Chapter 1891: Grandmaster Huang ran off with someone (4)

Or perhaps, it would never be for him ever.....

The minute Liu Buyan thought of that, his heart hardened and he stared intently at Huang Yueli as he said, "Even if Liu Buyan died, that would never be because of me!"

Huang Yueli blinked, "What do you mean?"

Liu Buyan looked at her clear and pure large eyes as he was struck into awe by the brilliance beneath it. At the same time, a spark of nameless fire fired up his heart making him speak without thinking through.

"Young Miss Bai, you're really too innocent! Did you really believe that Li Moying likes you, and only you alone? He will pamper you forever? I'm telling you, there are tons of "ignorant" young ladies who were smitten by him! Do you know that he had once liked someone else? Do you know just how wild and devoted he was to that woman? In the end? He changed at once after seeing someone different and liked you, casting the previous one completely behind his mind?"

"Even though he had once loved that woman, who might still be suffering from torment in some corner of Soaring Heavens Continent, toiling herself day and night but he totally can't feel it at all!"

"Li Moying.... he's this kind of cold blooded and emotionless man! You've really seen him wrongly, and also loved the wrong person!"

Liu Buyan had totally not cared if he exposed Li Moying's real identity, or even to the point where he did not consider just how shocking were the things that he had just mentioned, whether the young lady in front of him was able to accept it or not.

He only wanted to awaken Huang Yueli as soon as possible!

There were so many beautiful young ladies.... Why must they all choose to like Li Moying that scum, and yet none of them wished to take a look at Liu Buyan instead?

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes, and blinked again.

Initially, when she heard that Liu Buyan accused Li Moying with "changed at once on seeing someone different", and then added with a "cold blooded and emotionless man", she was rather clueless on what he was saying.

But as she heard more and more, she started to come around it as she couldn't help but gave out an expression which looked as though she didn't know if she should laugh or cry.

After half a day, Liu Buyan still didn't realise that she was Huang Yueli herself? And he had assumed that Li Moying fell in love with another person?

The both of them were locked in Levitation Sword Palace for an entire afternoon and yet didn't speak about this matter clearly? Could it be that the minute they met, they had already engaged in a fight? What was this considered as?

No matter what, they had been best buddies back then, so just how much of a grievance or feud did they have?

Huang Yueli was moved for the first time and the person who she liked was Mu Chengying. Whereas in these two lifetimes, Mu Chengying was totally devoted to her.

It could be said that she was a blessed little Princess in love and had never been taken advantage of so naturally she could not understand the feelings where jealousy nibbled at the heart and the thinking to send their love rivals to death.

She wanted to clear things up in a hurry, "I say..... Brother Liu, you've really mistaken! How could Moying possibly have a change of heart? Actually, him and I..... ughh!"

When Huang Yueli just spoke out, she had not even completed two sentences when she suddenly felt a piercing pain on her chest.

Her eyes widened and realised that Liu Buyan had suddenly made a move, sealing her meridians.

Huang Yeuli's body instantly became weak and as she could not control her actions, she fell onto the ground!

Huang Yueli banged onto his chest and although she wasn't hurt from the fall, but she was in an extremely ambiguous position, as she fell into Liu Buyan's arms.

Whereas it was Liu Buyan himself who originally was already injured, and after this knock, he was in so much pain that he almost fainted!

"Uh.... uh uh!"

Huang Yueli tried her best to speak out but unfortunately she could only make muffling moans.

Chapter 1892: Grandmaster Huang ran off with someone (5)

She exhausted all her strength to climb up from Liu Buyan's body but unfortunately, Liu Buyan's cultivation was much higher than hers and he had set a restraining order, which was something which the sixth stage realm Huang Yueli could not break through.

Liu Buyan looked at her comical wriggling look and instantly felt that his injuries weren't in that much pain now.

His face revealed a smile, as he said, "Young Miss Bai, don't waste your energy any longer and leave with me!"

Huang Yueli was unable to say a single word but her clear distinct bright eyes were filled with surprise and fury, as she stared viciously towards the man in front of him.

Liu Buyan lowered his head as he looked at her, a smitten expression flashed past his eyes.

His fingers gently covered Huang Yueli's eyelids as he lowered his voice and sighed, "You have a beautiful pair of eyes, just like 'her'. No wonder... Li Moying likes you so much.... you're really beautiful...."

The fury in his heart started spiralling, making Liu Buyan's expression turn even more dangerous than before.

Huang Yueli's face flushed bright red from his touches and she couldn't help but gritted her teeth, wanting very much to avoid him but unfortunately had no way to move at all.

In the past, Liu Buyan had never done something so offensive to her and he had always been a suave and slightly casual man, although many people said that he was a cynical person and often fooled around, making many young ladies suffer from heartbreak over him.

But since it didn't concern her, Huang Yueli just treated it as though it was nothing.

At the very least, in front of her, Liu Buyan had always been a big brother who was easy to talk to, and had always automatically avoided any actions which would cause suspicions.

She had never seen Liu Buyan with such a dangerous stance, filled with such an invasive side....

"Bai Ruoli... I know you will hate me, but it doesn't matter, I will not let you go. Anyway Li Moying will die very soon...."

The gaze which Huang Yueli casted upon Liu Buyan was getting fiercer by the minute.

Liu Buyan ignored her gazde and instead held her delicate chin as he lifted her face and lowered his head, slowly going nearer and nearer to her....

She could only silently recite in her mind that she was bitten by a dog and whoever dared to take liberties with her, she would show him some colours sooner or later!

Just as the both of them were just an inch away, suddenly, a flurry of anxious cries were heard, distinctively from the woods not too far away.

"Young Miss Bai! Young Miss Bai!"

"Young Miss Bai, where are you?"

"Damn it, she doesn't seem to be here as well! Junior Sister Bai is only in sixth stage realm cultivation, how does she run so quickly?"

"Senior Brother, why exactly are we searching for Junior Sister Bai for? Has she really ran away with Divine Doctor Liu? That Senior Brother Li.... isn't he a little too pitiful! I heard that he was even injured by Divine Doctor Liu!"

“What rubbish are you sprouting? Guardian Jun asked us to search for her so we’d better conduct a proper search. Are Senior Brother Li’s matters something which we can conjure about?”

The sound in the woods was sometimes near and sometimes far but this group searched everywhere but eventually didn’t manage to walk towards Huang Yueli’s side.

Huang Yueli was so anxious that she tried her best to shout out loud but the sounds that she made were only muffled cries.

Liu Buyan frowned slightly as he used his hand to cover Huang Yueli’s mouth so in this way, she couldn’t even make a teeny weeny bit of cry out at all.

Liu Buyan stretched out his hand to carry Huang Yueli as he got up and wanted to change to a better hiding spot.

But he hadn’t imagined that the injury on his leg wasn’t a slight one and he didn’t take into consideration the weight of the young lady in his arms.

Chapter 1893: Grandmaster Huang ran off with someone (6)

Liu Buyan lost his balance and kicked a small stone beside his feet.

The small stone knocked against the tree trunk and gave off a slight “pong” sound which was extremely soft.

But the surrounding people were all Blue Profound Sect’s direct disciples and all of them had extraordinary abilities so quite a number of them heard the strange soft noise.

“Hear that, there’s a noise coming from that side! Let’s head over there to take a look!”

The group of young disciples crowded over towards the place where Liu Buyan was hiding.

Liu Buyan’s brows wound tightly as he was filled with impatience.

He was a ninth stage realm peak top exponent so naturally he wouldn’t be afraid of this group of young disciples who were merely in sixth or seventh stage realm cultivations. But he was now still in Blue Profound Sect’s territory and he was already heavily injured. Moreover he had to smuggle Li Moying’s fiancée out so he didn’t wish to complicate matters.

Luckily, quite a number of the large amount of medicinal pills which he had swallowed earlier had already started to take effect.

He rolled up his sleeves and held Huang Yueli tightly in his arms, and at the same time, he tipped his toes and exhibited his body movement Profound Skills.

His tall figure dressed in white instantly floated up and like a ghostly figure, he shuttered past the sparse forest.

“They’re there! Did you see that shadow over there! It’s Liu Buyan!”

“Chase after them! Quickly chase after them!”

“Are you looking for death? Divine Doctor Liu is a ninth stage realm top exponent! Moreover, he’s so fast, we totally can’t catch up at all!”

“Hurry back to report to Guardian Jun!”

Huang Yueli’s head was covered by Liu Buyan’s white robe so she totally couldn’t see the situation outside and could only hear the young disciples’ intermittent screams.

She wanted to cry but had no tears because no matter how she predicted, she had not expected things to have changed into this state!

Liu Buyan actually did something to her whereas she was actually so silly that she had fallen into his trap!

Just at this moment, Huang Yueli felt a sluggish feeling around her chest area and her eyes blacked out as she lost consciousness.

Levitation Sword Palace.

Cang Po Jun and the others didn’t even dared to pant loudly as they stood silently by the side, their hearts heavy with worry and apprehension.

Doctor Shangguan retracted the golden needles in his hand and spoke out softly, “After the emergency treatment, Sovereign should be able to regain his consciousness very soon but this is merely something which I had used the golden needles to forcibly summon the last thread of chance within his body. Actually, the degree of the damage on his primordial spirit is extremely serious and if this carries on, he probably won’t be able to hold on for more than a few months.....”

“What? How did it turn out like this? Could it be because the Sovereign had a battle with Liu Buyan?” Cang Po Jun’s face paled.

Doctor Shangguan replied solemnly, “I had already warned Sovereign the last time that based on his current condition, he totally shouldn’t fight with anyone at all! Moreover, it wouldn’t be that bad if it was a quick battle but he had fought with the opponent evenly for close to two hours! This is really treating his life as a joke! What else should I say?”

Luo Jiyun was so anxious that he almost cried and the minute he walked up, he wanted to kneel down to Doctor Shangguan, "Divine Doctor Shangguan, I'm begging you, please save Senior Brother. He's still so young, and so talented, he... he cannot die!"

Chapter 1894: Grandmaster Huang ran off with someone (7)

Doctor Shangguan sighed and wanted to help Luo Jiyun up, but the latter refused to get up at all.

"Young Master Luo, please stand up quickly! It's of no use even if you kneel down to me! I've already said this clearly the last time that Sovereign's illness needs the Number One Divine Doctor to treat. But in the end Sovereign really did find Divine Doctor Liu but he had a fight with him, and ended up so seriously injured.... This... you'd better think of a way to persuade Divine Doctor Liu back instead?"

If something really happened to Li Moying, the entire Blue Profound Sect would follow in his demise so of course he'd like to cure Li Moying as well wasn't it? But his medical skills were limited and there was nothing that he could do.

The minute Doctor Shanggaun said that, everyone started to turn silent.

Especially for Cang Po Jun because when he saw Liu Buyan appearing at Levitation Sword Palace's doors, he was elated with joy for a short moment, thinking that Liu Buyan had come over to mend things back with Li Moying, but whoever knew.....

Cang Po Jun clenched his teeth, "How about this, later on I'd set off immediately and personally lead some men to look for Divine Doctor Liu. He'd also sustained heavy injuries and moreover, he carried Grandmaster Huang along with him so they definitely had not travelled too far away! We can request for Sky Emperor City to increase their security around the surroundings and search street by street, with the aim to abduct them back here!"

Everyone immediately crowded over.

Li Moying's eyes were still tightly shut but his lips were mouthing the words, "Li.... Li'er....."

Cang Po Jun hurriedly replied, "Sovereign, please recuperate in ease. This Subordinate will definitely bring Divine Doctor Liu back!"

However, Li Moying was totally not interested in Liu Buyan's whereabouts as he persistently questioned, "Li'er... where is Li'er? She really.... left with Liu Buyan....."

Cang Po Jun didn't know how to reply and just as he was being hesitant, Cang Po Yu joined in and spoke softly, "Sovereign, Grandmaster Huang had personally gone to pursue after Divine Doctor Liu. She's worried that Divine Doctor Liu refused to give you treatment so she wanted to convince him personally....."

Earlier those few who had suspected that Huang Yueli had eloped all hung their heads down in shame, feeling that they really shouldn’t have let their imagination run wild.

Indeed, like what Cang Po Yu said, that was the most plausible explanation!

But in that kind of scenario earlier, Li Moying had fallen in front of Huang Yueli but yet the latter did not stop at all as she pursued after Li Moying’s enemy.... It was really easy to cause a misunderstanding.

Hearing what Cang Po Yu said, everyone thought that Li Moying should have a peace of mind.

However, Li Moying’s reaction became even more agitated as his eyes abruptly turned wide open and his arms propped up his weak and lethargic body, attempting to get down from the bed.

Alas the internal injury he sustained was extremely serious. Just a simple movement like this almost caused him to fall off the bed.

Everyone quickly went up to hold him back.

“Sovereign, how can you come down from the bed at this kind of moment!”

“Lie down back quickly! I’ve had a hard time trying to regain your consciousness through acupuncture, can you stop tormenting us!”

Amid the flurry of chaos, Li Moying’s body trembled badly but the bitter glint beneath his eyes was still as penetrative and sharp as usual.

“No, I have to bring.... Li’er back, she can’t.... can’t be with Liu Buyan... absolutely not....”

Chapter 1895: Offered herself to his doorstep (1)

Similarly a man, Li Moying could naturally tell that Liu Buyan’s persistence towards Huang Yueli, had already gone way beyond to an insane stage.

He was no longer the same.... as in his past life!

Now that Huang Yueli offered herself to his doorstep, he totally couldn’t imagine what Liu Buyan could possibly do!

Even if Liu Buyan didn’t do anything out of regulation, but he only needed to drag Huang Yueli for a month’s time and based on Li Moying’s current condition, he might not be able to see Huang Yueli even at his deathbed!

Cang Po Jun and the others could not understand his thinking, so they could only follow his wishes.

“Sovereign, This Subordinate will now go search for her, don’t worry....” Cang Po Jun tried his best to assure him.

Li Moying coughed as he said, “No, not you..... cough cough, it’s all off you! Everyone.... everyone go out and search for her! Forget it if Liu Buyan escaped, but Li’er.... you must find her!”

“Yes, Sovereign!”

Huang Yueli suddenly opened her eyes to discover that she was lying in a clean and tidy room. The exquisite incense burner on the headboard burnt a special lavender fragrance, giving off a clear and refreshing scent, making one’s mood settle down.

The sky was already bright outside the window.

Huang Yueli propped herself on to the bed as she sat up, but she discovered that her head was extremely dizzy and she felt extremely unbearable so she couldn’t help but used her hands to grab her head.

A handsome male dressed in white walked in, as he held up a tray in his hands.

On seeing the young lady on the bed waking up, he walked over in quick steps to the bed.

“Ruoli, you’re awake! How do you feel now? Do you feel uncomfortable? Is your head dizzy?”

She somehow felt that this man looked rather familiar and should be considered as someone she was close to, but no matter how she tried, she couldn’t remember who he was. It was as though there was a fog in her head, making her feel very murky and cloudy.

“You... who are you?”

Hearing Huang Yueli’s questions, the corners of Liu Buyan’s lips undetectably curled upwards but he quickly concealed it, giving off a disappointed and frustrated expression.

“You....Ruoli, you really don’t remember who I am?”

“I.....” Huang Yueli began to think over this carefully but she felt a wave of dizziness as she couldn’t help but creased her brows tightly, “Sorry, I also feel that you look very familiar but... I don’t know why I just can’t seem to remember... my head is so dizzy.”

Liu Buyan hurriedly stretched out his hand and held her. His arms increased in strength as he brought her to lean against him.

“Don’t think anymore if you can’t remember! I’ll tell you directly who I am! I’m Liu Buyan, and you are... my fiancée!”

Huang Yueli was leaning extremely close to him and felt totally not used to it as she subconsciously wanted to push him away but Liu Buyan used an exceptional amount of strength so that she could not escape.

Hearing the word “fiancée”, she subconsciously jolted as an exquisitely handsome looking man’s face flashed past her thoughts.

Somehow, she really seemed to have a fiancée, moreover that person was even more good looking than this Liu Buyan.....

When she tried to capture the image in her mind, she started to feel dizzy again.

Liu Buyan’s deep voice rang by the side of her ears, “We’ve been engaged for two years and this time round, you accompanied me to the outskirts to pick medicinal herbs but we met with a ninth tier magical beast’s sneak attack. I miscalculated and caused you to be injured, your head knocking against the tree.”

Chapter 1896: Offered herself to his doorstep (2)

Huang Yueli blinked as she simply couldn’t recall that image which Liu Buyan mentioned.

She asked puzzledly, “Rea... Really? I... I don’t have any impression about this.....”

Liu Buyan supported her gently and his voice was filled with bewitchment, “Don’t force yourself to remember. You’ve injured your brain so that’s why you lost your memories. Coercing yourself to think about it will only make you feel worse.”

Huang Yueli drowned as she somehow felt uneasy in her heart, “Then what should I do? I don’t know what happened to me and I can’t remember anything at all, I... what should I do?”

Her memory was totally blank so even if Huang Yueli was a young lady with unwavering determination, she would also feel uneasy and terrified.

Liu Buyan’s eyelashes drooped down slightly as he glanced sideways at her, “No matter, don’t be afraid, you still have me isn’t it? I’m your fiancé and I will protect and take care of you so you don’t need to worry about anything at all..”

His gentle breath hit against Huang Yueli’s face, as he stretched out his arms to bring her into his embrace. He lowered his head and couldn’t help but leaned close to her pink lips.

A loud slap resounded!

Liu Buyan lifted his head in astonishment as his face flushed red. He had not expected the young lady who seemed weak like a rabbit had actually given him a tight slap without holding back!

After Huang Yueli slapped him, she herself had a shock as she didn’t realise what she had done, and that was an extremely basic instinctive reaction.

“Sor... Sorry, are you alright?” Huang Yueli looked a little apologetic at that man’s handsome, fair-looking face and that eye piercing palm print on it.

Liu Buyan lifted his hand and touched the place where he had been slapped, “I’m your fiancé and merely just wanted to give you a kiss, but you actually hit me?”

Huang Yueli anxiously explained, "You.... why did you suddenly try to kiss me for? I don't remember anything now, so of course.... Of course it's not suitable... I'm really sorry....."

Liu Buyan met Huang Yueli's eyes and that pair of large eyes remained limpid and efficacious, but there seemed to be hidden a mist beneath her eyes.

Liu Buyan's anger, under the young lady's gaze, started to simmer down.

That's right, this young lass had just lost her memory and she probably still felt very uneasy. He shouldn't be overhasty because this would result in negative results.

Anyway, since she doesn't remember anything now, she also doesn't remember who Li Moying was, only knowing that he was her fiancé!

Moreover speaking, this young lass was now at a juncture where she lacked security the most so the only person who she could rely on right now, was he Liu Buyan! Under such circumstances, it would be easy for her to develop reliance on him, and could also easily fall in love with the person who protected her.....

What Liu Buyan had in mind was exactly this plan.

He was one hundred percent sure that he could make the young lady in front of him fall in love with him.

But he should not rush things.

Thinking of this point, his gaze started to become gentle again as he actively stepped back slightly, letting go of the young lady in his arms. At the same time, his gentle voice placated her, "No worries, I'm the one who's overhasty and had not considered your feelings. Recuperate in peace, I will not coerce you to do the things which you don't like to do."

Huang Yueli then heaved a long sigh of relief.

Not knowing why, earlier when Liu Buyan came close to her, she felt highly strung up but the minute he backed off, she however felt more at ease.....

What situation was this? Wasn't this man her fiancé?

Moreover, from what he had just said, he was injured because of her, and both of them even went to pick medicinal herbs together.

Chapter 1897: Offered herself to his doorstep (3)

They should.... be on good terms?

Why was it that when he came close to her, she only felt uncomfortable?

Liu Buyan stood up and took the tray which he had brought over earlier, leaving it by the side of the bed.

In the tray was a bowl of fragrant millet porridge, a few dishes of appetizers and also a large bowl of pitch black soup.

When Huang Yueli smelled the fragrance of the porridge, she subconsciously gulped several times as her tummy started rumbling.

Liu Buyan laughed and said, "You had been unconscious for several days, so you must be very hungry right? Drink some of this porridge first, I specially stewed it for you and it's extremely nourishing. Moreover the taste isn't bad at all."

He personally lifted up the bowl and took the soup spoon delivering it to Huang Yueli's mouth.

Huang Yueli unnaturally turned her head sideways, "I... I will eat by myself!"

"I'll feed you, aren't you feeling lethargic?" Liu Buyan insisted.

Huang Yueli's brows creased awkwardly, "I... I'm not used to it. You acting in this way, I can't eat at all....."

Liu Buyan pursed his lips and reminded himself once again that he could not be too anxious, "Alright then, eat this by yourself."

Huang Yueli personally lifted up the bowl and although her hand was still weak, but it was considered stable as she slowly finished the entire bowl of porridge, polishing off the appetizers cleanly.

She put down the bowl and Liu Buyan pointed to that bowl of black soup, "Alright, drink your medicine and continue to sleep for a while!"

Huang Yueli's vision fell onto the medicinal bowl and her face immediately revealed a disgusted look, "Can I don't drink it?"

"No way! You must take your medicine on time every day!" Liu Buyan rejected her resolutely.

"But... this medicine soup looks so scary....." Huang Yueli pouted.

Liu Buyan looked at her pitiful watery eyes as his eyes jolted. He had never seen this young lass display such an expression in front of him before. She looked pitiful, which was different from her usual crafty intelligent look and had a different feel to it, making one unable to reject her request.

But following that, he cooled down.

"No way, we can negotiate on any other things but you definitely have to drink this medicine and moreover you have to drink it on time every day! If you want to recover your memory, then drink it every day. Otherwise.... if you can't remember the things in the past, don't you cry about this okay?" Liu Buyan's voice was filled with threat.

The minute Huang Yueli heard this, no matter how unwilling she was, she could only lift up that medicinal bowl.

Somehow she felt that she had forgotten about an extremely important matter and she absolutely needed to recall what it was.

For this motive, no matter how horrible the medicine tasted... she could only risk it all!

Huang Yueli raised her head and downed the entire bowl of medicine down her intestines, but she felt so bitter that her brows creased all the way.

Liu Buyan's gaze swept past that fair slender neck which she had exposed when she lifted up her head, and his gaze grew deep.

This young lass would probably never find out that during these few days when she was unconscious, the medicine that he had been making her drink was exactly this.

The more bowls she drank, the more hazy her memories would become.

Earlier Liu Buyan mentioned that this medicine was to treat amnesia, but in fact, it was the exact opposite.

Huang Yueli finished the medicine and creasing her elegant brows, she casted the medicine bowl aside with disgust.

"Alright, I've finished it! Can this thing really recover my memories?"

Liu Buyan nodded, "I am a Doctor so can I lie to you about this? But you have to promise me that you will obediently finish the medicine every day, every single drop of it, do you understand?"

Huang Yueli wrinkled her little nose as she looked as though she was put in a spot, but she replied anyway, "Alright..."

Chapter 1898: Offered herself to his doorstep (4)

Liu Buyan smiled in satisfaction.

Although he felt a little guilty doing this, but the minute he thought about the fact that he would be able to gain this young lady, he couldn't help the evil rush in his heart.

After all, it was she who offered herself to his doorstep, wasn't it?

He didn't want to become like in the past, giving up such a good chance, giving up his beloved woman to another man.

The first few days, she still felt a headache and most of the time, she was resting inside the bedroom.

Liu Buyan popped by to visit her on time every day and spoke to her in warm and soft words, accompanying her to have her meals while taking care of her daily living. Furthermore, he insisted on personally seeing her finish up that bowl of black medicinal soup before he left.

Huang Yueli didn't suspect anything. In such a secluded environment, she couldn't remember anything at all and she only got in contact with this man. Plus the fact that Liu Buyan had been declaring that he was her fiancé, she naturally began to become affectionate towards Liu Buyan.

But this kind of affinity had merely stopped in terms of words. The minute Liu Buyan wanted to do some slightly intimate actions, Huang Yueli would subconsciously avoid him.

She was feeling a little guilty over this but Liu Buyan seemed very understanding and had never once got angry or coerced her over this, and that made Huang Yueli increase the good feelings she had towards him.

Approximately after seven to eight days, Huang Yueli's headache gradually started to recover.

She had already been forced to lie in the bed for such a long time and was feeling extremely bored so there was once when Liu Buyan delivered her food over, she couldn't help but pestered him to bring her out.

Liu Buyan looked passionately at the graceful young lady in front of him and was satisfied with the trust which her eyes revealed.

"Alright, since you're no longer giddy, that means that your injury is already much better. As long as you persist in taking your medicine, you will be able to recover your memories very soon, then I shall bring you on a short tour!"

She originally was someone who couldn't stand boredom and the only things which could make her quieten down, was either cultivation or armament refining.

But while Liu Buyan was erasing her memories, he also sealed her meridians, making her seem as though she was an ordinary person without any cultivation so she could do nothing every day except to stroll about in the room.

She somehow felt that her life shouldn't be like this, feeling that something was wrong somewhere, but she just simply couldn't recall anything.....

Liu Buyan let the female attendant prepare a set of silvery white embroidered flower flowing dresses and waited at the door for her to dress into.

When Huang Yueli opened the door, Liu Buyan's eyes opened wide in shock when she reappeared in front of him.

She finally had the chance to step outside and moreover, putting on her favourite dress so Huang Yueli's mood was very pleasant as she turned a few rounds in front of him, showing off her dress, "How is it? Pretty?"

Liu Buyan was struck in awe by her beauty that he couldn't speak and could only nod his head consecutively.

"Pretty.... Really very pretty....."

Graceful poise, elegantly outstanding, the young lady in front of him was an exceptionally rare beauty who was hard to find in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent.

However, what made Liu Buyan extremely shocked was that she looked simply the same as Huang Yueli from sixteen years ago!

This kind of similarity was not only in terms of external beauty, but an indescribable feeling.

Once, when Huang Yueli was still the Young Palace Lord of Mythical Flame Palace, innumerable young ladies who admired her copied her way of dressing. Which young lady had not dressed up in a similar kind of flowing dress previously?

Chapter 1899: Offered herself to his doorstep (5)

However, no one could give off the same kind of charm which Huang Yueli had.

She was obviously a totally different kind of species with Huang Yueli but for that one instant, Liu Buyan felt that he had seen the past Huang Yueli.....

Huang Yueli didn't notice his complicated gaze as her eyes shot towards another direction and cried out in excitement, "Wa, so the place we are living in is so huge! I don't even know about this! Is this your home?"

Just outside her room was a large garden where various coloured flowers were planted.

These flora were not only beautiful, it also gave of a faint scent making one's heart and mind pleased.

Huang Yueli couldn't help but gasped, "It's too fragrant, these... are medicinal herbs?"

Liu Buyan stood by her side as he smiled, "Your eyesight is rather good! These are indeed medicinal herbs planted and that's because.... this isn't a garden, but a field of medicine."

"Huh??" Huang Yueli's eyes widened.

Liu Buyan said, "I remember telling you this a couple of days ago isn't it? I'm a Pill Master and moreover, a rather famous one at that....."

Huang Yueli nodded blankly, "Right, it really seemed that you've said that but these medicinal herbs all look very expensive, they seem as though it's hard to grow?"

Of course it was difficult to plant, these were practically seventh level and above rare medicinal herbs and usually, it was impossible to get even one stalk in the market.

As Liu Buyan looked simply too young from his exterior and he claimed that they were engaged since young, hence Huang Yueli felt that he should not be much older than her by too much. Moreover, he should only be on the second or third rank standard.

Pill Masters as compared to Armament Masters were more particular in terms of experience and seniority. Pill Masters who were thirty years and below was already considered a genius if they were already at third rank.

Liu Buyan shook his head and said, "These are not planted by me, but if I want, I can use it freely."

Saying that, he gently put his arm around Huang Yueli's waist, leading her towards the other end of the corridor.

"Let's go, I'll bring you for a tour."

Huang Yueli's cultivation was sealed so she totally could not evade him and could only be embraced by him.

The two of them shuttered past the medicine farm and came to the front of the house. Huang Yueli's shock grew because every single person in this entire courtyard, without exception, were all wearing the Pill Master's uniform and moreover their badges pinned in front of their chests seemed to indicate that they were basically high ranking Pill Masters.

It was until the two of them walked to the front courtyard when Liu Buyan pointed to the signboard at the entrance with a smile, "Ruoli, welcome to the Alchemist Guild Headquarters!"

Huang Yueli blinked and asked, "This place is the Alchemist Guild Headquarters?"

She subconsciously felt that something was amiss somewhere but she couldn't speak out where the problem was.

In actual fact, if she had a set of complete memories, she could absolutely suffer a great shock from Liu Buyan's words!

Because although the Armament Guild and Alchemist Guild were extremely respectable and rare occupations in Soaring Heavens Continent.

But Armament Masters were rather secular and slightly more arrogant hence they directly built their Guild Headquarters in the bustling city centre in Sky Emperor City, worried that no one could find them.

Pill Masters were comparably much low keyed. Their Headquarters location was extremely mysterious and unless they had gotten the recognition from pill masters, outside people practically couldn't find them at all.

The place which she stayed at right now, even in the yesteryears when Liu Buyan and Mu Chengying was on extremely good terms, even Mu Chengying had never been here before because it "didn't fit the regulations". But Liu Buyan actually brought her in brazenly.

Chapter 1900: Who is Li Moying? (1)

Liu Buyan smiled and said, "That's right, do you know it now? I'm not trying to boast but your fiance is really a very incredible Pill Master!"

Huang Yueli was just about to say something when she suddenly heard a joyous shrill coming from behind.

"Divine Doctor Liu, you.... You're back?"

She turned back in astonishment and saw a young lady in her prime of youth standing behind them. This girl was around seventeen years old and was already wearing a third rank Pill Master uniform.

The young lady's joyous gaze fell on Liu Buyan's face but immediately following that, she looked at the hand which Liu Buyan had embraced around Huang Yueli's waist and couldn't help but creased her brows.

This action was extremely minute and moreover she resumed back to normal in a short period of time. But Huang Yueli still managed to capture this image into her mind.

When Liu Buyan saw the young lady, there wasn't much variances on his expression, merely raising his brows, "So it's you, Yan'er, I've heard your father mentioned that you've recently been promoted to a third rank Pill Master last month. Congratulations!"

Feng Xiaoyan's face immediately surfaced two shades of red, "So... you still remember. I thought Divine Doctor Liu was too busy so you don't remember the small matter where I had been promoted!"

Liu Buyan smiled, "How could that be!"

His tone was mellow and with that warm smile, it was easy for others to misunderstand that he bore special feelings towards them, thus missing out on the cold intent and alienation which he hid in the deepest end of his eyes.

"If there's nothing else, we'll make a move first."

"Wait!"

On seeing Liu Buyan about to bring Huang Yueli to leave, Feng Xiaoyan bit her lip but still could not endure it as she opened her mouth.

Liu Buyan's step took a halt, "What other matters are there?"

Feng Xiaoyan's gaze fell onto Huang Yueli as she hemmed and hawed and finally spoke out, "Divine Doctor Liu, this is....."

Liu Buyan turned around to take a look at the young lady beside him and his lips uncontrollably curled upwards, "Oh right, I forgot to do the introductions. This Bai Ruoli Young Miss Bai is my fiancée. She had recently got injured and I'm too worried about her so I brought her over to the Alchemist Guild to stay for some time so everyone, please take good care of her."

"Fi... fiancée??" Feng Xiaoyan's eyeballs almost dropped out. Never in her wildest dreams had she expected to hear such a reply, "You.... since when did you have a fiancée? I.... I don't know about this?"

Liu Buyan's tone was still warm, slow and steady as he continued, "Ruoli and I have been engaged several years ago but as she is still very young, so I didn't specially notify everyone. Now aren't all of you aware already?"

Feng Xiaoyan's eyes widened as though she suffered a huge shock, and she couldn't say a single word momentarily.

After Liu Buyan left the front courtyard with Huang Yueli, the Pill Masters who were crowding around seemed to have exploded as they started to discuss this.

"Have I heard it wrongly earlier? That's.... Divine Doctor Liu's fiancée?"

"What situation is this? Wasn't it said that Divine Doctor Liu had always been extremely flirtatious and there were innumerable ladies who were engaged in ambiguity with him. But no matter what methods they used, there was no way for Divine Doctor Liu to openly recognise them, not to mention an official engagement?”

“That’s right! Moreover this young lass is not only not a Pill Master, she doesn’t even have any Profound Energy fluctuations coming from her, seemingly like an ordinary person! What has Divine Doctor Liu taken fancy of her on?”

“This... as a man, I thought as a man, I can understand Divine Doctor Liu. Even heroes have a weakness for the charms of a beautiful woman, just look at the looks of Young Miss Bai who was standing next to him and you’d know. With this kind of exceptional beauty, which man would not be aroused?”
