

Weaponsmith 1671

Chapter 1671: For you, Sovereign..... (1)

Did she know what she was doing?

Levitation Sword Palace's serving maids were all talented young ladies who were picked out from ten thousand candidates and no matter if it was in terms of looks, innate talent or ability, they were all of superior calibre. Quite a number of large powerhouses direct disciples couldn't even be compared to an ordinary serving maid from Levitation Sword Palace.

Just referring to those few who were ordered by Huang Yueli, their cultivations were at least sixth stage realm and above whereas Huang Yueli herself was only at fifth stage realm ninth level!

However what made Luo Jiyun and the others even more surprised was that these serving maids really listened to whatever Huang Yueli instructed!

Moreover, each and every one of them were exceptionally respectfully, totally not having the kind of arrogance which a Blue Profound Sect disciple should have. Instead they all treated Huang Yueli with respect and reverence.

After the serving maids brought tea and snacks for them, Huang Yueli waved her hand and said, "That's all we need, you may leave now. Unless the Sovereign is looking for me personally, otherwise don't come in to disturb us."

The serving maids respectfully curtsied, "Yes, Sovereigness."

When Huang Yueli heard their greeting, her lips twitched as her heart cried out a gloomy sigh!

She had not expected Li Moying's command to actually be conveyed throughout the Sect so quickly! This man... he really was too tyrannical!

She also knew that there was no use for her to correct these serving maids. No one dared to oppose Li Moying's commands hence it could only be left like that.

After she dismissed the serving maids, she turned back and saw Luo Jiyun and the few Shadow Guards all surrounding a small narrow corner, looking at her in shock and uneasiness.

Huang Yueli smiled and said, "What's the matter? Haven't I asked you guys to sit down and drink some tea? Why are you guys all standing around?"

The few of them exchanged glances and Luo Jiyun opened his mouth to ask, "Lil....Lil Sister-in-law, stop playing riddles with us. Quickly tell me what this... what this is all about? Eldest Senior Brother and Blue Profound Sect.... what relationship do they have?"

Huang Yueli thought about it for a moment and smiled, "Regarding this matter, it's indeed a little inconceivable when I talk about it and there's a possibility that you guys will find it hard to believe but... what you've heard earlier are all true. Moying he is indeed... Blue Profound Sect's Sovereign!"

The few of them looked at each other in dismay because this kind of answer was something which they could not accept!

Luo Jiyun was like a headless fly turning round and round on the original spot as he kept mumbling to himself, "How is this possible? How could this be possible? I must be dreaming, and in my dream even Lil Sister-in-law is sprouting rubbish! Ah, who can pinch me?"

Huang Yueli was utterly speechless as she shook her head and her right hand waved as she continuously shot out three bursts of Profound Energy.

Furthermore her moves were swift and the position which she struck out was especially tricky.

Luo Jiyun was totally unprepared and was struck immediately. It hurt him so much that he directly jumped right up from the ground.

"Ouch, ouch, ouch!! So painful! Lil Sister-in-law, I... I only asked you to pinch me once, why did you hit me three times?"

Huang Yueli's lips curled up slightly, "I see that you seem to keep asking me to pinch you every other hour so thought you're in need of being pinched! So I might as well pinch you a few more times to satisfy your needs! How is it, are you satisfied enough? Do you still want to continue being pinched?"

Luo Jiyun grimaced in pain and furiously shook his head, "No.... No need!"

"So are you finally awake? Or do you still think you're still dreaming? Still thinking that I'm spouting nonsense?" Huang Yueli asked again.

Hearing that, Luo Jiyun didn't reply immediately but hesitated for a moment before opening his mouth to ask cautiously and solemnly, "Lil Sister-in-law, Eldest Senior Brother he.... surely he can't be Blue Profound Sect's Sovereign right? How could this be possible? Could he.... he....."

Chapter 1672: For you, Sovereign..... (2)

Looking at Luo Jiyun's extremely tangled look, Huang Yueli casually picked up a tea cup and sent it to her lips as she asked curiously, "Could it be that?"

Luo Jiyun suppressed his voice as he asked mysteriously, "Could it be that... Eldest Senior Brother is actually Sovereign Mu's illegitimate child?"

"PFFFFTTTTT—!!"

Huang Yueli had just drunk a mouthful of tea and immediately sprayed it out, moreover it sprayed precisely onto Luo Jiyun's face, making that outstanding young lad turn into a dishevelled drowned rat.

Luo Jiyun stood in a daze on his original spot as tea started dripping down from his hair, as he looked embarrassed and totally at a loss.

"Lil.... Lil Sister-in-law?"

"Cough cough, cough cough cough..." Huang Yueli herself choked and she coughed furiously for half a day before she finally got over it.

Her lips kept on twitching as she gazed at Luo Jiyun, "You.... how would you possibly think of it in this way? Who told you such nonsense?"

Luo Jiyun said foolishly, “Ah? No... it’s not like that? Have I guessed wrongly? But everyone in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent knows that Blue Profound Sect’s Sovereign is the Continent’s number one top exponent Mu Chengying! Whereas Eldest Senior Brother is just a practitioner from South Sky Region. No matter how genius he is, surely he could not directly become the Sovereign, right?”

“Even if Sovereign Mu is really like what the rumours said, that he had gone into Qi Deviation while in closed door cultivation, but no matter what it shouldn’t be Eldest Senior Brother’s turn right? So the only logical explanation, that would be... ughh.... don’t tell me it’s wrong?”

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes towards the sky as she mumbled softly, “If he dares to have an illegitimate child outside and even dare to bring him back to Blue Profound Sect to be the successor of the Sovereign seat? Isn’t he afraid that I will murder him?”

“Ah? Sister-in-law? What did you say?” Luo Jiyun didn’t hear what she said as he hurried over to ask her.

Huang Yueli gave a light cough and said, “Things are not what you imagined. But it might be even more unimaginable than what you think. It’s a long story, so take a seat, all of you.”

After the few of them were seated, Huang Yueli then toughly told him about the scenario about her and Li Moying’s rebirth.

In order to clear everyone’s suspicions, she gave them a rather detailed picture, from the time she and Li Moying met each other to the time when they discovered each other’s identity, as well as the process where Li Moying slowly regaining his memory, everything included.

Hearing her completed story, Luo Jiyun and the others seemed as though they were struck by lightning and couldn’t regain their senses back for more than half a day.

It took quite a while later when Luo Jiyun opened his eyes wide as he asked in disbelief, “So to speak, Eldest Senior Brother he.... he’s actually the reincarnation of Mu Chengying? And Lil Sister-in-law, you are... are.... The number one Armament Master in Soaring Heavens Continent, number one beauty, peerless top exponent, that renowned Mythical Flame Palace’s Young Palace Lord Huang Yueli???”

Huang Yueli chuckled, “This flattery isn’t bad at all, I like it!”

Luo Jiyun totally didn’t notice what she was saying as he was still in a state of dizziness while muttering to himself.

“No wonder Eldest Senior Brother’s innate talent is so heaven defying and no wonder he’s so knowledgeable, and for no rhyme or reason being able to master so many heaven grade and god grade cultivation methods and Profound Skills when Celestial Light Sect obviously didn’t had those ancient inheritances! And same for Lil Sister-in-law, not only is her innate talent in cultivation outstanding, her armament refining skills are so stunning, as though there was nothing that she didn’t know ....”

“Heavens, so the truth is actually like this... this is just too unimaginable.....”

Mo Yi and the others state of mind weren’t any better than his.

Chapter 1673: For you, Sovereign..... (3)

This news was just too shocking and no one was able to accept it in the short duration of time.

Huang Yueli waited for a moment but still saw their dazed looks as she helplessly shook her head.

“Alright, things are more or less like this but we require you to keep this in top secrecy. In Blue Profound Sect, only the Four Great Guardians, Levitation Sword Palace’s trusted aide and attendants, as well as a few managers know about it. The rest including Blue Profound Sect’s Elders or the others do not know about this matter hence no matter under what circumstances, remember not to divulge the information!”

Everyone shivered as they immediately voiced out in agreement.

Luo Jiyun asked, “Lil Sister-in-law, why can’t Eldest Senior Brother announce his own identity publicly? Could there be any dangers?”

Huang Yueli remained silent for a moment and continued, “Fifteen to sixteen years had passed and Sky Emperor City’s circumstances are different from then. Before your Eldest Senior Brother resumes to his peak ability, it’s best that we remain low key for now.”

Saying that, she recalled something, “That’s right, your Eldest Senior Brother mentioned this earlier to let the manager make arrangements for you guys. Brother Mo Yi and the others will be treated as inner disciples while Junior Brother Luo you will become Blue Profound Sect’s direct disciple... should I say congratulations?”

“Rea....Really?? Heavens, something so great is happening!!” Luo Jiyun was so excited that he almost fainted!

Happiness came too suddenly!

Just before today, he thought that it was a difficult feat for him to become a servant of the Seven Sacred Lands, not to mention officially joining the Sect to become a disciple of the Seven Sacred Lands.

But now..... he abruptly transformed, without even needing to take the assessment, to become the number one Sacred Lands’ direct disciple!

This was the status which so many peerless talents in Sky Emperor City had tried means and ways, fighting head over heels but were still unable to obtain!

Mo Yi and the others were extremely excited as well. Although it was only the status of an inner disciple, but based on their innate talent, they would not even be able to get into any of the large powerhouses in Sky Emperor City based on their own abilities and to gain this status was akin to running into some unexpected luck.

Huang Yueli smiled and said, “But your potential and innate talents as compared to Blue Profound Sect’s ordinary disciples have quite a huge distance. So you must value this chance and work hard to cultivate!”

The few of them hurriedly bowed their bodies and chorused in unison, “Third Miss please be assured. Your subordinate will not make Master disappointed!”

Even if they already knew Huang Yueli and Li Moying’s real identities, but they still weren’t able to change their appellations towards them.

Huang Yueli nodded her head and wanted to continue saying something.

Suddenly there was a knocking sound coming from the outside of the door.

“Grandmaster Huang, Sovereign sent someone over to pass a message, to invite you to head over to the front hall to have dinner with him.” The serving maid respectfully reported from outside the door.

Huang Yueli then realised that the sky had already darkened.

She had spent quite an amount of time here.

Huang Yueli stretched her limbs as she stood up, “Alright then, I’m going to accompany Moying now. Just relax and stay on in Blue Profound Sect! No matter if it’s terms of cultivation or life, just look for me if you face any difficulties! Rest assured, there’d be plenty of places where we will need you!”

Saying that she waved her hand and left in anticipation.

She was in a hurry to go meet Li Moying so she totally didn’t wait for the serving maid to lead the way as she found her way familiarly to the front hall.

She had been to Levitation Sword Palace numerous times in her past life and was extremely familiar with this place.

However just as she was passing by the right side of the front hall’s decorative carved patterned corridor, suddenly someone called out to her from behind her.

Chapter 1674: For you, Sovereign..... (4)

“Grandmaster Huang!”

A clear and melodious voice rang out, sounding slightly familiar.

Huang Yueli paused and turned her head back as her eyes met with the ice beauty who was standing at one corner of the corridor.

Cang Ning Yue stared at her with an icy cold expression as her chin was slightly lifted upwards, bearing a conceited look.

It was undeniable that she was an extremely outstanding tender beauty with perfect features and an exquisite figure. Moreover as a ninth stage realm peak practitioner, she bore a kind of cold arrogant temperament which overlooked the people below.

If it was sixteen years ago, Cang Ning Yue’s bit of overbearing grandeur would naturally not be able to be compared with Mythical Flame Palace’s Young Palace Lord, but now that Huang Yueli had changed into such a young body, her cultivation was also only at fifth stage realm.

In comparison, Huang Yueli appeared to be younger and inexperienced.

Huang Yueli’s expression also turned chilly as her lips were slightly pursed as she replied coldly, “Guardian Yue, what may I do for you?”

Cang Ning Yue was also sizing her up at the same time.

Sixteen years had passed and the person whom they had originally thought was definitely dead had suddenly returned. Moreover she was still as enchanting as before with the same excellent innate talent, still..... attracting Li Moying's vision tightly!

Thinking of this, Cang Ning Yue gritted her teeth silently as she could no longer hold on to the fake ice beauty façade.

"Grandmaster Huang, I've not expected that after so many years, I'm still able to meet you again. This is really.... an accidental surprise!"

Cang Ning Yue forced this sentence out from the slits of her teeth.

Huang Yueli's lips curled as she gave an unknown implied smile, "Yes, sixteen years have passed.... Is Guardian Yue married already? I remember that year my fiancée personally pulled the red strings for you and Guardian Yu. Guardian Yu is a ninth ranked Array Grandmaster and also a man of talent and outstanding looks, Guardian Yue must cherish him well!"

When Cang Ning Yue recalled the scenario then, she was both indignant and embarrassed, as her face flushed instantly.

She would never forget the matter which had happened in Levitation Sword Palace twenty over years ago for her entire lifetime.

Cang Ning Yue had been adopted by the previous Sovereign of Blue Profound Sect and after Mu Chengying had identified as the next successor, the previous Sovereign always had been keen to betroth Cang Ning Yue to Mu Chengying as a concubine for double cultivation.

After all, Cang Ning Yue had an inborn Heavenly Yin physique and to any practitioner who engaged in double cultivation with her would obtain extremely huge benefits from it.

However, Mu Chengying totally ignored the benefits which she could give and only liked Huang Yueli right from the start. Although it was because of the previous Sovereign's personal favour which coerced him to keep Cang Ning Yue by his side, but he had always treated her and Cang Po Jun and the others on the same level, nurturing her as a Guardian.

In order to make Mu Chengying see her in a new light, Cang Ning Yue worked doubly hard and was finally able to shine and be chosen from among the ten over Guardians for the position.

Alas, although she had successfully obtained the chance to stay beside Mu Chengying, but she had not expected that this unexcelled man wouldn't even grant her an extra look!

To win over Cang Po Yu, Mu Chengying even went to the extent without any hesitation, listening to Huang Yueli's suggestion to betroth her to the newly ascended ninth ranked Array Master Cang Po Yu.

In this way, it had completely ruined her beautiful dreams of flying up the branch!

When Cang Ning Yue thought of this, her heart grew even more melancholic and ill at east as the glare she shot towards Huang Yueli was filled with jealousy and fury!

Why... did Sovereign only like Huang Yueli, not even willing to take another look at anyone else?

Huang Yueli had obviously not treated Sovereign as anything, only indulging in Sovereign's pampering and fawning, but with no thoughts of being willing to respond to Sovereign!

Sovereign had a legendary reputation for his entire lifetime but why must he chase after this kind of woman, not hesitating to go through life and death for her multiple times, and even at the end, he even...

Chapter 1675: For you, Sovereign..... (5)

The more Cang Ning Yue thought, the more jealous she got as she couldn't hold it in and just blurted out!

"Grandmaster Huang, although I'm only one Sovereign's subordinates, but I really cannot take it any longer! Why do you have to return to the Blue Profound Sect, haven't you got Sovereign into enough misery? He had already gone to such a step for you so can I beg you to leave him a little further and stop trying to harm him! You.... you staying beside Sovereign will only harm him! You totally don't like him, why must you keep appearing in front of him?"

Huang Yueli's face was filled with ridicule.

Cang Ning Yue's little bit of thoughts was something that she was very clear of when she was in her past life.

But there were so many ladies who had openly and secretly admired Mu Chengying whereas Cang Ning Yue merely had a Heavenly Yin physique which was a top rated material for being a bondmaid. Just based on this alone... frankly speaking, Huang Yueli totally couldn't care less about her.

In her past life, she just casually found a reason to make Mu Chengying marry her off.

This lifetime, she and Li Moying's heart and mind were interconnected and moreover they had already gotten engaged. So these butterflies who came close to them naturally weren't of any threat at all.

Huang Yueli originally had intended to teach her a good lesson but whoever knew, upon hearing Cang Ning Yue's words, she instinctively felt something was amiss.

Huang Yueli couldn't help but frowned, "Wait, what do you mean? Since when have I ever harmed him? And, it's not me who appeared in front of him, it's he himself who kept coming to look for me!"

Cang Ning Yue looked at her puzzled look as she felt even more indignant, feeling unjust for her Sovereign!

Momentarily, she was flushed with jealousy and had forgotten about Li Moying's warning at the front palace, casting it out of her mind totally!

"Grandmaster Huang, how could you even ask this kind of question? Haven't you ever thought about why was it that you'd already self-exploded causing your soul and spirit to be scattered but why were you still able to be reborn, moreover still retaining your past life's memories living a good and proper life until now? Right before you, every single practitioner who had self-exploded had all completely disappeared!"

Huang Yueli went into a blank, "That's right, this is indeed very strange, but.... could it be that you know something?"

Soul and spirit had been scattered but still having the chance to be reborn.

This was indeed a miraculous thing which had never happened since ancient times.

Ever since she had awoken in Bai Ruoli's body, she had thought about this multiple times but still wasn't able to find out any reasons so she could only conclude that it was because she owned the Sky Phoenix Ring, the piece of super God Relic.

However, little phoenix Wang Cai had also indeed mentioned that although it was a God relic, it could only develop its corresponding uses according to Heaven and Earth's law.

To want to congeal one's soul and spirit which had already been scattered, it was a heaven defying action and the corresponding price must be paid which was not something that a God Relic could achieve by itself!

Now hearing Cang Ning Yue's meaning, could it be that... this matter was related to Li Moying?

Huang Yueli frowned and pursued, "Cang Ning Yue, what on earth do you mean? Speak clearly! What exactly happened after I self-exploded in my past life? What did Mu Chengying do? I why... why have I managed to awaken?"

Cang Ning Yue laughed coldly, "You don't know? You've already been reborn for such a long time and even spending so much time with Sovereign but yet you don't know anything! For you, Sovereign has done so much but you only know how to feign ignorance....."

The more Huang Yueli listened, the more she felt something was wrong and the ominous premonition in her mind became more distinct.

"I'm not feigning ignorance! But you, tell me directly if you have something on your mind. What's the purpose of speaking in circles like this?"

Chapter 1676: For you, Sovereign..... (6)

Cang Ning Yue suddenly hesitated for a moment when the words were already by her mouth.

Li Moying's harsh warning rang by the side of her ears and upon recalling that severe expression, Cang Ning Yue couldn't help but give a cold shudder.

Huang Yueli saw that she was going to withdraw what she was about to say as her gaze suddenly flashed and lifted up her chin slightly, she glanced sideways at her, "What's the matter? Don't dare to say? I think you're merely starting a rumour!"

"You.... who said I'm starting a rumour? Alright, I'll speak!" Cang Ning Yue clenched her teeth and she completely pressed her luck! "I'm telling you, sixteen years go after you self-exploded in the Northern Ice Fields, originally your soul and spirit should have dispersed but Sovereign he just nicely....."

"Cang Ning Yue! What rubbish are you sprouting? Shut your gap up!"

Just as Cang Ning Yue was prepared to tell the truth, a burst of exasperated voice was heard as it harshly stopped her!

Huang Yueli went into a blank and saw Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Yu standing not too far away.

Cang Po Jun strode over quickly as he spoke in a cold tone, "Ning Yue! Can you sprout nonsense about such a matter like this? This is merely a rumour in the country, how dare you even gossip in front of Grandmaster Huang!" Saying that he turned towards Huang Yueli, "Grandmaster Huang, my sincere apologies, please do not take Ning Yue's nonsense to heart."

Huang Yueli took a suspicious look at the few of them as her gaze turned even more profound.

She had originally suspected this was Cang Ning Yue's plot but upon seeing Cang Po Jun's anxious look, it actually made her believe that there was some shocking inside story and furthermore everyone were trying their best to hide it from her!

Huang Yueli gave a cold 'hmp' as she said, "Sir Po Jun, are you trying to trick me? Since this is unfounded ravings, why don't you allow Guardian Yue to finish her words? What on earth are you trying to hide from me?"

Cang Po Jun frowned slightly but since he was also a peerless top exponent who had experienced huge waves before, he quickly resumed his composure and put on an expression which seemed as though nothing had happened.

"Grandmaster Huang, you're really thinking too much! Ning Yue has been a little tired recently and she heard those crazy and unfounded rumours from some outsiders hence she spoke blindly in front of you! We really have nothing to hide from you!"

Huang Yueli laughed instead of flying into a rage, "Do you really treat me like an idiot? Cang Ning Yue had said this very clearly earlier that right after I self-exploded during my past life, in order to save me, your Sovereign had done something which you cannot afford to let me know? What matter is it exactly? Speak!"

Huang Yueli was feeling exceptionally anxious inside.

If it was any other matters, there was no absolute need for her to find out the answer but this matter was related to Li Moying!

She was very afraid and very worried, feeling that this man would do something which was irrevocable.

In her past life, Huang Yueli was also a long established peerless top exponent and having stayed beside Mu Chengying for such a long time, the minute she flew into a rage, the aura and prestige that shot out from her had an eighty percent similarity to Mu Chengying's.

In the few Guardians' view, all of them uncontrollably gave a bitter cold shudder.

However, Cang Po Jun clenched his fists tightly as he said the same thing through the slits of his teeth, "Grandmaster Huang, you've really thought too much, there really isn't anything special....."

Huang Yueli gave a cold laugh, “Nothing special? Then let me ask you, I’m obviously the one who self-exploded in the Northern Ice Fields, but why did Mu Chengying also die and even reincarnated along with me? How on earth did he die?”

“This.....” Cang Po Jun was tongue tied.

“Why? Unable to tell me? Then let me ask you again. One who had self-exploded would have their soul and spirit dispersed, never to enter the reincarnation wheel but why is it that I am still able to be reborn?”

Chapter 1677: For you, Sovereign..... (7)

Cang Po Jun was intimidated by her Mu Chengying-alike overbearing presence as the cold sweat on his forehead kept dripping.

But he insisted in his saying, “Grandmaster Huang, there really isn’t anything special. That year after your self-explosion, Sovereign he was devastated and shut himself up in Levitation Floating Castle to cultivate, probably out of the devastation from your death, it led him to go into Qi Deviation.... As for how you had reincarnated and reborn, this is really a miracle which this subordinate is unable to comprehend as well...”

Huang Yueli sneered as she heard his words.

Cang Po Jun was stared at so much by her that he felt guilty as his voice became softer and softer.

Huang Yueli said, “Sir Po Ju should have finished your story right! Then.... will Guardian Yue please explain next?”

Cang Ning Yue’s expression was pale as she withdrew into a corner and when she heard Huang Yueli pointing out her name, she jumped up in fright.

“Wh... What? Grandmaster Huang, this subordinate.... this subordinate.....”

“Haven’t you said so earlier? In order to save me, your Sovereign paid a heavy price for it, what exactly is that price?”

“I.... this.....”

Cang Po Jun’s warning look and immediately shot towards Cang Ning Yue.

Cang Ning Yue’s heart was filled with jealousy and envy but she didn’t dare to tell the truth!

Earlier when she met Huang Yueli at the corridor, she was even younger and outstanding than before. Although she had yet to fully grow up, but she could tell that she would be an exceptional beauty which was not outdone by her past life.

More importantly, in this lifetime, Huang Yueli and Sovereign were each other’s sunshine and from the excitement in meeting him again, Cang Ning Yue had totally let her jealousy rush into her brain.

Hence that was why she jumped out to provoke Huang Yueli!

After all, Huang Yueli's cultivation was only at the fifth stage realm now, and her ability as compared to her past life was as different as sky and earth! Towards her, Cang Ning Yue wasn't that fearful of her as compared to in her past life.

But before she could even finish her words, she was interrupted by Cang Po Jun and like a deflated balloon, she momentarily lost the courage to speak out the truth.

If she dared to say the things which she shouldn't in front of Cang Po Jun, the loyal Cang Po Jun would absolutely tatter on her immediately to the Sovereign and by then, she would die a horrible death with no burial grounds!

Cang Ning Yue was at a loss for moments but in the end she still chose to remain silent.

Cang Po Jun replied, "Grandmaster Huang see, she doesn't dare to say anything so it looks like she knows she herself is sprouting nonsense not daring to admit to it."

Huang Yueli could tell that they would never admit to it so momentarily, she couldn't do anything to them.

If it was in her past life, she would utilise her Piercing Sky Eye technique to make them speak obediently.

Alas, as her cultivation was weaker by quite a lot and the four guardians were all established top exponents with unwavering determination, they were absolutely not someone whom a fifth stage realm practitioner's eye technique could easily control.

Huang Yueli gave a cold harrumph and said, "Alright, since that's the case, I'll go ask your Sovereign personally! I hope you don't give me a chance to find out that you're lying to me, otherwise....."

The three guardian's backs all felt a cold feeling running down their spines.

This lie would eventually be exposed and by then, they wouldn't be able to escape the blame!

But yet, no one dared to say a word more.

Anyway, no matter what the result was, as subordinates, they would always be the ones to get into trouble.....

Cang Po Jun bowed and said, "Grandmaster Huang, you've thought too much, how would this subordinate dare to lie to you?"

Huang Yueli gave a chuckle and without a word more, she turned around and left.

When Cang Po Jun heard her icy cold chuckle, he turned apprehensive.

Just at this moment, a resounding slap was heard from behind!

Chapter 1678: The truth back then (1)

Cang Po Jun turned back abruptly and his forehead creased.

He saw Cang Po Yu who was standing at the corner silently earlier suddenly turning around and giving a slap to Cang Ning Yue.

“You... you actually slapped me??”

Cang Ning Yue was dazed by the slap as she covered her face and only cried out in shock a moment later.

Mu Chengying had betrothed her to Cang Po Yu twenty years ago so Cang Po Yu was considered her fiancé.

But Cang Po Yu had always been Mr Goody-goody and in the entire Sky Emperor City, he had always been known for not showing any emotions. Moreover he had been very accommodating towards her. No matter what excuses Cang Ning Yue used to muddle through, refusing to get married to him officially, Cang Po Yu had not said a single word about it.

Which was why Cang Ning Yue totally disregarded him as her fiancé and she had never thought that he would make a move towards her!

“Cang Po Yu, you dare to slap me, you actually dare to slap me!!” Cang Ning Yue shrieked out as she tried to hit him back.

However Cang Po Yu’s ability had far surpassed her and he easily gripped onto her wrists.

“Cang Ning Yue! No matter how you made a din usually, I would tolerate you because of the fact that you are the woman whom Sovereign had betrothed to me but that doesn’t mean that I will tolerate anything and everything! You actually dare to come sprout rubbish in front of Grandmaster Huang, who do you think you are? What is your identity? What qualifications do you have?”

“I... I... why can’t I say anything? What I’m saying is the entire truth anyway! Moreover, I indeed don’t deserve Sovereign, but does Huang Yueli deserve him? Ever since Sovereign had been together with her, which time had he not caused himself to be riddled with injuries? Later on... later on he still... Unfortunately she is still that innocent and so complacent!”

Cang Po Yu laughed coldly as he replied, “So what about it? That is Sovereign’s woman and Sovereign himself is happy to do it! As subordinates, we can only accept it! Do you really think that I don’t know what’s on your mind?”

Cang Ningyue gnashed her teeth and said, “You... what do you mean? Did you really think that you’re my fiancé? That you can control me? Let me tell you, in my eyes, you’re a nobody!”

Cang Po Yu’s expression turned twisted for an instant but very quickly he managed to control himself.

He said in an icy cold voice, “Do you think that I’m willing to marry a wanton woman like you? Rest assured, I will report to Sovereign sooner or later to separate from you. But let me warn you, don’t ever go provoke Grandmaster Huang again. If you cause us to be implicated with you, I will absolutely not let you off!”

Cang Po Jun frowned as well, “That’s right, keep yourself under control! The entire Blue Profound Sect is riddled with internal trouble and outside aggression and is already messy enough! Sovereign had just returned and his ability has yet to reach the peak so he is originally too tired to handle these all, so don’t you come add trouble to him! Really don’t know how the word “death” is written!”

After Cang Ning Yue was berated by the both of them in rounds, she didn't dare to say a single word more and could only bite on her lips in fury as she lowered her head.

At a place when the both of both could not see, her eyes flashed past a vicious cold glint.

That woman... on what basis did she have to drag down Sovereign? She didn't have the qualification!

...

At the back of Levitation Sword Palace was a vast sea of Cinnabar Geraniums.

Before nightfall, the setting sun's rays shone onto those half luminous petals and as the gentle breeze grazed past, the petals moved irregularly, reflecting brilliant radiance lights.

Li Moying sat in the pavilion as he watched the bed of flowers from afar, his lips uncontrollably curling upwards.

This bed of Cinnabar Geraniums was something which Huang Yueli especially liked that year and he had tried ways and means to plant them.

Cinnabar Geraniums were a rare seventh level upper grade ingredient and in the wild, it was a rare sight to be able to spot even one stalk.

Chapter 1679: The truth back then (2)

That year, he had expended quite an amount of effort to plant this bed of flowers in an attempt to please Huang Yueli.

Later on, under Liu Buyan's aid, he tried ways and means and finally succeeded in planting it.

Later on.... Blue Profound Sect had reaped enormous profit from selling the Cinnabar Geranium fruits.

After so many years, this bed of flowers was still retained so perfectly which was out of Li Moying's expectations.

Thinking of Huang Yueli's excited expression when she saw this scenery later, he waited in anticipation.

This is the first night after their return to Blue Profound Sect.....

"Li Moying—!"

A young lady's crisp shouting voice was heard from behind his back.

Li Moying turned his head over as the smile on his lips deepened even further, "Li'er, you're finally here, what did you talk to Jiyun and the others, why did you take so long...."

By the time he saw Huang Yueli's expression, he was dazed, "What's the matter? Who offended you?"

Huang Yueli's willowy brows were upright as she shot towards him and grabbed hold of his shirt on his chest.

"Who else could it be? It's you who have offended me!"

".... Me?" Li Moying was dazed, "How could it be? I....."

Huang Yueli impolitely interrupted him, "You what you? I ask you, what matter are you hiding from me? Why is it that you have been acting suspiciously for the entire period of time!"

Li Moying's expression sunk, could it be that Li'er found out about something? Surely not right? He had obviously just instructed those who knew about this to not let this matter go to her ears.....

His expression appeared to be extremely innocent, "I'm innocent, Li'er, how would I dare to hide anything from you? Who in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent doesn't know that I'm a slave to my wife and I've always been suppressed by my fiancée, the kind who totally don't even dare to stand up straight....."

He was shouting for innocence and at the same time stretched out his arm to hug Huang Yueli's waist, intending to repeat the same trick to use his handsome male trick to shift his fiancée's attention then later smuggle through this stage.

However, Huang Yueli totally didn't fall for it this time round. Not only was she not smitten this time round like in the past, instead she pushed him away hard.

"Stop pretending! Since you said it so beautifully and have hidden nothing from me, then let me ask you a few questions, you must answer me honestly! If I find out that you're lying to me..."

She lowered her voice and her expression sunk.

Li Moying quivered. For an overbearing man like him, fearing nothing at all, yet in front of his beloved woman's cold face, his heart was shaking with fear and trepidation.

"Alright, then... then go ahead and ask....."

Huang Yueli started off, "First question, in our past lives after I self-exploded, by right my soul and spirit should have dispersed and I will never be able to enter the reincarnation wheel, why did I successfully reincarnate and reborn? How is this achieved?"

Li Moying's gaze became profound as he knew that what Huang Yueli was going to ask would definitely be these questions.

It was strange. Earlier when she set off to look for Luo Jiyun and the others, her mood was apparently quite good but why did she suddenly think about all these matters now?

Could it be that someone had defied his orders and spoke about something in front of her?

He had just returned and someone actually dared to pay lip service to him so he absolutely could not tolerate this!

Huang Yueli stared at him intently as she observed his unfathomable expression on his good looking face in detail.

"How is it? Very difficult to answer? Alright, here's the next question!"

"After I self-exploded, what did you do? Why did you ninth stage realm peak practitioner like you, who should originally have thousands of years of life expectancy suddenly reborn?"

Chapter 1680: The truth back then (3)

“This.... Li’er, why do you.....”

Li Moying was racking his brains on how to reply.

However, Huang Yueli didn’t wait for him to finish talking as she broke him off once again.

“Ha, actually you don’t need to tell me and I also know the answer. Since you’re reborn, that obviously means you’re dead! Continuing from here, there’s the third question, how on earth did you die? Who is able to kill the invincible Sovereign Mu? Or could it be that... you committed suicide?”

“Fourth question, how could you get in touch with Blue Profound Sect so simply? What agreement did you set with the Four Great Guardians? Why do they trust you? This must have something to do with what you did before you died in your past life? What is it exactly??”

Huang Yueli threw out a long chain of questions and her interrogative tone turned more and more flustered.

These questions were something which instinctively popped up in her mind ever since Li Moying regained a portion of his memories and she had been extremely puzzled over it.

But every single time this thread of thought popped up in her mind, Li Moying would try ways and means using mostly his charismatic charm to divert her attention, obviously not intending to tell her about it.

Moreover she felt that the two of them being able to reunite and even falling in love with each other with interconnecting minds was the luckiest thing that had happened. Some things weren’t that urgent to pursue after the truth endlessly as she would finally find out the truth one fine day.

Hence when Li Moying didn’t want to say, she just let it slide.

But this time round, Cang Ning Yue’s words were like a bucket of cold water pouring onto her.

Some fine details which had been skipped and those suspicious pointers which she had never thought about before, upon delving into it deeply, made her heart felt shocked as she thought more and more on this!

That’s right, how would there possibly be such a coincidence in this world. She was ‘coincidentally’ reborn after her soul and spirit dispersed and Mu Chengying ‘coincidentally’ also was reborn after an accident and the two of them were ‘coincidentally’ born in the same country and even engaged?

How would there be so many coincidences under this heavens? If every matter were so coincidental, that would only meant that it was being pre-arranged.

But...Huang Yueli still didn’t get how this man actually managed to do it??

Li Moying looked at the young lady in front of him with great sentiments and that sweet tempting little face was rightly wound as her usually clear bright eyes were filled with worry and heartache for him.

He couldn’t help but give a light sigh, “Li’er, don’t worry.....”

He wanted to hug his fiancée but Huang Yueli immediately took a step backwards.

“How do you expect me not to worry?? Quickly tell me clearly!”

She put on a straight face as her eyes lifted to look at him, obviously meaning that this time round, she would absolutely not give in easily.

Li Moying said, “Li’er, you cannot be like this.....”

However, Huang Yueli was not moved at all.

Li Moying’s heart turned melancholic and at the same time he was certain that Huang Yueli would absolutely not start a fight with him for no reason. Someone had definitely said something to her behind his back!

No matter who it was, causing him to end up in this state where he was unable to explain himself, he would absolutely not allow that person to end up well!

But luckily, though Huang Yueli’s questions were extremely tricky and very difficult to answer, but he had already thought of a plan to deal with this and even prepared a set of model answers. He had just not expected to use it so quickly.

As Li Moying was pondering over this, he headed up once again as he held Huang Yueli’s shoulders.

“Li’er, don’t be too agitated. I’ve never said that I don’t wish to tell you the truth right?”