

Weaponsmith 2101

Chapter 2101: Acting cute and coquettish (6)

However, based on the boundary which she had skimmed through, she was still not able to check all the information that was related to the Sky Phoenix Ring.

She could only judge based on the carved words on the surface of the jade piece, that it should be called Sky Phoenix Ring.

The inner portion of Profound Armaments all contained extremely powerful Profound Qi and far surpassed ninth tier upper grade Profound Weapons but because it was damaged due to severe impact, it was unable to display out the corresponding energy.

As there were no contents to refer to, she could only base on her own experience to restore the Sky Phoenix Ring.

But although the damages on the surface had completely been restored, but there was no way that she could make the Sky Phoenix Ring acknowledge her as Master, nor did she had any way to use it.

It was until after she self-exploded and through the freak combinations of factors that she managed to establish a mental link, which then activated this piece of God Relic.

However, until now, she still had the feeling that the amount of power which she could utilise from the Sky Phoenix Ring, was probably not ten percent of its actual power.

This naturally was related to the fact that her current cultivation wasn't high enough but the other part was because she didn't understood the Sky Phoenix Ring completely...

In her past life, she had once showed the Sky Phoenix Rings to President Jiang and he promised to help her check the ancient classics back then, to see if he was able to find out anything but too bad, later on before she was able to meet with President Jiang, she had already self-exploded in the Northern Ice Fields...

She had not expected that sixteen years ago, President Jiang had already found out the important information.

But why was she only able to read half of it!

Huang Yueli was extremely frustrated as she kept looking at the words on the notebook when her eyes suddenly lit up and said, "Right, didn't President Jiang already wrote it down? These information were copied from the ancient scroll <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>> so we just need to find that book! There should be many hidden books in the Armament Guild right? Have you checked there before?"

Ye Xing Hua gave a bitter laugh, "I've already thought about this point. I personally went to the Headquarters' Books Depository several times, looking through every single book in the Books Depository but yet I didn't manage to find the so called <<Drifting Clouds Scroll>>! I've already tried to find out from others, but no one had heard of this book's existence before. No one knows where elderly President Jiang had seen this from?"

When Huang Yueli heard that, her brows slowly started to crease and after some time, she spoke, "Then in this case, it must be some scarce ancient classic... it's right, that year I've also not heard of this ancient classic... how about this, you get your men to take note and if there's any related news of the <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>, let me know immediately."

Ye Xing Hua hurriedly agreed.

Huang Yueli thought for a moment and said, "Since President Jiang's remains had been found, has it already been buried?"

Ye Xing Hua replied, "President Jiang had helmed the Armament Guild for many years and had always been a person of virtue and prestige with pupils all over the world so the reburial this round, we're thinking of holding it more elaborately..."

"No way!" Huang Yueli immediately interrupted him.

Ye Xing Hua was stunned as he lifted up his head and looked at her in surprise, apparently extremely unexpected, "Ah? Why?"

Huang Yueli sighed again, "You! Have you forgotten how President Jiang died? Those people who coerced President Jiang to his death, they would probably still be keeping track of any movements in the Armament Guild! This is why I had repeatedly reminded you that you must execute the operation of excavation of remains secretly!"

"If anyone else were to know that President Jiang's remains had already been dug out, it would definitely attract the attentions of those people from back then again."

Chapter 2102: Acting cute and coquettish (7)

"Who knows, they might even find trouble with you! Moreover, it would also inevitably affect our investigation which we are conducting secretly."

When Ye Xing Hua heard that, he was then enlightened as he broke out in cold sweat, "So that's the reason, it's all thanks to Master for the reminder, otherwise I might have committed a grave mistake!"

Huang Yueli shook her hands as she said, "No matter, you are merely being respectful towards President Jiang and wanted to do a little something for him. If possible, I'd also like to conduct it like what you said, but too bad..."

She sighed and continued, "Pick a good day to allow President Jiang to be buried and rest in peace and by then, I will personally send him off as well!"

After Ye Xing Hua left, Huang Yueli took out the notebook which President Jiang left behind and flipped it over and again, looking at it several times.

The more she read, the more shocked her heart felt.

Although she had already knew that the Sky Phoenix Ring was a God Relic and moreover, among the God Relics, it was an extremely outstanding treasure but there was no way that she could have ever thought that this palm sized jade actually had such a huge influence!

Ancient god clan Sacred Phoenix Race, using all the strength from their clan to refine this... moreover they also casted a living Phoenix God Race into the refinement...

Just thinking of the scene when the God Relic was initially refined, it was enough to shake one to the core.

Moreover, according to her current situation, the minute the Sky Phoenix Ring had acknowledged its Master, the Sky Phoenix Ring's soul trace would then be merged together with its Master.

Back then, the Clan Leader of the Sacred Phoenix Race, he was definitely the first owner of the Sky Phoenix Ring and after he was killed, even his inherent fated God Relic was shattered and dropped into the lower realm, so just what kind of earth shattering battle was that?

She started to wonder what exactly happened in God Realm back then...

Huang Yueli shut her eyes slightly, as she imagined the image at that time when she suddenly seemed to have recalled something as her eyes abruptly opened wide.

"Right, the conversation between Chi Xiao Jiu and Ling Qing Yu today seemed to have mentioned the Sky Phoenix Ring! They said that they were out to harm and kill me back then, was because of "That Sire's" instigation and the motive was..... the Sky Phoenix Ring in my possession?"

"Speaking of this, although the power of the Sky Phoenix Ring is indeed powerful, but its history is so mysterious that even I am unable to activate it that year so even if other people were so insistent to snatch it, it was originally a strange matter itself. Looks like the main instigator behind the scenes definitely knows the history of the Sky Phoenix Ring and also knew that I had in my possession what kind of universally shocking God Relic, hence they tried ways and means to snatch it!"

"Since he could instigate Ling Qing Yu and Chi Xiao Jiu these kind of top exponents with such status, then activating those ninth stage realm top experts who dealt with President Jiang naturally isn't some difficult matter. President Jiang is on close terms with me so they definitely think that since they weren't able to find the Sky Phoenix Ring on me after I self-exploded, they assumed that I had left the item to President Jiang hence they went to find trouble for him... Ye Xing Hua also mentioned that these ninth stage realm top experts had all gone there to look for something..."

"Right, it must be so... this time round, everything has linked up! What they wanted to find, was the Sky Phoenix Ring!"

Huang Yueli clapped her hands hard, as she revealed a delighted expression.

This riddle had been bothering her for a very long time and she totally had no idea even after racking her brains but today, on seeing President Jiang's notebook, she finally had some leads.

But very quickly, she had a new puzzlement, "But who exactly is "That Sire" whom Ling Qing Yu and the others mentioned? He has the ability to control Ling Qing Yu and Chi Xiao Jiu and even knows about the ancient God Relic Sky Phoenix Ring... who on earth is able to do this?"

Chapter 2103: Acting cute and coquettish (8)

No matter how Huang Yueli pondered over this, she was still unable to find any leads.

In her impression, the number of strong exponents who were powerful enough to do so to such an extent in Soaring Heavens Continent, was only Mu Chengying.

However, Mu Chengying would definitely not do anything to harm her, so the mystery behind who was the mastermind had indeed turned into a riddle.

Huang Yueli sat for a while alone for a while more before she kept away the book and returned to the bedroom at the back.

Li Moying hadn't awoken yet but he seemed to have realised subconsciously that his little fiancée had already walked off hence he hadn't been able to sleep in peace, as he kept turning around and spoke out in his dream, but due to the calming medication of Dai Boqi's, he wasn't able to wake up.

After Huang Yueli laid down on the bed, Li Moying quickly came close to her. Although his eyes were still shut, but his arms had precisely wrapped around her slender waist and locked her tightly into his arms tightly.

After completing this action, Li Moying then finally quieten down as his head leaned against Huang Yueli's shoulder and not too long later, he stopped moving and fell into deep sleep.

Huang Yueli was already accustomed to that man's stickiness and although she was hugged in this way, rendering her immovable and it was a little uncomfortable, but she felt exceptionally secure and not too long later, she too fell into dreamland.

...

On the second day, after Li Moying woke up, he had indeed recovered by quite a lot.

But Dai Boqi was still extremely dissatisfied with him casually making a move to fight as he kept nagging at him for close to two hours.

Li Moying's innate nature was arrogant and if it was someone else who said this to him, he would have stopped listening long ago but seeing that Huang Yueli was just seated next to him, with a vicious and fierce pair of eyes staring right at him, he didn't dare to be rash as he could only listen to Old Master Dai's lecture, finally getting away only after half a day.

When Dai Boqi left, Huang Yueli continued unyieldingly as she emphasized, "Have you remembered all those that my Master had said?"

Li Moying took a look at her as his brows rose, "Li'er, regarding yesterday's matter, I haven't even settled it with you yet! Why, are you trying to shift the attention away and push the blame onto me?"

Huang Yueli was stunned as she had not expected this man to be so sensitive, even discovering her little plan!

She was afraid that Li Moying would pursue relentlessly about the matter when she caused herself to fall into a detrimental situation and intended to gain the initiative by striking first, to settle the debt with Li Moying first!

But even if she were found out by her fiancé, she wouldn't just admit defeat so easily.

Huang Yueli raised her chin as she spoke in an arrogant tone, "Settle the debt? You still dare to settle the debt with me? Who's the boss in our family?"

Li Moying's expression sunk as he locked onto her waist and pulled her into his arms, "You can make decisions on all other matters but yesterday you actually allowed yourself to befall into such a dangerous scenario! Do you know that when I saw Chi Xiao Jiu laying his hands on you, I was so scared that my heart almost stopped beating?"

Huang Yueli felt a little guilty but she was still reluctant to admit her mistake as she said, "Relax, Chi Xiao Jiu will absolutely not kill me! After all, his idea was to exchange me for the Purified Branch... moreover speaking yesterday I heard a very important news, let me tell you....."

Thinking about the insider information which she had eavesdropped on yesterday, she suddenly got excited.

Li Moying's expression suddenly turned even uglier, "You still feel that you've done right? Really.... needs a lecture!"

Huang Yueli blinked her watery large eyes and failed to understand the meaning in his words.

Li Moying clasped his fingers on her lower jaw and lifted her pointy little chin.

Chapter 2104: Acting cute and coquettish (9)

In the next moment, her breath was almost completely stolen under the scorching man's pressing breath!

Li Moying's kiss was the same as before as it was filled with invasiveness and so intensely hot that it was rampaging with heat, as it leaned towards an almost insane deep moodiness.

Not knowing how long later, as Huang Yueli felt that she was almost about to suffocate when she was released.

Li Moying backed off slightly but his heated breathing still puffed against her lips which had turned red from the kissing earlier.

"Do you know your mistake already?" The man's mellow and sexy voice was heard, which was mixed with an unsteady stream of breathing.

Huang Yueli had not regained her senses totally as she stared blankly at that extremely good looking man's face as she asked in a blank stupor, "Know... what?"

Li Moying looked at her blank expression as his lips curled up into a smirk of delighted smile.

His own family's lass, her infatuation towards him was totally written on his face and to a man, there was nothing else which made him more complacent than this.

At this moment, Li Moying who had vented all his frustration had his anger quelled by quite a large bit.

However, he refused to let go of the benefit which he had derived so he intentionally pretended to be displeased, "Don't know? Looks like the punishment isn't enough! Let's continue!"

Saying that, before waiting for Huang Yueli to come over it, he continued to put his mouth against that jelly soft lips once again.

The moment their lips touched each other, he couldn't help but gave out a sigh from the bottom of his heart.

His Li'er was just too sweet, making him unable to stop himself from coming closer to her, closer a little more.....

Li Moying involuntarily deepened his kiss as his arm also drew her in tighter but not too long later, he slowly shifted and started to caress that young lady's perky bottom as he pressed against her tightly, winding their bodies together.

Huang Yueli felt slight discomfort as she struggled for a few times but was suppressed by Li Moying's powerful strength.

Li Moying felt bouts of pain in his body and a scorching heat arose from his lower abdomen gushing straight into his brain. The moment the highly strung rationality in his mind broke, he lost total control of himself as he flipped over and pressed Huang Yueli down onto the chaise longue.

It was at this moment when Huang Yueli suddenly awoken in fright as she met with that man's profound pupils and on that perfectly bewitching handsome face, which had flushed pink at this very moment and sweat had profuse so much that it had totally wet the corners of the hair on his forehead. Yet that made him looked even more overbearing and more dangerous than usual..

Huang Yueli's's chest pounded vigorously as she lifted up both her hands and pressed it against Li Moying's chest in an attempt to push him away but the energy from her totally wasn't off any use at all.

Li Moying licked the corners of his lips in an iniquitously demonic manner and lowering his head, he moved from her fair, slender neck, slowly downwards...

Huang Yueli struggled anxiously however that instead ignited the flame in the man as his power was overwhelming, restraining her tightly.

Huang Yueli clenched her teeth as she worked up all the Profound Energy within her and pushed Li Moying hard on his chest area!

Li Moying was still indulged in the young lady's sweet breath as he totally didn't expected to be injured by her with Profound Energy and as a result, he was unable to evade in time when he was slapped onto the ground by one slap of hers.

"You..."

Li Moying raised his head up in shock as he met with the young lady's embarrassed and furious gaze.

He lay on the floor as he just gave up on getting up, "Li'er, you're trying to murder your husband!"

Huang Yueli was both embarrassed and angry as smoke was puffing out from the top of her head, "Husband your head! My Master has already said that during treatment period, you're absolutely not allowed.... to do that! Otherwise your illness will definitely relapse again!"

Chapter 2105: Acting cute and coquettish (10)

Li Moying was stunned momentarily and subsequently a smirk found its way onto his face, "My little wife is really virtuous, so it's all out of consideration for This Husband's body condition... you need not worry for This Husband, I merely want to kiss and nothing will happen, quickly come over!"

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes fiercely at him, "What are you saying? I don't understand, don't understand, I'm leaving!"

She casually dragged out the dozing little Qilin from the corner of the room and threw it onto Li Moying.

"Since you like to kiss so much, then go kiss your Qilin!"

Huang Yueli was extremely frustrated because what Li Moying had said earlier, was exactly spot on her sore point.

Earlier she had indeed been smitten by that handsome male scheme but at the very last crucial moment, she remembered Dai Boqi's medical advice and suddenly regained her consciousness.

This man, he was simply blue source of calamity! No wonder she had a bunch of love rivals for no good reason in both lifetimes! There just wasn't enough time to hit all the mistresses!

On seeing her turning around to leave, Li Moying didn't dare to act hooligan any longer as he hurriedly called out to her, "Wait, Li'er, don't leave! Earlier haven't you said that you want to tell me all about the secret plot which Chi Xiao Jiu and the others had?"

When Huang Yueli heard that, her footsteps took a halt as she turned around but she was still bearing an extremely prudent look.

After sometime later, she then spoke out, "Alright, this matter is rather important so it's best that I tell you about it! But you're not allowed to come close to me!"

She picked a position which was the furthest from Li Moying as she sat down.

Li Moying put on an aggrieved look as he looked at her pitifully, "Li'er, why are you so far away from me? I said I will not bully you again!"

"Really?" Huang Yueli's brows rose, as she shot a disbelieving gaze at his lower half body – even under the cover of the long robe, it wasn't enough to cover his body reaction.

Li Moying then shifted but the frustrated emotions in his heart was still hard to quell.

As his relationship with Huang Yueli grew better by the day, he often could not control his own body's natural reaction when he was facing his little fiancée and after he knew that there's hope for him and he would not die, what he wanted to do the most was to get married to Huang Yueli immediately then consummate!

But alas, Dai Boqi's medical advice had splashed a pail of cold water right down from his head.

In order for him to live properly, and for him to be able to be a loving couple with his Li'er, even if he had to stifle to death, he still had to endure it...

Huang Yueli was still seated far away from him, and without even taking another look at him, she started narrating the contents of the conversation which she had eavesdropped on yesterday.

Li Moying was still feeling heated up initially but not too long later, his attention was soon attracted by the matter which Huang Yueli was telling him.

"Hmph, Chi Xiao Jiu and Ling Qing Yu... they indeed had such good planning! Trying to coerce me to hand over the Purified Branch? They are indeed courageous! But... a little too dumb!"

Huang Yueli felt slightly worried, "Chi Xiao Jiu is rather intelligent, to be able to guess that your condition hasn't fully recuperated. "That Sire" in his words seemed to make him extremely terrified and now that he had been injured by Guardian Jun, we can still ignore him but after he recovers, he might really come over to Blue Profound Sect..."

Li Moying gave a cold humph, "Just a dumbass! Even if This Sovereign has not regained my ability, dealing with someone like him just takes the effort to blow the dust off!"

Huang Yueli said, "It's wiser to be more cautious."

She had never doubted Li Moying's ability but she was worried that Li Moying might be angered by Chi Xiao Jiu's shameless manner and if he got rash and started to fight with him again, they would lose out more than what they gained.

Chapter 2106: Acting cute and coquettish (11)

Li Moying understood her intention, "Don't worry, I have my way to deal with them and not make you worry."

Huang Yueli nodded her head when she heard his promise, "Alright then."

Li Moying then went silent for a moment and said, "But you said that Chi Xiao Jiu and the others have been controlled by a mysterious man, moreover this man had already appeared since sixteen years ago. Even the matter where Ling Qing Yu had betrayed your whereabouts was all controlled by him alone? This character... just who could he be?"

Huang Yueli shook her head, "I thought for a long time but I'm still unable to think of who it could be. But this matter is definitely related to the Sky Phoenix Ring and moreover, even within the Armament Guild, there are also spies sent in by that mysterious man. Last night, Ye Xing Hua came over and told me..."

"Wait!" Li Moying's expression underwent a change as he interrupted her, "Ye Xing Hua? That fellow came over last night? How come I don't know about it?"

Huang Yueli replied, "You slept after you took the medication..."

"You could have woken me up even after I slept! That fellow often comes to look for you for no good reason, isn't he a little too irritating? Doesn't he know that we are fiancé and fiancée who have just been engaged and we need time alone so why can't he just refrain from coming to disturb us?"

“What just been engaged? We’ve already been engaged for over a year!” Huang Yueli looked at him speechlessly, “Alright don’t you interrupt, do you still want to listen or not? Forget it if you don’t wish to!”

On seeing his little fox getting angry, Li Moying immediately became terrified, “Alright, alright, alright, listen to you talk, listen to you talk!”

Although he said that, he had already decided that later on he would pass down instructions to Cang Po Jun that in future Ye Xing Hua will be one of the guests which Levitation Sword Palace rejected.

Huang Yueli took out the notebook which Ye Xing Hua left behind as she passed it over to Li Moying.

Li Moying read it carefully while listening to Huang Yueli explain as his thick brows could not help but frowned.

“<<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>... what ancient classic is this? Blue Profound Sect’s Books Depository is the largest in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent and there are various ancient classics which had been left behind and I’ve read through all of it but I don’t have any impression of the <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>. Which powerhouse collected this?”

Hearing him said so, Huang Yueli was apparently rather disappointed, “Even you have not heard about this, then we’re really in trouble. I feel that the mysterious person who is controlling Chi Xiao Jiu and the others should have also read the <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>, otherwise he wouldn’t be so adamant towards the Sky Phoenix Ring. If we know the history of the <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>, perhaps we might be able to find some leads.”

Li Moying nodded his head, “What you said isn’t wrong. There aren’t many people who know you are Huang Yueli now. Moreover, there’s just only me alone who knows that Sky Phoenix Ring is still in your hands but for safety sake, in future it’d be better for you to tone down. Things like eavesdropping yesterday cannot be done any longer!”

Li Moying couldn’t help but to emphasize it once again.

This time, Huang Yueli nodded her head obediently, “I know already.”

Li Moying continued, “As for the matter regarding <<Drifting Cloud Scroll>>.... I will think of a way to investigate, don’t worry. With me around, I will definitely protect you properly and this time round, we must get married sooner and give birth to a bundle of babies and later on, we shall all cultivate and ascend together!”

“Who wants to give birth to a bundle of babies with you? I’m not a sow??” Huang Yueli mumbled.

Recalling her past life, Huang Yueli suddenly recalled something as her expression instantly turned rather ugly.

“Li Moying...”

“Cough cough, what’s the matter?” Hearing his Li’er calling his name with his surname, Li Moying instinctively felt that something was amiss.

Huang Yueli coldly harrumphed, "Yesterday, Chi Xiao Jiu said that in your past life, Ling Qing Yu went to your room several times in the middle of the night, is it true?"

Chapter 2107: Huang Yueli advances (1)

Li Moying went into a blank as he replied subconsciously, "Which time are you talking about?"

When Huang Yueli heard that, her eyes widened as she questioned him in disbelief, "Which time?? SO IT'S NOT ONLY ONE TIME!" Saying that, she couldn't help but dashed in front of Li Moying as she grabbed his clothing on his chest and questioned fiercely, "What have you done behind my back?"

The minute Li Moying spoke out, he realised that he had said the wrong thing as he hurriedly raised both his hands and tried his best to express his faithfulness.

"I'm wronged! Li'er, what could I possibly do behind your back? I haven't even taken a straight look at what Ling Qing Yu looks like!"

However, Huang Yueli continued questioning unrelentingly, "Who's asking you about that? Speak, did you and Ling Qing Yu stay together in the middle of the night?" As she asked that, her finger kept poking at him hard, as she almost tore the cloth in front of Li Moying's chest.

Li Moying looked at his fiancée who had tipped the vinegar urn as he replied in fright, "Li... Li'er, you're so brutal.... Do you really want to murder your husband?"

"Brutal? If you don't speak things clearly today, I'll let you witness what's called the real brutality!" Huang Yueli gave a cold humph as her icy cold gaze followed down the man's robust chest downwards and roved around his lower body.

Li Moying shivered when he saw her meaningful savage gaze.

His little fox's gaze was so brutal, surely she wasn't.... thinking of doing that right?

Thinking of this, he didn't dare to tease Huang Yueli anymore as he hurriedly explained in a firm manner, "Li'er, don't listen to Chi Xiao Jiu and the other's rubbish, there's no such ridiculous thing! Alright, I admit that since long ago, Ling Qing Yu had always intentionally tried to get near me. But did you know that other than you, I've never given any nice looks to any other women. Every time she came over to my room in the middle of the night, she'd be chased away by me and there was once when I couldn't endure it any longer as I hurt her, which was.... ughh, the time when you had a big fight with me, do you still remember?"

"Which time?" Huang Yueli went into a blank as she met with Li Moying's profound black pupils and her face suddenly flushed red.

She recalled that there was once when Ling Qing Yu was hurt by Mu Chengying and later on she came back crying and complained to her.

She trusted Ling Qing Yu especially back then and totally didn't thought about the hidden underlying reason behind all these as she foolishly ran to reason it out with Mu Chengying, but in the end, she was dragged into the room by Mu Chengying...

At that moment, that man's utterly discomfited expression and that uncontrollable lasting kisses, till today, was still etched deeply in her memories...

Before then, although Mu Chengying had wooed her resolutely but he restrained himself very well and never had such intimate actions with her before.

Huang Yueli was still very young back then and as she had her mind totally on cultivation, she totally had not met with such incidents previously and under the mixture of embarrassment and anger, she burst out crying out of anger.

When dawn broke, the two of them had a huge fight and Huang Yueli then chased Mu Chengying out of the door and for a duration of at least an entire year, she had severed all forms of contact with him.

Hearing Li Moying mentioning about what happened back then, Huang Yueli's face flushed crimson red as she bit her lips and rolled her eyes at him while saying, "So... so to speak, it was Ling Qing Yu who came to provoke you?"

"Not just provoked me?" Li Moying's brows creased as a flash of chilliness flew past his eyes, "At that time she even drugged my tea. When the medicinal effect acted up, under a moment of fury, I sent her out flying! Who would I know that you would come settle the debt with me after that and at that time, I..."

Chapter 2108: Huang Yueli advances (2)

"The aphrodisiac which Ling Qing Yu had brought was very strong and when I felt the surge of heat arising from within, you suddenly rushed in again. I already warned you several times to leave quickly but you refused to no matter what. You have absolutely no idea that whenever my mind roams, I'd be thinking about doing various kinds of intimate actions with you, moreover under such an inducement... I totally couldn't wait to push you under me, and immediately possess..."

"Shut up!" Huang Yueli found that what he said was getting more and more ridiculous as she immediately covered up his mouth, "Stop your nonsense!"

"Mmmph mmph mmph!" Li Moying wanted to say more but was held on to her tightly as he couldn't make a single sound.

Huang Yueli pursed her lips and her expression became uglier, "So to say, that day you did that thing to me, it was all because you were incited with the aphrodisiac? With didn't you explain it to me?"

"Wu wu wu!" Li Moying pointed to his mouth pitifully.

Huang Yueli gave a cold harrumph as she retracted her pair of petite fair hands.

Li Moying took a long breath, "Almost suffocated, you are trying to kill me! Then you will become a widow!"

Huang Yueli stared hard at him and Li Moying shivered as he hurriedly said, "That morning, I wanted to explain to you properly but after you woke up, you were very angry and refused to listen to me, looking as though you can't wait to kill me! I'm afraid that your anger will hurt your body so I thought about explaining to you after you are appeased. Whoever knew that from then onwards, you just refused to see me at all?"

In actual fact, on the second day when he awoke, he knew that things were going to be terrible.

Huang Yueli's temper would absolutely not allow her to be willing to marry him just because he had seen her naked.

On the contrary, all the years which he had spent to make Huang Yueli had a little bit of good feeling towards him, had all gone down the drain from then on.

Li Moying sighed, "Moreover, no matter if I was struck with the aphrodisiac or not, it is a fact that I didn't managed to control myself and hurt you... I didn't want to push the responsibility to anyone else. Anyway, It's my responsibility that I didn't take that I didn't take care of you."

Huang Yueli bit her lips as she recalled the scenario that day and knew that this couldn't all be blamed entirely on Li Moying.

That day she was so infuriated because she had already started to like Li Moying and she actually believed in him deep inside her heart so even if Ling Qing Yu was beaten up by him, she believed that there was a reason behind it. But she had not expected that the usually submissive man would suddenly turn so overbearing, so irresistible and do such undue matter to her...

After that incident, she cooled herself down for a few days and indistinctively sensed that Mu Chengying's condition wasn't very normal that day.

But Ling Qing Yu had always been by her side and intentionally mentioned there had been many cases where many men would treat their wives roughly, thus inciting Huang Yueli's fear deep inside her heart.

As time went by, she had assumed that Mu Chengying would definitely bully her in future hence she was determined to ignore him.

It was until a year later when she met with danger in the Eastern Ocean while on experience learning and Mu Chengying had appeared to save her thus landing himself into sustaining heavy injury...

Huang Yueli's eyelids drooped down slightly and her long lashes fluttered, "So... so it's like this..."

Li Moying knew that her heart must have softened as the corners of his lips curled up as he spoke out while taking advantage of this situation, "Now do you know? How much of a damage that your disbelief in me had caused?"

Huang Yueli nodded and spoke out earnestly, "I'm sorry..."

"Why? Saying one word of sorry and you wish to forget about it?" Li Moying's brows rose.

Huang Yueli blinked, "Then what do you want?"

Chapter 2109: Huang Yueli advances (3)

Li Moying gave an evil smile, "Why don't we.... continue the unfinished business from that night?"

Huang Yueli stared at him angrily, "Don't even think about it! Moreover speaking, after we've reincarnated, you... haven't you been sticking to me every day and taking advantage of me?"

Thinking about the various ways where he took advantage of her, she simply wanted to cry alright?

Li Moying's handsome face leaned in close to her and intentionally suppressed his voice, appearing very bewitching, "So wronged? Haven't I been taken advantage by you every day as well? When are you preparing to be responsible to me? Hmm?"

Huang Yueli started at his rosed brows, erect nose bridge and her gaze finally fell onto his thin but sexy lips.

It was said that men with thin lips were all cold in manner and were callous but she took many years before she understood that this man's fickleness was all because that all the passion in his life had all been given to her... behind his fickleness, was genuine deep feelings.

As though being bewitched, she slowly leaned near and she planted a slight kiss onto Li Moying's lips.

Sensing the young lady in his arms about to touch-and-go, Li Moying tightened his arms and turned from passiveness to initiative.

Suddenly he heard Huang Yueli asked, "So, you really have no relationship with Ling Qing Yu?"

Li Moying was stunned as he was a little short of response but following that, he was a little upset that this young lass still remembered that senseless woman!

"I really don't have any relationship with her! Moreover, if you really haven't forgotten, I already told you many times that I hate her! That woman is so ugly, can't even be compared to a strand of hair of yours, how could I possibly have anything to do with her?"

Huang Yueli knew that based on this man's arrogance; he was not willing to tell lies.

Hence she gave a smile as lifted up her chin while putting on a smug expression, "Hmph, consider that you have good eyesight!"

...

After the auction ended, Li Moying and Huang Yueli made separate arrangements to seek Liu Buyan's whereabouts.

At the same time, Huang Yueli also considered carefully and decided to advance.

She had promoted into the sixth stage realm for almost half a year.

When she first got to Blue Profound Sect, under the large supply of medicinal herbs and spirit stones, her advancement level was swift and she broke through several small realms continuously.

However, later on when Li Moying's illness worsened, majority of her thoughts were on her fiancée and there wasn't much help for her to slack on cultivation.

Later on, she was captured by Liu Buyan and had her meridians and soul trace sealed by him so on the contrary, the Profound Energy in her body kept on strengthening in the adverse environment and instead, it had speedily accumulated in a short duration of time.

After the restrain was released, her Profound Energy rebounded strongly and thus causing her to shoot straight to sixth stage realm peak, only short of a suitable chance to breakthrough to seventh stage realm.

Right now, Li Moying was a little unsettled, "You sure that you want to advance now? I am unable to protect you at this very moment and if you were to advance right now, I'm really not assured..."

Huang Yueli nodded her head firmly, "Of course, I must quickly raise my own potential and no longer allow you to take risks just to protect me! Now, it should be my turn to protect you!"

Chapter 2110: Huang Yueli advances (4)

"Relax, it's not the first time I'm advancing and moreover speaking, there's still Guardian Jun around and there won't be any problem."

Huang Yueli tried her best to persuade Li Moying, in order to allow him to agree to it.

The matters follow that was much simpler.

Huang Yueli had been cultivating <<Nine Phoenix Transformations>> and every single time she advanced, she required a huge amount of medicinal herbs to support her.

At the checkpoint of seventh stage realm, the medicinal herbs she required was already very rare and also a huge amount, which included seven pieces of ninth tier magical beast cores.

Ninth tier magical beasts, terms of ability, were already things which ordinary ninth stage realm peak could not handle any longer.

Luckily, Li Moying had hunted quite a number of ninth grade magical beasts in his past life and the crystal cores had always been stored in Blue Profound Sect's store and Huang Yueli personally went to check on it and discovered that these crystal cores were all undamaged and the Profound Qi within it was still rather abundant.

Whereas Divine Doctor Dai was able to deploy a large amount of rare medicinal herbs at the Alchemist Guild and within a short amount of time, it was all gathered.

With everything prepared, during one fine morning, Huang Yueli and Little Phoenix shut themselves in the rear hall, as she prepared to advance.

The rest of the other people were all anxiously waiting in the front hall.

Not too long later, a pure fire attributed energy started to float out from the rear hall's direction and as time went by, bit by bit, it grew denser and more powerful than before.

A few hours later, the fire attributed Profound Energy had already occupied the entire Levitation Sword Palace and furthermore, some Profound Energy even spread outside of Levitation Sword Palace.

Some female attendants who had slightly weaker cultivations, all started to disperse outside of Levitation Sword Palace to seek temporary shelter.

Li Moying had already waited outside the front hall for ten hours and his complexion was already starting to turn pale.

When Cang Po Jun saw that, he persuaded, "Sovereign, you'd better go and rest first, This Subordinate is right here keeping an eye on things. From Grandmaster Huang's pure Profound Energy and steady breathing, advancing shouldn't be a difficult feat."

However, Li Moying totally refused to listen to his persuasion.

How could he possibly leave at this crucial moment when Li'er was about to advance?

Cang Po Jun was helpless as he got Dai Boqi to join in and Dai Boqi also frowned, "Rest when it's time to! No one is able to tell how much time is needed when practitioners advance and perhaps it might even take a few days, are you going to stay here and make yourself wait in spite of that?"

Li Moying's expression was cold but his attitude was exceptionally firm, "Many thanks Divine Doctor Dai but I will not leave."

"You..." Divine Doctor Dai was extremely melancholic! He really wanted to howl at him, "You dare to coordinate with This Divine Doctor for an entire day for treatment??"

Just at the moment when he was about to fly into a rage, a sudden burst of sword cries reverberated through the skies!

Levitation Sword Palace's fire attributed Profound Energy seemed to have congealed in an instance and the skies seemed to have a moment of peace and quiet but immediately following that, an explosion was heard and the fire attributed energy furiously raged upwards!

An explosion was heard, burst after another, and every single time it rang, it would be more terrifying than the previous!

Until the end, even the surface of Levitation Sword Palace also started to have tremors.

"This is... Li'er is about to advance!" Li Moying's eyes flashed past a joyous look and he even ignored the discomfort in his body, as he immediately sat up straight and stared at the rear hall where Huang Yueli was in closed seclusion.

Although Dai Boqi was also in ninth stage realm, but as a Pill Master, his potential really wasn't very high.

Under the surging impacts of fire attributed Profound Energy, he even started to feel discomfort around his chest and he hurriedly took out a pill and swallowed it down before he felt much better.

"This... what's going on? My disciple... isn't she charging towards seventh stage realm?"
