Chapter 1681: The truth back then (4)

This time, Huang Yueli still wanted to evade his touches but Li Moying didn't allow her to push him aside as what she wished, but instead pulled her emphatically into his arms, with a posture which didn't allow her to reject him.

Li Moying's cultivation was right there and if he really wanted to force himself onto her, there was nothing that Huang Yueli could do about it.

But she remained restless in Li Moying's arms as she wriggled around.

Li Moying held on tightly as he said, "Actually, it's not that I really don't want to say, but.... there are many things that I really can't totally recall!"

Huang Yueli's action took a pause, "Can't remember?"

Li Moying nodded his head and continued, "That's right, have you forgotten? When we first met, all the matters that had happened in my past life, I totally couldn't recall it at all! Later on as my interaction with you deepened and with my cultivation increasing continuously, it was when I started to slowly recall what happened then....."

"But this is a very long process and my memories didn't come back to me all in one day, but slowly accumulated during each full moon's night. So the memories in my mind still remain very confused till today. Especially the things which happened after you self-exploded, the amount that I can recall is even lesser...."

"So it's not that I'm not willing to tell you but those questions that you asked, many of which are something which I'm puzzled as well but no matter how I tried, I just can't recall them all."

As Li Moying was saying these, he kept a watchful eye while observing Huang Yueli's expression.

Seeing his little fiancée frowning slightly with a pensive look and he hurriedly added more.

"But every time I regain my memories, it was always during full moon's night when my illness acted up. The longer the acting up timing, the more things I will recall. Since we're already back in Blue Profound Sect, then in future when my illness acts up, you can wait a little longer before you save me, so test if I can remember something faster....."

"Not allowed!"

Before Li Moying could even finish what he was saying, Huang Yueli jumped right up and shouted out strictly.

"Ughh....."

Huang Yueli was so exasperated which made Li Moying jump with shock.

Huang Yueli stretched out his hand to pinch his face as she retorted angrily, "Have you forgotten that whenever your illness acts up, each and every single time it is so dangerous?! There are many times whenever it acts up and drags on for a slightly longer time and you've almost lost your life! Do you really want to scare me to death? No way, what silly ideas are those! Anyway when your illness acts up, you must tell me immediately and treat it immediately, not even sparing any time to waste!”

“But, my memories.....” Li Moying looked like a little wife who had suffered domestic violence as his tone sounded weak and timid.

Huang Yueli stared at him ferociously, “I don’t believe that you can’t remember a single bit of it! Moreover speaking, if you really can’t recall, there must be other ways to regain your memories! You’re not allowed to take this risk, do you hear me??”

“But I also want to know what happened that year.....”

Huang Yueli gritted her teeth as she hissed, “Anyway, you’re just not allowed to!”

“Then... then I’ll think of other ideas, don’t squabble with me alright?” Li Moying’s eyes flashed past a crafty glint as he intended to work it up and dupe Huang Yueli over this issue.

Whoever knew, Huang Yueli stared at him for a moment and the frustrated expression on her face suddenly became peaceful.

“No way, this matter is just too important, we can’t just let it pass like this! I don’t believe that you really can’t recall anything at all!”

Chapter 1682: The truth back then (5)

Li Moying thought that he had successfully muddled through this so he had not expected Huang Yueli to suddenly pop this sentence out.

His face instantly turned pale, apparently cutting a sorry state.

Having an extremely intelligent fiancée was usually something which made one feel proud but when it came to the time when one was doing something bad, if a woman was too intelligent, the man would get into trouble, for example like what he was going through right now.....

When he really wanted to tell a lie, he was resolutely exposed right there and then.

However Li Moying still refused to admit and persisted in his explanation, “Li’er, you... you’re really framing me! Don’t you believe me at all? Since when have I lied to you?”

His expression of looking wronged did not make Huang Yueli’s heart soften.

Huang Yueli raised her chin up slightly as she immodestly exposed him, “You’ve lied to me so many times! Every time you’re injured or encountered some danger, since when have you not lied to me? Did you really thought that I’m so retarded??”

Li Moying’s face was filled with sweat, why was this little fox so difficult to lie to! This time round what was he supposed to do?

This matter.... he indeed didn’t want Huang Yueli to find out.

After all, there was no use even if she found out. It would only... make her feel upset over nothing.

While Li Moying was still racking his brains, Huang Yueli gave a chilly smile, "Why? Why aren't you saying a single word? Thinking of how to lie to me later? Have you planned your story already?"

"Ughh....." Li Moying's sweat on his forehead was about to drip down!

Li'er was really the woman who knew him the best. Whatever he was thinking, it totally could not escape her eyes.

Meeting Huang Yueli's eyes which were raging with fury, Li Moying totally couldn't think of a way out so he could only.... start to act shamelessly!

"Anyway I just forgot about it! I really can't remember at all! Even if you beat me to death, I also can't remember so what else do you want me to do? I can't do anything if you don't believe in me!"

These words were similar to the kind of explanation that a two timer would use when he had been caught while having an affair. But when it came out of Li Moying's mouth, it made Huang Yueli not believe him as her eyes turned wide.

Moreover in order to intensify the effect of what he just said, Li Moying directly crossed his arms as he shifted his sight, putting on an uncooperative look.

"Alright, stop being unreasonable! No matter how you argue it's no use, up to you to believe or not!"

"You....." Huang Yueli almost threw up blood from anger! She had not expected Li Moying to use such a lowly trick!

Where was the Continent's number one top expert, cold and merciless, overbearing and resolute? What was the difference between this behaviour and those small young boys who laid on the ground throwing a tantrum to ask for sweets?

He actually threw the target back at her and said she was being unreasonable??

Huang Yueli gave him a ferocious stare, "Alright, you're really difficult to deal with! Don't you dare to regret using this kind of attitude on me! The matter that happened that year, I'm sure you're not the only one who knows about it! If I want to know, I will definitely be able to find it out! I want to see how you are going to keep it from me for my entire lifetime!"

Huang Yueli finished up and turned around walking away angrily!

Li Moying watched her departing figure and his expression slowly sunk down. Who was it who tried to expose the secret which he had tried ways and means to hide it? Could it be that trying to keep it from Huang Yueli was really impossible?

Now, Li'er had already said this so what should he do so that she could stop pursuing this topic.....

The night breeze grazed past that sea of Vermilion Cinnabar flowers causing undulated billowing.

Li Moying looked at the beautiful scenery in front of him but he had no heart to admire it as his brows were tightly knitted together.

Chapter 1683: The truth back then (6)

Ever since Huang Yueli and Li Moying quarrelled that day, the both of them entered into a cold war.

Or perhaps it could be put in this way, it was Huang Yueli who started this cold war on her own.

Li Moying knew that he was in the wrong and had been finding ways and means to please his little fiancée. Not only did he enquired solicitously about her well-being, delivering food and drinks over, he also adapted to her interests and tidied up the armament furnace and armament refining room which she had used that year as well as sending various high levelled herbs, as though it was free, to her.

However, Huang Yueli totally ignored him and every single time she saw him, it was always neither hot nor cold. Although it wasn't to the extent of totally ignoring him, but that chilly cold gaze always made Li Moying's back turn chilly.

But no matter how many times she rolled her eyes at him, he continued to persevere as his daily task was to please his little fiancée.

This scene made everyone in Levitation Sword Palace extremely surprised.

Sixteen years ago, towards Grandmaster Huang, Sovereign saw, listened and obeyed to everything she said using ways and means to please her. But he was after all the number one top exponent and his character was domineering and overbearing so even if he was chasing after his beloved woman, he would not lower himself that badly.

Whoever knew that the minute the both of them had reincarnated, their way of interaction had changed to this?

Many attendants thought they were dreaming. Was this really their invincible and unexcelled Sovereign?

The Four Great Guardians were actually very clear on what happened. In actual fact, after the fight between Huang Yueli and Li Moying had happened, he immediately sent for them.

Originally Blue Profound Sect had been without a leader for the past sixteen years so even if it were subordinates who were loyal towards Li Moying, they would inevitably slack as they no longer revered and feared Li Moying's commands in the same way as that year.

But after that day, everyone realised that even though he had changed a shell, he was still that powerful unexcelled number one top expert, who still left everyone revere him totally, not daring to have any bit of resistance!

Those things which Cang Ning Yue had said behind his back were found out very quickly. Li Moying was mad with fury and almost struck her to death on the spot. Later it was Cang Po Yu who stood out to plead for mercy and Li Moying was worried that if Cang Ning Yue suddenly died, it would cause Huang Yueli's suspicion hence he forcibly spared her life.

But Cang Ning Yue was stripped of the Guardian position and even sent to the punishment hall.

Even Cang Po Jun didn't know what Cang Ning Yue had experienced there, only knowing that after her return, she had completely restrained herself, not daring to say a single word more. Usually she would just shrink herself and hide in one corner, totally not having the past haughtiness that she had.

All these were secretly done with Li Moying hiding it from Huang Yueli.

But although Huang Yueli didn't witness it with her own eyes, she still knew what was going on and at the same time, she grew even more indignant.

This man.... creating so many matters out, wasn't trying to hide it making it more conspicuous??

Did he really treat her as an idiot! She must definitely investigate clearly on what had happened!

Alas, with Cang Ning Yue as a precedence, the other three guardians were even more tight lipped and as they were afraid that they would unintentionally be wormed out facts by her, when they met her, they didn't even dared to let out a single fart as they remained silent throughout the entire duration.

As for the ordinary attendants in Levitation Sword Palace, Huang Yueli managed to try her Piercing Sky Eye and controlled two of them in an attempt to make them tell the truth.

However ordinary attendants' knowledge towards this matter was limited and no matter how Huang Yueli asked, she only knew that Mu Chengying was devastated that year after her self-explosion and had always been cooping himself up in Levitation Sword Palace. Later on... Cang Po Jun announced that Sovereign was going into long term closed door cultivation.

Chapter 1684: Li'er, don't be angry (1)

It was till this day when Cang Po Jun brought back Li Moying to Levitation Sword Palace with great fanfare did they realise that their Sovereign wasn't in closed door cultivation but had been reborn!

Huang Yueli was certain that these two attendants had already told them everything that they knew.

But wasn't this version exactly the same as the rumours in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent?

If what she wanted was to find out about these, would she need to go question them?

Looked like Li Moying had maintained absolute secrecy that year, other than the few trusted aides beside him, practically no one else knew what had happened.....

To find out the truth, she could only start from himself and his Four Great Guardians.

This was cumbersome.

Ten over days had passed and Huang Yueli still hadn't thought of any ideas. Of course she was also not appeased and still remained indifferent towards Li Moying.

Finally, even Luo Jiyun sensed the uncommon atmosphere in Levitation Sword Palace as he hurried over to Huang Yueli's side to mediate.

"Lil Sister-in-law, long time no see, how have you been recently? I'm here to visit you....."

"Stop the crap, did your Eldest Senior Brother send you here?"

Luo Jiyun just entered the room and met with Huang Yueli's rolled eyes as he was instantly stuck in his shell.

"Ughh, ha ha, how is that possible? Of course it's not. I miss lil Sister-in-law so I'm here to pay you a visit...." Luo Jiyun's head was filled with sweat. He had not expected to be exposed the minute he reached this place, almost coming to light.

Luckily before he came over, Li Moying had already analysed the possible scenarios and the corresponding methods to deal with it so he was able to react in time and immediately denied it.

Huang Yueli evidently didn't believe his words as her brows rose and said, "Fine, since you're not the traitor sent over by Li Moying, then later you're not allowed to mention anything related to him. Otherwise I'll send you off immediately!"

Another sweat dripped down from Luo Jiyun's forehead. This scenario was something that even his Eldest Senior Brother didn't teach him! If he wasn't able to mention a single word, how was he supposed to mediate?

He wondered what begrudging thing had his Eldest Senior Brother done to actually make lil Sister-in-law so angry to this extent! Surely it couldn't be that he was with another woman and was caught by lil Sister-in-law right?

If it really was this, then who on earth should he help?

Luo Jiyun immediately replied, "Won't mention, won't mention! I promise that I won't mention! Sister-in-law you've really mistaken me. I'm just here to have a chat with you. You said this before that no matter what problems we meet in Blue Profound Sect, we can seek your help!"

Huang Yueli then nodded her head and said, "Then have a seat!"

She let someone serve them tea and snacks and asked, "How is it, these few days, have you and Mo Yi the rest got used to staying in Blue Profound Sect?"

Luo Jiyun gave a bitter smile and said, "Got used to.... I'm still alright but Brother Mo Yi and the others aren't in very good condition...."

Luo Jiyun had obtained the rights to become a direct disciple and adding on to the fact that he was Li moying's Junior Brother in South Sky Region, hence he was specially permitted to stay in Levitation Sword Palace.

Every single disciple or attendant in Levitation Sword Palace were totally loyal towards Li Moying hence their attitude towards Luo Jiyun was very good as well. Plus the fact that Luo Jiyun's physique and innate talent were not bad so he quickly adjusted to Blue Profound Sect's lifestyle.

But it wasn't the same for Mo Yi and the others.

Even though they were inner disciples but Blue Profound Sect was Soaring Heavens Continent's number one Sacred Land! Even the most ordinary outer disciple had at least seven grade upper innate talent.

Chapter 1685: Li'er, don't be angry (2)

Whereas Mo Yi and the others were at most sixth grade talent. When they were in Celestial Light Sect, they were considered to have top rated innate talent but in Blue Profound Sect where the strong roamed around like clouds, that was just too pathetic.

These Blue Profound Sect's disciples naturally wouldn't be used to seeing that. Based on their low innate talents yet still able to become inner disciples? And the minute they joined the Sect, they were able to learn so many high levelled cultivation methods?

Because of this, many disciples picked against Mo Yi and the others in the open and in the dark, not forgetting mocking and ridicule. The Shadow Guards knew they couldn't match up hence they didn't rebuke at all, only working hard and silently cultivating on their own.

What was worse was that according to Blue Profound Sect's regulations, lowered levelled disciples could issue challenges towards high levelled disciples and the latter weren't allowed to reject.

The number of challenges they received were endless and as they weren't allowed to reject, but their ability was far worse off than those challenges so practically every single time they would lose for sure. Not to mention losing a huge amount of fortune and time, they would also get injured frequently.

Luo Jiyun told these to Huang Yueli and later on, he hemmed and hawed as he said, "Lil Sister-in-law, you see... isn't Brother Mo Yi and the others a little too pitiful? Can we.... Can we get them over to Levitation Sword Palace?"

Huang Yueli took a glance at him and shook her head, "No, we can't."

Luo Jiyun was a little disappointed, "But every time I visit Brother Mo Yi and the others, they always end up in a miserable state from the bullying! If this carries on, I'm afraid that not only would they be unable to cultivate and advance, they might even end up getting seriously injured and affect their future cultivation! Actually it really isn't Brother Mo Yi and the other's fault for not working hard, but their innate talent and physique is originally not as good as the others so no matter how they work hard, it's of no use!"

Huang Yueli put down the teacup as she stared at Luo Jiyun and said slowly, "Really? Do you really think in this way? Since their innate talent couldn't match up to the others then no matter how hard they tried, it is useless?"

"Ughh, isn't... isn't it like this? You and Eldest Senior Brother.... Ughh, pui pui pui, I didn't mention him, didn't mention him! What I mean to say was that, lil Sister-in-law, isn't your innate talent outstanding as well hence your cultivation speed is that fast?"

Luo Jiyun casually mentioned "Eldest Senior Brother" three words and immediately received two large eye rolls from Huang Yueli.

In order to stop her from sending him off, he immediately changed his sentence at first instance.

Huang Yueli gave a hmph and said, "I indeed have outstanding luck but not every ninth stage realm peerless top exponents relied on innate talent to succeed, there are some whose innate talent were not very good. For example the leader of the Four Great Guardians Cang Po Jun, when he first started off, he only had fourth grade talent."

“Huh?? How is that possible??” Luo Jiyun’s eyes immediately turned wide with total disbelief, “Sir Po Jun has preeminent strength and so many ninth grade talented practitioners cannot even be compared to him, how could he possible only have fourth grade talent?”

Huang Yueli said, “This is very common. Your inborn innate talent is merely the starting point but that doesn’t mean to say how far it would lead you to. Real strong exponents do not rely only on outstanding innate talent. Most importantly, they must have enough perseverance and courage, not giving up any chance at all! Innate talent and physique might be hard to change but there’s still chances to improve it.”

“Ah? Really? Innate talent can be raised?”

Huang Yueli nodded, “That’s right, otherwise why would so many people fight head over tails to join the Seven Sacred Lands? It’s just because the Seven Sacred Lands had enough inheritances and resources, even to improve a practitioner’s innate talent and physique! As long as they work hard, they will be able to do anything.”

Chapter 1686: Li’er, don’t be angry (3)

Huang Yueli thought about it for a moment and said, “Help me pass this message to the Shadow Guard brothers that they have a very good opportunity in front of them. Every year end, Blue Profound Sect would enter into a year-end assessment for outer disciples and the content is to climb the Sect’s rear mountain cliff’s Sky Ascension Stairs.”

She paused for a moment, “That’s right, you have to go as well! Direct disciples must all partake in the assessment!”

Luo Jiyun went into a blank as he asked curiously, “Sky Ascension Stairs? What’s that?”

Huang Yueli’s lips curled upwards mysteriously, “There’s no point for me to tell you now, you’ll find out by then. I can only say that since it’s named the Sky Ascension Stairs, that as what the name means, to climb up naturally is as difficult as ascending to the sky.....”

Luo Jiyun anxiously spoke out, “What? Lil Sister-in-law, don’t scare me!”

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him, “I’m not scaring you! There are many assessments in Seven Sacred Lands and every one of it is filled with extreme danger which would lead to loss of one’s life easily! But the more difficult the assessment, the minute you pass through it, the more rewards you will obtain! Sky Ascension Stairs assessment rewards are something which is worth everyone to take the risk.”

“Luo Jiyun asked, “Really? What kind of rewards are there?”

Huang Yueli replied, “I heard that the top twenty practitioners in this assessment would obtain a chance to cultivate in the Swordbath Pool.”

“Swordbath Pool? What place is that?” He asked in a daze.

Huang Yueli was speechless, “You don’t even know about this! Seven Sacred Lands all have the historical remains left behind from ancient times, which could aid in lifting the practitioners’ innate talents and physiques under their wings! Otherwise why would they keep on producing so many talents under their wings and how would they have the cheek to be known as the Sacred Land? Swordbath pool is an early historical remains of Blue Profound Sect and also one of the best Seven Great Historical Remains with the best effect in raising innate talents. Moreover those with lower innate talents would get better effects after taking a soak in it.”

Luo Jiyun’s face immediately revealed an overjoyed expression. “There’s such a good thing around! I must immediately tell Brother Mo Yi and the others! I also want to register and take part in it!”

Huang Yueli added, “There are plenty of chances to enter the Swordbath Pool in Blue Profound Sect but most chances come from ranking in terms of absolute power so Mo Yi and the others might not be able to rank up in those events. But the Sky Ascension Stairs assessment are auto adjusted based on the practitioner’s innate talent and is the best opportunity which they have.”

“Pass the message to them, if they aren’t able to grasp such a good opportunity, that would mean that they totally don’t have the conviction to become a top rated practitioner! They also need not stay on to be humiliated in Blue Profound Sect, they might as well return back to South Sky Region earlier! In Celestial Light Sect, they could at least muddle along to be an Elder or something, why bother to stay here!”

Huang Yueli made it sound very harsh but not one sentence were empty words.

Those who were able to become ninth stage realm practitioners indeed had eighth grade talent and above and it was extremely rare and more so based on one’s conviction and perseverance to keep on seeking breakthroughs in life and death occasions, lastly surpassing those talented practitioners to reach the peak.

Luo Jiyun’s cold sweat was trickling down.

“Yes, yes, I know. I will definitely bring these words to them! And I will also work hard, to prepare for the assessment!”

Huang Yueli then nodded her head satisfactorily as she picked up the tea cup once again.

Luo Jiyun also took a mouthful of tea as she looked at Huang Yueli’s expression and said, “That’s right, Sister-in-law, there’s another matter... do you know that after Li Lingchuan and Murong Fei had been brought over to Blue Profound Sect, Eldest Senior Brother... ughh! How were they dealt with?”

Chapter 1687: Li’er, don’t be angry (4)

Luo Jiyun almost said the wrong thing again but luckily Huang Yueli was attracted by the content of his words, hence she totally didn’t notice that he had mentioned about “someone” again.”

“I’m not sure, what happened to them now?” Huang Yueli shook her head.

She naturally knew that Li Moying had brought these two fellows back and absolutely would not spare their lives. There was probably a much more miserable state waiting for them.

However as she entered a cold war the minute she and Li Moying reached Levitation Sword Palace hence regarding this matter, she wouldn’t go and ask him about it.

Luo Jiyun saw that she was hooked and finally heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time he recalled the tricks and standard method which Li Moying had imparted to him before he sent him over.

“... First tell your sister-in-law about Mo Yi and the others to lower her defence and after she has got into a congenial chat with you, then mention about Li Lingchuan and the others to prove that I’m helping her take care of those people who had bullied her. After this matter is done, she should be feeling much better so take the opportunity to put in a few words for me, and you won’t be chased away!”

Wise and brilliant Sovereign was carefully pondering over his fiancée’s thoughts.

Luo Jiyun was left in the clouds and fog from listening to him and it was until now when he totally couldn’t help but submit to him.

He was indeed Soaring Heavens Continent’s number one top exponent! This kind of set pattern was done in such a winding and complicated method...

“Why? Is there something which isn’t apt to talk about?” Huang Yueli saw that he was in a daze and wrinkled her forehead.

Luo Jiyun immediately regained his senses and hurriedly replied, “Not that it’s not apt to talk about but I only feel that Eldest Senior.... Ughh! Just that their end was a little too miserable!”

“I heard that, Murong Fei was sent by Eld.... Cough cough.... Transferred to the one of the Seven Sacred Lands Sky Devil Sect’s Elders to be a concubine. I heard that that Elder is already nine hundred over years old and so old that all his teeth have almost dropped out. But yet he was still very prone to sexual attractions and he had at least three to four hundred wives and concubines in his residence! To think that Third Senior Sister had so many young, handsome and peerless talents chasing after her but now she ended up in this state, sigh... after all we are Senior and Junior sister and brother relationship so I’m feeling a little.....”

Huang Yueli looked at Luo Jiyun’s uncomfortable look as her lips twitched.

Sky Devil Sect’s Elder... surely it couldn’t be that old lecher Wei Dakai right?

That fellow had always had a bad reputation. Not only was he a lecher, he had obviously been collecting virgins with outstanding reputation to cultivate a kind of allotment and patching evil skill. All those young ladies who fell into his devil claws all suffered miserably, worse off living than dead!

Murong Fei was not only beautiful, she was also an eighth grade talented genius. This kind of best quality stuff, even Wei Dakai found it hard to get. So she would imagine that if Murong Fei was at his place, she would be “pampered” very much!

Looking at Luo Jiyun’s innocent look, Huang Yueli naturally wouldn’t be so silly to tell him the truth behind.

Apparently, even Li Moying didn’t tell him the exact truth, merely avoiding the heavy topic and mentioned it lightly saying that he married Murong Fei to someone as a concubine.

If this soft hearted child knew that they were so vicious in their handlings, he would probably faint from shock.....

Huang Yueli then asked curiously, “Alright I understand her situation now, then how about Li Lingchuan?”

Hearing this question, Luo Jiyun was slightly puzzled as he frowned slightly.

“Speaking of Li Lingchuan, I find it strange! By right, he had personally plotted to murder El.... Ughh.... many things and even poured dirty water onto El... ughh.... poured dirty water to put the blame on others so by right he should end up in a worse off state! But Eldest Senior Brother only sent him to the rear mountain to be a hard labourer for Elder Quan who was responsible for refining pills.”

Chapter 1688: Li'er, don't be angry (5)

Luo Jiyun really couldn't think it through since when had his Eldest Senior Brother become so merciful? To actually let the main culprit off so easily?

If it was said that Luo Jiyun was still feeling sympathetic towards Murong Fei that Senior Sister, then towards Li Lingchuan, he totally could not feel any sympathy as he couldn't wait to slap this scum who had plotted his Eldest Senior Brother multiple times to death!

Huang Yueli however nodded her head while pondering over this.

“Oh.... So it's like this....”

Blue Profound Sect's Alchemy Hall's Elder Quan was a veteran eighth ranked Pill Master. Although he didn't have Liu Buyan's miraculous skills, but his competence was profound and he had been established for a long time.

Only problem was as he was passionate about researching various new prescriptions, even prescribing various poisons to the extent of being smitten. Every single time a new medication was refined successfully, he would always find someone to test the effects of it. These kinds of medication testing slaves were mostly slaves bought from various slave markets.

These slaves were mostly ordinary people who weren't even practitioners, not to mention outstanding high levelled practitioners with outstanding innate talent but unfortunately all of Elder Quan's prescriptions were all pinpointed towards high levelled practitioners. In this way, there was no way to test out the actual effect of the medication.

With Li Lingchuan this eighth grade talent as a medication slave, Elder Quan would be elated!

Following that, he would definitely be even more loyal towards Li Moying.

“He indeed is the man who I, Huang Yueli, had chosen. Indeed vicious, merciless and black-bellied.... Heh heh, I like....” Huang Yueli mumbled to herself as she gave a sly smile exposing her sharp little tiger fangs.

Luo Jiyun's curiosity had reached the peak as he couldn't help but leaned over to ask, “Lil Sister-in-law, you know what's going on right? Quickly tell me, what is Eldest Senior Brother trying to do?”

Huang Yueli heard that and lightly grazed him with a sight, “Why? You really want to know?”

Luo Jiyun nodded his head hard, “Of course, I'm curious to death! Lil Sister-in-law, please tell me!”

Huang Yueli gave a slight smile, “Then alright.... I won't tell you on purpose!”

Luo Jiyun's smile which had just surfaced instantly froze on his face, “AH—? Wh... WHY?”

Huang Yueli spoke chillingly, "When you first entered the door, what did I tell you? Hmm? As long as you mentioned that stinky man's name, I will immediately make you leave! Tell me how many times have you mentioned his name earlier? Hmm? Still not going to hurry and scam?"

Luo Jiyun's face immediately appeared a dazed expression as his eyes turned wide, as though he didn't hear her clearly.

It took quite a while before he managed to react and plead with a bitter face, "Lil Sister-in-law, how could you be like this? I really didn't do it intentionally and not purposely mentioned... mentioning about 'someone'..."

Huang Yueli gave a cold humpf, "Who cares if you're intentional or unintentional, you can leave now!"

Luo Jiyun hurriedly added, "Lil Sister-in-law, don't be in a hurry to chase me away, just let me say two more sentences, just two more sentences!"

Huang Yueli's big bright eyes swept towards him, "Two sentences is it? Then just say!"

Luo Jiyun had originally thought that Eldest Senior Brother's plan was really useful and lil Sister-in-law had really acted out according to his plans. After hearing him talk about Mo Yi and Li Lingchuan's news, he was about to enter the most important stage next!

Whoever knew that Huang Yueli actually tore down the bridge after crossing it. She treated him to tea to find out the news and after hearing it all, she immediately swept him out of her door!

Chapter 1689: Too hard on himself (1)

How could it turn out like this?

The routine he leant was obviously not meant to be like this?

How could lil Sister-in-law now go according to the standard pattern to throw out her tiles? This was an obvious violation!

Luo Jiyun really wanted to cry but had no tears but Huang Yueli was so black bellied and so sinister, he totally could not beat her! Arguing with her was the most unwise thing to do under this Heavens.

He could only grasp onto the last "two sentences" chance, attempting to plead for Eldest Senior Brother.

"Lil Sister-in-law, Eldest Senior Brother said he really didn't lie to you, his heartfelt feelings are something which heaven and earth can prove, he... AH—!"

Luo Jiyun spoke quickly as he tried to grasp onto time to speak a few more sentences but whoever knew that he had just started when Huang Yueli's right hand waved and a surging burst of Profound Energy gushed towards him!

Although Luo Jiyun's cultivation was a little higher by a few levels than Huang Yueli's but Huang Yueli's innate talent and combat experience was much higher than him by a far chunk.

If they really started to cross hands, Luo Jiyun was totally not her match and in an instant, he was thrown out of the door like a bag of trash!

After a resounding 'bam' on the ground, the door shut tightly in front of him.

Huang Yueli's sweet melodious voice drifted out from inside, "You're done with two sentence, Junior Brother Luo, have a safe journey and I won't be seeing you off!"

Luo Jiyun hurriedly pounced over to knock on the door, "Lil Sister-in-law, don't.... don't be like this! Let me say a few more sentences! Eldest Senior Brother he really.... aiyo!"

Luo Jiyun's fist had just reached the door when he sensed an irresistible powerful force coming from the door and he hadn't even had time to stabilize his body while retreating and directly flew out as he fell onto the flower bed at the entrance.

"Eldest Senior Brother, why am I in such a miserable state.... Not only did Lil Sister-in-law not listen to me finish my words, she also set up an unknown mechanism at the door which sent me flying in an instance..."

Luo Jiyun climbed up from the mud with an ashen face as he turned around and went to look for his Eldest Senior Brother to complain tearfully.

Huang Yueli's mechanism was mainly set up for defence and its offensive attack wasn't strong at all hence he wasn't really hurt, only falling head first into the mud which had just recently been set with fertilizers so not only was he filthy from head to toe, that smell.... Don't mention just how horrible it was!

Luo Jiyun ran all the way and almost every Levitation Sword Palace's disciples who he passed by all raised their eyebrows as they looked at him.

Li Moying looked at his sorry state and silently sighed.

"Jiyun, it's been hard on you. Your Sister-in-law is not biased against you but she's simply too angry! You'd better not go find her recently and just like what your Sister-in-law said, it's best that you go into closed door cultivation during this period of time to prepare for the Sky Ascension Stairs assessment! I will personally give you some pointers with regards to cultivation."

To be able to get Soaring Heavens Continent's number one top exponent's personal teaching this was something which every young practitioner in the entire Continent had dreamt of!

Luo Jiyun instantly forgot all his troubles as he left happily.

Li Moying's inner heart grew even graver.

He knew clearly that Luo Jiyun took on the punishment for him and Li'er's anger had still not dissipated. Moreover she had seen through his plot to make use of Luo Jiyun in an attempt to mediate for them hence she intentionally taught the both of them a lesson.

He had not expected that even Luo Jiyun could not lower Li'er's defence... looked like she was set on finding out the truth!

Could it be that, he really needed to tell her.....

No way!

This thought had just surfaced and it was thoroughly refuted by Li Moying!

If he told her the truth, she would definitely.... No, unless he was about to die, otherwise he would never tell her the truth!

Since that's the case then there would only be one way...

Chapter 1690: Too hard on himself (2)

Another few days went by but Huang Yueli and Li Moying's relationship did not ease up at all.

Levitation Sword Palace's atmosphere grew tenser and tenser and every disciple and attendants in the palace were all shaking with fear and trepidation, deeply worried that if they were careless for that one second, they would anger Grandmaster Huang and affect their Sovereign who was on the verge of exploding.

In the past, everyone hoped to get the chance to get closer to Sovereign, even if it was just to take a look at his handsome countenance, it was an extremely glorious matter to them.

But now the minute they heard that the Sovereign was appearing, everyone ran faster away than the rabbits!

It really was because Li Moying's recent temper was too terrifying. Even his most trusted Eldest Guardian Cang Po Jun was faulted at every turn daily thus being berated badly, not to mention other people.

Whereas Cang Po Jun knew that he had done something wrong and as the Eldest Guardian, right after Sovereign had instructed multiple times to not reveal the secret, yet it was emitted to future Sovereign's ears the minute he turned his head so regarding this matter, he could not escape censure.

So everyday there were plenty of people who would intentionally or unintentionally go over to visit Huang Yueli in an attempt to make the two of them reconcile.

Alas, Huang Yueli had set her heart on this, absolutely not giving in at all!

It was another dark nightfall and Huang Yueli was cultivating alone in her room.

Her cultivation had also increased swiftly when she was in the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region. Although it had not improved as exaggeratedly as Li Moying, Cloudy Qilin Clan's genius, but she had already advanced into fifth stage realm peak and after a long time of stabilization, she would be able to breakthrough to sixth stage realm anytime.

Just as she congealed her breathing and senses to concentrate on cultivating, her room door suddenly came a series of knocking sounds.

"Lil Sister-in-law! Lil Sister-in-law! Are you there? Something bad has happened!"

Luo Jiyun was shouting outside her door with a hint of sobbing tone mixed in his voice.

Huang Yueli's cultivation was interrupted but before she could start to get upset, she could tell that there was something wrong with his tone and immediately she turned anxious and jumped right up from her bed, running over to open the door.

"What's the matter? It's so late already, what on earth has happened?"

Luo Jiyun was panting hard to catch his breath as he panted heavily and pointed his finger towards the night sky.

"Lil.... Lil Sister-in-law, cough cough, have you forgotten? Tonight... tonight is full moon's night...."

Huang Yueli raised her head and a full moon shone brightly in their eyes and her complexion immediately turned pale!

That's right, no wonder she had been in a daze for the entire day, somewhat feeling that something was ill at ease with the feeling that she seemed to have forgotten about something important... so today was full moon's night!

She actually.... forgot about such an important matter!

Huang Yueli turned around and sped towards Li Moying's bedroom!

As she was running, she kept blaming herself in her heart.

Tonight was full moon's night, such an important matter like this and she had forgotten about it totally! It was all because of her only caring about the cold war with Li Moying and forgetting to pay attention to the condition of his body!

Speaking of that, Li Moying's Soul Detachment Illness all relied on Liu Buyan's prescription and it was already totally unable to be suppressed. Every time it acted up, the reaction would be more intense than the previous time!

But as long as she was beside him, it would be suppressed very quickly and if it wasn't for that, he would....

Hence, she wasn't able to pinpoint if the current Li Moying's state was considered to be turning for the better or for the worse.

But she was very sure on one point, and that was every single full moon's night, she must stay by Li Moying's side securely, no exceptions for that even if the two of them were in the middle of a cold war!
