Chapter 361: Escape (1)

In the vast sky above, there was a huge cloud of flying magical beasts! Their body resembled a bear with a thick coat of fur, however, they each had a black pair of delicate wings like a cicada's. With their wings spread out, each wingspan was at least forty metres long!

What was more scary was that this type of magical beast had a blood red pair of eyes and a long creepy tongue that was equally red. Just one look at this ghastly beast would make all hair stand on one's back.

"Tha..tha...that's..."

"Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats!"

Although Huang Yueli could calmly say the name out, however, in her heart she felt tremendous pressure.

Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats...was also a Fifth Tiered Magical Beast but they were extremely dangerous. Even for cultivators in the seventh realm, they may not be able to handle them all and would try to avoid them at all costs.

Generally, the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats inhabited in caves, but they lived in colonies and each cave had at least a few thousands of them!

As long as any one of them is provoked, the entire cave of them would awaken and they would not stop but continue to seek more companions as they chased down and pursues the prey relentlessly.

However, the most frightening thing about these magical beasts was their means of hunting. After biting down on the prey, they would suck out all blood immediately, leaving just an empty and dried corpse.

Facing them now was exactly a large cloud of these blood sucking beasts!

Mo Yi, Mo Er and Luo Jiyun had already tried their best and killed a few Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats but there were simply too many of them! The entire sky was blotted out by them in one massive black cloud.

The few of them fought and tried to pave a path for retreat as they tried to rush back into the forest.

Huang Yueli hatefully spat out under her breath "Damn Murong Ni!" before she rushed out.

When she was about a mile away from them, she raised her right hand and three balls of thunder flame shot out in the direction of the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

The three balls of thunder flame exploded in a series of continuous explosion, the destructive force was massive as the sky was lit ablaze as dozens of Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats caught fire. They screeched and fell onto the ground as burning balls of fire.

“This Thunder Flame Ball of mine is worth lots of money, this time I’ve used three in succession. Hmph! Murong Ni, be prepared to go bankrupt!” Huang Yueli looked looked afar at the burning ground and her heart ached.

Not only were these Thunder Flame Balls fifth tiered, but the reason behind its powerful explosive force was that these were imbued with True Phoenix Flame!

If there to be auctioned out, one Thunder Flame Ball could easily fetch ten thousand low grade spirit stones!

Thanks to this short break, Mo Yi and the rest could finally catch their breaths as they protected Murong Ni and made a mad dash for safety.

Huang Yueli shouted out loud, “Don’t go into the forest! Head there instead!”

She was pointing towards a bare mountain cave in the distance and immediately ran towards it!

Things were too sudden and she had no time to explain.

Normally, being chased by a massive cloud of flying magical beasts, people’s first reaction would be to seek shelter from the forest. With the foliage and towering trees to shield them from the prying eyes above, they would feel that they would have a large chance to escape and that would be the safest bet.

Well, for normal flying magical beasts – yes. However, this would be the opposite for the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats.

That was because, they did not rely on their sight to hunt down their prey. They actually relied on echolocation – using ultrasounds to track and locate their prey.

Most people did not know this fact and once they’ve reached the forest, the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats are not the least bit affected by the change. However, it was the humans that can’t see the impending danger and the situation outside. Very quickly, they would fall prey to a sneak attack.

What’s worse, they didn’t even know how they died!

Chapter 362: Escape (2)

Fortunately, Mo Yi and the rest did not hesitate. When they saw Huang Yueli had taken down quite a few Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats when she attacked, they had immediately followed her and headed in the direction of the cave!

All of their cultivation had exceeded her by quite a large margin, hence after running for awhile, they had already overtaken her.

Mo Yi and Mo Er were worried that the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats may catch up to her...in the end, they each both grabbed one arm on each side and pulled her along.

As Huang Yueli ran along begrudgingly, her heart was stifled with anger.

Her low cultivation.... was really a huge problem! In the past, it was always her who had to drag people along, where did she ever give others a chance to drag her?

This Flame Spirit Physique was also too infuriating! Although its supposedly an innate physique gifted by the heavens, however the conditions to advance are really too harsh!

The speed of the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats were extremely fast, adding on to the fact that they were flying magical beasts. With a flap of its wings, it set off a huge gale.

As the few of them ran with all their might, they ran past the mountain cave that she had pointed out earlier. However, the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats were still pursuing them relentlessly and it seemed like they had even increased in numbers.

Looking back, all one could see was one huge mass of creepy black wings, it really made one's flesh crawl.

"What to do? We can't shake them off!"

"Damn it! This is not normal! Usually if we leave their area of activity, they wouldn't continue in pursuit!"

Huang Yueli furrowed her brows deeply and asked, "Murong Ni! What the hell did you do just now? Why would you attract such a large cloud of Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats?"

By now, Murong Ni had already ran until she could no longer feel her legs yet no one had taken the initiative to help her and pull her along. In order not to lag behind, she had already mustered all her strength to flee. At this moment, she didn't even have strength to talk properly.

"I... cough cough ..I...don't know...when... when I was near the vein... accidentally...accidentally stepped on... a small blood bat... it looked super scary...even its whole body was dyed red like blood... I...I was...too scared..and..killed it... who knows..after it died...so many..so many...bats started chasing me from behind...I ran..and ran.."

"Damn! Why don't you just change your gender with your Fifth Brother?" Huang Yueli could not help but ridicule.

As a man, even at the verge of death, Luo Jiyun did not dare to kill. However, Murong Ni whose appearance was that of a beautiful young lady, did not even hesitate to kill an innocent little bat for no reason!

Luo Jiyun who was innocently dragged in could only laugh bitterly as he asked, "Sister-in-law, I did not provoke you...can you quickly tell us what should we do now?"

She was obviously the one with the lowest cultivation among them all, yet after spending the past few days together, they had already deemed her to be the second most important person in the team.

Now that Li Moying was not here, when met with danger, the first thing that came to their minds was to seek her opinion.

Huang Yueli replied, "After hearing Murong Ni's story, the one that she had killed should be the young of the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat King. Only the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat King and its descendants have a blood red body. So it looks like it won't be easy to shake off these Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats, our only option left is to fight!"

"Fi..Fi...Fight?! How can we fight?! There's so few of us, look there! It's a massive cloud of them there! Or Sister-in-law, are you saying that you have a hundred of those Thunder Flame Balls?"

Huang Yueli could not help but glared at him, "Even if I have a hundred of them, I wouldn't waste them on saving someone who has sought death themselves!"

"You....!"

Murong Ni was furious, she was so angry that she wanted to refute but she couldn't.

Huang Yueli looked at the surrounding terrain when her eyes suddenly lit up. "I've got it! Let's go over there!" She pointed out in a direction.

Chapter 363: Searching for an Escape Path (1)

Just three miles ahead, two mountains stood side by side.

The two mountains were very close to each other, leaving only a narrow gap in the middle, enough only for two or three people to pass through.

This was the legendary – Heaven's Line!

The few of them saw that from afar and immediately understood Huang Yueli's intention as a spark of hope ignited in their hearts.

With this spurring them on, everyone's legs felt lighter as they sped up and rushed into the gap.

Because the gap was very narrow and the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat's wings were very wide, only one to two blood bats could pass through this narrow passage at one time. This had eased the pressure off their backs as the number of Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats had significantly been reduced.

Towards the onslaught of such a small scale attack, with the strength of several cultivators of the fifth realm, one person was sufficient as they took turns to cope with the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats.

Finally, everyone could heave a sigh of relief as they bent down and gasped for their breaths.

"Da..Damn...I thought we were done for! I ...don't want to end up a shrivelled up corpse... huuuuuu" Luo Jiyun cringed when he thought back on the dried corpse along the way and he started gagging.

Huang Yueli couldn't help but laugh, "Junior Brother Luo, your courage is too small! You should learn more from that Junior Sister of yours!"

"That's called recklessness! There's no way I'm learning from her, if I want to learn, I'd rather learn from you Sister-in-law. You are courageous and have a lot of skills! You are a heroine! No wonder you even managed to melt that huge iceberg Senior Brother of mine!"

In just a short span of ten days, Luo Jiyun had already been thoroughly filled with respect towards Huang Yueli.

From the bottom of his heart, he really respected and admired this future sister-in-law of his, there was even a shred of envy hidden towards Li Moying.

Not only was Senior Brother's ability astounding, even his luck was heaven defying! To have met such an amazing girl like sister-in-law... just how did he even get to meet her?

When Murong Ni heard his words, her heart was uncomfortable but she also knew that she herself was to blame for this near catastrophe. She did not dare utter a word and only sat with her head hung low in a stupor.

Huang Yueli also had no time to take care of such an unruly little lady with a princess syndrome.

She turned her head to take a look and saw that Mo Yi was still wielding his long sword and was diligently slashing away at the approaching Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats.

No matter how many corpses of the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat had piled up before them, the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat seemed to not fear them as they continued to rush at them in a mad frenzy. The Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat rushed to squeeze into the tiny gap as they all had on sinister glares that clearly indicated that all they had on their mind was to suck their blood dry!

Huang Yueli stood up and said, "The way things are going now is also not a long term solution. There are a few thousands of these Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats, we can't continue on like this. This would only be an endless slaughter and we won't even know when they would retreat! There's also no way we can stay tens of days in here."

"What should we do then?"

She replied, "I would like to trouble three Mo Big Brothers to hold the fort here while Luo Jiyun and I go explore where this path leads to. If we can find an exit, then we would be able to escape safely."

She had only comforted the few men and didn't bother about Murong Ni.

Murong Ni staggered as she stood up with wobbly legs as she took the initiative and said, "I..I will also follow you!"

Not because she was not able to contribute much to the small team but because she wanted to follow Luo Jiyun.

She could clearly see that in this team, only Luo Jiyun was concerned about her life and death. Those three guards of Senior Brother's orders were only to 'protect the Third Miss'! That didn't include her at all!

Huang Yueli could see her intentions and gave her a meaningful smile and did not say anything further as she walked ahead.

Chapter 364: Searching for an Escape Path (2)

The three of them trudged along the narrow passage as they ventured further and further in.

At the beginning, there was still some light that had shone down from the peak, however, the deeper they went, the dimmer it became. The peaks here were much higher from where they entered and the sunlight could no longer reach the far depths of this narrow gap. As it got darker and darker, the path could no longer be seen clearly.

Luo Jiyun's complexion paled, "Sister-in-law, don't tell me that this path leads to a dead end? Moreover, it's really dark in here, the sunlight isn't able to reach here, if we continue to tread down this path, will there be any problems?"

With the snap of her fingers, a flame appeared at her finger tip.

Huang Yueli flicked it in the air and the flame flew out in an arc and suddenly eight similar sized flames danced in the air.

With another deft movement of her fingers, these eight flames flew to the front on their own and spread out on each side of the mountain wall, illuminating the entire path as if it was day.

Luo Jiyun looked dazedly when he saw what just unfolded before his eyes. This was a very difficult feat to achieve! To even be able to control each flame's size, brightness and each was identical, this could only be done by a cultivator of at least the second realm.

However, Huang Yueli was only of the first realm, which means that... her fire attribute talent was at an absolutely terrifying level!

Being a seventh grade talent of the gold attribute himself, he still felt that in terms of harmony between himself and his attribute was far lacking compared to hers!

Even Murong Ni who saw the scene before her was shocked, it looked like...this country bumpkin... her talent wasn't as bad as she had thought!

"Huang Yueli replied, "Let's head in further for a bit, I have this feeling that this is not a dead end because there's still wind blowing through, so there should be an exit somewhere further down.

Hearing her words, Luo Jiyun and Murong Ni both became alert as they followed her down the path.

Sure enough, after they persisted on, they finally saw the exit.

Murong Ni rushed over ecstatically but screamed out loud, "Ah! Why is it the edge of a cliff!"

Huang Yueli and Luo Jiyun rushed over as well and discovered that the other end of this gap was actually the edge of a cliff. If they walked ten more steps, they would be at a precipice and when they looked down, it was just a pitch-black hole that looked endless.

They looked at each other.

"You've gotta be kidding? Don't tell me there is no other way? On one end, we have those Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat, the other is a cliff..."

Murong Ni's face turned white, her face crumpled and looked as if she was going to cry any moment.

Huang Yueli remained calm and studied the surroundings. She suddenly said, "Look, the mountain wall on this side isn't very high, if you can climb up the vines and walk over from the top, it should be feasible."

Luo Jiyun's eyes lit up, "Sister-in-law, your eyes are really sharp!"

"But...."

Before Luo Jiyun could even smile, he was scared by this 'but' of Huang Yueli's and his face remained sombre.

"But if we climb up this way, it would take a lot of time, if the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bat follow the path and chase us down, it would be very dangerous to battle with them, we might even accidentally fall down the cliff."

"Then what are we to do?" he asked.

"How about this, I can set up an array here, and control the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats that are chasing us for an hour. This period of time should be enough to climb up and escape. After that it would be difficult for them to track us down."

Chapter 365: Falling into the Abyss (1)

Luo Jiyun said, "That's great! It's still the best to rely on Sister-in-law! I'll go and inform the Big Brothers."

He hurried back along the same path.

Murong Ni also wanted to follow him but she was stopped by Huang Yueli.

"Don't be in a hurry to leave first. Come over and help."

"You're asking me for help? Murong Ni was surprised.

Huang Yueli nodded her head "That's right, the area needed to control this array can't be too large. I'm afraid that I can't completely block the exit that's why it's best to have two arrays instead. One on the left and one on the right. You are also an Array Master so stay behind and help lay the other array!"

Murong Ni widened her eyes and sneered.

"Hahaha! There's also this day that you would seek my help? Aren't your standards for arrays very high and wouldn't even look at me, who is a low levelled Array Master?"

Huang Yueli's expression sank, "Please don't misunderstand. I am not seeking for your help. I am helping you save your own life! If you aren't afraid that you'd be sucked dry by the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats later, then you don't have to stay behind to lay the array!"

Hearing such words that she could not refute, she couldn't say anything but her expression darkened.

Huang Yueli pulled out a drawing of an array formation and passed it to her.

“Just follow this array formation, if you’re unsure of anything just ask. For the materials you should have them all? These are all common second grade materials and crystals, as an Array Master, you should have them readily.”

Murong Ni was used to being spoilt and unruly, usually, other than Senior Brother, she wouldn’t listen to anyone else’s instructions.

Not to mention this fox demoness she hated the most!

However, the situation called for it and she could only choose to bow down to the person she hated for now.

Murong Ni’s heart was filled with unwillingness, however, she could only take the drawing and start to study it.

When she was about seventy percent through studying the drawing, Huang Yueli started to lay the array.

There were quite a few points which she wasn’t too clear however she would not ask that fox demoness for advise! Sticking onto her stubbornness and pride, she could only depend on herself and started to lay the array.

Seeing that Huang Yueli had almost laid out half of the array, Murong Ni could only grit her teeth and using the vague understanding she had in her mind, she took out the materials and quickly started to lay the array.

At the start, everything was still fine. Being a Second Grade Array Master, she still had the necessary essential fundamentals.

However, when it was time to draw the array pattern, she started to falter.

Even though the drawing had been marked in great detail, she simply did not understand some of the rationale behind certain drawings and with these left unclarified, this became an arduous task.

Murong Ni wrecked her brains until her head started to hurt, but she still could not understand it.

She turned to glance over at Huang Yueli’s progress and found that she was almost done with her array. She gnashed her teeth and could only bend down and started drawing.

Drawing this way, in terms of speed, it was much slower and would even make it more confusing.

When she was about a third done, she felt that she could not continue on.

It was at this moment when a voice rang out from behind her.

“If you are going to continue drawing to your left, this entire array would become scrap! This part of the array is to let the wind element flow up and down the range of the array, so it should go up a little...”

The voice of Huang Yueli was calm and collected, she only spoke on the facts, without any hint of emotions.

However, these to Murong Ni’s ears were simply harsh words!

As the renowned youngest genius Array Master, her dignity and pride was once again crushed!

Chapter 366: Falling into the Abyss (2)

Murong Ni gritted her teeth and spat out, "Who needs you to bother! Of course I know how the profound qi should flow in the array! I am a Second Grade Array Master who had been accredited, how can I not know this!"

Huang Yueli raised her eyebrows. "Alright, if you know it, then continue."

Huang Yueli did not say anything further and Murong Ni forced herself to calm down and try to comprehend everything on the drawing.

However, it was still useless.

Just now, what Huang Yueli did was to just point out the principles behind the array pattern. However, based on just Murong Ni's own comprehension, no matter how many times she looked at it, she was still confused!

Although this sealing array could be laid with tier two materials, however, it had a much deeper depth beneath it and its complexity was much higher than ordinary third tier arrays! Laying it out was comparable to laying a third tier array.

Murong Ni was feeling more and more anxious, and with the sudden trembling of her hand, a stroke was immediately drawn.

Luckily, the moment her hand shook, a hand immediately pressed down firmly on her wrist and stabilized her movements.

"Murong Ni, do you really know what you're doing? At a time like this, can you not be so proud? If the array fails, everyone is in for it! I think it's better if you move aside, I'll draw the array pattern on my own!"

Huang Yueli furrowed her brows as she berated in a harsh tone.

This entire situation that they were in now were all caused by Murong Ni and yet at this crucial point in time where their escape was imperative, she even wanted to drag them down all because of her own pride.

If it wasn't because she was the Junior Sister of Li Moying, Huang Yueli would really have liked to give her one big tight slap to send her crashing to the wall in death.

She had met those who deserved to die but she had never met anyone who was courting death so eagerly!

Who knew, Huang Yueli was angry but Murong Ni totally blew up.

She forcefully jerked her hand away from Huang Yueli's grasp and retaliated by flipping her hand and she struck Huang Yueli to the side in blind rage.

“Who needs you to care! You are just a lowly cultivator in the first realm! You have no right to teach me!”

“You.....”

Huang Yueli did not expect her sudden movement and wasn't guarded against it at all.

Her cultivation was in reality much lower than Murong Ni by a large margin, so although her full force wasn't imbued into it, however it wasn't something that she could take.

Huang Yueli stepped back by quite a few steps before she could dispel the force behind that sudden palm strike.

Murong Ni who had on an initial twisted and ugly expression on her face suddenly changed into one of panic and screamed out loud.

“Hey! Yue...Yue Li?! Quick come over here... don't step back any further...hey!!!”

Was she talking to her?

Before Huang Yueli could react, she suddenly an abrupt sway and felt her entire body lose control and fell backwards.

The current empty space that they were drawing their arrays at was located close to the edge of the cliff. Around places like this where the rocks had been weathered and worn down over the ages were plentiful. Although they looked completely fine on the surface, however, once touched, they would just crack and fall apart.

Originally, Huang Yueli had stood at a relatively safe place, however after being pushed back by Murong Ni, she did not have time to look at the path and had taken a few steps back directly.

With this sudden fluffy of steps, she had inevitably stepped on a piece of weathered rock.

Before she had come to realization, the entire chunk of rock crumbled and tumbled down the cliff.

With her standing on that rock, she was also dragged down and fell down into the deep dark abyss!

“Yue Li! Yue Li!”

Murong Ni screamed out in panic and felt as if her soul had flown away from her body.

Although she had hated Huang Yueli and couldn't wait for her to die, however, she had no intention to start now!

Otherwise, how could she explain to Li Moying when he came back?

Chapter 367: Special Skills of Little Phoenix (1)

Great, she had only arbitrarily struck out and had gotten rid of that eyesore.

Murong Ni shuddered when she thought about Li Moying's reaction when he found out!

Thinking back on those previous occasions when he had lost his temper, those eyes that could incinerate everything and that unstoppable oppressive momentum... she felt a chill in her heart.

At this moment, she really wished that she could hear Huang Yueli's call for help from below.

However, there was no other sounds except that the howling of the winds.

Looking below the cliff, one couldn't make anything out except for a large dark abyss.

The cold wind was biting, when it blew past her cheeks, it felt as if a knife was cutting her soft skin.

All she could hear was the long sad howls of the wind as she felt herself falling deeper and deeper down at a pace that was picking up rapidly.

This had all happened too fast, even she had not reacted in time.

Until the moment when she had found that her foot had stepped onto thin air, the ground beneath her had already given way and crumbled down and she was thrown down into the abyss.

Huang Yueli kept her calm even while she was falling down. She immediately retrieved a hooked claw from the Sky Phoenix Ring and threw it at the wall.

With a whoosh, the hooked claw flew towards the wall before her eyes however, just being short of a few metres, it suddenly stopped and sprung back.

"You've gotta be kidding! Why is it so far!"

She had fallen far too away from the cliff walls, even the hooked claw she had was of no use.

If she could not stop this fall, it only meant that she would continue heading down. Meeting with such a grim situation, Huang Yueli's heart was thumping madly.

This had got to be a joke! Her life can't end just like this! All because of a brash and unruly brat whose hobby was to court death, she was dragged into such a mess? Was she going to die in such a ridiculous place and manner? No! She doesn't want to!

However, the speed that she was falling was shocking and there was no way she could stop. What could she do?

Huang Yueli's brain was working quickly as she started wrecking her brain to think of ideas.

It was at this moment when the voice of the Little Phoenix, Wang Cai called out.

"Female Devil! Let me out quick! If you don't let this Little Lord out now, you won't be able to survive!"

"Can you save me?" Huang Yueli spoke to him through her mind.

"Cut this crap! Why don't you have another look to see who this Little Lord is? This Little Lord here is the one and only majestic and awe-inspiring Divine Phoenix in the whole of this Soaring Heavens Continent!" Little Phoenix did not forget to inflate his ego and glorify himself almost to the extent as if he was frantically sticking gold onto his face.

Huang Yueli opened the Sky Phoenix Ring with a thought.

In a split second, Little Phoenix spread its wings and flew out.

When she saw the appearance of this plump round feathered ball with oil stains at the corner of his beak that had yet to be wiped off, she felt her mood dampen.

This little thing really didn't seem too reliable. On usual days, he already couldn't fly very well, he did not even know any spells. Fortunately, he had the True Phoenix Flames but even that was also dependant on luck! It could not be produced whenever he wanted to.....

This...now.. he said that he could save her?

However, his determination and anxiety could be seen from his eyes. This thought of his... deeply touched her!

At least...those chicken wings were not fed in vain.

She took a deep breath and said reluctantly: "Well..Wang Cai...you don't...have to really force it. If this sister really loses her life... you just need to go find a new master... Umm... actually you are very adorable, if you can change the way you talk, be less smug, then it's easier to find a new master to buy chicken legs for you..."

Little Phoenix flapped his wings and screamed.

"What kind of joke is this? With this Little Lord around, you won't die so easily!"

"Really?"

Her eyes were still clouded with suspicion.

However, it was at the next moment....

Chapter 368: Special Skills of Little Phoenix (2)

A dazzling scarlet light suddenly flashed before her and it was extremely bright, like the rising sun in spring.

It was getting brighter and brighter.

She couldn't help but close her eyes with this sudden glare before her in such close proximity.

Next, she felt that her waist had been hooked by something and her descent had slowed down comparably. She could feel that there was something pulling her, supporting her as she felt her body slowly being pulled up.

Her eyes flew open immediately.

Right before her, she saw something incredible that shocked her and left her stunned momentarily.

Before her now, a magnificent phoenix appeared before her. Not a red chubby chick like the Little Phoenix, Wang Cai, but a truly powerful full grown phoenix!

The scarlet red golden feathers were extremely beautiful and with its wings fully spread out, one couldn't see its head at first glance. Its talons stretch forward and had firmly hooked onto her waist belt.

With a gentle flap of its wings, its entire being seemed to have been lit ablaze and the surroundings ignited as waves of hot air swept over.

With the fluttering of its beautiful scarlet golden feathers reflecting the sun, its brilliance was breathtaking.

"Wang Cai?"

Huang Yueli called out softly in disbelief.

"Don't call this Little Lord with such a stupid name! Can't you see that this Little Lord has grown so handsome?" A familiar voice was heard in her mind.

"It's really you, Wang Cai! Since when could you transform into your full grown form?"

Hearing that childish, cute and bright voice, Huang Yueli immediately cheered up.

"Hey! This Little Lord has already said, this Little Lord is not called Wang Cai, this Little Lord is called..."

"It doesn't matter what you're called! What's important is that you are really too cool!"

"Cough... that's of course!" Little Phoenix heard her praise and immediately became cocky.

"Can you bring me back to that mountain wall?" Huang Yueli asked.

"That's... that's not a problem at all!" Wang Cai said proudly as he puffed his chest up.

Huang Yueli was relieved when she heard this and thought that they were saved.

However, after a short while, she felt that something just wasn't quite right.

"Wang Cai, why do I feel that.. I seem to be falling again?"

"That's.. that's because you are obviously too heavy! Female Devil, you eat too much and you're too fat, you should lose weight!"

Three black lines slipped down her forehead. "I'm fat?! I think the one who should lose weight should be you yourself! Although it can be said that you are a bird, however it seems that you are the fattest bird in the entire household! Even fatter than those Mother hens!"

After another short while...

"Wang Cai, I still think that I am falling and it seems that I'm falling faster and faster?" Huang Yueli began to have cold sweat.

"I...this... I don't think I can hold on..." Wang Cai stammered as he said it out in a low voice.

Huang Yueli was dumbfounded at the moment.

She had thought that finally he had grown up... who would have known...

Sure enough, she shouldn't have believed in that little boy!

"What do you mean by you can't hold on? Only a short moment has passed by and you can't hold on already? Weren't you so magnificent and even made such a majestic entrance? Didn't you even guarantee that you'd send me to that mountain wall? It was just mere moments ago, now you say you can't do it?"

"What's with 'can't do it'? Don't ever say that a man can't do it!"

Such a topic yet said out with an adorable voice really sounded too hilarious.

If it was another occasion, Huang Yueli would have ruthlessly laughed at him. Unfortunately, she can't bring herself to smile at this moment.

Chapter 369: Special Skill of Little Phoenix (3)

After Wang Cai finished speaking, he began to shrink slowly. The magnificent divine sacred beast which was resplendent just moments ago gradually became smaller and smaller and became a big red bird the size of a goshawk.

It continued to shrink and became the size of a blood bat.

It then continued to shrink and eventually ended back his original size.

Although he had been getting smaller, however Little Wang Cai been trying to keep pulling Huang Yueli up as he kept struggling and flapping his wings relentlessly.

"Hey! Female Devil, don't die! Hey! My chicken legs... my chicken wings...don't die!!"

Huang Yueli's mouth twitched.

It turns out that in the heart of Little Phoenix, her presence was equivalent to chicken legs and chicken wings. Sure enough..... that was an important existence!

Little Phoenix squeezed out every last sliver of strength, however, he was simply too small now and ... he couldn't stop the inevitable.

The speed of Huang Yueli falling increased at an alarming rate, faster and faster she fell, dropping down in a straight line, down into the abyss.

She could only hear the whooshing sound as she fell, all that was in her mind now was only one thought: If she did not die, she must change to a pet that was more reliable! She had never met a pet that other than relying on its master for food, it just dug pits for its master to fall into!

A loud reverberating bang resounded, followed by violent tremors.

Huang Yueli felt a wave of dizziness and a sudden sharp pain behind.

After a while, she realized that she seemed to have landed?

However, from the top, this abyss seemed to have no end to it, how was it that she had landed so fast? Moreover, although she fell very heavily, however her overall general situation was good, even her bones aren't broken....

Huang Yueli endured the pain behind her as she clenched her teeth and grimaced. She began to study her surrounding intently.

She discovered that she seemed to be in a large nest and was surrounded by huge eggs, each egg bigger than her.

This bird's nest was built on a branch that was sticking out of the mountain's wall. It was extremely large and was laid with a thick layer of straw under. This was what saved her as it absorbed the impact from her fall and let her land safely without being seriously injured.

Although the Little Phoenix couldn't pull her back to the top, he tried his best to pull her as close to the wall as possible. This had saved her!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli felt thankful in her heart.

This could be said that she had picked back her life! This credit goes to Wang Cai!

Wait, something's wrong. Where's Wang Cai?

Huang Yueli quickly turned back and searched for the Little Phoenix and found the little thing was completely exhausted. A small red ball of fluff laid on the nest motionless and had fallen into deep sleep.

Huang Yueli walked forward a few steps and wanted to hold Wang Cai and put him back into the Sky Phoenix Ring.

However, at this moment, there was incessant chirping coming from behind her.

Huang Yueli turned back and had a shock. She took a step back subconsciously.

She didn't know when but a bird's egg in the nest had hatched. A hatchling had climbed out from its shell and stood right behind her and looked at her intently.

As it was a freshly hatched chick, it's feathers were still wet and it's round dark eyes looked at her filled with innocence and purity.

However, Huang Yueli was immediately alerted.

Because, what stood before her was not a lovely and cute little hatchling but it was one that was even taller and bigger than her!

Moreover, she had immediately recognized from the feathers on its chest that it was an incredibly powerful Magical Beast – White Golden Crested Vulture!

Chapter 370: Taming Spirit Pet

A matured White Winged Golden Crested Vulture could reach the seventh tier and even newly born hatchlings were born with strength in the ranks of the third or fourth tier.

For such a strong magical beast, they could only be found in the restricted zone of the Dark Moon Forest!

It seemed that the bottom of the cliff was part of the restricted zone. This fall of hers, was truly unlucky! How was she to leave this huge nest later? Even if she could escape, as a cultivator of the first realm, how was she going to protect her little life in this restricted zone?

Moreover, she does not even have a single piece of map on her, if she accidentally threaded into the lairs of those ninth or tenth tiered magical beasts...

Huang Yueli's heart began to thump wildly.

She was facing too many problems now but she had no time to think about them.

It was because, that little bird that had been studying her for some time suddenly screeched twice, flapped its stubby wings and started to waddle towards her.

Normally, even when facing a third tiered magical beast, even if she can't defeat it, Huang Yueli would still be able to escape unscathed.

However, she was now in a nest that was perched in such a precarious location, if she were to miss a step, she wouldn't have tears to even cry if she fell.

She could only muster up an amiable smile and tried to appease that little vulture.

"Umm, I've got to say, my little vulture friend.... You can just take it as if I'm not here at all. I'm really just passing by... just passing only..."

However, the little vulture flapped its wings and suddenly raised its head and gave a few shrill cries into the sky... a few loud, sharp and resounding cries reverberated through the air...as it echoed throughout and the cries travelled far...far...away....

Huang Yueli's face drained of colour, "I'm leaving, I'm telling you, little stupid bird, don't call out anymore alright? Sister here is not a bad person..."

White Winged Golden Crested Vultures were a species that greatly cared for their young. Even though the eggs were left here unattended, the adults were definitely not far off. The moment they could hear the cry of their young, they would know that the eggs have hatched and would most definitely rush back.

If a human like her was found to be in the nest with their eggs...could she still stay alive?

Huang Yueli was extremely vexed and anxious at this moment. She even took out the chicken thigh that Little Phoenix liked to eat and tried to bribe the little vulture with it.

When the little vulture saw the chicken thigh, it waddled over, took a sniff and bit into it and ate it with relish.

Huang Yueli finally let out a sigh of relief.

However, the moment it finished the chicken thigh, it raised its head proudly and let out another shrill cry.

“You stupid bird! You have no conscience! If I had known earlier, I would have laced the chicken thigh with some sedatives and let you sleep! Wait, why didn’t I think of that earlier?”

Huang Yueli was full of regrets and felt that she must have become silly after the fall.

Such a simple idea, why couldn’t she think of it just now?

Now that the little vulture had cried out so many times, with its sensitive hearing, the White Winged Golden Crested Vulture must have definitely heard and would be back very soon! What should she do?

Huang Yueli was extremely anxious and quickly surveyed her surroundings, thinking of a place that she could hide in.

At this time, the Little Phoenix that was lying unconscious on the straw suddenly twitched his claw.

Huang Yueli caught a glimpse of it however, before she could react, she saw that the little vulture seemed to have been deeply attracted by that little red ball of fluff.

It’s eyes lit up in excitement and started to waddle towards the Little Phoenix.

Huang Yueli was shocked and her face lost all colour!

[That stupid bird....! Don’t tell me that stupid bird thought that Wang Cai was some sort of fun toy? Or thought that it was something delicious?]

With these train of thoughts, she rushed towards Little Phoenix in a fluster!
