Chapter 2381: Bai Liufeng appears (5)

Actually when Huang Yueli saw the white robed man's looks as well as his agitated reaction, she already had a premonition in her heart.

But when she heard the white robed man personally announcing his identity, she was feeling so restless in her heart that she could not express herself!

It was only when she reached sixteen before she awoke her past life's memories and before that, Bai Ruoli had always been existing as Third Miss of Valiant Martial Manor!

No matter where she walked to, everyone would not stop mentioning Bai Liufeng's name, telling her many times just what an incredible father she had!

When she was an infant, she had always been pampered by her father.

That small sized soft little bun in her memory was always dressed sweetly and adorably, following behind Bai Liufeng's back. Whereas Bai Liufeng as her father pampered her exceptionally, which could be described as afraid of her falling when in his hands, or afraid of her melting in the mouth, and he would always give in to whatever she asked for.

Only except, occasionally in the deep night, Bai Liufeng would delve into deep silence when he was facing that little face which strongly resembled her mother.

Alas, ever since Bai Liufeng disappeared in order to trace her mother's whereabouts, this beautiful memory came to a full stop.

Bai Liufeng's memory in her mind layered perfectly with the white robed man in front of her.

For a practitioner who broke through the ninth stage realm, their looks would not undergo any changes in the hundreds of years when they lived.

Bai Liufeng's current looks, as compared to when he first left South Yue Kingdom, did not have much difference and one could tell that after he left not too long later, he had already broken through to the ninth stage realm.

Huang Yueli thought that she didn't have any expectations towards kinship.

But when she was hugged tightly by Bai Liufeng, in that moment, her eyes grew sour and she actually almost cried out, and that made her deeply felt that her entire heart was twitching in pain.

Moreover, in this period of time, because Li Moying's illness was getting more and more serious, the strings in her inner heart were so taut that it was almost on the verge of breaking.

Especially when she was in the Blood Moon Great Array, she was actually very tense, almost to the point of desperation, but only she herself knew that she could not relax, and could not fall! Because Li Moying was still lying behind her!

Under this kind of critical predicament, Bai Liufeng suddenly appeared, saving her life...

Exactly like what she had imagined her father to be....

Huang Yueli seemed to have loosened up a little as her eyes were all red and she furiously blinked before she held back her tears.

Bai Liufeng patted her back as his voice quivered, seemingly as though he was about to cry, "You're really Li'er, my little girl Li'er! Father misses you so much!"

The father and daughter hugged each other and that scene was extremely touching.

The trio Liu Buyan, Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun were totally dazed by this.

This shocking news proved to be too powerful and it was simply too great, rendering them to be in a daze and they were unable to recover their senses for at least half a day.

After a long, long time, Liu Buyan finally found back his voice, "What the... I say just who is this incredible person, so.... he's Junior Sister's father! But wasn't it said that he had already gone missing for ten over years? Why did he suddenly appear in a place like Northern Ice Fields?"

Cang Po Hun was totally concerned about another question, "Heavens, Sovereign's father-in-law is so awesome and now Sovereign is so sickly. Will he not be willing to marry his daughter to him?"

Chapter 2382: Bai Liufeng appears (6)

When Cang Po Jun heard this off-tone question, his heart thumped as well.

He didn't feel that Bai Liufeng would not look down on his Sovereign, after all if he wasn't satisfied, he probably wouldn't be able to find a better son-in-law than Li Moying.

But Sovereign was engaged with Grandmaster Huang and that wasn't through Bai Liufeng's consent, and moreover the both of them were sleeping in the same room...

If Bai Liufeng found out about this, his Sovereign would probably be a little miserable...

But now was not the time to consider all these.

Cang Po Jun recovered his senses and took a step up hastily as he spoke out loudly, "Grand... that, Young Miss Bai, I am very apologetic that I have to interrupt you and Senior Bai from reminiscing, but this place is a little too cold and Young Sect Master seems a little..."

When Huang Yueli heard that, she instantly woke up in shock.

She let go of Bai Liufeng and rubbed the tears from the corner of her eye, turning around and ran towards Cang Po Jun as she looked at Li Moying in his arms.

Li Moying's complexion was already starting to turn from white to green, and his lips were revealing a slight hint of blackness.

Huang Yueli was in a flurry as she turned her head to look at Liu Buyan.

Liu Buyan squatted down and stuffed a pill into Li Moying's mouth while talking at the same time, "The freezing zone is bitterly cold but that is secondary. The crux is that earlier we were still able to use our Profound Energies to protect our bodies in the Blood Moon Great Array, but Moying he totally doesn't have any resistance at all, and can only allow the array to sap away his Profound Energy, so the diminishment of his Profound Energy is much faster than us, luckily we have managed to leave that place in time...”

Huang Yueli urgently turned her head to look at Bai Liufeng as she pleaded, “Father, can you find a safe place for us? Moying’s illness cannot be dragged any further! This time we came to the Northern Ice Fields, the aim is to collect the medicinal herb for him and it must be refined within six days before we can save him!”

Bai Liufeng had finally found his long lost daughter and was just hugging her to enjoy the feeling of being a father.

Whoever knew that he had not even had his fill when his daughter ran off and pounced directly towards a sickly young lad...

Bai Liufeng immediately felt a crisis as he asked vigilantly, “This.... is also your Senior Brother?”

Huang Yueli blinked her big eyes and honestly replied, “Father, this is Blue Profound Sect’s Young Sect Master Li Moying and he is also my fiancé!”

“Fiancé!” Bai Liufeng’s complexion instantly turned slightly green.

However, Huang Yueli seemed as though she didn’t detect anything wrong with that.

After all, she was an orphan in her past life and her Master who adopted her was also a woman. Although she pampered her much, but after all she did not have much experience in interacting with a father.

So she totally didn’t realise that in a father-in-law’s eyes, a son-in-law who suddenly popped out was such a huge hindrance.....

Huang Yueli nodded her head consecutively, “That’s right, Father, Moying is really good to me! When you’re not around, it was always him who protected me, took care of me... this time round he, in order to protect me, it caused his illness to flare up... Father, you have to help me think of a way!”

Bai Liufeng was feeling sour inside his heart, feeling that his cabbage in his hands was not even warmed up yet and it had already been fed to a pig.....

But seeing Huang Yueli’s face which was alike to his beloved wife and that watery big eyes which revealed her request and trust, he had no way to reject her at all.

“The few of you follow me! I have a secluded abode near Lone Sky Summit...”

He wanted to turn around when he suddenly saw his petite little lass Li started carrying the man who was taller than her by a head.

Chapter 2383: Little gigolo who lives off women (1)

Bai Liufeng’s brows couldn’t help but start twitching.

Huang Yueli carried Li Moying horizontally as she ran towards him and urged, “Father, let’s go quickly! Moying’s condition looks like he’s really not very well.....”

Bai Liufeng took a deep breath, telling himself that he couldn't scare his own young lass.

He tried his best to remain calm as he persuaded her, "My Lass, you must have been frightened in Snow Phoenix Palace earlier so it's best that you take a rest? Carrying such a heavy living person, it's too tiring. It's better to let your Senior Brothers help you?"

Huang Yueli immediately shook her head, "No need, Father. They're clumsy and I'm afraid that they might just cause Moying to fall! I have a lot of strength and carrying a person doesn't take much effort at all!"

Bai Liufeng almost fainted!

She was afraid of this stinky brat falling!

What was wrong with that? This lad looked so sickly as though he was about to breathe his last any moment and not only did he look like he didn't have any power to protect his darling girl, moreover he still had to be carried by his daughter and afraid of him falling! Simply a little gigolo who lived off women!

How could his darling girl possibly marry this kind of joker? It was definitely because she was young and ignorant and on seeing him so handsome looking with a sweet mouth hence she was cheated!

Bai Liufeng was feeling stuffed but Huang Yueli was feeling extremely anxious as she kept on urging him.

"Father, why are you in a daze? Let's quickly find a place to settle down, my Senior Brother still needs to refine pills!"

Bai Liufeng was helpless as he looked at Huang Yueli's watery eyes which looked as though she was about to cry. He couldn't bear for his daughter to be worried and could only say, "Alright, all of you follow me..."

Forget it, he had just acknowledged his darling girl and forcing her to separate with this little gigolo would easily produce the opposite of the desired result.

It would be better for him to help treat that little gigolo and after he has shown benevolence and fulfilled his utmost duty, he would then think of a way to make him back down on his own...

Bai Liufeng led the way in front while Huang Yueli and the others followed behind hastily.

Liu Buyan was a world-wise man and when he saw Bai Liufeng's ever changing expressions on his face, he already understood most of what was going on.

Then he took a look at Huang Yueli's face which didn't detect anything, he silently found it amusing!

Don't think that Li Moying was usually very smug in front of him, this time round he met with this father-in-law who had such astounding ability, he would most likely be deflated!

What was worse of all was Bai Liufeng had never seen Li Moying's usual awe-inspiring look but now all he saw was his half-dead look.... It would be a miracle if he was agreeable to marry his daughter to him!

The few of them followed Bai Liufeng, passing through several snow mountains before they stopped.

Bai Liufeng hit out some hand gestures towards that snow mountain and after a few streaks of array patterns flashed past, a transportation array appeared in front of their eyes.

“Quickly follow up!” Bai Liufeng urged.

The few of them hastily stood next to him and the golden ray flashed and all of them were teleported to another world.

Here, the four surroundings and the top was completely covered by thick layers of ice, and only a piece in the centre was hollow.

In this icy snow surrounded space, there were quite a few blocks of exquisite rooms which were beautifully constructed, and on one look, one could tell that it was a cave dwelling left behind by the previous generations.

Liu Buyan raised his head and took a look as he asked in astonishment, “Marquis Bai, this place should be the inner part of the snowy mountain that we saw earlier? I’ve never thought that the exterior looked like a normal mountain but it’s a totally different world on the inside!”

Bai Liufeng smiled as he nodded his head and replied, “You are quite knowledgeable, this place is actually a cave dwelling of an ancient practitioner.”

Chapter 2384: Little gigolo who lives off women (2)

“In the Northern Ice Fields, there are quite a number of such early historical remains like this, and this place was discovered by me accidentally. Although this place is extremely concealed, Lord Zhan and the others weren’t able to find it, so I’ve been hiding here in seclusion for a long period of time...”

Hearing Bai Liufeng’s words, everyone’s doubts did not decrease, but instead they were even more befuddled.

Bai Liufeng abandoned his biological daughter for more than a decade, running over to Northern Ice Fields alone, and from the looks of it, it seemed that he seemed to be targeting Lord Zhan and the forces behind him... why was this? What was he trying to do?

Huang Yueli also had a lot of questions on her mind but the man in her arms was still unconscious so she momentarily didn’t have the heart to think about all these.

“Father, is the guest room over that side? I’ll carry Moying in to rest first, can I trouble you to find a larger room for my Senior Brother so that it will be more convenient for him to refine pills.....”

As Huang Yueli said that, she carried Li Moying and entered a small building on the right side, on her own.

“Lass Li...”

Bai Liufeng wanted to stop her, however, Huang Yueli had already entered the house by herself.

As it was the inner part of the snowy mountain which was isolated, so even if no one had stayed in this room for a very long time, the inside was still spotless.

The décor inside the room was very simple, with only a very hard bed, a table and a few chairs.

Moreover, the previous owner of this cave dwelling was a practitioner who cultivated in ice attributed cultivation method so there wasn't even a piece of blanket on the bed. Even the substance of the bed was sculpted out entirely of ice.

If a patient like Li Moying were to lie on this kind of bed, perhaps his illness might worsen.

Luckily Huang Yueli kept a number of daily necessities inside the space of Sky Phoenix Ring so pillows or whatever is all readily available. She quickly retrieved it all out and spread it all over then placing Li Moying onto the bed as she covered him with the blanket.

Looking at the greenish colour slowly fading away from Li Moying's face, his arms also started to gain a little bit of warmth, it was then when Huang Yueli finally could relax a little.

Cang Po Jun, Cang Po Hun also followed along, as they looked worriedly at Li Moying.

Liu Buyan sat beside the bed and stretched out his hand as he took Li Moying's pulse and moments later, he spoke out gravely, "Junior Sister, Li Moying had been overly exhausted in the Blood Moon Spell earlier and it has not only damaged his primordial spirit, moreover it has also affected his meridians and internal organs.... Luckily we managed to leave in time, otherwise if we were to stay for a couple more hours in the array, he might suffer from residual effects later on....."

"I'm going to use the golden needles acupuncture to first help him unblock his meridians otherwise even if he takes the Purified Pill, I'm afraid that there isn't any way for him to absorb it successfully."

Saying that, Liu Buyan turned around, indicating for the others to step back, "Will Senior Bai and both Guardians please leave us for a moment. The golden needles acupuncture required silence and cannot be disturbed. Junior Sister will stay alone to help me and that will do."

Huang Yueli nodded her head. She had learnt quite a lot from Dai Boqi by now and plus the fact that her comprehension power was very high, she had already grasped the basic foundation of golden needle acupuncture skill.

Of course, with a ninth ranked Divine Doctor like Liu Buyan around, there was no chance for her to take action but as an assistant, she was completely qualified for this.

Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun knew about this long ago hence they didn't find it odd and turned around to leave.

Bai Liufeng also followed along, wanting to see what illness had this stinky brat who had abducted his Lass Li contracted, but in the end, before he could even find out anything, he was being chased out again.

Bai Liufeng wasn't very willing but with a change in his thoughts, he turned around to leave the room.

Chapter 2385: Little gigolo who lives off women (3)

Seeing Lass Li in this state, her entire mind on that stinky little brat, totally throwing him – her father behind her mind cleanly, even if he wanted to ask her anything, she wouldn't have any heart to reply to him at all.

He might as well take this opportunity while that stinky brat was still unconscious, to catch those two subordinates of his and interrogate them to see what that stinky brat did, to cheat his Lass Li into his hands!

As the saying went, 'Know the enemy and yourself, and you can fight a hundred battles with no danger of defeat'.

Knowing that stinky brat's plot, wouldn't he be able to remove the firewood from beneath the cauldron?

After Bai Liufeng left, Liu Buyan brought Huang Yueli along to administer acupuncture for Li Moying.

"Junior Sister, this is your first time being responsible for administering acupuncture for a patient so you must be extremely careful. Li Moying has an extremely complicated case of meridians and internal organs injury this time round and even seventh ranked Pill Masters aren't able to manage this situation. Moreover you're still a freshman, so by rights, I shouldn't ask of you to be my assistant... but, now there's no other way and Li Moying's injury cannot be delayed any longer...."

Huang Yueli nodded her head and interrupted his words, "Senior Brother, don't worry. I can handle it well."

Seeing Liu Buyan's grave and serious expression, she naturally knew clearly that Li Moying's situation was definitely extremely bad.

Otherwise, Liu Buyan who had always been extremely confident of his own medical skills, in light of ordinary people's serious injuries, had always been an appetiser to him so when he was administering the golden needle acupuncture, he would generally not require any assistance at all.

Liu Buyan took a deep look at her, and didn't say anything else.

He didn't doubt his Junior Sister's innate talent and power of comprehension but was only worried that because the person who was injured was Li Moying, which would inevitably affect her normal standard.

"Alright then let's start! Pay attention to my commands!"

Liu Buyan's words were out and with that, his finger flipped and a golden needle was held firmly in his hands.

Immediately following that, as his fingers flew, rays of golden light flashed past and the golden needles were pierced one after another into Li Moying's acupoints around his body.

Golden needle acupuncture, not only was the position of every single piece of golden placed could not be wrong, moreover, the depth of the insertion and the angle was meticulously calculated. Not only so, as the golden needles were pierced into his body, Liu Buyan's wood attributed Profound energy also started to flow into Li Moying's body.

Wood attribute was useful in aiding germination and had a nourishing effect, so using wood attributed Profound Energy to invigorate meridians' regeneration power, it would also enable the meridians which were damaged to recuperate at the fastest speed possible.

After Liu Buyan pierced the golden needles, he spoke out softly, “Junior Sister, prepare yourself a little. Later when I pull out the golden needles, you will pierce those golden needles in your hands into those remaining few acupoints...”

As Li Moying’s injury was rather serious, a round of acupuncture wasn’t enough to cure him entirely, and it would take at least four rounds of treatment.

But in this entire process, the Profound Energy which was administered for acupuncture could not be cut off otherwise it would lose its effectiveness.

Hence at the same time when Liu Buyan pulled out the needles, he would also require Huang Yueli to immediately cover his position and this timing needed to be grasped exactly without any sense of hesitation and freshmen usually found it hard to be so resolute and would often make mistakes.

But these problems did not surface with Huang Yueli at all.

Her slender delicate fingers held the golden needles tightly, injecting wood attributed Profound energy into the golden needles and immediately following that, she entered a trance.

In her heart, all the distracting thoughts had all been swept aside and in her eyes, there were only Li Moying’s acupoints and also the gestures where Liu Buyan pulled out the needles....

One needle, followed by another.

Chapter 2386: Little gigolo who lives off women (4)

Liu Buyan was initially worried that Huang Yueli wasn’t able to concentrate but later on he realised that he had thought too much.

Huang Yueli’s psychological state had always been very good. Even though the person who was seriously injured now was her fiancé, but her hands had not once trembled as every needle she pierced was firm and resolute, precise to the finest detail. Even if it were other high levelled Pill Masters who were rich in experience, not many of them were able to express themselves so steadily.

Golden needle acupuncture was an extremely delicate yet extremely exhausting process.

About two hours later, the two of them finally completed this treatment.

Momentarily, the both of them heaved a breath of relief.

Liu Buyan wiped the sweat off his forehead as he stood up, “Alright, now that his meridians and internal organs damage has basically been restored, following this he will just need to lie down quietly to recuperate. Originally this fellow just doesn’t listen to the doctor’s instructions and is always running about which makes me worry. Now anyway he can’t move and can only just lie down, that will save me some trouble. Following this, I will try my best to refine the Purified Pill.”

Huang Yueli nodded her head and spoke out gratefully from the bottom of her heart, “Senior Brother, I really must thank you greatly. If not for you, Moying would have long ago.... The gratitude that you have gifted to us, I will never forget it forever.”

Liu Buyan took a look at her and his lips curled upwards, but with a slight bitterness.

“We’re all friends, what’s there to say thanks about?”

What he wanted was never a word of thanks, but unfortunately, the deepest hope that he genuinely wished for in his inner heart, could no longer be triggered forever.....

“Alright, we’re pressed for time so let’s not talk much for now. Follow what I told you earlier, administer the golden needle acupuncture once a day for Li Moying daily, ensure that his body is maintained in the best condition. I will be going behind closed doors to refine the pill for the next few days.”

Saying that, he nodded his head towards Huang Yueli and turned around to leave.

Huang Yueli looked at his departing figure as she could somehow sense Liu Buyan’s thoughts.

Exactly because of this, she felt even more guilty in her heart, hopefully in the near future, her Senior Brother would also be able to find that person who he genuinely likes...

As the golden needle acupuncture exhausts a lot of Profound Energy, moreover today Huang Yueli had consecutively met with danger in the Blood Moon Spell, her exhaustion was tremendous.

Earlier when Liu Buyan was around, she could still force herself to hold on but now that there were no other outsiders, she immediately felt a sense of tiredness sweeping across her entire body, even her eyelids could not stay open.

However, her entire body was stained with the blood from the blood pool and was extremely dirty. However she was not able to take it if she had to climb up into bed like this.

Luckily, she had Spirit Saint Spring Water in her Sky Phoenix Ring’s space.

Huang Yueli retrieved the spring water from her interspatial ring and in her fastest speed possible, she took a shower and changed into a set of dry clothes before she went back to lie down beside Li Moying.

Huang Yueli turned over and her eyes slid past Li Moying’s upright brows, long but curly eyelashes, straight nose and the pair of cold thin lips... he laid on the bed, quietly without moving, like a perfectly sculpted model.

For that instance, Huang Yueli suddenly had a terrified feeling arising in her heart.

Really extremely worried that Li Moying would just remain like this forever, not moving.....

It was until she placed her hand on Li Moying’s chest, to feel his heart beating with vigor, before she was able to put her heart slightly at ease...

Tiredness attacked her once again and Huang Yueli’s petite body curled up, as she snuggled totally into Li Moying’s arms, her face plastered onto Li Moying’s chest, listening to his stable heartbeat and she quickly fell into deep sleep.

Outside the door.

The minute Liu Buyan came out, he saw the three people standing at the entrance of the door.

Bai Liufeng’s arms were crossed around his chest, and his brows were slightly creased.

Chapter 2387: Little gigolo who lives off women (5)

Whereas Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun, were evidently bearing terrified looks.

Apparently, when facing a top exponent like Bai Liufeng made them feel extremely pressurized.

Moreover, Bai Liufeng was their master's father-in-law, someone whom even Li Moying could not afford to offend, hence the both of them didn't dare to speak out recklessly.

But even though they didn't want to say much, but Bai Liufeng had a pile of questions to interrogate them with.

Without Li Moying and Huang Yueli's hints, there were many things which Cang Po Jun and all did not dare to speak about recklessly.

Such an awkward situation made the both of them squeeze out cold sweat, as the pressure they bore was as heavy as a mountain.

Finally, after waiting for a long time, they managed to wait it out till Liu Buyan finished the treatment, which was considered as being relieved of their ordeal. Momentarily, the gaze which they shot towards Liu Buyan, seemed as though they had seen their saviour.

Liu Buyan saw their puppy eyes looking at them and his heart jumped.

Before he could even react in time, Bai Liufeng already coughed slightly as he opened his mouth, "I've not expected that your distinguished self is Soaring Heavens Continent's Number One Divine Doctor, Divine Doctor Liu, earlier I've really disgraced myself! Thank you very much for taking care of my daughter."

Liu Buyan was stunned and instantly understood that it should have been Cang Po Jun and the others who told Bai Liufeng about this.

He hurriedly cupped his fist into the other hand and said, "You've flattered me. Li'er is my Junior Sister and our Master likes her very much. She is still young so it's only natural that I have to take care of her a little more."

Bai Liufeng nodded his head, as he stopped with the formalities.

His Li'er was able to join Dai Boqi's wing to become Senior Brother and Junior Sister with the Number One Divine Doctor, this indeed was out of his expectations but from what Bai Liufeng thought, his daughter naturally had outstanding innate talent where no one could match, so to be chosen by Dai Boqi was really nothing curious about.

His topic took a change as he asked, "Divine Doctor Liu, earlier you mentioned that for the stinky.....cough cough, for Young Sect Master Li, you were going to administer treatment using golden needles acupuncture, is the treatment completed already?"

Liu Buyan thought he was worried about Li Moying's injuries as he hurriedly replied, "He has just underwent treatment, Marquis Bai please be assured! For meridians injuries, as long as one received timely treatment, the problem isn't too big."

However, Bai Liufeng frowned, "Then... why is it that you're the only one who came out, where's Lass Li?"

"Ughh... eh?"

Liu Buyan was truly shocked as he totally did not expect Bai Liufeng to ask this question at all!

By the time he had a change in thoughts, he then suddenly realised that although Li Moying and Huang Yueli were already engaged, but they weren't officially married and for a lone man and woman to stay alone in a room, and also to spend the night together, was indeed not suitable....

But in the eyes of those who knew the two lifetimes' feelings between the both of them, they had long deemed them as husband and wife, so they had never felt that something was wrong about this.

But to Bai Liufeng, this problem was very serious.

Looking at the expression on Liu Buyan's face, Bai Liufeng's expression immediately sank, "What's going on? Lass Li is still inside? Why hasn't she come out yet?"

Liu Buyan gave a dry cough as he avoided the details and touched on the brief, "This... Marquis Bai, you know that after the golden needle acupuncture, the patient is extremely frail and sometimes they might even suffer from convulsions in the middle of the night so he definitely needs someone by his side. Junior Sister is worried about her fiance, so she stayed behind to take care of him..."

Bai Liufeng replied unsatisfactorily, "Take care? What does that stinky brat have, to get Lass Li to take care of him! Blue Profound Sect's Young Sect Master is that great? Moreover speaking, he still has these two Guardians here, can't they take care of him?"

"This..." Liu Buyan didn't know how to reply as well.

Chapter 2388: Little gigolo who lives off women (6)

If it was possible to persuade her, without Bai Liufeng saying, Liu Buyan would have persuaded Huang Yueli to leave Li Moying further away long ago!

Seeing them being so intimate every single day, the person who was most out of sorts was him!

The question was, for Huang Yueli who was a person with her own ideas, she wouldn't bother considering other people's views and ideas.

Usually she already couldn't bear for Li Moying to have nightmares in the night and right now, Li Moying was seriously unconscious so it would be strange if she could bear to take even one step away!

Bai Liufeng had not even thought of waiting for his reply as he flicked his sleeves angrily and started walking towards the room directly, intending to save his obedient daughter from the "ill intended stinky brat"!

Cang Po Jun and the others knew that things were not going well and all headed up to persuade him.

"Marquis Bai, this.... Young Miss Bai wants to take care of our Young Sect Master herself, let's not disturb them?"

“That’s right, Marquis Bai, don’t worry. Our Young Sect Master is currently unconscious and he can’t do anything bad at all! Young Miss Bai is merely worried about his condition, don’t worry too much...”

However, how would these few bachelors like them possibly understand that when Bai Liufeng heard these words, he felt even more out of sorts.

This sounded as though Lass Li really liked that stinky brat very much, and even plastered over on her own to take care of him!

Bai Liufeng spoke out gloomily, “Move aside all of you! Divine Doctor Liu, weren’t you in a hurry to go refine medicinal pills? Why? Not urgent any longer?”

Liu Buyan regained his senses and realised that he didn’t have much time so it seemed that he had no way to continue watching the show right here.

He looked at Bai Liufeng’s back striding into the room as he couldn’t help but shook his head.

Forget it, there wasn’t enough time and refining medicinal pills was more important whereas the show could be continued later on.

After Li Moying’s illness had recovered, no one knew how chickens would fly or how dogs would jump!

Thinking about the fact that Li Moying would soon put on a sunken expression, Liu Buyan felt that his mood had improved by a whole round!

“Marquis Bai, perhaps Young Miss Bai might have already gone to rest, why must you...” Cang Po Hun followed Bai Liufeng all the way while trying to persuade him.

However, the room door was still pushed open by Bai Liufeng!

Bai Liufeng almost jumped up in fury when he saw the exact scenario in the room!

A big bed on a piece of white coloured snow leopard’s fur rug was a pair of young couple who leaned close to each other, eyes shut tightly and both of them had already immersed into dreamland long ago.

This pair, the man was agelessly handsome while the lady was dainty and charming and from the surface, they really were a couple who couldn’t be more compatible than ever.

But Bai Liufeng totally failed to notice this. His line of vision landed totally on Li Moying’s chest.

Because of the golden needle acupuncture earlier, Li Moying’s outer clothing were removed by Liu Buyan earlier and even his inner clothing were removed by a large half, as the front lapel was pulled aside.

Whereas Huang Yueli was leaning in his arms in an intimate position.

What was worse of all was that, Li Moying’s body had many scars which were left after the golden needle acupuncture, and that looked exceptionally ambiguous.

Momentarily, Bai Liufeng’s face turned green.

Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun followed him closely behind and when they entered the room, the alarms in their hearts cried out loudly!

Sovereign has actually been seen in such a state, this time round, everything is finished!

They had really never met someone who was so unlucky. He was still unconscious and had not even done anything bad yet, but was caught in bed by his father-in-law...

Chapter 2389: Little gigolo who lives off women (7)

As expected, Bai Liufeng's brows twitched as he couldn't help but give a loud cough while growling, "Lass Li!"

However, Huang Yueli had always been assured when she was beside Li Moying. Adding on to the fact that she felt that this was Bai Liufeng's turf so there wouldn't be any dangers hence she slept soundly. Even if her own father's head was emitting smoke, she didn't feel anything at all.

Cang Po Jun's heart was drumming, crying out for Grandmaster Huang to quickly wake up! Weren't you usually very alert? Wasn't your reaction always the swiftest, as long as there was a little movement?

Why did you sleep this soundly today!

However, Huang Yueli totally couldn't sense Cang Po Jun's complaining, as she remained unmoved.

Bai Liufeng gave a humph as his expression looked even worse now!

If it wasn't for the fact that he had personally seen Li Moying's face turning green and he was totally weak, he might really have thought that this stinky brat was intentionally pretending to be ill, just to abduct his daughter!

Bai Liufeng ignored Cang Po Jun's obstruction as he walked to the front of the bed in a few quick steps and raised his voice a little louder, "Lass Li, quickly get up!"

This time round, Huang Yueli finally sensed that something was amiss.

Bai Liufeng was a ninth stage realm peak practitioner and his surrounding aura was exceptionally strong. He was already standing so close by and if she still hadn't sensed anything, she would really be a dead person.

Huang Yueli opened her eyes in a daze, as her sleepiness had not waned off yet.

She used her hand to cover her mouth and quietly yawned several times, "What's the matter? Is there anything urgent? Has Senior Brother already finished refining the pill?"

Bai Liufeng gave another cough and Huang Yueli was stunned as she lifted her head to meet with her father's face, then abruptly regained consciousness!

She sat up immediately and said, "Father, why are you here? Is something the matter? Has Lord Zhan found us?"

Her first reaction was that everyone had to move because of danger, totally not realising that she and Li Moying sleeping together was a wrong thing to do.

Bai Liufeng saw that and felt even more stuffed!

His face was steely green as he spoke out, "Lass Li, you and Young Sect Master Li still aren't married yet! Sleeping together like this, it's not too nice right?"

"Ah? Really? But after Moying's illness is cured, we will get married immediately!" Huang Yueli blinked her big eyes as she replied innocently, "Right, Father, originally I was still worried that when the both of us get married, there will be no Elder to preside over our marriage and this is really not logical! Now with Father around, then this problem no longer exists!"

Bai Liufeng felt as though it was being shot by an arrow when he heard what she said!

It was always said that a woman's heart was with her husband, but surely she didn't need to be like this right?

Was she rushing to get married, and he even had to help them preside over this marriage??

What was wrong with this, when had he ever mentioned that he agreed to their marriage?

Bai Liufeng gave a cold snort and said, "When have I ever acknowledged your marriage? I heard that you've already gotten engaged when you were in South Yue Kingdom? Who set the engagement for you? Bai Liu Jing, or that Emperor? I haven't even nodded my head, who has the right to decide this engagement for you?"

"Ah??" Huang Yueli's eyes opened wide as she finally understood what was wrong.

"Father... could it be that you don't agree with our engagement?"

Bai Liufeng swept a gaze on Li Moying via the corner of his eye as he spoke out coldly, "How is this brat worthy of you? Look at his sickly look, he might possibly die any moment! His condition is so bad so I believe his cultivation innate talent can't be very high! Not only can he not protect you, you might even need to risk your life to protect him!"

Chapter 2390: Little gigolo who lives off women (8)

Bai Liufeng had not forgotten that earlier when they were in the Blood Moon Great Array, he was the one who stood in the middle of the blood pool and saved Huang Yueli out from the three attacking Demonic Soul Red Scorpions!

Whereas at this moment, what was this stinky brat doing?

The battle had not even started and he was already unconscious, totally unable to protect his own fiancée!

This kind of trash could forget about touching a single strand of hair on his princess.

Thinking of this, Bai Liufeng's vision turned to Huang Yueli once again, this lass was still using her handkerchief to wipe the sweat for that stinky brat! She looked really like a little wife, eyesore!

He harrumphed coldly, "You and this lad's marriage.... We'll discuss this again! You'd have to let me test this lad's innate talent and ability first before I can be assured about letting him marry you right? But, now you're not married yet so how can you sleep on the same bed? There are plenty of rooms here, it isn't as though you have no place to stay? Come over to Father's side!"

Huang Yueli originally wanted to say that Li Moying's illness was very serious and she simply wasn't assured....

However, looking at the vengeful expression that Bai Liufeng shot towards Li Moying, she started to hesitate.

Looked like Bai Liufeng seemed to have some misunderstanding towards Li Moying.....

Huang Yueli thought over this for a moment and explained, "Father, you're thinking too much! I'm only staying here to take care of Moying....."

"Doesn't he have his Guardians here? He's not alone by himself! He doesn't need you to take care of him!" Bai Liufeng said resolutely.

"But..."

Huang Yueli was still hesitating if she should speak up about the matter where Li Moying would start having nightmares the minute she left.

But before she could open her mouth, Cang Po Jun butted in and spoke out first, "Grandmaster Huang, leave this to This Subordinate, please be assured! With This Subordinate around, I will absolutely not let anything happen to Sovereign. You've been tired out for the past two days so it's better to have a good rest. Moreover, Marquis Bai and yourself have not met for more than a decade so you must have a lot of things to talk about!"

While Cang Po Jun was speaking, he kept throwing signs with his eyes to Huang Yueli.

Cang Po Jun had already mentioned this hence Huang Yueli also started to come around it.

Looked like her father's misunderstanding towards Li Moying wasn't just this little bit!

In order to consider their future, she had best not go against Bai Liufeng for the time being!

Anyway after Bai Liufeng had gone to sleep at night, she would still be able to sneak in and look after Li Moying!

If Bai Liufeng found out about what Huang Yueli was thinking in her heart, he would probably faint from anger alive!

Huang Yueli nodded her head and said, "Alright then but Guardian Jun, when you are on night watch, you must take note of the following matters..."

She was like an unceasing torrent and spoke for a long time before she finally managed to wrap up all the matters that he should take note of. Even if Cang Po Jun had an outstanding memory, he couldn't help but end up with an entire forehead of sweat.

After she finished instructing, she then left with Bai Liufeng.

The two of them had just stepped out of the room when Bai Liufeng swung around growling out in an earnest manner, "Lass Li ah, you're still young and have not met many men so don't be deceived by that stinky brat! See that Lad surnamed Li, he came from Blue Profound Sect and does indeed have some status, and his looks is not bad as well so if you're smitten by him, Father don't find it strange at all! But just these alone are useless, men..... mainly we still need to see if they have the potential! If they have the ability to protect their own woman, that's the most important thing!"

Huang Yueli was stunned as she blinked her eyes, momentarily unable to recollect her senses.

To find a man with potential, she knew this point totally.
