

Weaponsmith 2201

Chapter 2201: What's the motive (7)

“But just based on the few of you, it's not possible to bring the Bipolar Black Orchid back. The last time in the Rising Star Competition, you've all seen the opponent's ability! That ghost masked man's cultivation is valiant and he's someone who you can't handle with ease. Moreover, this time round he initiated the invite to us over to the Northern Ice Fields so he definitely will set up various levels of hurdles and it would be even harder to deal with than the past. His nature is very crafty and all of you are not his opponent!”

Li Moying recounted the past few days when he crossed hands with the ghost masked man, as he delved into deep thoughts.

Somehow he felt that something wasn't quite right.

Why was there such a strong powerhouse in Soaring Heavens Continent but there was actually no one who knew about this at all?

When Cang Po Jun heard that, he was stuffed for words momentarily but after a while later, he spoke out, “Sovereign, what you said is right and the ghost masked man indeed has strong ability but based on your current body condition...”

Liu Buyan also couldn't help but butted in, “That's right, if you still had the same ability as in your past life, even if you don't wish to go to the Northern Ice Fields, I will also force you to help out and don't even think about lazing around! But based on your sickly state, you totally can't fight anyone, if you're unlucky you might even lose your life! Just this.... and you still want to drag everyone down?”

Liu Buyan didn't speak as deferential and reserved as Cang Po Jun and the others and on the contrary, he seemed as though he was intentionally going against Li Moying as his words even carried a meaning filled with ridicule.

Cang Po Jun and the others wiped their foreheads' sweat silently when they heard that.

Only Divine Doctor Liu dared to speak to Sovereign in such a manner!

Oh, no there was also Grandmaster Huang who dared to do that but Grandmaster Huang's status was so noble and elegant, gentle and cute and she wouldn't say such terrible words like Divine Doctor Liu...

As expected when Li Moying heard those words, his face instantly sunk and the glare he took towards Liu Buyan was chilly.

If Cang Po Jun and the others were stared by him in this manner, they would have been frightened out of their skins!

However, Liu Buyan had that constipated smile on his face, totally not treating it like a matter at all.

He just didn't believe what Li Moying would do to him! Not to mention that his little life was still within his grasp!

Moreover speaking, even if Li Moying didn't want his life, there was still his Junior Sister! His Junior Sister would protect him! What can that wife slave possibly do to him?

As expected, after Li Moying stared at him for half a day long, although he was evidently unhappy but he didn't do anything to him at all, merely giving a cold harrumph.

Liu Buyan smiled even more delightfully then.

But at the very next moment, he suddenly couldn't smile anymore.

Because Li Moying actually nudged to the side and leaned in close to Huang Yueli who was beside him, and their bodies were actually sticking to each other.

Huang Yueli almost fell from her own seat from his squeezing in and hurriedly turned around as she gave him an astonished look.

Li Moying stretched his hand around her shoulder and held her into his embrace and at the same time, lifted his chin to put on a demonstration towards Liu Buyan.

Liu Buyan was stunned as he silently threw up a mouthful of old blood!

Did he needed to, needed to do this to agitate him? He's already very upset alright?

Moreover speaking, even if he had no ideas towards Huang Yueli, torturing a dog in public like this was an immoral act!

Huang Yueli merely took a breath's time and understood what he was doing and she was rather speechless for that moment as well.

She used one finger and poked Li Moying's waist, "Have you got enough! We're discussing proper things right now, quickly let go of me!"

Chapter 2202: What's the motive (8)

Li Moying turned his head back and took a look at her.

Huang Yueli could actually see a slight aggrieved expression in his eyes and her hair stood upright as she hurriedly pushed him aside, "Stop trying to interrupt my thoughts!"

Li Moying then nudged to the side a little, just enough for her to sit properly but his arm was still wrapped around her shoulder.

Huang Yueli was also rather speechless as she could only allow him to do as he wished as she spoke out, "Senior Brother, I've been thinking for so long and I'm afraid that this time round, I must make this trip personally with Moying!"

Liu Buyan had not expected that even she would say that as he frowned, "Junior Sister, why are you saying such things as well? Don't you know the seriousness of this problem? It's not the same time as in the past right now! Li Moying's body is so weak and you're only in the seventh stage realm, there's not much point for you to go over so why don't you hand it over to Guardian Jun and the rest to handle this instead. I know that you're not assured so I will go along as well!"

Huang Yueli shook her head and said, "Senior Brother, I understand your kind intentions but we are going not because we are putting on a brave front. Moreover have you considered this, that since the ghost masked man is aiming me and Moying, then if the both of us don't appear, perhaps they might not even be willing to come out and meet you guys! You haven't even seen them so where are you going to get the Bipolar Black Orchid from? Won't you be making a wasted trip then?"

"This....." Liu Buyan instantly went speechless.

He thought over this and there was no way that he could not admit that what Huang Yueli said was simply too right!

Northern Ice Fields was originally an uninhabited place and the place was huge but there were little people. If a powerhouse were to hide there all year long in that kind of place, it would be more difficult to find them than to really mount the skies!

"But....." He couldn't help but frowned, "We can't just let you two be lures just because of this? This is just too dangerous!"

Huang Yueli was helpless, "There's no other way right now! If it was possible, I also don't want Moying to risk his life but.... I'm even more worried that if time drags on, Moying's illness will worsen! Moreover it's not the first time that I've been to Northern Ice Fields and in my past life, I've also been there many times..."

She paused and seemed to have recalled something but she didn't say it out in detail but just changed topics.

"Anyway, Senior Brother you can rest your heart for the moment. I actually understand the situation in Northern Ice Fields and I'm also an Armament Master. With me in the team, it will be of advantage to everyone. As for Moying, he is the one who we should focus on protecting, and you all must take care....."

She was speaking halfway when she suddenly felt pain on her shoulder as she was pinched hard by someone.

Following that, Li Moying's exasperated voice was heard from the side of her ear, "Do I need anyone to take care of me? Don't look down on your man! Even if I have the Soul Detachment Illness, I'm much more powerful than some fellows who aren't ill!"

Huang Yueli couldn't help but rolled her eyes.

Men!

Liu Buyan's brows rose as he spoke in a disdainful manner, "Alright, don't you worry, if some accident happens to you then, I will definitely not save you! I will help you take good care of Junior Sister!"

"You...!" Li Moying pounded his fist onto the table as he stood up.

Huang Yueli hurriedly grabbed his clothes by his waist and wrung him back, "Enough, can the both of you not quarrel?"

Her brows stood up and her aura was impressive.

Although the two men were both peerless in their own ways, but on seeing her getting angry, they all instantly softened and shut their mouths obediently.

Huang Yueli then concluded, "Then this matter shall be decided as such!"

Chapter 2203: Kiss upon disagreement (1)

"We also can't just go over directly like this, it's better to make some preparations and specific plans, so let's discuss this properly with everyone."

After Huang Yueli finished what she had to say, the entire scene fell into a state of silence.

Everyone knew that the seriousness of this matter hence they were extremely prudent, not daring to voice out their views easily.

After a while later, Li Moying took the lead as he spoke, "This time to the Northern Ice Fields, the enemy whom we are facing is very strong but we can't just leave Blue Profound Sect's sect affairs aside and someone has to handle it, so... Po Yu, we'll have to trouble you to remain in Levitation Sword Palace, to be in charge of the Sect's internal affairs."

When Cang Po Yu heard that, he was dazed for a moment before he immediately stood up and bowed while speaking anxiously, "Sovereign, This Subordinate is not willing to remain in Levitation Sword Palace, it's better to let This Subordinate to follow you to the Northern Ice Fields! This trip is extremely dangerous and making This Subordinate stay behind in Blue Profound Sect, I really can't rest assured so it's better to bring one more helper along!"

Li Moying shook his head, "Someone needs to stay behind in the sect. Among the three of you, Po Jun's cultivation is the highest so he has to go with me. Po Hun's character is rash and he's unable to manage such a huge Sect so you're still the most suitable. Don't feel that you are not putting in any effort just because you're staying back, the Sect's affairs are the most important and the Six Sacred Lands are all eyeing Blue Profound Sect. This Sovereign is not in Levitation Sword Palace so there would be many troubling matters which require you to deal with!"

Cang Po Jun heard that and also persuaded, "Since Sovereign has already commanded, then you'd better stay behind. Later on I will explain the sect affairs that I have on my hands in detail to you."

Since Li Moying already said that, Cang Po Yu was obviously disappointed but he could only nod his head to obey the command.

Li Moying continued, "Also, Jiyun also doesn't need to go with us. Just follow Po Yu around and help out with arranging those factotums. You can get Po Yu to give you some pointers when you're cultivating."

When Luo Jiyun heard that, he almost jumped up, "Eldest Senior Brother, what do you mean? You're taking such a huge risk to go to the Northern Ice Fields, why can't I follow? Even if I can't defeat those black robed men, at least I can help to carry some stuff, or raise the fire to cook or something?"

Huang Yueli heard that and almost laughed out, "Just you and thinking of cooking? I still want to live on for a few more years, and not die of diarrhoea!"

Luo Jiyun's face flushed red as he spoke out embarrassedly, "Lil... Lil Sister-in-law, why are you saying this? I merely made a comparison, comparison only!"

Huang Yueli coughed slightly and spoke solemnly, Enough, not cracking jokes with you. This matter is of utmost importance so don't create any trouble for your Senior Brother. Just this bit of cultivation which you have, it'd be better if you stay here and continue to cultivate, otherwise when you really reach the Northern Ice Fields, it'd be just a twiddle of a finger for someone to kill you!"

"But..." Luo Jiyun still wanted to say something more.

Li Moying opened his mouth and spoke in a deep tone, interrupting his unfinished sentence, "We'll settle it at this!"

His tone was very peaceful, but Luo Jiyun could tell from his tone about his resolution hence he could only shrink back his head.

Other than Cang Po Yu and Luo Jiyun, everyone discussed this and requested for Dai Boqi to stay behind in Sky Emperor City.

Old Man Dai didn't have any objections. He naturally knew that his age was very old and he practically didn't have any battle power so there wasn't much use for him to follow along so he might as well stay behind in Levitation Sword Palace to research on the prescription.

"But if this old man isn't around, with only Yan'er around, if Young Sect Master's illness acts up and requires the golden needles acupuncture, he might not be able to cope alone! In this case, it looks like this old man must give Lass Li a concentrated drill to make her grasp the basic gateway of golden needles acupuncture in the shortest amount of time."

Chapter 2204: Kiss upon disagreement (2)

"In this case, if any accidents happen, you will be able to deal with it momentarily."

Dai Boqi's suggestion was extremely practical hence from the second day onwards, Huang Yueli then worked hard and started to learn the art of golden needles acupuncture.

Other than that, due to the huge importance, the entire Blue Profound Sect was practically mobilised as the few of them started to make preparations to head towards the Northern Ice Fields.

Huang Yueli had been learning from Dai Boqi in the day and at night, she needed to set time aside to refine Profound Armaments and concealed weapons, just in case of unforeseen situations.

She had busied herself for consecutively three to four days and she was evidently extremely tired as her eyes were totally sore, looking like a pitiful little bunny.

Li Moying felt extreme heart pain when he saw her in this state, determined not to let her continue being in this way.

Huang Yueli refused to listen to him so he might as well charged into the armament refining room the minute the clock struck midnight and carried his little fox out of the room directly.

"Let me down, let me down!" Huang Yueli was restrained in his arms as she totally refused to listen and tried hard to sway her two slender calves as she wanted to jump down.

However Li Moying's strength was strong and when it clasped on her waist, she totally was rendered immovable.

Huang Yueli struggled for a while and her hair all fell into disarray but yet she still wasn't able to struggle free.

She instantly got angry as she perked up an angry look, "Li Moying, I'm warning you, let me down this instance otherwise I will punch you! You can't use any Profound Energy right now and a gentle punch from me will shatter all your teeth!"

She already felt that she was very fierce but in Li Moying's eyes, she was like a little fox with its hair standing up, not only was it not fierce enough, in fact it was very cute.

Li Moying let out a hand to pinch her rosy face as he laughed, "Do you bear to? Then how about you try hitting? I guarantee that I will not only not retaliate when I'm being hit, I will also not say a thing when I'm being scolded, am I obedient enough?"

"You—!"

Huang Yueli saw his hoodlum face and was angry that she punched him with a fist, right on his chest.

But she didn't dare to use any Profound Energy, only using her body strength to punch on him hard.

Even so, Huang Yueli's flesh body had once been wrought in the Phoenix Blood Pool and her strength wasn't ordinary at all. If ordinary same levelled practitioners were punched by her, they would at least sustain some light injuries.

But this kind of punch, when it crashed against Li Moying's chest, Huang Yueli felt as though she had punched on a piece of metal plate. Her soft little hand immediately rebounded from the pain, whereas this man...

"Ouch! So painful!" Li Moying instantly cried out miserably exaggeratedly.

Following that, Huang Yueli felt her own body descending downwards and before she could even react, she discovered that a soft sensation could be felt from under her body.

She was stunned as she just realised that not knowing when, Li Moying had already carried her back into the bedroom.

Huang Yueli frowned as she propped up her body and wanted to climb back up, "Li Moying! What are you doing? I said I'm still not sleepy and I'm still tired! Do you know that I am still refining a seventh tier Profound Weapon in my armament furnace! If I'm not by the side watching the fire, it would easily result in failure! Quickly let go of me, I have to head back... wu wu!"

Li Moying was listening to her nagging non stop and his profound deep black eyes kept watching her gapping red lips as his gaze slowly deepened...

Finally he could no longer take it as he lowered his head and stuffed his lips onto Huang Yueli's lips, stopping her from continuing to say any word, stuffing it right back into her mouth.

Huang Yueli's eyes grew wide as she didn't dare to believe that this man actually was so shameless to such a step!

Chapter 2205: Kiss upon disagreement (3)

Kissing upon disagreement, this was a violation!

Although she wanted to be closer to Li Moying from the depths of her heart, but... this was still a violation!

"Mmm mmmph.... Moying, let go of me, I still have... mmmph!!"

Huang Yueli pushed and shoved the man, and finally managed to push him a little further away as she couldn't even be bothered to have a change of breath as she was about to convince him to let her go.

However, Li Moying totally didn't care about what she said. He gave her a short piece of freedom only to lock her wrists together tightly above her head as she changed to a more comfortable posture and without any hesitation, he plundered Huang Yueli's breathing once again.

Initially, Huang Yueli still remembered her Profound Armament and resisted for a few times.

But slowly, she was tempted by Li Moying's overbearing man's imposing presence....

By the time she regained her senses, she realised that unknowingly, her inner shirt's collar's button had been released.

"Hey, you.... get lost!" Huang Yueli resented angrily.

But the moment her words came out, she then realised that her voice had actually sounded soft and tender, as though she was acting coquettish.

This voice, to Li Moying, apparently did not hold any intimidation at all.

The man raised his head and took a look at her, that rippling seduction in her peach blossomed eyes was flowing like brilliant lights and it seemed abstruse which was unfathomable.

He licked his lips as he gave an evil smile, "Li'er, aren't you not feeling sleepy or tired? No matter, we can exercise a little to aid in sleep..."

Huang Yueli's face flushed as it turned beetroot red as she stammered, "No, no need... I... I'm very sleepy, very tired! You see, I... my eyes can't even open..."

Saying that, she really shut her eyes as her head turned askance and laid on the bed vertically like an obedient little baby.

Li Moying propped his body up halfway as he lowered his head and looked at her fair, tender little face radiating with two shades of red as her long, curly lashes drooped downwards to reflect that faint shadow under her eyes. Her hair was a little messy as it spread all over the pillow.

Simply, beautiful like a rag doll...

Li Moying's eyes fixed upon her without blinking, as he subconsciously leaned towards her...

Huang Yueli suddenly opened her eyes, “You, you, you.... shameless! Where is your hand touching again? Didn’t you say that you’d let me sleep, to... to rest properly?”

Li Moying gave off a low toned laughter and that good-looking face leaned to her front and swept a gentle breath past her ears, “I’m giving you a bedtime massage eh? In this way you will feel more comfortable sleeping, and more relaxed, let’s have a try?”

Huang Yueli felt that her brain was about to turn into a gooey mess.

Luckily her determination was firm enough and in her mind, there was still a hint of clear-mindedness, “No... no need to go through all these trouble! Now is already good enough, I.... I am already asleep.... Snore, snore...”

Her eyes were tightly shut as she purposely made slight snoring sounds.

Even if he knew it was fake, but seeing her sleeping in such a fortunate look, Li Moying couldn’t bear to interrupt her.

Chapter 2206: Kiss upon disagreement (4)

He only took a deep breath and flipped over vigorously as he laid beside Huang Yueli.

His chest heaved up and down intensely as he attempted to quell the fire that was lit by this sweet and beautiful young lass by his side.

However, the faint fragrance emitted from her body shrouded around his nose, not only making him unable to calm down, but became even more frustrated.

Huang Yueli heard the man’s deep breathing as her eyes were tightly shut and her pearly white teeth bit her lips gently.

Earlier, when Li Moying was on top of her, she felt that she was stuck, that must be.... Ughh!

Although she usually seemed black-bellied and intelligent, no matter if it was in terms of cultivation, battle power or whether it was how she handled things, she had always been very mature and could handle everything with ease but in this sort of matters... even if she had two lifetime of experience, but she really hadn’t experienced affairs of the heart, hence she felt extremely shy.

Luckily, Li Moying was able to stop himself in time...

Huang Yueli initially began by pricking her ears up in alertness, listening to the man’s movements, deeply afraid that his beastly instincts would act up.

But not too long later, she felt that her eyelids were fighting and very soon, she drifted into dreamland.

“Hu— hu—”

This time round, her snoring was real.

Whereas by her side, when the man who was being tormented heard this sound, his face revealed an indignant expression.

He turned his body over and stretched out her hand as he pinched Huang Yueli's fair and tender little face, "Heartless little thing, fell asleep just like this?"

"Hu—hu—"

The only reply to his question was the young lady's stable breathing sound.

Although the skin on her face was overly tender, turning a light shade of red mark from a gentle squeeze, but her sleep was totally uninterrupted as she remained sleeping like a blissful little pig.

Li Moying was helpless as well, surely he couldn't shake her up right?

These few days, seeing how his Li'er had been working so hard for him, getting up early in the day to work, other than feeling heartache, he sensed even more guilt.

Li'er, I really hope that I can get better soon. In this way, you need not be so exhausted. I want to materialise the promise that I made to you in my past life, to let you become the most fortunate little woman in three thousand worlds." Li Moying muttered to himself.

Not sure if Huang Yueli heard that or not, she suddenly turned her body over and her soft lips happened to brush past his face.

Li Moying was stunned and following that, his lips revealed a sliver of smile as he stretched out his strong arm, pulling her petite and curvaceous body into his arms.

The duo's bodies, one tall and one petite, were incomparably compatible.

Li Moying buried his head into Huang Yueli's neck as his heart felt extremely peaceful.

To be able to hold his beloved Li'er in his arms, in such a tranquil and beautiful time, even if it was just a moment in time, it was enough to fill the emptiness in his heart.

In his past life, everything that he had done was really worth it.

Even if this trip to the Northern Ice Fields was his last moment in life, he would not have any regrets at all...

...

After a few days later, they had basically prepared everything that they required in the Northern Ice Fields.

Dai Boqi rushed into Huang Yueli's room in the night and cried out agitatedly, "Succeeded, This Old Man has succeeded! Disciple, quickly take a look at this pill, this is the pill which This Master had used with that piece of Bipolar Black Orchid's petals, in combination with the other medicinal herbs to refine it out! Although it isn't as useful as the Purified Spirit Polymerize Pill, but at least it would enable Young Sect Master Li to... what are you two doing?"

Chapter 2207: Kiss upon disagreement (5)

Dai Boqi's excited voice suddenly stopped.

His eyes opened wide as he looked at the two people who separated swiftly.

Huang Yueli pushed the man away from her who had been trying to take advantage of her earlier as she looked at Dai Boqi with great embarrassment, "Cough cough, Master, you... what are you doing over here..."

Dai Boqi's brows frowned as he gave Li Moying a stare and subsequently shifted towards Huang Yueli as he spoke out in a tone which felt as though he was disappointed with her for not living up to his expectations, "I say, disciple! Originally, since you don't like Yan'er, then whoever you marry, as long as you yourself like him, This Old Man will support you. But you ought to be clear that you and Young Sect Master Li have not gotten married yet but you're already so intimate! What if his Soul Detachment Illness isn't cured and you two aren't married, then you..."

Hearing that, when Li Moying heard those words, his gaze suddenly turned dangerous as he shot a chilly gaze towards Dai Boqi.

He was a natural born strong practitioner and even though he was cutting a sorry state from Huang Yueli's push earlier, but that frigid cold gaze still remained filled with might.

Dai Boqi subconsciously shuddered from this gaze of his but he quickly regained his senses as he gave a cold snort, "You lad, don't think you can threaten This Old Man! I'm telling you, my disciple, isn't someone who you can casually marry away! When your Soul Detachment Illness recovers, This Old Man will test you!"

Li Moying totally didn't take it to heart as he replied dimly, "Divine Doctor Dai, haven't we agreed that after seven, it's time for my Li'er to rest? Why have you come over so late at night for?"

Dai Boqi saw his disrespectful look towards him and he felt unhappy when he suddenly felt not that willing to pass him the pill so easily.

"About this, This Old Man is still hesitating to tell you about it or not, why not you beg me.....' He wrapped his arms around his chest as he started to play mystery.

Huang Yueli had actually heard what he said when he barged right in hence she didn't know if she should laugh or cry as she hurriedly interrupted him, "Master, please don't take it against Moying! I heard about it already, you've already refined the simplified version of the Purified Spirit Polymerize Pill right? Quickly don't waste time, let's hurry and let Moying take it then!"

Dai Boqi blew his whiskers as his eyes widened, "You.... your elbow really turns towards the outside! You only have this stinky brat in your heart and totally don't have the wish to help Master at all! Whose side are you on?"

Huang Yueli smiled sweetly as she replied, "Master, what are you saying? Of course, disciple is on your side? But look at my Moying, his body is so weak and perhaps he might not even be able to make it for his trip to the Northern Ice Fields. Disciple I have already sworn to share life and death with him and if he can't make it, then I can only follow him! By then, you've painstakingly taken in a disciple but yet not obtained this disciple's filial piety so wouldn't you have made a great loss?"

When Dai Boqi heard her saying "standing on Master's side", he was silently happy for a moment but in the end when he heard what she finally said, he then realised that he had thought too much.

Which part of this was standing on his side, it's obviously a plain threat!

Disciples who were married, were like water which were poured out!

Wrong, she hadn't even married but had already become water which had been poured away. Ahhh, how stifling!

Dai Boqi was extremely melancholic but Li Moying however curled up his thin lips as he revealed a smile.

His Li'er, indeed valued him the most!

He grabbed Huang Yueli's hand and held her into his arms as he almost couldn't help but lowered his head to want to kiss her again.

Chapter 2208: Kiss upon disagreement (6)

Huang Yueli hurriedly stuffed his mouth with her hand, "Enough, stop fooling around! Don't you agitate my Master again! Do you really treat Soul Detachment Illness as something fun? Quickly take the pill and tomorrow morning, we will set off and we can't afford to day anymore!"

Saying that, she leaned towards Dai Boqi's side as she showed a pleasing smile, "Master, this... give this disciple the pill please?"

Dai Boqi fiddled with his white beard as he gave a humph, "Now that you recall that you have a Master like me?"

Huang Yueli hurriedly leaned over as she pulled Dai Boqi's arm and helped him over to a chair as she personally poured some water for him, presenting it to him with both hands.

"Master, please sit! ... Master, please have tea! ... Master do you want some snacks?"

After a flurry of eagerly attentive service, Dai Boqi finally felt that he had gained back some dignity as a senior and Divine Doctor.

He then loosened his grip on his fingers as he passed Huang Yueli the medicinal bottle in his hands.

Huang Yueli hurriedly pulled out the stopper as she poured out a green coloured half translucent medicinal pill.

A strange medicinal fragrance instantly spread.

Dai Boqi put down his teacup as he reminded from the side, "The minute this pill sees light, the medicinal effects would be lost very quickly, you must take it immediately!"

Huang Yueli didn't dare to delay as she immediately stuffed the pill into Li Moying's mouth, then made him swallow the water.

Li Moying put down the teacup and saw Huang Yueli kept staring at him as she kept asking, "Have you swallowed it? How do you feel? Is there anywhere that you feel uncomfortable?"

Her anxious look was extremely tempting.

Li Moying couldn't help but curled his lips as he laughed and placated her, "I'm alright, this medicinal pill..."

However, his words were just half completed when it suddenly stopped and immediately following that, he fell straight down from the right hand side.

This time round, it gave Huang Yueli a huge shock.

She anxiously pounced over to check on Li Moying's condition, "Moying, Moying, what's the matter with you? Could it be that you're feeling giddy again? Or a headache? Quickly wake up, don't scare me!"

She stretched out her finger below Li Moying's nose to test his breathing and later felt for his pulse as though everything was normal but no matter how she called out to him, or even secretly used her fingernails to pinch his philtrum, he just leaned by the side of the table without moving at all, completely losing his subconsciousness.

"Enough, that fellow is alright, no need to be so anxious."

Just at this moment, Dai Boqi's voice was heard coming from her back.

Huang Yueli then realised that Dai Boqi was still around and she hurriedly turned back and asked, "Master, quickly come over and help me take a look, what's the matter... with Moying? Could it be that the pill has some problem?"

Dai Boqi replied unhappily, "This Old Man refined this pill personally, how could there possibly be a problem with it? This is the most normal reaction that he should have after taking this pill! Treatment for primordial spirit damages naturally can only occur when his subconscious is at its most relaxed point hence when This Old Man was refining medicinal herbs, I've included some soul soothing grass which can aid him to enter the state of deep sleep. If you continue to keep patting him with all your life in such a way, and if he really awakes from this, then the medicinal effect would take a huge discount!"

Hearing this, Huang Yueli then heaved a long sigh of relief.

"Master, you scared me to death, why didn't you tell me earlier!"

Dai Boqi almost couldn't breathe!

He intentionally didn't tell her earlier about this.

Chapter 2209: Return to Northern Ice Fields (1)

Who asked this heartless little girl to be filled with her fiancée in her mind so as her Master, he had to teach her how to do acupuncture with the golden needles and also to help her refine pills, to slog like an ox and horse, yet he still wasn't as important as this stinky brat Li Moying!

He intentionally didn't mention it, just so to make her flustered!

But when he really saw Huang Yueli's anxious look, Dai Boqi still couldn't bear that hence he couldn't help but speak out the truth.

Huang Yueli relaxed as she carried Li Moying up and placed him onto the bed gently. She even removed his shoes and outer robe and carefully covered him up with a blanket just so that he could sleep a little more comfortably.

Dai Boqi was feeling even more stifled as he watched her do all those.

Sigh, he had been childless in this entire life and it was all thanks to Huang Yueli who allowed him to feel the melancholies of a daughter being abducted.

The white cabbage in his hands had been fed to the pig in such a way!

Dai Boqi couldn't watch any longer as he finally decided that what remained unseen was deemed to be clean hence he turned around and left the room.

Huang Yueli locked the door securely and climbed onto bed as she laid down beside Li Moying.

Just like what Dai Boqi said earlier, Li Moying's unconsciousness was only because of the Soul Soothing Grass's hypnosis effect.

He slept very well for the entire time and only occasionally, he would murmur out some words because he was having a nightmare.

Huang Yueli had already met this sort of situation many times and she knew that as long as she spoke a few words beside Li Moying's side, at most just kissing him a few more times, it would allow him to regain his peace.

This time was no exception as well.

Under her careful care, Li Moying slept through the night peacefully.

When dawn just broke, Li Moying woke up.

His head was still a little dizzy and momentarily, he couldn't recall how he had climbed onto bed by himself.

Until he saw Huang Yueli with her rosy little face sleeping beside her when he suddenly recalled.

The man's slender index finger ran past her delicate face as his peach blossom eyes which were filled with warmth and heartache.

Yesterday night, although he was in the state of lethargic sleep, he could still distinctly felt a pair of warm little hands, which kept taking care of him carefully, so this little lass must have been tired out last night!

Otherwise there was no way that she could sleep this soundly.

"It's been hard on you, my Li'er."

Li Moying spoke with a low voice as he planted a light kiss on her forehead.

Huang Yueli had been sleeping extremely soundly and Li Moying was her most trusted person hence she remained in dreamland, not even creasing her brows one bit.

Li Moying got down the bed carefully, not alarming her.

By the time he walked out of the bedroom, in front of the main hall, in the public square of Levitation Sword Palace, Cang Po Jun and the others had already been dressed properly as they lined up well prepared and in high spirits in front of the Snow Cloud Sky Ship, all preparing to set off.

This day was the day which they had agreed upon, the day to head towards the Northern Ice Fields.

On seeing Li Moying walking out, everyone shot their gazes behind him, all anticipating to see Huang Yueli but in the end, they realised that it was just him alone.

“What’s the situation? Where’s my Junior Sister? Could it be that she had finally thought it through and decided not to follow a trash like you to throw her life away?” Liu Buyan spoke out chillingly, and the moment he opened his mouth, he bore the rhythm of infuriating one to his death.

Cang Po Jun’s attitude was much more respectful, “Sovereign, is there anything that Grandmaster Huang had yet to prepare? Do you need This Subordinate to go over and help out?”

Li Moying shook his head as he spoke out lightly, “No need, she’s just too tired out last night. I came over to inform you guys to delay the setting off time a little. We’ll leave when Li’er waits up in the afternoon!”

Chapter 2210: Return to Northern Ice Fields (2)

Too tired last night.....

Last night... too tired.....

Li Moying’s words sounded a little too ambiguous.

Even for that usually candid Cang Po Jun, he couldn’t help but go awry in his thinking as he was silently ridiculing his own Sovereign for being too beastly. What kind of timing was this now, he still bullied Grandmaster Huang!

Whereas for Liu Buyan, he almost spat out a mouthful of old blood!

If it wasn’t for the fact that he was well versed in medical knowledge and could tell that Huang Yueli was still undefiled, probably even he would also believe in this!

Based on his understanding towards the both of them, although Li Moying and Huang Yueli were staying together, they had not once derailed and moreover, they had already endured this for such a long time. Now at this juncture, they naturally wouldn’t possibly go do such a thing, to add more uncertainty to their future.

Liu Buyan calmed down for a moment and recalled that yesterday when Dai Boqi brought the medicinal pill over to look for Huang Yueli, he instantly understood what was going on.

He walked in front of Li Moying as he sized him up and down, “Looks like... yesterday you’ve already taken the simplified version of the Purified Spirit Polymerize Pill? How do you feel?”

Li Moying originally wanted to make him angry so he had not expected this fellow to not be tricked as his gaze turned deep but the expression on his face totally didn’t change at all.

“Not bad, after I took the pill last night, I fell asleep and when I got up this morning, I still feel a little dizzy, not as spirited as in the past when I woke up.”

When Liu Buyan heard that, he nodded his head, “You fell asleep because of the Soul Soothing Grass’s medicinal effect and now the medicinal effects have yet to end but in about a day or so, you don’t feel dizzy anymore. This medicinal pill will alleviate your Soul Detachment Illness symptoms in the short run but you must not fight with anyone and within the next three months, you should be able to move as per normal but you will fall asleep for twelve to fourteen hours every day.”

Hearing that, Li Moying couldn't help but give a smile, “That's good, when we return from the Northern Ice Fields, I must thank Divine Doctor Dai properly!”

Liu Buyan gave a cold harrumph as he spoke out, “Whether you can come back safely or not, that remains to be seen. Did you hear my words clearly or not, you're not allowed to fight with anyone! I hope by then, you will endure it properly!”

Liu Buyan had apparently seen through Li Moying's weak point.

Being poked on this pointer, Li Moying indeed wrinkled his pair of straight brows.

This matter, Liu Buyan and Dai Boqi hadn't warned him for the first time but there was never once that he managed to endure it.

Li Moying didn't admit that his self-control wasn't enough but it was simply... because some wretched people needed to be punched!

He remained silent for a moment and spoke out, “I understand what you mean. This time round, I will listen to Li'er's commands and even if I run into a precarious situation, I will let you guys handle it. But you must swear that you will protect Li'er properly and if she's bullied by someone, I will absolutely not bear it!”

Liu Buyan kept away his smile as his concentration became solemn, “Don't worry, even if I throw away my life, I will also protect Junior Sister properly!”

Li Moying nodded his head and took a look at him, his heart feeling out of sorts.

When had he, the Number One Top Exponent in Soaring Heavens Continent, ever degraded to this step where he needed to ask his love rival to protect his woman?

He could not continue in this way any longer and this time round, he must snatch back the Bipolar Black Orchid, and get well soon!

...

It was nine in the morning when Huang Yueli woke up from her sleep.

Opening her eyes to take a look, the sunlight outside was radiant and the sun was already shining!

Thinking that they were supposed to set off today, she shuddered and immediately sat up.