Chapter 1761: Li Moying's fury (1)

Blue Profound Sect's aid would take at most a quarter of an hour before they reached and if he wasn't able to capture this young lass in time, bringing her away, then he would be seen by the Elder from Blue Profound Sect.

Based on his current ability, how would he dare to go up against the Number One Sacred Land's top rated practitioner?

Of course, he could also choose to turn around and escape right now, letting this young lass go. But earlier he had already exposed the fact that he was a member of the Leng family. Not only had he not caught her, he had also exposed the family's secret and if the clan leader were to find out about this, he would not be able to get around this easily!

Moreover speaking, this young lass used dozens of flying daggers causing him to become ashen faced so if he didn't teach her a lesson, just letting her go so easily, he was really unresigned over this!

Elderly practitioner's footsteps suddenly sped up as he pursued Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli knew clearly that she was facing a crisis and worked up all her Profound Energy, racing off at the fastest speed she was able to. At the same time, she started throwing seventh tiered Profound Armaments as though it was worthless towards the Elderly practitioner's direction!

The elderly practitioner apparently had not expected her to carry so many high tiered Profound Armaments on her! It was simply as though she had an inexhaustible supply!

Initially, he was too lazy to evade it but after he had fallen victim to several daggers, in order to avoid becoming a target board by Huang Yueli's flying daggers, he had no choice but to evade it suitably.

In this way, his speed took a huge discount.

Whereas Huang Yueli borrowed the use of the Agility Dance Steps, running off faster and faster.

The two of them, one was pursuing while the other was escaping as the distance between them kept on reducing but within a short period of time, she was still within safe distance.

On seeing time starting to slip by bit by bit, the elderly practitioner's heart became even more flustered.

If he still wasn't able to catch this wretched lass, he would probably be caught red handed by Blue Profound Sect!

Under the urgent circumstance, the elderly man's heart started to come out with evil intentions!

He originally intended to bring Huang Yueli back to the Leng family. In order to have an effective threat over Li Moyng, he thought of preserving the "mortgage item" in complete shape, not wanting to injure Huang Yueli too badly.

But now this lass had slipped away from him once and again, and now that time was running out, the elderly practitioner couldn't care less about anything else.

He ferociously revealed his Profound Skills as a burst of Earth attributed Profound Energy shot out from his fingertips!

The ground's soil was affected by his Profound Energy as it rose up swiftly and bumps of mud started to spring up around Huang Yueli one after another.

Huang Yueli stepped on it and almost fell down. Although she had barely managed to control her body's balance, but the Agility Dance Step rhythm had already been broken hence her speed immediately slowed down.

On the other hand, elderly practitioner shot up like an arrow and at the same time, shot out another burst of Profound Energy, which shot directly towards Huang Yueli's back!

Earth attributed practitioners weren't usually apt in speed but the disparity in cultivations between the two of them was just too huge so the strike which the elderly practitioner had launched utilised at least seventy percent of his strength.

Huang Yueli couldn't evade in time as he clearly sensed that burst of penetrative Profound Energy nearing her back, bit by bit, closer and closer.....

Looked like there was no way for her to avoid getting hit.

By then no matter if she was struck dead on the spot or perhaps suffered heavy injuries, either one of it was enough to make her fall immediately rendering her immovable. Following that, no matter what the elderly man wanted to do, there would be nothing that she could do to resist him.....

Huang Yueli bit hard on her teeth but momentarily she had no ideas as well.

A sinister smile appeared on the elderly practitioner's face.

This wretched lass, actually dared to challenge a ninth stage realm top exponent like him, and really had injured him, it seemed that she had really lots of guts!

Did she really think that he wouldn't dare to injure her?

He wanted this young lass to pay the price for it!

Chapter 1762: Li Moying's fury (2)

However, just at this moment, a blinding bolt of lightning suddenly landed down from the sky.

This bolt of lightning was mixed with a terrifying aura which slashed across the silent night sky with a cracking loud noise, as it descended with an aggressive temperament.

In the process of its landing, electric currents kept on absorbing the surrounding thunder attributed energy and kept on increasing its width with its shockingly swift speed. It was only a couple of seconds but when it got near the ground,, it had already formed into a light pillar which was several centimetres thick.

This bolt of lightning pillar clashed against the elderly practitioner's Earth attributed Profound Energy heavily.

Earth attributed energy totally could not take on this overbearing attack as it collapsed immediately.

Whereas the elderly practitioner suffered a backlash as his face instantly turned blood red and spat out a mouthful of blood in the sky!

He was pushed back by the remnants of the Profound Energy and stumbled back for ten over miles before he managed to stop his feet.

At the same time, he was already intimidated by this shocking aura, knowing that a top expert from Blue Profound Sect should have arrived!

Blue Profound Sect's practitioners were not only strong in their abilities, but they were also extremely protective of their own people even though they knew they were in the wrong. He had been caught on the spot for attempting to kill one of the disciples from Blue Profound Sect so this was equivalent to a death sentence!

The elderly practitioner no longer cared about the escaping Huang Yueli as he became more and more frightened as time went by. His legs softened and knelt down on the ground.

"Mer...Mercy...I... I am Leng Fugui, may I know... may I know... which Senior from Blue Profound Sect... have arrived?"

The incoming person didn't make a sound, only slight walking footsteps were heard.

Leng Fugui lifted up his head trembling and the minute he saw the person walking over, he cried out in shock, "How come it's you??"

The man walking over was dressed in a dark long robe with gold trimmings on the side and he was tall and lanky with outstanding temperament, giving off a powerful aura which only a practitioner who had long been established could have owned.

He had a handsome looking face without a single flaw on his perfect features and this alone was enough to make numerous young ladies' scream for his handsome countenance. Right now, it was icy cold as his chilly thin lips were pursed tightly, with an unconcealable murderous intent beneath his eyes!

That person was Li Moying himself!

He casted a cold glance at Leng Fugui and didn't say a single word but turned his gaze towards the young lady who had shrunk up her neck and intending to hide herself as he said coldly, "What's there to hide? Still not coming over?"

The instance Huang Yueli saw the electric currents, she had already stopped her movements of trying to escape.

They had originally thought that it was Cang Po Jun or the rest who had arrived and heaved a big sigh of relief but on taking a careful look, it was actually Li Moying who had come over personally!

This time round she started to feel guilty once again.

She had not expected Li Moying to come out of his closed door cultivation so soon!

As she had snuck out while he was in closed door cultivation, she expected Li Moying to be very angry over this and now that she was pursued after in the middle of her journey back, almost being abducted.... It was imaginable to what extent would this man be angry till!

Huang Yueli had a guilty conscience and immediately shifted in small steps sneakily with the intention to find a place to hide first to wait till Li Moying's anger had appeased.

But how would Li Moying not know what his little fox was thinking about as he immediately fixed her attention onto her at the first moment.

Huang Yueli could only pout under his pressurizing gaze as she mumbled softly, "I'll come over, why are you being so fierce for!"

Saying that, she nudged over slowly like a tortoise crawling.

Just a few meters of distance took her twenty breaths and still haven't reached the end.

Li Moying didn't bother to urge her, merely staring straight at her without blinking at all.

Chapter 1763: Li Moying's fury (3)

It was until there was only one meter distance between the two of them when Huang Yueli suddenly stopped.

She lifted her head up and gave a sweet smile towards Li Moying, "Moying darling, you're really, really very incredible. Every time I meet with danger, you're always able to reach in time, you really make me feel extremely secure!"

Her eyes glowed while looking at the man in front of her and that gaze was truly extremely innocent.

Li Moying met her watery big eyes and his heart stirred but immediately following that, he managed to regain his senses in time.

He stretched his arm out and grabbed Huang Yueli's wrist as he tugged her over then after giving her a fierce stare, he chided: "It's no use trying to act pitiful and flattery does nothing as well! Stand properly and don't make a single sound, later when we're back I'll settle the debt with you!"

Almost got tricked by her! She actually started to act cute and put on her pitiful act! This was probably because she knew that he could not bear to get angry with her.

But he could forget about any other stuff but today she actually snuck out while he was in closed door cultivation and even allowed herself to fall into such a life threatening situation.... This matter, he absolutely would not let it rest easily!

Huang Yueli kept shrinking her neck and silently stuck out her tongue.

Woah, her fiancée was really angry! And moreover extremely angry!

This time it was a little troublesome and it seemed a little too difficult to placate him later on...

Li Moying saw his little fiancée putting on an obedient look but his anger still wasn't quelled.

But he wasn't willing to cast his temper on his fiancée so his gaze turned as he shot an icy cold gaze towards Leng Fugui.

"Leng family's men?"

Leng Fugui's lower jaw tightened as he gave a cold huff, "That's right!"

He was feeling a little regretful right now but earlier that thunderous bravado was overly powerful, making him thought that it was some ninth stage realm peak Elder from Blue Profound Sect who had arrived, making his soul and spirit fly out so he could only report where he came from, kneeling on the ground to beg for mercy.

In the end, whoever knew that the person who had appeared was actually Li Moying himself....

Moreover, from the looks of it, he seemed to have come alone, without bringing anyone along.

Li Moying's cultivation had already been spread throughout the entire Sky Emperor City and various powerhouses all knew that his cultivation was only in ninth stage realm first level.

This cultivation, based on his age was naturally something incredible but as compared to those well-known top exponents who had advanced into the ninth stage realm many years ago, there was still some disparity.

Leng Fugui felt that, at the very least in the current stage, he was still able to take care of this young lad.

So the person who knelt on the ground and begged for mercy should be Li Moying. It was all his own fault for gauging the wrong situation, actually kneeling down in front of a junior!

Just thinking about that made him feel embarrassed!

Leng Fugui felt that he had been conned and was anxious to gain back his face hence the tone of his words started to become unfriendly.

"Little fellow surnamed Li, since you know I'm part of the Leng family, then you should know why I'm here for! Since you've fallen into my hands today, then follow me back obediently!"

Li Moying frowned slightly, "Follow you back?"

Leng Fugui gave a cold snort, "Why? Did you think that after you've caused Young Master Leng's death, this matter would end just like that? Do you really treat us, the Leng family, as someone whom you can bully easily? If you don't follow me obediently, then don't blame me for treating you impolitely!"

Hearing this, Huang Yueli who was acting like an obedient child behind Li Moying couldn't endure it any further.

She stuck her head out and asked curiously, "What did you say? You want to treat my Moying impolitely? Earlier the person who was sent flying seemed to be you isn't it?"

Chapter 1764: Li Moying's fury (4)

When Leng Fugui heard that, he couldn't help but give a cold laugh, "He's merely a ninth stage realm first level practitioner whereas I have advanced to ninth stage realm fifth level hundreds of years ago!

My battle experience is definitely richer than this young punk by several hundred times! Did you really think that your man is invincible after advancing into the ninth stage realm? I'm telling you, every level above the ninth stage realm is a huge difference and the distance is even much higher than an entire large realm than before!"

"Earlier this young Li fellow must have used Blue Profound Sect's secret treasure hence he was able to expound his move, plus the fact that I was careless hence I was pushed back! Now I will not show any mercy so I'd advise you to listen obediently which is the best outcome for you!"

Leng Fugui was speaking with complacency and he was already daydreaming about the scenario after he captured Li Moying back.

To be able to abduct Li Moying's fiancée was already a huge merit, what more if he was able to deliver Li Moying himself into the hands of clan leader? He wondered just how much benefit would he be able to reap?

Actually Leng family did not think that the top exponents in their family were beneath Li Moying because in their eyes, he was merely a young punk who didn't have much experience and was extremely tender!

What made them worried the most was the Blue Profound Sect which was Li Moying's backing!

If the news of the Leng family deposing the peerless talent which Blue Profound Sect, Number One Sacred Lands' Sky Chart top exponents was leaked out, this matter would not be settled easily.

But now it wasn't the same. Other than Li Moying and Huang Yueli, there was no one else here.

As long as they captured both of them back at the same time, then there would be no witness or evidence so who would find out which powerhouse had done this? This was a chance of a lifetime!

The saying always mentioned about losing one's head through material greed, Leng Fugui's mind at this point of time wasn't working well and he was only concerned about his own complacency, totally not noticing the gaze which the young couple had been casting on him as though they were looking at an idiot.

Huang Yueli's beautiful eyes opened wide like a full moon, "Sob sob sob so scary, so frightening! Brother Moying, this old monster wants to capture us! And he's going to be impolite to you!"

"Why? Scared? But it's all too late now! Why not think about how to kneel down and beg for mercy when you're in Leng family's residence!"

"Sob sob sob....." Huang Yueli still wanted to add more.

Li Moying swept her a gaze with an ache in his head as he said, "Can you stop fooling around!"

He knew that his little fox was never the kind to be obedient and upon hearing him getting angry, she immediately jumped out to create havoc. Earlier the words which she used to con Leng Fugui made him feel as though he didn't know if he should cry or laugh. The anger which he was filled with had vanished by a large portion.

Really.... she was born to curb him naturally!

Huang Yueli stuck out her tongue as her little head “whooshed” and shrunk back.

“Can’t even play for a bit! Why do I have such a fierce fiancé!” She mumbled softly which entered right into the man’s ears.

Li Moying was speechless. He was about to catch his little fiancée to educate her when he suddenly heard Leng Fugui’s resentful voice.

“What play? You think I am playing around with you? Looks like if I don’t show you my real ability, you really treat yourself as the Number One top expert under these heavens! Alright, I will teach you a proper lesson on behalf of Sovereign Mu who is still in closed door cultivation!”

Leng Fugui had assumed that Li Moying was talking to him and he was fuming with smoke, feeling that he simply could not endure this further!

His words had just landed and his surrounding aura immediately raised swiftly as an overbearing aura from a ninth stage realm practitioner enveloped the diameter of several hundred miles and momentarily, the air seemed to start congealing.

Chapter 1765: Li Moying’s fury (5)

Leng Fugui self-assumed that if he released his full might, Li Moying would definitely not be able to go up against it, or at least reveal a pained look.

However, what was out of his expectations was that there wasn’t any change in expression on Li Moying’s face. Not only did he not suffer any effect, he had even protected his fiancée standing behind him extremely well.

That young lass seemed as though she had not realised any changes in the surrounding atmosphere’s pressure and was still nagging while ridiculing at her fiancée for “torturing” her over those trivial matters.

Leng Fugui didn’t think that it would end up like this and had finally realised that he seemed to have underestimated Li Moying’s ability.

The peerless genius which even the Number One Sacred Lands had fought over to recruit, could he really have the ability to fight a cross realm battle?

However, it was already too late for regrets as he could only brace himself to continue, moreover he didn’t dare to let down his guard as he struck out fully!

Earth-shattering Earth attributed Profound Energy surged in waves towards Li Moying’s direction!

However, Leng Fugui had portioned out a part of his Profound Energy revolving around Li Moying, driving towards Huang Yueli’s direction.

The ground below Huang Yueli’s feet split open and she slipped and almost fell down.

Luckily, ever since the both of them met earlier, Li Moying had been holding on to her wrist tightly. No matter how she struggled, he was unwilling to let go and right now he merely tugged her lightly and his little fiancée fell right into his arms.

When Leng Fugui saw that, his heart jumped with joy!

What kind of timing was this now, himself being in deep trouble but still had the time to worry about the woman behind him!

Indeed, a young punk was still a young punk, being young meant he was inexperienced! To have his attention diverted at this kind of moment, not only would he not be able to save anyone, it would expose his weak points in front of the enemy!

In this way, the two of them could only become a pair of mandarin ducks.

Leng Fugui grabbed hold of the opportunity as he worked up all the Profound Energy within his body to coordinate with the most powerful established Profound Skill of his, as he used up all his energy and struck out towards Li Moying!

This young punk had finally exposed the flaw of underestimating the enemy due to lack of experience so this time round, he would definitely be either killed or injured!

However, following that, Leng Fugui's complacent smile froze on his face.

His full power strike was about to land on Li Moying but he saw him turning around in an unhurriedly and composed manner with a look of ridicule on his face, as the right arm which locked onto Huang Yueli's waist lifted up as he waved his sleeves...

Violent surging Profound Energy vanished instantly in a blink of an eye easily.

"What??"

Leng Fugui was tongue tied as he simply could not believe his own eyes.

How did it turn out like this? A ninth stage realm fourth level practitioner's full power unleashed, was actually..... blocked so easily like this?? He even used a Heaven grade Profound Skill!

This couldn't possibly be real.....

But the truth was right in front of his eyes and moreover, after Li Moying dissipated his Profound Energy, he immediately struck back, pushing Leng Fugui's Profound Energy back!

His speed was much faster by several times than when Leng Fugui struck out!

Leng Fugui was still in shock and had not been able to react totally when he was directly sent flying!

He crashed against ten over huge trees continuously before crashing heavily onto the ground several hundred meters away.

Giving off a "pfft" sound, Leng Fugui's landing sounded rather dull.

Huang Yueli's brows rose when she heard that. Apparently, that old man's protection profound energy had been scattered by Li Moying and his physical body crashing against so many solid trees so his bones had probably smashed into dregs and there was a ninety nine percent chance that he had already breathed his last on the spot.

Chapter 1766: Li Moying's fury (6)

Huang Yueli shrugged her shoulders as she was totally unsurprised.

She didn't like killing people so much but Li Moying wasn't that particular and he had always been someone who would exact revenge if there was any, without the slightest hesitation.

Moreover, Leng family's people were rather bold. Li Moying did not have the time to go find trouble with them since his return to Sky Emperor City so they should be thankful for it! But they actually dared to initiate the provocation towards the Big Demon Lord.....

No one would be able to save them now....

Huang Yueli prayed silently for the Leng family in her heart.

Suddenly, a clear voice rang above her head.

"Have you got enough, what's so great to look at an old man's corpse?"

Huang Yueli's expression stiffened up, "Ughh, ah... I wasn't looking at that.... I merely felt that the scenery here isn't too bad so I'm just casually taking a look..."

"The night is extremely dark today and there aren't even many stars in the sky. The surrounding is so dark so may I ask what can you even see? Moreover, the surrounding is filled with crooked trees and so many of it have been broken by the crash, this is considered as not bad scenery?" Li Moying's voice was icy cold.

Huang Yueli gave a dry cough, "Haha, I was saying.....to take a look at such bleak scenery sometimes gives off a special sentiment....."

Li Moying gave a cold humpf, "Enough, stop dragging the time. Perhaps you'd have the interest to explain to me why haven't you waited for me to come out of closed door cultivation or bring Cang Po Jun and the others before you left the mountain on your own? Was there any urgent matter which you had to settle today?"

Huang Yueli hemmed and hawed, "Ughh, this....."

She hesitated for a moment and her eyeballs rolled as she smiled, "Yeh? Didn't you just say that you will settle the debt with me later when we return? We're still outside now, why are you throwing a tantrum.... AH!! What are you doing??"

She had not finished her words when she suddenly realised that her feet had left the ground as she was lifted up by Li Moying.

Huang Yueli hurriedly kicked her little feet as she struggled, "What are you doing! Let me down now!"

Li Moying gave a cold harrumph, "Since this is the case, then we shall hurry on back now so that I can "settle the debt" with you properly!"

"Hey, wait a minute! I can walk on my own!"

"You walk too slowly!"

Li Moying rejected her resolutely as he withdrew his arms and hugged the young lady tightly as his toes tipped and the thunder wings behind his back suddenly appeared!

His body floated upwards lightly and borrowing the levitation state, he flew swiftly across the sky.

Huang Yueli's face turned slightly pale as her fingers grabbed onto Li Moying's lapel while her heart pounded wildly.

This wasn't out of fear for heights but because she realised that her fiancé's anger wasn't easily quelled hence she was feeling exceptionally guilty.

So to speak, one just couldn't do any bad things otherwise if one was caught red-handed, the scene would be extremely embarrassing!

As though it took only an instance, the two's silhouettes appeared at the entrance of Levitation Sword Palace.

When the guards who were standing in front of the entrance saw that it was Li Moying who had arrived, they all started to kneel down to pay their respects.

"Welcome back Sovereign..."

"Paying our respects to the Sovereign...."

However, Li Moying didn't give any reply as he flew past them directly, making those guards feel astonished.

When they passed by the front lobby, Huang Yueli discovered that Cang Po Jun and the others were kneeling at the front without moving at all.

It was until the two of them appeared when the few Guardians obviously heaved a sigh of relief. But they were still kneeling upright on the ground, not daring to show any signs of slackness.

Huang Yueli cried out loudly, "Ah, Guardian Jun, are you guys ok?"

It was her who had insisted on leaving the mountain this morning but now it had caused Cang Po Jun and the others to be punished.

Chapter 1767: Li Moying's fury (7)

Huang Yueli felt that she had let them down and didn't want them to continue kneeling down as a punishment, with the intention to let them leave first.

But before she could finish her sentence, Li Moying had already opened his mouth speaking out coldly.

"If you have the heart to worry about others, why not first worry about yourself!"

"Me...?"

Li Moying's footsteps didn't stop as he locked his little fiancée into his arms tightly, heading straight into the bedroom.

Cang Po Jun and the others could only look at Li Moying's lanky figure disappearing into the night and the few Guardians exchanged gazes, sharing the same lament.

Sovereign was still the same as in the past, the minute the matter had something to do with Grandmaster Huang, he would start scratching wildly. Whereas those pitiful and innocent Guardians like them would probably be the same as in their past lives, everyday being the duo's cannon fodder!

Li Moying strode into his bedroom as he waved his hand to chase away all the female attendants and after that throwing Huang Yueli onto a big, magnificent soft bed.

The minute Huang Yueli obtained her freedom, she immediately rolled around on the bed and sat up.

"Dear Brother Moying, don't be angry, today's incident is just an accident! I didn't want it to end up like this as well.... I... I can explain....."

Huang Yueli's large eyes sparkled as her long lashes shook, putting on an innocent and pure expression.

After having acquainted with this man for so many years, she naturally knew that Li Moying fell for this the most and normally as long as she put on an obedient and lectured attitude, he would not bear to berate her.

However, this time round, Li Moying didn't seem to be fooled so easily.

His expression remained chilly and his gaze was deep-set as he stared at Huang Yueli for quite some time but didn't say a single word.

This gaze, somehow, left Huang Yueli feeling scared.

Just as Huang Yueli decided to change her strategy, Li Moying suddenly moved and he grabbed Huang Yueli's shoulder and using his strength, he pulled her onto the bed.... With her butt facing up!

Following that.....

There was a "slap slap" sound and Huang Yueli used her hands to cover her own butt in a shocked and dazed look.

"You, you, you.... actually spank my butt! You actually dare.....!"

Huang Yueli's little face had instantly flushed beetroot red.

Honestly speaking, she had protection profound energy on her and Li Moying didn't use any Profound Energy when he spanked her so that little bit of strength wouldn't break her defence so it wasn't painful at all.

But this was simply too, too, too embarrassing! How could he simply spank a lady's butt!

Moreover speaking, she usually always used spanking to threaten Little Wang Cai and that little thing was originally not convinced by her ways. Now that it saw its own Master's butt being spanked, it almost fainted from laughter in the Sky Phoenix Ring!

This face... she had really lost it big time!

Huang Yueli's anger rose up as she turned around and pounced onto Li Moying.

“No way, you’re bullying me, this matter cannot be resolved like that. I want to bite you back!”

She pounced over with the intention to leave a fresh and obvious teeth mark on Li Moying’s neck, those kind which could be seen on one look.

Anyway she couldn’t suffer a loss so since Li Moying made her throw her face in front of Little Phoenix, she must make Li Moying lose his face in front of all his disciples in Levitation Sword Palace, hmph, hmph, hmph!

However, just as she leaned forward, Li Moying’s arms retracted making her lose her balance and fell into his broad warm embrace.

Immediately following that, she was brought into the man’s embrace rightly and Li Moying’s arm grew tighter and tighter, as though he was about to snap her slender waist into half.

Chapter 1768: Li Moying’s fury (8)

Whereas his head was placed on Huang Yueli’s shoulder. The scorching breath blowing on her sensitive neck made her shudder.

“Li’er, you really scared me to death today! Can you stop scaring me in such a way! Do you know that I can ignore everything else, but I just can’t see you fall into danger! Just how fortunate am I to discover that you’re not around the minute I came out of my closed door cultivation so I headed out to look for you. If not I will have no way to arrive in time after you set off the emergency aid token!”

“Seeing you almost getting hurt by that old thing, my heart almost stopped beating! If you scare me a few more rounds, my life will really be shortened by several years.... What if one day I’m not able to arrive in time.....”

Huang Yueli could clearly sense that the man who was hugging her, his body was shaking continuously.

Evidently, he was really frightened.

Huang Yueli originally felt rather unresigned but upon discovering that Li Moying’s reaction was so intense, she instantly felt a twinge of guilt as it filled her heart and wasn’t able to say anything to debate, or even acted silly or cute.

She stretched out her arm as she hugged Li Moying back.

“It’s alright, I’m fine... don’t be so anxious.... Alright, alright, alright, it’s my fault. In future I won’t run about on my own, alright? Even if I am going out, I will bring along the guards which you have designated or wait for you to accompany me personally, alright?”

Huang Yueli actually knew clearly that Li Moying had reacted in such a way, totally without any sense of security because he suffered a huge psychological shadow from her self-explosion in her past life.

When they were in their past lives, although Mu Chengying was also exaggeratedly riled up, but he had not turned into such an anxious and frail state just because of her getting into one dangerous incident.

After all, none of the practitioners who went through experience learning in the Continent dared to say that they were able to avoid all the danger so it was impossible to be overly cautious. Moreover, the bigger the danger, the more it meant that it was a chance and Mu Chengying understood this deeply.

But in this lifetime, Li Moying kept her under exceptionally tight reins and sometimes his reaction was really very intense.

Today was still considered alright, unlike the past few times where it even led to his Soul Detachment Illness acting up.

This was a sore point which Li Moying had brought over from his past life to current life and that was the evidence that his feelings towards her were etched too deeply. Hence other with heartache, Huang Yueli didn't reflect n.ny other emotions as she could only choose to listen obediently.

Li Moying hugged her tightly and after a while longer, he slowly started to calm down.

"You already promised me so you're not allowed to change your mind! If I find out that you secretly sneak out again, I will ground you for three months!" Li Moying's tone was filled with threat.

Huang Yueli secretly rolled her eyes, man!

Didn't he think about who was the one who remodeled Levitation Sword Palace's mechanisms so how would he have the ability to ground her! If she wasn't willing to do out, that would be because she wanted to keep him company in Levitation Sword Palace.

But Huang Yueli wasn't willing to expose him so she obediently nodded her head, "Alright...I know."

Speaking of this, the matter had developed to such an extent today, ultimately it was her own fault.

This fault, wasn't because she had left on her own, but because her own ability was too weak and she wasn't able to reach the same heights as Li Moying hence she was targeted by someone else!

Hence, she indeed should go into closed door cultivation properly to work hard and raise her own cultivation. Only in this way would Li Moying be assured, and she would even be able to work alongside him during a critical moment!

Just like in their past lives...

Chapter 1769: Li Moying's fury (9)

A long moment later, Huang Yueli pushed the man in front of her gently.

"Alright, not angry anymore? You went to look for me immediately after you came out of your closed door cultivation? You haven't eaten anything yet right? Just nice, I haven't taken my dinner as well, so accompany me to eat a little?"

Huang Yueli leaned to the front of her fiancé and her tone was extremely sweet and gentle, which was filled totally with the meaning of pleasing him.

But Li Moying merely casted a fleeting glance at her, not saying a single word.

Woah, he's putting on airs! Why had this man suddenly become so difficult to coax recently?

Huang Yueli blinked and her delicate little hands whisked the part in front of his chest as she slowly went near him, all the way until their noses touched and they could smell each other's breathing.

"Why are you still angry? Haven't I already listened to you obediently? How about this, I'll give you a kiss and you'll forgive me, alright?"

Saying that, she stuck out the tip of her tongue and started licking Li Moying's perfectly shaped thin lips.

Li Moying felt a stinging itch from his lips and his eyes were half narrowed as he looked at her from the corner of his eye.

This fair delicate little face looked extremely pure but that slightly roving eyes revealed an extremely seductive sense, as though it was like an intense fire which could light one up in an instance.

This intense comparison made Li Moying's heart pound wildly. His Adam's apple slid up and down then he used his strong palms to hold on to the young lady's slender shoulders.

Suddenly, at the next moment, he shoved Huang Yueli away hard.

Huang Yueli cried out as she lifted up her eyes to look at him in surprise. Because according to Li Moying's earlier performance, she actually didn't expect that she would be pushed away!

Just as she was astonished, Li Moying took a deep breath and forcibly suppressed the urge as he retreated back several steps while staring deeply at her.

"Why... why are you looking at me like this?" Huang Yueli pouted as she felt slightly unhappy.

Acting coquettish and cute didn't work, now even her automatic seduction also didn't work as well?

Could it be that her charm had dropped? How could it be possible? She obviously sensed that following her cultivation rising continuously, she had obviously become prettier and prettier!

She wanted to lean forward once again out of irreconciliation.

Li Moying hurriedly took a few steps back as he gave a slight cough, "Don't come over first, I have something to ask you!"

"Ughh... what do you want to ask?" Huang Yueli instantly became uneasy. She had thought that she had managed to smuggle past today's matters! In the end, Li Moying totally didn't let her proactiveness go to his head, and even remembered to criticise her violently.....

"I ask you, why have you insisted on going over to Sky Emperor City today for?"

Li Moying's expression was solemn as he questioned her. The number one top expert in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent, at this moment, was no different from a re-disposed man who was extremely jealous.

"Oh, you're asking about this! Actually it's nothing much. I just suddenly recalled that today is the day of the Armament Guild Headquarters public certification assessment date and I wanted to go get a high levelled Armament Master badge so in future no matter if it's to sell things through auction or to handle some matters, it'd be a little more convenient to do so!"

Huang Yueli knew that he would ask about this hence she was already prepared.

So her reply was extremely fluent and the expression on her face was also exceptionally natural, totally not showing any abnormality at all.

But in actual fact, she had cleverly avoided the main point of this question, in an attempt to muddle through this.

However, Li Moying was not that easy to con at all.

Chapter 1770: Li Moying's fury (10)

His brows rose as he continued to question her, "You went to the Armament Guild to attend the certification? Which rank certification did you take part in? Show me the badge?"

Huang Yueli immediately retrieved the freshly baked seventh ranked Armament Master badge and passed it over to him.

Li Moying turned it around and took a look and said, "Looks like you really went to take part in the certification....."

"Hey, what do you mean by that! Could I even lie to you over this!" Huang Yueli pouted in dissatisfaction.

Li Moying gave a harrumph, "You won't resort to lying to me but it's possible that you are hiding something from me."

"When did I?"

"Then let me ask you, you're a fifteen to sixteen year old young lady, heading over to the Armament Guild and saying that you want to be certified for seventh rank Armament Master, didn't they treat you as a lunatic and chased you out? Or they really allowed you to be certified? Moreover, haven't you always been afraid of exposing your identity? Running over to the Armament Guild in such a high key fashion, aren't you afraid that it would rouse people's suspicions?"

Li Moying posed question after question and every single sentence were exactly doubtful points.

Huang Yueli knew that he should already have an answer in his heart as she stuck out her tongue and said, "Alright, alright, I admit, it's because I wanted to meet Ye Xing Hua so I chose to head over to the Armament Guild today....."

"Oh, I was just saying, so it's to meet another man so you secretly kept your own fiancé in the dark to enter the city, not even caring about your own safety....."

Before Huang Yueli could finish her words, Li Moying already started to butt in with a sourish tone which could be smelled from miles away.

Huang Yueli went into a blank and burst out laughing, "Why did you put it in such a way! You obviously know that Ye Xing Hua is only my disciple! Moreover, he's the current President in the Armament Guild Headquarters and what is most rare is that he's still totally loyal towards me, and that's really a rare sight....."

“En, so his unwavering loyalty towards you made you feel extremely touched?”

Li Moying’s face still bore the cool expression as his arms were wrapped in front of his chest and his sword brows rose up with brilliant radiance flashing past his peach blossomed eyes, making him extraordinarily good looking.

But the tone of that sounded as though it was a young boy whose candied fruits had been snatched away, that kind of tsundere and unhappy feel.

“Who didn’t know that Ye Xing Hua had started liking you since he was ten over years old and he was so thick skinned to use armament refining as an excuse to hover around you day after day! I can tell that he has ulterior motives! You really thought he gave up you became his Master? Until now he still can’t forget you daily, his feelings towards you are really deep!”

“Anyway, I don’t like you to go meet him, not to mention meeting him alone! In future you’re not allowed to go to the Armament Guild!”

She knew it!

Huang Yueli was speechless. In their past lives, this man had already hated Ye Xing Hua deeply and had kept obstructing her from heading over to the Armament Guild! In the end, this lifetime turned out to be the same.

But she could give up going anywhere else, but she absolutely could not not head towards the Armament Guild!

Forget about the other matters, there was President Jiang’s matters which were waiting for her to investigate the truth to exact revenge.

Huang Yueli bit her lips and suddenly leapt up from the bed as she pounced over to hug Li Moying’s waist.

Li Moying wanted to evade her but Huang Yueli’s speed was too swift and he was caught unprepared. Not only was he unable to evade her, he also lost his steadiness as he fell down onto the ground.

With a “bang”, the two of them landed onto the ground.

Li Moying’s back landed onto the ground and he felt a sharp pain as his brows creased whereas Huang Yueli laid on his chest, with her hands grabbed tightly on the clothes around his waist.
