Chapter 1901: Who is Li Moying? (2)

In the circle of Pill Masters, Liu Buyan's reputation could only be described as thunder piercing the ears.

The minute he appeared, even though he didn't say a word, everyone's gazes would be concentrated on him so naturally they would not miss the beautiful young lady who appeared right next to him. Everyone had been curious for a long time about the identity of the young lady.

But they weren't like Feng Xiaoyan, who directly posed the question like that.

They had not imagined that Liu Buyan introduced Huang Yueli as his fiancée the moment he spoke out, and that made many of them surprised with shock.

A casanova like Liu Buyan was engaged! This was simply no different from a fantasy story!

For a moment, numerous young ladies who were secretly in love with Liu Buyan were all devastated. Many sourish discussions fell incessantly on the ears.

The more Feng Xiaoyan thought, the angrier she got as she huffed angrily, "Shut up! All of you shut up! Divine Doctor Liu isn't that kind of shallow man, how could he possibly just depend on a woman's looks? He must have been bewitched by that vixen!"

Saying that, she couldn't make herself stay on any longer as she immediately pushed the door open and left.

Whereas on the other side, Liu Buyan brought Huang Yueli and left, as they walked towards a small river behind the rear mountain.

Liu Buyan lowered his head and looked at the young lady by his side and noticed that her expression was calm and her mood was totally not affected at all. He couldn't help but frowned as he asked, "Ruoli, earlier that girl, she's the Alchemist Guild Headquarters' President's daughter, called Feng Xiaoyan. She..."

Liu Buyan wanted to say something but hesitated.

Huang Yueli took a look at him, "That Young Miss Feng likes you, right!"

Liu Buyan hurriedly explained, "Right, but I absolutely have no feeling for her! I only... only have some relations with her father so I merely took more care of her. Speaking of this, she's considered as my junior. Don't ever think too much into this, and don't get angry..."

Huang Yueli blinked and said, "You don't need to be too worried, I'm not angry."

"Really not?"

Huang Yueli looked at him curiously and said, "Why should I be angry? I can tell that your status in the Alchemist Guild is very high and that should mean that you are an able Pill Master right? Adding on to the fact that you're so good looking, it's as normal as it can be for other girls to like you!"

Liu Buyan was stunned, "But, she had already come asking me directly, aren't you jealous at all?"

Huang Yueli bore an innocent look, "Why should I be jealous? Haven't you already explained to her clearly, that you already have a fiancée?"

"You..."

Liu Buyan held her wrist as he stared at her intently, but words failed to refute her.

Right, this lass indeed was logical and it's perfectly normal for someone to like him. He had indeed clarified this matter proactively but she really wasn't jealous at all?

That year when Huang Yueli was with Mu Chengying, although the both of them weren't engaged, they were in an ambiguous relationship but when Huang Yueli got jealous, she absolutely could cause a huge commotion in the entire Blue Profound Sect.....

So in the end, this young lass just didn't like him?

Liu Buyan's heart felt stuffed but he could say nothing about this.

She didn't like him, and that was something which he had predicted. Otherwise he wouldn't need to resort to such underhanded methods before he could keep her by his side.

Liu Buyan heaved a deep sigh but instead, his determination was aroused.

He didn't believe that he couldn't match up to Li Moying! He just made her fall in love with himself!

Another three days passed by and Huang Yueli finally realised just how popular Liu Buyan was in the Alchemist Guild.

As Liu Buyan's "fiancée", no matter where she walked to, she would be surrounded by a group of young ladies who were consumed with jealousy and hatred.

Chapter 1902: Who is Li Moying? (3)

Especially Feng Xiaoyan, she even took the opportunity when Liu Buyan wasn't around, to create trouble for her.

"You're not worthy of Divine Doctor Liu at all!"

"Other than that face, what other parts of you are there to be proud of? Did you think that just based on your looks, you'd be able to keep a man's heart?"

"What sort of vixen tricks did you use to make Divine Doctor Liu get engaged to you?"

Various kinds of sneering and ridicule lingered.

But the strangest thing was Huang Yueli actually didn't feel angry at all. She only lamented in her heart that Liu Buyan indeed was very charming and moreover, a little overprotective for the fairer gender.

There were so many young female Pill Masters and he was actually able to call out each and every one of their names, so it would be strange if he didn't cause wild and fanciful thoughts in them.

Liu Buyan was very anxious about Huang Yueli. Moreover he had plenty of spies in the Alchemist Guild so every single time someone tried to create trouble for her, he would make a timely appearance and help her to solve her trouble.

Initially Liu Buyan was really afraid that Huang Yueli would get angry and regretted his past self-abandonment very much, which was why he had once teased so many young ladies.

But the moment time dragged on, he discovered that Huang Yueli was really indifferent about this. Moreover during this period when he showed her unwavering care and gentle yet determined protection, it was totally unable to stir up any ripples in her heart.

Initially Liu Buyan was frustrated over this and even when Feng Xiaoyan was bullying Huang Yueli, he arrived a little later just so that he could let Huang Yueli know his importance.

But out of his expectations, although Huang Yueli's meridians were under restraint and she had no cultivation at all, but she was able to remain calm and composed, even extremely intensive which made Feng Xiaoyan being spun into circles by her, totally unable to gain any advantages at all.

Liu Buyan liked Huang Yueli and that black bellied intelligence of hers, naturally became an important element.

But she was so incredible, as though she totally didn't need a man's protection and that made Liu Buyan not know where to start from, so that he could make Huang Yueli fall into his arms willingly.

There were times when he even admired Li Moying.

Just what endurance did that man had, to make this talented lady lower down her head to fall in love with him and to cook for him?

As Huang Yueli could not cultivate, her days in the Alchemist Guild were extremely boring.

Hence even though there was always someone who kept on creating trouble for her, she still loved to slip out to have a leisurely tour.

Only thing was Liu Buyan always used the reason where her memories had not returned back to her, refusing to let her leave the boundary of the Alchemist Guild at all.

One fine day, when she returned from a tour around the medicine farm, she heard Liu Buyan's voice from the room next door when she returned back.

She had no intention to eavesdrop but the room door was not closed and a faint voice was heard drifting out.

"... How is Li Moying currently?"

Huang Yueli had turned around and was prepared to leave when she suddenly stopped in her tracks.

Li Moying?

The name which came out from Liu Buyan's mouth seemed like a huge rock which had dropped on the clear and tranquil lake, causing multiple ripples.

Huang Yueli suddenly jolted as her mind started buzzing, feeling waves and waves of dizziness.

Li Moying...

Even though she only heard the pronunciation, but Huang Yueli was already certain of the way the three words were written.

As though, this name had been engraved in the deepest end of her soul with no way of eliminating it, only temporarily being covered by the dirt and ashes.

But even though it was covered in dirt or ashes, she just needed to blow out gently and she would be able to see the traces of it hidden below.

“This Subordinate had followed your instruction and arrived at Sky Emperor City five days ago. I had yet to enter the city when I saw Blue Profound Sect’s notice.”

Chapter 1903: Who is Li Moying? (4)

Blue Profound Sect?

This Sect sounded extremely familiar...

Huang Yueli frowned and tried her best to recall the matters related to Li Moying and Blue Profound Sect.

However, she had been drinking too much medicine recently and that was the Number One Divine Doctor’s exclusive prescription so the medicinal effects were absolutely not something which she could offset just based on pure determination.

So she only felt even more dizzy and if it wasn’t for the fact that she had used her hand to prop herself against the wall in time, she might have just fallen onto the ground.

Whereas the memories in her mind were still blurry and fuzzy.

As though an imposing lofty man’s figure appeared in front of her eyes, but yet seemed to be hidden in the fog, totally unclear to her vision.

The more she tried to take a clear look, the giddier she got.

In the room, Liu Buyan who was dressed in a long white robe was inclined against the chair in the middle with a hand propping his lower jaw, looking afar in a daze, not knowing what he had in his mind.

“... Blue Profound Sect actually put up a notice? What kind of notice?”

The attendant bowed and answered respectfully, “It’s a public announcement to everyone in Sky Emperor City to supply information on your whereabouts and if anyone manages to invite you over to Blue Profound Sect or provides accurate information about you, then they will be able to obtain Blue Profound Sect’s reward.”

“Oh?” Liu Buyan’s brows rose as he was slightly surprised, “This is rather strange. Blue Profound Sect is actually openly gathering information about my whereabouts? Hasn’t their Sovereign recently come out from his closed door? Searching for me with such great fanfare, aren't they afraid that others would suspect... that something had happened to their Sovereign?"

Liu Buyan originally was certain that he wouldn't be found by Li Moying if he hid here, because he knew that there was no way that Li Moying could search for him publicly.

In the end, he had not expected that Li Moying actually pressed his luck!

The attendant replied, "Blue Profound Sect's notice didn't mention the reason on why they were looking for you. This Subordinate heard the news in the streets, that blue Profound Sect Sovereign Mu's disciple Li Moying was heavily injured by someone so they needed you to save his life..."

Liu Buyan was suddenly enlightened, "This move is rather brilliant..."

It was true that Li Moying had suffered a serious injury and there was no need to worry that he would be exposed. Moreover it also locked the status of future Sovereign's successor on him, which became a wonderful excuse to seek Liu Buyan for treatment.

Anyway, no one else knew that Li Moying was Mu Chengying and when they saw his seriously injured look, they naturally would not link it to the great Sovereign at all.

Liu Buyan guessed the fishiness in this and his complexion looked slightly ugly, "then did anyone tell Blue Profound Sect about my whereabouts?"

The attendant replied, "Up until now, they don't seem to have gotten any news about you yet."

Liu Buyan heaved a sigh of relief. When he left with Huang Yueli, he was extremely cautious so he shouldn't have been on watch by anyone but the Alchemist Guild Headquarters' Pill Masters all know that he's here. There was no guarantee that someone might hunger for the Number One Sacred Land's reward and betray him.

After the attendant finished reporting, he thought that his mission was already completed as he bowed his body down as respect and prepared to leave.

Liu Buyan suddenly opened his mouth, "Then... have you heard about anyone mentioning Li Moying's injuries... how was it?"

The attendant went into a blank and pondered over it for a moment before replying, "This Subordinate didn't witness it with my own eyes but I heard some rumours... saying Li Moying was injured by a ninth stage realm peak practitioner and is on the verge of death. He is already unable to get off the bed and Blue Profound Sect had been inviting many eighth ranked doctors to do consultations for him one after another, and they all said that he would not live past these few days."

Chapter 1904: Who is Li Moying? (5)

Liu Buyan's brows furrowed as he entered into deep thoughts.

Although this was within his expectations, but when he really heard that Li Moying was so seriously injured, it still made his heart sink slightly.

Whereas those who were feeling melancholic, other than him, there was another person.

Huang Yueli stood at the blind spot outside the window by the door and eavesdropped on this conversation. Although it was intermittent, but she could still tell that someone was injured, and the injury was extremely serious and they sought Li Buyan's treatment.

The dizziness symptoms had not taken a turn for the better and moreover following that, a sharp piercing pain arose in her inner heart.

Her heart wound around tightly, causing her to be in so much pain that she subconsciously shrank and her feet softened as she accidentally upset a big flower pot at the corner of the wall.

With a loud "Pong", the flower pot rolled onto the ground, shattering into smithereens.

The two men who were conversing in the room revealed a shocked expression, apparently not expecting that anyone would eavesdrop.

Liu Buyan's handsome face sunk and immediately cried out gloomily, "Who's that outside eavesdropping? Get in right now!"

He had always been speaking softly in front of Huang Yueli and this was the first time when Huang Yueli heard a severe voice like him, as she couldn't help but had a great shock. But after hesitating for a moment, she took the initiative and pushed the door open.

When Liu Buyan saw that it was her, he went into a slight stun, "Ruoli? Haven't you gone to the garden for a tour? Why did you suddenly...."

Huang Yueli was slightly embarrassed, "I'm so sorry, I... I didn't intentionally eavesdrop on you. It's just that your door wasn't shut properly and I happened to pass by.... Ughh, you guys continue chatting, continue chatting, I'll make a move first...."

She turned around and wanted to leave. However she suddenly moved and her brain started to become giddy again, causing her to stagger and almost fell down.

Liu Buyan immediately moved towards her and in an instant, he carried her up horizontally.

"No.. no need, aren't you still busy?" Huang Yueli felt uneasy whenever she was too close to him and she started to struggle.

Liu Buyan pursed his lips and didn't say a single word but his firm arms locked her in his arms as he speedily left the study room, putting her down on the bed in her bedroom.

"Your look is rather unwell, have you been resting properly for the past few days? The injury on your head hasn't healed totally and if I don't keep an eye on you, you'd just run out every single day?" Liu Buyan warned her solemnly.

Huang Yueli subconsciously touched her head.

Actually she found it very strange because Liu Buyan kept mentioning that she had injured her head but when she looked at her own reflection in the mirror, she totally couldn't see any scar at all. Wasn't it something which had happened only recently? She had such a bad fall that she even got amnesia so such a serious injury, how did she get well so quickly?

Liu Buyan looked at her sitting obediently and his heart was still strung on the topic which he had been conversing with the attendant so after he instructed her to rest properly, he was about to leave.

Huang Yueli suddenly stretched out her slender hand tugging his sleeve, "Brother... Liu, what were you talking about in the study room earlier?"

Liu Buyan's brows undetectably wrinkled and immediately loosened up.

"Nothing, it's only someone who wants to look for me to do a consultation."

These few days, there had been too many patients who went through various channels to seek Liu Buyan for consultation so he thought that if he explained in this way, Huang Yueli would not question him anymore.

But this time round, he guessed wrongly.

Huang Yueli tugged at his sleeve tightly as she persisted in her interrogation, "Who's looking for you to do a consultation? Do I know him?"

Liu Buyan's heart jumped violently as he gave a hoarse reply, "You don't know him."

Chapter 1905: Who is Li Moying? (6)

Hearing this reply, Huang Yueli's nose wrinkled as she had a puzzled look on her face.

"Really? But hadn't you mentioned someone called... Li Moying earlier? This name sounds really familiar and I feel that I definitely know him."

Liu Buyan heard that and he quickly turned around!

He locked Huang Yueli's shoulders and bent down, leaning his handsome looking face in front of her, staring tightly at her with a tinge of urgency in his voice.

"You... you heard what we were talking about earlier? Then you... what have you recalled?"

Huang Yueli had not expected Liu Buyan to be so agitated as she had a shock and wanted to move backwards to hide but Liu Buyan's fingers gripped her shoulders tightly, holding her weak and fragile body in his grip, rendering her immovable.

"You.... loosen your grip, you're hurting me!"

Hearing that, Liu Buyan suddenly regained his senses as he loosened the strength on his hands but he was still able to lock her down, forcing her to exchange glances with him, "What have you recalled? Regarding Li Moying's matters? Tell me quickly!"

Huang Yueli searched her brain but was still unable to think of anything as her mind went into a state of dizziness, her face paled.

"I... I really can't recall. I only feel that the name sounds very familiar but when I really wanted to try and recall, I just feel that my head is so giddy.... Brother Liu, do I know this Li Moying?"

When Liu Buyan heard that, he silently heaved a relief and the hand which grabbed Huang Yueli's shoulders slowly moved to her back as he gently rubbed her.

“No matter, giddiness is very common so if you can’t recall anything, that means that your injury still hasn’t recovered fully and you must continue to take the medication.... As for the person who you were talking about, you should not know him but prior to your injury, he had sought me several times for a consultation and perhaps that left a deep impression on you.....”

“Oh, so it’s like that.....” Huang Yueli nodded, as though she could completely accept his saying.

But her heart was still puzzled.

Because the feeling that she got from hearing the name Li Moying, was simply too shocking. She had no way to describe that feeling but subconsciously affirmed that this wasn’t like what Liu Buyan said, only just hearing about this name before.....

But Liu Buyan was her fiancé and had always been taking so good care of her, how could he possibly lie to her?

Perhaps she had really thought too much.....

“En that’s right, so you need to recuperate in order to remember everything!”

Huang Yueli nodded her head obediently as her large eyes sparkled. Those long and curly eyelashes casted a shadow making her look gentle, agreeable and obedient.

Liu Buyan’s heart fluttered and lowered his head, he wanted to kiss her.

However, Huang Yueli had already gained some experience in these days and on seeing his expression, she immediately responded and stretched out her hand to cover her mouth.

Liu Buyan kissed the back of her hand and he couldn’t help but frowned, “You... you still can’t accept me getting intimate with you? I’m your fiancée, are you intending to not let me touch you forever?”

Huang Yueli also felt that she shouldn’t do this.

But her body’s instinctive reaction was like that. Every single time Liu Buyan came close to her, she would consciously try to avoid him and sometimes, her actions were even faster than her thoughts!

She said apologetically, “So... Sorry, I haven’t been able to recall the times when we were together in the past so can you give me a little more time to get used to it, alright?”

Liu Buyan stared at her for a moment, then got up and left in huge strides.

Chapter 1906: I’m begging you, please don’t die (1)

Liu Buyan left Huang Yueli’s room and his expression sank down gloomily.

He dared to speak in his study room without closing the door because the study room had been set up with quite a number of mechanisms and arrays so ordinary people couldn’t even get close at all. The minute they were one mile within the radius, they would be discovered by him.

But this time round, Huang Yueli easily hid behind the door and eavesdropped on them but he knew nothing about it at all.....

Bai Ruoli is an Armament Master and that was something which he had heard of but hadn't she lost her memories? Why was it that she could still easily break through those checkpoints?

Moreover when she heard Li Moying's name, she actually became so agitated. Under his repeated feeding of medication, she was still able to have such an intense reaction towards this name....

No one was clearer than him on the effect of this kind of medicine! But....

Did she really love Li Moying that much?

...

In the dark night, Liu Buyan sat alone in the study room, flipping the medical books in his hand.

His thoughts were in turmoil but as a doctor, he knew best that the best way to nurture one's life was to sleep and wake up early, but no matter what, he was unable to sleep.

The flame of the oil lamp on his desk flickered and a drop of flame fell onto his medical book.

Liu Buyan was stunned as he discovered that he had unwittingly flipped to this page, which was related to the treatment of badly damaged primordial spirit...

Subconsciously, he was actually still thinking of how to render treatment to Li Moying....

Liu Buyan closed the book in frustration and casted it aside heavily.

What on earth was he thinking about? Hadn't he already decided sixteen years ago that this man's life and death had nothing to do with him anymore? Moreover speaking, Li Moying had already completely forgotten about the woman who he loved dearly in his past life and no longer admitted the long years of friendship they had. Because of Bai Ruoli, they even had a huge fight!

As long as Li Moying died, he will be able to monopolise Bai Ruoli forever! He no longer need not worry about the day when Bai Ruoli recovers her memories and flies back to Li Moying's side, to help the past life's Huang Yueli take a pass at this man for letting her down!

Moreover speaking, Li Moying wasn't killed by him.

If he was dying, the main reason was because he deserved all these for what he had done. At most he merely did not lift a finger to help and watched him die, and that basically wasn't considered as a sin.....

Liu Buyan repeatedly told himself this and abruptly stood up, preparing to return to the room to rest.

It didn't matter even if he couldn't sleep. He only needed to give himself a sleep inducing pill and that would do the trick.....

But at this moment, the room next door suddenly echoed with a "ping bang" clattering sound, as though something had dropped onto the ground.

Following that a young lady's moans were heard intermittently.

In this kind of silent lonely night, it seemed especially distinct.

Liu Buyan's expression changed as he leapt upwards and rushed into Huang Yueli's bedroom next to his.

The floor had several shattered pieces of ceramic artifacts, apparently thrown down from the bedhead.

On the rosewood bed, a young lady's body was wriggling in the tightly bounded blanket, as she gave out terrified and frightened cries.

Liu Buyan shot forward towards Huang Yueli's bed and looking at her extremely pale countenance with her hair completely drenched in sweat, her head flipped to the left and right on the pillow, deeply entranced in a nightmare.

He patted Huang Yueli's face with a little strength and asked anxiously, "Ruoli, what's the matter? Quickly wake up!"

However, Huang Yueli totally couldn't hear his voice and did not show any signs of regaining consciousness as she continued to gasp in alarm.

"N... No..... NO....."

Liu Buyan spoke out anxiously, "You're having a nightmare! Quickly wake up!"

Chapter 1907: I'm begging you, please don't die (2)

The sweat on Huang Yueli's forehead was getting more and more and no matter how Liu Buyan shook her, she was unable to wake up.

Moreover, she was shaking in fear.

Liu Buyan took her into his arms and tried to comfort her, "Ruoli, don't be afraid, I'm right here and I will protect you.... Be good, don't be afraid...."

Under his low pitched coaxing, Huang Yueli seemed to have calmed down a little as she sprawled against his shoulder, quietening down.

Liu Buyan finally heaved a sigh of relief but it took a little while later when the young lady in his arms started struggling once again.

"N... No.... NO!"

Liu Buyan's brow creased tightly, "Ruoli, don't be afraid. Quickly wake up, what did you dream about? Relax, I'm by your side so nobody can hurt you!"

Huang Yueli mumbled softly but her voice sounded urged and hoarse, which made it hard to hear her clearly.

Liu Buyan leaned close, "Ruoli? What are you saying?"

He put his ear next to Huang Yueli's lips and he even started breathing softly, just because he was afraid that he could not hear the voice of what Huang Yueli was saying.

"Li... Li Moying.... Moying, you can't die! Can't die! I'm begging you, don't die!"

The young lady suddenly screamed out sharply.

Anyone could tell what was the fear which was deeply hidden and engraved in the innermost part of her heart.

At this moment, Huang Yueli who was deeply trapped in the nightmare, seemed to be standing on the edge of a cliff and the surroundings were pitch black. Only hazy moonlight illuminated the small zone right in front of her.

A man stood over there, and from his figure, he seemed tall and lofty, dressed in a dark gold rimmed long robe which made him appear extremely powerful and filled with prestige.

From the first moment Huang Yueli saw him, her heart had been pounding wildly and that anxious and agitated feeling was something which she had never experienced when she was facing Liu Buyan.

She wanted to take a clear look at that man's face but there seemed to be a fog in front of her eyes, obstructing her sight.

Huang Yueli took a step nearer, hoping to take a careful look but at this moment, the man's figure staggered and fell onto the ground.

Huang Yueli then noticed that by his feet was a big puddle of blood trail.

"You're injured??" She asked in shock.

The man didn't reply to her. Even though his back was against the moonlight and his face was concealed in the shadow, but Huang Yueli was still able to sense that he was staring straight at her. Moreover, it was a kind of warm and intense yet dedicated gaze.

Huang Yueli ran over but the rock below the man's feet suddenly started to crumble, as it fell towards the cliff below.

The man's body subsequently rolled towards the side of the cliff.....

"No, NO—!" Huang Yueli screamed in terror as she started running towards the man.

But the speed of the crumbling of the rocks was just too fast and the man swiftly fell off the cliff, dropping down, and down.....

"Moying, I'm begging you, please don't die! Don't die!"

Huang Yueli was bobbing up and down in her nightmare, totally unaware that she had called out the name of her real fiancé.

However, all these had all entered Liu Buyan's ears.

The gentle look on his face started to disappear and his expression turned extremely gloomy.

He had not expected that he had wasted so much effort in feeding Huang Yueli so much medicine and gave so many hints in terms of psychology but in the end, the incident whereby she had unintentionally heard Li Moying's name actually made her dream of him.....

For that one instance, he really wanted to wake Huang Yueli up without a care, to help her regain her memories, telling her that Li Moying was already dead!

Chapter 1908: I'm begging you, please don't die (3)

But when he felt the young lady's soft and tender body, feeling the trembles coming from her fingers, he hesitated again.

What on earth was he trying to do?

Waking her up, telling her the most cruel lie, hurting her so that he could gain her heart?

Moreover.... Li Moying was really going to die.....

Liu Buyan's expression was gloomy and his eyes were filled with complicated emotions as his fingers kept on trembling and after some time, he clenched them into fists.

Huang Yueli leaned against his shoulder as though she was tired of crying and gradually quietened down. This time round, she was no longer in shock.

Liu Buyan sat by her bedside for a very long time and it was until dawn broke when he suddenly got up and turned around to leave.

By the time Huang Yueli woke up, it was already nine and the sky was extremely bright.

She seldom got up so late usually hence when she took a look at the sky outside, she felt a little dazed. She had already forgotten about the whole scenario where she had been tormented by the nightmare for a good half of the night.

She hurriedly washed up and changed her clothes as she walked to the front hall to take her meal. But as she was eating it, she somehow felt that something was amiss.

"Where's Brother Liu? Does he have anything on today?"

Usually no matter how busy Liu Buyan was, he would always rush back to accompany her to have her meals. Although she had overslept today, Liu Buyan didn't appear and that made one feel a little strange.

The female attendant bowed as she replied, "Young Miss Bai, don't you know? Yesterday night, Divine Doctor Liu suddenly decided to leave to do a consultation for someone, and he will only be back after ten days or so."

"Consultation? Who has such great honour to be able to invite him for this?" Huang Yueli blinked.

This period of time, she had seen Liu Buyan accepting multiple invitations for a consultation and many of them were Sky Emperor City Sky Chart's top exponents and Liu Buyan totally ignored all of them as he casually threw those invites away.

Huang Yueli ridiculed him for being too lazy so she had not expected that there was anyone who could actually make him leave in the middle of the night?

The female attendant shook her head, "This.... this servant doesn't know. Before Divine Doctor Liu left, he instructed for Young Miss Bai to recuperate properly and to take your medicine on time. You shouldn't put on lesser clothes just for the sake of being pretty and you must sleep before 9pm at night. If you feel uncomfortable, you can go look for....."

The female attendant was long-winded as she said a pile of things and that made Huang Yueli's head grow big as she called out hastily for her to stop.

"Alright, alright, I know already. You can go now, I don't need anyone to serve me when I'm eating!"

After the female attendant left, Huang Yueli started guessing curiously on the patient's identity while she ate.

Suddenly, the light bulb flashed in her mind.

Right, hadn't she eavesdropped about the conversation that Liu Buyan was having with his guard, that someone by the name of Li Moying in Sky Emperor City was seriously injured and was on the verge of death. Surely the person whom he went to do a consultation for isn't Li Moying right?

From this place to travel to and fro Sky Emperor City, it indeed required ten days and the timing matched perfectly....

But hadn't Liu Buyan said yesterday that Li Moying wasn't an important figure?

Then why was it that he changed his mind when it was evening time?

...

Liu Buyan wasn't around and there was no one to accompany her which made Huang Yueli grow even more bored than before.

She felt that it shouldn't be like this.

Although she had no memories, but she somehow felt that she shouldn't be someone who couldn't find anything to do once she left a man's side. On the contrary, she often left her fiancé aside just because.....

Yi? Just because of doing what? Why can't she recall it any longer?

Huang Yueli's brows furrowed as she pondered over this and had not noticed a few young ladies walking over from the garden.

When they saw her, they started to whisper in one another's ears for a while and subsequently, they started to approach her aggressively.

"Bai Ruoli, so you're hiding right here!"

Chapter 1909: Seen through by her? (1)

Huang Yueli lifted her head to discover the group standing in front of her, were those ladies in the Alchemist Guild who were secretly in love with Liu Buyan and the leader of the pack was the President's daughter Feng Xiaoyan.

Huang Yueli saw through them on first look that this group of ladies came with ill-intentions but she had never treated it as a matter worth concerning over and only spoke out calmly, "Why are you calling me for? We don't seem to be very close, right?"

Feng Xiaoyan had not expected her to be so impolite to the President's daughter and immediately flared up.

"Bai Ruoli, is this how you speak? Get things right, we are all respectable Pill Masters whereas you're just an ordinary person! On what basis do you have to speak to us like this?"

Huang Yueli gave her a fleeting glance, "I wasn't talking to you ladies? You're the ones who wanted to talk to me right?"

"You..."

Feng Xiaoyan was stuffed until she could not say a single word and she immediately got annoyed.

Huang Yueli asked, "Why are you looking for me? If there's nothing else, please move aside because you're blocking my way!"

Feng Xiaoyan gritted her teeth and said, "Bai Ruoli, I'm warning you, you're not allowed to pester Divine Doctor Liu! His identity and his ability isn't something that a useless young lass like you to be worthy of! You're better give up! Don't think that Divine Doctor Liu will definitely marry you in the end, he's merely just toying with you!"

Hearing that, Huang Yueli revealed a mocking smile.

These ladies liked Liu Buyan and had never masked their intentions so she naturally was able to tell.

But when Liu Buyan was in the Alchemist Guild, other than dropping by occasionally to say a few profound words of jealousy, they didn't dare to go overboard, just because they were afraid of Liu Buyan hating them for this.

Now that Liu Buyan had just left, they finally revealed their true faces.....

Weren't they a little impatient!

Huang Yueli swept a glance at them all and gave a light laugh as she opened her mouth.

"You saying these.... aren't you a little too conceited? No matter what, Brother Liu and I are engaged so if he doesn't marry me, could it be that he will marry you?"

This sentence hit their Achilles heel right on the spot and everyone's faces all changed immediately.

They originally had not understood why the usually distinguished and accomplished casual Liu Buyan who acted like a Casanova everywhere suddenly had a fiancée!

Moreover, from the way he looked at this young lady's care, anyone with eyes was able to tell that Liu Buyan values this young fiancée very much, so perhaps it might even be true love!

But... how was this possible?

Liu Buyan could be said to be the man who was most popular in Soaring Heavens Continent. Although Mu Chengying's fame was even brighter than his sixteen years ago, but he had after all disappeared for sixteen years so those younger ladies from prominent families totally had not seen his countenance before.

Moreover, even if it was that year, as Mu Chengying had wooed Huang Yueli relentlessly, what kind of status was Huang Yueli? Who dared to snatch the man from Mythical Flame Palace's Young Palace Lord and there weren't many of them who dared to do so there would probably be more chances to attract Liu Buyan's attention.

This group of phoenixes, actually lost in the hands of a young lass.... no one would feel resigned!

Momentarily, all the ladies present were like cats whose tails had been trodden on, as they all started rebuking out of frustration.

"Bai Ruoli, don't be too smug! So what if you're engaged? You hadn't gotten married isn't it?"

"That's right! Divine Doctor Liu isn't silly at all so how could he possibly get engaged with you? Take a look at yourself, other than a pretty face, what else do you have?"

"That's right! Did you think that just because you look pretty, then you'd be able to keep a man's heart? I'm telling you, Divine Doctor Liu is only looking for a fresh new experience for now and by the time the novelty wears off, he will definitely ditch you!"

"That's right. For someone with a status like Divine Doctor Liu, his wife should be an alchemist genius who is in tune with him! Otherwise her cultivation innate talent should be outstanding, which is barely passable. Of course her status must match him as well, who do you think you are?"

Huang Yueli couldn't help but give a giggle.

These words were indeed really very sour. She thought that she would be very angry when she heard these words because logically speaking, so many ladies like her fiancé and even dared to come over to provoke her, as his fiancée, she should be angry.

But in reality, she only found it comical and at the same time, she sort of pitied these young ladies.

"The man who you like, yet cannot get him, can only ease your pain by using such words. This is really a little pitiful and amusing!" Huang Yueli's lips curled upwards.

Hearing that, these young ladies flared up.

Especially Feng Xiaoyan, she took a step upwards and spoke in an immodest manner, "Bai Ruoli, don't think you have won! I am giving you two choices right now. One: You go pack your own stuff and scam out of the Alchemist Guild right now, vowing never to meet Divine Doctor Liu ever again! Two: I'll get my men to beat you until you are crippled then throw you out!"

Huang Yueli looked at her in astonishment and didn't say a single word.

Feng Xiaoyan assumed that she was afraid and her face revealed a complacent smile.

"I think, even idiots will know what to choose, right? I know that a woman like you who does not even have a little bit of innate talent, just merely using a beautiful face to depend on men with ability, has no way to survive in Soaring Heavens Continent! You relied on Divine Doctor Liu, merely to gain benefits from him!"

“How about this, as long as you leave on your own accord, I won’t let you suffer any disadvantages. I’m the Alchemist Guild Headquarters’ President’s daughter and what we lack least are medicinal pills. Before you leave, I’ll gift you with ten pieces of seventh level upper grade medicinal pills. As long as you take one to sell in the Soaring Heavens Merchant Guild’s auction, you will be able to live in luxury till the end of your life!”

The moment Feng Xiaoyan said that, before Huang Yueli had even expressed anything, the other young ladies present all started to protest.

“Senior Sister Feng, aren’t you a little too nice to this wretched lass! She’s obviously the shameless one who went around seducing men, why are you still giving her seventh level medicinal pills?”

“That’s right, for an ordinary person like her with no innate talent at all, how would she even need to use such a good thing? It’s simply a reckless waste of natural resources!”

“It’s more than enough to give her third levelled medicinal pills, it’d last her for quite some time after it’s sold!”

Seventh levelled upper grade medicinal pills, to mid and low levelled Pill Masters, were a huge fortune which were in sight but unattainable.

Only the President’s daughter Feng Xiaoyan, with great riches, would be able to come out with so many at one go! But, this was already half of her fortune!

Coming out with such a huge sum of money, it wasn’t that Feng Xiaoyan didn’t feel the heartache for it. But from how she looked at it, it was most important now to get rid of Huang Yueli once and for all, so spending this amount of money was necessary.

She coughed, “Stop all your words now! I’ve always been generous so as long as Young Miss Bai leaves the Alchemist Guild, I will immediately send you the gift of these ten seventh levelled medicinal pills, with no regrets at all!”
