Chapter 2031: No more chance (5)

“If we can’t cure him, wouldn’t it damage our Divine Doctor’s reputation?”

Liu Buyan immediately responded and walked over.

Huang Yueli bit her lips but didn’t head up to stop him, instead she walked out slowly from the bedroom.

Outside the bedroom, the Three Guardians stood up straight as they bowed to her.

“Grandmaster Huang, you’re finally back! The Sovereign is extremely worried and he also refuses to let Divine Doctor Liu treat him, This Subordinate thought.... thought...sigh! Luckily you came back in time, otherwise the consequences would be dire!”

“That’s right, Grandmaster Huang, where have you been? Have you been locked up by Liu Buyan?”

Huang Yueli gave a soft sigh, “It’s hard to explain.... Later when there’s a chance then we’ll talk about it. What I want to know is that when I’m not around, what happened in Levitation Sword Palace? Why did Moying suddenly turn out like this?”

Cang Po Jun cupped his hands, “After Sovereign was heavily injured by Divine Doctor Liu, his symptoms worsened and because you went missing, he was struck with a deep blow and his body condition just worsened in a second... Later on, seven days ago, Divine Doctor Liu suddenly came over to Levitation Sword Palace, requesting for Sovereign to vow never to get in contact with you, as the condition for him to treat Sovereign.”

Huang Yueli frowned, “Seven days ago... so he suddenly disappeared, was really because he came to save Moying... but this kind of condition, how would Moying possibly agree to it?”

Cang Po Jun didn’t really understood what she said but responded anyway, “Yes, Sovereign adamantly refused so Divine Doctor Liu raised a seven day deadline, saying that if seven days have passed, even for him, would be impossible to save Sovereign... today, is the last day of the seven days deadline...”

When Huang Yueli heard that, she immediately became terrified as she shockingly felt that her back was already drenched in cold sweat entirely!

Luckily, she was able to recover her memories in time, and managed to arrive timely.....

If... she missed today... then there would really be no reversing of time!

Initially the few Guardians were still very anxious, worried if Li Moying would start quarrelling with Liu Buyan.

However, after a long time, the bedroom was still silent without any sound and the crowd then let their hearts down.

A moment later, the bedroom door was suddenly opened.

Huang Yueli immediately rushed over, "Divine Doctor Dai! Moying he... what happened to him? Ah... it's you!"

She rushed over very quickly and almost went into a head on collision with the person standing at the door.

Liu Buyan fixed a complicated look on the young lady's face which had instantly lost its glow, as a piercing pain flashed past his heart.

"Young Miss Bai, please come in! My Master and I have already ascertained the treatment plan, and would like to discuss with you."

When Huang Yueli heard this, her heart thumped hard.

She had assumed that Liu Buyan opening the door meant that Li Moying's illness was already under control but in the end, she actually heard him saying this.

This sentence made one scared witless, somehow feeling that something major was about to happen.

Hence she couldn't even be bothered about getting angry with Liu Buyan as she asked anxiously, "What's going on? Moying he.... has something happened to him again?"

Liu Buyan said, "Come on in first."

Huang Yueli immediately rushed into the bedroom as she took quick steps and flew towards Li Moying's bedside.

The man on the bed was lying there peacefully.

Chapter 2032: No more chance (6)

His entire body was full of pointy, thin gold needles and even his forehead had a few needles on it.

But his expression looked much better than before, not that pale and there was even a faint hint of blood shade on his lips as his breathing seemed more stable as well.

Earlier hearing Liu Buyan's words, she thought that Li Moying was a goner for sure! Now from the looks of it, his condition wasn't as bad as what she had imagined.....

The highly taut string in her heart loosened and she immediately felt her feet turning soft, almost falling flat on the ground on her buttocks.

Huang Yueli steadied herself and she immediately evaded his hand. Not even turning back her head, she directly sat next to Li Moying.

Liu Buyan's gaze dimmed as he watched her intently without saying a single word.

Huang Yueli nervously checked on Li Moying's condition and instantly turned her head towards Dai Boqi, "Divine Doctor Dai, how is Moying's condition? What is the treatment plan that Divine Doctor Liu had mentioned?"

Dai Boqi originally looked puzzledly at Huang Yueli and Liu Buyan and upon hearing her words, he hurriedly said, "Yan'er and I have used gold needles on his acupoints to gain control of Sovereign Mu's primordial spirit and also fed him some nerve calming medication. Sovereign Mu's condition is temporarily under control."

Huang Yueli hurriedly replied, "Many thanks Divine Doctor Dai!"

Dai Boqi shook her head, "Don't be glad so soon, Sovereign Mu has only managed to preserve his life but his primordial spirit is still very frail. After he wakes up, he will only be able to remain conscious for at most six to eight hours, and he must avoid crossing hands with anyone else. The minute he utilises Profound Energy, his condition will definitely work up again... this is not a long term plan!"

Her own man, she knew him the best.

To Li Moying, if he was not able to use any Profound Energy in future, this would upset him more than killing him! A peerless genius like him, an overbearingly strong top exponent for two lifetimes, he had long been accustomed to standing on the top, unsurpassable so how would he possibly bind himself up, not crossing hands with anyone else?

This... probably Li Moying would absolutely not be able to accept it.

Huang Yueli asked softly, "Divine Doctor Dai, could it be that, there's no way to cure Moying's illness at all?"

Dai Boqi sighed, "Although This old man is most apt at treating primordial injuries, but it is this old man's first time seeing such a serious condition like Sovereign Mu's! To tell the truth, if it wasn't for the fact that Yan'er had made many preparations, Sovereign Mu would probably have lost his life today!"

Huang Yueli went silent from hearing that and after a while later, she still didn't say a word.

Perhaps, she really should thank Liu Buyan for saving Li Moying's life, but she totally couldn't make herself open her mouth.

When Dai Boqi saw the both of them not saying a single word, even though he was puzzled, he continued speaking.

"To treat the root cause... I've discussed with Yan'er on this earlier. It's not that there's totally no way, but..."

"But what?" Huang Yueli asked relentlessly.

Dai Boqi spoke out slowly, "Actually this isn't considered as the cure for the root cause but merely for him to keep taking oral medication. At the same time, we will gather a few ninth ranked peak practitioners to inject their Profound Energies into Sovereign Mu's meridians, forcibly helping him stabilise his primordial spirit. If this succeeds, within the next three to five years time, Sovereign Mu's Soul Detachment Illness will not act up....."

"Then how about five years later?" Huang Yueli asked while in deep thoughts.

"Five years later, if Sovereign Mu manages to advance to the tenth stage realm successfully, perhaps, his Soul Detachment Illness would be cured without any need to take medication."

Chapter 2033: No more chance (7)

Liu Buyan interrupted, "Young Miss Bai, you should be very clear that Li Moying's innate talent for this lifetime is even better and with the past lifetime's experience, his cultivation had undergone tremendous improvement which no one could surpass! Breaking through the tenth stage realm within five years' time might not be something that's not possible!"

When Huang Yueli heard that. She nodded and said, "If you put it in this way, it indeed sounds logical... then why are both Divine Doctors so hesitant about this?"

Dai Boqi took a look at the bed-ridden Li Moying as he sighed and said, "This is the reason why we wanted to discuss with Young Miss Bai. If we adopt this treatment plan, we must first find four ninth stage realm peak practitioners to be present at the same time, furthermore, the amount of Profound Energy which will be exhausted is extremely huge, there is also a possibility that it might even cause these four top exponent's cultivation to retract... the candidates....."

Huang Yueli muttered to herself irresolutely, "This... is indeed a problem. The Four Great Guardians under Moying were originally all ninth stage realm peak top exponents and furthermore they have always been loyal to Moying, but now that we are short of one..."

Liu Buyan gave a light cough, "Young Miss Bai, no need to worry about that. The Three Guardians are all dependable people and plus myself, the number of people are just nice so there's no need to worry about the problem of candidates, we had better think about the problem concerning the medicinal pills...."

"You?"

Her eyes were filled with doubts.

Liu Buyan's heart constricted as the words which he was saying were stuck at the back of his throat.

Facing Huang Yueli's distrustful gaze, it actually made him felt so terrible and this was something which he had not expected in the first place.....

He had once thought that he would be able to bear the consequences of deceiving Huang Yueli, but it was until now, that he realised that from the moment he started to drug Huang Yueli, time could no longer flow back to the past, and everything could no longer return back.....

Thinking of the past, Huang Yueli's gaze towards him, although there was no admiration but it would be filled with trust and concern but at this very moment, everything was entirely replaced by resentment...

After some time later, Liu Buyan suppressed the sour feeling in his heart as he spoke out softly, "Even if you wish to push me aside, there's no way you can find anyone else, isn't it? Blue Profound Sect's people had been roving in the past years and those ninth stage realm peak Elders might not be more reliable than me! Moreover speaking, all my Master has on his mind is to take you in as a disciple so if I really do anything funny, Master will be the first who will not let me off."

Dai Boqi hurriedly put in a word for his disciple, "That's right, with Yan'er around, you don't have to worry! He had always been one who honour his words and since he has already agreed to help, then he would absolutely not regret it. Alright, now that the ninth stage realm practitioners problem has been solved, next would be two other matters...."

Huang Yueli was simply not assured.

After all, using Profound Energy to stabilise one's primordial spirit, although this matter was something which she had never seen before, but she just needed to think and knew that if Profound Energy invaded one's primordial spirit, it was an extremely dangerous matter and if they were slightly careless, both the person who carried out the technique or the one who was being given treatment would suffer a grave backlash, and they might even lose their lives!

Whereas for Liu Buyan, he already had an antecedent of hiring Li Moying before this, so he definitely couldn't wait for Li Moying to die!

Would he really take such a huge risk, giving his all to save Li Moying?

If he really did something, wouldn't Li Moying become an idiot henceforth?

She creased her brows slightly as she continued asking, "Divine Doctor Dai, may I ask what you mean by this...."

Dai Boqi said, "Other than the four top exponents, Sovereign Mu also needs to take oral medication, in combination with the treatment."

Chapter 2034: No more chance (8)

"This kind of medication originally didn't exist in the world anymore but luckily Yan'er had spent many years on reading multiple ancient records and in combination to his own research, he had finally ascertained a kind of prescription. But, this prescription..." Dai Boqi paused for a moment, as he looked towards Liu Buyan.

Huang Yueli questioned closely, "What issues does the prescription have?"

Liu Buyan spoke out directly, "Let me say it instead! These few years, I've roamed around various parts of Soaring Heavens Continent, seeking for patients who have Soul Detachment Illness and other primordial spirit symptoms, volunteering to treat their illness just to ascertain this prescription's healing efficacy. Until now, all those patients had been treated successfully."

Hearing that, Huang Yueli revealed an overjoyed expression however before she started to turn happy, she heard Liu Buyan continuing.

“But among these patients, even for the most serious few, the damage on their primordial spirit can’t even be compared to one tenth of Li Moying’s. So just how effective is this prescription towards his Soul Detachment Illness, from the current looks of now, is still unknown.”

Huang Yueli went silent upon hearing that, “I understand, any other issues?”

Liu Buyan nodded his head and said, “There is something else. In order to strengthen the healing efficacy of the prescription, I’ve recently made some improvements to it, adding a few more crucial medicinal herbs. But these medicinal herbs are extremely rare and I’ve tried to collect it via various means but still not able to get two kinds at all...”

Huang Yueli frowned, “Which two kinds of medicinal herbs? As the Number One Scared Land, Blue Profound Sect’s warehouse has plenty of treasures, so perhaps they might have collected some.”

Liu Buyan shook his head, “The last time I was here, I’ve already asked Guardian Jun in private and Blue Profound Sect doesn’t have any in their warehouse. These two medicinal herbs, one is Bipolar Black Orchid’s petals while the other is the Purified Branch.”

Bipolar Black Orchid only grow in a land where ice and fire met with each other hence only in the cave of a dark volcano in the Northern Ice Fields did it grow and it was extremely scarce.

Purified Branch was the branch from the Bodhi Tree and in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent, there was only one Bodhi Tree and that year when it was discovered, it was snatched by everyone in a frenzy and whatever which could be chopped off was chopped. It was just left with a piece of rotten wood and in the next ten thousand years or so, it was impossible to bud at all.

Hence in order to obtain the Purified Branch, there were only those few which were still around and those had been collected by various large powerhouses as all of it were priceless items.

When Huang Yueli heard that these medicinal herbs were required, she couldn’t help but worry as she delved into deep thoughts.

“These two medicinal herbs are very hard to obtain, we will probably really need to consider at length.....”

Liu Buyan replied, “But our luck isn’t too bad. Before I came to Levitation Sword Palace, I heard that this year’s Soaring Heavens Merchant Guild will be starting their annual auction soon. Among the items which will be auctioned this time, the most valuable among it all is a Purified Branch. I heard that it was collected by the deceased ninth stage realm peak exponent Tang Zonghan and his son had brought it out for auction.”

“Although this Purified Branch is a little small, but using it to refine into a pill should be enough...”

Before Liu Buyan had finished his words, Huang Yueli’s eyes shone, “As long as someone is selling it, that’d be great! What we’re afraid of is that no one is willing to sell it! Since someone intends to let it go, we can just bid for it at the Soaring Heavens Merchant Guild tomorrow!”

Once a treasure like the Purified Branch appears, various large powerhouses would usually tussle with one another.

But Huang Yueli totally disregarded them.

If it was in terms of fortune, the Number One Sacred Land wasn't any vegetarian. Moreover, in her past life, Huang Yueli had been the richest person in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent and she had deposited a vast amount of money over with Mu Chengying back then.

Chapter 2035: The jealous Sovereign (1)

So if it was something which she was determined to get, no one else was able to auction it away at all.

Liu Buyan nodded his head and agreed while by the side, "That's right, if you're worried of not being able to auction for it successfully, I have quite an amount of savings and can sponsor you guys..."

"Hmph... no need!"

Liu Buyan was halfway through his words when suddenly, a deep and suppressed cold harrumph interrupted him.

Huang Yueli blinked as she turned towards the position where the sound came from and immediately cried out in joy, "Moying, Moying, you're awake! That's great, you're finally awake, do you feel better now? IS your head still giddy? Does your chest still hurt?"

Her dainty figure pounced towards the man on the bed, as she half knelt in front of the bed, carefully dabbing the cold sweat on Li Moying's face, simply like a loyal young lass.

Seeing her in this state, who could have imagined that she was a heaven-defying, peerless genius?

Even Dai Boqi wasn't able to let it go as he coughed twice, "Cough cough, I say.... Disciple, rest assured. Sovereign Mu will have no issues momentarily so you need not be so uptight."

Huang Yueli didn't hear him at all as she blinked her big eyes, watching Li Moying attentively.

Li Moying originally heard Liu Buyan's words and his heart was feeling slightly sour but on seeing his little fox putting such an anxious look, he instantly felt at ease.

His rippling peach blossomed eyes were laced with a smile as he lifted his lethargic and powerless right hand, pressing the little hand around his chest and spoke out softly, "I'm much better, don't worry..."

When Huang Yueli heard that, she was a little more assured but her face was still showing an angry look as she pouted, "There'd be a problem if I believed in you! Previously you also said that there is no problem with you and you're very well but in the end? You almost threw your life away!"

He wanted very much to hug her immediately, to placate her but unfortunately he had the heart but no strength to do so, as he just simply wasn't able to get up from the bed.

Huang Yueli hurriedly pressed him down, "Your body is still very weak, can you stop moving around? Can you listen to us obediently?"

He could only follow his young lass's strength and laid flat on the bed obediently.

In the past month, he had been taking good care of this young lass in every possible way, taking care of her every single aspect just hoping that she could act coquettish in front of himself but in the end he wasn't able to gain any substantial response. Even if it was under the pretext of her memory loss, she still instinctively evaded his touches.

However, in front of Li Moying, she was able to let go of all her defences, revealing her fond emotions.

As though detecting Liu Buyan's gaze, Li Moying's half closed eyes suddenly opened wide as his frigid cold gaze turned towards Liu Buyan.

Under the crossfire of their four eyes, Li Moying's lips curled, "Divine Doctor Liu, thank you for taking care of my fiancée during this period of time. But there's really no need for you to worry so much, we Blue Profound Sect has plenty of money so there's no need for an 'OUTSIDER' like you to join in the fun."

He purposely emphasized the word 'outsider' and then satisfactorily saw Liu Buyan's gaze turning dimmer yet again.

But Dai Boqi couldn't help but cried out in shock, "What? Fiancée? Young Miss Bai is your fiancée? Then... what about Yan'er? What on earth is going on?"

Chapter 2036: The jealous Sovereign (2)

Liu Buyan couldn't say a word, not knowing how to explain this whole thing.

Huang Yueli hurriedly said, "Divine Doctor Dai, about this matter, it's better for me to explain to you later on. Now, we'd best continue discussing the matter regarding Moying's illness. Earlier you mentioned that other than the Purified Branch, you also need the Bipolar Black Orchid to refine the pill... that kind of medicinal herb, where should we search for it?"

Dai Boqi shook his head, "This.... this old man also has no idea. Yan'er, do you have any clues on this?"

Liu Buyan frowned slightly and he looked at Dai Boqi, then looked at Huang Yueli as he wanted to say something but was hesitant to.

"It's not that there's totally no idea, but.... let's wait until we get the Purified Branch first then make other plans."

Huang Yueil's brows rose, feeling a little surprised but since Dai Boqi was around, she expected that Liu Buyan wasn't able to come out with any bad ideas so she didn't continue asking on this.

Li Moying saw the discussion was almost done and immediately opened his mouth.

"Divine Doctor Dai, I'm extremely grateful to you for lending a hand and towards your gratitude, I will definitely think of a way to repay you! These few days, we'll like to invite Divine Doctor Dai to stay within Blue Profound Sect to be our guest. Although it's not convenient due to my condition, but my Guardians will assist me in receiving you properly on my behalf."

Dai Boqi quickly added, "I don't deserve this, I'm merely doing this so that I can take in a good disciple! No need to be so courteous!"

The two of them were speechless towards each other.

Liu Buyan gave a helpless sign, "Forget it, today's incident is something that I've brought upon myself. Don't worry, I will think of ways to cure you of your illness and after your Soul Detachment Illness recovers totally, I will never appear again."

Saying that, he didn't even wait for Li Moying's response as he turned around and left in a few big strides.

Dai Boqi was even more puzzled as he turned back and took a few more glances at Huang Yueli but in the end he didn't ask anymore questions as he followed suit and left.

Instead it was Huang Yueli, on seeing Liu Buyan about to leave, she suddenly stood up, "Liu... Divine Doctor Liu, I have a few words which I must tell you."

She just took a step out when her wrist suddenly tightened as she was pulled on by someone.

Huang Yueli was stunned as she turned back and saw Li Moying with a not very nice expression, as his slender fair fingers stretched out under the blanket, clasping tightly around her wrist.

The amount of energy he used made Huang Yueli suspected that he was not a patient at all.

"Not allowed to go! You and that fellow surnamed Liu, what have you got to say to each other?" Li Moying spat out these few words coldly, as his thin lips pursed into a straight line.

"You're jealous? What's there to be jealous about, I can't wait to hate Liu Buyan! But something, I really ought to tell him clearly, in case he strays off path again in future and does something which is undue."

Li Moying's face turned black, as though someone owed him a huge amount of money.

"What's there to speak clearly about? What in future? Do you mean you still wish to meet him in future? This can also be called as hating him?"

The sourish taste in these words were almost about to seep out.

Huang Yueli was rendered speechless momentarily.

Li Moying saw her not replying and grew even more unhappy, "Why aren't you saying anything? Are you really prepared to meet him again? Could it be that during this period of time when he had captured you, he treated you very well and you can't bear to hurt him?"

Huang Yueli didn't know if she should laugh or cry as she said, "You.. what are you saying! Don't be so childish, I'm doing everything because of you!"

The gaze which Li Moying casted upon her grew even more unfriendly.

Chapter 2037: The jealous Sovereign (3)

Huang Yueli hadn’t even taken a breath when the original words which were at the tip of her mouth were stuffed right back.

Oh my gawd, a jealous man was really very terrifying and it seemed as though she had said something wrong?

If it was usual, she was still able to punch him a few times to vent her anger but now Li Moying was a patient and he had just been pulled back from the brink of death so she couldn’t bear to do such a hard handed thing.....

She could only soften her tone as she blinked her big round eyes, speaking softly, “I... since when have I despised you? I like you the most! Liu Buyan had not been nice to me at all, he even lied to me! How could I possibly pity him? Alright, why are you showing me faces? I think you’re the one who doesn’t dote on me anymore!”

Huang Yueli intentionally threw a tantrum and her soft voice was like a kitten’s little paw which clawed lightly around the tip of the man’s heart, making him feel limp all over.

However, Li Moying was still dissatisfied as he questioned coldly, “Liu Buyan lied to you? What did he lie to you about?”

“He lied about.....”

Huang Yueli originally wanted to answer with the truth but the words were already about to be said out but she suddenly stuffed it all back.

If Li Moying were to find out that Liu Buyan actually said that she was his fiancée, this man would probably fly into a rage! It was better not to say anything instead.....

On seeing her hesitation, Li Moying’s gaze dimmed as he flung her hand away.

“Now you’re not even telling me the truth? Alright then go ahead and look for him, don’t bother about me! Just leave me here alone, nobody will care about me even if I don’t feel good...”

When Huang Yueli heard that, her heart immediately ached, “Alright, alright, alright, I’ll accompany you, I’ll accompany you! There’s really nothing between me and Liu Buyan. I only feel that from what we saw today, his medical skills are indeed much stronger than Divine Doctor Dai and I’m afraid that your Soul Detachment Illness will still befall onto him before you can be cured completely. He seems as though he really wishes to make atonements as well so we might as well clear the clouds so that he is able to treat you properly...”

“Even if I die of sickness, I don’t need him to treat me!” Li Moying gave another cold hmph.

His aloof and magnetic voice, even though he was so frail right now, made him sound as though he was still a prideful ruler, only.... why did the things he said, made one speechless.

The corner of Huang Yueli’s lips twitched, saying that he was childish was really not maligning him!

He really thought that this was a small illness like the common cold? Saying as though he was full of himself!

Ahhh, a jealous man was really unreasonable!

But Huang Yueli also knew that Li Moying was a patient and had always been a huge vinegar urn, so the more she spoke up for Liu Buyan, the angrier her fiancée would probably be...

Huang Yueli thought over it for a moment and continued to speak, "Alright, alright, alright, if you don't like it then we'll not get him to treat you! Don't be angry, your illness has finally taken a turn for the better so you shouldn't get angry so easily again. It's rumoured that if one's emotion fluctuations is too great, it will also affect the stability of one's primordial spirit."

Huang Yueli raised his perfectly sculpted chin as he took an askance glance at her.

"Want me to rest? Then you'd have to stay here and accompany me!"

Huang Yueli hurriedly put on an obedient baby look, "Of course I'll stay and accompany you here! Relax and sleep!"

When Li Moying heard that, he immediately turned sideways as he gave up a large portion of the bed, "Then come on up, accompany me to bed!"

Huang Yueli jolted and immediately a shade of red flushed on her face, "This... isn't very good right?"

Li Moying didn't say anything, only using that pair of seductive peach blossomed eyes fixating his gaze onto her.

Huang Yueli sensed that she was being bewitched because after meeting that pair of eyes, she submerged within it. Whatever rejection words she had, could no longer be voiced out.

Chapter 2038: The jealous Sovereign (4)

She could only subconsciously did according to what he said, as she obediently kicked off her shoes and climbed onto the bed.

But she didn't take off her outer garment as she just said beside Li Moying with her clothes intact.

Her posture was especially standard, her face facing upwards and both hands were placed beside her waist, as she laid in a flat position.

Li Moying turned his head slightly and sensed the young lady next to him, giving off a faint exclusive smell which had a combination of flowery and fragrant bouquet, warm, pure, quiet and nice.

This was Huang Yueli's exclusive deodorant and to Li Moying, it was the only smell which could make him feel at ease and at peace whenever his Soul Detachment Illness occurred.

Li Moying took a deep breath and he really wanted to turn around to wrest this young lady into his arm, recklessly kissing her. In this period of time which she had left, the desire and longing for her had already accumulated to an astonishing amount.

Alas, right now he did not have that much energy.....

Thinking of this, Li Moying hated his current condition even more, as he couldn't wait to get better immediately!

After Huang Yueli laid straight, she shut her eyes and said, "Alright, I've already laid down, can you rest already? I'll be right here accompanying you!"

Li Moying said, "You didn't even take off your clothes, totally don't look as though you want to sleep at all."

Huang Yueli replied forcefully and with justice, "I'm not here to sleep, I'm here to take care of you! Later what if you're thirsty or feeling uncomfortable so I'd still need to climb up and take care of you! Not taking off the outer garment is much more convenient, am I right?"

Obviously knowing that she was quibbling, but towards this little fox's astute and sweet little face, Li Moying couldn't say any words of rebuttal at all.

He moaned softly, "What fallacious reasoning is that? Then you give me a kiss!"

"Ah? Why?" Huang Yueli was stunned.

"I'm your fiancé and I asked you to give me a kiss, do I need a reason for that?" Li Moying swept her a glance.

Huang Yueli could tell that he was acting tsundere again so she had no choice but to turn around and look at him.

The man in front of her, his body turned sideways and his young handsome features were so pale and frail, yet still filled with a pure man's seductiveness and there was a tinge of beauty in his sick condition.

Huang Yueli's gaze glided past his brows and that deep profound black eyes, along that pencil straight nose, finally landed on his slightly pale thin lips.

This formidable man seldom had such frail moments.

Those lips when tightly pursed, looked especially cold and emotionless but only she knew that this man in front of her eyes, when he loved someone, he could be that passionate, like a moth flying towards the fire, disregarding everything else...

Huang Yueli's heart shivered slightly as she slowly leaned towards Li Moying.

Huang Yueli's mind had just flashed past this thought when her lips suddenly felt pain.

"Mmph!" She couldn't help but cried out in shock.

Following that, Li Moying's tongue took the split second opportunity to extend into her opened mouth as he extended right in and overbearingly and forcibly drew in her sweetness and warmth.

Intense kiss was still the same as the usual passion and even, far more scorching than usual times.

Li Moying wildly licked and lapped her, even rashly biting her several times.

Huang Yueli was in pain but she couldn't help but lifted her hand to hug the man in front of her.

Because she could distinctly feel Li Moying's body as it kept on trembling.

He had always been fearful, worried that this time that they would really be separated in life and death, and he would really lose her.

Chapter 2039: The brutal truth (1)

The lingering passionate kiss slowly died down and not much longer later, Li Moying seemed as though he had lost all energy as he loosened her and his head was buried around her neck.

Huang Yueli pushed him slightly, "Alright, we've already kissed so can you rest right now?"

Li Moying gave an approving whisper, "Aren't I already resting?"

Huang Yueli looked up into the sky, resting? Then surely he didn't need to use her as a pillow right?"

However, Li Moying leaned on her entirely and his tall and lofty figure held her under his restraint securely.

His peach blossomed eyes shut lightly and his long and curly lashes seemed like two little fans, as it laid a faint shadow beneath his eyes.

The man's peerlessly handsome face was so close to her, and the warm air which he blew out while breathing all sprayed against Huang Yueli's earlobes, making her face flushed red uncontrollably. Even her ears were starting to burn.

"Hey! You... can you move over a little to sleep, you're too heavy and you're making my hand numb!"

"Hu—Hu—"

In response to her was the man's long and continuous breathing.

It merely took a flash and this man's breathing was already stable as his four limbs were relaxed, as though he had sunk into dreamland.

Initially Huang Yueli thought that he was playing tricks and lying to her but however, when she leaned up close to observe him, she discovered that Li Moying seemed as though he had really fallen asleep and moreover, he looked especially peaceful when he slept.

In this way, Huang Yueli didn't dare to move, as she allowed the man to press down on herself.

Li Moying's adult body was so tall and robust so pressing down on her indeed felt very heavy. Huang Yueli originally felt that she definitely needed to stay sleepless for the entire night until dawn.

However, the truth was, not too long later, she too fell asleep.

Moreover, she had an extremely peaceful night. When she lost her memories, she had nightmares every single night and this time round, it totally didn't appear at all.

Lying beside this man's side, not only was she able to placate Li Moying's rampaging soul, at the same time, Li Moying's presence made her feel at ease and peace as she was filled with security.

By the time Huang Yueli woke up, the sky had already turned bright.

She had a shock and abruptly sat up, following that she felt her shoulder and arms feeling totally numb.

"Aiyo..."

Huang Yueli couldn't help but moan as she recalled last night's scenario.

She hastily turned her head back to take a look to realise that Li Moying was still lying crooked beside her, and had not been startled by her sudden movements, which made her heaved a sigh of relief.

Li Moying usually was very alert and he almost couldn't sleep well at night, moreover he usually woke up very early in the morning.

Moments like now, sleeping so peacefully was really not common so it went to show that yesterday Dai Boqi and Liu Buyan's treatment should be rather effective.

She stretched out her hand and touched Li Moying's forehead, then felt his pulse.

"Mmm, everything seems... normal? Yesterday Divine Doctor Dai said that he only has eight to ten hours of free activity time and the rest of the time, he would be sleeping... it's best to let him sleep a while more!"

Huang Yueli laid his body straight and pulled the blanket which they had kicked off last night, covering Li Moying up tightly before she got up to wash up and prepared to head over to the front hall to take her breakfast.

Dressed in a ninth ranked Pill Master's white robe, he was standing in the huge garden outside the bedroom, looking afar at the fog which was floating above the lake.

Spring's morning was chilly but he merely put on a thin piece of unlined garment.

Chapter 2040: The brutal truth (2)

In the dim light in the dawn, there was an indescribable loneliness and melancholy around him.

Huang Yueli subconsciously stopped in her tracks.

Whereas Liu Buyan seemed to have noticed as he turned around.

Huang Yueli saw his face and was slightly astonished. It had just been one night and Liu Buyan's complexion had turned extremely haggard.

The past distinguished, accomplished and casual look, the high spirited Number One Divine Doctor, now looked like a changed man. His eyes were bleak with depression and the faint smile which had always hung by the side of his lips had vanished without a trace.

"You...." Huang Yueli opened her mouth but suddenly stopped.

Liu Buyan saw her awkwardness and continued from there, "I know you don't wish to see me but I'm also not just staying around for no reason. Although Li Moying's Soul Detachment illness is now under control, there's no guarantee that nothing erratic would not happen so I must stay nearby on duty at any moment. After the medicinal herbs have been collected with the successful refining of the Purified Spirit Polymerize Pill and after his primordial spirit has stabilized, I will naturally leave immediately."

While he was saying that, he stole a glance at Huang Yueli and on seeing her still not talking, he sadly add one more sentence, "If... if you really feel that I'm an eyesore in Levitation Sword Palace, I can stay over at the outer disciple's side and be a little further away from Levitation Sword Palace. Usually if there's any urgent situation, my Master can more or less handle it..."

The pain in Liu Buyan's eyes grew deeper.

But he also knew that all these were something which he had brought upon himself, so who else could he blame?

Huang Yueli looked deeply into his eyes before she said, "It's just nice that you're here. There's some things which I wish to talk to you about."

Liu Buyan was extremely surprised, "You're looking for me? What is it regarding?"

He assumed that Huang Yueli wasn't willing to talk to him.

Huang Yueli said, "This is not a place to talk, come along with me."

Saying that, she turned around and led Liu Buayn through the long corridor, all the way to a quiet area in the garden, where there was a small pavilion hidden in the middle of the lake.

"Have a seat, I've already got the female attendants to bring some tea and snacks." Huang Yueli pointed to a chair towards him.

Liu Buyan frowned slightly as he looked suspiciously to his left and right before he sat down.

He had not expected, nor could he understand why Huang Yueli had suddenly treat him in such an amiable manner now? Was it because Li Moying was now out of danger and she was already appeased?

Liu Buyan looked at the young lady in front of him doubtfully and he had not expected that Huang Yueli didn't sit down opposite him, but she turned slightly and gazed outwards of the pavilion.

After some time later, she spoke softly, "Twenty over years ago, every time I came to Levitation Sword Palace, the place I liked the most is this pavilion. Gazing out from this place, the lake and sky seemed to have joined together, as though it was infinite to no end. At that time, standing beside... him, I also thought that this scene would never change forever and that moment felt like eternity."

Liu Buyan was stunned when he heard that, assuming that he had heard her wrongly.

Twenty over years ago?

Twenty over years ago, this young lass wasn't even born yet!

What on earth was she trying to say, could it be that she had been demonised? Or, did she have a nightmare last night?

“Young Miss Bai, you...”

Liu Buyan frowned as he tried to speak, but was cut off.

“..... Now thinking back, life is so unpredictable, like floating clouds by the sky. Clouds gather and part and all these can't be done according to their wishes. Once you've lost something, it is possible that it would be lost forever. The only thing I can do, is to cherish whatever is in front of me, and work hard to become even stronger, to protect those people whom I value.”

Liu Buyan was listening to her, and the more he listened, the more he felt that something was not right.
