Chapter 171: That pair of eyes

Awaking from the illusions of her past life, she began to observe him. After a short while, she realised that the man in front of her, was in fact, not that alike to the man within her memories.

In terms of looks, the Thousand Treasure Pavilion Master was more delicate and refined, with skin smooth like jade and gentle brows. Mu Cheng Ying on the other hand, possessed a more pure type of male handsomeness. The gap was very large.

What was more important was the usually strong and overbearing Thousand Treasure Pavilion Owner, was only about twenty years of age; give or take. This was the age between a young boy and a young man.

Too young and too handsome!

It was no wonder he wanted to cover his face. He was mostly likely very worried about his age and looks. This would cause others to make light, unable to portray his strong expert aura?

But Mu Cheng Ying had already become a real man, becoming famous long ago. Overlording over the four great regions, invincible in this world. Although his peerlessly handsome look caused many to drool during his younger years, but in the period before Huang Yue Li died, there was no longer anyone who dared provoke him.

That face, no matter how good it looked, in the eyes of many people, it was only a nightmare that would appear during the middle of the night to scare you.

So the two people, in fact, really did not look alike at all.

It was just...that pair of eyes....are really much too similar.

Obviously yearning for affection, able to tempt any woman with those peach shape eyes. But unfortunately, they were filled with a biting chill. A slight glimpse would cause the viewer to experience the frostiness within.

However, those frosty eyes would instantly melt in the face of his beloved woman.

Such a look.....really too alike.....

Staring at that pair of eyes, Huang Yue Li gently sighed out after a while.

Did she mistake him due to that pair of eyes? In the end, they are two different people. Just what possessed her to confuse the two people?

Could it be, she missed Mu Cheng Ying that much?

When the Thousand Treasure Pavilion Owner saw her misty eyes and deep sigh, like she was reminiscing something, alarm bells began to ring in his heart.

Although he did not know what this little thing was looking at, thinking, he still felt a clear sense of crisis. Though she was looking in his direction, her gaze travelled through him to look at something far far away.....

“Little thing, why are you staring blankly for? If you continue to look at this Seat, this seat will kiss you?”

He slowly leaned over, closing the distance further until the two could feel the other part’s hot breath.

Suddenly, Huang Yue Li pushed him abruptly.

The man did not think she would resist, so that sudden push force him away.

Leaving his side, Huang Yue Li then stood up.

When she recalled Mu Cheng Ying and her past, she could not bear to be so close with other men.

“You.....” The man’s face was a little gloomy, “Little thing, what do you mean? Once out of danger, you push this Seat aside when you have finished using me? Just now. It was you who took the initiative to kiss this Seat!”

It wasn’t just once or twice that this little fox had pushed him away.

However, the relationship between the two obviously had improved. Especially during the time when the Golden Scaled Guards had forced themselves into the room. In order to escape, this little thing took the initiative to push him down to kiss him.

Even if her original intention was not to be affectionate with him, but she still chose such an action. At the very least, she did not hate contact with him, her inner defenses somewhat lowered.

But now, when the obstacles had removed themselves, this little girl stared at him for half a day. Quite obviously, she was attracted to his face.

Chapter 172: Imagine that one’s love is reciprocated

The situation was good and the atmosphere ambiguous.

So the Lord Owner wished to take advantage and attack, becoming more intimate with this little fox who adored escaping. It would be best if he could capture her heart with tactics like a beautiful man.

And from the looks, it seemed that Huang Yue Li was attracted to him. Her eyes misting, body softening and showing no signs of resistance.

But who knew, just as he wanted to come and do something, she suddenly...relentlessly pushed him away.

Because Huang Yue Li’s heart was a mess, she could not spare any more time or energy with him. Without out much thought, she threw out those words: “This is just an unpredicted variable. Regardless of the person here, I would have still kissed him. Don’t you misunderstand!”

“Misunderstand? Do you mean to say that this is all a misunderstanding?”

Wrinkling his eyebrows, the gentle light within his eyes gradually disappeared and coldness re-enveloped them.

Feeling oppressive aura, Huang Yue Li couldn't help but take a step back.

"If not? What else would it be?"

The girl gently raised her chin to stare at the front of the man, the attitude furthering the distance between their respective statuses.

This attitude deeply angered the man. He could not believe that, in such a short moment, her attitude had a one hundred and eighty degree turn!

God knew, when she took the initiative to kiss him, his mood soared up high. When she had kissed him, the arm that was holding her down, was trembling non-stop.

And when the cunning little fox stared into his face in a daze, he really thought that this handsome face, which had previously mesmerised countless high-society young ladies, also captured that girl's heart.

As a result, his heart secretly leapt in endless joy.

Even those Golden Scaled Guards who committed such grave mistakes, he did not bother to care too much. All he wished to do, was to send them away as soon as possible and properly tease this little thing.

But who knew...

Was it really just him who assumed his loved had been reciprocated?

This man had always possessed a high standing, rarely suffering setbacks. This was especially the case for the numerous women surrounding him. Occasionally when his gaze lingered around them or even a slight smile, would caused these young ladies to fall into a frenzy, unable to sleep for nights.

And this little girl?

So devoted he was, yet she was still playing with him?

Gloomy faced, he slowly approached retreating Huang Yue Li.

Forced backwards, Huang Yue Li's back soon touched the wall.

She knew that the man was angry. Those familiar peach eyes showing both love and hate, and complex emotions of a damaged self-esteem. All these felt so familiar.

Those were the kind of emotions she used to see from Mu Cheng Ying's eyes....

Her delicate eyebrows frowning, she tried to reason with the man.

"You.....don't be impulsive. First listen to me....I really do not have that kind of feelings towards you, do you understand? Things like love cannot be forced....."

When her small and bright lips were pursed together, they looked particularly attractive. But the words she spat out were enough to drive him crazy.

In that moment, all reason seemed to have left him. One hand landing on Huang Yue Li's shoulder, he heavily threw her onto the wall.

The girl's chin was forced up to meet the man's cold lips. In a fit of blazing anger, he roughly sealed her lips.

Coarsely.....he fiercely kissed her.

Or possibly, this was not so much a kiss. It more closely was an angry ravage as the man vented his anger.

Pressing hard on the girl's lip, his tongue eagerly slid inside.

Chapter 173: What do you want me to do?

Yet Huang Yue Li continued to purse her lip and clench her jaw. She did not allow for many more opportunities for him to close in further.

More viciousness flared up in the man's heart and he directly bit down on her lip, cutting open her lip.

"Ah!"

Huang Yue Li cried out in a smothered voice.

When he heard her weak groan and smelled the scent of her blood, seemingly becoming more excited. Wantonly, his tongue charged into her mouth and began to unrelentlessly move about.....

Suddenly, the man's eyes opened wide. Looking down, he didn't dare believe his eyes.

In a fit of desperation, Huang Yue Li had kicked his lower body. Not only did she kick out, she had used a special martial skill.

Usually speaking, such attacks would have no possibility of landing on himself. But his emotions and state of mind were too angered. All of his attention had been captured by that metallic smell of blood; he could not spare attention elsewhere.

And what made him even more stifled, were this little girl's lips. Her lips were like drugs; trying it once and you would become addicted. The moment he touched those soft lips, that kind of ecstasy-like feeling caused him to want to taste them again and again, unable to stop.

All other considerations were thrown to the back of his mind.

As a result, he was heavily hit by her strike.

How plentiful was Huang Yue Li's battle experience? Striking out the moment he was in a daze, she quickly escaped from his clutches.

"I.....really am sorry, but...."

Subconsciously she bit her bottom lip, but did not realize her lip had been cut by the man. Due to this, the action caused a wave of pain to flood through her.

The man in front of her immediately straightened his back. So, without saying a word more, her feet pushed off the ground. Utilizing a profound skill, she flew away and into the corridor.

Although Huang Yue Li's strike was very sharp and to the point, there was a limit to her strength. Instead of saying she had seriously injured the man to escape, it was more appropriate to say the man was much too shocked. which allowed her the chance to escape.

When she was escaping out the room, the man had already suppressed the pain and was capable to acting out again.

The current him, held thousands, hundreds of methods to tie down this little fox.

No matter what background she possessed, what kind of bizarre techniques and treacherous astuteness, even absolute black level profound power, she was no match for this man!

But he had forcefully controlled himself and did not go to hinder her.

Leaning on the door frame, he watched that slender figure dash out of the palace doorway like a floating cloud. Tightly clenching his teeth, the man's peach eyes no longer held any trace of a smile. On his handsome face, was a distorted expression.

Smashing his fist heavily on the nearby wall, the entire palace trembled with him.

"Bai Ruo Li.....you...you just can't put me in your eyes? What do you want me to do?"

He really wished he could chase after her, but he forcibly controlled his urges.

He had always been a target, countless females aimed to obtain; he naturally would have his own sense of arrogance and pride. Actions as to deliberately try to woo a girl and make her happy, had long surpassed his imagination. Yet time and time again, he was unable to control himself; he dearly wished to treat Huang Yue Li very well, very well.

This kind of impulsiveness, was like a mission originating deep from within his soul. No matter how hard he tried, he could not keep it under control.

It was like he was under a spell.

But, this girl was just too vicious. She simply did not put any of his actions in her eyes. All of his doing, his feelings, she completely disregarded.

While he.....

He grinded his teeth a bit, and told himself that if he were to chase her this time, he would be the lowly one!

Chapter 174: Past events

Running out of Clear Flower Palace, Huang Yue Li saw that the man did not chase after her.

Loosening a sigh of relief, she pushed down the rising sadness. Taking out the cloak, she covered up her face again.

Due to the man's intervention, the Golden Scaled had all been recalled back. Hence peace returned to the Palace grounds, with only the occasional ordinary patrol guard walking by.

These would not be able to hinder Huang Yue Li.

Without meeting anything unexpected, she safely returned to her back courtyard.

By then, the first rays of sun were beginning to peek over the horizon. Lying restlessly on the bed facing the sunshine, Huang Yue Li could not fall asleep; even though she felt extremely fatigued.

Too many events had occurred on this one night. One after the other, each catching her off guard.

Since the day she began to become more familiar with the owner of Thousand Treasure Pavilion, she had been quite curious about his appearance under that mask. But when she saw his true appearance, she did not expect such a large reaction of shock.

Huang Yue Li concluded that it was due to her fatigue, resulting in her unusual actions. Due to that, was she so astounded by that pair of eyes and connected them to Mu Cheng Ying.

Thinking over it again, apart from that pair of peach eyes, the Thousand Treasure Pavilion Owner and Mu Cheng Ying shared no other common features.

Of course, the two peoples powerful and domineering styles were exactly the same. But on the same note, youths who possessed such talent, it would be quite natural for them to be this arrogant?

Therefore, it was logical for her to make a mistake. Or could it be.....she missed that man too much?

Turning restlessly on the bed, Huang Yue Li's heart was a mess. It was filled with a feelings of anxiety tinged with sourness.

In these past days, ever since her fall at the Northern Ice Region to her rebirth in South Yue, too many things had occurred. She had constantly been occupied by various affairs, unable to spare any time for unrealistic thoughts or indulgences.

No, it would be more appropriate to say that she purposely busied herself. Only then, was she able to not be hurt by her wounds.

Only then.....was she able to forget about the events of her past life.

Not thinking about them.....that man.

In truth, before she prepared to travel to the Northern Ice Fields, Mu Cheng Ying had warned her that the Celestial Heavens Gate's eldest young lady, Ling Qing Yu had been acting very suspiciously as of late. He reminded her to be careful and to not leave the Mythical Flame Palace.

But Huang Yue Li continued to be extremely trusting of her close friend, and felt he was too suspicious. As a result, she continued to move forward with her original plans, heading out for the Northern Ice Fields. She did not predict that her final resting place would be there.

In her past life, her goal was set on reaching the peak of the martial way, her heart like iron and stone. Even though countless outstanding geniuses had prostrated themselves at her feet, she did not give them a second thought. She did not hold any intention to become close with any particular person.

While Mu Cheng Ying on the other hand, due to his abundant ego, did not think twice about Huang Yue Li's numerous refusals. Allowing no explanation, occupying the position next to her. He used both the carrot and the stick to melt her icy heart, adamant for her to return his feelings.

For Huang Yue Li who had never experienced love, these emotional feelings were a frightening thing. With such powerful emotions, it caused her to feel enormous anxiety and perplexed instead.

Adding on the fact that many females surrounded him. So in order to catch her attention he created many misunderstandings. So whenever the two made some progress, these misunderstandings only served for the two to drift further apart. From beginning to end, they were unable to be together.

All the way until the final moments of her life, when she saw Mu Cheng Ying who was willingly to sacrifice his life for her, did she finally realize it. This man before her, never tried to cover up his feelings for her, it was she who was too cowardly.

She...had long fallen under his domineering yet tender traps, unable to crawl back out.

Chapter 175: Cannot allow for that sly fox to swoop and take advantage!

It was unfortunate though. By the time Huang Yue Li realized this point, she had walked to the end of her life.

And for the matter of her soul combustion, she might have never been able to enter the circle of reincarnation; never to be reborn. To completely disappear from this world.

The fate between two people.....before it could blossom into a flower, they suddenly reached the end.

In that instant, the intense feelings of regret, remorse, pity and helplessness nearly tore her apart. She could go as far to say, the immense pain that came from the explosion felt like nothing.

This despair continued to linger in the depths of her heart. Whenever she recalled the event, all sorts of aching heartstrings were pulled.

However, when she was wallowing in her despair, a sudden and unexpected thing happened.

She actually.....was reborn into the body of Bai Ruo Li, becoming the Second Young Miss of Valiant Martial Manor in South Yue.

This event was just too strange. To blow up one's dantian, there was only result; immediately dissipating into nothingness. For any practitioner, this was common knowledge. For the circumstances at the time, Huang Yue Li was a hundred percent certain of her death. She had never cultivated a secret manual, so she possessed no heaven-defying methods.

So, the scattering of her soul should have been set in stone. Just how was she reborn?

This question remained lingering and unsolved. There was a high possibility of an answer never existing.

Nonetheless, to be given the opportunity to be reborn, able to relive her life once more, caused her to feel endlessly grateful towards the heavens.

There are many unfinished things she needed to do and she needed to restart her cultivation to return to her peak. She also needed to seek judgement for the people who wronged her.

And if it was possible, she would like to return to that man's side once more to tell him, she fell in love with in from a very long, long, long time ago.....

Creasing her eyebrows, Huang Yue Li lay on the bed thinking about the thousands of what ifs.....

She wondered what Mu Cheng Ying was doing now?

When she was reborn, the calendar showed it was already the 13764 year of the Soaring Heavens calendar. While the year she denoted her dantian was the year 13750.

In other words, fourteen years had past in the her period of muddleness.

She could imagine the grief and sadness Mu Cheng Ying experienced at the point of her death.

Towards this point, she held no doubt about that.

But, fourteen years have passed. Would the current him still miss her?

Afterall, the tea will cool once the person leaves. The period of fourteen years towards the thousand year long lifespan of an Emperor Profound Realm practitioner, is but a fleeting experience.

Adding onto the adored Mu Cheng Ying, the amount of females which surrounded where much too many. If he recovered from his scars and forgot about her, this....does not seem unlikely...

When her thoughts travelled to this point, Huang Yue Li felt as if needles were stabbing her. She was in so much pain, that she nearly leapt up.

"No, it wouldn't be. It can't be!" Huang Yue Li gritted her teeth, "If he dared to go off like that, watch me cut that part of him into eight-ten pieces! If he wishes to commit crimes in the future, he will be unable to!"

Slapping her her cheeks, her wild imaginations finally knocked her out.

"Too despicable. Such a backwater place like South Yue, for an expert like Mu Cheng Ying who always like to adventure for secrets, it would be impossible to obtain any information about him. Unable to put on at ease!"

Huang Yue Li leapt up from the bed, "This can't do. I must make all haste and quickly cultivate and return to my peak as soon as possible. I cannot allow for that sly fox to swoop and take advantage!"

Chapter 176: Flame Spirit Physique

Because she thought to this point, she could delay no longer.

Not caring about whether or not the sun had risen, she went to rouse the sleeping Cai Wei.

Under the sleepy and unfocused gaze of Cai Wei's, Huang Yue Li informed her that she wished to enter a period of closed cultivation. She also said that no one was to disturb during this time.

Delivering her words, she immediately sealed herself in her room.

In the Nine Phoenix Transformations, there was a pill recipe written inside. The various herbs she had collected would form a sixth grade pill. Only then would the medicinal properties be fully put to use.

Unfortunately, Huang Yue Li was not a Pill Master. And it was impossible for her to seek out a high levelled Alchemist in South Yue. So she could only settle for the next best option.

Fortunately the little Phoenix informed her of an alternative method. As long as she placed these herbs into a basin of hot water and soak in it, it would allow for the medicinal properties to stimulate her Flame Spirit Physique. And the end result was not too different than consuming a pill.

So an immense tub was placed within her room. The various herbs were already arranged as the manual specified.

Quietly Huang Yue Li said: "Wang Cai, light the fire!"

Furiously the little phoenix sneakily ate half of the drumstick. Then from the windowsill, he inhaled a large breath. This action caused his fluffy body to swell up, looking more like a fluffy ball.

Afterwards, he used all his power to blow out a puff of True Phoenix Flame.

As the flames ignited below the tub, it furiously started to burn, lighting up brightly.

Immediately after that, Huang Yue Li crushed the Flame Cloud Pearl and scattered it into the water. This would act as a guide for the rest of the herbs.

This scattering caused the tub's water to instantly turn a blood red in colour. When this was paired with the gradual boiling and bubbling of the water, the blood red water seemed a bit frightening.

Shedding off her clothes, Huang Yue Li jumped unhesitatingly into the waters.

Hot! So hot!

This was her first reaction.

Then, the searing hot sensation entered into her bloodstreams and to her five bodily organs. This intense pain racked her entire body as she lay there trembling.

But she clenched her teeth, refusing to make a sound as she endured the pain.

This bath was really hot. It did not help with all their herbs being fire attributed as well and the Phoenix True Flame. If any ordinary person were to sit in this medicinal bath, they body would become badly mutilated from burn instantly. It would take no more than a breath's time.

But Huang Yue Li possessed the Flame Spirit Physique which enabled her to be immune to any injuries from fire related things. Although these raging flames would be deadly for ordinary people, they are the best type of tonic for her.

However, no matter how many injuries her Flame Spirit Physique was able to block for her, Huang Yue Li still needed to endure the pain and heat.

As the minutes steadily passed by, Huang Yue Li felt as if a hundred years had gone by when in fact only a mere time it took to brew a cup of tea lapsed by.

Even the little phoenix was scared by that boiling magma-like basin of water. Ignoring his most beloved drumstick, his eyes were firmly planted on Huang Yue Li. Watching her soak within the bath, he couldn't help but turn into his human appearance.

Even though he would constantly flaunt and praise himself as a mighty phoenix, those waters still scared him.

This female wouldn't be burned to death right?

God, don't ah! With great difficulty he had recognised a master, even though she tended to tease and play with him most of the time. But she still generously fed him drumsticks to eat everyday. If she were to drop dead here, then he must return to the Sky Phoenix Ring!

What would he do? How many years would he have to go by without any drumsticks?!

Though the little phoenix was rolling around in frenzy, there was nothing he could do.

During the midst of his panic, soaking in the bath motionlessly Huang Yue Li let out a long sigh.

Chapter 177: Refining the True Phoenix Flame

As the blood red water bubbled, the herb essences began to be gradually absorbed into Huang Yue Li's body.

Very quickly the basin of water became transparent like normal water, but still continued to bubble.

At this point, Huang Yue Li's tightly closed eyes opened, her eyes flashing a golden colour.

Sitting up, her mind finally became sober once more. At the same time, she felt as if her entire body had been reborn!

Although the herbal essences had been absorbed into her body, turning into clear water, but the True Phoenix Flames continued to heat the waters. To ordinary people, it was still quite hot to the touch.

However, this temperature did not make her feel any discomfort. On the contrary, she felt as if she returned to her infant days, her whole body full of vitality.

It was like the power of these flames were a part of her body. Every cell in her body clamoring to obtain this power!

A ghost of smile appeared on her face. So this.....is the Flame Spirit Physique!

It was even more amazing than her previous ninth grade fire attributed talent. She was just quietly sitting there, yet she could feel the surrounding fire elements scrambling to her direction!

Waving her hand, the burning Phoenix True Flames flickered a bit, but did not seem to resist her too much. She easily absorbed it into her body.

“This female devil, you...you.....”

Squatting to the side, the little phoenix stared at this scene with an open mouth.

Just now he thought that this poison tongued woman would be cooked in the tub. Almost scaring this baby to death!

When he thought of this possibility, for her to open her eyes again, little phoenix felt secretly happy for her. But out of his expectations, her next action stunned him so much that his eyes almost fell out.

She.. she.. she...she actually absorbed the True Phoenix Fire into her body?

He didn't see wrong did he?

Although the high levelled fire attributed practitioners could refine fires into their bodies as a means of attack.

But that as the first of the top ten fire rankings; the True Phoenix Flame ah!

Even in the God Realm, wanting to refine the True Phoenix Fire, that was something only top level geniuses could do. As for a Lower Realm such like the Soaring Heavens Continent, this kind of thing was simply unheard of!

Although Huang Yue Li currently possessed the Flame Spirit Physique, geniuses with the Flame Spirit Physique were not a few. Those who could obtain the True Phoenix Flame in their teens, numbered zero.

Besides, even if one could just barely refine it, the entire process is extremely difficult. They needed to go through all kinds of painful torments.

If there are no experienced elders aiding from the side, it will be easy to go berserk.

But this female devil? She waved her hand...? Then? ?

After a stiff faced expression, Huang Yue Li finally revealed a smile.

Although this little ghost was usually very arrogant, it still knew to worry about his owner in key moments. Finally, those buckets of chicken legs were not bought in vain!

“Stinking brat, your worry over this elder sister, makes her so moved! But are you not some tall and grand mythological Phoenix? How are you not embarrassed by your frequent crying? Aren't you ashamed?”

Huang Yue Li lightly teased him.

Momentarily shocked, the little phoenix immediately recovered himself and jumped up angrily.

Chapter 178: Seeing everything

“Who are you accusing of crying! This Little Lord does not cry! Humph!”

Little Phoenix denied this in a flustered manner, but could not help himself to feel worry. Cautiously, he touched his plump-like-buns cheeks.

The result.....he did not feel anything.

“Haha!” Seeing him fall for her trick, Huang Yue Li laughed out with no reservations.

“Ah ah ah....you played me!” Discovering he had been played a fool, the little phoenix became more crazy, “Female devil, why did you not burn to death! Where is the justice in the world!”

Laughingly, Huang Yue Li replied: “Oh, still small in age but already beginning to curse at others., your upbringing was really bad. Seems like this elder sister needs to educate you!”

“You.....what do you want to do?”

Small eyes staring at her, he subconsciously to cover his buttocks.

This unconscious action caused another round of laughter to erupt from Huang Yue Li. Although she had hit this little one’s butt only once, but it was enough to scare this one!

Though this cheeky lad usually portrayed a lofty attitude, in reality, he was quite timid ah...she can exploit this in the future.

When the little phoenix saw the trace of a devilish smile, a burst of cool sweat formed on his back. Instinctively he retreated a few steps and carefully asked: “Hey, female devil, the bath water is now cold, why do you not come out? ”

Throwing him an eye roll, she replied, “There is still a little effect left. I’ll soak in it for a bit longer and not waste the remaining essences.”

At a loss, the little phoenix thought for a while before abruptly jumping up from the corner. Without much fear, he laughed out loudly.

“Ha ha ha, I know why. Female devil, since you are not wearing clothes, you don’t dare come out! Hehehe, let this little lord tell you, in fact this little lord saw everything quite clearly. Your body is really lacking oh. This little lord couldn’t really differentiate which side was the front and which was the back. The sight practically polluted this little lord’s eyes!”

Assuming he held a leverage over Huang Yue Li, the little phoenix immediately felt elated.

In truth, he he did not see anything at all. During that time, not only was he too nervous, the color of the waters were so deep. Although he did not see anything, he could not give up an opportunity to ridicule at this female devil!

Usually, he was the victim to her constant scoldings and beatings, so when he saw her nervous expression, he must retaliate.

After all....the female devil was not wearing any clothes. So she certainly could not jump out to catch him!

Plump cheeks red from excitement, ,his small chin was raised as he looked at her with squinted eyes and a wide toothful grin. You could not describe his happiness.

But unexpectedly, Huang Yue Li smiled.

“Stinking brat, since you saw something you should not see, you can not blame me for the appropriate punishments! You are now forbidden to eat your beloved chicken drumsticks!”

As she said this, she recovered the little phoenix back into the Sky Phoenix Ring in one swift move.

Little Phoenix did not expect this trick from her!

Finding himself locked up, the little boy began to anxiously and desperately jump and scream in the jade ring.

“Female devil, release me! Release me! This little lord is warning you, if you dare to treat such a distinguished phoenix like this, you will be cursed!hai, forget it. As long as you release, I will not scold you later, okay?boo hoo, you are so heartless, abusing even children. Not eating chicken legs for a few minutes, my waist has already slimmed.....”

At first, he tried a harsh tone, but found that Huang Yue Li did not budge. Thus he resorted to a softer tacit, but it also yielded poor results.

Almost laughing out from his actions, Huang Yue Li quickly disconnected her consciousness.

Chapter 179: Complete Attribute talent, world startling gem

This stinking brat really needed to be taught a lesson. She did not know who he was learning from recently, but he spoke like a thug at such a young age.

Tsk tsk, daring to even talk back at his master!

If he continued to be like this as a child, what will he grow up to become?

Suddenly, Huang Yue Li recalled the scene when she first entered the Sky Phoenix Ring. Seeing that phoenix on the platform, Wang Cai seemed to say that it was his brother – a real Ancient and Grand Phoenix.

That large phoenix possessed his own charisma! Masculine! Unrestrained! Shocking! But this bad character of his, it wouldn't be heredity?

Though, in summary, in order to correct this little boy's bad attitude, she must keep him under house arrest for a while!

In a good mood, Huang Yue Li stepped out from the tub. Putting on some clean clothes, she lazily stretched out.

It had been quite a long time since she experienced the feeling of possessing strength. Her body was practically at one with the worldly energy around her. As long as she beckoned, profound qi filled her entire being with ease!

Face lighting up with a smile, she pulled out “Nine Phoenix Transformations” and began to carefully read it.

In order to defend against the possibility of cultivators of the “Nine Phoenix Transformations” from going berserk, she was only capable of reading the first few pages.

Only when she mastered the contents in the first section, will the latter stages be unlocked.

According to the instructions in the manual, since she had successfully broken through the bottleneck, she would be able to display the domineering powerful of her Flame Spirit Physique.

And since the Flame Spirit Physique is also considered a rare and top level talent, in terms of cultivational advantage, it was said to be overwhelming.

“....not only will they be naturally aligned with the fire attribute, their cultivation will also be ten times faster than ordinary ninth grade talent. Furthermore, all possessors of the Spirit Physiques have....complete attribute talent!”

Reading through the manual, her hands shook. This shake nearly ripped the pages.

“Other attributes may not be as outstanding as the fire attribute, but they would at least be ninth grade talent!did they make a mistake, was this manual writing nonsense??”

Feeling her face twitch, Huang Yue Li could not believe it. This.....this couldn't be true?

Although she heard the little phoenix speak of it, that the Flame Spirit Physique was very very rare, but.....complete attribute talent? ?

This is too much nonsense!

In her previous life, with her ninth grade fire talent and her seventh grade metal talent, she was already considered a peerless genius in the Tian Ling Continent.

With such amazing talent, she not only did she become the sole Ninth Tier Armament Master in the Continent, she also successfully at the twenty-five years old, broke through to the ninth stage the Emperor Profound Realm. Second only to Mu Cheng Ying, to reach the ninth stage in her twenties.

Yet this manual was telling her, the grand ninth grade talent of her previous life, was only a passing advantage that the Flame Spirit Physique possessed in it various advantages? It was not worth mentioning at all?

This this.....

Although this book originates from the God Realm, but Huang Yue Li still doubted the credibility of it...

If this was true, then her talent....scared even herself....

“Oh, whether it's true or fake, I can not waste anymore time. I must quickly begin to cultivate the Nine Phoenix Transformations!”

Shaking her vigorously to rid herself of all negative thoughts and distractions, she began to read the first pages.

Then, sitting cross-legged on the floor, she held her breath and recited the meditative chant. Following that, she started to absorb the profound qi around her.

Chapter 180: Fanatic breakthroughs

As Huang Yue Li activated the technique, before she could process anything, profound qi began to frantically surge towards her dantian.

It took only an instant for her to absorb it into her body. Unceasingly, the large and powerful profound qi travelled and entered her twelve meridians.

Feeling only a slight buzzing sensation in her mind, Huang Yue Li sensed all her meridians had linked up. She had entered the Qi Profound Realm!

She was frightened by her own progress.

That speed was just too shocking!

Her previous self with her ninth grade talent, still took an entire night to successfully together all her meridians. That kind of result was already considered a very world shaking record!

For a common cultivator with third to fourth grade talent, they needed to spend a year's worth of time to successfully enter the ranks of martial practitioners.

While the current her, used at most two breaths of time to reach the Qi Profound Realm.

Furthermore, before she could react and cry out in surprise, she felt the profound qi within her veins concentrate together again. Not only did it become denser, it began to increase in a frantic manner!

Soon after, she felt herself breakthrough the first level of the Qi Profound Realm!

Afterwards, the second level of the Qi Profound Realm! Third level! Fourth level!

The increasing of profound qi seemed to have no end. Madly, it entered her body and repeatedly broke through each successive level!

Sitting motionlessly on the soft mat, Huang Yue Li's body began to release a faint light. And like a magnet, the heaven and earthly profound qi collapsed towards her.

For other cultivators, they needed to use and think up all kinds of methods to enter a meditative state. Only by using all of their sparse profound qi, where they able to, with great difficulty, absorb the heaven and earthly profound qi into them.

And if they wished to advance to the next level, they must use increased periods of time to accumulate the necessary amounts. Repeatedly trying to advance. Some even needed the support of specific pills to aid them in climbing this wall.

But for Huang Yue Li, she practically used no effort. No, she merely chanted the cultivation technique at the very beginning. As for the rest of the work, she did not exert any effort for the profound qi to so frantically enter into her body.

Under such an aggressive profound qi assault, she passively advanced in levels!

In fact, even if she wished to stop, she could not stop this advancement at all!

Profound Qi Realm, seventh level!

Bai Ruo Qi had started her cultivation from the age of ten. Bitterly she cultivated for five years and with the aid of numerous pills was she then able to reach the Profound Qi Realm seventh level.

And at such a speed, it was enough to everyone to dub the title of genius on her. This allowed her to become the most influential and powerful aristocratic daughter of South Yue.

Yet, Huang Yue Li use only a few breaths to catch up to her current level.

Furthermore.....she did not stop there. There was just no end in sight!

Qi Profound Realm, eighth level!

Qi Profound Realm, ninth level!

In a blink of an eye, Huang Yue Li reached the peak of the Qi Profound Realm. She was only a single step away from entering the Defensive Profound Realm.

How many countless practitioners struggled to reach this peak, yet this was right in front of her eyes!

But it was at this moment, did she sense of a feeling of obstruction.

She did not breakthrough into the Defensive Profound Realm like a knife cutting through butter. In fact, she stopped there.

Calming down after her wild absorption, Huang Yue Li's eyebrows wrinkled. She did not expect such a momentum surge of profound qi was incapable of promoting her to the next realm.

But, this task was certainly not a simple task. Advancing to the next large stage required some time and effort. It is quite normal to suffer a obstruction.

Taking in a breath of air, Huang Yue Li started once again. Taking up the Nine Phoenix Transformations technique, she planned of assailing and leaping straight over to the second stage.
