Chapter 2271: Little fox, still bite me (1)

It was another intense round of tremor.

When it finally ended, everyone saw that all the houses in the entire Ice Serpent Valley were instantly enveloped with a layer of faint light and under the surrounding crystal clear ice, one would think that they were in a fairyland when they looked out.

Even Huang Yueli couldn't help as she pushed Li Moying aside, running to the end of the room as she sprawled and looked outside the window, her mouth still gasping in surprise.

"Wow, it's so beautiful, it's really too beautiful! Moying, Moying, come over and take a look!"

Li Moying looked at her agitated look as he helplessly shook his head and walked over as he carried her up gently, "Sprawling on the ice is too cold and you're wearing so little clothes, aren't you afraid of catching a cold?"

Huang Yueli was in his arms as she excitedly held on to the neck while pointing to the faraway scenery, making him accompany her to enjoy it together.

"Moying, quickly take a look, isn't it very beautiful??"

She rarely got so excited as her fair cheeks were flushed with a slight blush, her big watery eyes opened wide and her lips curled up to reveal a smile.

Li Moying's adam's apple slid up and down, and suddenly he felt his body turning slightly parched and fervent.

"Mn, very beautiful, indeed... very beautiful!"

Huang Yueli originally thought that he shared the same view as her and turned her head over beaming as she said, "I've decided! When my armament refining skills improve a little more and when the day comes when I attain the god grade, I also want to construct such a beautiful house! What do you think?"

Huang Yueli then realised that Li Moying had always been keeping his eye on her, totally not looking at the snowy scenery.

She pouted, apparently not very happy, "Moying, you actually went into a trance! Are you listening to me talk or..... mmph!"

She was in the middle of speaking when that handsome countenance suddenly leaned near her and following that, her lips felt warmth.

"Mmmph—!!!" Huang Yueli was slightly embarrassed as she pushed his chest hard.

Li Moying didn't intend to kiss deeply, just merely wanting to have a slight taste as he backed off after that.

Everyone present was already accustomed to this pair of young lovers' intimate actions so they all self-warily turned their heads over.

Even so, Huang Yueli's embarrassment still turned into anger as she stepped hard on Li Moying.

Li Moying seemed as though he didn't feel anything as the expression on his face had not changed at all, calmly bringing his little fox into his arms, "The time isn't young anymore and since the ancient mechanism is already restored, if there's no problems, then we'd be heading back to rest. Li'er had expended a huge amount of energy for your esteemed valley and I have to make her eat and sleep well."

As Li Moying was saying that, his gaze swept past the faint greenish black colour under Huang Yueli's eyes, as he felt heartache.

When Cang Po Jun and the others heard that, they all replied in agreement, "That's right, earlier having exhausted so much Profound Energy, This Subordinate also feels a little tired."

Meng Hongye was still immersed in excitement and although among the ninth stage realm peak practitioners who had diminished the most amount of Profound Energy, but she was able to restore Ice Serpent Valley's inherited ancient mechanisms for many generations and to her, this was simply a humongous surprise. In front of this joy, the tiredness in her body had completely been left behind in her mind.

Meng Hongye finally reacted to Li Moying's words as she spoke out hurriedly, "That's right, Young Miss Bai, and these few Young Masters, we're simply too grateful to you all for the past two days! I'll now lead all of you over to rest."

Huang Yueli's eyes opened wide, "That, Valley Master Meng, about what I mentioned before..."

Meng Hongye immediately replied, "Young Miss Bai please be assured. You've helped us restore the ancient mechanism in Ice Serpent Valley and we are not able to reciprocate such a huge benevolence! Don't worry, first thing tomorrow morning, I will personally deliver the Claret Crystal Bracelet over to you! As for the guide whom you need, I will also find a most experienced person who is extremely familiar with the freezing zone to accompany you in. These two days, please do stay in Ice Serpent Valley and have a good rest."

Meng Hongye carefully shut down the mechanism and led Huang Yueli and the group out of the secret tunnel.

Li Moying loved his little fiancée dearly and carried her up horizontally, as he directly carried her back to the room.

After Meng Hongye brought them back to their rooms, she hastily wanted to inform the other people in Ice Serpent Valley about the good news that the ancient mechanism was resorted hence she didn't stay for long as she immediately left after that.

Cang Po Jun and the others then revealed a tired look, as all of them laid limp on the chairs.

Actually, earlier when they were in the room of the mechanism's axle, their exhaustion wasn't small as well. Huang Yueli's spirit gathering array was extremely effective so naturally, the effect of drawing out the Profound Energy in their bodies was extremely high.

If it wasn't for the fact that she had used hand gestures to control the array's operation, it might not take a quarter of an hour before it was able to completely draw away the Profound Energy of the four ninth stage realm peak practitioners' Profound Energy completely!

Cang Po Hun had still not recollected his senses by now, and after resting for a moment, he couldn't help but asked, "Grandmaster Huang, you... you're simply too incredible! You're actually able to restore the mechanism which had been left behind from the ancient times and moreover, in such a short amount of time! Heavens, are you going to advance to a god grace Armament Master anytime soon?"

Huang Yueli laughed and told him whatever he had told Liu Buyan earlier.

It was at this point when the crowd was then enlightened.

Cang Po Jun couldn't help but burst out laughing, "This really is.... Valley Master Meng had been schemed by Grandmaster Huang!"

Liu Buyan shook his head, "You can't really put it in that way entirely? Earlier in the spirit gathering array, I had a feeling that this ancient mechanism's state of aging is extremely serious and even if the energy was replenished, it is not possible to automatically be activated. If it wasn't for Junior Sister who helped them to reactivate the engraved energy storage array by the side, it is hard to tell when this mechanism could be used again!"

Huang Yueli smiled, "What Senior Brother said is right, no matter what, I've helped them. Moreover speaking, we merely need the Claret Crystal Bracelet in the Northern Ice Fields and once we have obtained the Bipolar Black Orchid to refine the Purified Spirit Polymerize Pill, then we won't require this bracelet anymore so by then, we can just send someone to return it back to them."

Today, everyone had been exhausted greatly.

Hence after having their dinner, all of them headed back to their rooms to rest.

Li Moying followed behind her and gently caressed her head, "Li'er, Li'er? Do you want to take a bath?"

"Hmm? Eh? Bath.... I want to bath...."

Huang Yueli mumbled but her body wasn't moving at all, as though she was stuck onto the bed.

Li Moying sat next to her as he touched her chin. Li Moying was just like a little kitten which had its fur brushed, as she gave out a "mmph" sound.

Chapter 2273: Little fox, still bite me (3)

That look, was really very obedient.

Only thing was, she was still sprawled on the bed, totally not moving at all.

Li Moying looked at her lazy look amusingly, as he bent over to help her remove her shoes on her feet.

Huang Yueli felt someone tugging her shoes but she still didn't move. She only stretched out her feet straight, allowing Li Moying to successfully remove it for her.

Li Moying placed her shoes under the bed and sat back on the side of the bed as he pinched her face, "Get up and bath! If you still don't move, are you intending to let me help you bath?"

Huang Yueli flipped over lazily as she stretched both her hands, "Carry me over!"

Li Moying helplessly shook his head as he said, "Alright, I'll help you move the bathtub into the room."

Huang Yueli nodded her head and shut her eyes and after a short nap, she felt her body become light as she was carried by someone.

The man's robust and powerful arms carried her steadily, totally not swaying at all and after taking a few steps, she was placed inside the bathtub with her clothes on.

Huang Yueli still didn't want to move and Li Moying looked at her lashes which hung down like a little fan, as he leaned closer to her and laughed softly, "Li'er, do you need me to take your clothes off?"

"Take.... Take clothes off...." Huang Yueli mumbled softly.

"Hmm?" Li Moying looked at her dazed look as the flame in his heart seemed to shoot up in a second, into his brain.

His scorching hot fingers brushed past the young lady's fair slender long neck and was prepared to move downwards.....

Suddenly, it was clasped on tightly by someone.

Not knowing when, Huang Yueli opened her eyes and gave a scoff, "You actually dare to sneak an attack on me! I'm about to bath now, you can leave now!"

Li Moying went into a blank and immediately lowered his head not knowing if he should laugh or cry, as he looked at the young lady inside the bathtub with a tsundere expression.

His lips curled upwards as he slowly revealed a nefarious smile, "Why? Earlier you still asked me to carry you, but now you're already tearing down the bridge after crossing it? I'm not someone who you can summon when you wish to, and ask to leave when you don't like... Li'er..."

Li Moying lowered his head as he laughed, and his voice was even mellower and sexy.

The distance between the two of them grew closer and closer.

Suddenly, before he could get closer to his beloved, Li Moying suddenly felt pain on the tip of his nose as he couldn't help but cried out "ughh".

Huang Yueli actually took the opportunity when his eyes were half closed, raising up her head as she bit his nose and moreover, his bite was relatively hard.

Li Moying covered his nose and he backed down, looking aggrievedly at his little fiancée, "Domestic violence again??"

Huang Yueli mumbled, "You're the one who obviously has bad intentions in your mind, thinking to sneak an attack on This Grandmaster! Quickly get out, I want to bathe already. I'm so sleepy and I need a good sleep!"

Li Moying really had no temper towards this little fox of his. When she needed him she would resort to various coquetry and requests to be carried but when she didn't need him, she would kick him aside. Just how many men would be as pathetic as he was? Sigh, he really owed her!

Li Moying took a deep breath as he suppressed the heat in his body and taking up a towel from the rack, he threw it towards Huang Yueli.

"Then you'd better wash yourself cleanly, I'll wait for you in bed."

Huang Yueli hugged the snowy white towel but when she heard his words, she almost exploded once again.

What's called "wait for her in bed"? This man was really sickening, why did he need to say the words in such an ambiguous way! He did it on purpose!

Li Moying retreated to the other side of the screen and looked at his reflection against the bronze mirror.

Chapter 2274: Little fox, still bite me (4)

The reflection of the man in the mirror had a clean cut handsome face which was so perfectly refreshing as though it was the works from heaven, totally unable to find any flaws at all.

But right now, his nose had a red mark and one could even see Huang Yueli's meticulous teeth marks on it.

"Little fox, still bite me!" Li Moying rubbed his nose.

Behind the screen came splashing and splashing water sounds, apparently Huang Yueli was already bathing.

After a short while, the sound of water stopped and Li Moying had been staring at the screen, waiting for his little fox to come out.

However, after a very long time, it was still quiet inside.

He frowned and lifted his lanky legs, as he took quick steps towards the back of the screen.

In the bathtub, the slender young lady leaned against the side of the bathtub and her head was slanted to one side, while her eyes were shut tightly, evidently she was fast asleep.

Li Moying's vision totally uncontrollably moved down her fair neck, all the way downwards....

Huang Yueli's skin was white and delicate, as though the finest quality of porcelain without any flaws. Even if he just looked like this, Li Moying could recollect in his mind, the perfect feeling when he laid his hands against that fair tender skin...

He swept past Huang Yueli's delicate collarbone, round shoulders, and also.....

Luckily, the part below was submerged in water and Huang Yueli's towel was still floating on the surface of the water, blocking off Li Moying's line of sight.

His little fox was tired out for the past two days, so tired that she even fell asleep while bathing and if he awoke this young lass, it would be too inhumane and moreover, his little fox would fly into a rage...

Li Moying cooled down for several breaths and suddenly drew out the bathrobe which was hanging on the rack, then without even daring to take a look, he just wrapped it around Huang Yueli's body casually.

Following that, he carried her horizontally as he swiftly wiped the water off her body and hair carelessly.

After that, he stuffed Huang Yueli into the blanket.

She slept with a blissful expression, especially after she laid on the bed, she gave an especially sweet smile as her little head rubbed against the pillow and not too long later, she entered dreamland.

On seeing her sleeping soundly, Li Moying then heaved a long sigh.

He felt that, he needed a cold shower very much! No, ice cold shower!

Luckily, in a place like Ice Serpent Valley, ice water should be readily available everywhere!

Meng Wan'er moaned as she turned around, but she still felt her entire body in pain as she just couldn't sleep somehow.

Yesterday after being rebounded by the ninth grade array, she was equivalent to having suffered multiple times of accumulated full force Profound Energy. At that time, almost half of the bones in her body were fractured and her meridians had suffered serious injury.

But even if she had taken the seventh grade medicinal pills that Liu Buyan left behind, if she wanted her bones to all grow back, it would require several days' time.

Moreover, it was extremely painful to take the Flesh Growing Bone Replenishment Pill because the medicinal effects were just too strong to be taken in such a short duration of time.

These two days, Meng Wan'er had been tormented day and night by the pain that was emitted from the insides of her bones.

Chapter 2275: A couple that makes others envious (1)

Not only did it hurt throughout the entire day, it was even more painful at night until she couldn't sleep.

Although Ice Serpent Valley's disciples all comforted her that she only needed to endure past these few days and her body would recover as per normal with little damage to her cultivation but Meng Wan'er still felt as though her heart was being carved by a knife, as the hatred towards Huang Yueli was churning!

Meng Wan'er totally didn't reflect on herself that it was her own jealousy towards Huang Yueli that made her rush upwards to test the mechanism, and moreover she didn't listen to Huang Yueli's warning hence she suffered such a serious injury.

Nor was she feeling grateful to Huang Yueli for pleading on behalf, for Liu Buyan to help save her.

Meng Wan'er only felt that she was Ice Serpent Valley's core disciple and this time round, she had thrown away all her face!

And all these, were all because of that little slut from Sky Emperor City!

If it wasn't for that wretched lass, how would she possibly be embarrassed and how would she get hurt?

If it wasn't because of her, perhaps... that godly handsome man would already be attracted to her, and become a couple with her!

Meng Wan'er cursed Huang Yueli countless times in her heart and on hearing that Huang Yueli was going to restore the ancient mechanism, she originally thought that Huang Yueli would be embarrassed big time today! That was an ancient mechanism, just how many ninth ranked Armament Masters were totally helpless in front of that mechanism, who did that wretched lass think she was?

However, the news that came later made Meng Wan'er suffer another blow to her head, as she almost threw up blood once again.

That wretched lass actually.... actually really succeeded!

"How was this possible, how could this be possible? She's just sixteen to seventeen years old, could it be that she's much more incredible than a ninth ranked Armament Master?? Impossible, there is definitely a problem in this, she must be cheating my Master!"

Meng Wan'er's heart burned like it caught flames and adding on to the pain on her body, she laid in bed till midnight but still didn't feel sleepy at all.

“AH—!!”

Meng Wan'er thought that she was still dreaming and after she took a detailed look, she immediately screamed out.

Because the man in front of her had a malicious spiritual mask on his face and the drawing of that mask was simply too scary, as though it was a devil who had climbed out from hell, as it immediately scared Meng Wan'er.

The ghost faced man silently frowned as he swiftly tabbed her mute acupoint and spoke with a sinisterly cold voice, “Shut up!”

Meng Wan'er trembled, not daring to make a sound.

The ghost masked man warned, “If you make This Seat hear your ghastly cries again... This Seat will twist your neck off, do you understand me?”

On the first moment when the ghost masked man entered the room, Meng Wan'er already sensed that no matter if this male was a man or ghost, he was so powerful that it made one suffocate, and he was even much more powerful than her Master Meng Hongye!

In front of this peerless top exponent, she naturally didn't dare to be rash, as she nodded her head furiously in response.

The ghost masked man then released her acupoint and said, “A few days ago, a team of people who were mostly ninth stage realm top exponents and a seventh stage realm young girl entered Ice Serpent Valley, you should know who they are right?”

Meng Wan'er had not expected that this mysterious and horrifying ghost masked man would ask about Li Moying and the others matters the minute he opened his mouth, as her heart jolted.

However, facing the ghost masked man's sinister gaze, she didn't dare to lie as she hurriedly answered, “Yes, yes it is like this...”

The ghost masked man asked again, “They stayed in Ice Serpent Valley for several days and what have they been up to these days?”

Meng Wan'er naturally wouldn't conceal the facts as she immediately spilled out the beans that Huang Yueli had been spending the past two consecutive days on restoring the two great mechanisms.

When the ghost masked man heard that, he didn't say a single word.

Even though his face was covered by the malicious spiritual mask, but Meng Wan'er was still able to sense the penetrative aura which was emitted from the other party.

She didn't dare to move, as she tried her best to suppress the fear in her heart, waiting for the ghost masked man's response.

After a while later, the ghost masked man then gave off a hoarse laugh, “Ha ha ha ha ha that’s interesting. Even able to restore a god grade mechanism, is it even possible to conceal the fact of who you are? Did you really think that no one under this heavens knows... that matter... looks like This Seat indeed didn’t guess properly!”

Meng Wan’er heard his ghostly laugh as she was extremely terrified, and couldn’t help but keep shaking.

“You’re called Meng Wan’er?”

Meng Wan’er nodded her head, “Yes, I am... I am Meng Wan’er.”

The ghost masked man’s voice turned even deeper as it carried a sense of temptation and coaxing, “That Li Moying is truly a peerless handsome male. That kind of looks, that kind of ability and that kind power! The woman who can get married to this kind of man, would surely be the most fortunate woman under this heavens, isn’t that... true?”

Every single word from ghost masked man poked right into Meng Wan’er’s secret fantasy.

Meng Wan’er was like a cat whose tail had been trodden on as she always leapt up from bed but luckily she met with the ghost masked man’s cold and harsh gaze and instantly reacted in time as she shrunk back onto the bed.

“This... ughh, this.... Senior, what on earth are you saying, I... how come I am unable to understand it at all?”

“Can’t understand?” He gave a cold scoff as his tone turned even colder, “Do you need This Seat to make things even clearer? That day when Li Moying and the others came to the entrance of Ice Serpent Valley, This Seat’s man was just following behind them and that kind of gaze that you gave off when you saw Li Moying for the first time, This Seat had seen just too many times! The number of women who fall in love with that young lad at first sight, you’re not the first, and absolutely not the last! Moreover, isn’t Bai Ruoli someone who likes to create trouble, she caused you to turn out in such a miserable state... you definitely have offended her right? Want to let her make a fool out of herself, and snatch Li Moying from her hands?”

The ghost masked man was even more direct this time round, totally not giving Meng Wan’er any place to hide, as he spoke out the truth, which she was trying her best to hide, clearly in just a few words!

Meng Wan’er’s complexion instantly turned pale like paper as her entire blood stream seemed to have coagulated.

What the ghost masked man said was right, she totally didn’t even have any place to rebuke!

Only thing was, she totally could not understand why the ghost masked man knew these so clearly and moreover, what was he trying to attain by telling her all these?

Just as Meng Wan’er was apprehensive, he opened his mouth once again.

“Then you... now... do you still want to get that man?”

Meng Wan'er was stunned, apparently she hadn't imagined that when that ghost masked man opened his mouth, it was actually to ask this kind of question.

She opened her mouth and spoke out in a low voice, "This... this shouldn't be the question of whether I want or not right? He's already... already has such an incredible fiancée..."

He gave a cold laugh and said, "Such timid guts, you also dare to snatch Bai Ruoli's man, no wonder you can only lie down here today!"

Chapter 2277: A couple that makes others envious (3)

Meng Wan'er was most afraid of other people saying that she wasn't comparable to Huang Yueli and when she heard these words, she got slightly agitated.

But on seeing the ghost masked man's sinister mask, she shuddered, "This... This Senior, you... what on earth do you mean by that?"

Ghost masked man burst out in laughter, "If I were to give you a chance now, to have a chance to get rid of Bai Ruoli that lass, will you do it?"

Meng Wan'er's eyes widened as she thought she heard him wrongly, "Wh... What? Get rid of... Bai Ruoli? Your mean that... you want me to kill Bai Ruoli?"

The Ghost masked man said, "That's right, do you dare to do it or not?"

Meng Wan'er was tongue tied and after sometime later, she spoke out in a stammer, "But, this... this... how could I possibly be able to kill her?"

"Oh? Don't tell me that you don't wish for her to die?" Ghost masked man's voice was laced with an obvious temptation.

Meng Wan'er still hadn't recovered from her shock as she subconsciously replied, "I... of course I wished that the little slut Bai Ruoli would not exist! In this way, there is no one who will snatch the man from me, and I will be able to lift my head up in front of her! But, she... she's a seventh stage realm practitioner and her ability is much higher than mine. She also has so many guards who are in the ninth stage realm, I... what can I possibly do anything to her?"

The ghost masked man chuckled, "That's right, just based on your current state, if you wish to kill her, it's just daydreaming in broad daylight. But if you cooperate with This Seat, This Seat naturally has a way to let her die in front of you! How is it, do you want This Seat to help you?"

"This... this..."

Meng Wan'er was feeling flustered when she heard this and she looked towards the ghost masked man in a daze.

On one hand, her rationality told her that this mysterious and unfathomable man absurdly found his way here, just to make her cooperate to kill someone so he absolutely had some unknown plot and if she was smart, she should not get involved.

But on the other hand, her feelings kept on crying out loud to her: Cooperate with him and make use of this chance to kill that little slut Bai Ruoli! Otherwise after Li Moying and the rest left the Northern Ice Fields, she would no longer have a chance to get close to him again!

Two voices were in a heated battle in her mind.

The ghost masked man seemed as though he was fearless as he crossed his arms around his chest, silently watching her struggle and shaking her head, portraying the look of how a mad woman behaved.

Finally, after a while later, Meng Wan'er slowly calmed down and the expression on her face turned icy cold.

The ghost masked man then asked, "How is it, Young Miss Meng? Have you decided?"

Meng Wan'er clenched her teeth hard as she nodded, "I... I can cooperate with you! But you must tell me, what motive do you have!"

He gave a cold laugh but he didn't hesitate, "Isn't my motive clear enough? I want Bai Ruoli's life! But I can't let anyone know that I'm the one who did it, that's why I came looking for you!"

"But..."

Meng Wan'er seemed to have thought of something as she frowned and was just about to speak.

He immediately interrupted her, adding, "Don't worry, as long as you follow my plan strictly, no one will discover that you killed Bai Ruoli! We have a common motive and as long as we work together, both of us will stand to gain. What are you hesitating for? Once you miss this chance, there will not be a second chance!"

These words seemed to be the last straw to overwhelm the camel.

Chapter 2278: A couple that makes others envious (4)

Meng Wan'er finally didn't hesitate, "Alright, I... will cooperate with you!"

Ghost mask man's lips curled into a strange smile, but was covered up by the malicious spirit mask so Meng Wan'er totally hadn't noticed it at all.

"Very good, next, let me explain my plan to you..."

His plan, was not just to claim Huang Yueli's life, but... he wanted Li Moying's life even more!

But there was no need to tell this foolish woman about this point.

The main reason was because Liu Buyan, Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun had exhausted too much Profound Energy while in the spirit gathering array.

Even though their foundations were firm and they had outstanding ability, and moreover Liu Buyan even used high grade medicinal pills to replenish their Profound Energy, but considering the fact that they would be heading towards Lone Sky Summit, they would definitely meet with immense dangers as they would be required to face strong opponents anytime and anywhere.

By then, if there was a little bit of problem with their abilities, it might just be the deciding factor to life and death.

For safety sake, Huang Yueli decided to stay in Ice Serpent Valley to adjust for a few more days and wait for Liu Buyan and the others to recover their abilities back to their peak state before they entered the freezing zone.

Three days passed, Huang Yueli and the others all packed their luggage and bade farewell to Meng Hongye.

Meng Hongye retrieved a small exquisite nine turn silk thread box out preciously, as she caressed it with reluctance for a while and passed it to Huang Yueli.

“Young Miss Bai, this nine turn silk thread box contains the Claret Crystal Bracelet that you wanted. You are an Armament Master so this kind of mechanism box to you, should be able to easily open, right?”

Huang Yueli nodded her head and her ten fingers brushed past the four corners of the silk thread box, as she swiftly changed a few hand gestures.

A “click clack” sound rang and the box lid bounced open from the top, as it revealed a string of hand beads in the box.

This string of hand beads was strung together with a kind of half transparent crystals and the internal parts of every single crystal were emitting a deep red fog-like pattern and looking at it from different angles, the pattern would be ever changing.

Every single claret crystal bead reflected against the sun, as it gave off a red coloured glow, the lights were radiating brilliantly and it looked a little mysterious and a little gorgeous.

She used her Profound Energy to sense it and following that, she nodded her head satisfactorily.

“That’s right, this string of Claret Crystal Bracelet had especially good lustre, indeed a half god relic which had been passed down since the ancient times! Valley Master Meng, we really are very grateful to you!” She spoke this out from the bottom of her heart.

Although she used the restoration of the mechanism as a condition, using it as an exchange with Valley Master Meng to obtain the Claret Crystal Bracelet, but this bracelet was simply too important to her and Li Moying and it was simply too useful so if Meng Hongye simply refused to hand it over, it would be very troubling for her.

Meng Hongye shook her head and said, “No need to stand on ceremony. If anyone should say thank you, it should be all of us from Ice Serpent Valley, we should be grateful to Young Miss Bai instead!”

Saying that, she paused for a moment and was still not assured as she added, “Young Miss Bai, this Claret Crystal Bracelet... is after all been passed down for many generations in Ice Serpent Valley and it’s considered as one of the little links that we have with our ancestors, I hope you will take good care of it in future.”

On seeing her so reluctant to part with it, Huang Yueli immediately said, “Valley Master Meng, you don’t need to be like this. It is because of some special reason why I need to borrow this Claret Crystal Bracelet for a while. When we leave the Northern Ice Fields, we will return it back to you!”

Chapter 2279: A couple that makes others envious (5)

Meng Hongye was stunned but she shook her head once again.

“Young Miss Bai, you’re too courteous. Since I’ve already given this Claret Crystal Bracelet out, I will not ask you to return it!”

Meng Hongye took another look at the Claret Crystal Bracelet once more and said, “Actually, our ancestors had once left a prophecy that this Claret Crystal Bracelet originally wasn’t Ice Serpent Valley’s possession and we were merely helping someone safekeep it. There will be a day when the fated person comes along to retrieve this bracelet.”

“In the past, I thought this was merely a rumour which had been passed down from the ancient times but now on seeing you all appearing, and you have successfully restored the ancient mechanism, I cannot help but admit that this prophecy is real. You.... should be the fated person which the prophecy was talking about!”

Meng Hongye turned towards Huang Yueli once again as her gaze was fixed attentively on her, “I’ll gift you this Claret Crystal Bracelet but will Young Miss Bai please promise me that In future you must safeguard this string of hand beads with you, and unless it’s a matter of life and death, otherwise you should not casually dispose of it.”

Huang Yueli blinked her eyes and said, “Valley Master Meng, there’s something that you don’t know. Actually it’s because of my fiancée which is why I tried to find means and ways to obtain the Claret Crystal Bracelet.”

As Huang Yueli was saying that, she picked up the bracelet which was radiating with red light while the other hand pulled Li Moying’s palm, as she personally wore it on her wrist.

Huang Yueli pulled his large hand and admired it for some time as she smiled sweetly, “Moying, it indeed looks better on you when you wear it! This bracelet is done so thickly, obviously it’s made for a man and if I wear it, it would definitely keep falling off.”

Li Moying opened his palm and held Huang Yueli’s little hand instead as his heart felt a stir of emotions, “Thank you Li’er.”

Liu Buyan’s arms were crossed around his chest and watching by the side as his heart was crying out.

Tsk tsk, his little Junior Sister treated the man who she liked to well! He really envied Li Moying that lucky fellow, just how much incense had he burnt in his past life!

He mocked in a sourish voice softly, "Isn't it men who usually gave women jewellery? How come it is the opposite for our Young Sect Master Li? Surely Blue Profound Sect isn't too poor until it's pushed to such a state right? To actually start living off women!"

He intentionally made sure Li Moying heard that, assuming that he would feel embarrassed but in the end, he had not expected that Li Moying actually lifted his wrist, intentionally showing off that he had received the bracelet as his lips curled up delightfully.

"Why? You envious? It takes ability to live off women and if you have the ability, you can go ahead and do that too? But rich woman like my Li'er here isn't too commonly seen so you aren't able to find someone richer than her!"

When Huang Yueli heard that, her lips couldn't help but twitched as she poked Li Moying hard around his waist, "What gibberish are you sprouting!! Don't keep bickering with my Senior Brother, Valley Master Meng is still waiting for your reply!"

Li Moying felt pain and gave Huang Yueli an aggrieved look, before she turned towards Meng Hongye.

He cupped his fists in greeting towards Meng Hongye and used a rare modest tone, "Valley Master Meng, please be assured. I know the significance that this string of Claret Crystal Bracelet has towards Ice Serpent Valley and will absolutely not dispose of it casually. This string of bracelet will always follow me, in my cultivation and battles. After all, it is not just a piece of half god relic, but also something that my Li'er had expended a huge amount of effort to give me."

Saying that, he exchanged an intimate gaze with Huang Yueli.

Meng Hongye went into a daze as she somehow couldn't help but felt a little envious.

Who could possibly not be envious of this young couple who had excellent talents and were also so much deeply in love?

In the pursuit to the peak of cultivation, it was originally an extremely lonely journey.

If one was able to find someone who they could mutually trust, someone who had equivalent innate talent and were able to become lifelong partners, and that to all the practitioners was something which they might hope to meet with, but wasn't able to wish for.

Moreover, this young couple, one was extremely handsome and the other gorgeous as both of them were the dragon and phoenix among common people.

When Meng Hongye looked at them, she nodded her head, "Alright, I'll trust you two! Right, there's one more thing and this is something that I've mentioned to you before. About finding a guide to accompany you all to Lone One Summit..."

Meng Hongye smiled, "Actually to tell the truth, in Ice Serpent Valley, the one who entered the freezing zone for the most number of times, is me myself but as I'm the Valley Master, I am unable to leave this place easily so I am not able to accompany you guys there. But my disciple Wan'er had been following me since young on experience learning and among the younger generation, she is absolutely one of the top experts and she knows the situation in the freezing zone especially well. If you don't mind, then please let Wan'er accompany you guys there!"

Her voice just ended and Meng Wan'er's figure stepped out from the screen.

Huang Yueli and the others were all stunned, as they looked at Meng Wan'er in astonishment.

Before Huang Yueli could even say a word, Liu Buyan already frowned, "This... isn't too good right? Isn't there anyone else in your Ice Serpent Valley? Must it be this immorale young lass?"

His words were put across extremely impolitely and Huang Yueli felt a little disgraced as she hurriedly casted him a gaze.

Liu Buyan shrugged his shoulders and took a step back as he passed the right of speech back to Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli cupped her fists and said, "Valley Master Meng, can we trouble you to change another guide? This Young Lady Meng... although she is your valued disciple, but we are heading towards Lone One Summit this time and it is actually extremely dangerous. Her cultivation isn't very high and moreover she even suffered serious injury a couple of days ago. Now we aren't sure how much she had recovered so why let her take the risk, to accompany us to the freezing zone?"

Her words were put across more politely and had taken Meng Hongye's face into consideration but her attitude appeared rather firm.

Meng Hongye waved her hands as she said, "I know your misgivings and I'm also worried that her ability wasn't enough and she might just drag you guys down. But this time, it is Wan'er who insisted and begged me, saying that she wished to head over with all of you. She also told me that previously there were some misunderstandings with Young Miss Bai and she feels extremely sorry over it and she's sincere in apologizing to you this time, hoping that she will be able to help you!"

Huang Yueli frowned as she rejected, "This... I appreciate her kind intentions. Young Miss Meng got seriously injured, part of the reason was due to my negligence so let's not mention this anymore. But I still feel that we need someone with higher ability..."

Before she could finish her words, Meng Wan'er already dashed right straight in front of her.

Her eyes were brimming with tears with a pale face, as she put on an extremely regretful look while her face lowered and she spoke out ashamedly, "Young Miss Bai, please don't say anymore, I know you're still angry with me! That day at the entrance of the Ice Serpent Valley, I'm the one who had no eyes and had offended you, I sincerely apologize to you!"

Huang Yueli looked at her stance and the alarms in her heart were ringing loudly.
