Chapter 2151: Like a joke (1)

What's more was that she was refining the most difficult Fatigue Relief Pill among the second level medicinal pills!

That was simply too amusing!

The success rate had probably not reached even ten percent and even if she refined twenty trays, she might not even succeed even one time!

Now this wretched lass only had three chances so she had to see what kind of tricks would that lass Bai refined!

Huang Yueli totally couldn't be bothered about her as she started to refine on her own.

For a kind of medicinal pill like the Fatigue Relief Pill, was mainly to help newly advanced third stage realm practitioners to solidify their foundations and to congeal their Profound Energy so to lower levelled practitioners, it was an extremely valuable and useful medicinal pill.

But the Fatigue Relief Pill was extremely complex to refine and to ordinary second ranked Pill Masters, it was exceptionally difficult and it would usually require a third ranking standard to be able to come out with a higher success rate.

But Huang Yueli didn't feel that it was much difficulty at all.

She had already crammed all of the second levelled prescriptions beforehand and all of it were successfully refined.

Although she had only refined it once, but at least she knew the knack to refine it.

The memories of Dai Boqi's pointers began to run in her mind and she followed the prescribed order as she started to refine according to the prescription.

All of the spectators present had their eyes fixed on her and originally quite a number of them had doubted that Huang Yueli had totally not managed to practice refining pills, especially when she displayed the flame which she used was the most common open flame of all, that practically verified everyone's guesses.

Many of them were waiting for her to make a fool out of herself.

In the end, out of everyone's expectation was, Huang Yueli went step by step to adjust the flame, adding in the medicinal herbs then refining the plants.....

Every single step looked extremely professionally done and not only were her actions standardized, it was also extremely graceful.

Accompanied to her lucid and elegant outstanding looks, watching her refine pills was simply a kind of enjoyment.

“This Bai Ruoli really looks as though she’s doing a good job at refining pills! Could it be that she really does know how to refine pills?”

“That’s hard to say, perhaps she’s just a vase! As for her ability, we’d still have to see the refining results!”

“That’s right as well, but she already has the advantage because of her looks. As compared to her, those Pill Masters around here all look like country bumpkins from the countryside...”

Amateurs were merely here to join in the fun hence they had praises for Huang Yueli’s techniques.

Whereas for those veteran Pill Masters who know the ropes, Huang Yueli’s performance made them extremely stunned!

Because Huang Yueli’s complete set of movements were not only standard, but also simplified to the extreme, without any unnecessary actions. Every single step was that single but yet reached the maximum effect.

Although the flame which was burning at the bottom of the furnace was the most common open flame, but under her adept control, the use of it was much better than the spiritual flame!

The height and warmth of the spiralling of the flame and the refining standard of the medicinal herbs, were extremely standard.

“From the looks of this, if Young Miss Bai does not make any mistake, it’s possible for her to refine the first batch of Fatigue Relief Pills out!” An Elder from the Alchemist Guild on the viewing stage couldn’t help but exclaim.

Feng Zhensheng was listening but he scoffed with irreconciliation in his heart, “This is still in the early stage of forcing the medicinal effects of the medicinal plants which is simple enough. The hardest point of the Fatigue Relief Pill is to form the pill! Although it looks very smooth running now, but in the end, there’s a ninety nine percent chance that one isn’t able to refine the pill out!”

The Elder also noticed that Feng Zhensheng’s daughter was also in the competition and what he had said wasn’t suitable hence he didn’t continue with the conversation.

In actual fact, what Feng Zhensheng said wasn’t wrong at all. The difficulty in the refining of the Fatigue Relief Pill was indeed in the later stage!

Chapter 2152: Like a joke (2)

Whether Huang Yueli could refine the pills out or not, it was really still too early to speak.

Whereas on the other side, Feng Xiaoyan was trying her best in refining the Poison Purging Pill.

This kind of foundational second level medicinal pill had much simpler techniques to refine and in total, the sequences it required was only half of the Fatigue Relief Pill.

Adding on that this was the pill which Feng Xiaoyan usually refined, hence it only took her a little over an hour before she completed the first batch of pill refining.

She took a deep breath and struck out all her Profound Energy to lift up the furnace lid.

After the smoke dissipated, nine medicinal pills inside the furnace were displayed clearly in front of her eyes.

Feng Xiaoyan felt jubilant and a satisfied and complacent smile surfaced on her face!

Her success rate of the Poison Purging Pill was approximately thirty percent and on the first time to be able to successfully form it into pills was absolutely the display of good luck, moreover she refined a total of seven pills in this one time! It was her first time having refined so many pills in one tray! This was an exceptional good display of her performance.

This time round, her chances of passing the second round of competition was a matter of fact.

Moreover she still had two more chances and if her luck was good enough to refine another tray, she would practically be able to win first place! Hence at this very moment, undulating praises could be heard coming from behind her.

Feng Xiaoyan had assumed that everyone saw the pills which she had refined and were astonished by her powerful ability hence she smiled exceptionally brightly.

Just at this moment, Master Zhang ran over to her side with a stunned expression.

Feng Xiaoyan puffed up her chest, just waiting to be commended by Master Zhang.

Whoever knew that Master Zhang didn't even stopped for a moment and directly ran past her, but rather he ran over to Huang Yueli's side!

Feng Xiaoyan's mouth opened wide as she was a little short of recollecting her senses.

It was then when she saw Master Zhang popping out his head to take a look at Huang Yueli's furnace with a shocked and surprised look and after a while later, he took out a medicinal pill with a shaking hand from the pill furnace.

"Fatigue Relief Pill! It really is the Fatigue Relief Pill! Moreover, it has already reached second level upper grade and the medicinal effect as compared to ordinary Fatigue Relief Pill is much higher by fifty percent or so!" He looked at it against the sunlight and carefully observed the medicinal pill which Huang Yueli had refined and the more he looked, the more praises he had for it, "From the perfect shape of this along with the flowing pill pattern, one would know that in the refining process, the control of the flame that the Pill Master had had already reached the limit! This is really too incredible!"

Saying that, he took out the other pills from the pill furnace, one after another.

"One piece, two pieces, three pieces... there's actually a total of ten pieces! That many! And every single piece of it is of the finest quality!"

When the spectators heard Master Zhang's explanation, all of them were dumbstruck.

"Heavens, that's too incredible! How is that possible!"

"Young Miss Bai not only knows how to refine pills, moreover she refined it so well. Could it be that before she acknowledged Divine Doctor Dai as Master, she was already a Pill Master?"

“Should be so, otherwise how would she be able to refine the Fatigue Relief Pill in just under one month? Surely it’s not possible to have such an abnormal genius right?”

“No wonder, even if this was so, her innate talent is already very shocking! A sixteen year old second level Pill Master, absolutely with a boundless future ahead of her!”

Bursts after bursts of praises were heaped upon Huang Yueli.

So many spectators and yet none of them noticed that just beside Huang Yueli, there was a Feng Xiaoyan who had already completed refining one tray of medicinal pills.

Chapter 2153: Like a joke (3)

Feng Xiaoyan almost fainted from fury!

Just a moment ago, she was still delighted over the fact that her pill refining speed had become faster again and moreover, the quantity that she had refined had also broken a new record.

But in the end, whoever knew that she was actually just like a joke!

The amount of time that Huang Yueli had used was the same as hers but the pill she refined was a higher levelled Fatigue Relief Pill! Moreover, including the total number of medicinal pills that she had refined, it was one piece more than hers!

This was a total crush in all aspects!

As compared to Huang Yueli, these things that she had refined were totally not worth mentioning at all!

No wonder, no matter if it was Master Zhang who was the judging committee or the spectators present, none of them awarded her with any gaze at all!

But, how was this possible?

Others might not know about this, but just a month ago, she had personally seen Huang Yueli being looked upon by Dai Boqi, to become his direct disciple and at that time, she still didn’t know how to refine pills at all!

No matter how Feng Xiaoyan thought, she was unable to understand and her face was flushed red from this as her hands kept trembling.

She faced her pill furnace and as her hands kept on trembling, lastly, it was all overturned.

The pills in the pill furnace then all rolled over and fell all over the ground, as it started rolling everywhere.

Feng Xiaoyan then regained her senses as her expression took an abrupt change and she hurriedly sprawled onto the ground to search for all of her Poison Purging Pill!

Luckily her pills had all formed into their shapes and although it was stained with quite a bit of dust, but that didn’t have much effect towards the pill’s medicinal effect so it wasn’t considered as too serious.

Only thing was that a Pill Master could actually overturn her own pill furnace so this was an absolutely embarrassing matter.

Feng Xiaoyan had finally gotten what she wished for, to become the focus of everyone's attention.

But the crowd weren't focusing on her pills which had been refined, but rather they were all laughing at her for sprawling on the ground, showing that dishevelled look to search for her pills.

When Feng Xiaoyan heard the muffled laughter from the surroundings, she wished no more than to find a hole and stick her head into it as she was both embarrassed and ashamed!

Even more so, she was absolutely because of her jealousy and fury towards Huang Yueli!

This wretched lass, when she was in the Alchemist Guild Headquarters, she totally was an ordinary person without any cultivational innate talent, how was it possible... that she suddenly became so powerful?

This.... was simply a little too ridiculous? Or was it said that she was just pretending back then?

Just at this moment, Huang Yueli's voice suddenly rang, "Master Zhang, if you've seen it all, I'd like to continue with the competition. There;s still around one hour left in this round and I'm thinking that I might be able to try to see if I can refine more pills!"

Master Zhang was stunned but he immediately recalled that earlier Huang Yueli had specially asked him about the awarding of points if they were to refine several trays of medicinal pills.

Even though Master Zhang felt that it was impossible to refine two trays of Fatigue Relief Pills but since the regulation was so, he didn't say much and merely encouraged Huang Yueli with a few sentences as he left.

Feng Xiaoyan heard their conversation and the flame of jealousy almost rushed to her head but she finally regained a line of clarity.

Right, the second round of competition wasn't finished yet!

Now she and that wretched lass had actually only exhausted one set of medicinal pills.

Although on the surface, it seemed that the quality and quantity of the pills that she had refined was short of a little against Huang Yueli's.

But if she was able to refine another tray of medicinal pills, that would be totally two different matters!

Chapter 2154: Like a joke (4)

Thinking to this point, Feng Xiaoyan forcibly calmed herself down and coerced herself to ignore the laughter from the surrounding as she put on a cold face and climbed up again, returning to her own position and held up the pill furnace as she started to light up the flame for the second time.

Bai Ruoli, your good luck will end right now!

At the same time, the crowd around Huang Yueli all started to disperse and it was at this moment when everyone then noticed that Feng Xiaoyan had also refined a tray of medicinal pills.

Amidst the crowd's astonishment, their gazes kept swimming between the both of them.

“Looks like Feng Xiaoyan isn’t bad as well! Their abilities are both so strong and they have already refined out the first batch of medicinal pills. Looks like in order to come out with the winner and loser, we’d have to see who is able to refine out the second batch of pills!”

“Second batch? What kind of joke is that? Do you know how low the success rate for Pill Masters are? It’s already considered as dog sh*t luck to be able to come out with a successful first batch in this kind of competition, still hoping to come out with the second? Isn’t this akin to day dreaming?”

“That might not be so. I heard that Feng Xiaoyan’s success rate for the Poison Purging Pill almost meets thirty percent and if she has a bit more luck, perhaps she might really be able to refine the second batch! In this way, although Bai Ruoli is in the lead now, it might be Feng Xiaoyan who has a higher possibility of winning!”

Hearing this analysis, the surrounding Pill Masters and spectators all started nodding their heads as they agreed with this very much.

Dai Boqi was seated in the VIP seating area and his listening was very clear as he heard whatever all the others said.

He couldn’t help but sneer as his eyes were filled with disdain, “Really.... frogs in the well! Haven’t they seen a genuine pill refining genius? Continuously refining two batches of second level medicinal pills is like day dreaming? That lass Feng only has a success rate of thirty percent for refining a Poison Purging Pill and yet they have the cheek to say that out loud! And they even felt that her success rate is much higher than Lass Li?”

Dai Boqi had almost been most protective of his own people and when he heard the others saying that he couldn’t win, he felt super discomfited as his eyes popped out while blowing his whiskers.

Liu Buyan understood his Master’s temper as he hurriedly advised, “Master, why are you listening to those fellows with no common sense for? We know clearly how Little Junior Sister’s ability is and by then, they will all find out her prowess!”

Li Moying wasn’t as furious as Dai Boqi as he remained watching Huang Yueli who was in the competitors’ area with a composed look.

The surrounding young ladies seated on the competitors’ seating all turned their heads over to steal glances at that handsome and esteemed Young Sect Master, attempting to send their flirtatious glances at him.

But his gaze was concentrated and that seemingly cold and aloof peach blossomed eyes revealed some brilliant warm glows.

This kind of gaze made one feel envious and jealous and many young ladies secretly gnashed their silver teeth as they all lamented that Huang Yueli was just too lucky in life! Not only did she have a high innate talent, she even had a perfect fiancé! Comparing one person against another really would cause one to die of fury!

In the competitors’ seating, Huang Yueli was focused on controlling her flame as her large eyes kept watching her pill furnace without even blinking. All those comments and gazes around her could not sway her attention for even one second.

When she had refined the first tray of pills earlier, she wasn't very proficient because it was her first time to refine pills alone without Dai Boqi's guidance.

In order to ascertain that she was able to succeed at the first attempt, she intentionally slowed down as she cautiously worked through it hence the amount of time she spent was relatively longer.

Now that she had already found out the knack to it, naturally her actions hastened by a bit.

After another quarter of an hour, her second tray of medicinal pills had already entered the stage of formation.

Chapter 2155: Like a joke (5)

Her pills were almost about to be formed into shape.

At this moment in time, Feng Xiaoyan was also refining her second batch of medicinal pills.

But this time round, her pressure was much larger than before!

Before this, she was sure that Huang Yueli would not be able to refine any second level medicinal pills so her mentality was totally relaxed as she was able to display her usual potential hence she was able to refine the pills successfully.

But now, Huang Yueli had actually refined ten pieces of Fatigue Relief Pills!

In this way, unless Feng Xiaoyan was able to refine her second batch of medicinal pills, otherwise it was certain that she would lose!

Feng Xiaoyan's pressure suddenly increased to a giant load and under the distraction with her thoughts in turmoil, she totally was unable to put her full attention into refining at all.

No matter how she hypnotised herself, the surroundings discussions would enter her ears occasionally.

Whereas her own line of sight kept drifting uncontrollably towards Huang Yueli who was standing not too far away from her.

Such a half-hearted attitude naturally wouldn't allow her to display her full ability and Feng Xiaoyan hadn't that kind of unruffled feeling from the start. Her control of the flame caused the temperature to fluctuate up and down and the hand gestures which she had struck out were totally not as standard as before and she even made some minor mistakes. Although she had finally managed to save the situation, but it still affected those medicinal herbs.

Feng Zhensheng was watching from the committee's seating as he grew more anxious while watching.

"Ai, Yan'er's psychological state is just too terrible! What kind of timing is this already so she should just stop thinking of other stuff and concentrate on refining pills only! Aiya, why did she make a mistake again!"

But other than being worried on the viewing platform, there was nothing else that he could do.

It wasn't as if Feng Xiaoyan didn't know about her own situation but she just couldn't stop herself from checking on Huang Yueli.

The more accurate Huang Yueli's actions were and the more unhurried she was, the more anxious she got as she turned even more helpless.

At the very last step, when she was preparing to congeal the pill, Feng Xiaoyan had already realised that her own tray of medicinal pills would not be able to achieve the previous medicinal effect even if it was refined successfully.

But she had no other choice as she could only give a forceful try!

Feng Xiaoyan took a deep breath as she suddenly increased the firepower as she prepared to enter the most crucial stage – pill forming!

Success or failure, it all depended on this move!

But at this moment, on the viewing seat, waves of exclamation was heard suddenly and following that, more and more cheers could be heard.

Immediately following that, Master Zhang then ran over from the committee's seat as he dashed right in front of Huang Yueli and started shouting out in surprise, "Successful again, successful again! Heavens, Young Miss Bai is really incredible to be able to continuously refine two trays of medicinal pills! Moreover, it's still the most difficult Fatigue Relief Pill among the second level pills! This... is simply a miracle!"

Master Zhang was extremely excited so much that his voice went off.

On the viewing platform, the spectators' voices of exclamation came wave after wave.

What? That wretched lass Bai, she actually... actually refined out the second tray once again??

Feng Xiaoyan's heart suddenly turned cold as her hand subconsciously trembled and the deviant flame in her hand suddenly lost control as it abruptly exploded and fire sparks splattered!

Bad!

When Feng Xiaoyan recovered in time, she hurriedly unleashed her Profound Energy in an attempt to save things, however it was all too late!

The temperature in the pill furnace had suddenly been spiked up high and under the immense contrast, not only had the pills in the furnace not formed into shape, it had all been charred into ashes and moreover, the pill furnace's shape had changed because of the difference in the temperature.

A loud "boom" suddenly sounded!

The pill furnace in front of Feng Xiaoyan suddenly exploded!

Chapter 2156: Like a joke (6)

The pill furnace used during the Rising Star Competition was originally the most ordinary pill furnace and the material used for the furnace's body was the most commonly found brass.

This kind of furnace was actually best used to heat up with the open flame because if it was used continuously for a long period of time and heated with the spiritual flame, it would cause a certain amount of damage to the furnace, just that it wasn't that evident.

However, in order to flaunt her own assets, Feng Xiaoyan used the exceptionally powerful deviant flame to refine pills!

In this way, the damage caused to the pill furnace was extremely grave!

Of course, if she had stable development, the pill furnace would not explode just because it was burnt a few times but as Feng Xiaoyan's thoughts were in turmoil, there were several times which she had overheated the deviant flame's temperature beyond the normal boundary and in the end, when it was at the crucial stage of pill forming, she even completely lost control of the furnace fire!

This was what led to this round's explosion!

As the deviant flame itself was extremely powerful, hence in an instance, the pill furnace shattered into pieces from the explosion and moreover, every single piece shot around the surroundings at shocking speed, as the might of the explosion astonished everyone!

If one's ability was slightly off, that person would definitely be injured or die from the shattered pieces!

"Heavens!"

"Be careful!"

Many spectators on the viewing platform recovered from their short moment of shock and instantly reacted in time as they gave out terrified screeches.

As the position on where Master Zhang was standing was exactly in between Huang Yueli and Feng Xiaoyan, hence his distance was just a mere ten meters or so to Feng Xiaoyan's pill furnace.

He bore the brunt of it all, and moreover his back was facing Feng Xiaoyan, as numerous shattered pieces flew towards his back!

Hearing the crowd's warnings, Master Zhang also realised that danger was approaching but as a Pill Master, his own cultivation wasn't considered very high and moreover he lacked actual combat experience so when in crucial moments, his hands and feet didn't listen to his command and he had no way to evade it at all!

Air-splitting whooshes could be heard nearing his back.

Master Zhang's face paled as he had already made preparations to take on the heavy injuries.

Just at this moment, he suddenly felt a huge force around his chest as he was tugged on the robe around his chest and thrown out in an instance!

Master Zhang's body uncontrollably flew outwards, shocking him so much that his soul almost flew out!

However, at the moment when he landed, he then realised that he had landed on a large patch of grass and the ground was soft. Although he was covered in mud from the fall, but he practically wasn't injured at all.

Whereas at this moment, another burst of screams was heard.

Master Zhang hastily turned his head around to see Huang Yueli already exposed to the shattered pill furnace pieces!

“YOUNG MISS BAI—!”

Master Zhang was extremely shocked but since things had turned out like this, he didn't know how to save her.

Just as he was extremely terrified, the next moment, Huang Yueli suddenly moved.

Her sleeves extended and a burst of surging Profound Energy raised a wave of air wave, meeting the numerous shooting shattered pieces head on.

A loud “BOOM” reverberated like thunder and the entire competition grounds was filled with sand and stone which stirred up into mid-air, choking everyone into a burst of coughs.

By the time everyone had finally finished coughing, they lifted their heads only to discover that Huang Yeuli was just standing at the position where Master Zhang was earlier.

Her long dress remained untainted with dust and her soft long hair was still unruffled and there was even a slight smile on that exquisite perfect face.

As though, the terrifying scene which made everyone's hearts stop beating earlier had no impact on her at all.

Everyone was momentarily dazed.

But only those high levelled VIP practitioners who were of seventh stage realm and above saw what happened clearly.

Chapter 2157: Like a joke (7)

It was because of this which was why they were even one hundred times more shocked than those ordinary spectators!

Just earlier, in that instance where the clash of light and sparks happened, Huang Yueli reacted just in time and extended her Agility Dance Steps and as her figure moved like a ghost, she appeared right in front of Master Zhang.

She threw Master Zhang to one side and at the same time, used her Profound Energy to sweep and eliminate all the rampaging shattered pieces which were flying speedily towards her!

Her actions in the entire process were extremely smooth without any sliver of hesitation, nor were there any pauses in between.

To be able to complete such complicated actions within two short breaths and yet still not let anyone present suffer any injuries.

That meant that the power of her ability was at least sixth stage realm and above!

A sixteen year old but already with cultivation at sixth stage realm and above, even if it was in Sky Emperor City where strong practitioners were like clouds, she could be described as a first rated peerless genius!

After sometime later, the ordinary spectators also started to come around it.

Although they couldn't see Huang Yueli taking action clearly, but at least they understood that it was Huang Yueli who blocked off those shooting shattered pieces and also saved Master Zhang. Her potential, naturally was imaginable!

The crowd looked at each other in dismay and the gaze which they looked at Huang Yueli with were filled with senses of reverence!

A sixteen year old second ranked Pill Master, although was very incredible but it wouldn't make anyone feel terrified.

But a sixteen year old genius practitioner attaining such a stage realm made everyone feel that she had the qualifications to awe everyone!

"Li'er!"

Suddenly a man's voice which was consumed with anger could be heard ringing by the side of the competition grounds.

Immediately following that, the glamorous Huang Yueli which the spectators had seen, who bore a gracious bearing suddenly had an abrupt change in her expression as her large eyes suddenly sparkled and revealed an extremely innocent expression, as though she was a little fox which had fallen into a trap!

"Ughh... that, Moying... heh heh, why have you suddenly ran down? It's still competition time so non relevant people are not allowed to enter the competition grounds..."

When Li Moying heard that, his expression turned totally pitch black.

The man with an awe inspiring aura and tall frame easily walked past the array which was set up in the competition grounds and as though there were no one around, he directly walked next to Huang Yueli.

"You still have the cheek to say that! Earlier, why didn't you hide? Don't you know the consequences of being hit by those shattered pieces?"

As he was saying that, his arms stretched out and took his little fox into his arms. After he checked on her from head to toe, certifying that she had not suffered any injuries at all, it was then when his stiff expression finally eased a little.

Huang Yueli sensed the anger from him and realised that she had made him worried hence she obediently stayed in his arms, allowing him to check on her while widening her big eyes, putting on an obedient babyish look.

Li Moying saw her expression and he was filled with anger but unfortunately he had no resistance towards her obedient look.

He gritted his teeth hard and hissed out a sentence from the slits of his teeth, "Talk!"

Even though his tone was cold and hard, but Huang Yueli was so familiar with him that she was able to tell that Li Moying had a lack of power.

Acting cute had its effectiveness!

She hurriedly added more power and spoke out obediently, "Moying, don't be angry! How could these shattered pieces possibly injure me? My ability, you know it best! Moreover speaking, if I don't go block it away, wouldn't Master Zhang be struck by those shattered pieces? He doesn't have the ability to evade it all so if that was the case, he would definitely be heavily injured!"

Li Moying harrumphed coldly, "So what about that? Let him be injured then! As long as you're alright!"

Master Zhang, "..."

Chapter 2158: Like a joke (8)

When Master Zhang heard these words by the side, he almost broke out into two streaks of tears.

His old bones simply couldn't take on this torment!

Young Sect Master Li was exactly like what was in the rumors, especially pampering his beloved fiancée and was a good man, but... he just didn't know the propriety of respecting the elderly!

Master Zhang had various kinds of melancholic feelings while he was standing by the side.

But the other spectators present, especially the young ladies, were caught off guard as they were fed with a mouthful of dog food and all of them had totally been smitten by Li Moying's invisible overbearingness.

"Young Sect Master Li, simply too suave, too suave!"

"Bai Ruoli is really too lucky! She actually has such a man like this who pampers her so much!"

"If Young Sect Master Li is able to hug me while putting on such a worried expression, even if it was just for one breath, I am willing to give up anything for it!"

"Go, go, go, keep dreaming! Haven't you even taken a look at yourself in the mirror! Is Young Sect Master Li someone that you can dream off? Haven't you even taken a look at Young Miss Bai, what kind of innate talent and looks she has, and she even knows how to refine pills! Only a talented young lady like her, is able to match up to Young Sect Master Li alright?"

While the young ladies were being starry eyes, they had no choice but to admit that the disparity between themselves and the young lady in Li Moying's arms was simply too wide!

If it was said that many people felt that Huang Yueli had ran into great luck to be able to get engaged with Li Moying when they first arrived in Sky Emperor City.

Then after today, Huang Yueli's performance had already made everyone realise that she had enough qualifications to stand beside Li Moying!

"Wow, I really envy Bai Ruoli so much!"

“Too awesome, moreover she’s really low-keyed. Even though she’s so incredible, she never flaunts herself.”

“No wonder Young Sect Master Li likes her so much...”

Under the envious gaze from everyone, Huang Yueli slowly began to become awkward.

They were right in public and moreover still in the middle of the competition but hugging together like that was really not suitable at all!

However, Li Moying seemed as though he didn’t realise this as he still continued to hug her overbearingly as he diligently continued to educate her on safety.

Huang Yueli felt so gloomy because when men started to nag, they would be even more irritating than women!

She took the chance to push Li Moying’s robust chest while he paused for a second, “Alright, alright, I already know this, you’ve said it for the hundredth time already!”

“I said this for a hundred times but you still don’t remember it at all!” Li Moying said and stared at her.

Alas, the Young Sect Master who could usually send many other strong practitioners into awe from one gaze of his, was totally useless no matter how fierce his stare was when facing Huang Yueli. This young lass had long seen through him and was totally not afraid of him at all.

Huang Yueli blinked her big eyes and nodded her head vigorously, “I remember, I remember! I really have got it into my mind!”

“Really remembered it?”

Huang Yueli hastily nodded her head, “Really, really, even more real than a pearl! Alright, you’d better leave quickly, I still have to continue with the competition! Right, my pills are still inside the pill furnace and I’ve yet to take it out!”

She remembered her own pills and hastily pushed Li Moying aside.

After that he saw that his little fox didn’t even take another look at him as she directly pounced towards her pill furnace and retrieved yet another tray of medicinal pills as she held them preciously in her palms.

That treasured look of use versus that disdainful attitude which she had when she pushed him aside became a stark contrast.

Chapter 2159: Like a joke (9)

On seeing this scene, Li Moying’s heart felt so stuffed to the extreme as he really wanted to throw away that tray of medicinal pills!

In the past his greatest love rival was Huang Yueli’s Profound Armaments but now, there’s even the addition of medicinal pills??

Did he need to be so miserable!

“Li’er...” He stared at his fiancée with a begrudged expression.

However, Huang Yueli merely shot a fleeting glance at him as she absentmindedly waved her hand at him, “Alright Moying, hurry on back to the VIP seating and rest! The competition’s not over yet! There’s still two more hours so I must grab hold of time and refine out another tray of Fatigue Relief Pills!”

This... was simply akin to dismissing a kitten or a puppy!

Li Moying was extremely dissatisfied but the lass in front of him was like his natural born enemy and he simply could do nothing to her at all.

Just at this moment, Feng Zhensheng also swooped in swiftly into the competition grounds from the far away judging panel committee seating.

He ran all the way to Feng Xiaoyan and asked out anxiously, “Yan’er, Yan’er, how are you?”

Hearing his voice, the crowd then shifted their attention away from Li Moying and Huang Yueli as they realised that just beside them was Feng Xiaoyan who had fallen onto the ground.

The instance when the pill furnace exploded, the person who was the closest was actually Feng Xiaoyan who was refining pills.

Even though she had already exhausted all her might in the instance when the explosion happened, but based on her ability, she totally wasn’t able to evade it at all.

Luckily Huang Yueli stood out and blew away those rampaging shattered pieces with her Profound Energy! Otherwise Feng Xiaoyan might probably have been pierced with those shattered pieces, ending up in a tragic state.

But Huang Yueli made a move, mainly to save the innocent Master Zhang so saving Feng Xiaoyan was merely out of convenience so there were still some shattered pieces which had not been cleared as it pierced right into Feng Xiaoyan’s body.

However, when the pill furnace exploded, a large amount of ash also spread out along with the shattered pieces.

Those minute ash grains weren’t affected by Huang Yueli’s Profound Energy as it all poured towards Feng Xiaoyan.

So she was practically covered in black from head to toe, as though she had just crawled out from a coal mine!

Moreover, there were some parts of her body which had been pierced by those shattered pieces and were effusing blood, which looked really frightening.

Feng Xiaoyan had originally been completely scared stiff and when she heard Feng Zhensheng’s cries, she finally regained her senses as she endured the pain from her body as she climbed back on her feet.

“I... I’m alright...”

Her expression was a little awkward as she shot a vengeful gaze towards Huang Yueli, “You... it’s all this wretched lass’s fault! You actually caused me to turn out into such a miserable state! You obviously... obviously did it on purpose!”

Huang Yueli swept her with a glance as she creased her brows slightly, “Young Miss Feng, you’re the one who caused your own pill furnace to explode and almost implicated me! I saved you out of kind intentions and never mind if you’re not grateful, how could you have the cheek to bite me back?”

“You... how about these ashes? You could obviously sweep those away! But you had to splash it all onto me!” Feng Xiaoyan screeched.

When Huang Yueli heard that, her lips curled. Of course she had done it intentionally.

In order for the competition to proceed smoothly, she saved Feng Xiaoyan out of convenience but that didn’t mean that she was magnanimous enough to overlook Feng Xiaoyan’s provocation, to repay evil with gratitude! She was never one to have such a noble disposition!

Hence she only used her Profound Energy to blow away the larger shattered pieces but as for those smaller shattered pieces and ashes, she treated as though she didn’t see them, considering it as a lesson for Feng Xiaoyan.

Chapter 2160: Like a joke (10)

But now, it seemed as though the lesson which she taught Feng Xiaoyan was still a little too light.

Not only did Feng Xiaoyan not reflect on the mistake which she made, she even dared to continue to hoot at her!

Huang Yueli spoke out calmly, “Young Miss Feng, you ought to get this straight. Your pill furnace exploded and almost ruined my medicinal pills, moreover you almost caused the innocent Master Zhang to be seriously injured! According to regulations, your major disruption to the competition should result in your rights to the competition being disqualified!”

Feng Xiaoyan’s expression suddenly became twisted and along with that black ashened face, she simply looked like a monster.

“You... What rubbish are you sprouting? I know that you’re jealous of my pill refining innate talent and afraid that I will snatch first place with you hence you’re trying to find a way to chase me away from the competition! Wishful thinking! I will absolutely not give up!”

Feng Zhensheng also frowned as he turned towards Huang Yueli and spoke out sternly, “Don’t you dare sprout rubbish! Yan’er’s pill furnace exploded but that wasn’t something she wanted as well. She had suffered such a big shock but still persists on continuing with the competition, so this spirit is something that is worth for all to learn! How can I allow you to splash dirty water on her? This time, on account that you’re Divine Doctor Dai’s disciple, This President will forgive you for this round’s...”

His obvious flipping of black and white words made even the spectators below the stage unable to continue listening as they all boomed at him.

“What the, this is the first time I realised that President Feng is actually so shameless. The situation earlier is something that everyone had seen with our own eyes and yet he could still forcibly say that Feng Xiaoyan’s spirit is something that is worth learning from?”

“Isn’t that so? Young Miss Bai saved Feng Xiaoyan but not only did he not say a word of gratitude, he even acted as though he had given her some huge advantage, where did he get his big face from!”

The crowd’s accusations made Feng Zhensheng’s expression change slightly but he still maintained a sanctimonious look.

Feng Xiaoyan’s innate talent was very high and she had always been referred to as the number one talent among the younger generations in the Alchemist Guild. One of the reasons why Feng Zhensheng could become the Alchemist Guild Headquarters President was because of his outstanding daughter.

If this time, Feng Xiaoyan did not pass through the second round because of this, and was disqualified, then his standing in the Alchemist Guild would be affected.

Moreover, Feng Zhensheng had been slapped on the face by Huang Yueli several times hence he couldn’t stand to see her being so glamorous.

The last time Liu Buyan asked him for the Bipolar Black Orchid, he refused to hand it over. If Huang Yueli were to pass through the competition and win it openly, wouldn’t that made him appear comical?

“... Next time, if.... cough cough.....”

Feng Zhensheng still wanted to say more when he felt a tremendous amount of pressure shooting towards him from everyone which made his chest instantly felt a dull pain, as though it was about to explode!

His face turned red as he couldn’t say a single word and he could only open his eyes wide to see Li Moying slowly walking out from Huang Yueli’s back.

A genuine ninth stage realm practitioner’s pressure wasn’t really something that he, a Pill Master could handle?

As Li Moying came closer, Feng Zhensheng’s body seemed as though it had lost control. His feet turned to jelly and he just knelt down right there.

Li Moying’s expression was icy cold as he looked at him from above.

Feng Zhensheng’s body was trembling as it curled up onto the ground, he was scared stiff until his entire body broke out into cold sweat.

He originally thought that no matter how unruly Blue Profound Sect was, there was no way that he would publicly do this, attacking a Pill Grandmaster like him hence he continued to hoot at Huang Yueli with no fear
