Chapter 1701: Too hard on himself (13)

Whether he had his past life's memories or not, only Li Moying himself was the clearest on this.

However, he could not not do this.

Whereas this young lass, was indeed... hooked.....

Huang Yueli was guilty to the max and was in no state of mind to consider this point in detail. She felt that her heart was aching to the point that she almost couldn't breathe as her fingers subconsciously clutched Li Moying's shirt into a lump.

"I beg you... please don't torture yourself in this way! I really don't want to know, really, really don't want to know, don't even want to know ever again! I only want you to be well!"

"No... I.... I must....."

Li Moying shook his head insistently. He had indeed sensed that his body had already reached the limit! This time round, he had wasted too much time and expended too much Profound Energy and he could possibly fall down anytime.

But he must cut off Huang Yueli's thoughts of getting to the heart of the matter.... regardless of any price!

But he couldn't hold on for long as well, because he was slowly losing control of his body...

Li Moying stumbled and almost fell down. Huang Yueli took the opportunity to pounce onto him and this time, she had finally managed to kiss his pale thin lips accurately.

Li Moying's lips were icy cold, as though it had lost all life form.

Huang Yueli used all her energy before she pried open his lips, sending her own breath into his mouth.

Initially, Li Moying practically didn't move as though he had no more energy left to draw in her breath but under Huang Yueli's unyielding persistence, it took a little while more before his lips gradually became warm.

After a period of time later, Li Moying started to kiss her back, and little by little, he turned from a guest into the host and finally at the very end, like the usual powerful and overbearing man who he was whenever they kissed, he grabbed hold of absolute initiative authority.

Huang Yueli was initially terrified and worried. Initially, as she was practically nibbling on the man's lips.

It was until later when Li Moying had regained the initiative before she slowly sunk in, under the familiar overbearing man's breath, her conscious slowly turned hazy.....

The two of them didn't notice that the surrounding rampaging thunder attributed energy had unknowingly resumed back to its peaceful state.

Thunder region's energy gradually weakened until it totally disappeared.

The sword array above Levitation Sword Palace's sky resumed its silent state, as it silently protected the palace below.

Cang Po Jun and the others stood not too far away as they were dumbstruck as they stared at the duo who were tightly in an embrace kissing.

Only Luo Jiyun stood by the side giving a dry laugh, "Hur hur, it's just like this! See, in this way everything would be fine, so simple and so relaxed....."

Cang Po Hun's mouth was opened so widely that it totally couldn't close up, "I've really never imagined that, they are able..... to control the illness in such a way? Why?"

Luo Jiyun shook his head, "This I'm not sure, even Divine Doctor Liu isn't able to give an explanation for this! Anyway, as long as we know Lil Sister-in-law can save Eldest Senior Brother will do!"

Cang Po Hun still wanted to ask more but Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Yu exchanged glances and went up to stop him.

"Alright, stop staring at Sovereign and Grandmaster Huang. Later when Sovereign regains consciousness and sees you like this, beware that he will strike you!"

Cang Po Hun shuddered as he hastily moved his eyes away.

Cang Po Jun turned towards Luo Jiyun, "They are... ughh, going to be in this state for how long? I think Sovereign's body is not going to hold on for much longer....."

He had yet to complete his sentence when he saw Li Moying's body shaking and he leaned forward and fell into Huang Yueli's arms.

Chapter 1702: Too hard on himself (14)

Everyone then went up and crowded around the both of them.

Cang Po Hun said, "Grandmaster Huang, it's been tough on you. Let me carry Sovereign back!"

Huang Yueli gave Li Moying a detailed check, to discover that his breathing and pulse had already settled down. Although his complexion was still very pale, no difference from a dead corpse, but he should be considered as stabilized.

She nodded her head and wanted to pass him over to Cang Po Jun.

But Li Moying grabbed onto Huang Yueli's hand tightly, refusing to let go even though he was unconscious.

Feeling helpless, the new Guardians could only bring a stretched over and carefully placed Li Moying onto it, carrying him back into his bedroom whereas Huang Yueli's was still held on tightly by him, as she followed beside him closely.

Blue Profound Sect's few Divine Doctors were already waiting inside Li Moying's bedroom and when they saw him appearing, they immediately rushed upwards to conduct a check-up.

However, Li Moying grabbed onto Huang Yueli's hand tightly, refusing to let go so the few Divine Doctors weren't able to take his pulse at all.

"This... what should we do?"

"Grandmaster Huang, can you think of an idea to make Sovereign let you go?"

"That's right, your Subordinate do not dare to be too rough, what would happen if we hurt Sovereign? It's better for you to think of a way to persuade him?"

Huang Yueli shook her hand which was being grabbed and said softly, "Moying, the doctors want to take your pulse, let go of me first!"

Li Moying groggily replied as though he was awake as he gave a soft moan, "Wu...."

Huang Yueli saw that he had some response and immediately said, "Just let go for a while, the doctors will be very quick in their check-up and later on I'll come back to feed you your medication alright?"

As she was saying that, she gently pried open Li Moying's fingers, attempting to make him let go.

Cang Po Jun and the others were on one side listening, as they couldn't help but turn their heads away.

What was with the tone which seemed as though she was trying to coax a little child? Although Sovereign indeed appeared very childish in front of Grandmaster Huang, but... this was simply unbelievable. The person lying over there was Blue Profound Sect's Sovereign who had awed the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!

Li Moying sensed Huang Yueli's movements and his body trembled and his fingers subconsciously tightened. Not only had he not let her go, instead he grabbed on to her even tighter, to the fact that he had hurt her hand.

"Moying, Moying?" Huang Yueli frowned slightly as she shook him, "What's the matter? Let go first alright?"

Li Moying's forehead grew tighter, not knowing if he was conscious or unconscious as he kept on muttering intermittently, "No, cannot.... Leave me further away... I still have... still have to recall a little more... I am about to remember it..."

Huang Yueli heard his subconscious muttering as her eyes felt sore and her tears almost rolled down again.

"You... stop talking about this! Don't think, don't ever think again! Haven't I said it already? I don't have the slightest bit of curiosity to know what happened that year! I will never ask you again so please don't think about it anymore!"

She kept on promising him as she repeatedly pacified Li Moying's emotions.

Li Moying's brows finally eased as his fingers also started to relax.

Huang Yueli retracted her own hand and indicated for the doctors to head up immediately.

Cang Po Jun and the others were standing by the side as their hearts were totally shocked beyond words!

Originally they didn't understand why Li Moying had acted totally differently from how Luo Jiyun described today.

But on hearing Huang Yueli's words, then linking back to the cause and effect of this entire matter, they suddenly understood what had happened!

Chapter 1703: Reconciled (1)

Li Moying had been rejecting Huang Yueli from getting near to him wasn't by chance, but was because he used his last bit of rationality to control his own actions.

The main motive was to let Huang Yueli misunderstand that he really didn't recall what happened in his past life. Besides that, he had to risk his life to work hard to recollect his memories, to the extent of hurting his own body!

When his illness acted up, under the prerequisite that his condition was deteriorating steadily, Huang Yueli would feel extreme heart pain and had no time to think much about it. Adding on to the heartache and moving feelings she had towards him, she would definitely not continue to pursue after the things which had happened that year.

Li Moying's trick of injuring himself to gain her sympathy, was just too scheming... and was just too hard on himself!

Cang Po Jun found it hard to imagine that under that kind of disoriented state of mind earlier, just how much determination did Li Moying had to resist the instinct of going near to Huang Yueli to heal himself, insistent on pushing her aside once and again?

And just how vicious was he that he had to torture himself in such a way, sparing no effort to even burn his own life source so that he could exchange for Huang Yueli to not pursue after her suspicions and interrogation?

Cang Po Jun and the others looked at each other in dismay, as they were so appalled that they couldn't say a single word.

Sixteen years had passed and Sovereign was indeed still the same as then, ruthless towards other people, towards himself.... even more ruthless!

Especially when the matter had something to do with Huang Yueli, he would really be able to do anything!

After understanding this point, every one of them were secretly reminding themselves that in future if they were to face Huang Yueli, they had to be even more cautious than before.

Li Moying had spared no effort in hurting his own life source just so as to preserve the secret so if they were to leak out this secret, it was imaginable just what kind of ending they would have!

The result of the check up by the doctor was indeed within everyone's prediction, Li Moying's condition was extremely perilous.

“Grandmaster Huang, to tell the truth, Sovereign had repeatedly exhausted his Profound Energy in high intensity and not only had he sustained a severe internal injury, his meridians are also heavily damaged. What’s worse of all, his physique and primordial spirit are also affected... this kind of situation is really far from good, extremely bad.....”

The doctor muttered that and his brows furrowed deeply as he spoke slowly.

Huang Yueli’s heart was burning with anxiety as she pursued relentlessly, “Then what should we do? Moying, he will get better right? Quick tell me, he will get better!”

Perhaps it was because she had been together with Li Moying for a long time so when she was anxious, there was a natural kind of aura which intimidated the others without her flaring up. The doctors shivered and thought that they were facing their Sovereign who was in a rage and took quite a bit of time before they recollected their senses.

The doctor hastily said, “Grandmaster Huang, you.... you need not be too anxious! Luckily you managed to save him in time hence Sovereign is not in critical danger right now. Only thing is his body is heavily injured and it will be difficult for him to recover in a short period of time. He must lay in bed quietly for at least three months and in the later stage, try to recuperate slowly. But even so, it’s possible.... ughh, that it might affect his future cultivation, or even.... possibly shorten his lifespan.....”

The doctor suffered immense pressure as he braced himself to say out the truth.

Huang Yueli shivered from the shock and heartache, “You... what did you say? His cultivation will be affected and it might even affect his lifespan? How did it turn out like this? Is there really no way to revert back? In the past Moying also had times when his illness acted up violently but in the end he managed to nurse himself back. This time round... how is it possible that there’s no way?? You’re also an established Divine Doctor in Sky Emperor City so can’t you even cure these small symptoms?”

The doctor was being scolded until he didn’t dare to lift up his head, crying out bitterly in his heart.

Every single time Li Moying’s Soul Detachment Illness acted up, it would cause detrimental damages to his body.

Chapter 1704: Reconciled (2)

In the past when he was even younger, the condition of his body was definitely much better than now hence there was a ninety percent chance of him recuperating just through convalescing.

But now, he was suffering from the repercussions from before when his illness acted up and it slowly accumulated, his body’s foundation was originally not that good plus this round of acting up was much more severe than previous times.

In order for Li Moying to gain Huang Yueli’s sympathy, he was practically self-tormenting himself, totally not controlling his rampaging Profound Energy, allowing his body to suffer from the damage of the invasion.....

With both elements added up, it was absolutely not easy to nurse him back to health.

The doctor wanted to justify himself but under Huang Yueli’s strict gaze, he was unable to say it outright!

This glare of hers was simply too alike to Sovereign! Really too alike! So much that it made one didn't muster enough courage to defy her command.

Cang Po Jun and the others were also urging him, "Divine Doctor Liu, is there really no way to nurse him back to health? No matter what high levelled medicinal pills or rare treasures, as long as it can help Sovereign recover, you can list it all out and we'll think of a way to get it!"

"This....." Doctor Lu remained silent for a moment when he heard what they said.

After some time, he snuck a glance at Li Moying secretly to confirm that he was really drowsy when unconscious and wouldn't wake up within the short span of time.

Doctor Lu then suppressed his voice and said, "Actually, it's not.... Not totally no way to nurse him back to health, but.... it's slightly inconvenient...."

The crowd felt that this saying sounded rather strange as they asked bewilderedly, "Inconvenient, what do you mean?"

"That's right, to us Blue Profound Sect, what matter could it be to be inconvenient? Why don't you be frank and tell us outright?"

Huang Yueli had somehow guessed something, "Your meaning is....."

Doctor Lu said, "As everyone knows, the best top rated medicinal pills for nursing internal injuries and physique are ninth level upper grade Ennead Heavenly Dragon Cinnabar and these exquisite medicinal pills are practically close to the realm of a God pill. It's ingredients are extremely hard to find, requiring nine kinds of ninth levelled magical beast cores and matched with nine kinds of ninth level medicinal herbs before it could be refined!"

"But no matter how hard it is to find the ingredients, it wouldn't be tough for Blue Profound Sect but the most critical part is a ninth level upper grade medicinal pill can only be refined successfully by a ninth ranked Pill Master and the only ninth rank Pill Master in Soaring Heavens Continent, is..... errrr...."

When Doctor Lu said till this point, he stopped awkwardly.

Huang Yueli continued, "I understand, this medicinal pill can only be refined by Liu Buyan, am I right?"

Doctor Lu hurriedly nodded his head. The entire Soaring Heavens Continent knew that their Sovereign were completely on bad terms.

Sixteen years ago, before Sovereign had reincarnated, the two of them had a huge argument in Levitation Sword Palace and announced that they were calling it quits as friends.

Later on when Sovereign was reborn, Liu Buyan kept by his vow and had never once visited Blue Profound Sect, and there were even rumours that they were not allowed to mention their Sovereign's name otherwise it would ruffle the feathers of Divine Doctor Liu who didn't had a good temper, causing him to fly into a huge rage.

Under this kind of situation, wanting to find Liu Buyan to help Sovereign refine pills was naturally an impossible task.

Doctor Lu didn't even dare to mention Liu Buyan's name while he was standing beside Li Moying.

But since Huang Yueli had already said it out, Doctor Lu just said it outright, "What Grandmaster Huang said is right, the Ennead Heavenly Dragon Cinnabar can only be refined by Divine Doctor Liu but even if it was he, he will also need to exhaust a large amount of effort and it might not even be refined successfully!"

Chapter 1705: Reconciled (3)

When everyone present heard what Doctor Lu said, their faces all sunk.

If it was sixteen years ago when Liu Buyan and their Sovereign hadn't cut off all ties yet, inviting Divine Doctor Liu for treatment would naturally be a matter of lifting his hand and they might not even need to invite him but just releasing the news itself and Divine Doctor Liu would hurry over within the next few days.

But it wasn't the same right now.

Liu Buyan had originally vowed to never have any dealings with Blue Profound Sect so inviting him over to do a consultation was extremely difficult, and adding on to the fact that this pill was so hard to refine which would require a large amount of his time and energy.....

Just thinking about it was already impossible to achieve.

On what basis did Divine Doctor Liu have to spend so much effort on his foe whom he had cut off ties with?

Moreover, based on Liu Buyan's status and ability, even if they were to force it and abduct him to coerce him to treat their Sovereign, it didn't seem very realistic.....

Cang Po Hun moaned in despair, "Sigh, why did it turn out like this? This... is there really no other way? Can't he take some other medication? I heard that Soaring Heavens Merchant Guild is going to auction a batch of ninth level medicinal pills which they obtained from an ancient mystic region, although it is not as effective as the Ennead Heavenly Dragon Cinnabar, but if he takes a few more of it....."

Doctor Lu shook his head gravely, "Guardian Hun, things are not as simple as what you think! Not every ninth level medicinal pill will be effective, the most crucial thing is to prescribe the right medicine for the illness! Moreover, Divine Doctor Liu's medical skills are much better than mine and if he will personally conduct a check-up for Sovereign, he might have a better way of treating him....."

Hearing that, everyone turned silent.

After a moment later, Cang Po Jun spoke out, "This matter is of utmost importance, so it looks like we can only wait for Sovereign to regain consciousness then decide....."

Before he could complete his words, Huang Yueli suddenly opened her mouth and interrupted him.

"No need to wait for Moying to regain conscious, go arrange right now to send people to search for Liu Buyan in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent and the moment anyone discovers his whereabouts, report to me immediately!"

Cang Po Jun went into a blank, thinking that she probably didn't know about what happened after her self-explosion and tried to explain to her anxiously, "Grandmaster Huang, you probably don't know about this but Sovereign and Divine Doctor Liu...."

Huang Yueli raised up her hand to stop him from continuing, "I know, the two of them had cut off their ties for an unknown reason!"

Cang Po Jun appeared even more bewildered, "Ughh, right, since Grandmaster Huang already knows about this... then you should be able to understand that Divine Doctor Liu's temper is extremely obstinate and it's not possible for him to do a consultation for Sovereign."

Huang Yueli's lips curled upwards as she didn't put too much concern into that, "No matter, as long as someone finds him, I will naturally have my own way to make him head over to Blue Profound Sect to do the consultation."

When Liu Buyan was in Sky Cloud City, he had already agreed to help her fiancé do a consultation and although she didn't know what was the situation the previous time which made Liu Buyan unable to fulfil his promise, but he had after all made the promise!

Their friendship in her past life wasn't fake and Divine Doctor Liu was something who would definitely fulfil something which he had promised!

Moreover speaking, although Huang Yueli wasn't clear on why he and Li Moying had fallen out, but she didn't believe that the two were best buddies for several decades and they could really turn from enemies into foes? These two men were both sentimental and loyal so they would rather die than to betray their own best buddy.

Hence Huang Yueli was certain that there must be a misunderstanding somewhere.

If she was able to borrow this chance to find out what contradiction they had, to bury the hatchet then that would be killing two birds with one stone!

Chapter 1706: Reconciled (4)

Thinking up to this point, Huang Yueli suddenly turned her head back and asked Cang Po Jun, "That's right, Guardian Jun, I'd like to ask.... Do you know the reason for Li Moying and Liu Buyan to fall out?"

When Cang Po Jun heard this question, he felt suffocated as he completely didn't know what to say.

The reason for Li Moying and Liu Buyan to argue, the few of them Guardians knew it clearly. But it probably never occurred to Grandmaster Huang that she was the reason for these two men to have fallen out with each other?

Moreover, this was something which wasn't for him to speak about, otherwise when their Sovereign wakes up.... he might just skin him alive!

Cang Po Jun wanted to say something but then hesitated and at last he could only say these, "This... your Subordinate is also puzzled. Sovereign and Divine Doctor Liu have such a long-standing relationship but it's really puzzling why they just fell out like that! These kinds of matters are only known to the people who are directly involved. Grandmaster Huang had better ask Sovereign when he regains consciousness!"

Huang Yueli's brows rose as she knew that Cang Po Jun wasn't telling the truth.

But she couldn't do anything about it as she could only nod her head, "Alright then!"

Li Moying was unconscious for an entire day and night before he regained consciousness.

Huang Yueli had not slept for the entire night and stayed by his side all the while.

But when Doctor Lu saw Li Moying awakening, he had a rude shock, "I had thought that Sovereign would at least be unconscious for seven days and seven nights! Why is he able to regain consciousness so quickly?"

Luo Jiyun hurriedly said, "This is probably because Sister-in-law has been staying beside Eldest Senior Brother all this while!"

"What do you mean?"

Luo Jiyun pulled Doctor Lu aside and explained clearly to him the scenario which happened to Li Moying whenever he acted up in the past.

Doctor Lu was evidently puzzled but after helping Li Moying take his pulse, he expressed that Li Moying's body had recovered at a rate which exceeded his predictions and if this carried on, even if he didn't take the Ennead Heavenly Dragon Cinnabar, he would at least be able to recover to eighty or ninety percent of his original state so he hoped that Huang Yueli would be able to stay by Li Moying's side as much as possible.

Huang Yueli heaved a sigh of relief. From the looks of it, Li Moying would not be in much danger for the time being.

Without Doctor Lu's advice, she wouldn't dare to leave Li Moying side for too long.

But recovering to eighty or ninety percent state, to Li Moying who was trying to charge towards the tenth stage realm, was totally not enough. She needed to locate Liu Buyan!

After Li Moying regained consciousness, under Huang Yueli's unwavering care, the recovery speed of his body was rather fast.

What made him most delighted was that Huang Yueli no longer entered a cold war with him and refused to mention anything about their past life as the both of them resumed the past sweet and loving state.

The only thing which made him melancholic was that Huang Yueli turned extremely anxious and kept watching every single action he made, almost turning him into a paper person who might just be blown away with a gentle breeze and he didn't know to laugh or cry for this.

Seeing Huang Yueli walking over slowly with a large bowl of medicinal cuisine, Li Moying's face appeared a bitter smile.

"Li'er, can we discuss this, can I not eat that...."

Huang Yueli immediately rewarded him by rolling her eyes back, “What’s called ‘that’! This is the medicinal cuisine which I had personally brewed and it has been stewing from early morning till now, how could you even treat it with disdain!”

Li Moying hurriedly said, “I’m not disdainning it, but.... my body has already recovered! Yesterday when Doctor Lu came over to take my pulse, hadn’t he said that I’m now back to normal and can cultivate in peace?”

After taking so much oily medicinal cuisines, he really had enough of it!

Chapter 1707: Reconciled (5)

Although his Li’er’s culinary skills aren’t bad at all, but no one would be able to stand having to eat practically the same stuff for the entire month right?

Moreover the main ingredient of this medicinal cuisine had an extremely fishy smell so even if it was Huang Yueli’s culinary skills, it was unable to cover up that strange smell which assailed the nostrils.

When Huang Yueli heard what he said, she couldn’t help as her lips twitched with a look as though she would break out into tears anytime.

“Why? Why are you refusing to eat the medicinal cuisine which I cooked? Are you despising me, and don’t like me anymore? Oh, I know, in the past everyone said that you hated Murong Fei for sticking on to you so you refused to take the medicinal cuisine which she prepared and now that it’s my turn, are you.....”

This huge hat locked down on him and Li Moying started to sweat profusely as he hurriedly shook his head to deny, “Don’t misunderstand, don’t misunderstand me! Li’er, I love you, how could I possibly despise you? I only really don’t want to eat...”

Huang Yueli’s pair of watery large eyes gazed towards him pitifully.

Every one of this young lass’s gaze and expression were able to touch the softest part of his inner heart and even though he knew now that she was probably pretending, but towards this pair of pure and clear eyes, Li Moying just couldn’t say out any words of rejection!

He stood in a daze for a moment and could only shake his head as he clenched his teeth hard, “Alright, I’ll drink, I’ll drink it all okay?”

Hearing that, the pitiful little white rabbit immediately broke out into a beaming black bellied little fox, as she served the bowl of soul right up.

“Alright, then you have to drink it while it’s hot! This kind of medicinal cuisine’s effect is at its best when it’s taken hot.”

But when it’s hot, the fishy smell is also at its strongest point.

Li Moying silently murmured as he stretched out his arm to receive the bowl but he was still hesitant in swallowing it down.

Huang Yueli urged, "Why are you hesitating? Your injuries are so heavy, isn't it all because you were pushing yourself too hard? Now you're refusing to take the medicinal cuisine, are you intentionally trying to make me die of heartache?"

Another large hat locked down on him. No matter how mighty Sovereign was, he couldn't bear to make his fiancée suffer for even a little bit.

Other than admitting his downfall, Li Moying had no other path hence he lifted up his head and shut his eyes as he downed the bowl of medicinal cuisine in one gulp.

Finishing that, he immediately passed the bowl back to Huang Yueli in disdain and disgust as his thick, straight brows creased tightly together.

Looking at his tormented expression, not only did Huang Yueli not sympathise with him, she even laughed, "Is it really that horrible to drink? You've really wasted my kind efforts!"

Li Moying nodded his head consecutively, "Terrible, too terrible! Can I not drink this tomorrow?"

Huang Yueli was all smiles as she said, "No way, of course not! Doctor Lu had said that it's best to take a full course of eighty one days for this medicinal cuisine!"

Damn that Doctor Lu! Li Moying gnashed his teeth secretly.

Sometimes he was really suspicious if Huang Yueli had already seen through himself trying to scheme her, intentionally injuring himself to gain her confidence in order to mislead her, otherwise why would she trick him in such a way?

But Huang Yueli didn't expose him hence he didn't dare to ask nor even probe on this. He could only endure all kinds of ways which his Li'er would occasionally try to trick him and at the same time, felt guilty about it.

Indeed, a person can't just casually lie or do any bad stuff, otherwise there was no doubt to have a guilty conscience!

Li Moying was forced by Huang Yueli to lay in bed to recuperate for over a month.

His internal and external injuries had basically recovered but the damage on his meridians could only be nursed through cultivation methods as the medicinal pills effect was limited.

Chapter 1708: Reconciled (6)

Henceforth, after one month, Li Moying entered the state of closed door cultivation.

Huang Yueli saw that he took a turn for the better and also grabbed hold of time tightly and began to cultivate.

She had spent too much time on taking care of her fiancé during this period and the speed of her cultivation had dropped by a huge chunk so she couldn't afford to not waste any more time.

Hence, she and Li Moying both occupied the palace where the Profound Qi was the most abundant, going into closed door cultivation on their own.

Huang Yueli's main aim was to break through to sixth stage realm.

In order to cultivate <<Nine Phoenix Transformations>>, she required a huge amount of resources every single time she advanced and when she reached sixth stage realm, the ingredients she required was enough to cause a small Sect to lose the entire fortune.

But to the rich and imposing number one Sacred Land in Soaring Heavens Continent, getting these resources were akin to lifting a finger.

Therefore this time round, Huang Yueli's advancement went smoothly and within ten days, she had successfully advanced.

When she broke out of the realm, it caused a strange occurrence in the world and it was much more vigorous as compared to ordinary sixth stage realm breaking out, even exceeding many outstanding talented eighth stage realm practitioners, hence causing many people in Levitation Sword Palace to crowd around and take a look.

"Strange, isn't Grandmaster Huang breaking through.... to the sixth stage realm?"

Cang Po Hun stared at the palace room which was shrouded in strong blaze as the raging inferno swept outwards and flickers of flames burst into the sky. This kind of scenario wasn't something which sixth stage realm practitioners could achieve.

Luo Jiyun stood by the side as he praised in admiration, "No wonder she's my Lil Sister-in-law, this innate talent is indeed something unimaginable!"

The unusual occurrence when breaking through realms and the fluctuations from Profound Energy mainly had something to do with the realm which was broken through, but it was also related closely to the practitioner's own innate talent.

Cang Po Jun and the others were established practitioners hence they knew this logic but they were still extremely astonished!

"This... this shouldn't be! Grandmaster Huang's innate talent in this lifetime shouldn't be too different from her past life."

"That's right, not even sixteen and yet successfully broke through to sixth stage realm, this kind of innate talent, if it wasn't for the addition of her past life's memories, she might have already exceeded ninth grade upper talent! But under the condition that she is cultivating with her past life's memories, the mixture of it should be ninth grade upper....."

"Her innate talent is indeed very outstanding, but for a sixth stage realm to cause such an unusual occurrence... even Sovereign in his past life had not achieved that! Only this life's Sovereign had such shocking innate talent!"

When Luo Jiyun heard what they were discussing, he couldn't help but interrupted them.

“Guardians, have you got it wrong? Eldest Senior Brother once said this personally, that Lil Sister-in-law’s innate talent in this lifetime might be even stronger than his!”

“What? How could that be possible?” Everyone apparently had the three big words “I don’t believe” written all over their faces.

Luo Jiyun said, “Although Lil Sister-in-law broke through to sixth stage realm when she is just fifteen years and eight months old, but she had only regained back her past life’s memories when she was fourteen years old and before that, don’t mention about whatever genius or whatsoever. She totally couldn’t cultivate at all and was a renowned trash Missy in South Yue Kingdom!”

“What? There’s such a thing like that?”

Luo Jiyun nodded, “So to speak, Lil Sister-in-law really started cultivating at the age of fourteen and until today, it has not even been two years yet.....”

Not even two years...

When Luo Jiyun said this, everyone was instantly stunned as they stood in their places in a daze, thinking that their ears were problematic.

Not even two years, turned from a trashy Young Miss into a sixth stage realm practitioner?

What kind of joke was that? How could there possibly be someone with such abnormal innate talent!

Chapter 1709: Armament Guild Headquarters (1)

But Luo Jiyun’s expression was as serious as it could be and moreover based on everyone’s understanding of him in these past few days, they all knew that he wouldn’t lie to anyone...

Turning their gazes towards the raging inferno that charged towards the clouds....

Could it be that whatever Luo Jiyun said was the truth? Huang Yueli’s innate talent was really as abnormal as Li Moying’s?

In Soaring Heavens Continent, it had already been a known fact that ability talked and even more so in Blue Profound Sect.

After Huang Yueli advanced successfully, she could sense clearly that every single person in Levitation Sword Palace treated her with even more respect and moreover, it wasn’t on account towards Li Moying but a kind of reverence that came from the heart.

Casting aside that set of lost memories which Li Moying couldn’t recall, in this period of time when Huang Yueli was in Blue Profound Sect, she had her way as she liked it, as though she had gone back to her past life.

But towards Li Moying’s matter, after she calmed down, she discovered a lot of suspicious pointers and somehow felt that the possibility of Li Moying lying to her was very huge.

But Huang Yueli didn’t expose him. This man was so hard on himself, just to protect this secret and could even disregard his own life so how could she possibly dare to go provoke him again? Anyway, to her, nothing was as important as Li Moying standing in front of him living properly. As for the other matters, she could skip past all of it.

Moreover speaking, there wasn't any wall which wind didn't seep through so no matter what Li Moying was trying to hide, she would find out about it eventually, which was only a matter of time.

After straightening out her thoughts, Huang Yueli was no longer tangled into this knot.

On the other hand, other than accompanying his little fiancée, Li Moying spent all his time cultivating.

As Blue Profound Sect's current predicament was very complicated and as time passed by, many people were certain that he had already died and most of the large forces were beginning to stir.

He must assume Mu Chengying's identity to appear so as to stabilise the situation.

But based on his current cultivation, it was practically impossible to be like the same as his past life to suppress all the large forces or those top exponents in the Sky Chart. Not only would appearing so abruptly not control the situation, it might even push Sky Emperor City's fluctuating situation one step further.

Hence what he needed to do right now was to spend more time on cultivating, so as to regain back to his former ninth stage realm peak condition.

Only thing was as his Soul Detachment Illness acted up too violently that time, Li Moying's meridians were more or less damaged so he had to recuperate while cultivating, hence the advancement speed wasn't like before, so he could only rely on the time when he was in closed door cultivation to make up for it.

In this way, the amount of time spent with his little fiancée would be much lesser.

But luckily, Huang Yueli wasn't that kind of sticky young lass, she also had plenty of matters to do.

When Li Moying was in closed door cultivation, she would either cultivate or refine armaments and if she was bored, she would also go shopping in Sky Emperor City, buying some materials or some delicious food back.

Originally her identity was kept a secret so her identity to the outside world was Blue Profound Sect's direct disciple.

But the number of people who knew about her innate talent and ability were few and most of them assumed that she received the benefit from her fiancé to smuggle into the Number One Sacred Land, and so luckily becoming a direct disciple.

Plenty of Blue Profound Sect's female disciples were all so jealous of her.

In all seriousness, Huang Yueli having such a handsome looking and powerful fiancé, giving her a chance to hug his thigh to enter the Number One Sacred Land had simply turned her into a public enemy for all talented young ladies in Sky Emperor City!

But Huang Yueli was used to other people's jealous looks in her past life as she totally ignored those female disciples, appearing together with Li Moying while parading themselves ostentatiously about town.

Speaking of this, not only did she not have any pressure, instead she felt rather complacent.

No matter how jealous these women were, it was of no use because after all her fiancé had only liked her from so many years ago!

This day, Huang Yueli woke up early in the morning and after enquiring those serving maids if Li Moying had come out of his closed door cultivation, she decided to proceed down the mountains to Sky Emperor city.

When Cang Po Jun heard that, he proceeded to stop her.

"Grandmaster Huang, must you head out today? These two days, it might not be so convenient...."

"Not so convenient?" Huang Yueli's brows rose.

Cang Po Jun nodded, "These few days, Blue Profound Sect will be conducting the annual disciple assessment...."

Huang Yueli's eyes lit up upon hearing that, "You mean to say, the Sky Ascension Stairs assessment?"

"That's right." Cang Po Jun wasn't surprised that Huang Yueli knew about all these. Anyway from twenty over years ago when she had entered Blue Profound Sect freely, she had already treated this place no different from her own home.

Huang Yueli muttered, "When are Junior Brother Luo and Mo Yi and the others' assessment, I'd like to go take a look."

Cang Po Jun replied, "The Ascension Sky Stairs assessment will be held continuously for a total of seven days and it will start off with the outer disciples assessment. Inner disciples' are held on the fifth and sixth day while direct disciples are held on the last day so now it's still not Mister Luo and the others' turn yet."

Huang Yueli's lips curled up slightly as she revealed a smile, "Then luckily there's still a few days more. That's great, I'll head right over by then so I can head down the mountain to deal with some stuff."

When Cang Po Jun heard that, he frowned and explained in a soft voice, "Grandmaster Huang, what this subordinate meant was that... as it is the disciple's assessment so this Subordinate and Po Yu the rest have to go stand guard at the scene. To prevent any mishaps from happening so we have no way to escort you down the mountain. If it's not urgent, it's best that you are able to switch to another day to visit Sky Emperor City."

Huang Yueli blinked and dismissed him unconcernedly.

"I understand what you mean but today I must enter the city. Because Soaring Heaven's Merchants will be holding their annual auction in a few days time, so I have quite a number of Profound Armaments which I wish to sell off so I'm thinking that it will probably be of a better value if I were to sell it over there. Armament Master's grade is of utmost importance in order to sell the Profound Armaments at a good price so I'll head over to the Armament Guild to obtain the seventh rank Armament Master certification."

When Cang Po Hun heard that, he was totally speechless.

A young lass who still had that innocence of a childhood was saying that she wanted to obtain the seventh rank Armament Master certification. If it was anyone else who said these, he would absolutely laugh until his teeth dropped.

But since Huang Yueli was the one who said these words, it left him unable to be unconvinced!

In terms of Armament Refining innate talent, no one would be able to catch up to her in the next ten thousand years!

"But, Sovereign had instructed.... Ughh....."

Huang Yueli laughed and said, "I know, Moying asked you to protect me! But I'm just heading over to the Armament Guild and it's very safe there! Moreover speaking, I'm no longer the Little Palace Lord from Mythical Flame Palace but an extremely ordinary sixth stage realm practitioner, who could possibly pay any notice to me?"

Although she said that, but Cang Po Jun still felt a little ill at ease.

Only thing was he indeed had something urgent which he could not get rid of hence he could only send two guards to follow Huang Yueli down the mountain.

Huang Yueli sat in the carriage and left Blue Profound Sect. The minute they entered the city, they headed directly towards the Armament Guild.

The carriage travelled along the spacious and even road, as it raced along the road.

Huang Yueli sat in the carriage and shut her eyes to rest a little but suddenly felt a series of palpitation in her heart.

She suddenly opened her eyes and lifted up the curtains of the carriage.
