Chapter 2781: Into the drawing (4)

Of course, the most miserable thing was some people might sit in front of the drawing but could not enter it. Hence they could only give up the chance to comprehend.

Huang Zixiao felt that the last possibility would not happen to Huang Yueli. After all, she was a god grade genius and her comprehension wasn't that bad.

But the speed of establishing a mental connection had a huge link with the practitioner's cultivation.

A majority of practitioners would break through to tenth stage realm before they gained a chance to comprehend the <<Mythical Nine Skies Phoenix Painting>>. Due to her outstanding innate talent, she came to comprehend it at ninth stage realm. In this way, the disadvantage was extremely obvious. Her speed might not even match up to a tenth stage realm heaven grade genius.

"If she can enter the drawing within twenty breaths, it is already very... What!"

Huang Zixiao was muttering to himself when his eyes suddenly widened!

In a blink of an eye, Huang Yueli had gone sluggish. At the same time, a gold-coloured imprint appeared above her forehead!

This was an obvious sign that her soul trace had already entered the <<Mythical Nine Skies Phoenix Painting>>!

Huang Zixiao simply could not believe his own eyes. "T...T... This... This cannot be true! How much time did she just spend? One breath? Two breaths? How can it be that fast!"

He had gone into a trance earlier, so he wasn't able to verify the exact timing.

But no matter if it was one or two breaths, the speed was simply too fast!

He had never heard of anyone who was able to enter the drawing in such a short amount of time!

Huang Yueli sat in front of the drawing, shut her eyes, and released her Profound Energy.

Following that, she sensed her soul trace attracted along by an incredibly powerful strength, pulling her towards the drawing!

All these happened so fast that even Huang Yueli couldn't react in time.

By the time she regained her senses, she realized that she was standing in a desert.

Everywhere was red as rocks dissipated a scorching hot air. No matter which direction she looked at it, it was always boundless as if there was no end in sight.

Just when she went into a daze, a burst of fiery flame suddenly rose from her feet. A huge fire domain enveloped her inside!

She instantly sensed a tremendous wave of pressure!

As the owner of a fire domain, she was usually able to control her domain very well and easily control the fire attributed energy. But now, she wasn't enveloped in her fire domain and the fire attributed elements within it kept scuttering around rampantly, totally not listening to her commands!

Not only that, as time pushed forward, the fire domain's boundary slowly constricted.

The intensity of the energy within the domain started to increase.

Scorching flames seemed to be burning her entire skin into ashes. Even her breathing became difficult as her body was drenched in sweat. She looked extremely disheveled right now.

Facing this situation, Huang Yueli was not flustered at all.

She slowly shut her eyes and unleashed her mental power, attempting to establish a connection through her soul trace with the surrounding Profound Qi.

"Senior Huang said that the energy within this drawing is the former clan leaders' conceptualization power! So I might not be able to break through this if I do it by force. I must try to comprehend... this energy... what exactly is..."

The fire domain continued to shrink and the temperature became higher and higher.

The corners of Huang Yueli's clothes also started to burn!

Finally, she opened her eyes!

Chapter 2782: First stage conceptualization (1)

Outside the drawing.

At the corner in the secret room, Huang Zixiao hugged his arms and stood upright. He looked at Huang Yueli silently.

Little Wang Cai had already transformed into a human and was squatting by his feet. He propped his chubby face with both hands and gazed around in boredom.

"That... Tower Spirit Senior! We're already here for ten days but why is the Female Devil sitting so still? She doesn't even have any reaction at all! How long will it take for her to complete the third stage refinement assessment? The last time she took the second stage, she spent more than twenty days. Will it be longer this time?"

Huang Zixiao originally didn't move. But when he heard Little Wang Cai's question, he swept him a glance and said, "Twenty over days? Your thinking is too simple! I gauge that Huang Yueli's refinement this time should take around three years!"

"What? Three... three years!" Little Phoenix's bun face instantly turned dull. His mouth turned into an O shape and wasn't able to retract his senses for some time.

"What?? It actually takes such a long time! Isn't it just looking at a piece of drawing?" He pouted and grumbled in dissatisfaction.

Huang Zixiao snorted coldly. "Ordinary people don't need that long. But your Master had very strong innate talent so that's why I assume that she would persist at least three years and above! You're hoping that Huang Yueli will come out in a few days? Then she's even worse off than ordinary grade geniuses!"

"Ughh, ah? Oh, the longer one is in the drawing, the better it is!" Little Wang Cai finally understood and his shock grew...

Huang Zixiao nodded slightly and explained further, "Did you think that it's just an ordinary drawing? Do you understand what I said earlier? To tell you the truth, this drawing contains nine stages of different fire-attributed conceptualization! Every single time you comprehend one stage, the next stage will appear. The difficulty in every stage will become higher and higher! Most ordinary practitioners couldn't even take the first stage of conceptualization and would choose to leave within a few days. For heaven grade geniuses with outstanding innate talent, most of them would be able to comprehend second or third stage conceptualization. Just that alone will save one to two years of cultivation time."

"Huang Yueli's comprehension is much higher than heaven grade geniuses so I'm guessing that she should be able to comprehend fourth stage and above! Spending three years is already considered godspeed!"

Hearing his explanation, Little Wang Cai's face grew darker.

His Female Devil's power of comprehension was something that he didn't doubt. But in that way, wouldn't it mean that she had to stay in the drawing for a very long amount of time?

The more Little Wang Cai thought, the more resentful he got. He couldn't help but bow his head and ridicule, "Isn't this just a phoenix's painting? What's there to look at? Spending three days is already an exaggeration, what more for three years! Isn't it better to look at me?!"

Little Phoenix teared up. Female Devil had to sit here for three years!

His roasted chicken drumsticks, fried drumsticks, braised drumsticks, scallion-cooked drumsticks... those were going to be separated from him for the next three years!!!

He really couldn't bear to leave those little devils...

Huang Zixiao looked at Little Wang Cai's teary face, and his brows rose. He said, "What's so good about your appearance? A stunted young bird like you, how can it be compared to the former clan leader's painting!"

Little Wang Cai puffed up its little chubby chest and revealed an unreconciled expression.

"I...I...I... which part of me is stunted! I am still growing! I'm telling you, my brother is an extremely eye-catching huge phoenix, and he's much more formidable and powerful than this phoenix in the painting! I will not lose out to him in the future!"

Chapter 2783: First stage conceptualization (2)

Huang Zixiao lowered his head and looked at the little brat who was only at his knee level. Then he delved into his thoughts.

Little Wang Cai felt that he was looking down on him and puffed his chest even higher!

“I’m telling you! My bloodline is very noble! Today you’re treating me with such disrespect, tomorrow I will make sure I’m out of your league!”

Huang Zixiao’s eyes flashed past a cold glint and he said, “That’s right. Speaking of this, your bloodline is indeed not bad and you seem to be part of the Phoenix’s royal family...”

Huang Zixiao hurriedly added, “Too bad, this lass really doesn’t know how to rear a Phoenix! Last time I remember I passed her a <<Guide to raising a Phoenix>> book but in the end, she didn’t study it properly. Furthermore, she lets you grow so fat, totally not releasing your potential! Surely this young lass wasn’t only concerned about her relationship, right? No way, I can’t let her delay a noble Phoenix’s future...”

Little Wang Cai felt his hair rising on end when he heard that.

“Wait, although I don’t understand what you are mumbling about, why do I have a bad premonition? What do you want to do?”

Ever since Huang Yueli received the <<Guide to raising a Phoenix>>, she did train Little Wang Cai excitedly in the start.

Alas, Little Wang Cai was very lazy and he was determined not to give up on his benefits. So every day when it was training time, he would resort to all kinds of trickery and throw all sorts of tantrums, refusing to cooperate with her.

Huang Yueli initially thought of many different ideas, hoping to train him properly. In the end, Li Moying suddenly fell ill so she totally had no time to look after Little Wang Cai at all.

He took the opportunity to let loose of himself. After he did that, there was no way to pull himself back.

Huang Yueli was grateful to it for saving her so she felt embarrassed to coerce it. In that way, her training plans had gone down the drain once again.

He stretched out a hand and picked Little Wang Cai up. “As a member of the Phoenix’s royal family, all you do is eat chicken drumsticks all day. It’s simply a disgrace to your noble bloodline! If your brother were to know about it, he would probably cry to death! It’s all your master’s fault for not raising you properly! That lass must be too soft-hearted. She can’t even train a young bird well. Let me, her senior, do it on her behalf then!”

Little Phoenix was shocked and instantly started to struggle violently. Its two short legs kept kicking in mid-air.

“No way, you have no right to coerce This Lord! Female Devil doesn’t even bother about me, what right do you have to do so? Let me down, quickly let me down! I am determined not to join whatever training you say! I want to accompany Female Devil, I want to eat drumsticks, and I want to sleep!”

However, Huang Zixiao picked him up by the back of his collar and he was much taller than Little Phoenix. No matter how Little Wang Cai struggled, he had no way to escape from his clutches.

Little Phoenix turned anxious and started screaming, “Female Devil, save me! Quickly save me! Someone wants to abduct your adorable little Phoenix and turn me into child labor, menial labor! I’m going to be tormented into a non-Phoenix shape. Quickly save me...hey, Female Devil, what’s the matter with you??”

Little Phoenix’s eyes suddenly widened and let out a shocked scream in a weird tone.

Huang Zixiao’s lips tugged and laughed coldly, “Don’t even try to use this kind of lowly tricks to deceive me. I’ve lived for eighty thousand years so I’ve seen all sorts of tricks. Save your energy!”

Chapter 2784: First stage conceptualization (3)

Little Phoenix shook its head furiously, “No, no, it’s... it’s true! Quickly take a look, Female Devil she... will she be alright?”

Huang Zixiao snorted but since he was worried about her, he turned back and took a glance.

Following that, his brows creased into a knot.

Not knowing when it started, her forehead started to profuse sweat. Her face also flushed red and her body started to shake slightly.

There were only two possibilities for this scenario to happen.

One possibility was that Huang Yueli was about to comprehend the first stage conceptualization and was on the verge of breaking through. The other possibility was that Huang Yueli could no longer take on the tremendous pressure of powerful conceptualization from the painting and she was about to break!

But even for heaven grade geniuses, those who wanted to break through the first stage conceptualization would take at least three months and above. Although Huang Zixiao had never met any other god grade geniuses, thinking in that line of thoughts, she would need at least one to two months?

Whereas now, the time from Huang Yueli’s start of comprehension was only ten days. No matter how genius she was, would she be able to comprehend successfully in such a short amount of time? Apparently not!

So his conclusion was the second option —could she no longer stand the painting’s conceptualization?

But this made Huang Zixiao rather surprised as well. He thought Huang Yueli’s innate talent was very high, so her power of comprehension should naturally be very strong! Especially when she just entered the drawing, she only used two breaths and that gave him a “disillusion” that her power of comprehension was equally outstanding!

Whoever knew...

His brows furrowed as he totally could not comprehend what was going on.

However, Huang Yueli’s sweat grew even more and her expression turned worse by the minute.

Huang Zixiao saw that and he grew anxious as well. He shot up and stood behind her, preparing to lend her a helping hand at any moment.

Looking at her, it was evident that she was almost at her limit. But she still refused to give up, persisting on.

Even though Huang Zixiao wasn't willing to believe that a god grade genius's power of comprehension was that weak! But under this irrevocable truth, he still wished that she wouldn't hang on endlessly, absolutely not because of her reputation which would in turn cause damage to her soul trace!

"Young lass, don't be rash! Sigh, it's all my fault. I know that she grew up in the lower realm's ordinary sect and she's not the same as those practitioners who grew up with the clan, whereby they all understood what conceptualizations were. She abruptly entered the drawing and the impact was too huge. Even if her power of comprehension was very good, it might be because she wasn't fully prepared hence she suffered such a huge impact! I should have given her more time to understand the situation first!"

Huang Zixiao felt extremely frustrated!

She was a god grade genius that the clan might not even see within a few hundred thousand years!

If she really sustained permanent damage because of the lack of preparation in the third stage refinement and affected her future cultivation, he would become the entire Sacred Phoenix Race's sinner!

Huang Zixiao's heart pounded hard but he couldn't forcibly cut off the mental connection between Huang Yueli and the << Mythical Nine Skies Phoenix Painting>> so he could only keep a tight watch beside her. In the instance when Huang Yueli's soul trace was going to be rebounded by the drawing, he would protect her and help her take on the rebounded force!

Chapter 2785: First stage conceptualization (4)

This was the best solution that he could think up!

Little Phoenix squatted by her side anxiously as well. He stared at Huang Yueli, deeply worried that something would happen to her.

The two of them were on tenterhooks for some time when they suddenly realized that her breathing started to ease up. Her complexion also started to return to normal...

Initially, Huang Zixiao was still worried and did not dare to walk off.

But after a period of observation, he discovered that she actually returned to the same state when she just entered the drawing. She didn't move, as though she felt nothing at all.

"Alright, everything's alright now!" Huang Zixiao stood up and looked at her in disbelief. "Looks like she was too anxious earlier! That was why she almost got injured when she was inside the painting's conceptualization for such a short amount of time. Luckily, god grade geniuses are indeed god grade! She should be starting to ease up..."

Little Phoenix heaved a sigh of relief and patted its little chest, "That's great, I was so scared earlier! If Female Devil's in trouble, what should I do?"

However, before it could take a breather, its neck suddenly tightened and it was lifted into the air again.

Little Phoenix cried out in shock, “Y...Y...You... What do you want to do?”

“Since the young lass is fine, then we should continue to discuss your training plans for the next three years! I can’t watch you idle away like this. When the young lass comes out, I must show her what is a genuine phoenix young bird. Your Master will be ridiculed in God Realm if you show yourself in this state!”

Huang Zixiao lifted it and started walking out of the secret room.

“Help! Help! Female Devil! Quickly look, Female Devil looks like she’s in trouble again!”

Little Phoenix kept crying randomly as it struggled.

Unfortunately, Huang Zixiao wasn’t tricked this time and directly brought it out.

Henceforth, Little Phoenix started on its difficult journey of training days...

On the other hand, inside the painting.

Huang Yueli’s forehead was full of sweat as she sat on the ground. Panting, she looked at the blazing flame slowly disappearing.

Actually, the fire domain earlier wasn’t considered very powerful to her.

If she relied on Profound Energy to block it off, it was possible to fight against it. But as she was inside the drawing and the conceptualization in the drawing were reflected based on the painter’s conceptualization, so the fire domain’s energy was boundless. It wasn’t something that she could consume just based on Profound Energy.

The fire domain’s energy had boundless replenishment while her Profound Energy was limited. Hence when the time dragged on, it was impossible to get rid of the fire domain.

So, Huang Yueli found the crux in decoding the fire domain. That was to find the regulated operation of the fire domain.

Hence, that was why she didn’t move from the start. She allowed the fire domain to slowly gather and lastly when it envelop her entirely into the domain, she finally comprehended the regulation in it.

Immediately following that, she used a burst of Profound Energy and struck the fire domain’s center!

It immediately exploded!

At the same time, these splattered flames turned into multiple runes and veined patterns which kept reflecting in mid-air. It slowly merged with her soul trace.

Huang Yueli’s original fire attributed energy became even turbulent. Without the need for her to draw it, it automatically started to flow within her body!

“Flame Spirit...”

These two words appeared in her mind.

Chapter 2786: Someone's bullying a Phoenix (1)

Even though she lacked the experience, Huang Yueli could still instinctively sense that this should be the fire attributed first stage conceptualization.

She was exceptionally glad that she could comprehend it in such a short time.

She immediately sat in a cross-legged position and started to take in a large amount of information that was surging into her brain.

Fire attributed first stage conceptualization was mainly describing the origins of flames. There were numerous kinds of species and the deviant flame's power was exceptionally strong. Although it was ever-changing, the origin was from the same source and it started to grow and change slowly.

In Huang Yueli's mind, the image of a flame started from a small spark and it slowly grew into a blazing flame...

The entire process kept repeating itself in her mind.

At the same time, her consciousness slowly sunk in deeply...

As she was comprehending it, the Profound Energy in her body swiftly moved. Every time it moved, it would increase by a certain standard...

Huang Yueli sat in the secret room inside the inheritance tower. The room's Heaven and Earth Profound Qi's intensity was extremely high, and it originally was designed for Sacred Phoenix Race's top rated geniuses' advancement.

Under the encirclement of the pure Heaven and Earth Profound Qi, Huang Yueli's Profound Energy accumulated slowly and was on the verge of breakthrough...

Ninth stage realm third level!

Huang Yueli cultivated in Levitation Sword Palace for more than two months and barely raised her level from ninth stage realm first level to second level.

But now, in the inheritance tower, she merely used ten days to raise a small realm!

Although Huang Yueli's soul trace was still in the drawing, she could still feel the changes in her body clearly.

Her speedy advancement made her heart pound with joy. It seemed that comprehending the fire attributed conceptualization was a major benefit to her cultivation and ability. As long as she comprehended it well, there was hope for her to break through to the tenth stage realm within a year!

Thinking of this, she started to work harder to comprehend!

Not knowing how much time had passed, Huang Yueli's mind's shattered rune started to disappear, turning into a part of her ability.

She slowly opened her eyes and started to muster up her cultivation method. She stretched out her right hand and waved it gently!

A burst of Profound Energy flew out from her fingertips, slicing through mid-air!

A fire spark shone slightly and gradually grew bigger. It finally turned into a huge ball of blazing flame!

She had perfectly re-enacted the flame spirit conceptualization in her mind and her lips surfaced a satisfactory smile.

However, before she had time to be happy, she suddenly sensed the surrounding air turning hot again. Moreover, the temperature kept on increasing!

Huang Yueli's brows furrowed and she lifted her head to take a look at her surroundings.

She saw a new fire domain rising from the boundless skies, slowly gathering towards her...

Her expression congealed!

A new assessment... was about to start!

...

Unknowingly, two months passed by.

In this period, the usually serene inheritance tower would emit horrifying cries from a little brat.

"Save me! Someone's bullying a Phoenix, torturing a Phoenix! Murdering a Phoenix! Boo hoo hoo hoo hoo..."

Huang Zixiao's lips twitched. "Shut up! I'm just asking you to fly around to improve your endurance! What's there to cry about, and furthermore, crying that miserably! Those who don't know might think that I'm skinning you alive to eat you!"

"Owww~~ I knew it, you want to eat This Lord's flesh!! You're devoid of conscience!!!"

Chapter 2787: Someone's bullying a Phoenix (2)

Little Phoenix raised its voice and cried out even miserably.

Huang Zixiao knew that it was faking its cry, but his head was splitting over it. He finally realized why Huang Yueli wasn't able to tame this little Phoenix.

This wasn't an infant Phoenix; it was their ancestor!

But he had lived for eighty thousand years after all. No matter how difficult the brat was, he had absolute confidence to deal with it!

Raising his brows, he allowed Little Wang Cai to throw his tantrum, leaving it to cry as much as it wanted.

In the end, Little Wang Cai felt very tired because crying and throwing a tantrum was an exhausting thing.

It took a deep breath and stopped bawling. Then it snuck a glance at Huang Zixiao.

The man happened to look in its direction, and he sneered, "What's the matter? Had enough of crying? Then continue to fly! You're not allowed to slack off! If you don't shed off the extra fats and hit the standard weight this month, your exercise routine will double next month! You can't eat meat and can only eat vegetables!"

"Huh?? What???" Little Phoenix almost fainted from the shock!

But under this evil force's coercion, it had no choice but to flap its chubby wings as tears streamed down its eyes. Then it continued to fly around the inheritance tower.

Little Phoenix flew and stared at Huang Yueli's tightly shut secret room entrance, as though it was going to burn a hole through it!

Boo hoo, Female Devil, quickly come out and save me! I've misjudged you in the past, you're my best Master ever!

As long as you quickly come out to save This Bird, I will never call you a Female Devil again!!

Perhaps Little Phoenix's grievance was too heavy. As it chanted silently, the secret room's entrance suddenly emitted an evident Profound Energy fluctuation.

Little Phoenix's eyes lit up. "Ah! Female Devil!! Quickly look, my Female Devil is about to come out!!"

Huang Zixiao followed its gaze and looked at the secret room's door.

The original wavy-shaped entrance was now showing signs of rippling, and it looked extremely beautiful.

Huang Zixiao's lips curled up, and he said, "Stop dreaming. That's not signs of her coming out, but her advancing! To advance at this moment means she had already comprehended the first stage conceptualization. She only spent two months to comprehend the first stage conceptualization, indeed very outstanding among the heaven grade geniuses..."

He paused for a moment and didn't continue speaking. But he was lamenting in his heart.

Huang Yueli was a god grade genius! Huang Zixiao had high hopes for her!

In the end, her performance was almost on par with the top-rated heaven grade geniuses...

Although she was already very outstanding, perhaps... it was because she was just too young or her cultivation wasn't sufficient...

After a short moment of bemoaning, he didn't think too much and reverted his attention onto Little Phoenix.

Little Wang Cai had secretly hidden into a corner, hoping that Huang Zixiao would forget about him after he was distracted by Huang Yueli.

Unfortunately, things did not go according to its imagination...

"Alright, enough of the rubbish! Quickly continue to train! The training for today is to fly around in circles for two and a half cycles and go on a freefall!"

"Chirp!"

Little Phoenix rolled its eyes and banged into the wall!

...

In the drawing, Huang Yueli was sitting cross-legged while painfully comprehending. The pain and difficulty that she was experiencing weren't any lesser than Little Phoenix.

Chapter 2788: Someone's bullying a Phoenix (3)

At this moment, Huang Yueli was totally different now as compared with the first time she entered this place.

Her clothes were shabby and torn with several burnt holes on them. Her hair was dry and yellow while her face had several signs of being scorched by flames. She was in a disheveled state and was totally different from her usual elegant look.

But when she sat there, her back was upright and she had a cold yet dignified expression. A fearless aura could be seen between her brows.

Huang Zixiao didn't know that the Profound Energy fluctuations that both he and Little Phoenix felt were already not the first. Previously, it had already happened three times!

But he was too concentrated on training Little Wang Cai hence he didn't notice it. It was until the fourth Profound Energy fluctuation when he sensed it.

Huang Yueli had already gone through four advancements, raising her cultivation from ninth stage realm second level to ninth stage realm sixth level!

As for the comprehension of conceptualization, it was not like what he had imagined. She was not in the first stage conceptualization, but the third!

"Fire attributed conceptualization's first stage is flame spirit, which talks about the birth process of a flame..."

"Fire attributed conceptualization's second stage is plundering flame, and that talks about the process of using fire to attack..."

"Fire attributed conceptualization's third stage is..."

Huang Yueli sensed the revolving shattered runes swirling around in her mind and tried her best to organize the complicated information. "Hundred defense. It uses fire for defense. The might of the flames not only will burn the enemy but it could also be used to resist against any kinds of attacks..."

The comprehension of conceptualization made Huang Yueli's ability rise swiftly.

In terms of her cultivation, the observation in the changes could be seen directly.

Comprehending the first and second stage conceptualization allowed her to raise her cultivation by a small realm. When she comprehended the third stage conceptualization, it allowed her to rise by two small realms!

The reason was that this third stage conceptualization was rather tough for her. She had to endure the pain of being scorched by raging flames multiple times and almost swallowed by the fire. In the end, under critical pressure, she finally comprehended the conceptualization within.

Moreover, based on her current cultivation, when the third stage conceptualization's shattered piece entered her soul trace, she felt extremely uncomfortable.

For a moment, she felt as though her brain was filled to the brim and was on the verge of an explosion.

Huang Yueli lacked the basic understanding of conceptualization, otherwise, she would have known that comprehension was split into three sections. Every third stage conceptualization would be counted as one section.

The third stage conceptualization was the last section for the first stage conceptualization. The difficulty in comprehension was much higher than the previous two stages!

To most practitioners, this was an extremely difficult checkpoint to surpass.

Even for heaven grade geniuses who were taking part in comprehending conceptualization for the first time, it was not an easy task to comprehend the third stage conceptualization!

Huang Yueli didn't know about these, so she thought that something had gone wrong in her process of comprehension, or perhaps her determination wasn't enough. That was why she continued to persist!

The pain in her brain grew intense, and if this went on, it might cause permanent damage to her soul trace.

Just as she could not continue to endure it, the Sky Phoenix Ring in between her brows suddenly lighted up. The Phoenix imprint suddenly lifted its head. Opening its mouth, it made a swallowing action!

A majority of those complicated runes were swallowed by the Sky Phoenix Ring.. Huang Yueli instantly felt relaxed.

Chapter 2789: Someone's bullying a Phoenix (4)

Although she wasn't clear about the situation, Huang Yueli decisively grabbed hold of the chance and instantly started to meditate and cultivate while comprehending the remaining runes in her mind.

Not knowing what was going on, the remainders happened to be the simplest runes. Huang Yueli focused totally on comprehending and very soon, she managed to refine those runes, merging them into her soul trace.

As a large portion of runes started to disappear, the Phoenix imprint opened its mouth again and spat out another portion of runes.

Huang Yueli was stunned for a moment and immediately understood the situation. So she started to comprehend the new runes again...

To practitioners who found it hard to mount the high wall in comprehending the third stage conceptualization for the first time, Huang Yueli managed to conquer it smoothly through this orderly fashion...

Her cultivation was also raised by two small realms!

It was because of this which caused a much greater stir of Profound Energy fluctuations when she advanced, and that in turn was discovered by Huang Zixiao and Little Wang Cai...

By the time she completely comprehended the third stage conceptualization, Huang Yueli slowly stood up feeling fearful.

"I didn't imagine the third stage to be so difficult! Even if I manage to find the crux and decode the fire domain, I still have to face the impact of overloaded information on my soul trace. If it wasn't for the Sky Phoenix Ring, I'm afraid that I might already be seriously injured..."

"Sky Phoenix Ring... how on earth was it able to help me comprehend the conceptualization?"

Huang Yueli thought over it for a moment and finally had a bit of an idea. "That's right, Senior Huang said this earlier. The person who refined the Sky Phoenix Ring and <<Mythical Nine Skies Phoenix Painting>> is the same! Perhaps, it's exactly because of this which is why the Sky Phoenix Ring and this drawing have a certain link. That's probably why the rune in the drawing has limited control over it..."

Just as she was thinking about this, a new fire domain started to congeal in the faraway plans.

Huang Yueli looked at that rising flame and squinted her eyes.

Earlier when she was comprehending the third stage conceptualization, she had already decided to comprehend that stage and leave.

Based on her current rewards, it shouldn't be a major problem to break through to the tenth stage realm after cultivating for a little while more.

Hence there was no need to get herself killed just because she wanted to comprehend a little more.

After all, based on what Huang Zixiao said, she would have plenty of other chances to comprehend the other conceptualizations or rely on her own conclusion and enlightenment.

But now that she knew the efficacy of the Sky Phoenix Ring, she felt unwilling to leave.

With this abnormal God Relic's aid, not to mention the fourth stage conceptualization, even if it was the fifth stage or sixth stage, she felt assured to give it a try...

She creased her brows and thought for a while more. Shortly after, she carried her zither and put on a fighting stance!

She thought of trying to see where her limit of comprehension would end!

...

Another few months passed by.

Outside the secret room.

Little Phoenix was still flapping its wings flying up and down in circles.

But its size was totally different from half a year ago. If Huang Yueli were to awaken and see it, she would probably not be able to recognize Little Phoenix!

It was no longer the size of a fat chicken but had a defined figure. Its body and wings had grown by a bit and the feathers on its head and back were sparkling brightly!

Its movements were smooth and suave. Although it was still small, there was a kind of luxurious beauty to it.

Chapter 2790: Spiritual Imprint (1)

“Alright, now use your fastest speed and go round the inheritance tower once. You must avoid all the obstacles in the surroundings!” Huang Zixiao’s voice rang in the vast inheritance tower.

Little Phoenix flapped its wings and increased the speed according to his instructions.

Following Huang Zixiao’s continuous hand gestures, various kinds of obstacles kept surfacing. Moreover, each time there was no regulated structure to it.

But Little Phoenix was able to use its agility to fly past all those obstacles, avoiding every single one of them.

This scene made Huang Zixiao reveal a satisfied smile. “Not bad, you’ve completed the first phase of training very well! Today we shall take a break. Tomorrow, we can start the second phase of training.”

Little Phoenix was flapping its little wings with a delighted expression. But when it heard this, it started turning stiff...

“Wait! T...T... This is just the first phase? And... there’s still a second phase?!” It screeched sharply.

Huang Zixiao shot a faint glance at it. “Why? Weren’t you the one who said you were part of the royal Phoenix family, with powerful and valiant strength? Do you think you’re powerful just because you avoided a few obstacles? To tell you the truth, the first phase of training is especially aimed at infant stage Phoenixes. You’re already in the toddler stage so you should have started the second phase training long ago. So all those trainings are considered as supplementary classes!”

“Wh... What?? You’re abusing Phoenixes! When I go to God Realm with Female Devil, I must go find my relatives and tell them how the Sacred Phoenix Race mistreated little Phoenixes!” Little Wang Cai cried out furiously.

Huang Zixiao’s expression did not change at all. “Enough, hurry and go find your Phoenix clan! Let’s see what the other phoenixes will say! I’m telling you, in the Phoenix clan, the royal family’s training is much more difficult than mine by ten times! Trash like you will be beaten hands down by some mixed-blood baby Phoenix! By then, your relatives would only blame the young lass for not training you well. They would definitely force you to stay and train you properly! Just wait and see!”

“You... you... don’t you think of deceiving me! T... Ten times more difficult training! How is that possible? I... I don’t believe you!” Little Phoenix was sweating profusely from the fright, but it forced itself to remain calm as it showed a look that seemed as though it did not believe him.

Huang Zixiao could see through this little brat so he didn't bother to explain further. "You will find out by then!"

Little Phoenix started to become conflicted as it propped up its chubby face.

Was what he said true? If it was true, then wouldn't it be too miserable? No way, when he reached God Realm in the future, he had to think of a way to make Female Devil stay as far away from the Phoenix clan as possible...

Just at this moment, the secret room's entrance seemed to emit another wave of Profound Energy fluctuations.

Huang Zixiao's eyes lit up. "Oh? Did she breakthrough again? Could it be that the young lass had already comprehended the third stage conceptualization? This... this is a very good achievement!"

The last time Huang Yueli comprehended the third stage conceptualization, he didn't know the truth and assumed that she had only comprehended the first stage.

Later on, there were another two rounds of Profound Energy fluctuations.

From what Huang Zixiao thought, this meant that she had comprehended another two rounds and was comprehending the third stage conceptualization right now.

This result, even for a tenth stage realm heaven grade genius, was rarely seen.
