Chapter 2009: Examine on the spot (7)

From what Feng Zhensheng thought, Dai Boqi had probably been angered to the max and definitely would not take a look at those medicinal herbs.

Originally, whether he saw or not wouldn't make any difference. Only a ghost would believe that Huang Yueli was really able to differentiate the medicinal herbs out.

However, Dai Boqi's reaction was totally out of everyone's expectations.

He stared at Feng Zhensheng with a gloomy look but he still stretched out his hand to pick out the medicinal herb on the ground.

Dai Boqi pinched the roots at the bottom of the medicinal herb and slowly injected his Profound Energy within. Following that, his face revealed a shocked expression as his gaze brushed past Huang Yueli.

Seeing that young lass standing not too far away, using a pair of big eyes with a composed but innocent look, that petite yet dainty and graceful small face looked enchanting.

Dai Boqi's brows furrowed as his hand waved, and he swept this stalk of medicinal herb aside, immediately moving on to the next stalk.

This time round, his action was even faster. The instance his finger touched the medicinal herb, he already injected his Profound Energy and immediately following that, he threw the medicinal herb aside.

Following that was the third stalk, the fourth stalk.....

Very quickly, the inspection on all seven stalks of medicinal herbs had been completed.

Dai Boqi had a profound look on his face as his brows were worn up tightly, as he kept sizing up Huang Yueli but didn't said a single word.

Feng Xiaoyan assumed that Dai Boqi would sweep Huang Yueli out of the door very soon but in the end after a long wait, there was no signs at all and she couldn't wait any longer hence she opened her mouth and spoke out directly, "Divine Doctor Dai, now the truth is very clear already, this wretched lass who is full of lies, it's better to chase her out quickly! Don't let her continue staying here, to disturb your rest..."

"Shut up!"

Before Feng Xiaoyan could finish her words, she heard Dai Boqi barking sharply, interrupting her.

She had a shock as she spoke out in trepidation, "Div... Divine Doctor Dai?"

Dai Boqi ignored her but turned towards Huang Yueli as he frowned and asked, "How on earth did you manage to do it? This is simply impossible? You indeed don't have any Earth attributed Profound Energy, what method did you use to differentiate these medicinal herbs?"

Huang Yueli shook her head and said, "This... I myself also don't understand it. When I was touching these medicinal herbs, I could naturally sense it and totally don't need to inject any Profound Energy intentionally. But I really don't understand what is the reason for this..."

Dai Boqi waved her hand at her and said, "This is indeed rather strange... come over, let this old man check your pulse to have a look....."

Huang Yueli couldn't hope for anything more than this as she walked over quickly.

Dai Boqi indicated for Huang Yeuli to sit down as she placed her wrist on the short table and later stretching out three fingers, he placed them on her pulse.

Dai Boqi slowly injected his Profound Energy and it went along Huang Yueli's meridians, carefully checking in detail.

Not too long later, his eyes turned wide as he gave a surprised "Hmm".

Huang Yueli knew that this old man seemed to have found out something as she quickly asked, "Divine Doctor Dai, my body... is there something not right with it?"

Dai Boqi's brows frowned even tightly, as his hand was placed on Huang Yueli's wrist and the other slowly fiddled with his long beard when he spoke out in a deep voice, "This... is really strange... your condition...it should be... but how could this be possible?"

"How is it exactly?" Huang Yueli saw his solemn expression as she asked anxiously.

Whoever knew that not only did Dai Boqi didn't answer her question, he retracted his hand and said, "No matter, acknowledge me as your Master first."

"Acknowledge as Master??"

After a moment later, many voices simultaneously were heard from different directions.

Huang Yueli had yet to reply when the others already started screaming out loudly.

"Acknowledge him as Master? Why is it that Bai Ruoli can still acknowledge him as Master? Hasn't her lies already been exposed?" Shu Yali cried out in disbelief.

Feng Xiaoyan was even more exasperated, "That's right! Divine Doctor Dai, what's the matter with you? This wretched lass had treated these valuable sixth levelled medicinal herbs as cabbages and also ruined so many of them, but yet not able to find out one single stalk of Nine Leaf Lingzhu at all! She should be made to compensate for the damages then thrown out of the Guild! You... why do you still allow her to acknowledge you as Master?"

Feng Zhensheng also said, "Divine Doctor Dai, you absolutely cannot be cheated by this lass any further!"

The other Pill Masters all revealed the same indignant expression, apparently, totally unconvinced.

When Dai Boqi saw that, he gave a cold humph and said, "Why? All of you aren't convinced? Dare to vilify this old man's good disciple? Can't even find a stalk of Nine Leaf Lingzhi? All of your dog eyes must have been blinded! President Feng, you're an eighth ranked Pill Master! Take a look for yourself, how many of these stalks are the Nine Leaf Lingzhi?"

Feng Zhensheng's eyes opened wide and on hearing those words, his heart thumped hard.

Dai Boqi's meaning... surely it wasn't to say that this young lass had really picked out the Nine Leaf Lingzhi right? Moreover, it's not only limited to one stalk?

Could it be that she really used that method of picking cabbages and picked out several stalks of Nine Leaf Lingzhi? No, to be able to be listed into Divine Doctor Dai's eyes, she probably had around five to six stalks?

But, how was this even possible? She obviously didn't have any Profound Energy?

Could it be that this lass had done something to this?

But these Nine Leaf Turf Grass and the Nine Leaf Lingzhi were picked personally by him and Steward Qin from his store. From the start to the end, it did not go through anyone else's hands. No matter what schemes Huang Yueli had, there should be now way for her to come out with any trickery right?

No matter how Feng Zhensheng thought about it, he just simply couldn't understand this as he could only put up a brave front and headed over as he picked up those stalks of medicinal herbs from the ground.

He had just stooped down when Huang Yueli's voice was heard from his back.

"President Feng, can I trouble you when you're inspecting, to announce the result to everyone after inspecting every single stalk, in case anyone else doubts me. As the President of the Alchemist Guild, President Feng has a good reputation and standing so surely... everyone will definitely believe you! Divine Doctor Dai, what do you think about this?"

All Dai Boqi had in mind was to take in Huang Yueli as his disciple so naturally whatever she said, he would agree to it all as he hurriedly nodded his head in agreement, "That's right, that would be the best! Let's leave it to President Feng!"

Feng Zhensheng clenched his teeth and upon hearing Huang Yueli's fearless tone, it seemed as though... she was really very confident?

But Dai Boqi had already opened his mouth and he already had no other choices, so he could only nod his head and started to inspect the stalks one after another.

"First stalk... Nine Leaf... uhhh, this is.. Nine Leaf Lingzhi!"

After Feng Zhensheng injected the first stalk of medicinal herb, he was totally stunned as his hand trembled and the medicinal herb directly dropped out of his hands landing onto the ground.

Hearing his words, the Pill Masters present all broke out into a clamour.

"Impossible! This is impossible! Bai Ruoli really picked out a Nine Leaf Lingzhi?"

"I don't believe it, this is absolutely a coincidence! There's definitely only this one stalk of Lingzhi!"

"That's right, there are six other stalks behind! Surely it can't all be the Nine Leaf Lingzhi right?"
