Chapter 2411: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (4)

Li Moying's brows rose when he heard that and asked, "That reminded me... Li'er, you still haven't answered me! Why does father-in-law dislike me so much?"

Huang Yueli blinked her watery big eyes, "This... is probably because when Father saved us from that place, you were still unconscious and he assumed that you were a sickly dude with inadequate potential, hence he's not willing for me to marry you!"

Li Moying nodded his head, feeling that this reason was plausible.

After all, if it was him who had such a beautiful and adorable little princess, he would definitely select very carefully to find a husband who had the potential and loved her very much.

But immediately after that, he frowned again, "I can understand Father-in-law's consideration. But today he should have seen my potential already! Although it isn't the same as in my past life, but my cultivation speed in this lifetime is much faster than in the past, and we share such deep feelings for each other, so what reason does he have to object to us now?"

Huang Yueli lifted her eyes and took a look at him as she replied faintly, "Probably... because you attacked him earlier, and even scolded him?"

Li Moying was stunned as his face turned black immediately, "Isn't your father a little too petty, I've already said it was a misunderstanding!"

"Mn, that's right. You attacking him is a mistake!" Huang Yueli nodded her head and added on immediately, "But, you acting pitiful to force him out of this, surely isn't a misunderstanding right?"

When Li Moying heard that, he laid stunned for several breaths, apparently rather melancholic.

Huang Yueli stretched out her hand while beaming at him as she patted his handsome face, "So, in order to make Father happy, your attitude towards him will have to be much better in future! The two of us don't have any other closer relatives and I wish that Father will be able to agree to our marriage, to take part in our wedding!"

When Li Moying heard that, his lips suddenly curled upwards as he gave a slightly evil smile.

"Li'er, actually, to make your father agree to our marriage isn't that difficult....."

Huang Yueli somehow felt that his smile was a little strange, as though he was up to no good and instantly widened her eyes alertly, "Really? What ideas do you have? Wait for me to sit up and let's talk....."

Li Moying sensed that she was about to escape and decided immediately to flip around.

Huang Yueli felt the world turning around and their positions instantly switched around, where Li Moying was now on top of her.

Right until this moment, if she really didn't know what this man was thinking of, she would really be a sweet, naïve young woman!

Huang Yueli herself didn't have much objections towards Li Moying getting intimate with her, but....

She took a slightly nervous glance at the covered up door and later pushed Li Moying's chest, "What are you trying to do? Quickly get up!"

Li Moying buried his face into her neck and took a deep breath, giving off a sexy low laugh, "Why get up? I'm teaching you how to make father-in-law agree to our marriage? Let me tell you, it's actually very simple, as long as your tummy has our little baby, then he will have no choice but to agree!"

Huang Yueli leaned in his arms lethargically, but kept repeatedly cautioning herself not to fall into his handsome male ploy, and must remain conscious!

"Quickly stop sprouting rubbish! If we were to really have a little baby before our marriage, my Father will definitely kill you, what more agreeing to the marriage, keep wishing!"

"How would we know that it's not possible when we haven't tried?" Li Moying kept on guiding patiently and systematically, "Why not let's try....."

Before he could even finish his sentence, a "boom" sound was heard and the door which was originally not shut properly, was immediately pushed open by someone!

Chapter 2412: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (5)

At the door stood two figures and it was Bai Liufeng and Liu Buyuan.

Seeing them, Huang Yueli and Li Moying were stunned, apparently not expecting Bai Liufeng to have left and returned, and he even brought Liu Buyuan along!

On the other end, when Bai Liufeng saw these two juniors' postures, his face turned white from anger as he immediately barked out, "Stinky brat, what are you trying to do to my Lass Li? Quickly let her go!"

He had just left for how long and this stinky brat actually abducted Lass Li onto the bed!

If he hadn't arrived timely, heavens knew what they would have done?

When Huang Yueli saw Bai Liufeng, she was extremely embarrassed because no matter what, she had not imagined that she would let her father see such a scenario.

Although both of them had really not done any improper things, but it was still embarrassing!

Under the pressing situation, Huang Yueli pushed Li Moying hard and she even used Profound Energy in it.

Li Moying was pushed to the side of the bed and had finally managed to stabilize himself but his hand loosened and Huang Yueli jumped off the bed.

She bit her lips, not quite daring to look at Bai Liufeng's expression, "Cough cough, Father.... That... haven't you already gone off to rest? Why have you come back again?"

Bai Liufeng gave a cold snort, "If I haven't returned, I still wouldn't know that the person who said a few words earlier and almost fainted from deficiency of qi had actually woken up so quickly, and moreover still able to pull you onto the bed!"

“Cough cough cough cough.....” Huang Yueli choked on her saliva and she couldn’t stop coughing.

Her father was indeed smart, had he discovered that Li Moying had pretended to faint hence he put on an act to show that he had left but in actual fact, he took a sudden trust just to wait and expose the both of them?

This time was really a goner, they were caught red-handed in bed, how was she going to wrap things up?

Huang Yueli was feeling apprehensive but Li Moying remained calm and composed as he climbed up from the bed and tidied up his long robe before cupping his hand in greeting towards Bai Liufeng.

“Father-in-law, thank you for being so concerned about this son-in-law, to actually come by to see me for a second time, it has simply delighted This son-in-law...”

He originally was handsome and ageless and his old-fashioned obeisance of ceremony rites was refined so even if the clothes that he wore was very ordinary, it was still unable to hide his glamour.

Bai Liufeng took a horizontal look at him and there was no way that he could not admit that Li Moying indeed looked talented and attractive,

But just based on the fact that he dared to get touchy with his Li’er, that proved that he was definitely a playboy and was unreliable!

Bai Liufeng roughly pasted a label on this stinky brat and later on became rather proud of himself that he had caught a handle on that fellow, so just wait to cancel the marriage arrangement!

He spoke out unfriendly, “Li Moying, I haven’t agreed to your marriage so if you continue to call out randomly, don’t blame me for being discourteous!”

Li Moying looked at Huang Yueli who was hinting at him with her eyes and could only nod his head as he readily followed good advice, “Alright then, since fath... no, Senior Bai has said that, this junor does not dare to not follow!”

Bai Liufeng saw that he was still rather tactful and heaved a sigh of relief but on turning his head around, he saw his own daughter exchanging gazes with him non-stop.

Whereas these two’s mutual understanding was very well coordinated. They used their eyes to convey messages and there weren’t any delays at all.

Bai Liufeng coughed heavily, “Lass Li!”

Huang Yueli still hadn’t noticed him so Bai Liufeng could only increase his volume, “Lass Li!”

Chapter 2413: Difficulty in settling father-in-law (6)

This time round, Huang Yueli had finally heard him and her actions took a pause as she instantly turned her gaze back onto Bai Liufeng.

“Ughh, Father....”

Bai Liufeng stared at her, feeling that this could not continue!

Ever since this stinky brat regained consciousness, he sensed an extremely serious crisis and if he didn't take action quickly, this stinky brat was going to abduct his Lass Li away again!

He instantly said, "Alright Lass Li, haven't you said that you're worried that this stinky brat has no one to take care of him? I've asked Divine Doctor Liu over! With a ninth ranked Pill Master around, he's definitely much stronger than you so just let him take Li Moying's pulse. Now you will leave with me!"

"But...." Huang Yueli frowned and wanted to convince him.

But just at this moment, Liu Buyan who had been standing by the side suddenly opened his mouth.

"That's right, Junior Sister, with me around, you can rest assured. I know Li Moying's illness most clearly so let me check on him properly to see how his recovery has progressed. You should have a good rest. After all, you've already looked after him for several months and it's tiring enough!"

"But, Senior Brother..." Huang Yueli looked at him in astonishment, apparently not expecting Liu Buyan to actually say such a thing!

Actually, when Liu Buyan saw Li Moying and Bai Liufeng's interaction, he was almost bursting with laughter!

It was really rare because usually he was the one who was sunken in front of Li Moying but now he could see Li Moying's sunken look!

Who asked him to be arrogant, who asked him to be domineering! Now he had already offended his future father-in-law, let's see what he would do!

Liu Buyan was very happy to see Li Moying running into bad luck so when he saw Bai Liufeng preparing to give him trouble, he immediately ran over, expressing that he would coordinate with him fully!

He and Bai Liufeng were standing on the same line, and in the past he couldn't win against Li Moying but now, the team player Bai Liufeng was extremely powerful.

Wanting to marry his Junior Sister, how could it be that easy? They absolutely could not let Li Moying to get such a cheap advantage!

Huang Yueli's thoughts took a chance and understood that Liu Buyan was intentionally tearing down the stage so she instantly didn't know if she could laugh or cry. She was just preparing to say something to chase away these two protective men.

Suddenly, Li Moying spoke out from behind her, "Li'er, what Liu Buyan said is correct, let him take a look for me and you will be assured! I have just woken up from a month long unconsciousness and feel very hungry... Li'er, can you fix something up for me to eat?"

Huang Yueli was stunned and suddenly recalled that Li Moying had not eaten anything for an entire month.

Even though practitioners could rely entirely on recycling the Heaven and Earth Profound Qi to survive, but as time went on, not eating anything would damage their internal organs.

Moreover she could tell that Li Moying seemed... to be finding a reason for her to leave?

Huang Yueli was a little worried about letting him and Bai Liufeng stay together but luckily there was still Liu Buyan around and the two of them were not alone together, so... they wouldn't fight... right?

She met with Li Moying's eyes and saw resolution and decisiveness in his eyes and was finally assured.

"Alright, then I'll go find something for you to eat!"

Saying that, she turned around and left.

Seeing Huang Yueli walking away, Bai Liufeng's face finally revealed a sliver of a smile. Finally, his Lass Li was willing to leave this stinky brat!

But moments later, his thoughts underwent a change, feeling that something was amiss.

Lass Li left, to cook for this stinky brat!

Cook!

As her father, he had never eaten the food that his daughter cooked, yet Lass Li was going to serve this stinky brat?

Chapter 2414: Li Moying's secret (1)

Thinking of this, Bai Liufeng instantly felt out of sorts.

But before he could even express his dissatisfaction, Li Moying suddenly spoke out again, "Divine Doctor Liu, haven't you mentioned before that when you're doing consultation, all surrounding people must leave with the patient around only? My father-in-law is here, will it affect you from the consultation?"

When he said this, the both of them were stunned.

Liu Buyan was slightly surprised but immediately following that, he seemed to have thought of something as he nodded his head, "Indeed so, this is the first consultation after you regained consciousness and I have to use the golden needle to check on your internal breathing so it is indeed best not to have anyone else present.... But Senior Bai..."

On hearing that, Bai Liufeng instantly spoke out kindly, "Since that's so, I will not interrupt Divine Doctor Liu, I'll make a move first!"

He could tell that the both of them were trying to send him away but as long as Lass Li left this stinky brat, he wasn't very concerned about the other matters.

Moreover speaking, his Lass Li was going to cook!

He could hurry over to the kitchen and snatch the opportunity before the stinky brat, to taste Lass Li's culinary skills! It would be best to eat everything!

Wasn't the stinky brat feeling frail? Just have some porridge and that will do!

The moment Bai Liufeng left, Li Moying's expression turned solemn and the gaze he shot onto Liu Buyan became much abstruse than before.

"This time... many thanks to you!"

Liu Buyan was stunned and instantly spoke out with a smile that wasn't quite like a smile, "This is indeed rare! This is the first time in this lifetime that I've heard the word 'thanks' from you!

His words carried a hint of ridicule, but Li Moying seemed as though he didn't detect anything and still continued solemnly, "I have to thank you, not to thank you for saving my life, but to thank you for exhausting your means while I was unconscious, to protect Li'er so that she is able to stand in front of me unharmed."

Hearing that, Liu Buyan kept away his smile and shook his head slightly, "No need to thank me, I didn't do that for you! No matter if it wasn't to treat you or to battle to death, I did it all for Junior Sister!"

These words were something that Li Moying originally didn't like to hear, but now with Bai Liufeng as a comparison, he actually felt nothing about it.

Li Moying leaned back onto the pillow on the bed and shrugged, "Alright then, since you said no need to thank, then I really don't need to thank you! By then don't say that I'm petty and refuse to give me my thank you gift!"

Liu Buyan gave a cold snort, "If I really wanted your thank you gift, I'm afraid that you will not be able to afford it! Your treatment is the most complicated and most difficult to treat among all those cases that I had treated! Alright, enough of the rubbish, quickly pass your hand to me and let me see how your recovery is coming along."

Li Moying stretched out his hand and Liu Buyan locked onto his wrist as he shut both eyes and started to check his pulse.

The time he took to check his pulse was much longer than Huang Yueli's.

It was right until after a quarter of an hour, he still hadn't said anything and the expression on his face seemed a little grim.

If it was any other ordinary patient, on seeing this, they would most probably go into a fluster.

But there wasn't much expression on Li Moying's face, and right until Liu Buyan finally let go of his wrist, he asked in an unhurried fashion, "How is it?"

Liu Buyan took a look at him and said, "That's one good news and one bad news, which one do you want to listen to first?"

Li Moying looked at him in a 'it doesn't matter' look, "then... good news I guess."

Liu Buyan nodded his head, "The good news is, the treatment this time round is very successful and the Purified Pill's medicinal effects are displayed very well. Your primordial spirit damage is already restored to around eighty percent and the remaining twenty percent will slowly regenerate within these few years."

Chapter 2415: Li Moying's secret (2)

Hearing this, Li Moying took an astonished look at him.

According to what Liu Buyan said, his illness should be completely healed then!

Since the good news was this good, what bad news could there be?

“Then.. bad news?”

“The bad news is...” Liu Buyan paused and looked straight in Li Moying’s eyes, as though he was trying to penetrate into his inner heart.

“Your primordial spirit in this lifetime is not complete! Not only because of the injury, but.... because in your past life, you had to forcibly split it up into half! No matter how awesome the medicinal pill is, it can only treat injuries and not come out with that missing part of your primordial spirit!”

Li Moying shook all over and he looked at Liu Buyan as he couldn’t say a word momentarily!

After a long time later, he found back his voice, “So your meaning is.....”

Liu Buyan sighed and said, “So, no matter what, the intensity of your primordial spirit is only half of your past life and what kind of consequence does this lead to, you should be clearer than me! Your cultivation and potential will definitely be seriously affected and even though your innate talent in this lifetime is much stronger than your past life, but you will never be able to reach the peak state in your past lifetime! Even to the extent that you possibly might not be able to break through the ninth stage realm peak!”

When Li Moying heard that, he finally couldn’t help but frown.

To a peerlessly strong exponent like him, getting injured or even dying wasn’t considered as a scary thing but if their ability dropped, it would make them suffer more than dying!

Even though Liu Buyan had once reminded him, but back then it was merely a guess and now, it had become a conclusion.

Liu Buyan’s words finally triggered him.

Li Moying remained silent for some time and said, “Is there really no way? Any medicinal pills that can raise one’s primordial spirit’s intensity, I’ve once read one of the ancient manuals and you’re well versed in medical books, can’t you grasp these medicinal pill’s prescriptions?”

Liu Buyan shook his head and said, “If there was a way, I absolutely would not say such things. That’s right, there are some pills which can raise one’s primordial spirit’s intensity but these pills are actually very weak. If your primordial spirit’s damage is not only less than half, then it is possible to recover after eating it continuously for eight to ten years, but now.....”

He had not completed his sentence but the underlying meaning was more obvious than it could be.

The degree of damage to Li Moying’s primordial spirit was so serious, so even if there were numerous ninth levelled medicinal pills for him to spend, it would be unable to turn the hopeless situation around.

Liu Buyan carefully sized up Li Moying’s expression.

Although they were now bearing the relationship of love rivals, but strong exponents understood each other and when they saw a powerful abled genius practitioner with outstanding innate talent, to accept the fate that he would never be able to breakthrough, Liu Buyan felt a little unbearable for him.

Unless.....

Liu Buyan recalled the contents that he had read once from an ancient manual back then and almost let slip of it.

But immediately following that, he shook his head and shook away this thought.

No, he couldn't say that!

Just as Liu Buyan had gone into a trance, Li Moying had already thought it through and accepted his explanation.

"I understand your meaning and thank you for helping me find ways and means to treat this for the past days. Since your medical skills has no way to help me, it looks like it's a reality that cannot be changed."

Li Moying paused and said, "This matter, I hope that it will only be known to the both of us. You must help me keep this a secret, especially... you can't let Li'er find out about it!"

Chapter 2416: Li Moying's secret (3)

It was imaginable that if Huang Yueli found out about this, just how much she would resent herself and how miserable she would feel.

She happily thought that he was totally cured but in the end, she found out that the matter was totally different from what she had thought.....

Of course, if it was said that Li Moying's illness wasn't cured, that wasn't so. At least now, no matter if it was cultivation or battle, he had already recovered to the same as an ordinary practitioner and would not have the illness acting up just because of a little accidental situation or even to face death.

But, if it was to say that he was completely cured, that was not totally correct as well.

Liu Buyan remained silent for a moment and said, "About this you don't need to worry. Ever since you were young, when I first did the consultation for you, I already knew that this would most likely end up in this but have I ever leaked a single word out? Now you're already no different from any ordinary person and it's already none of my business, so all the more I wouldn't trouble myself by doing this extra move."

Li Moying nodded his head and thought for a moment then asked again, "Right, there's another matter... Li'er's father, that Bai Liufeng.... is he trustable?"

Even though he trusted Huang Yueli's judgement very much but this Bai Liufeng was filled with plenty of suspicious points.

Someone who had already gone missing for ten over years suddenly popping out, and just happened to save them?

He was a little worried that Huang Yueli would be overly excited from seeing her own blood kin and was deceived by others hence he specially avoided her to secretly find out the truth from Liu Buyan.

Liu Buyan naturally understood his meaning and muttered, "From what I see, Marquis Bai's status shouldn't be a problem and he knows everything about Junior Sister when she was in South Yue Kingdom. Moreover he's been very good to Junior Sister and he had been imparting many God grade cultivation methods to her in the past few days. Even the few of us have also received pointers from Marquis Bai and our abilities have increased greatly! Previously when treating your treatment, Marquis Bai had also come out with a huge amount of effort. From the looks of it, he genuinely pampers Junior Sister. But....."

Liu Buyan paused and said, "But Marquis Bai indeed has some secret hidden from us. Junior Sister had asked him several times but there was no news about it....."

Li Moying nodded, "I know already. Buyan, thank you!"

Liu Buyan's lips curled, "Thank me for what? Thank me for coming up with a lie to deceive my Junior Sister?"

"Thank you for allowing her to stay happy, to do everything she wants to do." Li Moying seemed as though he didn't hear the ridicule in his words, as he remained composed while thanking him earnestly.

Liu Buyan's brows rose, apparently a little not accustomed to the fact that the usual overbearing Li Moying could even sprout such words from his mouth.

"Since you are so grateful to me, can you promise me one other thing?"

Li Moying replied, "What?"

Liu Buyan giggled and was evidently rather scheming, "In future when Junior Sister cooks for you, you must share with me. This Divine Doctor had long not been accustomed to seeing you eat alone..."

His words just landed and Li Moying still hadn't had time to express his attitude when a knock on the door sounded out, as though it was premeditated.

Huang Yueli knocked on the door and, not waiting for those people inside to respond, she already pushed the door open and walked in on her own.

She was holding a serving tray in her hand and on it was some hot white porridge and six small plates of side dishes.

Huang Yueli placed the serving tray on the table in front of the bed and wanted to pass the porridge over to Li Moying.

Whoever knew that she hadn't even moved and Liu Buyan had conveniently walked towards a plate of sauteed prawns. Without using chopsticks, he directly used his fingers to pick it up and started eating.

Huang Yueli was stunned, "Senior Brother, that.... that's for Moying. If you want to eat, I'll make some more for you?"

Chapter 2417: Li Moying's secret (4)

It wasn't that she was unwilling to part with her dishes but rather she was worried that Li Moying would be unhappy.

This man had always been easily jealous and usually he couldn't wait to monopolise all the dishes that she made, moreover that it was Liu Buyan, someone whom he could not stand seeing. Now that Liu Buyan snatched away a dish, would he fly into a rage on the spot?

Liu Buyan's brows rose as he replied complacently, "Young Sect Master Li is extremely generous and wouldn't be unwilling to part with a dish, am I right?"

Huang Yueli looked at Li Moying and thought that he would be angry but in the end, Li Moying merely shot a glance at Liu Buyan and didn't say anything else.

Although his eyes were filled with frost, but he did not sweep Liu Buyan out of the door!

Huang Yueli's mouth turned into an O shape, just what was going on? These two had finally.... buried the hatchet?

Before her astonishment had ended, she heard Li Moying raising his chin and spoke out in a tsundere tone, "Feed me!"

Huang Yueli's eyes opened wide as she spoke out in surprise, "What? Feed you? Haven't you already recovered? Could it be that you're not feeling well anywhere? Senior Brother, what's going on?"

She threw the question back towards Liu Buyan. Earlier when she left the room, wasn't Li Moying perfectly fine? Just how much time had passed, could it be that his body couldn't take it again?"

Liu Buyan was very clear that Li Moying was plainly taking revenge!

Trying to show off their love in front of him?

Liu Buyan laughed and said, "How could he not be feeling well? I think he's feeling too well! Otherwise where would he find the mood to show off his love?"

Having been exposed by Liu Buyan mercilessly, Li Moying's expression did not change, and neither did he show any awkwardness at all.

On the contrary, he took it for granted as he tugged Huang Yueli's sleeve and pointed out to her, "I want to eat that... I want to eat this....."

Huang Yueli was rendered speechless, feeling that Li Moying was simply too childish but yet she was unable to reject his request. So she could only act like a little maid, obediently listening to his commands.

Li Moying looked at his little fox's obedient look and his heart was crying out delightfully!

He even took some time to shoot a provocative look at Liu Buyan, and the meaning in that was clearer than ever, "You have the ability to snatch the food that Li'er's made, but you will never be able to get Li'er's care like this, what's there to be delighted about?"

Liu Buyan felt that it was an eyesore and couldn't help but stand up.

Huang Yueli was stunned as she turned his head and looked at him, "Senior Brother, you're leaving already?"

Liu Buyan controlled the rush to want to place his fist onto Li Moying's handsome face, as he tried to tug out a smile and nodded to Huang Yueli, "En, it's not early anymore and I'll first make a move! Right, this medicinal pill is something that I've specially refined in these past few days and in it contains a small amount of Bipolar Black Orchid which can help Li Moying continue to nurture his primordial spirit. Feed him a pill every day."

Saying that, he retrieved a porcelain bottle from his chest and passed it into Huang Yueli's hands.

Huang Yueli kept the medicinal bottle properly and personally sent him out.

After she returned, Li Moying continued to pester her to feed him and after she finally coaxed the childish man who had turned into a three year old baby, Li Moying turned around with a plop and pressed her onto the bed again.

"Li'er, stay and accompany me!" Li Moying's straight nose rubbed against her delicate face, as he enticed her in a deep low voice.

Huang Yueli hugged his neck and automatically offered her lips, planting a kiss on his icy cold thin lips.

However, just as Li Moying was feeling joyous and was about to return the kiss, she stretched out her hand in between the both of them.

Chapter 2418: Li Moying's secret (5)

"Alright, you've already eaten your meal and I've already kissed you. Now I'm heading back!"

Li Moying frowned as he lowered his head and gently blew into her ear, attempting to use his manly charm to seduce her, "Why are you returning back for? I'm not going to do anything bad, just wanting you to accompany me. If you don't accompany me to sleep, I will have nightmares at night....."

Huang Yueli decisively pushed away his handsome face, "No way, my Father will be angry! I have finally managed to lure him away so that I can accompany you to have dinner and if he catches us lying on the same bed together, he will definitely punch you! Moreover speaking, your Soul Detachment Illness has already recovered so you shouldn't have any nightmares at night!"

"Shouldn't! What if I'm still having nightmares?" Li Moying attempted to act pitiful.

Huang Yueli said, "Then you're pretending! After you took the Purified Pill, you didn't have a single nightmare when you were unconscious for an entire month, why is it that you will have it now?"

Looking at Li'er's sparkly big eyes, Li Moying was speechless.

His fiancée was getting smarter now and was very difficult to abduct, moreover there was a troublemaker father-in-law behind her, what should he do? Li Moying was extremely stuffed but after he was warned by Huang Yueli thoroughly, he could only let go and allow her to leave.

Before Huang left, she saw the porcelain bottle on the table and said, "Right, almost forgot about this. Senior Brother left the medicinal pill behind and don't forget to eat it! Senior Brother told me that your primordial spirit is recovering well and in future, your cultivation speed will be much faster, your ability will become stronger do don't you dare not eat the medication just because you're afraid of it being bitter!"

Huang Yueli looked at Li Moying as she showed a straight face, instructing him seriously.

Right from his past life, Li Moying had never liked to take medication and Huang Yueli thought that he was deceiving her, just trying to cheat her into feeding him personally. But later on when she asked Cang Po Jun, she realised that he had been like this since young and the reason was even more ridiculous.

“Sovereign had always been afraid of bitterness since young and if there was bittergourd in the food that he ate, he would immediately spit it out!” When Cang Po Jun said these, his shoulders were shaking badly as he tried his best not to laugh out loud.

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli’s footsteps took a pause and she said, “I’ll pour you some water, take the medication first before I leave.”

Li Moying watched her handing him the medication pill and fell silent for a moment.

Actually, whether he ate this pill or not, to him it wasn’t much of a difference because it was determined that he would not be able to return back to his past life’s ability, and he might not even be able to arrive at the ninth stage realm peak.....

Just a few mere medicinal pills to strengthen his primordial spirit, was like a cup of water on a burning cart of firewood.

When Huang Yueli saw him not moving, she assumed that he was afraid of the bitterness hence he was trying to act as though he didn’t agree to eat it.

She pouted and delivered the teacup to his lips, “Quick, don’t hesitate! Shut your eyes and swallow it in one mouth!”

Li Moying turned his head around trying to avoid it but Huang Yueli changed the direction of the cup, sending it over.

Li Moying asked, “Will there be a reward if I finish eating it?”

Huang Yueli was stunned and instantly growled, “Yes, yes, yes, I’ll give you a sweet, alright?”

She really didn’t dare to believe it, just how old was Li Moying! He had such obvious ability and was such a tall and handsome man, why was it that when he fell ill, he instantly turned into a little baby?

Hearing that, Li Moying finally nodded his head as he took the teacup and swallowed the pill.

That tightly creased brows and that tangled expression, those who weren’t clear of what had happened would definitely have thought that he was being forced to eat a lethal poison!

Chapter 2419: Li Moying’s secret (6)

Huang Yueli took back the teacup not knowing if he should laugh or cry, “I’ll go get you’re a sweet... mmph!”

Before she could finish her words, she was caught right into Li Moying’s arms and his thin lips sealed her mouth, recklessly tasting the sweetness around her lips.

After some time, Li Moying then let go of that young lady whose face was flushed and he licked the corners of his lips, revealing a satisfied expression, "Not bad, really very sweet..."

"You—!" Huang Yueli covered her lips and spat out a word as she felt pain around her lips, it seemed to become swollen?

This man... he really was a beast!

Li Moying acted obedient after gaining the advantage as he gave an evil smile, "I feel that this method isn't too bad. Whatever medicine you have, I will eat it as long as you give me a 'sweet' after I'm done eating and that will do!"

Saying that, his eyes revolved round Huang Yueli's red lips which he had kissed earlier.

Huang Yueli was totally dumbstruck by this man's shamelessness as she gave him a fierce stare, "Keep wishing! Finish up your medication and rest earlier, I'm going back to cultivate and will not accompany you any further!"

Seeing his little fox's fleeing back, Li Moying's lips slowly surfaced a smile.

To be able to be like this now, really... was very nice! They were humans in both lifetimes and had paid the price using their lives and what they hoped for, was merely the current scenario.

Liu Buyan thought that he had lost half of his primordial spirit, never to break through the ninth stage realm peak, and he would feel disappointed and upset?

Actually to him, nothing was more important than Huang Yueli and as long as she was by his side, he could pay any price for it!

Moreover speaking, so what if he didn't have enough ability? He could still be a gigolo?

His wife's innate talent was so high and she was so good at making money... he could be a ready-made gigolo!

Just that his father-in-law's ability had surpassed his imagination, and he was a little hard to deal with.....

Li Moying mulled over Bai Liufeng's matter and started feeling his eyelids getting heavier and as he laid on bed, it didn't take long for him to fall asleep.

He fell into deep sleep and when he woke up the next day, it was already the next day's afternoon.

Li Moying saw that the sun was already heading towards the west and sat up from his bed.

He simply didn't dare to believe that he actually slept for such a long time! He had slept from the previous day's afternoon till now, which was an entire twenty four hours!

Moreover, usually Huang Yueli who would come to his room to take care of him in the early morning, did not appear.

Li Moying's brows creased and he briefly washed up and walked out of the room to look for his Li'er.

The minute he pushed opened the courtyard door, he was astonished.

Yesterday after he crossed hands with Bai Liufeng, he was coerced by Huang Yueli to lie back on the bed to rest, and hadn't got the chance to come out for a walk.

It was until now that he then realised that they were actually situated in a superbly crafted ancient cave dwelling!

Although it was built inside the ice mountain, but the surrounding environment wasn't as cold as he had imagined. Moreover, under so many spirit gathering arrays, the cave dwelling's Heaven and Earth Profound Qi's intensity had reached an astonishing degree!

This absolutely was a treasure trove which was advantageous to practitioners' cultivation!

Li Moying didn't know which courtyard was Huang Yueli in so he could only enter each one individually to ask, but he hadn't been able to find her.

Luckily, Cang Po Jun was very honest and on seeing Li Moying, he told him, "This morning I saw Grandmaster Huang and she went over to see you. On seeing you still sleeping, she didn't disturb you and headed over to Marquis Bai's place, which is the largest courtyard right in the centre."

Chapter 2420: The past from over a decade ago (1)

"So she went over to father-in-law's side....." Li Moying looked at Bai Liufeng's courtyard pensively.

Not too long later, Li Moying appeared at the entrance of the courtyard and called out brightly, "Marquis Bai, Junior Li Moying is here to visit you. Some days ago it was all thanks to you for helping to treat this junior, so I've come especially to thank you!"

As the Number One Sacred Land's Sovereign in the Continent, it had been many years since he acted so humbly.

But Li'er's father was indeed someone whom he couldn't afford to offend hence he could only lower his stance a little.

He had originally come, expecting to be put into a difficult position by Bai Liufeng.

However, out of his expectation, Bai Liufeng's voice swiftly echoed outwards, "Young Sect Master Li, please enter."

Li Moying walked inside and the first thing he did was to look around, wanting to see what Huang Yueli was doing.

But the main hall was empty with only Bai Liufeng seated on the main host's seat, and there wasn't anyone else there.

Li Moying hadn't even spoken yet when Bai Liufeng opened his mouth first, "Young Sect Master Li, what are you looking for?"

Li Moying then recalled that he had forgotten his manners and hurriedly cupped his fist into the other hand as he said, "Greetings to Marquis Bai, I heard that Li'er was right here so I came specially to look for her. I wonder where she is right now?"

Bai Liufeng didn't replied his question, but rose his brows as he spoke out immodestly, "Young Sect Master Li, I seemed to have said this yesterday that the marriage arrangement between the both of you cannot be counted and now that you came, the first thing you asked is where my daughter is. Isn't that a little too disrespectful!"

Li Moying frowned slightly as he turned silent.

Bai Liufeng thought that he was choked until he couldn't say a single word and was silently feeling delighted.

But he heard Li Moying continuing, "Father-in-law, what you said makes no logic! If you're worried that I cannot take good care of Li'er, you can raise a request or test me, this isn't a problem at all. But if you just cancelled our marriage arrangement for no rhyme or reason... then I want to ask, for the past ten over years, you had never been concerned about Li'er and when she was being bullied by her uncle and cousin in South Yue Kingdom, when she was being humiliated by the Crown Prince, where were you? Now that she has finally relied on herself to become powerful, and she also has a partner who is also in love with her, you suddenly appear and just want her to do as you wish?"

Bai Liufeng's complexion turned greener and greener when he said these words.

Towards this daughter whom he had not met for ten over years, Bai Liufeng naturally felt guilty towards her. Otherwise he would not exhaust all his means to help her, and even passed the god grade cultivation methods and various treasures that he had obtained, inheriting it entirely over to her.

But even Lass Li didn't voice out to berate him, yet this stinky brat who was trying to snatch her away dared to say such words!

Shouldn't this stinky brat be most afraid of offending him?

However, this wasn't finished yet. After Li Moying finished his crime, he even came out with a conclusion, "So although you're Li'er's elder, but forgive me for saying this, you totally have no right to dabble in who she will get married to!"

"YOU—!" Bai Liufeng pounded his fist onto the table out of fury and stood up, as the finger which he pointed at Li Moying shook.

"You brat, you really have great guts! I have no rights? I am Li'er's biological father! Why don't I have any rights? You dare to speak to me in this way, aren't you afraid that I will punch you so badly that you are not able to take care of your own life? You have just awoken, surely you wouldn't want to continue being bedridden after such a short period of time right?"
