Chapter 1941: You want her, or you want your life? (4)

Even though it was just saying, he totally couldn't accept it!

By now, Liu Buyan had already walked right next to Li Moying's bed side and firmly stopped at an extremely near distance in front of him as he looked downwards at him from high up.

"Why? You thought that this would never happen? Do you have that much confidence in Bai Ruoli? Alas, no matter how firm your feelings are for each other, you're going to be a dead man immediately! As long as you die, there will be a day when she will forget about you and she will definitely fall in love with me! Perhaps not one day, not one month then how about one year, two years, or even ten years?"

"After such a long time has passed, you've already become a dead person who cannot return back to life forever whereas I'm the man who remained by her side to protect her every day. Make a guess.. will she fall in love with me?"

Li Moying leaned slightly against the bedhead and kept panting as his sweat rained down on him.

His primordial spirit was extremely fragile and it had already gone beyond the verge of collapse any time.

Earlier he had already extinguished all his might to strike out against Liu Buyan, which pushed him towards the danger zone even further!

Right now, he was feeling dizzy and his head kept on buzzing. His head was in so much pain that it seemed as though it might split open any time.

But Liu Buyan's voice was obviously right next to his ear. However when he heard his voice, it seemed as though it was very roving, as though it came from a far, far place.

But Liu Buyan's words were able to pierce his heart deeply.

Right, he was going to go soon, so no matter how much he was unwilling to die, but... now that things came to such a pass, he had no choice but to admit that the powerful him eventually had things which he was unable to do. There was also an unsurpassable enemy, and that was.... death.

He had reigned the world as he looked with disdain from the corner of his eye, so originally he should have no more regrets but as he fell in love with a woman, it made him unwilling to leave, and neither could he let it go.

He didn't dare to imagine the things which would happen after his death.

Because if Huang Yueli fell in love with another person, he was afraid that even if he was dead, he would not be able to rest in peace as he would climb out of his coffin out of jealousy!

But if she really couldn't forget about him for the rest of his life, staying alone for him for her entire life, he couldn't bear for it to happen.....

Li Moying was actually very clear that if his love was generous enough, he didn't need Liu Buyan to hand Huang Yueli over. He should even encourage them to be together.

This was because Liu Buyan was obviously true to his Li'er and moreover based on the many years of friendship and mutual understanding which they had, as a man, Liu Buyan was absolutely trustworthy.

After his death, if Li'er wanted to be with him, she should... should be able to lead a blissful life....

Li Moying knew that he should do this but unfortunately, he was unable to do it!

It was until now that he realised that he was actually such a selfish man! He was.... and no matter what he couldn't do it. He couldn't even imagine the scenario, because this made his heart ache thoroughly!

He shivered and was unable to respond to Liu Buyan's question, and... he didn't dare to respond.

However, Liu Buyan refused to give in and instead he went even nearer to him.

"You know what I mean. Bai Ruoli will eventually be mine so no matter how you struggle now, it's totally a waste of your effort... isn't it?"

Keep on daydreaming!

Li Moying wanted badly to hurl these words on his face then take care of this man who was coveting his Li'er viciously, just as what he did numerous times to the other pursuers of Huang Yueli's.

But, he could only shut his eyes tightly as he couldn't speak out a single word at all.

Chapter 1942: You want her, or you want your life? (5)

Moments later, the dizziness feeling in his head slowly subsided and the head splitting pain feeling slowly lessened as his eyes sobered up slowly....

This feeling was something which he had not experienced in the past month.

Li Moying was astonished for a moment and he suddenly opened his eyes to see Liu Buyan right in front of him. Moreover, his slender long fingers were holding firmly onto a long and thin gold needle.

"You..." Li Moying's eyes widened as he stared at that aloof handsome face.

Liu Buyan withdrew the gold needle as he cast a cold glance at him.

"How is it? Do you feel much comfortable now? I've told you this long ago that other than me, no one else can save you! As long as I take action, not to mention anything else, just allowing you to live for another three to five years is absolutely not a problem. I can tell that your innate talent for this lifetime isn't bad at all, even stronger than in your past life. Perhaps in these remaining last years of yours, you will be able to breakthrough to the tenth stage realm to reach God Realm. By then, perhaps your Soul Detachment Illness will have a cure!"

What Liu Buyan said was the entire truth, and Li Moying knew this clearly in his heart.

Honestly speaking, if what Liu Buyan wanted was not his beloved woman, but any other price to pay, as long as he had a sliver of hope to continue living and to take care of his Li'er, Li Moying really could accept any other requests.

But, unfortunately.....

Li Moying fell silent for several moments and said, "I don't understand what you mean? You are saving me now, aren't you afraid that after I break through to the tenth stage realm, I'd return to exact revenge on you? As long as I'm alive, there will be a day when I will breakthrough the peak condition in my past life!"

Liu Buyan gave a cold humpf and said, "Of course I know that. So if you want me to save you, you must follow the ancient oath and swear to the heavens that you will never go near Bai Ruoli ever again. Not only should you not meet her, you should also cut off any forms of contact with her. You must drink my specially prescribed Unfettered Void Memory medicine, and forget about Bai Ruoli for the rest of your life!"

Li Moying's expression suddenly changed!

Although he knew that the condition which Liu Buyan listed out would be this.

But when he really heard him saying this, it still made his inner heart feel shocked! At the same time, he was deeply humiliated and resentful!

He clenched his teeth to say out the words one after another, "It – is – impossible!"

"It's absolutely impossible for me to use my woman as a trade in order for me to lengthen my life span! Li'er isn't some commodity which could be traded! She is a human!"

Liu Buyan laughed quietly, "That's right, she's a human! So I've never said that I wanted her to do anything for you, isn't it? It's Bai Ruoli's freedom to like anyone. What I want you to promise is something that you alone is capable of doing! Never to see her ever again! Even if one day, your Soul Detachment Illness is completely cured, you are not allowed to meet her!"

"You...!!!"

Li Moying's lower jaw suddenly turned taut as his entire body turned extremely stiff, totally rendering him immovable.

This kind of condition.... How could he possibly agree to it?

Long ago, he had already casted his own life and death aside. Originally the only pull factor which triggered him to stay alive was to stay alive in order to take care of Huang Yueli properly, to pamper her and to see her leading a life without worries under his own protection.

If these all became bubbles, and he still needed to see her being lovey-dovey with other men.....

Chapter 1943: You want her, or you want your life? (6)

If this was the case, even if his Soul Detachment Illness was completely cured and he was able to break through to the tenth stage realm becoming a peerless invincible top exponent, what was the point in that anymore?

It would be better if he was dead!

“How is it? Very hard to decide?” Liu Buyan asked indifferently.

Li Moying gave a resolute reply, “I’ve already put things very clearly, this is impossible! Scram! And don’t think that you’re able to hide Li’er for life, I will definitely save her!”

“Hope that you will have enough lifespan to stay alive until that day!”

Liu Buyan didn’t bother to continue getting tangled up with him but got up resolutely as he turned around and prepared to leave.

When he reached the door, his footsteps suddenly halted as he turned back his head to take a look at the man leaning on the bed.

“At least we are old acquaintances and I can still give you one last chance. I will be staying in Sky Emperor City for a total of seven days and if you have thought through this during this period of time, you can ask your men to come look for me anytime! Don’t blame me for not reminding you, your illness could at most be dragged on for seven days. If you haven’t considered carefully within these seven days, even I will not be able to turn around the hopeless situation...”

“By then, I will remember to go to your grave and thank you for giving up an exceptional beauty like Bai Ruoli with both your hands to me...”

When Li Moying heard what he said, the piercing pain in his heart stabbed hard as his hands suddenly clenched into fists.

Alas, his Profound Energy had been completely drained and there was no way that he could forcibly work up any energy to attack Liu Buyan any further.

After Liu Buyan was done, he didn’t even turn back to take any look at him as he strode off leisurely, walking out directly.

“Divine Doctor Liu, you... you’re just going to leave Sovereign in the lurch? Have you forgotten about how you and Sovereign were best buddies in the past? How many times had the both of you braved through life and death scenarios and saved each other’s lives? How could you be so heartless? How could you watch him dying with your eyes wide open? Have you really turned so cold blooded to this stage, totally not considering any past relations?”

Liu Buyan looked at him silently as the corners of his lips twitched as though he wanted to say something but then he endured it.

After some time, he gave a long sigh, "Leave now! The matters between Li Moying and I, aren't something that you can dabble in!"

Cang Po Jun became anxious as he continued to speak out, "Divine Doctor Liu, This Subordinate knows that I can't dabble in these matters but... no matter what grudges you two have, Sovereign is about to die! Do you really want to see him dying in front of you? This Subordinate begs you....."

Saying that, he plopped kneeling onto the ground.

Liu Buyan's brows creased as he stretched out his hand to hold on to him.

"Get up! What do you mean by this? If I am able to see him die, would I have made this trip?"

The simplest way for him to get Bai Ruoli was just to wait until Li Moying died quietly. He did not even need to come over to Blue Profound Sect, nor did he need to do anything. He just needed to wait... and Li Moying would die naturally!

But, he still came....

He didn't know what was wrong with himself. In the dead of the night, where the moon was bright and stars were few, before he even realised it himself, he had already dashed out of Huang Yueli's room out of the Alchemist Guild Headquarters valley as he proceeded on the trip towards Sky Emperor City.

Huang Yueli's tears made him feel heartache, but only he himself knew that the reason why he left, was absolutely not only because of her nightmare.

Chapter 1944: Freeloader (1)

Li Moying... was the inner demon which resided in his heart!

Once, he was his best buddy and the two of them had experienced innumerable difficult situations.....

If Li Moying really died like this, if he obviously could save him, but yet watch him die in front of him....

From the moment that Liu Buyan abducted Huang Yueli, he had actually sworn that he would absolutely not return to Blue Profound Sect.

But every single day that he spent in the Alchemist Guild, he was being tormented deeply inside his heart.

So, at last he could not take this kind of pressure and returned to Blue Profound Sect.

But for him to do a consultation for Li Moying like this, watching this man get well by the day, being together with his beloved woman whereas he could only be a bystander forever just like sixteen years ago... he wasn't resigned to it!

Under Liu Buyan's calm appearance, his inner heart was on the verge of degrandement!

Cang Po Jun heard the hesitation in his tone and his heart leapt with joy as he asked anxiously, "Divine Doctor Liu, This Subordinate knows that you will not ignore Sovereign! Will you please follow This Subordinate back please!"

Liu Buyan spoke with a chill in his voice, “It’s not that I’m not willing to do a consultation for him, but... he himself who doesn’t want to do it! Anyway he still has the last seven days and if you want your Sovereign to continue living his life, then remember to advise him to not make life difficult for himself! That’s all I have to say!”

Cang Po Jun was at a loss, “Divine Doctor Liu, these words.... What do you mean?”

However, Liu Buyan had no wish to explain further as he flicked his sleeves and with a leap, he disappeared in the dark night.

In the silent night.

“Sob sob sob, Father, your daughter is in so much pain, so miserable... my fingers are so painful and I totally can’t move it at all, surely I’m not really finished right? Will I really not be able to refine pill anymore? Father! You must take revenge for me!”

Feng Xiaoyan laid on the pillow as she bellowed loudly.

Her sadness really was from the depths of her heart because she was really too miserable today!

Originally she thought that things were perfect and she would be able to chase Huang Yueli out of the Alchemist Guild today, then secretly do away with her love rival outside the Alchemist Guild.

In the end, things turned out contrary to her wishes and not only did Huang Yueli remained safe and sound, instead her fingers suffered from a second round of injury and this time round, it really was untreatable!

Moreover, after this round of confrontation, her reputation had been swept onto the ground as all the Elders in the Alchemist Guild were all dubious towards her character. The noble daughter image which she had painstakingly built up was totally ruined!

Feng Zhensheng heard her cries and was as frustrated as he could be.

He had already been dissatisfied since some time ago and on hearing her endless crying, he finally could not help but berated her angrily, “Cry cry cry, you still have the cheek to cry! I’m the one who wants to cry! I believed that you wouldn’t tell any lies hence I found Bai Ruoli to seek justice for you! In the end? You actually found two people to commit perjury and was even exposed in front of everyone! How do you want me to continue being the President from now on? Who else will believe that I am impartial when I deal with matters?”

Feng Xiaoyan cried even more miserably, “Father, I didn’t lie to you. My fingers are injured, really.. It is really caused by Bai Ruoli!”

Feng Zhensheng was still upset as his eyes popped out and he was blowing his mustache, totally not believing in her gibberish.

“You say she’s the one who harmed you? Where’s your evidence? What she said this afternoon in the main hall is correct, she’s just an ordinary person without an ounce of Profound Energy! Just based on her, would she have the guts to find trouble with a big group like you guys? And also the self-destruction mechanism in the Books Depository, only successive Presidents know about it, even Liu Buyan is unclear of where it is! How could she possibly trigger the mechanism? At this juncture, you’re still trying to lie to me?”

Feng Xiaoyan felt extremely aggrieved by his strict accusation and thinking of her injured fingers, the sorrow seemed to flow out from her heart as she cried out loudly.

“Father, it’s really not like this! Your daughter has really been harmed by that little slut! Yes, I lied to everyone and I was the one who made trouble for her but later on the fire at the Books Depository and my fingers getting injured, were all caused by her! Father, I’m your biological daughter. Can you bear to see me becoming so miserable and not exact revenge for me?”

When Feng Zhensheng heard her crying so sadly, he frowned and started to have misgivings.

After all she was his adored daughter. Seeing her in this state, Feng Zhensheng naturally felt a heartache.

“What on earth is going on? Tell me clearly and this time round, you can’t lie to me anymore! Otherwise, even if Father wanted to help you take your revenge, I have no idea how to!”

“Yes, I... I don’t dare to lie to Father....”

Feng Xiaoyan didn’t dare to lie this time round as she hurriedly wiped her tears and spoke chokingly as she described the exact round of events that happened a few days ago.

The more Feng Zhensheng heard, the more doubtful he got, “So your meaning is, a trash without any innate talent like her, was able to defeat your group of at least third stage realm practitioners with just a few punches and kicks? Is this for real?”

Feng Xiaoyan hurriedly emphasized, “It’s true, it’s really true! What I said this time is the absolute truth! I swear to Heaven that if I were to say another false sentence, my fingers will never heal forever!”

This oath, to a Pill Master, was the most vicious kind!

When Feng Zhensheng heard that, he simply had no way to suspect that Feng Xiaoyan was lying.

But what she said made one feel that it was totally unfathomable!

“Alright, even if you lasses concentrate more on refining pills every day and not know how to cross hands with anyone thus falling into her scheme. But later on the reason for the fire was indeed because the self-destruction mechanism had been triggered! It is impossible for her to know what to do! Could it really be such a coincidence?”

“No, impossible! This is absolutely not a coincidence! I saw it with my own eyes that she ran towards that corner! At that time she was totally able to leave the Books Depository courtyard, but she insisted on running to that dead end which is totally illogical. She did that on purpose because she wanted to burn all of us alive!” Feng Xiaoyan exclaimed anxiously.

“But, this totally isn’t explainable...”

No matter how he cracked his brain, he could never have imagined that this little young lass, following beside Liu Buyan, with beauty but was a piece of trash, was the once famous exceptional peerless top exponent Huang Yueli!

Feng Xiaoyan cried as she spoke, “Father, what your daughter said is all true! I turned out like this because I was harmed by that little slut, so you must help me exact my revenge! You absolutely cannot allow her to roam about freely here!”

Feng Zhensheng had already believed in her words.

“Alright, Father believes in you, but you don’t have any evidence at all!”

Chapter 1946: Freeloader (3)

“Now all the Elders already believe that she is innocent and you don’t have any hard evidence to prove that she had indeed harmed you intentionally! Moreover her identity is that of Divine Doctor Liu’s fiancée so if we don’t have any evidence, it’s not possible for her to be punished at all.”

Feng Zhensheng’s expression was gloomy as his tone slowly started to analyse the situation.

After the farce today, her trustworthiness had already gone bankrupt and the Elders were no longer willing to believe in her.

Feng Zhensheng said, “Anyway for this matter, we have to consider at length...”

Suddenly, Feng Xiaoyan seemed to have thought of something as her eyes lit up, “Father! I have an idea! I have a way to make Bai Ruoli scam out of the Alchemist Guild

Feng Zhensheng went into a blank, “What idea?”

Feng Xiaoyan’s eyes flashed past a cold intent as she spoke out chillingly, “Father indeed cannot make her leave for no reason but there is someone who is different. If that someone chased that little slut away, I’m sure even Divine

Feng Zhensheng’s glare turned profound, “You mean to say.... That person?”

Feng Xiaoyan nodded vigorously, “That’s right! Since we have no evidence, then we shouldn’t keep tangling about the matter regarding the Books Depository so if we make that wretched lass commit a big offence, then chase her out of the Alchemist Guild then take care of her, can't we just do that? As long as we send her over to that person's side, a trash like her would probably not last for even three days and she would be chased out! By then..."

"You're the intelligent one, then.... Let's do it in this way!"

The next morning, Huang Yueli had just woke up when she was brought over to Feng Zhensheng's courtyard.

Feng Zhensheng was considered to be rather courteous to her as he made the servants brought tea and snacks over.

But Huang Yueli was holding on to the tea cup as she didn't put on any expression but she kept on brooding over this in her heart.

After yesterday's conflict, Feng Zhensheng father and daughter duo had already made a fool. out of themselves and yet today he still dared to look for her, and in such a friendly manner so it was just too abnormal!

If something was too abnormal, there must be something phantom about it!

She had to guard against him carefully.

As expected, after drinking the tea, Feng Zhensheng opened his mouth and tried to probe, "Young Miss Bai, I've already sent someone to find out about this. Divine Doctor Liu's consultation this round needs a total of ten over days and he might not even be able to make it back by then! You should feel very bored in the Guild right? Have you thought about finding something to do while you're here?"

Huang Yueli's brows rose, "What kind of things?"

Feng Zhensheng replied, "Have you not considered about learning something related to refining pills? Divine Doctor Liu is Soaring Heavens Continent's Number One Pill Master but you know nothing about pill refining at all so how are the two of you going to sing in harmony in future?"

Huang Yueli heard that and placed the tea cup back on the table as she smiled and said, "President Feng's words indeed is logical but I heard that in order to become a Pill Master, one must at least have third grade talent and above in both Wood and Fire attributes! For someone like me, there should be no hope right?"

Feng Zhensheng fiddled with his mustache as he laughed, "Hehe, although Young Miss Bai doesn't have Wood and Fire attributed innate talent, but you're attentive and meticulous so you're suited very much to be a Pill Master's assistant."

"Assistant? What does that role do?" Huang Yueli asked curiously.

Feng Zhensheng was beaming as he replied to her question, "An assistant's job is to help the Pill Master tidy up the medicinal herbs, to sort out the medicinal ingredients."

Chapter 1947: Freeloader (4)

Feng Zhensheng realised that she didn't take the bait and anxiously added, "Young Miss Bai, a veteran Pill Master, in order to raise the efficiency of pill refining, would always find an assistant to help them. Every time Divine Doctor Liu refines medicine, many young female Pill Masters would be fighting to become his assistant. This lone man and woman, if they were to stay together for a couple of nights, would you be assured?"

Huang Yueli was pondering over this as she said, "President Feng means....."

Feng Zhensheng hurriedly added, "If you are able to learn how to distribute the medicinal ingredients yourself, then won't you be able to help Divine Doctor Liu arrange his medicinal herbs? It will also inevitably stop the other young ladies from having the chance to take advantage of the void, don't you think so?"

After Feng Zhensheng finished his words, he started straight at Huang Yueli, just waiting for her to nod her head and later jumping up to show her gratitude.

The result was, whoever knew that, Huang Yueli retained the dazed look on her face as she said innocently, "President Feng, you must have thought too much into this? I have never seen Brother Liu needing any assistant when he's refining pills, he doesn't seem to have this habit?"

The minute she said that, even Huang Yueli herself was slightly surprised.

How did she know that Liu Buyan normally didn't require an assistant? Could it be that her memory had recovered?

But after thinking about this carefully, she felt a little headache and plus the fact that the occasion wasn't right, she could only give up on this.

Actually, to this question, Huang Yueli herself didn't know the answer but she knew how she should reply to this question so she nodded her head without any hesitation, "I know, we are fiancé and fiancée so when Brother Liu refines pills, of course he wouldn't avoid me right?"

"Hehe, so it's like this....." Feng Zhensheng laughed dryly and for a moment in time, he didn't know how to continue from here.

High ranking Pill Masters mostly had many exclusive prescriptions and special ways of refining pills so when they were refining pills, most of them were taboo about others watching them, unless the audience were their own disciples who would then have a chance to take a look by the side.

Even if there were assistants, generally after they had arranged the medicinal ingredients, they would deliver it to the entrance of the Pill refining room and leave.

Liu Buyan actually didn't put up any guard against this young lass who had no abilities at all? It was simply out of one's expectations...

Feng Zhensheng's expression wasn't very well but there was someone who was even unhappier than him.

"Bai Ruoli, stop trying to boast! How would Divine Doctor Liu possibly allow you to see him refine pills? A wretched woman like you, obviously fawned on him just because of his status and identity! How could he possibly not guard against you?"

She had been eavesdropping outside the door just waiting to see Huang Yeuli run into bad luck, but in the end she actually heard such abstract loving words.

Although Huang Yueli really didn't mean it and she absolutely had no intention of showing off, but to Feng Xiaoyan's ears, these words were still as sharp as a needle, making her heart feel bouts of sharp pain!

Even for an outstanding Pill Master genius like her who wanted to learn the skills of pill refining from Liu Buyan, it was absolutely something impossible!

Even if she wanted to be his assistant, she had been rejected without any hesitation. Liu Buyan didn't even avoid the taboo as he just said it was all to keep his secrecy!

But now that he met this wretched lass Bai Ruoli, he need not keep his secrecy any longer?

This wretched lass's pure and innocent look was all pretence and her bones were more vicious and sinister than anyone else!

Divine Doctor Liu had been cheated by her!

Chapter 1948: Freeloader (5)

Feng Xiaoyan was so exasperated that she couldn't endure it and ran out.

When Huang Yueli heard Feng Xiaoyan's utterly discomfited scolding, not only was she not angry, she even revealed a sliver of smile at her.

"Young Miss Feng, judging from your energetic and booming voice, the injury on your fingers... should have recovered already?"

This was really mentioning the pot that didn't boil as Feng Xiaoyan's expression changed and her fingers started to hurt once again.

Recalling yesterday night, where so many doctors were crowded around her giving her treatment for such a long time, eventually all of them shook their heads as they left with sunken expressions... her heart was simply bleeding!

“Bai Ruoli, you slut! You intentionally stepped on my fingers yesterday, don’t you think that you can bluff all the Elders and get over this! I will not let you off!”

Huang Yueli put on an extremely startled look as she drew in a breath of cold air.

“This.... what are you saying! Yesterday was really an accident! How would I have expected that you would roll of the chair in front of so many people, all across the entire main hall, just nicely rolling behind me.....”

For someone who was famous for being a dignified young daughter rolled around like a ball, in a dishevelled state so this matter was one of the most embarrassing matters that happened to Feng Xiaoyan.

She had not expected Huang Yueli to speak about this matter the minute she spoke out and it angered Feng Xiaoyan so much that her seven orifices were smoking.

“Little slut, you’re looking for death!!”

Feng Xiaoyan was flustered and exasperated as she dashed up and wanted to hit her.

At the same time, Feng Zhensheng had also reacted over as he hastily blocked himself in between the both of them while frowning, “Enough! Yan’er, I am talking about official matters with Young Miss Bai! You just suddenly ran out and even spew such slanderous speech, what do you mean by this? If anyone else were to hear this, wouldn’t they say that I Feng Zhensheng doesn’t know how to discipline my daughter?”

Feng Zhensheng was feeling dissatisfied. Originally the both of them had already discussed this and he was to persuade her with kind words in order to make her fall into their trap but in the end, Feng Xiaoyan had actually lost her cool!

Popping out at this very moment and hurling abuses at Huang Yueli, wasn’t this spoiling their proper business?

His harsh tone seemed to have jolted Feng Xiaoyan and after giving Huang Yueli a vicious stare, she temporarily shut her gap.

Feng Zhensheng hurriedly coughed as he said, “Young Miss Bai, This President advices you to think about this carefully. This time the person who is recruiting Pill Master apprentices is not anyone else, but Divine Doctor Liu’s Master. This is a good opportunity whereby all the younger disciples in the Alchemist Guild were fighting over and it’s exactly because your relationship with Divine Doctor Liu, hence the elderly man agreed to recruit you...”

When he said that, it made Huang Yueli shocked.

“What? You’re saying.... Liu Buyan’s Master? Is his Master still alive?”

“Presumptuous, what thing are you? How dare you say that about Divine Doctor Dai?” Feng Xiaoyan couldn’t help but scolded out.

“Yan’er!” Feng Zhensheng stared at her before he continued speaking to Huang Yueli, “I did not imagine that you also knew about Divine Doctor Dai’s matters? This President knows that there are rumours in the outside world that Divine Doctor Dai has already passed on. Actually, he had been living in seclusion in the Alchemist Guild Headquarters and had not been bothered about the worldly affairs for many years.”

She seemed to have recalled something blurry from long ago.

It seemed that she had indeed heard about this, that Liu Buyan was an offspring from a prestigious family and his Master Dai Boqi was a ninth ranked Pill Master. But later on the disciple surpassed the Master so he automatically yielded on the title of the Number One Divine Doctor.

Chapter 1949: Freeloader (6)

As Dai Boji’s age was indeed very old, rumoured to be at least over five hundred years old, hence many people spread the rumour that he had already died of old age.

She had not expected that, he was still alive?

Feng Zhensheng continued to say, “Old Divine Doctor Dai’s medical skills are something which everyone could see with their own eyes. Moreover the disciples he taught were first rate so every time his courtyard was short of manpower, numerous young Pill Masters would fight over this to get enrolled. You are Divine Doctor Liu’s fiancée so in future there would be times when you need to have dealings with Divine Doctor Dai so if you learn properly from him, as long as you’re able to maintain on good relationship with Divine Doctor Dai, Divine Doctor Liu will definitely be ecstatic.”

Feng Zhensheng kept on persuading her patiently, as though he was thinking on her behalf.

Feng Zhensheng’s words sounded as though there wasn’t anything wrong with it and not only was there no issue, it seemed as though he had even done her a great favour!

Like what he said, as Liu Buyan’s fiancée, going over to Dai Boji to become his apprentice, would not only enable her to gain knowledge on pill refining, moreover it will also enable her to get into a good relationship with Liu Buyan’s Master so it was really a task with many benefits.

But she didn’t believe that the sky would drop a cake for no reason.

Feng family’s father-daughter duo should be waiting for a chance to get rid of her, so even if it was because of Liu Buyan’s sake, they wouldn’t dare exact revenge on her in the open, but there was also no reason for them to help her in this way.

There.... was definitely a plot in this!

Huang Yueli pondered over this as she said, “This matter.... can you give me some time to consider it?”

Before Feng Zhensheng could say a word, Feng Xiaoyan wasn't able to endure it as she started to exclaim loudly, "What else do you have to consider? Father has already given you such a good opportunity and you're still nitpicking? To tell you the truth, we Alchemist Guild do not rear freeloaders and everyone in the Guild has to work! Don't think of just relying on Divine Doctor Liu's face to freeloader to pass time! If you're not willing to be an apprentice, then be like the female attendant to sweep the streets! Otherwise, scam out of the Alchemist Guild Headquarters!"

"Yan'er!" Feng Zhensheng frowned as he pretended to be very angry but the words that came out of his mouth were, "Although we Alchemist Guild indeed has this regulation, but Young Miss Bai is after all still young and she's Divine Doctor Liu's fiancée..."

He intentionally said this, seemingly as though he understood Huang Yueli's situation but in fact he was hinting that if she refused to work, it would be intentionally taking advantage of the Guild.

Generally young ladies had thinner skin and when they heard these words, they would definitely feel utterly embarrassed and would immediately express that they would work hard to contribute to the Guild with their humble efforts.

Alas, Huang Yueli's skin was totally not thin at all.

Not only was she not ashamed, instead she put on a relieved expression.

"President Feng, you're just too nice! Thank you for your understanding, I'd better rest a little while more! To tell the truth, the injury on my head hasn't totally recovered until now and sometimes when I walk, I will still feel giddy."

She stood up, "If there's nothing else, I'll make a move first!"

Feng Zhensheng had a dazed look when he saw her, apparently not expecting that this would be her reply!

Feng Xiaoyan was also stunned for a moment and by the time she regained her senses, Huang Yueli had already left without even turning her head back.

This kind of medicinal soup was exactly the soup which Liu Buyan made her drink every day.

Although he wasn't in the Guild, but the female attendants still followed according to his request to brew the medication for Huang Yueli on time daily.

Chapter 1950: Pill Master's apprentice (1)

Huang Yueli stretched out her hand as she lifted the bowl of medicinal soup and a nose piercing bitter whiff was inhaled making her frown unbearably.

This medicine was really very hard to swallow!

For an instance, she couldn't wait to throw it all away.

But after hesitating for a moment, she put the bowl by the side of her lips as she lifted up her head and downed the entire bowl.

She wasn't a small child so no matter how bitter the medicine was, it would go away after a little endurance! Most importantly, she had to resume her memories as soon as possible.

During this period where she had lost her memories, she felt extremely frustrated internally and she could not sleep well every night.

She heard from the female attendant that she would often moan and sleep talk in the middle of the night, as though she was extremely terrified and frightened, but when she woke up the next morning, she wasn't able to recall the dream which she had last night.

This kind of situation made her seriously lack a sense of security and coerced her to search for her lost memories even more anxiously.

However, although she persisted in taking the medication daily, but her amnesia symptoms didn't seem to have taken a good turn physically.

This was a reaction which she would encounter every single time after she finished the medication.

Hence she wasn't anxious over this. Instead she laid down calmly on the bed and drifted off to sleep not too long later.

By the time she woke up again, the sky had already turned pitch dark.

Huang Yueli couldn't help but creased her brows. Unknowingly, another day passed by and the duration of her giddiness seemed to have lengthened? Somehow she felt that this wasn't a good sign.

However, Liu Buyan wasn't around and she didn't feel good about finding someone else to take her pulse because anyone might be Feng Zhensheng father-daughter duo's lackey.

The female attendant brought in a tray containing her dinner as she walked in, "Young Miss Bai, you're finally awake, do you want to have your dinner?"

Huang Yueli nodded her head as she sat beside the table and picked up her chopsticks but hesitated for a moment before she suddenly asked, "Do you know.... about Divine Doctor Dai, Dai Boqi, is he still staying within the Alchemist Guild Headquarters?"

The female attendant wasn't surprised by her question and she instantly smiled.

"Know, of course I know. Divine Doctor Dai is Divine Doctor Liu's Master and I heard that he used to be a ninth ranked Pill Master. Only it was rumoured that he's already very old and his health isn't very good so he had been recuperating in seclusion. Are you intending to pay a visit to this elderly man?"

Huang Yueli didn't reply to her question but was seemingly in deep thought, "Since he is Brother Liu's Master.... His medical skills should be very good?"

Female attendant replied, "This servant doesn't know all these but had once heard the other Pill Masters mentioned about this. In terms of medical skills, Divine Doctor Liu had already surpassed his Master long ago. I heard that back then when Divine Doctor Liu explored the ancient mystic regions with Blue Profound Sect's Sovereign Mu, they had once activated a God grade Divine Doctor's treasury and obtained many God Realm's ancient records hence he formed his own style of medical skills. But Divine Doctor Dai is said to specialise in treating brain and meridians damage, and this aspect is even more outstanding than Divine Doctor Liu..."

When Huang Yueli heard that, she got excited and her hand trembled as she dropped the chopsticks onto the floor.

The female attendant had a shock, "Young Miss Bai, are you alright?"

Huang Yueli then regained her senses as she picked up the chopsticks and smiled, "Nothing. Tomorrow morning please make some preparations, I'll head over to pay a visit to his Divine Doctor Dai."

Her giddiness symptoms were becoming more serious and she was still worried about who to seek for a consultation.

Since Liu Buyan's Master specialised in this sort of illness, then he should be the best suited candidate.
