right, while giving off an “aw aw aw” cry on and off.

Lastly, it spat out a sliver of blood essence from its mouth, merging into one with the array pattern which Li Moying had drawn.

A bright light bridge connected between the man and beast. That light bridge only flashed once and disappeared soon after.

Following that, little Qilin seemed as though it had instantly exhausted all the energy within as its little brain drooped downwards, leaning against Li Moying's arm, totally not moving as though it was asleep. Its body size also started to shrink, returning back to the original size when Huang Yueli had just discovered it.

Huang Yueli was originally stunned but very quickly she realised what was happening so she didn't dare to move or make any sound, worried that she might interrupt this one man and one beast.

It was until now that she opened her mouth, “You... you actually contracted this little Qilin!! Moreover it automatically bit your skin to contract with you!!”

Li Moying's lips curled into a smile as he kept caressing little Qilin's scales on its back admiringly, “Didn't you say that I'm so fierce and no young magical beast would like me? See, there's still some little thing which knows my value, knowing that following a owner like me will give it a bright future!”

Huang Yueli seemed as though her pained spot was stepped on by him as she replied in an unresigned manner, “What do you mean? Earlier that was a coincidence, a coincidence! It must have been you who used some scheme or trickery to lure this little thing, otherwise how could it possibly only like you and not like me?"

Saying that, she reached out her hand for the third time, attempting to carry this little Qilin. Whoever knew that the minute she closed in, little Qilin suddenly awoke and its little head rose up as it looked at her in full alert while giving off an "aw aw" cry, obviously threatening her not to come nearer!

Huang Yueli's face turned green.

Li Moying couldn't endure it and laughed, "I told you, it doesn't like you!"

Huang Yueli gave him a stare while feeling extremely unhappy, could it be that she had no more charm left? Even a small animal didn't like her and her fiancé kept on teasing her!

Seeing his little fox's upset expression, Li Moying realised that he had gone overboard. As though he was really afraid that she was really angry, he hurriedly leaned over and said, "Li'er, really angry? I'm just joking around. This little Qilin doesn't like you probably isn't your problem but there's a real reason to it."

Huang Yueli asked curiously, "What? What's the reason?"

Li Moying explained, "Do you still remember that when we first entered the mystic region, what the old fellow Cui Yuan Shan said? He said this mystic region was left behind by an ancient God clan Cloudy Qilin Clan and that this clam seemed to have some feud with the Sacred Phoenix Race.... According to the records in the ancient manuals, various God clans would rear a certain spiritual beast and this Qilin is obviously reared by the Cloudy Qilin Clan. It doesn't like a young lass from Sacred Phoenix Race which is a very normal thing."

Huang Yueli heard his explanation and immediately understood the reason.

When Cui Yuan Shan was introducing the situation in Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region, he had really mentioned this matter.

Chapter 1468: This is your Mistress (5)

It wasn't wrong to say that.

It was just that they didn't know what feud had between the Cloudy Qilin Clan and Sacred Phoenix Race, that even a tiny spiritual beast wasn't willing to see her?

Furthermore, the more she thought, the more unreconciled she felt.

This pretty little thing was discovered by her first! She merely wanted to caress it only, and it actually didn't allow her to do so!

She felt very tired.....

Her despondent and disappointed expression looked a little pitiful.

Li Moying shook his head as he smiled, stretching out his hand to tease the little Qilin around his arm as he opened his mouth, "Little thing, do you see this beautiful sister? She's your Mistress and if she doesn't like you, neither will I. So you have to listen to her obediently, do you understand?"

Little Qilin's two round eyes bore a shocked expression as it kept giving out an "aw aw" cry.

Spiritual beasts were excellent with human nature. It was easy to tell by just looking at little Wang Cai arguing with Huang Yueli every day.

Although Little Qilin was still young but understanding what Li Moying said was no issue at all. Hearing its new Master's request, it was both upset and anxious, as it tried its best to stomp its little feet.

Huang Yueli totally couldn't understand what it was trying to say and could only sense its extreme repulsion towards her. As she was feeling stuffed, she felt repulsive about everything that Li Moying did.

Li Moying quietly listened for a moment. After he and little Qilin had formed a contract, he was able to use his soul trace to communicate with it.

Not knowing what the man and beast communicated, Li Moying went silent for a moment and continued speaking, "No matter what, she's my fiancée and your Mistress. If you still want to follow me around with the contract and leave this lousy mystic region, then you must respect her."

Little Qilin drooped its head immediately, apparently not expecting its owner to be so overbearing!

It was an ancient spiritual beast with esteemed bloodline!

But it actually couldn't be compared to a woman who made one disgusted??

However, circumstances were stronger than a man. Li Moying was now its real owner and no matter how it disliked Huang Yueli, there was no way it could go against its owner.

Li Moying raised his arm and carried little Qilin over to Huang Yueli.

This time when Huang Yueli stretched out her hand to touch it, although little Qilin still drooped its head with an unwilling look, but it had no choice but to control itself to lay flat on Li Moying's palm, allowing Huang Yueli to caress it in any way she liked.

Huang Yueli originally was curious about how those beautiful scales felt like but on seeing little Qilin putting on such an unhappy expression, her mood suddenly came and directly carried that thing over and started all sorts of ravage, rubbing and rolling her between her hands, pinching and kneading it.

Li Moying knew that she was using this opportunity to vent her anger as he almost burst out laughing.

Huang Yueli was playing around with it when she suddenly cried out, "Right, this little thing still doesn't have a name yet! I'm its Mistress so can I give it a name?"

Her eyes suddenly turned huge as she stared at Li Moying.

Li Moying originally wouldn't reject her but since she put on a deliberate act of cuteness, it made his heart go soft as he immediately nodded his head, "Of course, what name do you want to give it?"

"About this....." Her eyeballs rolled around.

Little Qilin suddenly had a bad premonition as it hurriedly struggled to climb away from her hand, crying non stop.

However, Huang Yueli had a tight hold over it as she continued, "Mn, look at its pretty scales which are gleaming with gold sparkles, it looks like it's very good at inviting wealth..... let's just gain a complimentary remark, call it IFa Cai!"

Chapter 1469: This is your Mistress (6)

When little Qilin heard this name, it's eyes opened wide as though it was struck by lightning as it looked at its owner in grief, hoping that he could help it gain back some justice to stop this abnormal bad woman.

Whoever knew.....

"Pfffft!" Li Moying directly spurted as he choked on his saliva.

Following that, the words he said directly shattered Little Qilin's heart, "Alright, it's really a good name. I express extreme like for it! Then in future.... Fa Cai will be the newest member in our family!"

He knew that little Qilin's name wasn't going to be any way nice but since the Phoenix was named Wang Cai 1 and the Qilin was named Fa Cai 1....which..... which was rather normal... right?

But no matter what it's named, as long as he could coax his fiancée, what would a little sacrifice for the little Qilin matter?

Huang Yueli heard his compliments and her mood indeed lifted up. Especially when she saw the little Qilin bearing a pitiful expression as though it was about to faint, she felt especially pleasurable!

Hmpf, who asked you to go against me. There hadn't been any spiritual pet which hadn't been dealt with by this Sister! It was the same for a spiritual pet!

Huang Yueli ravaged little Qilin for a moment more.

Li Moying saw that little Qilin was just too pitiful and finally gave it a little sympathy as he carried it away.

Huang Yueli already had enough fun so she didn't make any resistance.

He looked at Li Moying caressing little Qilin and suddenly, she seemed to have recalled something as she revealed a shocked look.

"Right, this little thing doesn't like me but likes you so much. Could it be that.... you're the descendant of this Cloudy Qilin Clan?"

Li Moying was stunned, "Why would you think in that way?"

Huang Yueli was originally just letting her thoughts run wild and just spoke her mind but being counter asked by him, the more she thought, the higher the possibility she felt it was true.

"Don't you feel that things just happened too coincidentally? You're of the thunder attribute and earlier when we were at the secret room entrance, that Qilin's virtual image could not even hurt you. Doesn't that mean that your thunder attribute innate talent is so high that it's enough to conquer the Qilin spiritual beast? But why do you have this kind of innate talent? There are only that many practitioner families in Soaring Heavens Continent but none of their innate talents are comparable to yours. Don't you think you're very ridiculous?"

"In the past I didn't understand but now thinking of it, it is possible that it's because you're a descendant of the Cloudy Qilin Clan. The Cloudy Qilin Clan rears Qilins and that already shows that the most powerful genius in the clan must have innate talent which could suppress the spiritual beasts in order to make them submit. If you have Cloudy Qilin Clan's blood, then it is understandable for you to have such innate talent."

"Moreover speaking, my Wang Cai also mentioned that the bloodline in you is extremely powerful, so much that even he feels fearful...."

She slowly recollected her memories, feeling that all the bits and pieces of the puzzle were linking the same truth.

However after Li Moying finished listening, he shook his head, "This is merely your imagination. It's virtually impossible to ascertain how it is in reality."

"Why is there no way to ascertain?" Huang Yueli pointed at little Qilin in his arms, "Doesn't this little thing here not know anything?"

Li Moying shook his head immediately, "Little thing's age is too young. It said that it had just been born for a few days and was sealed here immediately. I've attempted to interact with it earlier but it doesn't seem to know anything at all. It only said that the thunder attribute on me is extremely powerful, making it felt a sense of familiarity hence it made a contract with me."

"Isn't it obvious from what the Qilin said? What's called familiarity? This little Qilin had never left the Cloudy Qilin clan's turf since birth! Only Cloudy Qilin clan's clansmen would let it feel familiar isn't it?"

Chapter 1470: Something seemed to have happened (1)

Li Moying frowned slightly, "This...."

Huang Yueli could tell that he was wavering as she immediately added, "Now that we're in the historical ruins of Cloudy Qilin Clan, perhaps we might be able to find some evidence to prove your bloodline! If you're really a descendant of the Cloudy Qilin Clan, then perhaps there is some inheritance within the mystic region which only you, will be able to get! Just like the inheritance which I obtained in the Inheritance Tower!"

Huang Yueli was exhilarated as she spoke, apparently very excited and couldn't wait to tug Li Moying along to search for the inheritance.

However, after Li Moying heard that, he replied in an expressionless look, "Li'er, I think you might have mislooked a very important matter. If I'm really from the Cloudy Qilin Clan..... then you're from the Sacred Phoenix Race."

Huang Yueli blinked as she asked puzzledly, "What do you mean?"

Li Moying replied, "Although we do not know what deep feud there is between these two clans, but even Cloudy Qilin Clan's Qilin doesn't want to see you. If we managed to go to God Realm one day, won't the two of us be separated?"

Huang Yueli went into a blank for a moment and started smiling, "I saw.... you still say I'm thinking too much. I think you're the one who thinks too much! It's still too early to say if we can ascend to God Realm! In your past life, haven't you spent several decades of time but still unable to breakthrough to the tenth stage realm? But..."

She suddenly bared her sharp little tiger fangs as she gave a crafty smile, "If there's really someone who wants to separate us, what will you do?"

Li Moying looked at his little fox's smile as his heart shook and pulled her into his arms.

He leaned in close to Huang Yueli's lips and gave a deep laugh, "If there's one such day... then we'll elope! What do you think?"

"Elope? It seems so exciting eh?" Huang Yueli smiled sweetly.

Li Moying couldn't help but leaned over and kissed her on her lips.

Little Qilin was clamped in between the two of them as it struggled furiously, using its short nails on its little claws to scratch against Li Moying's arm but was totally unable to stop the intimacy between the two lovers.

As there was no one around and little Qilin had no beast rights, so Huang Yueli didn't act as coquettish as usual as she stretched out her arms and circled it around Li Moying's neck, obediently accepting his demanding kiss.

The two of them had never thought that Li Moying's casual words would be realised one day in future....

After a long time, Li Moying finally released the young lady in his arms.

Huang Yueli's face was flushed red as she rolled her eyes at him, "Carry your Fa Cai properly! I'm going over to take a look if we've left out any treasures!"

She made a round in the secret room and discovered several bottles of eighth grade medicinal pills as she kept it away carefully.

Turning back, she discovered a small notebook in Li Moying's hand as he was flipping the pages, reading it.

She curiously leaned closed to him, "What are you reading?"

Li Moying was reading as he replied, "I found a notebook underneath the rug and it talks about some things to pay attention to when rearing a Qilin."

Huang Yueli heard that and hurriedly replied, "That's great, there's actually a guide for rearing! Quickly keep it properly and adhere strictly to what the notebook says. Don't even let Fa Cai be nurtured into a picky eater and lack of manners is a no-no, especially disrespecting its owner!"

As she was saying that, she gritted her teeth as she recalled that disobedient little Wang Cai.

Luckily she had stuffed him into the Sky Phoenix Ring. Otherwise if a phoenix entered the Cloudy Qilin Clan's turf, he would turn the sky around!

Li Moying laughed as he shook his head, keeping both the little Qilin and notebook away.
