Chapter 1601: A debt to settle (7)

There was a time limit to the Master Servant Contract that she had with Yuan Zeyu, and furthermore it was only effective when she was alive.

If she died accidentally, then Yuan Zeyu would regain his freedom.

Hence from the angle of the greatest benefit, Yuan Zeyu should have chosen to leave the mystic region himself. However, he chose to take the risk of not being able to leave the dangerous place and to remain right here.

This friendship, Huang Yueli would not forget about it.

It was her principle to repay kindness rendered upon her and take revenge back on her foes!

She took another look deeply at Yuan Zeyu and turned around to walk towards Li Moying as she hooked her arm around his and swung, "Alright, now we can finally leave!"

Li Moying allowed the young lady to act like a spoilt child while hanging his arm as his expression seemed a little arrogantly pampered while his cool peach blossomed eyes grazed past her face, without saying a single word.

Huang Yueli felt a little strange as she turned her head to take a look at him.

"Moying, we can leave now! What's the matter with you? Why are you in a daze?"

Li Moying's lips curled up slightly as he gave a cold snort, "Young Miss Huang is finally all done? I see that you're rather happy talking to other men, so much that you've forgotten that your own fiancée is standing right next to you!"

"Ah?" Huang Yeuli went into a blank and following that she immediately burst out into laughter, "You..... what's the matter with you? Why are you being jealous? These are all your subordinates! I'm merely helping you to beguile them otherwise why would I spend so much effort talking to them? You're a little too petty!"

Li Moying gave a slight hmph as he lowered his voice, seeming as though he was muttering to himself.

"Really? But there's one here who isn't my subordinate!"

The look which Yuan Zeyu looked towards Huang Yueli was something which he understood very clearly as a man! That fellow obviously has a crush on Huang Yueli, but he probably knew that he wasn't worthy of her hence he used the excuse of being a Shadow Guard to stay beside Huang Yueli.

That fellow had stayed in Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region not because of his loyalty only. Only his Li'er was so retarded in this aspect which was why she had not detected the other party's feelings.

"What?" Huang Yueli didn't hear what he was saying as she raised her head up to question closely with purity in her crystal clear big eyes.

Li Moying gave a sigh as he caressed her delicate face and switched the topic.

“Nothing, we.... Should be going!”

When they spoke about leaving, Mo Yi and the rest all frowned.

Mo Yi said, “Master, the agreed date to reactivate the mystic region by both Sects had already passed by for more than a month and I’m assuming that no one had stayed outside to look for us. If we want to leave, then we have to try to open the entrance ourselves and that requires a huge amount of Profound Energy to support it....”

Li Moying opened his mouth calmly and cut off his words, “No matter, I have a way! Everyone just crowd around me will do.”

Under normal circumstances, Mo Yi’s would naturally not be wrong. Reactivating the mystic region required twelve ninth stage realm practitioners to work together and it wasn’t something which they were capable of.

But for Li Moying, this wasn’t the case.

As Cloudy Qilin Clan’s first even god grade genius to have passed the Qilin tablet refinement successfully, not only had he received all the inheritances in the Qilin tablet, he had also received the authority to control Violet Sun Valley fully and special privilege to enter or leave Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region as he wished.

With him around, leaving this place didn’t take any effort at all.

Indeed, with a change in Li Moying’s thoughts, Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region’s sky activated a brand new pathway.

“Let’s go!”

Li Moying held Huang Yueli’s slender waist as he led her to pass through the path first while the rest of them followed up one after another.

The entire Sect’s entrance was filled with lights as it was bustling with excitement.

Li Lingchuan and Murong Fei each wore a set of official court dress as they stood at the front of Celestial Light Sect’s main entrance, welcoming various guests who came over to visit from many different large Sects.

Today, to Celestial Light Sect, was an extremely important day, and was the start of a brand new beginning.

Because today was the day where Li Lingchuan would be officially designated as Celestial Light Sect’s new Young Sect Master, and also the day when he got officially engaged to Murong Fei!

This was the day when Li Lingchuan felt flushed with success.

He dressed up in his best attire and he was high spirited as he stood at the front of the mountain entrance, filled with great aspiration.

Almost all those large powerhouses within South Sky Region had all received Celestial Light Sect's invitation card, inviting them to witness the birth of their new Young Sect Master.

Those guests were headed over as spectators were full of praises and congratulations when they saw Li Lingchuan, almost sending him to heaven!

"Mister Li... aiyoh, wrong, it's Young Sect Master Li! Congratulations, congratulations! I knew long ago that you have a fortunate life ahead and your innate talent is the top within South Sky Region so you'd definitely come out with big achievements in future! Within such a short time, you've already become the Young Sect Master!"

"Isn't that so? Mister Li is South Sky Region's first class super genius and what's rarer is that his moral standing, courage and insight are all first rated too. I've always felt that it's a waste of talent for Young Sect Master Li to only be a direct disciple. Only the position of Young Sect Master is worthy of you! Indeed, you've finally become Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master eventually!"

"Sect Master Murong has great insight, to be able to tell that Young Sect Master Li's ability and character are excellent, and he's able to take on huge responsibility! Not only had he passed on the position of Young Sect Master to you, he's also married his eldest daughter to you as well! Eldest Miss Murong is the number one beauty among our South Sky Region, the number one talented young lady! Even she fancies Young Sect Master Li, it's obvious what kind of potential and person Young Sect Master is!"

"That's right, double happiness! Congratulations!"

Peals of praise kept on coming, making Li Lingchuan extremely comfortable as he was elated.

Especially when he recalled the first time when Li Moying had been designated to be the Young Sect Master, although the guests were much more than now, but most of them had a gloomy look as they came and went by quickly, totally not flattering Li Moying at all.

Li Lingchuan naturally assumed that under this comparison, of course he Li Lingchuan's character had gained the approval of everyone! His potential... apparently wasn't any worse off than Li Moying!

Of course, there was no way that he would find out that the reason as to why those guests didn't flatter Li Moying, one of it was because Li Moying's character was just too cold and no one dared to be rash in front of him.

Another reason was because Li Moying's innate talent was just too abnormal! The minute many presidents from those powerhouses thought of the fact that for the next several hundreds or even thousands of years, they would be suppressed by that demonic grade genius over their heads and that their own Sects would never be able to be known to the world, how would their feelings.... Possibly get lifted up! Some of them couldn't even be bothered to come out with polite words.

In comparison, Li Lingchuan wasn't much of a threat in various powerhouses' eyes.

To the extent that, in front of a gem like Li Moying only made him especially useless, no different from a dumbass.

But unfortunately, this dumbass was still immensely pleased with himself.

As everyone found him laughable, so they wouldn't be stingy with a few words of flattering.

Since nice words don't require any money so they could ridicule him all they wanted behind his back and Li Lingchuan would never find out!

Right after the bunch of Sect Masters and Elders from other large Sects had exchanged polite greetings with Li Lingchuan, the minute they walked into the door, their faces indeed took a change immediately.

They took a quick glance around and couldn't help but gathered together to ridicule him.

"Look at the conceited and arrogant look from that vile character, all of us are the Elders from large Sects but he doesn't even bother to look at us in the eye, how could he do that? Did he really think that having the position of Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master meant that he was really Li Moying?"

"Isn't that so? Li Lingchuan didn't think that he is Li Moying, he just feels that he's much more incredible than Li Moying! I really wonder where his confidence came from!"

"But this is a great thing! Originally I thought that the Sects in South Sky Region could only continue breathing under Celestial Light Sect but whoever knew that Li Moying actually got into an accident while on an experience learning trip in the mystic region! Now that this dumbass Li Lingchuan is taking over the position, it's really a great help from the heavens!"

"Haha, you're right! Only Li Moying has such excellent innate talent. Although he's not my Sect's disciple but his demise still made some people sigh....."

"If I had a say in it, it's you who's too naïve! I heard the rumors around the world that Li Moying's death has something to do with Li Lingchuan! It was said that Li Lingchuan had plotted against his own Senior Brother, causing him to die in the mystic region!"

"What? There's actually such a thing?? How could that be possible?? Where did you hear that from?"

"There's quite a number of people who heard of this! It's rumoured that this time it was Celestial Light Sect and West Sky Region's Green Clouds Sect entering the mystic region for experience learning together and Green Clouds Sect's disciples went around spreading these. Even West Sky Region's large Sects all know about this rumour..."

"Heavens! If it's really true, that would be too scary! Even plotting against his own Senior Brother, that's an intolerable behaviour! Is Murong De getting foolish as he grows old? How could he allow such a thing that is worse than a beast to take on the position of Young Sect Master and even marry his own eldest daughter to him!"

“So that’s why they say Celestial Light Sect is finished.... It really matches the saying that ‘Fortune rests in the east of the river for thirty years but turns to the west after thirty years pass’¹...”

Similar rumours were heard around every corner of Celestial Light Sect.

The guests from other Sects who were spreading the rumours mostly avoided Li Lingchuan himself, but in front of other Celestial Light Sect’s ordinary disciples, they had nothing to fear.

Because Li Lingchuan wasn’t Li Moying!

When Li Moying was Young Sect Master, he had absolute prestige in Celestial Light Sect. If anyone were to talk bad about him in the Sect, it would immediately cause an uproar by the masses of the disciples, invoking a group fight.

But now that there were so many guests from other sects who gossiped about Li Lingchuan’s unpleasant talk unbridledly, yet no one was upset over this.

On the contrary, Celestial Light Sect’s disciples secretly gazed towards Li Lingchuan’s direction as a sliver of hatred flashed past their eyes.

Regarding the rumour of Li Lingchuan causing Li Moying’s death, they naturally had heard of it.

Because there were quite a number of direct disciples present and they had heard the truth when Luo Jiyun said it out.

Although they didn’t dare to offend Li Lingchuan, and they didn’t debate the truth with him in front of the mystic region’s entrance but they had spread the rumour under the tables by quite a bit.

Although none of them were the witness, but compared to Luo Jiyun and Li Lingchuan’s usual character, everyone felt that Luo Jiyun’s words were apparently more convincing.

Moreover speaking, Li Moying’s potential was clear for all to see. Just how powerful he was, was something which Celestial Light Sect’s disciples had all experienced. Even his fiancée Bai Ruoli was also a first class talented lady.

The two of them joined hands and easily allowed Leng Yi Feng to kill him so easily? Wasn’t that a comedy? It’s just an unbelievable story!

Li Lingchuan on the other hand, because he was a disciple of their Sect, so there were many ways which he could come out with to hoodwink Li Moying, thereby successfully plotting against him!

Li Lingchuan’s character was originally arrogant and cold blooded, with a look of hatred to exact revenge hence he wasn’t exactly able to capture the hearts of those in Celestial Light Sect. Now with such a rumour, there was a ninety nine percent of the masses of disciples going against him!

But no one could do anything about him at all.

Right after Li Moying's death, Murong De knew that the possibility of Celestial Light Sect becoming Soaring Heavens Continent's first class powerhouse no longer existed hence he had no heart to manage the Sect's affairs therefore he passed the authority over to Li Lingchuan.

With absolute authority in Li Lingchuan's hands, he started to suppress those people who dared to oppose him. He also had Murong Fei to stand up for him, so if any disciple dared to say anything bad about him, they would suffer from an insane level of revenge!

"Sigh, today is Young Sect Master's coronation day, it really makes me feel that there's nothing left to live for! Are we going to let such a despicable villain reign over our heads forever?!" Someone shot a furious look towards Li Lingchuan's back as he couldn't help but grumbled angrily.

"Hush... are you mad! How dare you even say such things! Guests from other sects can comment... Young Sect Master, but we can't! Have you forgotten about what happened to those people like Su Qingyue and the others who had once followed Bai Ruoli, what has happened to them now? Don't tell me you want to end up like them?"

The former had a shock as he recalled something and his expression turned steely green and immediately shut his mouth, not daring to speak a single word more.

A vile character like Li Lingchuan didn't have abilities like Li Moying and he couldn't even be compared to Li Moying when handling the Sect's affairs. But when he exacted revenge, he had many different ways of doing so.

Like those people who came from Celestial Light Academy, they were merely Celestial Light Sect's ordinary disciples and didn't dare to discuss about Li Lingchuan's matter. But only because they had once stayed in the same academy as Li Moying and were acquainted to Huang Yueli, hence they suffered the most severe revenge.

Especially for Su Qingyue and the others, they were directly sent to the most dangerous Demonic Ore Cave for mining.

Demonic Ore Cave had abundant Fantasy Eye Demonic Rock and each piece of it was priceless. But these kinds of rocks itself had its own spiritual nature and would form a special kind of demonic tone in the cave, to cause confusion onto those practitioners' soul trace and consciousness who entered the Demonic Ore Cave.

In the past, those practitioners who entered the Demonic Ore Cave to mine had willingly accepted the missions and most of them were inner or even direct disciples who thought that under the provocation of the demonic tone, it might lead to a better method of cultivation. In order to seek a breakthrough in their bottlenecks, they proactively went ahead with this.

But now, Li Lingchuan had coerced Su Qingyue and the others to mine in the Demonic Ore Cave from day to night.

These people originally had ordinary innate talents and their cultivation base was the lowest in the entire Celestial Light Sect. They had been shut in the Demonic Ore Cave for a long time hence quite a number of them had already gone insane.

There were often other Celestial Light Sect's disciples who passed by the Demonic Ore Cave and hearing those peals of miserable shrieks, it sounded extremely horrifying.

For a moment, Li Lingchuan's method of killing the chickens to warn the monkey was effective and in an instant, it lessened the number of people who went against him.

All of Celestial Light Sect's disciples didn't dare to voice out their displeasures and could only watch Li Lingchuan hugging Murong Fei with an extremely conceited and complacent look. They were suffocated by this so much that they were almost going to sustain an internal injury!

Everyone's inner hearts were sighing with sorrow, why had Li Moying been harmed by this kind of despicable and shameless thing!

Could it be true that good men could not live for long whereas scourges reigned for a millennium?

Heaven was really unjust!

The process of welcoming guests lasted for an entire morning

At midday, the coronation of Young Sect Master and engagement ceremony was held right in front of the public square in front of Celestial Light Sect's main door, as it was about to start.

The entire public square quietened down.

"Distinguished guests from various powerhouses in South Sky Region and disciples of Celestial Light Sect, it's an honour to have invited all of you here. I believe that everyone knows that today is an extremely important date to us Celestial Light Sect. From today onwards, our Sect will have a successor and my daughter Murong Fei, has a man who she can entrust her life to."

Murong De's gaze brushed past Li Lingchuan and Murong Fei who were standing beside him as he opened his mouth to speak ruefully.

He had naturally valued Li Moying much more, no matter if it was for Young Sect Master or his son-in-law, it was Li Moying who was much more dependable. But now he had no other choices.

Li Lingchuan seemed to have seen through his thoughts as he took a step upwards and said, "Master please be assured. This disciple will never let down your hopes and valuation, and will lead Celestial Light Sect to new heights! I will also let Fei'er become the most fortunate and glorious lady in the entire South Sky Region!"

To receive a confession so openly, naturally was a very glamorous matter.

Especially before this, it had always been her to stick to Li Moying. Not to mention being affectionate to openly, he simply just treated her as air.

Now that Li Lingchuan had been so attentive towards her, it had satisfied her vanity and adding on to the considerations of reality benefits, she immediately casted Li Moying behind her.

When Murong De heard that, he nodded as a praiseful look appeared in his eyes, “En, not bad, this Master naturally believes in you! But in terms of cultivation, you need to put more effort into it, to get closer to your Eldest Senior Brother who had already passed on.”

When Li Lingchuan heard these words, his expression stiffened a little and he nodded his head a little while later, “Yes, I will obey Master’s teachings!”

He had thought that he had already successfully brainwashed this old man completely! But he had not imagined that his heart was still longing for Li Moying! He even dared to compare him against Li Moying!

Could it be that he was so incomparable to Li Moying, even if that fellow was already dead but yet he could only live under his shadow?

But no matter how much Murong De longed for Li Moying was totally useless!

Just like those ordinary disciples, there was no meaning in opposing him becoming Young Sect Master!

Because there was no way a dead person.... could possibly be revived!

There were many practitioners from other Sects who heard the conversation on the stage and they exchanged glances as they started applauding together.

But secretly, they started to engage in commentaries softly.

“What’s going on? What do you guys say.... Does Sect Master Murong know or not, about Li Lingchuan causing Li Moying’s death?”

“I think, he probably doesn’t know much. Li Lingchuan is not an idiot so he definitely wouldn’t let this news emit to his ears! But for Murong De to not know about this completely without a single doubt, I don’t believe it at all! After all, he had been a Sect Master for several hundreds of years so how could he be that silly!”

“Then why did he still....”

“That’s easy to understand! If you were in his position, you probably could only do this as well! Li Lingchuan’s innate talent, although compared to Li Moying, he’s a complete trash but among the talents in South Sky Region, he is still one of the top few. He has the highest innate talent and ability in the current Celestial Light Sect! What else could Old Man Murong do? Just act as if you don’t know a thing, as long as you don’t expose him directly, that will do!

Chapter 1606: Extreme joy turns to sorrow (1)

“Tsk tsk, listen to what you said, I really feel indignant for Li Moying! When he was Young Sect Master, just how much benefits had he obtained for Celestial Light Sect? How many tournaments had he won? In the end?”

“Don’t say Old Man Murong don’t remember him, just look at that Eldest Miss Murong! In the past, she was so smitten towards Li Moying until even outsiders like us were touched by it. But now he had just died for how long? She can’t wait to remarry!”

“Sigh, this kind of woman... no wonder Li Moying doesn’t fancy her!”

While everyone was chipping it, the coronation ceremony had officially begun.

Murong De stood in the middle of the stage as he recited an entire page of incantation, the rough meaning was to report Celestial Light Sect’s situation to those ancestors and seniors who had already passed on.

After he finished reciting, he beckoned towards Li Lingchuan.

Murong De was looking at him intently as he opened his mouth slowly, Lingchuan, Celestial Light Sect’s future is now entrusted into your hands so you must cultivate hard, regulating yourself strictly without any laziness.”

“Yes, Master please be assured!” Li Lingchuan replied.

His heart was beating fast as he had reached the limit of excitement.

For the past ten over years, he had schemed various times and even doing many despicable things, even colluding with other Sect’s practitioners to murder his own Senior Brother. All these were just for this moment!

His motive was finally going to be accomplished!

“Wait! I don’t agree!”

An icy cold voice suddenly rang from the direction of the mountain entrance, interrupting Murong De’s words.

Everyone present was all dazed as they didn’t expect anyone to open their mouths to talk at this moment!

Don’t think that they were in an intense discussion privately earlier. The minute Murong De started off the ceremony officially, everyone immediately shut their mouths.

The coronation ceremony officially started and for such a solemn occasion like that, who dared to casually butt in? This was an impolite action and that was simply a clear provocation towards the Celestial Light Sect! Anyone with a bit of brains would never do such a thing.

Murong De's face revealed an unpleasant look and the movements of his hand paused as he turned back towards the entrance and spoke out sharply, "Who dares to interrupt Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master's coronation ceremony? How dare you! What audacity!"

The others also started to bustle as they all looked out towards the entrance.

Only Li Lingchuan who was kneeling on the ground, upon hearing this voice, made his brain went "buzz"!

Could it be that, that man had suddenly came back to life??

Li Lingchuan's heart pounded wildly but he immediately convinced himself, "Impossible, this is just impossible! It must be my misperception! It must be because I'm usually too afraid of Li Moying so I'm having this hallucination! Dead people cannot come back to life, how could I even scare myself like that?"

Thinking of this, he too turned his head back as he cried out sharply towards the direction of the entrance, "Who is that? How dare you play punk at Celestial Light Sect! And even dare to deceive us! Still not showing yourself quickly!"

"Li Lingchuan, who gave you the guts... to talk to yours truly like that?"

A frigidly cold but magnetic voice rang once again as it slowly floated in from the entrance.

Earlier when that person spoke for the first time, it was a few mere words and many of them had not reacted.

But now he had spoken, a strange familiarity rang among everyone's ears.

Momentarily, everyone was stunned as they exchanged glances and all they could see were shock and surprise in one another's eyes!

Everyone had the same thoughts in their minds: What the, this is just too.... too ridiculous? Could it be that Li Moying's departed spirit is back to Celestial Light Sect to demand vengeance for his grievances?? This was simply seeing a ghost alive!

Whereas at this moment, a powerful thunder attributed Profound Energy expanded from the mountain entrance's position. This Profound Energy came in the form of a lofty scale as it caused surging waves with an unequalled overbearing might, as though a heavy hammer knocking on to everyone's chests!

Those disciples with slightly weaker cultivations immediately turned green as their chests felt a surging turbulence.

Everyone present had a change of expression as they had an unbelievable guess in their minds! They subconsciously split up in the middle to leave out a path from the mountain entrance.

A tall lanky figure walked in slowly from the entrance.

His speed wasn't very fast but every step was steady and firm, emitting a powerful Profound Energy aura, making him appear as though he was a majestic tall mountain in everyone's eyes.

Everyone's gazes fell upon his face.

Following that, everyone's mouth opened wide as their eyes popped out from their eye sockets in a dazed look, totally unable to say a word.

"Li.... Li Moying??"

Murong De was the first to regain his senses as he opened his mouth in disbelief.

That outstanding, handsome look on that perfectly featured face had no flaw on it. His imposing manner was strong and he was a man with excellent abilities which no one present could even recognise wrongly!

Li Moying... South Sky Region's first genius in the long history, Li Moying!

Celestial Light Sect's once Young Sect Master Li Moying!

Only he had such peerless handsome looks, and only he had such unparalleled aura! It was enough to make everyone present, bow down and submit to him uncontrollably!

This was the genuine persona Li Moying himself! Not some grieved spirit, but a living man!

As the Profound Energy fluctuations emitting from him was too strong, even those who stood very far away from him could sense that pressurizing suffocation which was not something that an incomplete spirit could achieve?

Murong De looked blankly at his own eldest disciple walking nearer and he didn't manage to regain his senses in time.

"You.... you... how did you....."

Li Moying had not appeared alone. By his side stood Huang Yueli who was dressed in a white dress with delicate embroidered flowers and when the two of them stood next to each other, the impeccable image of a talented man and a beautiful lady made them look like the perfect couple.

As for those Shadow Guards who had disappeared in the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region, all of them reappeared as they followed behind him.

Li Moying clutched Huang Yueli's hand as he looked straight and walked towards Murong De. After he stopped, he opened his mouth and spoke out coldly.

"Master, how have you been.... I know that you're anxious to find a new successor for the Sect but unfortunately, I'm not dead yet! So this so-called coronation ceremony, is merely a joke!"

Murong De stared at him as his mouth opened wide, "But, but... aren't you already... haven't you already fallen in the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region.... No, gone missing! I personally led men to search for you around the surroundings for a few days but we didn't even catch a glimpse of your shadow! Now that the mystic region has already closed for such a long time... how is it possible for you to leave that place by yourself?"

Li Moying's lips curled up which seemed like a smile but not exactly one.

However, beneath his eyes was a chilly murderous intent which made anyone who saw him born fear in their hearts!

Even an established ninth stage realm practitioner like Murong De, when meeting against his sight, couldn't help but have his hair stood up on its ends.

Li Moying said coldly, "What's the matter? Could it be that Master had assumed that since the mystic region is shut, then there's really no way to come out? As long as I want to, I'd naturally have a way to do so!"

"But... that's the ancient mystic region! Our two Sects with so many ninth stage realm Elders, spending so much Profound Energy together before we could barely activate the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region's entrance. Moreover it can only be opened at a special designated timing.. how could you possibly....."

At this present moment, Li Lingchuan was already frightened out of his wits as his face turned as white as paper. Sweat kept dripping down from his forehead and his body kept on trembling uncontrollably.

Never in his wildest dreams had he expected that Li Moying had actually... actually left the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region alive!

But how was this possible?

He had personally witnessed Li Moying pursuing Huang Yueli and had directly jumped down that cliff! The bottom of the cliff was filled with high levelled magical beasts so no matter how strong Li Moying was, he absolutely could not have survived under the attack of so many high levelled magical beasts!

Moreover speaking, even if Li Moying's luck was really good and had not been eaten alive by those magical beasts, but it wasn't possible for him to use his own strength to activate the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region by himself?

No matter how Li Lingchuan thought, there was no way he could understand what on earth was going on.

But this fascinating thing had already happened right now!

"Li Lingchuan....." Li Moying swept an indifferent glance at him as he slowly spoke out, "You don't seem very happy to see me come back? What are you afraid of? Have you not thought of the possibility... that I could still return alive?"

Li Lingchuan's face turned deadly white but he said, "El... Eldest Senior Brother, what joke... are you cracking? How could I possibly not be happy? You're able to come back peacefully so this is something which we Celestial Light Sect should celebrate about, I... of course I'm happy."

He forcibly curled up his lips as he braced himself to say these words.

At the same time, his thoughts swiftly turned in his mind, continuing to think if there was any way to whitewash himself, or some method which would allow him to escape from Li Moying's hands.

However, he was in a fluster and couldn't think of any ideas at all.

Li Moying's immense Profound Energy aura had securely locked onto him and under such a strong imposing presence enveloping him, as long as he moved an inch, he would definitely suffer from Li Moying's Profound Energy's restraint.

Li Moying laughed coldly, "Really? Junior Brother Li really knows how to play dumb! Did you think I've got amnesia? That day in Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region's core region, you made a move towards me and my fiancée and attempted to push me down the cliff, these are things which had barely happened just slightly over a month ago!"

"No, it's not like that.... Eldest Senior Brother, you've mistaken. Things are not what you think it is, listen to my explanation....."

Li Lingchuan's face was deadly pale as he kept on shaking his head vigorously.

Although he was anxious, but he instinctively knew that if he absolutely could not admit to doing such things, to verify that he had done such a crime!

Otherwise there was no doubt that he would end up dead today! Li Moying was never soft handed when he killed someone.

If he could find a reason to get over this and refuted Li Moying's accusation, even if Li Moying wanted to kill him, Murong De would absolutely not ignore this.

Li Lingchuan's thoughts flew swiftly about in his mind when a light suddenly lit up.

"Eldest Senior Brother, you've really mistaken! That day by the side of the cliff, I absolutely wasn't trying to harm you, but to aid you! While I was in the mystic region going on my experience learning, I accidentally heard that Leng Yi Feng was going to deal you with a deadly move so in order to save you, I rushed over! Just as we were crossing hands at the cliff, Eldest Senior Brother you suddenly appeared hence you've misunderstood....."

His words sounded apparently right but were actually wrong. He thought that since no one actually saw the true scenario and Leng Yi Feng had already died, Murong Fei was just like a grasshopper like him hanging on the same thread, so as long as he denied it all the way, who could expose him?

His words had just fallen when Li Moying's murderous intent became even fiercer, apparently angered by his shameless agitation as his fingers moved and he had the intent to kill him immediately!

"Hmmm... this is Sect Master Murong's other direct disciple, called Luo what again?"

"He's Luo Jiyun!"

"Right, right, right, that's him! Didn't they say that he had also died in that mystic region's experience learning trip? How did he also come back to life?"

"Looks like there's indeed something suspicious in this matter. Celestial Light Sect's water.... Is really deep!"

Luo Jiyun originally didn't wanted to interrupt his Eldest Senior Brother but on seeing Li Moying almost wanting to murder someone, he couldn't hold himself back.

It wasn't that his ill-timed saintliness was acting up to stop Li Moying from killing him, but he was afraid that if Li Moying had a disagreement and made a move, then it would really make Li Lingchuan's lie become the truth.

He knew that Li Moying couldn't be bothered to talk with this kind of scum and didn't bother about his reputation among the ordinary practitioners but he, Luo Jiyun, minded that very much! His own Senior Brother was so suave and awesome, how could he possibly allow this kind of villain to splash dirty water onto him? He must expose Li Lingchuan's shameless filthy mouth!

Luo Jiyun suddenly popped out and Li Moying was worried that he might injure him so his action took a pause.

"What are you doing out here for?"

Luo Jiyun said loudly, "Eldest Senior Brother, I've had enough of Li Lingchuan that hypocritical villain so just let me finish my words!"

He turned towards Li Lingchuan, "Li Lingchuan, in the past I have still treated you as my senior brother. Occasionally those small little tricks which you plotted to scheme Eldest Senior Brother, I'd only treated those as you were acting in a moment of folly hence I didn't complain about you in front of Master. But you actually colluded with outside people and almost got Eldest Senior Brother killed, you're simply shameless to the extreme!"

"That day's matters, did you really think that it's done real secretively? There's no witness? Unfortunately, I am not dead and is still alive and kicking and I've witnessed everything that had happened that day! Let's put aside that fact that you and Leng Yi Feng colluded together to harm Eldest Senior Brother, you even used me to threaten Sister-in-law and coerced her to be together with Leng Yi Feng!"

Following his description, the public square's discussion got louder and louder.

There was a huge disparity between both their sayings and evidently, Li Lingchuan had just tried to brushed past this by giving vague descriptions without any elaboration whereas Luo Jiyun was able to speak out each single detail clearly, explaining the cause and effect clearly. So anyone with a bit of judgement would be able to tell who had a higher possibility of speaking the truth.

"Heavens, so the rumour is actually true! Li Lingchuan had really dealt his own Senior Brother a deadly blow, just because of the position of Young Sect Master?"

"This is really the greatest gossip ever! Li Lingchuan actually did something so disgraceful, even daring to scheme his own Senior Brother. It seems that Celestial Light Sect is absolutely going to have their reputation going down the drain this time round!"

"Isn't that so? Celestial Light Sect had always been South Sky Region's major powerhouses' leader and is usually almighty, but whoever knew that this time round they created such a scandal like this. Both parties actually had a confrontation in front of so many strongholds. Tsk tsk, I think it won't take a few days before this scandal is going to revolve around the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!"

"This is really going to be bustling!"

Various guests from those major Sects were roaring with excitement as they pricked up their ears while gloating over the misfortune.

Even though he had subconsciously considered this possibility, but he still wasn't willing to believe that such a thing could really happen!

"Jiyun.... You.. what you said, is it the truth? You must report the truth and not take any sides! Is it really your Second Senior Brother who harmed Eldest Senior Brother?"

Luo Jiyun replied bitterly, "Master, I'm not siding anyone! What I said is the entire truth! I can swear to heaven that if I've lied in any way, may I be struck by lightning!"

Li Lingchuan's heart thumped hard and he clenched his teeth and continued denying, "You still dare to say you're not taking any sides? You and Li Moying are on good terms and had always excluded me. This is an open secret within Celestial Light Sect, which disciple doesn't know about this? Why are you putting up an act? According to what you say, I'm the one who harmed Eldest Senior Brother then will everyone please judge this reasonably. Based on my cultivation, how could I possibly harm Eldest Senior Brother? Even if it was a sneak attack, there's no way I could do anything to him!"

Usually, Li Lingchuan would never admit that Li Moying's ability was much stronger than his!

But now in front of so many people trying to whitewash himself, he could only admit to this fact through his clenched teeth.

When he said these words out, he sensed that he seemed to have been slapped by someone, which made him feel extremely embarrassed.

What made him even more embarrassed was that when he said that, no one actually casted any doubts towards his ability as everyone deeply felt that what he said was reasonable as they all started to nod their heads.

“Isn’t that so? The disparity between the two of their abilities are just too far apart! Li Lingchuan probably can’t even take one move from Li Moying!”

“A genius like Li Moying, even if it was Li Lingchuan and Leng Yi Feng added together, could not possibly harm him! This matter indeed sounds a little too ridiculous!”

“Could Luo Jiyun really have exaggerated the entire matter?”

A small portion of people expressed the doubts in their minds and when these discussions entered everyone’s ears, not only did Li Lingchuan not feel the joy of escaping death, instead he felt his face turning fiery red!

So which he had thought highly of himself during this period of time, the others were actually treating him like a joke!

In other people’s minds, he could not even be compared to one finger of Li Moying’s!

When Luo Jiyun heard the doubts, he pursed his lips and seemed as though he hesitated for a moment, but eventually, he still opened his mouth.

“Eldest Senior Brother fell for it, of course isn’t because his ability didn’t match up to you, but because.... because Murong Fei was one of his accomplices! She was the one who personally pushed Lil Sister-in-law down the cliff and Eldest Senior Brother jumped down the cliff in order to save Sister-in-law! Otherwise just based on you and Leng Yi Feng, how could you possibly have harmed Eldest Senior Brother?”

He originally wanted to leave some face for his Master Murong De, thinking of exposing Murong Fei’s crimes in private later.

But now seeing that Li Lingchuan had shamelessly continued to whitewash himself, he could only say this out.
