Chapter 311: Prince Yu's Life Experience (3)

Huang Yueli's heart skipped a beat, in her vision, she seems to see a small and lonely Li Moying, with his weak and frail stature. He was pushed down over and over again by the Crown Prince who was much stronger than him.

This image made her heart wince in pain.

"Hmph! No wonder I've said it before, that the Empress and Crown Prince are both not good things! They've actually bullied you before! I will help you get your revenge! I'll make sure they will reap their rightful rewards!"

Huang Yueli huffed angrily as she declared the words that were in her heart.

Li Moying was actually feeling down and emotional, he didn't expect that when he heard her words, he could not help but laugh.

"You...you're really a ferocious little fox! Nope, more like a tigress! But...I like it!"

"Li Moying! Who did you say was a tigress?!" Huang Yueli looked at him with puffed up cheeks.

Under the cascading moonlight, it illuminated her little angry face. Yet this miraculously washed away all his unhappiness and pain that had been buried in his heart. It was as if they were blown away by the wind.

"But..." Huang Yueli found it strange as she tilted her head in query, "With your current cultivation, you could have easily dealt with that horrid Mother and Son pair, why should you need to endure and put up with them?"

"It's because my Imperial Mother still loved my Imperial Father deeply, so her last words to me was to vow that no matter I am not allowed to harm my siblings, or else my Imperial Father would be sad."

When he said that, he let out a long and deep sigh.

His Imperial Mother was really too silly, it wasn't worth it to do it to this point.

"Ah?" Huang Yueli exclaimed out, "But just now in the banquet hall, you've beaten the Crown Prince to such a state..."

Li Moying furrowed his brows and laughed coldly, "So what? If he did anything else, I would have let it pass, but he wanted to snatch my woman! If I could still endure, can I still call myself a man?"

"Stop talking nonsense! I'm not your woman!"

Although her face was scowling, in her heart she felt warm.

This man... just because of a simple promise to his mother, he had spent all these years living such a tragic life, being constantly pushed about by his other siblings, bullied and scorned by all. He could actually still endure all these humiliations but when because of her, he revealed his own strength...

No wonder, he was so emotional today and had come over to his mother's tombstone even at such an hour....

"I'm sorry, I made you go back on your vow." Huang Yueli softly said as she looked at him meekly.

Li Moying looked back at her, this time his eyes were filled with gentleness.

"I don't blame you. I've long lost my tolerance to those idiots! After showing my hand today, it was clear that I should have not waited till this day! I should have beaten them up much earlier! It's such a waste that today we were pressed for time and I didn't use much strength!"

Huang Yueli laughed gleefully and added, "Yup! I've also thought that your punches were too light! Next time we'll go together and beat them up till their own mother can't recognize them!"

"Alright! It's a promise!"

The two of them joked and laughed, under this dark and bleak environment.

When they were about to leave, Li Moying knelt down respectfully and kowtowed a few times to his mother's tombstone.

Huang Yueli followed suit in paying her respects.

When Li Moying stood up, he saw her and couldn't help but laugh, "Why? Have you finally acknowledged that you are this Lord's fiancée and you're paying respects to your future mother-in-law?"

Huang Yueli couldn't be bothered and rolled her eyes at him.

"It's because I've taken Lady Mingfei's Jade Ice Qin, so I'm thanking her for it! Please do not let your imagination run wild!"

Li Moying's laughed and suddenly lowered his head and stole a kiss.

Before she could freak out, he retreated swiftly and laughed very happily like a cat that had just stolen a fish.

Chapter 312: Prince Yu's Life Experience (4)

Since this little fox was already not courteous with her words but perhaps he was "letting his imagination run wild" because when he heard it again, they didn't seem to have the previous unbearable heartache.

Because now, he could already feel that something...has changed.

.....

The night was dark.

South Yue Palace.

"Mojun...My son.. How could you be so deeply injured? What's your Mother to do?"

The Empress was crying by his side.

The Crown Prince was lying motionless on his bed, his eyes were dull and listless, his heart felt empty and dead.

He could feel that the profound qi in his own body was slowly dissipating, in just a night, he had fallen from a Seventh Stage Defensive Profound Realm to a Fifth Stage!

If he could not be healed in time, he was afraid he would be turned into a waste and had no more chance in continuing his cultivation!

“Enough! Stop crying! What have you become? In front of your son, what’s with all this crying?!”

The Emperor strode in in anger and bellowed when he saw this sight.

The Empress immediately screamed back, “So what if I cry? Now that Your Majesty has such a powerful Second Prince by your side, there’s no longer a need to care about Mojun? Is that right? Li Moying is so malicious, he had injured Mojun to such a state, yet Your Majesty is not the least concerned?”

When the Emperor heard her words, he was even angrier.

“Why am I not concerned? Well, this matter was first brought upon by Mojun himself! He wanted to challenge his own brother and he lost at that! It’s he himself who was too weak. He was too arrogant and wanted to humiliate Moying! He thought he had the upper hand and wanted to bully him but lost instead. How is it Moying’s fault? He was obviously the strong trying to bully the weak! Shouldn’t he reflect on himself?”

The Empress screamed back even louder this time round.

“Anyway, Your Majesty’s heart had always been that little slut and her bastard child, isn’t that so? Now that he can cultivate, Your Majesty must be so happy, can’t wait to depose the Crown Prince’s title and pass it to that bastard? As for my poor Mojun, if he dies, that would be less of an eyesore, isn’t it?”

“SHUT UP!”

The Emperor heard her provocative drivel that he lost all reason and raised his hands and with a loud resounding ‘Pa’ sound, he had slapped her resplendently across her face.

The Empress was stunned.

She held her swollen cheek and stared at him incredulously.

That year, the Empress’ Father was also a fourth realm expert, in the South Yue Kingdom, he had an unmovable position in the kingdom, South Yue Kingdom’s General! Most of the military commanders had all trained under him, that was why in the Imperial Harem, she had always been fearless and even arbitrarily killed and suppressed other princes!

The Emperor had no ways to control her and could only keep silent.

But today, he had actually hit her! This was the first time he dared to fight back!

“You...you...”

The Emperor gnashed his teeth and sad, “Empress, you are the Mother of the Kingdom! Please don’t speak like a shrew, speaking such vulgar words! If you don’t know basic courtesy and shame, Zhen can look for someone else to sit in this position!”

The Emperor had actually spoken of deposing the Empress!

The Empress suddenly recalled that her father had passed away the year before and she had not been so rampant and arrogant as the past.

She actually still had the Crown Prince that she could rely on, With his strength and talent that was far beyond all the other princes, her position as the Empress was supposed to be very stable.

However, that hateful Li Moying who was the bastard son of that slut suddenly became more powerful than her son!

The Emperor looked at her coldly, “After Mingfei passed away, you had said before that you would take Moying as your own, if not for him divulging those horrendous events, Zhen will still not know that you are such a blackhearted woman! You’ve actually taught Mojun to harm his own brother! You’re more vicious than a snake!”

Chapter 313: Prince Yu’s Life Experience (5)

“No, it’s not like this!”

The Empress desperately wanted to wash herself clean of these accusations.

“That was that bastard..It was Prince Yu’s own ramblings! We have never done such things to him before! It’s all his own shameless accusations! Your Majesty should not believe such nonsense...”

The Emperor looked at her with an even colder gaze.

“Is it nonsense? You know it in your heart! Zhen has already found the nanny in the Minghua Palace to verify everything!”

The Empress quivered in fear and fell to the ground.

The Emperor glanced at her and said, “Today’s matter was all brought about by Mojun’s own undoing! You don’t need to push the blame to others! But no matter what, Mojun is still my son, I will not leave him to fend for himself. I’ve already sent people to head over to Sky Cloud City to look for the Soul Revolutions Pill that the Imperial Doctor has mentioned. No matter what the price, we will get it! Stop continuing to shame me... you’d better get a grip on yourself!”

As soon as the Emperor left, the Empress collapsed and cried.

“Imperial...mother...”

Suddenly, she heard the faint voice of Li Mojun.

The empress rushed to the side of the bed, “Mojun, how are you?”

“Imperial mother...cough....cough”

The Crown Prince coughed a few times and struggled to speak: "I hope...Imperial Father finds the pill... is unrealistic but...we have no choice...Imperial Mother... must..quickly write to seventh sister...return to the kingdom..."

"Tian'er?" The Empress was surprised.

Seventh Princess Li Tian'er was also the only other child the Empress had, she was the Crown Prince's own blood sister, both were outstanding geniuses.

"Maybe...she has ..cough cough..a way..."

"How could it possibly be? Your talent is higher than her, moreover you are the core disciple of Celestial Light Academy, but even you aren't able to get your hands on the Soul Revolutions Pill. Your sister just entered the academy last year, her level isn't even like yours, what ways would she have?"

There was a hint of hope in the Crown Prince's eyes.

"Imperial Mother..doesn't know that she is...an Armament Master's disciple..."

The Empress had all along been in South Yue Kingdom and did not know how rare and illustrious an Armament Master was.

Although, the princess was less talented than her brother, but because of her potential to become an Armament Master, even in Celestial Light Academy, she was a highly regarded disciple. Moreover, she was accepted as a disciple by a Fourth Rank Armament Master in the Academy.

A Fourth Rank Armament Master! What luck and prestige was this?

Although Li Tian'er still did not have such a high status, but for her Master to get his hands on a fifth tier pill for his beloved disciple wouldn't pose much difficulty.

The Empress did not understand what was so great about being an Armament Master's disciple but nevertheless, once she heard her son's affirmation, she immediately agreed.

"Alright, Mojun. I'll go write to your sister so go and have a good rest!"

.....

On the other hand, Huang Yueli had stayed an entire night with Li Moying at the cemetery. Only until the first rays of sun streaked through the clouds did Li Moying send her home.

The carriage stopped in front of her yard.

The moment Huang Yueli opened the door, her eyes widened in horror.

"What? What is all this? How are there so many people?"

In front of her courtyard, it was bustling with activity as the entire entrance was packed with various carriages and sedans. Many different nobles were wearing their best and crowded around the doors, pleading with the guards to let them in.

"This Big Brother, please let me in, I just want to meet with Third Miss and apologize to her in person!"

“Yeah! That year, this Young Lady wasn’t sensible and once said something disrespectful to Third Miss. As her Mother, I have to make sure this ignorant girl will face up to her mistakes and apologize to Third Miss!”

Chapter 314: The Master of the Manor (1)

Some others even yelled out in excitement.

“Big Brother Guard, I’m not the same as those others who have no eyes! I did not offend Third Miss but I just want to pay my respects to our South Yue’s number one genius. I am here to offer gifts to Third Miss!”

“Yes, please let us in Big Brother!”

The guard was already at his limit and was just about to close the door when Cai Wei peeked out from behind. Once the people saw her, they swarmed over to her and she was immediately surrounded.

“Isn’t this Miss Cai Wei? Miss Cai Wei, this box of jewelry is for you! Please say something nice for me in front of Third Miss!”

“Miss Cai Wei is actually at the first level of the Qi Profound Realm! No wonder you’re the person by Third Miss’ side! Such talent... really impressive!”

All kinds of flattery started to clamour around her.

Cai Wei was not used to such a situation and with a pale face, she stood there stunned, not knowing how to react.

Huang Yueli couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

Seeing such a scene, these should be the people who have heard of her greatness yesterday and hurried over first thing in the morning to flatter her!

She had revealed her talent, such an outcome of people trying to flatter her was within her predictions.

However, she had not expected that these people were so fervent that they even sought out Cai Wei and had even called her ‘Miss Cai Wei’.

Looking at these people, Huang Yueli could clearly remember that among those that had called her ‘Miss’, several of them had previously bullied Bai Ruoli and even hit Cai Wei!

Hearing the laughter of Huang Yueli, Cai Wei immediately looked and shouted out, “Third Miss, you are back!”

As if there was a large clap of thunder, the moment everyone heard this, everyone turned around and rushed towards Huang Yueli.

“Miss Bai, you are back!”

“We have all been waiting...”

“Miss Bai is really a phoenix among all dragons and phoenixes, the air you exude is...”

The corner of Huang Yueli’s mouth twitched as she looked at Cai Wei: “You...! This stupid girl! Don’t you know how to think? Why did you have to be so loud and brought all these people over?!”

How could she return home with all this fanfare?

If she had known earlier, she would have snuck through the back door!

“Li’er, what’s wrong? Standing here without moving, do you mean that you want this Lord to send you in?”

At this time, a deep voice came from behind.

Immediately after, a powerful arm encircled her waist.

Everyone sucked in a cold breath.

“His Royal Highness Prince Yu!”

“It’s His Royal Highness!”

Li Moying lowered his head and gave an intimate kiss on the head of the woman in his embrace as he teased with light laughter, “Little Li’er, so many people are surrounding you, tell me, are they bullying you? Whoever is disrespectful to you, let this Lord know!”

Once his words landed, again as if a clap of thunder, everyone scattered immediately.

Everyone retreated back quickly, with this retreat, each person took at least ten steps back.

Of course everyone had also heard about Prince Yu’s achievements.

Compared to Huang Yueli as a genius cultivator, Prince Yu’s talent was simply shocking to the point that brought them terror!

Towards Huang Yueli, they still dared to try their luck to bridge some connections and hound her. But facing the Prince Yu who could even defeat the Imperial Tutor in one move..... No one dared to muster their guts to face him, lest it displeases him and they dig their own graves instead.

Huang Yueli turned and scowled at him when she saw him smile leisurely and staring at her in such a teasing manner.

She scoffed at him.

Show off!

Sooner or later, she would become as powerful as him! Hmph!

Chapter 315: The Master of the Manor (2)

Li Moying laughed as he gently held her waist and personally led her into the manor.

“I will pick you up in three days.”

Huang Yueli nodded her head.

Last night, the two had agreed that three days later they would set off for Dark Moon Forest in search of the Profound Lunar Jade and craft the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror there.

However, after the words had been said, Li Moying still did not let go and remained motionless at the entrance.

Huang Yueli was speechless for a moment. "Your Highness Prince Yu, it's getting late, please go back! Bye!"

Only then did Li Moying loosen his grip and slowly backed off.

Huang Yueli let out a sigh of relief, thinking that he was just about to leave.

In that instance, she felt her wrist was being pulled and Li Moying tugged her gently and the next moment, she was brought into his embrace and his hot lips covered hers.

"Mmph!" Huang Yueli started hitting him on his shoulders.

This kiss was very passionate but it was not a long one.

After a short while, Li Moying raised his head.

"Little Li'er, I'm going to repeat myself once more. Remember my name! If I hear you call me Your Highness Prince Yu the next time round, Pavilion Lord, hey, pervert, or any other names that I don't like, then..."

His fervent eyes looked at her slightly swollen crimson lips that he had kissed, full of threat.

Huang Yueli was raging within, she really wanted to slap this man silly! How could he kiss her in front of so many people? Moreover he even said such overbearing words!

However, she did not beat him or even think of any ways to get back at him. She knew that she wasn't his opponent!

Li Moying saw her scrunched up face that huffed at him in arrogance and left in satisfaction.

After he left, those bootlickers started clamouring over her again as they surrounded her once again.

"Third Miss is sure blessed with fortune! To be engaged with such an outstanding man, Prince Yu!"

"Yes, yes! Prince Yu and Third Miss are both top talents and are a match made in heaven!"

"Miss Bai, congratulations to you! May I know when are you getting married?"

Damn it all! All these jibber jabber, and now even rattling such nonsense!

Huang Yueli angrily stomped in and yelled out to Cai Wei, "Get those flies away! Those that refuse to budge just beat them up! Let's see who still dares make a fuss at my house! Don't blame me for being strict! Beat up anyone you see! See one, beat one!"

Cai Wei nodded her head, "Yes Miss. There's one more thing.."

“What’s the matter?” Huang Yueli stopped in her tracks.

“Early this morning, Master personally brought Madam to your courtyard and are waiting for you in the hall.’

“What? Who asked you to let them in?”

“But..it’s Master after all...”

Cai Wei stuttered as she tried to explain herself as much as she could until Bai Liuqing had already strode out.

“Oh, Li’er, you’re finally back! Second Uncle had been waiting for a long time! You’ve made a name for our family! I’m so proud of you! If your Father knows of it, I’m sure he would be very happy as well!”

Bai Liuqing was all smiles, and very enthusiastic, as if Bai Ruoli was his very own daughter as he fawned all over her.

His wife who stood behind him had on an awkward expression.

Huang Yueli laughed coldly, “Second Uncle doesn’t seem to know that this time, I could reveal my strength was all thanks to Second Sister’s willingness to sacrifice. I’m really touched by her dedication to let me use her as a stepping stone, otherwise, how could I have such an opportunity?”

Chapter 316: The Master of the Manor (3)

Bai Liuqing’s face cramped up for a second there, but he quickly changed back to his smiley face in the blink of an eye.

“Ha ha ha, regarding Qi’ers matter...She herself has to be responsible. We’ll talk about this another time, another time. Come here, Li’er, quickly sit down. Second Uncle has specially brought over this year’s most prized famous tea! One small box costs a hundred silver! Come and try it!”

He behaved as if he was in his own home serving an important guest.

His act of a good uncle really made one nauseous.

Huang Yueli stood at the same spot and scoffed. “Second Uncle, if you aren’t here about Second Sister’s matter, coming over uninvited, so to what do I owe the pleasure?”

“Tsk tsk, you little girl!”

Bai Liuqing called out in an exaggerated manner. “We are a family and I am your own uncle! Can’t I just come over to visit? I’ve especially come all this way to visit you, you’ve really misunderstood your uncle.”

“Oh?” Huang Yueli had on an indifferent expression.

Bai Liuqing almost couldn’t hold onto this facade any longer, but with regards to all the rumours that had spread from the Palace, he still had to work harder.

That damn girl was actually a Sixth Grade Talent and had been hailed as South Yue's number one! It was a matter of time for such geniuses to soar into the skies, it wasn't something he could prevent.

Of course, she was still young, but if based solely on her talent, her current strength was still not very strong. But her luck was really too shocking; she was even engaged to Prince Yu! Moreover, looking at their intimate behaviour at the door just now, it looks like this girl's position in Prince Yu's heart isn't just ordinary!

Without the knowledge of Prince Yu's exact talent or cultivation, but at such a young age, he could already defeat the Imperial Tutor.

Just great, now that this damn girl has the backing of Prince Yu and she now stood in the limelight. He really regretted that all these years, their relationship had been throttled to such an extent. If he doesn't quickly try to recover and build up their relationship, he was afraid she'd come back knocking for revenge.

Thinking about this, Bai Liujing decided to throw away all his pride and ego and rush head on!

"Li'er, first of all, Second Uncle came to congratulate you on gaining the first place at the Peach Blossom Banquet! Also congratulations on your engagement to Prince Yu! This truly is a such a blessing for our family! Second Uncle must definitely throw a big banquet for you to celebrate it!"

Huang Yueli only replied patronizingly, "Ha ha!"

Bai Liujing didn't seem to mind and continued, "There's also another matter, the last time you had mentioned about taking over all the businesses that Big Brother had left behind. As he has too many businesses, it's also very troublesome to take stock. But Second Uncle had worked through the entire night to sort out all the accounts. Here it is, quick, come and take a look!"

Immediately after, Bai Liujing took out a stack of account books and passed it to her.

Huang Yueli flipped through them casually and realized that Bai Liujing was very generous! It seemed that he had handed her almost all the shops that the family owned!

What was even more rare was that these shops were all still raking in profits!

According to her understanding, over the past few years, some shops had been losing money. In the span of one night, Bai Liujing had turned them all into profits. He must have dug deep into his own pockets and threw in a large sum into these accounts.

Wow, he really was willing.

Huang Yueli took the account books and deeds. She smiled lazily and slowly said, "The performance of these shops aren't too bad, it's been hard on you all these years Second Uncle."

"It's not too hard, not too hard at all! Our Bai Family have reached such a position this day, isn't it all due to Big Brother's contribution? I can only manage them well to live up to my brother's expectations!"

Chapter 317: The Master of the Manor (4)

Bai Liujing had said it all so naturally that even Huang Yueli had to admire his thick skin, it was thicker than the wall!

After he had finished speaking, Huang Yueli slowly said, "It looks like Second Uncle speaks with reason. Since that's the case, our Valiant Martial Manor was built on my Father's accomplishments, so it's natural for it to be passed to his next generation. Last time, my health wasn't too good and was always recuperating here, so have left the manor for Second Uncle to temporarily stay in. Well, I'm fine now, and have thought about going back to the main house to stay. Second Uncle, please go back and pack your stuff and prepare to move!"

"What?"

Bai Liujing had never expected that he had already took so many steps back and yet this wretched girl still did not give him any leeway and wanted to evict them!

Her Aunt could take it no longer and screamed out. "Bai Ruoli! Don't push your luck! Now that you are powerful and even have Prince Yu as your backer, but no matter what, he is still your blood related kin! He's your uncle! Moreover, your uncle's title of the Marquis of the Valiant Martial Manor was personally decreed by the Emperor! What qualifications do you have to drive us out?!"

"Just relying on my Father's name – Bai Liufeng!" Huang Yueli sneered.

"Second Aunt, make a guess, if I were to go to the Emperor and ask him to remove Uncle's Marquis position, do you think he'll do it?"

Bai Liujing could not help but grimace as cold sweat trickled down his forehead.

He had been reprimanded severely by the Emperor yesterday, and was scorned for not taking good care of his niece.

He had no doubt that if Huang Yueli really went to seek audience with the Emperor and requested for his position to be removed, the Emperor would listen to her!

Bai Liujing quickly interjected, "I'll move! I'll move!"

Huang Yueli raised an eyebrow. This uncle of hers is pretty discerning, if that's the case, she won't continue oppressing him. After all, if the other party doesn't fight back, it was pretty boring.

But alas, her Second Aunt shrieked out yet again.

"Bai Ruoli! You're really vicious and merciless! You are treating your uncle this way? Your Second Sister has already been harmed so horribly by you! She's still in jail and no one's allowed to visit! You do not care about family ties! People are watching! The Heavens are watching! You're so malicious, there will definitely be retribution!"

Huang Yueli's expression immediately darkened.

"What Aunt said is absolutely right! Li'er also believes in karma! Second Sister has today, was all because at the Peach Blossom Banquet, she let me drink a cup of wine. I think Second Aunt shouldn't be so forgetful and should know what was in that wine?"

Her Second Aunt trembled as she looked at her in fear and shock.

This wretched girl! She knows everything!

Bai Liujing saw that displeasure was written all over Bai Ruoli's face and he immediately turned and slapped his wife.

"Enough! You ignorant fool! How did you teach your daughter?! Still have the cheek to say it out? This situation Qi'er is in was all brought about by you! You only have yourself to blame! With Li'er's temperament, how could she not value family ties?"

Huang Yueli let out a mocking smile.

Although Bai Liujing had phrased it very nicely, but there was an underlying meaning that she was generous and lift her noble hand to help out Bai Ruoqi.

Unfortunately, Bai Ruoqi had repeatedly provoked her and had riled her up.

This matter...wouldn't be let off so easily!

Huang Yueli was too lazy to continue watching their drama and she raised her voice and shouted out: "Come, send Master back to his residence!"

Three days later.

Huang Yueli woke up early and Prince Yu's carriage was already waiting for her outside.

During these three days, she had been in seclusion as she prepared for the arduous journey that awaited at Dark Moon Forest.

Chapter 318: She is My Fiancée (1)

Although she had no doubts about Li Moying's strength, however, the place they were going to was after all, the treacherous Dark Moon Forest which was a marked out danger zone.

Moreover her own cultivation was only at the Qi Profound Realm, in other words, she was deadweight. If she were to completely rely on Li Moying for protection, that would be too unrealistic.

Therefore, she had to seize every moment she had and made lots of small gadgets, in case of emergency.

"Li'er, today...you look even more beautiful than usual."

When she went into the carriage, Li Moying slowly and deliberately looked at her from head to toe, he then touched his chin and smiled.

For convenience of movement, Huang Yueli had donned on a horse riding attire, wore a pair of boots and tied her up, exuding a heroic and upright aura.

Especially when she raised her chin up in defiance, his heart almost missed a beat.

Huang Yueli gave him a condescending glance, "What do you mean? Usually ...I'm not beautiful...?"

"Li'er...you're actually so unconfident? Or else, let me take a good look to see which part of you isn't beautiful?"

"Pa-" Huang Yueli smacked him his mouth, clearing away all the senseless words that were about to follow.

"You're not allowed to come so close to me! I woke up too early today, I'm only half-awake, let me sleep a bit more!"

She went over to the corner of the carriage and closed her eyes.

Li Moying chuckled as he shook his head, they haven't met for three days and this little fox had gained back her arrogance, but he found it endearing.

Anyway, from today, little fox was going to travel together with him and they would be in Dark Moon Forest for a few days. As time passes, the relationship between the two of them would surely make new progress.

Huang Yueli's eyes were closed but she could still feel the passionate gaze of Li Moying.

Truth be told, sometimes, she really did not know how to deal with him. She always felt her resistance to him becoming weaker and weaker... And her guilt towards Mu Chengying got more and more...

Li Moying did not disturb her again and took out a book to read.

In less than an hour, the carriage arrived at its destination.

South Yue was closest to the edge of the Dark Moon Forest. From the capital to the forest was only a distance of a mere three hundred miles. However, for the ordinary cultivator, it would take them several hours to reach.

They reached so fast because the carriage was pulled by Fifth Tier Magical Beast, the Flowing Cloud Colt and his carriage also had been imbued with the wind attribute.

The carriage came to a complete stop and Li Moying came out first and turned back to support Huang Yueli, but his hand was empty.

Huang Yueli did not wait and jumped off herself.

She looked up and took in this sight, the towering trees shot through the clouds, blocking out the sun. Deep and mysterious, a place filled with danger and a myriad of Magical Beasts.

No one knows for sure, how big Dark Moon Forest really was or how many Magical Beasts lived inside it.

This place was fraught with danger but it was also a treasure trove brimming with many opportunities.

A trace of nostalgia flashed through her eyes.

In her previous life, she had been to Dark Moon Forest many times, but most of the time, she came alone.

At the edge of Dark Moon Forest, there are hundreds of entrances and each was manned by an official from the South Sky Region.

The entrance that they stood in front of was considerably large and it was bustling with activity as carriages after carriages came and went.

Chapter 319: She is My Fiancée (2)

The place was packed with a diverse group of people, some were there to do business, some were there to commission people to help them, various mercenary groups and a lot of students from all the famed academies who were there on missions to gain experience.

It resembled a large marketplace.

Huang Yueli had yet to stand properly, when a middle aged man came up to her to sell his services.

“Little girl, you are also here to explore Dark Moon Forest? You are so young and yet you want to enter such a dangerous place? You can even lose your life in there! Did your academy give you a mission to hunt down a magical beast to gain experience? Well, don’t be afraid, you can hire our Four Seas Mercenary Group. We can help you beat that magical beast until it’s half dead and you can just finish it off! As for the price...”

Seeing that Huang Yueli looked like a rich household’s precious treasured daughter and with her young age, it should be her first time out. He deduced that she was here to gain some experience and should be stupid and rich, so why not come try to cheat some money?

Huang Yueli didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as such an absurd speech and she was just about to speak out when Li Moying’s hand rested on her shoulders and coldly said, “We don’t need it! Stop harassing my fiancée !”

Li Moying’s eyes glanced at the man from top to bottom and the man shuddered.

Just one look at his imposing mannerism....and he knew that this was a real master!

He quickly retreated back into the crowd and disappeared like a wisp of smoke.

Li Moying leaned over and hooked his arms round her waist as he brought her into his arms.

“Li’er, I took my eyes away for just a short while and you’ve been approached already. This really makes one worry! It’s very crowded here, I think it’s better to follow me closely and don’t run about on your own.”

He advised her ‘sincerely’ and tightened his arms around her.

Huang Yueli was so mad that her tongue was knotted and could only glare fiercely at him.

Li Moying smiled wickedly, his little fox was really adorable!

“Senior Brother!” You’re finally here, Fifth Brother and I have been waiting for such a ...long...who is she??”

Suddenly, a young girl's voice sounded from behind.

From the beginning, the voice was sweet and melodious, tinged with a hint of arrogance but the moment when she saw Huang Yueli, her voice had totally changed.

Both of them turned around and saw that several people stood behind them.

Among them, she had seen three of the men before, they were Li Moying's personal guards, Mo Yi, Mo Er and Mo San*.

These guards were ranked by their strength, so these should be the strongest three.

In addition, there was a young man and lady.

The man looked to be about seventeen years old and he was tall and handsome. His smile was like the sunshine and he looked like a good tempered youth. The girl beside him looked younger, at most sixteen years old. She was a rare beauty with a small and delicate pretty face. She was dressed in red and looked very haughty.

At this moment, the girl was staring at Huang Yueli in a rude manner and asked in an ill-mannered tone, "Senior Brother, who is she?!"

Li Moying frowned and his voice was frosty, "Little Ni, you'd better talk more politely! Li'r is my fiancée, your future Senior Sister-in-law!"

"What?! Fiancée??" The girl in red opened her eyes wide, unable to believe her ears.

Huang Yueli furrowed her brows, at first she had still wanted to clarify her relationship with Li Moying but when she saw that girl's haughty and arrogant demeanor, she kept quiet.

It looks like this girl had her eyes on Li Moying!

She didn't know why but her heart suddenly felt very stifled and she felt very unhappy!

Li Moying's hand slowly reached out and removed a petal that had been blown by the wind and was stuck onto Huang Yueli's hair pin.

*They are actually named in order with Mo being their surnames and the following would be in numbers accordingly, Mo Yi being number one, Mo Er number two, Mo San number three, Mo Si number four. Remember Mo Qi? He's number seven.

Chapter 320: She is My Fiancée (3)

"Stand closer, there are too many people over there...Don't let them squeeze you."

The first part of his sentence was directed at the girl in red however by the second half of it, he had already turned to Huang Yueli and pulled her closer to him.

The sunshine youth's mouth was frozen in an 'O' shape.

This person that was talking so gently and affectionately to the young lady beside him, was it really his usually aloof and cold Senior Brother ?!

There were hoards of girls who liked this Senior Brother of his, countless daughters of the large sects were all smitten by him but he did not even care to cast them a single glance. They were all ignored by him and he had even thought that perhaps this Senior Brother of his did not like girls!

But now... what was going on?

Where did this lovely young lady beside him pop up from? She doesn't look like she has even reached the marriageable age yet?

The mild reaction of the youth who was filled with curiosity hugely differed from the girl in red beside him.

"What? Senior Brother, you've got to be kidding! How could she be your fiancée? How could it be possible for you to attract butterflies outside? What about my sister?"

"What has this got to do with Fei'er?"

Li Moying's expression sank.

"But...But.... this girl is not worthy of you! She's still only in the first realm? Such a weak..."

"Shut up!"

This time, Li Moying was really angry and the tone of his words were extremely cold.

"Murong Ni, I'm warning you! Li'er is my fiancée, I would not let anyone besmirch her! You're usually stubborn and have your whims, but in front of your future sister-in-law, you'd better show some respect, otherwise, you can go back to the sect right now!"

"I...I..."

Murong Ni's eyes widened pitifully as drops of tears started rolling down.

Never had she expected that Li Moying would be so fierce and so cold towards her!

Although Senior Brother was usually cold, but the most he ever did was to ignore people, he had never been so fierce before! And he's so scary when he's fierce, from the bottom of her heart it gave rise to a chill.

The tall youth saw that the situation wasn't too good and he immediately tried to pacify things.

"Oh, Senior Brother, don't be angry, you know our Junior Sister's temper, she's used to saying things on impulse, there's no bad intentions!"

Li Moying's gaze remained cold.

Although was never a good tempered person, however he would never argue with an ignorant girl, but Murong Ni had besmirched his little fox whom he held so dear to his heart, this was touching his inverse scales!

The tall youth wiped off his cold sweat and stepped forward in front of Murong Ni.

He smiled brightly towards Huang Yueli and said, "Hello Sister-in-law, let me introduce myself, I am Luo Jiyun, amongst us fellow disciples, I'm the fifth, it's nice to meet you. That.... Junior Sister has been spoiled by our Master since young, she doesn't know how to speak well, please don't bother about it... but it's truly because we're all too surprised, Senior Brother has never paid attention to any ladies before and he suddenly brought you long today and even said that you're his fiancée!"

Huang Yueli replied indifferently, "Don't call me sister-in-law, we're not married yet!"

"Uh..."

Luo Jiyun was taken back by surprise and was once again tongue-tied.

Li Moying was really too lethal, whichever lady who managed to catch his glance would be smitten by him for a few days, inciting deep jealousy from the others.

If any of them were to be acknowledged as his fiancée, wouldn't she be happy until she fainted?

Who knew that this fiancée of his seems that she doesn't even put it to her heart...?
