Chapter 3581 Huang Yueli Comes Out Of Seclusion (1)

Saint Iniquitous Shadow watched from the side, with a faint smile in his eyes.

But at this moment, he felt a shock outside the secret realm.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow frowned, "It's really troublesome. If you want to break through the secret realm, it will still cause the vision of heaven and earth. I hope it won't be too eye-catching!"

Entering the Heart Profound Realm from the peak of the Heart Profound Realm, although there was no need to cross the Heavenly Tribulation, it will also cause drastic changes in the world.

Moreover, the higher the talent of the cultivator, the more obvious the phenomenon will be.

Judging from Huang Yueli's talent, the visions of heaven and earth she caused should be comparable to ordinary cultivators who advanced to the Dao Profound Realm.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow thought for a while, then moved Huang Yueli out of the underground secret room, let her lie on the grass in the secret realm, and at the same time, opened the entrance to the secret realm a little.

Immediately, the profound energy of heaven and earth gathered above the entrance of the secret realm rushed in frantically towards the secret realm.

The profound energy quickly filled the entire secret realm, and at the same time, quickly invaded Huang Yueli's body.

Huang Yueli frowned tightly, groaned and felt as if all the meridians in her body were about to explode!

Saint Iniquitous Shadow was also dumbfounded.

He had expected that there would be a lot of profound energy attracted by Huang Yueli's breakthrough, but there was so much! This simply went beyond his imagination!

Under the impact of such a large amount of energy, Huang Yueli's body suddenly trembled!

"This little girl...has finally advanced!" Saint Iniquitous Shadow showed a gratified smile on his face, "I just don't know, how long will it take her to absorb all the profound energy of the world?"

Huang Yueli closed her eyes tightly, folded her hands on her chest, and lay flat motionless.

She could feel that after entering the Heart Profound Realm, her comprehension of the entire fire attribute had entered a new level.

After the nine kinds of fire attribute conceptions were integrated, the law of fire was formed!

Let her not only be able to drive the fire attribute energy contained in the profound energy of heaven and earth, but at the same time, rely on her own comprehension and profound energy to create new fire attribute energy out of thin air!

This was a qualitative leap!

She managed to refine part of the evil qi in her body before, but during this advanced stage, Saint Iniquitous Shadow injected evil qi into her body, coupled with the influx of heaven and earth profound energy, causing her to fall into that kind of predicament of her meridians exploding again.

Although her meridians had widened a lot after entering the advanced stage, the feeling of splitting is now more serious than before.

As a last resort, Huang Yueli could only choose to continue cultivating the secret technique of Saint Iniquitous Shadow.

And when she closed her eyes, the golden characters in front of her eyes had also changed.

“Congratulations on entering the Heart Profound Realm. Now, you have reached the Little Realm in the first chapter of the “Iniquitous Shadow Secret Manual”. If you can continue to complete the second chapter and reach the Great Realm, you can leave the secret realm.”

The voice of Saint Iniquitous Shadow resounded in her mind again.

Why didn't you say this earlier? At the beginning, you said that as long as I have achieved success in cultivation, I can go out, and now I say that I have to cultivate to the level of the Great Realm!

However, she had no other choice but to force herself to continue to practice hard.

Chapter 3582 Huang Yueli Comes Out Of Seclusion (2)

Fortunately, Huang Yueli has already mastered the tricks to this set of techniques, and the speed of cultivating the next part was even faster than the first one.

After about ten more days, she controlled all the evil qi and profound energy of the world in her body.

However, being in control doesn't mean complete refinement. She just sealed them in the dantian and will release them little by little when cultivating in the future, which can achieve twice the result with half the effort.

Huang Yueli heaved a sigh of relief, and slowly opened her eyes.

She got up from the ground, moved her hands and feet, stretched her waist again, and couldn't help complaining: “Ahhhhh—! I can't stand it. I haven't moved for months! I feel that my whole body is going to turn into stone...”

Lying still all the time, stiffness was inevitable.

But Huang Yueli didn't have the aches and pains of ordinary people, because as she entered the Heart Profound Realm, her body got the essence again, the impurities were forced out and her whole body became lighter, and more laws of heaven and earth were integrated.

“Soon, it’s only less than two months! You can cultivate this set of “Iniquitous Shadow Secret Manual” to the level of mastery so quickly, even the deity did not expect it!”

I don’t know why, but she always feels that Saint Iniquitous Shadow looks a little different from when she first came here...

However, she couldn’t tell what was different.

Just as Huang Yueli was thinking, Saint Iniquitous Shadow spoke again, “How do you feel now? I checked the aura in your body. It should be completely stable. Is there any discomfort?”

Huang Yueli let her profound energy flow through her meridians for a whole week, then shook her head, “It’s nothing uncomfortable.” She paused, and then asked, “It’s just... so much evil qi is sealed in my body, probably How long will it take to fully refine?”

Saint Iniquitous Shadow said: “This is not sure. If you cultivate normally, these evil qi can increase your cultivation speed by five times. It will take about eight to ten years to fully refine them. However, in some Under special circumstances, it may also be released in large quantities!”

“Special circumstances?” Huang Yueli was puzzled.

However, Saint Iniquitous Shadow just smiled and didn’t explain much, “You will know when the time comes.”

What time is this, and I still have to play charades with her!

What about the good master who promised to love his disciples? If you don’t tell her such a crucial question, do you want to cheat her again?

Huang Yueli thought of one more thing, and hurriedly asked: “By the way, Master, will these evil qi stay in my dantian, will they be detected by the masters of the God Realm? Is there any way for me to cover up my identity as an evil cultivator...?”

Saint Iniquitous Shadow glanced at her, and said coolly: “As your Master, I never hide that I am an evil cultivator.”

“Uh...” Huang Yueli was at a loss for words for a moment.

Judging from the various legends circulating in the God Realm, Saint Iniquitous Shadow never hides himself. He has been righteous and evil all his life, but he has always stood at the pinnacle of the God Realm. No one dared to make irresponsible remarks to him.

Huang Yueli was naturally very envious and fascinated by the free and easy pride of Saint Iniquitous Shadow.

However, she also knows her own strength...

Chapter 3583 Huang Yueli Comes Out Of Seclusion (3)

Seeing the tangled expression on his new disciple's face, Saint Iniquitous Shadow snorted softly, "You are so talented, yet you are so cowardly? If the world knew, I'd lose face as your Master!"

Facing the cold expression of Saint Iniquitous Shadow, Huang Yueli was not afraid at all, she smiled with her lips curled up, and said, "Master, what kind of cultivation are you at? You are at the pinnacle in the entire God Realm! As for me, your poor disciple, I'm far behind! Besides, I'm already married and for the sake of my family, I must be more cautious in my actions, so I can no longer be as rash as I was when I was young!"

"You are still so little, what do you mean when you were young? Moreover, you're even married! Aren't you ashamed at all saying such things? Hmph! Let me tell you, a girl like you in the God Realm only knows how to cultivate hard. No one is like you who would shamefully marry yourself out!"

Huang Yueli said with a smile: "What do I have to be ashamed of? My husband can save my life with the technique of splitting the soul, he is an amazing man just like Master!"

Huang Yueli said this very well. She not only praised her husband, but also flattered Saint Iniquitous Shadow.

Although Saint Iniquitous Shadow knew that she did it on purpose, but, I have to say, these words sounded very useful.

He couldn't help showing a bit of complacency on his face, "Well... speaking of it, your husband can withstand the pain of the splitting the soul, and the strength of the soul is indeed the only one I have ever seen in my life that I can nod my head with approval. Besides, to make a genius like you fall in love with him, I guess the talent is not bad..."

Huang Yueli hurriedly said: "My husband is also a god-level genius! His talent is only higher than mine!"

"He's also a god-level genius?" Saint Iniquitous Shadow was stunned for a moment, "How is it possible? It is already very good to have one god-level genius in 10,000 years, but two at the same time... Such a thing is even more rare. It may not happen once every ten thousand years! Not to mention, you are still... still husband and wife!"

"I also know that this is rare, but the fact is like this." Huang Yueli said with pride.

"Impossible! How could such a thing happen!"

He frowned, apparently not believing it very much, but seeing Huang Yueli's swearing, he couldn't help but accept this fact.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow said: "You don't have to worry, only a person whose cultivation level is higher than me can see the evil qi in your body. When your Master's strength was at its peak, it was at the sixth level of the Life Profound Realm. Over the past few tens of thousands of years, God-level talents have been withering, and there should be no one with a higher cultivation than me."

Only then did Huang Yueli feel relieved.

She thought for a while, and then said: "Master, since I have cultivated the "Iniquitous Shadow Secret Manual" to the Great Realm according to your request, then I...uh, I will rush to Cloudy Qilin Continent to save my husband as soon as possible. "

Hearing this, Saint Iniquitous Shadow immediately frowned, "What? You are leaving so soon? I still have a lot of skills and profound skills, and I plan to pass them on to you slowly! No, you have to stay here for at least two years! "

"Two years?" Huang Yueli's eyes widened, and she immediately shook her head, "No, no! This is definitely not possible! My husband has absorbed more evil qi into his body than I have absorbed. God knows what kind of pain he is enduring now. It will be life-threatening! I must rush to teach him this set of skills!"

Saint Iniquitous Shadow snorted coldly: "Didn't you say that he is also a god-level genius?"

Chapter 3584 Huang Yueli Comes Out Of Seclusion (4)

"For a god-level genius, although such an impact is severe, it is still bearable. He can't die within a few years, it's just that he'll be a bit uncomfortable. It doesn't matter much."

Huang Yueli said in a depressed tone: "Master, then... you can't say that! A few years of coma will also affect his cultivation! No, I have to leave here! Besides, I plan to participate in the God Realm Tournament!"

"God Realm Tournament?"

Huang Yueli nodded, "You just said that it took me less than two months to cultivate, so the God Realm Tournament will start in about one month's time."

Hearing this, Saint Iniquitous Shadow obviously hesitated.

He pondered for a while, then said: "You said that you have been ascended for less than a year, so you must have very little experience in fighting against geniuses from the God Realm. The God Realm Tournament will help you a lot, so you really have to go..."

He looked at Huang Yueli, "Since that's the case, then you should go to the God Realm Tournament first. However, once the God Realm Tournament is over, you must return to the secret realm to accept the rest of the inheritance."

Of course Huang Yueli had no objection to this condition, she hurriedly nodded in agreement.

"By the way, there is one more thing..."

"What's the matter? Master, just say it!"

"You want to use the "Iniquitous Shadow Secret Manual" to save your husband, of course it is not impossible, but he must also worship under my sect and become my disciple, otherwise, it is impossible for me to pass on the unique cultivation method to the outside world." Saint Iniquitous Shadow said solemnly.

"Can you guarantee it?"

"I can guarantee it!"

Taking Li Moying's manner of loving his wife as his life into consideration, not to mention Huang Yueli had already acknowledged Iniquitous Shadow Saint as her Master so it was definitely impossible for him to have any objections.

Besides, in the past, Li Moying was very envious of her Senior Brothers and Sisters studying arts together as childhood sweethearts. Now, if he knows that he can be her Senior Brother, he might even be very happy!

"With your words, I feel at ease as a Master."

Huang Yueli couldn't wait to go to Cloudy Qilin Continent to save people. As soon as she heard that Saint Iniquitous Shadow was relieved, she wanted to leave quickly.

Unexpectedly, Saint Iniquitous Shadow stopped her again.

"Wait, if you want to save your husband, using the "Iniquitous Shadow Secret Manual" is not the best way, you should take this manual along as well!"

"Master, you actually have a better technique, why didn't you tell me earlier?" Huang Yueli was very happy when she heard that, and took the thin booklet with her hand.

She opened it casually and flipped through it. Her eyes flickered over the pages, and she was taken aback for a moment.

"This... This is a dual cultivation technique!!"

This ghost girl was very clever. She acted with ease in everything she did before, not at all like she should be at her age, which made him, her Master, feel unfulfilling.

Now, he finally got to see her embarrassing side!

He explained slowly: "Yes, this is indeed a dual-cultivation method. But, don't underestimate it! Back then, my wife and I were not as talented as you, and it was only by cultivating this set of techniques that we could both achieve our destiny and reach the Life Profound Realm! However, this has been improved by me several times, and not just anyone can practice it."

Chapter 3585 Huang Yueli Comes Out Of Seclusion (5)

Seeing that Huang Yueli was puzzled, he further explained: "This dual cultivation secret manual was rewritten after I performed the soul splitting technique and became an evil cultivator. If you want to practice it, you must meet two conditions."

“First, both men and women must have talents above the heaven level. Second, both of them must be evil cultivators, with enough evil qi in their bodies.”

Huang Yueli was stunned for a moment, and after thinking about it carefully, she found that these two conditions seemed simple, but they were actually very harsh.

Because, the cultivators who can reach the talent above the heaven level are basically super-first-class geniuses that the major forces have tried their best to cultivate. No matter how unsatisfactory they are, they cannot become evil cultivators, let alone both husband and wife are evil cultivators.

After all, in the God Realm, evil cultivators are still very unpopular.

Most of the cultivators who become evil cultivators have a miserable history behind them.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow paused for a moment, and continued: “Meeting those two conditions is just a matter of successful double cultivation, but to achieve the best results, there is another condition, and this condition can only be achieved by you and your husband!”

Huang Yueli was startled, and she had already thought of something, “Could it be... the art of splitting soul?”

Saint Iniquitous Shadow nodded, “You are indeed very smart, yes, it is the art of splitting the soul! The two of you used to share the same soul, although your husband is now one, but the memories, feelings, and ideas that have been shared between you will not disappear, and will still remain in your body. Once you perform this dual cultivation method, these ties will be awakened to help you refine the evil qi in your body.”

“Didn’t you ask me just now, under what circumstances, the evil qi in your body will be released in large quantities, and the refining speed will be doubled? This is one of those situations!”

After hearing this explanation, Huang Yueli was overjoyed. She looked down at this double cultivation secret manual, and she didn’t hate it so much anymore.

No matter what, it’s still... cultivation is the most important thing, right?

It’s definitely not that she wants to be like that with Li Moying...

She is not as full of impure thoughts as Li Moying!

However, she still didn’t dare to read more, but carefully put away the secret manual, then bowed her hands to Saint Iniquitous Shadow, “Thank you, Master, for your guidance.”

Saint Iniquitous Shadow glanced at her, “However, you should be more careful when you practice. The evil qi in your body is released at the same time, which may attract the attention of others. If your identities as evil cultivators are exposed, don’t blame me and say that I didn’t warn you!”

Speaking of this, she thought of one more thing, and asked cautiously: “By the way, Master, besides... other than dual cultivation, what else would cause my evil qi to be released? Please tell me as well!”

Saint Iniquitous Shadow said: "There is another situation, that is, the profound energy in your body is exhausted and you are attacked by foreign enemies. At this time, the evil qi will be released automatically to help you take the damage. However, in this way, you will really It's very dangerous! Don't let this happen!"

Huang Yueli shuddered all over.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow was right.

If she really waited until her profound energy was exhausted and she had to release the evil qi in her body, then for her, she must have reached a desperate situation.

Without the evil qi, she might have died on the spot.

With evil qi, even if she didn't die at the time, there would be endless troubles waiting for her.

Chapter 3586 Interests Of the God Clans (1)

Saint Iniquitous Shadow explained a few more words before raising his hand and allowing her to leave.

Huang Yueli was determined to return home, and she had no time to think about other things. When she saw him let her go, she immediately left without looking back.

Saint Iniquitous Shadow stood in place, watching Huang Yueli's petite figure disappear at the entrance, his eyebrows frowned slightly.

If Huang Yueli had been more careful just now, she would have found that the figure of Saint Iniquitous Shadow seemed a little more transparent than before...

"I hope you can keep your promise and return to the secret realm immediately after the God Realm Tournament, otherwise..."

After Huang Yueli left the secret realm, she did not return to Forest Shade Town immediately, but first carefully searched the surroundings, for fear that there might be any ambush.

However, there was not even a living person around the entrance of the secret realm.

Li Tianyi and the others did not stay where they were. Huang Yueli speculated that they should have been found by the people of the Cloudy Qilin Clan and brought them back.

Even the bodies of the five black robed men who were killed by Li Moying and her at that time were nowhere to be found now.

"This is weird. The corpse can't grow legs, so can it still run away? Did the people from the Cloudy Qilin Clan sprinkle corpse powder, or were they dragged back by the Dark Lord's people for burial?"

At least now that no one is here to monitor her, they probably thought she was dead. This was just right, and it will not affect her actions.

Huang Yueli returned to Forest Shade Town, stayed for one night, and set off the next day, intending to go directly to Cloudy Qilin Continent to save Li Moying.

Since there was no air ship, it took several days to get back from Forest Shade Town to the nearest White Tiger Continent.

After entering a big town, things will be much easier. She can use the teleportation array to travel instead.

Huang Yueli was still a low-level Spiritual Armament Master, and she didn't have time to go to Sky Gem Glass Chamber to change for a higher-level badge. However, being a low-level Spiritual Armament Master was enough for her to use the teleportation arrays in major towns.

Moreover, she has a lot of spirit jade on her body now, and she can't spend it all. Even if she encounters some soldiers who don't cooperate very well, she could use money to solve the problem.

Just like that, about ten days later, she was already standing on the ground of Arcane City, the main city of Cloudy Qilin Continent.

As soon as she entered Arcane City, she felt something was wrong with the atmosphere.

There were a lot of soldiers coming and going on the street, and the passers-by on the road were all cautious, not even daring to speak loudly.

Huang Yueli knew that there was a problem, moreover, this problem was probably related to Li Moying.

After thinking about it for a while, she decided to use the simplest method – go to the teahouse and ask the waiter.

However, this time, when she found an empty seat in the teahouse and sat down, before she had time to find someone, she heard the discussions of other guests around her.

Of course, these guests didn't dare to speak too loudly, but Huang Yueli's spiritual sense is very strong, as long as she listens carefully, she can still hear clearly.

"This time we have a complete falling out with the members of the Holy Phoenix Clan. I don't know if we will start a war?" A man dressed in green asked in a low voice.

"The Holy Phoenix Clan dares to start a war with us? How dare they have such courage? Don't forget, the God Clan Agreement was passed by the Twelve Great God Clans. Boycott it together!" The middle-aged man next to him said disapprovingly.

The man dressed in green said: "I also know this, but now it seems that it is not the Holy Phoenix Clan who wants to go to war, but the Cloudy Qilin Clan who can't bear it! Think about it, I heard that the Young Master's injury has not improved, the clan has searched for famous doctors but nothing worked, the Holy Phoenix Clan refused to hand over the antidote, and they also refused to hand over Huang Sanbai. If the Young Master is really... ahem, then the Patriarch and the others can bear this breath ?”

“Silence!”

Upon hearing the man dressed in green’s words, the middle-aged man’s face changed abruptly, and he stopped him, while looking around nervously.

“You dare to spout such nonsense! Young Master is a man of good fortune, so nothing will happen! There are so many famous doctors in the God Realm, there must be someone who can cure the Young Master well!”

The man dressed in green also realised that he had said the wrong thing, and coughed twice in embarrassment, “Ahem, I also know that a god-level genius like the Young Master has very good luck, and he will definitely turn evil into good fortune. But ...This Holy Phoenix Clan is too shameless! Not only does it deny it, but on the contrary, it bites us back, saying that our Cloudy Qilin Clan killed the god-level genius of their Sacred Phoenix Clan? Isn’t this deliberately confusing right and wrong?”

The middle-aged man sighed, “Even if we all know that this matter cannot be true, the other God Clan don’t know who we are and who is right! In this lawsuit, it is impossible to tell right from wrong in a short period of time. .”

The man dressed in green became anxious, “Then what should we do? I heard that the Young Master’s injury can no longer be delayed any longer! Even if his life is not in danger, but...the God Realm Tournament will start soon, right?”

“This is the problem! Think about it, although the Patriarch has reported this matter to the headquarters of the Allied Armies, don’t say who is right and who is wrong in this matter now, even if the evidence is clear, other God Clan will deliberately delay time, at least It will be delayed until the end of the God Realm Tournament in the God Realm, without such a competitor as the Young Master, wouldn’t the geniuses of each clan have more opportunities?”

The man dressed in green’s face changed, “This...they are all dignified ancient gods, how could they act like this?”

“What is this?” The middle-aged man said wryly, “Do you think that the gods are saints? Isn’t it the same as fighting for power and profit? If it is delayed until the end of the God Realm Tournament, it is considered a noble hand by everyone. If someone’s mind is darker, maybe In the end, it will be judged that it is more reasonable to say that it is the Holy Phoenix Clan, so take this opportunity to get rid of the Young Master!”

However, he also recalled, “You are right, with the Young Master as a god-level genius, the geniuses of the major god races have been suppressed. In the future, the Young Master will advance to the Life Profound Realm, and it is more likely that other God Clans can’t lift their heads. It’s in everyone’s interest to get rid of him before he grows up...”

“You finally got the hang of it, kid! This matter... But it’s a tacit understanding! Moreover, there is no need for other God Clans to do it themselves, the Holy Phoenix has already done the dirtiest and most tiring work, and even gave it to someone who is not very reliable. There is no proof, but there is some truth to it. Others just need to push the boat along with the flow, and they can do it without any responsibility, so why not do it?”

The middle-aged man is obviously a well-informed person, and he has a thorough understanding of the interests of the major god races.

It was the first time for the man dressed in green to hear about these sinister intentions, and he was so shocked that he couldn’t speak.

Based on these words, she quickly analysed the crisis Li Moying was in now.

Obviously, in order to save Li Moying, the Cloudy Qilin Clan and the Holy Phoenix Clan had already gone through negotiations, but the result was an obvious failure. The Holy Phoenix Clan also said that the Cloudy Qilin Clan attacked their god-level genius first. ...

These words were obviously made up by Huang Sanbai.

She really had to applaud this old man to come up with such a vicious lie. Sure enough, this old man was insidious enough.

Now, the Cloudy Qilin Clan should have reported this inexplicable case to the Allied Forces to wait for the Twelve Great God Clans to make a joint decision. However, the other God Clans have their own thoughts, so it is impossible to make a fair judgement.

To put it bluntly, there are far more people who want Li Moying to die than those who want him to live...

She stood up suddenly, picked up the teapot on the table, and walked to the table of the middle-aged man and the man dressed in green.

“You two... If you don’t mind, let’s share a table?”

The two of them were getting together, discussing the most sensitive topic in low voices, when they suddenly heard a strange voice next to them, and they were all startled.

When he looked up, he found that it was an unremarkable young man, he immediately frowned.

“Who are you? We’re not interested in sharing a table with others! There are a lot of seats here, you just pick one.”

Huang Yueli didn't take their hostility seriously, and said directly: "Just now, I listened to the two analyses of the attitudes of the major God Clan towards the injury of the Young Master of the Cloudy Qilin Clan. The two really have extraordinary insight, which makes Li very impressed!"

The faces of both of them changed.

As a subordinate force of the Cloudy Qilin Clan, they can be said to be treasonous when they say these words!

I thought they were sitting in the corner, their voices were so soft that they wouldn't be heard, but I didn't expect that this young man in front of me could actually hear them?

Huang Yueli smiled slightly and said: "You two don't need to be nervous, I have no other intentions. In fact, I just came from Empyrean Fox Continent just because I heard about the serious injury of the noble Young Master. I am a doctor myself, although he is not proficient in academic skills, he can be regarded as proficient in poison arts, so he came here specially to see Young Master Li."

After hearing this, the two of them relaxed a little.

"You said, you want to detoxify the Young Master? Just you? Ask a blunt question, how old are you? How many years have you studied medicine? Are you a Spirit Alchemist? The Young Master's injury is too serious, but there is nothing to do?"

Huang Yueli curled her lips slightly, with an inscrutable look.

"This...don't bother your Excellency. Whether it can be cured or not will be known in due time. However, in order to be able to prepare before seeing the doctor, I still have a few questions I want to ask you. You just need to tell me what happened recently, then... this pot of tea is on me!"

As Huang Yueli said, she put down the teapot in her hand.

When the two of them took a closer look, they both showed surprise.

The pot of tea in Huang Yueli's hand was the most expensive kind in Arcane City. A pot costs thousands of low-grade spirit jades. For ordinary cultivators, it was definitely a huge sum of money that could not be earned in a lifetime.

The middle-aged man looked at her in surprise, "I didn't expect you to be so rich! It seems that you said that you have good medical skills, which is true! Well, then you can ask if you want, but I can only tell you what happened in the Cloudy Qilin Clan and I don't know much about it."

Huang Yueli said slowly: "It's alright, I just want to know..."

She asked a few more questions about Li Moying's situation after returning to Cloudy Qilin Continent, as well as the negotiation between the Cloudy Qilin Clan and the Holy Phoenix Clan. Then, she asked about Li Moying's current situation.

The middle-aged man was still able to answer the questions fluently at first, but when he heard this, he seemed hesitant.

“This... This is the secret of the Cloudy Qilin Clan, and I don’t know it! However, the Young Master’s injury must not heal so quickly. The rewards offered by the clan to famous doctors from all walks of life are multiplying every day. If you really believe in your ability, you can try it.”

Huang Yueli had already received the news she wanted, so she nodded, “That’s it, thank you both!”

“This... What is this kid’s background? He is too rich! This piece of spirit jade, cut up, can be worth hundreds of dollars! Just give it to us? No one in Arcane City doesn’t know what we are talking about. what?”

Amethyst Paramount Palace was located in the centre of Arcane City. The entire main city was ring-shaped and built around this Palace.

Huang Yueli found the east gate. There were a large number of soldiers at the gate with solemn expressions, swords in hand, and they were all at the late stage of the Dream Profound Realm, and they were all imposing.

Huang Yueli walked straight over and was stopped immediately.

“Who is coming? This is the important place of the Cloudy Qilin Clan. Idlers are not allowed to enter!”

Huang Yueli explained: “I’m your Young Master Li Moying’s friend when he was training outside. After we parted, I heard that he was seriously injured and couldn’t be cured for a long time. I was worried, so I came here to visit him.”

She didn’t say that she was a doctor at all.

Those words were no problem to fool a few ordinary cultivators, but facing many masters of the Cloudy Qilin Clan, it will be revealed in a matter of minutes.

She doesn’t have much attainment in medical skills, and she doesn’t have the confidence to refine pills at all.

“Young master’s friend?” The leading captain sized up Huang Yueli and frowned slightly, “What evidence do you have?”

Seeing that this kid is dressed in ordinary clothes and his cultivation level was not high, he really doesn’t know how he can become friends with their superior Young Master?

Seeing that the other party didn't believe it, Huang Yueli didn't explain, but just took out a purple jade pendant from her bosom.

"This is the token your Young Master gave me, saying that if you need something, you can go to the Cloudy Qilin Clan to find him."

This token looks ordinary, but it was actually Li Moying's identity mark, and it was the most important thing for the people of the Cloudy Qilin Clan.

The soldiers turned pale with shock when they saw it.

The Young Master even gave away such an important thing, this was a fateful friendship!

The captain immediately became respectful, "Young Master, my subordinate was rude just now, please..."

At this moment, Huang Yueli suddenly heard a scolding sound from behind: "Wait! No one is allowed to let him in!"

Chapter 3590 What kind of strength is this? (1)

As soon as Huang Yueli turned her head, she saw Li Leyun just got off a carriage, leading a group of maidservants and walking towards him.

She narrowed her eyes slightly, realising that she had come by such an unlucky time.

Li Leyun walked in front of her, showing a cold smile, "It's you! Stop pretending, I know it must be you! Unexpectedly, you didn't die!"

After hearing the words, Huang Yueli subconsciously touched the disguise on her face.

When she went out, she changed her appearance a little bit, which was slightly different from her previous disguise in Medial Arch City.

However, it was more difficult to change things like height, fat and thin, and she came to find Li Moying in a hurry, so she didn't make too many changes. For people who have met her, it was not particularly difficult to recognize her.

In addition, she took out Li Moying's identity jade token just now, and it was impossible to give this thing away easily.

Li Leyun also knew that Li Moying didn't have any friends when he went out. Apart from the guards, there was only his beloved little wife by his side, so it was not surprising that she was guessed right away.

Huang Yueli quickly figured out the key point and regained her composure.

"Young Miss Li, I've let you down. Although you racked your brains to kill me, unfortunately, I don't die that easily!"

When Li Leyun called to stop Huang Yueli, she only had some vague guesses. After seeing clearly Li Moying's identity jade token in her hand, she realised that she had guessed correctly.

For a moment, she was extremely flustered!

She saw with her own eyes that Huang Yueli was wrapped in a cloud of black air, and then fell into a strange teleportation array.

Li Moying hadn't woken up after absorbing the black energy, so Li Leyun tacitly agreed that Huang Yueli didn't know where she died.

But I don't know, a month later, Li Moying is still in a coma, but this dead girl doesn't know why, not only didn't die, but also appeared here intact...

"Young Miss, you... know this Young Master? He... is he really the Young Master's friend?"

The captain guarding the gate and the two confronted each other tit for tat. They didn't know what to do for a while, so they could only ask cautiously.

Huang Yueli came back to her senses, and hurriedly said: "Of course, Moying and I..."

"Of course not! How could he be Brother Moying's friend!" Huang Yueli had just started when she was interrupted by Li Leyun.

Li Leyun said unceremoniously: "This person is not only not a friend of Brother Moying, but also murdered Brother Moying time and time again. He is a perfidious villain! You must not let him in!"

"What??" The guards all changed their expressions in shock.

Huang Yueli's complexion also changed, "Li Leyun! Do you know what you are talking about? It doesn't matter if you are dissatisfied with me, but I am here this time to save Moying's life! Don't you admire him? Don't you? Want to kill him for your own selfish desire? You are crazy! Take me to see Li Moying!"

Li Leyun looked at her and sneered: "Do you think I'm a fool? Just rely on you? Your spiritual armament skills are indeed very superb, but you don't know any healing at all! You just want to stick to Brother Moying and you're just making an excuse, don't think I don't know!"

Huang Yueli frowned, "Li Leyun, let me tell you again, I have a way to save my husband's life, this is not a joke, let me in!"
