Chapter 2401: Li Moying regains consciousness (11)

Liu Buyan finished talking and carried his medication case as he turned around and walked out.

He was anxious to return to his courtyard to cultivate.

In the past few days, Liu Buyan, Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun seemed as though they were injected with chicken blood, as they worked hard to cultivate day and night.

It was rumoured that they were agitated by Lord Zhan and Bai Liufeng.

In the past, although they were always suppressed by Mu Chengying, this kind of peerless strong exponent above them, but everyone was still able to comfort themselves that there was only one pervert like him and ordinary people could not possibly be that ridiculously strong!

They were able to gain ninth stage realm peak ability and were ranked on top ten of the Sky Chart, and that was already an outstanding feat.

But when Lord Zhan and Bai Liufeng exhibited their own potentials, they then realised that it wasn't that they were already not bad but because their knowledge was too shallow and they really didn't work hard enough!

The only one who was infinitely close to tenth stage realm potential, was only Mu Chengying alone who could reach it!

Now after such provocation, the trio all started to have motivation to move upwards, as they began to cultivate furiously.

Whereas when Bai Liufeng saw that they took good care of Huang Yueli, he was very willing to help them and imparted quite a number of Profound Skills and cultivation methods that he had obtained from the ancient mystic region. Adding on to the fact that Northern Ice Field's Heaven and Earth Profound Qi was much denser than the other places in the Continent, so in this period of time, everyone had made some improvements.

Of course, Bai Liufeng passed on even more manuscripts to his own daughter but Huang Yueli still had to take care of Li Moying so her cultivation time wasn't as much. Even so, in this month alone, her cultivation had speedily ascended as she had already raised it from seventh stage realm third level to seventh stage realm seventh level.

Huang Yueli was now in a trance when she suddenly heard footsteps from behind her.

Bai Liufeng walked behind her and gently hugged her shoulders, "Lass Li, you're looking at brat Li again? Don't worry, father has already taken a look for him, this stinky brat has a tough life and he will not die so easily."

"Father!" Huang Yueli swept a glance at him, apparently not happy, "Moying he has a name, not what stinky brat surnamed Li!"

Bai Liufeng felt stuffed as his daughter's entire heart was totally abducted by that stinky brat!

Bai Liufeng was feeling melancholic when suddenly, he felt Huang Yueli leaning towards him and spoke out softly, "Father, I'm really so worried!"

Looking at her pitiful looks, Bai Liufeng's entire tummy of fury started to disappear and he could only care about consoling her.

"Don't worry, stinky brat has taken advantage of my daughter and I haven't even settled the debt with him yet, does he even dare to die like this?"

Huang Yueli instantly didn't know if she should laugh or cry, "Father!"

The father daughter duo spoke quietly, totally not noticing that the eyebrows of the handsome looking man who had been lying quietly on the bed, had twitched a little.

Li Moying only felt that he had slept for a very, very long time and his consciousness was blurry, as he felt lethargic all over. His senses were drowned by silent darkness, totally unable to see a sliver of light at all.

Not knowing how long had passed, suddenly, a young lady's melodious voice rang softly in his head.

"Moying, Moying... quickly wake up! What's wrong with you? Why aren't you waking up? I'm so worried about you..."

The young lady's voice was filled with a slight tinge of choking, which made his heart twitch in pain.

Even though he couldn't remember where he heard this voice from, but a tiny voice in his brain was telling him to quickly wake up, and not make her upset any longer!

Chapter 2402: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (1)

This thought kept surfacing in his mind and Li Moying used all the strength in his entire body and finally.....

For that one instance, he realised that he seemed to feel something.

He started to feel that the place where he was lying was a little cold, but the Profound Energy was extremely abundant, moreover, there seemed to be someone who was speaking softly by his ear...

This voice was the same young lady's voice that he heard when he was unconscious... it was Li'er!

Following this name which surfaced in his mind, Li Moying's senses instantly became clear.

He opened his eyes in a second.....

In order to coax Huang Yueli into a happy mood, Bai Liufeng told her plenty of interesting stories when she was young.

They had to admit that when Bai Ruoli was young, she really led a fortunate life which was even better than a princess. Everyone adored her and even the Crown Prince was able to gain glory by playing with her. Moreover back then her parents were still by her side and she was well taken care of. She was intelligent, quick-witted and lively and everyone thought that she would definitely inherit her parent's innate talent, to become a top rated practitioner.....

Alas, things were unpredictable.....

Huang Yueli was attracted by the contents that Bai Liufeng said, and the two of them got closer and closer.

Just at this moment, suddenly, a bolt of penetrative lightning flashed past the sky, directly attacking Bai Liufeng's back!

This bolt of lightning was enveloped with pure and sharp thunder attributed Profound Energy and moreover it came extremely sudden!

However, Bai Liufeng's potential was right there and even if he was snuck an attack, he managed to come around it at the first moment, as he immediately hugged Huang Yueli, bringing her to avoid the attack.

Following that, he turned around and swept his sleeve as he was about to counterattack.....

Huang Yueli instantly had not realised what had happened and it was right until Bai Liufeng was about to take action when she turned her head back and saw Li Moying whose eyes had already opened up he was seated up on the bed!

"Wait a minute, don't.. don't strike!"

Bai Liufeng had actually discovered that Li Moying had awoken the minute he turned around.

But he had already disliked that stinky brat from long ago and he wanted to take this chance to first beat him up then talk. After beating him up, he was still able to act dumb. Anyway it was Li Moying who started the attack first!

Alas, Huang Yueli's reaction was also very quick, as she immediately jumped out to stop him.

His daughter had already said that so he could no longer act dumb if not Lass Li would blame him later on!

However, Li Moying's side wasn't that easy to settle.

He forcibly propped his weak and lethargic body, as his gloomy gaze fell onto Huang Yueli and Bai Liufeng who were engaged in an embrace, especially when his vision swept past Bai Liufeng's hand which grasped Huang Yueli's shoulder, his eyes practically spewed fire!

“Let go of her! You.. what are you trying to do to my Li’er?? Still not going to scam?”

“Your Li’er? What right do you have to say that Li’er belongs to you? I’m telling you, this lass belongs to my family!”

Huang Yueli’s chest felt dull and she wasn’t able to say a single word out.

Bai Liufeng took the opportunity to give a cold humph, as he casted a provocative look at Li Moying.

Chapter 2403: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (2)

Aha, he had seen many people with fat guts but he had never seen someone this gutsy before!

The minute he woke up, he attacked his future father-in-law and he even dared to ask him to scam?? If he didn’t teach him how to respect his elders, he really wouldn’t know just how red the flower was!

Li Moying had apparently not noticed it at all as Bai Liufeng’s words were filled with traps, totally failing to notice that Huang Yueli’s eyes were exactly the same as Bai Liufeng’s.

He had just awoken from a long period of unconsciousness and his senses had yet to fully awaken.

The current Li Moying only noticed that his beloved Li’er was in the arms of a man who popped out of nowhere, and moreover, not only was this fellow arrogant, his potential was abnormally powerful! It was on par with that Lord Zhan in the Snow Phoenix Palace!

What background did this man had, why was he on such intimate terms with Huang Yueli? Had Li’er been bullied by him?

The more Li Moying thought, the angrier he became and he couldn’t even care about the fact that his body was frail, as he instantly leapt out of bed.

“Otherwise what?” The threatened father-in-law gave a cold laugh as he had no restraining fear at all.

Little guy, could I be afraid of you? Do you still wish to marry Lass Li?

However, even before he had finished laughing, a bolt of penetrative lightning had already descended from the sky, directly crashing down from the top of his head!

This bolt of lightning was much stronger by several times than his sneak attack earlier and the rampaging thunder attributed Profound Energy pierced through the roof, as it advanced courageously, attacking towards him!

Bai Liufeng’s expression suddenly underwent a change!

He had already thought that he might be attacked by Li Moying but he had not expected Li Moying's attack to be so strong!

Even for a peerless exponent like him who was nearing tenth stage realm, had no choice but to perk up his senses, to deal with him carefully!

Bai Liufeng hurriedly pushed Huang Yueli aside and at the same time, gathered a bolt of wind blade to meet with Li Moying's lightning.

Two bolts of extremely powerful Profound Energy crashed against each other in mid-air and gave off an earth shattering explosion, as the ice pieces above their heads kept dropping down, like a hailstorm.

If it wasn't for the fact that there was an ancient array being set up around the surroundings, this block of ice mountain that they were hiding in would probably have been torn apart by the both of them!

Li Moying gave a dull "oof" and took a few steps and took a few steps backwards. More or less he was at a disadvantage but the war intent in his eyes grew thicker.

Bai Liufeng had an astonished look. Li Moting's potential was totally out of his predictions.

Just as the two men were engaged in a confrontation, Huang Yueli ran over and stopped right in between the both of them as she cried out exasperatedly, "Stop, both of you stop right now! You're not allowed to fight!"

Li Moying's expression changed and he hurriedly cried out, "Li'er, come over. This fellow's potential is very strong and it's too dangerous for you to stand there!"

Saying that, he wanted to stretch out his hand to pull Huang Yueli behind him.

"Lass Li, come over here!" Li Moying's heart jolted when he heard that man on the opposite side saying the same thing.

Li Moying almost fainted from fury and just as he was unable to control his rage, he suddenly heard Huang Yueli's enraged voice, "Father, you're simply too much! Moying has just woken up and his body is still very frail! Why are you bullying him?"

"What did you say? Father?" Li Moying's eyeballs almost fell onto the ground.

Chapter 2404: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (3)

Li Moying's eyes stared open in disbelief, thinking that he had developed hallucinations!

Father? What Father?

Hadn't his Li'er lost her parents when she was just four years old, which was why she was being bullied by the Bai family when she was in South Yue Kingdom?

Wait.....

Li Moying suddenly recalled that when he was in South Yue Kingdom, he had once heard that Li'er's father was Marquis Bai Liufeng, who was considered as a top rated talented practitioner in South Sky Region but he mysteriously went missing when he went on an experience learning trip, could it be.....

Thinking of this, Li Moying squinted his eyes as he looked at Bai Liufeng once again.

This time round, he took an extremely detailed look and realised that this exceptionally handsome looking man did have some similarity with Huang Yueli, especially that pair of eyes, which was simply from the same source.

Of course, he looked very young and just from his looks alone, it would be more apt to call him as Huang Yueli's brother instead.

But a practitioner who looked so young and yet had such profound cultivation....

Could it be that this really was Li'er's father?

Just as Li Moying was sizing Bai Liufeng up, Bai Liufeng was also observing Li Moying.

His vision swept past Li Moying's handsomely ageless face and his robust figure, sensing the powerful aura which was emitted formlessly from him and silently nodded his head.

If it was said that Li Moying was a strange younger junior who was not linked to him, he would have no way but to admit that this young lad was really not bad and he would definitely have a good future!

But as his future son-in-law, then... he failed!

Having such a good looking face and his eyes even carried luck with the ladies so on one look, he should be a womanizer with plenty of young ladies being swept under his long robe!

No wonder his obedient and adorable Lass Li was cheated by him till she ran round in circles, staying together with him even before they were married!

Adding on to Li Moying's innate talent and potential, it really seemed like what Huang Yueli said, extraordinary and a top rated peerless genius in Soaring Heavens Continent! Tsk tsk, then his ill-lucked love affairs would be plenty more!

Bai Liu Feng was ridiculing Li Moying in her heart, totally forgetting that just a few days ago, he was still warning Huang Yueli to "find a powerful man who can protect her". Now on seeing that Li Moying was really able to protect Huang Yueli, he despised him for having too powerful an ability which would cause other women to covet him! It was simply contradictory!

Anyway, he just couldn't bear for his daughter to get married, so no matter what he just found Li Moying unpleasant to the eye!

The two men exchanged glances wordlessly and Huang Yueli was so anxious that she stomped her feet, "Father! Moying needs to rest. Return back to your room first and you're not allowed to bully him!"

Bai Liufeng was originally dissatisfied with Li Moying and on hearing Huang Yueli saying that, the sour feeling instantly gushed towards his brain!

The minute the stinky brat surnamed Li awoke, his daughter immediately didn't want her father any longer!

It was obviously Li Moying who attacked him first and he merely counter-attacked, but in the end Lass Li said that he was bullying this lad??

Where did his considerate and smart daughter go? It was definitely this stinky brat's fault!

Thinking of this, Bai Liufeng was even more insistent on not leaving as his cold gaze swept past Li Moying's face, "You're Li Moying? I heard that when my Lass Li was in South Yue Kingdom, you took care of her. As her father, I must thank you properly! You are not feeling well so have a good rest right here!"

When Li Moying heard that, his brows creased.

He felt that the taste in these words seemed off the minute he heard it!

His brows rose, "Father-in-law, you're too courteous!"

Chapter 2405: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (4)

Li Moying bowed his body slightly and his hands were held in front as he put on an extremely earnest attitude, "Li'er is my fiancée so taking care of her is my responsibility. We're all one family so please don't be so polite with me! Earlier, it's this son-in-law who hasn't got things clearly and accidentally hurt you, please do not put it to heart..."

Li Moying's reaction was extremely swift as he instantly passed judgement on Bai Liufeng's status.

Although he didn't know why Bai Liufeng who had gone missing for more than a decade would appear at this place, and why did Huang Yueli and him had suddenly reunited with each other, but since his Li'er had already greeted him as "Father", then that meant that the other party was definitely his future Father-in-law!

The position of Father-in-law was something that every man could not afford to offend, moreover for such a top rated top exponent like Bai Liufeng.

Although Li Moying was not resigned, but he was still able to pass judgement at the first moment that admitting being terrified was the best choice to make now.....

Bai Liufeng was stunned for a moment because he had not expected Li Moying to suddenly have a change of attitude at the very next moment. Wasn't he very smug just a while ago?

He was puzzled deep in his heart but his mouth still didn't spare him as he spoke out immodestly, "Young Master Li, I think you must be mistaken. Since the ancient times, when two families unite in marriage, the match is always by parent's order and matchmaker's word. The marriage arrangement that you two juniors set by yourself doesn't count, and it's all child's play based on two children's words so you need not put it to heart. Lass Li is still so young and her innate talent is so much, so she should place her emphasis on cultivation first. It's too early to talk about love and delay her cultivation, so will Young Master Li please stop addressing Lass Li as your fiancée!"

He had not expected that on his first meeting with his future father-in-law, he made such a huge blunder and the other party even refused to admit the marriage arrangement between him and Li'er!

Why did it turn out like this? What exactly had gone wrong?

While Li Moying was still hesitating, Huang Yueli looked astonishedly at Bai Liufeng then after her she puffed up her cheeks as she fumed, "Father, what rubbish are you sprouting? I told you many times before that it was myself who willingly got engaged with Moying!"

Bai Liufeng looked at his angry expression and felt even more out of sorts.

Ever since he was reunited with his daughter, she had always been obedient but whenever he mentioned this stinky brat Li Moying, she immediately went up against him!

This time round it's gone too far, she even tore her own father's stage in front of this stinky brat!

He gave a cold harrumph as he spoke out unhappily, "Father also said this many times already! The marriage that you have set yourself doesn't count and Father will not admit it! You're still so young and you should just focus on cultivation. It is normal for us practitioners to consider marriage when we are a few hundred years old, since where is there anyone who is abducted at such a tender age?"

When Huang Yueli heard these words, her heart was filled with anxiety and moreover she still didn't quite understand what was going on.

Wasn't it Bai Liufeng who said it in the past, that he felt that Li Moying didn't have enough potential hence he wasn't assured in marrying her to him. But now Bai Liufeng had personally witnessed that after Li Moying had recovered from his illness, he was able to fight evenly with the Continent's top rated exponent, and his innate talent was totally shocking! What was her father still dissatisfied with!

Huang Yueli's lips pouted as she said in dissatisfaction, "Father, how can you go back on your words? You were the one who said it yourself, that as long as Moying's potential was powerful enough, you would consider agreeing to our marriage?"

Bai Liufeng coughed and spoke out boldly and confidently, "I only said to consider, and now the result of the consideration is... I don't agree!"

Chapter 2406: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (5)

If it wasn't for the fact that she knew that Bai Liufeng loved her deeply, Huang Yueli would simply have assumed that he was intentionally tricking her!

But Huang Yueli was still naïve. Although Bai Liufeng didn't intentionally trick her, but he was intentionally tricking Li Moying.....

She looked at Bai Liufeng angrily, "Father, you... this action is called reneging on your debt! Anyway no matter what, the marriage arrangement between Moying and I is real, and the whole of South Yue Kingdom knows about it back then! Now the entire Sky Emperor City's practitioners also know that we are a couple and even if you don't agree, it would not change anything!"

When Bai Liufeng heard such heart stabbing words, his heart was basically splattering with blood.

This... this really was too much, she actually refused to listen to her father's words, insistent on being together with this stinky brat!

His daughter was definitely most obedient and most filial, so... it must be this stinky brat's fault!

Bai Liufeng clutched his chest hard and spoke out exaggeratedly, "Lass Li, you... you're actually so fierce towards father! And even rebutted father because of this stinky brat! Didn't you see that he was the one who intentionally attacked me earlier? If it wasn't for father's swift reaction, I would have been injured by him! He even told father that I'm 'looking for death'! Aren't you concerned if father is injured or not, just only saying that I'm not..."

"Father, then are you...." injured?

But before Huang Yueli could finish her words, Li Moying spoke out behind her, "Father-in-law, cough cough... will you please be appeased, it's all my fault. Cough cough... earlier I just regained consciousness and didn't know what was going on so I thought that someone was bullying Li'er hence I acted rashly and almost injured father-in-law, it really is This son-in-law's fault..."

His voice radiated with frailness and his words were intermittent, with soft coughs in between and he sounded extremely pitiful.

Huang Yueli immediately became anxious as she ran over to him in a few steps, as one hand supported his back while the other grasped his wrist to take his pulse.

"Moying, how are you feeling? Quickly lie back on the bed, you're still very weak! Earlier you still struck out without a care, you simply don't love yourself at all! Quickly lie back on the bed!"

Li Moying feebly leaned against Huang Yueli's body naturally but he refused to leave as he persisted on speaking, "No, your father refuse to forgive me so I must beg for his forgiveness..."

Huang Yueli was so anxious that she stomped her feet, what's there to forgive! We're all one family, he will understand!"

"Cough cough, cough cough, no way..."

The more Li Moying said that, the more heartache Huang Yueli felt.

Whereas Bai Liufeng almost blew up in anger!

This young lad was really, really, really.... really too treacherous! He even put on such a weak and frail look, who was he showing it to!

He had just taken in the Profound Energy injected in by four ninth stage realm peak practitioners so his Profound Energy inside his body should be exploding in abundance, totally not as frail as he looked on the surface alright! Didn't she see that thunderous strike earlier, just how powerful was the power of that earlier?

He must have known that Lass Li would feel heartache for him, hence he intentionally did this right?

Moreover, Li Moying's words were tastefully chosen. On the surface it seemed that he was apologising but in actual fact, it was to remind Huang Yueli that he had just regained consciousness and wasn't clear of the situation hence he was innocent whereas Bai Liufeng was too much in striking out against a patient like him, in order to obtain Huang Yueli's sympathy!

How could there be such a black-bellied fellow like him?

Chapter 2407: Father-in-law views his son-in-law (6)

Bai Liufeng was feeling extremely suffocated, especially when he saw Huang Yueli preparing to carry Li Moying in a princess hug, and he felt extremely out of sorts all over.

He hurriedly coughed out, "Lass Li, alright then. Since this young lad has sincerely apologised, it's not as if I'm unreasonable so I'll just forgive him!"

When Huang Yueli heard that, she smiled happily, "That's great! Moying, I already said father is very nice, and will not really blame you."

Bai Liufeng lifted his chin, apparently complacent.

Mn, his daughter felt that he's very nice, so this was considered as a praise!

But why was that stinky brat's dog paw still on Lass Li's waist, was he trying to secretly take advantage of her?

Bai Liufeng immediately added on, "But since he's already regained consciousness, then he should be alright now and you should be assured right? His complexion doesn't seem very good so just let him rest properly here. Follow Father out for a minute!"

Huang Yueli's action took a pause as she said, "Father, if there's something that we need to talk, then let's talk about it tonight. Moying's condition still isn't very good, I must personally take care of him....."

Bai Liufeng's expression revealed displeasure, "Lass Li, what did you promise me some days ago? You said after this young lad regains consciousness, you will not personally take care of him anymore, not intending to fulfil what you promised father? Father is doing this all for you, an unmarried young lady, sticking together with a man every day, that's not very good isn't it? Moreover, you haven't been practicing those Profound Skills that father had imparted to you right? Since this lad is much better now, then you should start cultivating with father!"

When Huang Yueli heard these words, she was a little hesitant, "But, Moying he....."

Bai Liufeng said, "You're worried that there's still problems with his body? Isn't your Senior Brother around? His medical skills are much more incredible than yours, let him come and have a look and that will do."

Huang Yueli looked at Bai Liufeng's determined look and was even more hesitant.

Bai Liufeng's concern towards her came from his heart and if it was possible, she didn't want to disappoint her father. But Bai Liufeng's potential was so powerful and if he really felt disgusted with Li Moying, she was worried that the latter would be bullied!

Why not, it would be better to be like what happened a few days ago, to first listen to Bai Liufeng's words to leave first, then slip in at night?

Huang Yueli was thinking about this as the hand she supported Li Moying loosened slightly.

Just at this moment, Li Moying's body suddenly swayed and suddenly lost consciousness as he fell down towards the back.

Huang Yueli had a huge fright and immediately stretched out her hand to hold on to him.

"Moying, what's wrong with you??"

She took a look at him to discover that Li Moying's face had turned pale again and his eyes were tightly shut as he lost consciousness once again.

She was burning with anxiety, as she didn't expect Li Moying to actually faint after regaining consciousness not too long later! Could it be that his illness had returned?

At this present moment, she totally could not consider Bai Liufeng's feelings as she instantly carried Li Moying up and placed him back on the big bed. At the same time she spoke out pressingly, "Father, you also saw this yourself. I can't leave this place and I must stay here to take care of him! Father if you're tired, please go rest earlier, I'm alright here!"

Bai Liufeng went into a daze as he almost spat out blood!

Because he had obviously seen for himself that this stinky brat was still normal one moment ago, but at the very next moment, he turned into a frail and weak patient!

It would be strange if he hadn't acted this out!

This stinky brat was just too scheming, but his daughter actually believed in him!

Just how much bewitching soup had this stinky brat been feeding her? Is the handsome male scheme that good to use?

"You..... Lass Li..." Bai Liufeng still wanted to struggle.

Chapter 2408: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (1)

However, Huang Yueli's attention had already shifted onto Li Moying and only casually gave a response then ignoring him later on.

Bai Liufeng was extremely melancholic but he also knew that Li Moying had already used the lowly trick of pretending to faint then it was practically impossible for him to bring Huang Yueli away today.

Even though he was extremely discontented, but he had no choice but to admit that the stinky brat was really very important in Lass Li's heart.

But if he wanted to scheme him in this way, the stinky brat was still too naïve!

Bai Liufeng's lips curled upwards and he made up his mind to turn around and leave.

Hng hng, want to tear apart him and Li'er? Even if he was Li'er's father, it was still impossible!

Before Li Moying could even finish feeling delighted, he suddenly felt a pain from his arm and lowering his head, he discovered that Huang Yueli had pinched hard on his arm, and her strength was extremely huge, turning that part red instantly.

Li Moying was in so much pain that his brows twitched but still remember that he was an unconscious patient, he shut his eyes and pretended to faint without moving at all.

However, immediately following that, he heard his Li'er's melodious and sweet voice ringing by the side of his ear.

"Alright, stop pretending! I know you haven't fainted, isn't all because you want me to stay behind and accompany you? I've already coordinated with you and father has already left, stop pretending!"

He slowly opened his eyes and that pair of peach blossomed eyes radiating with brilliant light revealed tenderness and that was enough to drown anyone in it.

"Li'er, I missed you so much... even if I was unconscious, I had always been hearing your voice....."

Before he could even finish his words, his arm was pinched again and that little fox wrinkled her nose as she stared at him angrily, "You're good, you've already heard me calling out to you, but you still refused to wake up and for such a long period of time. You are intentionally bullying me, trying to scare me to death, aren't you!!"

When Li Moying saw that she was really angry, he pretended to be in pain as he groaned, "Ugh, little fox, your strength is so big, stop pinching, it's so painful! It's almost about to bleed!"

Huang Yueli knew that he was pretending but the action on her hand started to loosen and she stared at him angrily, "You deserve to die of pain!"

She took a step back and Li Moying immediately leaned forward as he clasped onto her slender waist to bring her into his arms while laughing softly by her ear, "If I die of pain, wouldn't you become a widow? Oh, not right, we're not married yet so you will remain unmarried for the rest of your life after the death of your betrothed!"

"You still dare to spout rubbish! If you say one more death word, I will pinch you to death!" When Huang Yueli heard this word, she felt that it was simply too inauspicious, as she instantly covered his mouth in an utterly discomfited manner.

Li Moying almost couldn't breathe from being gagged by her and kept making muffled sounds but she didn't loosen her grip.

It was obviously Li'er who first said "he deserved to die of pain", why did she push it onto him now?

Li Moying struggled for half a day and Huang Yueli then finally let him off, and at the same time pushed his chest, "Alright, you're not allowed to sprout rubbish, do you hear me? Senior Brother and I spent a huge amount of effort to save you, and if you dare to use your life as a joke, I... I will absolutely not let you off!"

Seeing Huang Yueli's sparkly eyes, Li Moying didn't believe that she could bear to do anything to him...

But he also wasn't willing to let her be upset because of him so he immediately nodded his head obediently.

Chapter 2409: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (2)

"Li'er don't be worried, I know what I should do." Li Moying looked straight into Huang Yueli's eyes as he spoke out slowly and firmly.

This lifetime, it was because of Huang Yueli's hard work which allowed him to continue living so for the rest of his life, he would only live to protect his little fox!

Huang Yueli didn't know what he was thinking in his heart, but seeing that his attitude was still conforming so she nodded her head in slight satisfaction.

She lifted her chin and spoke in a tsundere tone, "It's good that you know, now just lie down obediently and I'll help you take your pulse to see how your recovery is."

Li Moying didn't have any objections and quickly laid down flat on the bed.

"Still alright, like what Senior Brother said, your primordial spirit's recovery isn't too bad and those injuries that you've sustained in your internal organs and meridians while crossing hands with Lord Zhan have all recovered back to normal...."

Li Moying smiled and said, "I know my own body best. Other than the soreness in my entire body from lying down too long, there shouldn't be any other ailments!"

When Huang Yueli saw his relaxed look, she started feeling unpleasant and said, "Even if you've recovered well, you cannot just fight the minute you regain consciousness, you really don't want your life! Moreover, haven't you checked what kind of cultivation my father has? His potential is no different from Lord Zhan and you actually didn't even think about it and just attacked him!"

Li Moying put on an innocent look as he cried out in grievance, "This, isn't it because.... I absolutely had no idea who he was? I thought he was seizing you! If I knew that he was Father-in-law, how would I dare to even strike him? I'm not silly, eh?"

When she heard the term "Father-in-law", Huang Yueli's face surfaced a faint shade of red as she spoke out in ridicule, "We haven't even got married officially so don't call out randomly. Haven't you seen that my father's face had already turned green? He is already not seeing eye to eye with you since long ago, wanting me to cancel the marriage arrangement with you and you still dare to attack him, and even provoked him!"

Li Moying's brows rose up in dissatisfaction, "What do you mean? Why does your father not see eye to eye with me?"

Before Huang Yueli could answer, he asked again, "Right, I haven't asked you. After I lost consciousness, what exactly happened? How did you meet with your father?"

"About this... that day we were in a precarious situation and luckily my father suddenly appeared and saved us!" Huang Yueli's brows creased when she recounted the situation back then.

She was sitting in front of Li Moying's bed and explained in detail how everyone was stumped by Lord Zhan's scheme and was trapped in the Blood Moon Great Array. Later on the process of being saved by Bai Liufeng was narrated in detail to him.

Following her description, Li Moying was first astonished and later on he was terrified and right until he heard that they were saved, it was then when he finally heaved a sigh of relief.

After Li Moying crossed hands with Lord Zhan in the secret room, his Soul Detachment Illness acted up and he lost consciousness.

At that time, when Liu Buyan and the others had joined hands to suppress and injure Lord Zhan, whereas Huang Yueli was about to succeed in activating the mechanism.

So at that time he thought everyone was able to escape from the Snow Phoenix Palace easily but they had totally not expected so many things to happen after that. Huang Yueli and the others even fell into such a dangerous array, with everyone almost losing their lives!

"In this way, I really ought to thank Father-in-law properly! If it wasn't for him, we would probably...." once become another pair of lonely souls who died together in the name of love!

Chapter 2410: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (3)

Li Moying was speaking halfway when he subconsciously pursed his lips as he swallowed half of the sentence that he was saying.

Because he recalled that little fox had warned him earlier, not to say anything inauspicious related to "death"!

He hastily changed his words, "So to speak, after father-in-law saved us, he brought us to this place? Where is this place?"

Even though Huang Yueli warned him once and again, but Li Moying apparently still hadn't kept it in his heart, still calling out "father-in-law" delightfully.

Huang Yueli was listening and she was too lazy to correct him.

Anyway, sooner or later he had to start greeting this so it was better to get accustomed to it earlier, as long as Li Moying himself wasn't afraid of Bai Liufeng fixing him up! It had nothing to do with her!

She smiled and said, "This should be a cave dwelling near Lone Sky Summit and this is the internal part of a block of ice mountain. Lord Zhan doesn't know of the existence of this cave so father had been hiding here in seclusion for several years. The minute we reached the cave, Senior Brother immediately went to refine the Purified Pill while Father, Senior Brother, Guardian Jun and Guardian Hun worked together to help you stabilise your primordial spirit. But after the treatment, you remained unconscious for a month's time and just woke up."

Li Moying asked in surprise, "In that case, I've already been unconscious for over a month??"

Huang Yueli nodded her head.

He frowned slightly, finally understanding why his body was sore to such a point!

No matter who it was, lying on the bed for an entire month would definitely feel uncomfortable everywhere.

Li Moying suddenly recalled something as he looked at Huang Yueli again, "Right, then Father-in-law had always been in the Northern Ice Fields for the past ten over years? What is he doing here? Why hadn't he been back to South Yue Kingdom to look for you? And why did he suddenly appear in Snow Phoenix Palace?"

Huang Yueli kept away her smile when she heard his question and shook her head, "I've been trying to probe Father on this some time ago but he always diverted away from the topic, refusing to say much on it. I placed all my emphasis on your illness back then and didn't continue asking him..."

Li Moying nodded his head and following that, his face surfaced with an ambiguous smile.

At the same time, his hand secretly snuck under the blanket and while Huang Yueli was caught off guard, he locked onto her wrist and pulled her backwards—

Although he had laid down for an entire month in a frail state, but with the nourishment of Spirit Saint Spring Water and the revolving Profound Energy in his body, Li Moying's muscular lines on his body were still beautifully retained.

"Hey! You... what are you doing?"

She pushed herself against the man's chest wanting to sit up, but however, Li Moying clasped onto her waist, as her arms were tightly wound around her, refusing to loosen his grip.

He lowered his head and his warm breath sprayed against her sensitive ear, "Li'er, it's been tiring for you in the past few days! I know that I'm the most important to you in your heart, hence you placed all your emphasis onto me, am I right?"

This posture was just too ambiguous and what Li Moying said was just too ambiguous as well.

All she could see was the man's exposed chest from his opened lapel and the ringing by her ear was his sexy and deep man's voice.

Huang Yueli felt a slight scorch on her face and pursed her lips as she couldn't help but speak out from the bottom of her heart, "You... that's enough! My father doesn't agree for me to marry you, so don't think too much!"
