Chapter 381: A Narrow Escape (2)

That was why she did not dare move a single bit. More so, she did not dare to even look out.

When she heard the two White Winged Golden Crested Vultures squawk incessantly, she was a bit weary and baffled at the same time. She had never heard that these White Winged Golden Crested Vultures were so noisy? Why were they squawking so much today?

She hadn't realized yet that she had contracted a powerful White Winged Golden Crested Vulture with a strong potential but she had a faint sense of foreboding.

Sure enough, the parents of the White Winged Golden Crested Vulture called a few more times and stopped but they came closer and stuck their tongues out to lick their baby.

"Damn it!"

Huang Yueli could not help but curse out in her heart.

The little vulture's wings were immediately wet from all the licking from its over enthusiastic parents and the saliva dripped down its wings and fell onto the clothes of Huang Yueli.

As a scavenger, these White Winged Golden Crested Vultures mainly fed on the dead bodies of other magical beasts, hence the smell of rot and decay filled its mouth. When this unpleasant rancid smell assaulted her nostrils, Huang Yueli almost fainted.

The White Winged Golden Crested Vulture's mother licked for awhile before it suddenly cried out again.

"Squawk squawk, squawk squawk?"

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Father: [Is there something wrong with our baby? How come it doesn't move at all? Shouldn't it rush into our embrace?]

"Squawk squawk, squawk squawk squawk!"

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother: [You're right... there's something wrong! Something very wrong about it! Can it be that our baby's legs are broken?]

The couple looked at one another and saw the panic in each other's eyes.

Were they really so unlucky? They had wished upon the stars, wished upon the moon and after so much difficulty, their first egg finally hatched. Not only that, it hatched very early!

With such a strong bloodline...it actually had a congenital disability!

The White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother was anxious immediately and with its large beak, she pushed the little vulture, trying to make it stand.

Huang Yueli found that the little vulture had been moved to the side by a large force and she was nearly exposed so she quickly moved along the direction with the little vulture.

Fortunately, after the little vulture was pushed a certain distance, it suddenly stopped.

Only then did Huang Yueli let out a sigh of relief, by now, her entire back was drenched with cold sweat.

Heavens! Why were these stupid birds so crazy? Why did they suddenly push little vulture for?

“Squawk squawk, squawk squawk!”

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother:[Oh no, oh no! We’re finished! Our Treasure’s legs are really not good! Boo hoo hoo... once it comes into this world, it actually has to suffer, what’s going to happen to it in future?

“Squawk squawk squawk.....”

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Father frantically tried to console her: [Don’t worry, its nothing. As long as it learns to fly then all’s well. As long as its wings are fine, there’s not much impact if its legs aren’t good, us White Winged Golden Crested Vulture seldom walk anyway!]

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother flew into the embrace of White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Father as the two cried out in unison.

At the beginning, Huang Yueli was still curled up into a ball and after a while, there was no more movement or pushing but she heard them screech endlessly in a strange manner which made all her hairs stand.

Strange, there was no one around showing any public display of affection, why did all her hairs stand?

She sneakily lifted up the wings of little vulture and peered out and saw two White Winged Golden Crested Vulture looking at the distance in sorrow.

A sudden thought flashed by!

These White Winged Golden Crested Vultures...wouldn’t think that little vulture kept on sitting... so they thought that there was a problem with its legs?

The more she thought about it, the more convinced she was and three black lines slipped down her forehead. How did such a ridiculous situation even come about?

Chapter 382: A Narrow Escape (2)

However, such a situation could not remain unresolved.

Knowing that they would not give up so easily, what if they run back again and want to teach little vulture how to walk or the likes of it, she would most definitely be exposed!

Huang Yueli thought hard and soon a plan was weaved out.

After a while...

“Squawk squawk!” A tender squawk came from the other side of the nest.

The two White Winged Golden Crested Vultures that were filled with sorrow were startled and turned their heads. They did not know when did their little baby, who had been sitting dumbly without moving an inch, had already walked behind the other eggs and was toddling round clumsily.

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother opened her eyes wide in astonishment as she relished the moving sight in front of her.

“Squawk squawk!”

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Father: [See? Our Treasure can walk! There’s no problem with its legs!]

“Squawk squawk!”

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Mother: [But...why did it not walk just now?]

“...squawk squawk?”

White Winged Golden Crested Vulture Father: [Maybe...because it’s...lazy?]

It was as if it was just to confirm White Winged Golden Crested Vulture’s Father’s guess, little vulture walked a few more steps and slowly sat down again.

From where little vulture was, it was separated by several large eggs so Huang Yueli could hide temporarily. When it stopped, Huang Yueli immediately sneaked back and hid under its wings.

Although little vulture had only walked a few steps, it had proven that it had no problems with its legs!

The two birds felt that they had overreacted a bit but after seeing that their baby could walk, they set their hearts at ease.

The sky was getting darker and darker. After feeding little vulture a big piece of meat, the two large White Winged Golden Crested Vultures settled down as well and slowly closed their eyes.

Everything became silent.

Huang Yueli slowly peeked out from under little vulture’s wings, poked her head out and looked left and right as she surveyed her surroundings.

She then threw out a small pebble and watched closely as it landed at the side of the White Winged Golden Crested Vulture. The two White Winged Golden Crested Vultures did not stir and looked to be in deep sleep.

She immediately got up and kept the little vulture in the Sky Phoenix Ring and took out a long rope with a claw attached at the end.

She had already noted down her surroundings during the day and knew that the White Winged Golden Crested Vulture’s nest was perched on top of a thick and solid golden leaf banyan tree.

This tree trunk was so thick that even if ten over people held their hands together, they still could not go around it. It’s estimated to be a few thousand years old and it grew on a prominent crevice of the wall, slanting outwards.

With the aid of the claw and rope, Huang Yueli slid down the trunk of the golden leaf banyan tree. Very soon, she stepped onto the rock and climbed up the slope of the cliff's wall.

After two hours.

The night was silent and in the large nest, two White Winged Golden Crested Vultures were sleeping soundly without even realizing that their genius baby that had just hatched had been taken away by someone.

A figure flashed and appeared above the nest.

"That's odd, I sensed Little Fox' aura nearby...why isn't there anyone?"

His expression was dark and gloomy like the night as he furrowed his brows in scrutiny.

His probing gaze swept the entire nest and a glint flashed by his eyes.

At one far corner of the nest, lay a piece of purple scarf. This was very familiar to him because this was what Huang Yueli wore!

"It looks like, she really has been here...but, where could she be now?"

Li Moying tightened his grip on the scarf in his hand as he started to think deeply.

Chapter 383: A Windfall (1)

Huang Yueli was slowly moving up along the mountain wall under the cloak of the night. After a short while, she climbed onto a flat rock.

This cliff was very deep and the moonlight did not reach the depths. In such a dark environment, she could not even see her outstretched hands.

The comforting thing was that she was of the Flame Physique and creating some light was not an issue.

With a snap of her fingers, a small flame danced above it and illuminated the path before her.

This entire area was barren and not a tree was in sight. Everything all around her was just weathered rocks and mud, naturally, there were no magical beasts as well.

Huang Yueli let out a sigh of relief and plopped onto the ground in exhaustion.

She had been on the edge the entire day and finally she had managed to gain some respite.

First, she was chased and hunted down by those bbs and had fought with them the entire day. After that, she fell into the abyss and had escaped death and yet she had almost died again under the claws of the White Winged Golden Crested Vultures.

It was only until now did she manage to take a breather.

Only the heavens knew that she hadn't ate anything since morning! She was absolutely famished and her tummy was rumbling and grumbling in protest.

With a thought, she entered the Sky Phoenix Ring.

The Little Phoenix was in deep slumber just at the edge of the Spirit Saint Spring. With one look, you could tell that he was completely exhausted. The little vulture had nestled soundly asleep beside him.

Huang Yueli stroked their heads gently. Next, she took out a bottle filled with Spirit Saint Spring water and a variety of pills for healing and left.

Although it was very comfortable in her own space but she had no choice but to leave because only her spirit could enter the Sky Phoenix Ring. Her physical body was still lying outside at the same place.

If she was still in the Sky Phoenix Ring and yet her body had received an attack, she would be caught completely off guard!

Moreover, now she was in such a dangerous place, she did not dare stay in the Sky Phoenix Ring for too long.

After she finished drinking the Spirit Saint Spring Water and swallowed a few pills, she finally felt better and she had recovered about seventy to eighty percent of her strength. She then closed her eyes to rest.

She did not dare to sleep too long and two hours later, when the first streak of sunlight streamed in, she woke up immediately.

She hasn't escaped from disaster yet, her situation has somewhat better but she still needed to find a way back up quick!

This time round, she looked around and re-examined her surroundings carefully, afraid to miss out any details.

As she looked over a mound at the corner, she suddenly exclaimed in surprise and immediately ran over.

The nearby floor was slightly sunken down and there were also traces of water.

In the eyes of ordinary people, this may be nothing surprising at all. But in the eyes of an astute Armament Master, this indicated that there was a trace of a hidden trap door!

"In such a desolate place, why would there be a hidden trap door? Unless...Unless a peerless expert made it?"

Some of these peerless experts liked to hide their treasures in these remote and desolate locations and feel more secure that way.

With this thought in mind, her eyes sparkled and immediately dug at the mound and very soon, a metal handle was revealed.

This was at least a sixth grade and if it was an average person, they would usually use brute strength to forcefully open it. However, if it was forcefully opened, a trap would be triggered and their lives may be forfeited.

However, in the hands of Huang Yueli, this was just like child's play.

She deftly moved her fingers in a skilled and precise manner and in a few simple moves, she removed two nails.

With a 'clunk', the walls started to vibrate and the wall in front of her opened up, revealing a dark and narrow passage.

Chapter 384: A Windfall (2)

"Cough, cough, cough!" Huang Yueli started to cough vehemently.

This secret passage had not been opened for a long time and dust had accumulated over the years. She had choked on the thick layer of dust that had suddenly stirred.

When the dust finally settled down, Huang Yueli peeked in and looked around curiously before she entered the secret passage.

Although it looked very normal from the outside, when she entered, it was like paradise. The entire passage was made of lucent silk jade and the entire place glowed with an ethereal glow.

At the end of the passage was a house. The interior was very simple. There was one hall with several rooms. The startling thing was that the entire place was made of lucent silk jade, it was obvious that the owner of this place was extremely rich.

Huang Yueli cautiously entered the room nearest to her.

This room was extremely bare, there was only a table and chair. On the table, lay a few scattered books.

Huang Yueli walked over and casually picked one book up and flipped through it. Her movements were very gentle because the pages had shown obvious signs of aging as the dilapidated yellow and crisp pages needed extra delicate touch or else they might just crumble into pieces if too much force was used.

"Master Yun Tian....so this place actually belongs to the Nine Tiered Armament Master that had lived three thousand years ago!

After flipping through a few more pages, her face lit up in astonishment.

In the entire Soaring Heavens Continent, to be a cultivator of the ninth realm wasn't too difficult a feat. However, to be a Nine Tiered Master in all professions was beyond difficult!

That was because the ninth was actually an honorary title for the professions of Alchemists and Armament Masters and there had only been one who held both of this title.

Once one attains this title, it signifies that he is the best in the world!

In her past life, Huang Yueli was the one and only Ninth Tier Armament Master in the Soaring Heavens Continent. She was the number one Armament Master in the world!

This Armament Master was also a Ninth Tier and this proved that he was a very powerful person and.... The standard three thousand years ago was even higher than the present. Many ancient methods had been lost through the harsh passage of time.

She had even heard that at that era, there were also special formulas for armament crafting...

To even share the insights of his attainments was simply unbelievable...

Huang Yueli excitedly flipped through all the books on the table and found that these were all notes that Master Yun Tian had written and in it were various methods and formulas that she had never even heard of before!

She was beaming as she kept all these away back into her Sky Phoenix Ring without any further thoughts.

“It’s a blessing in disguise, I’ve struck a fortune! At least my luck isn’t too bad...I knew it! How could my luck be so bad?”

Huang Yueli wanted to continue to explore the other rooms.

However, the moment she pushed opened the door, there was a strong sense of danger!

She subconsciously felt a chill run down her spine and she stepped back immediately.

This step had saved her life.

Outside the door, a red figure suddenly appeared and swiped its sharp claws at the position she had just stepped out a moment before!

Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard!

Her heart almost jumped out, this was a seventh grade magical beast of the fire attribute – the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard!

This type of magical beast was named after the pattern that resembled flowing clouds on its body. Not only was it known for its speed, power and defense, it also was proficient in fire attacks! When it spits out a fireball from its wide jaws, it can easily turn a person into charcoal!

Although Huang Yueli had escaped the sneak attack of the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard, this room was too small and when the leopard turned, it easily discovered her hiding in the corner!

Chapter 385: Let me teach you a lesson later! (1)

Seventh grade magical beast....was equivalent to a cultivator of the eighth realm.

Huang Yueli knew that she couldn’t escape but she refused to sit still to await death. Even if there was a glimmer of hope, she would try all means and ways to escape!

She no longer cared about anything else and took out all the armaments she had left for attacking and used them all.

All of them were released together and for a moment, the entire room was filled with thunderbolts, fire and menacing sword intents.

The Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard was being oppressed momentarily but it was only hindered for a short while before it quickly chased after its prey.

Huang Yueli used the fastest speed she could muster and all she had in her head was just one thought – escape!

If she could not escape, she would definitely die with regrets!

But alas, their difference in speed was simply too wide and in a few steps, the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard had caught up to her.

Just when she thought that she would die, a reverberating bang resounded and a dazzling blue lightning streaked through the void and hit the body of the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard.

The fire leopard was stunned by the electric current and subconsciously stepped back and looked at the attacker with caution.

Huang Yueli was also stunned and before she could react, she felt someone hook her waist and pulled her away from the fire leopard and felt herself flung to a corner.

“Little Lass, you really are quite something! Just got rid of two White Winged Golden Crested Vultures and in such a short while, you’ve provoked a Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard?”

“Ah?!”

Hearing this familiar magnetic voice close to her ears, Huang Yueli immediately jerked her head up!

“You...Li Moying? How are you here?”

The man before her eyes was wearing a black robe and held a longsword in one hand, looking majestic, domineering and irresistibly charming.

If she was to omit out the murderous glint in his eyes, he really looked as if he was an immortal that had stepped out of a painting.

Seeing a flustered Huang Yueli before him, Li Moying felt a fire in his heart ignite.

After jumping off the cliff, he was in a hurry and extremely worried that she might have fallen to her death or she might have entered the restricted zone and encountered a magical beast. He had spent the entire night searching for her.

Fortunately, before they were separated, Li Moying had secretly left a spirit imprint on her and with this link, he was able to trace her whereabouts.

However, this spirit imprint was affected by distance. The further one was from one another, the weaker the link was.

That was why Li Moying had spent a lot of effort to finally find this place.

The moment he saw Huang Yueli standing before him safe and sound, he was so happy that he had almost cried on the spot. He was just about to run to her and hug her tightly. Only with her within his embrace would comfort his heart that was ridden with fear and worry.

However, before he had moved, Huang Yueli suddenly came out.

But behind her was actually a seventh grade Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard and it was one inch away from slicing her throat with its claws!

Li Moying was so scared that his heartbeat almost stopped. He immediately threw out an attack and saved her.

He really couldn't imagine that if he was just one second too late, he would see her fall into a pool of blood!

Just the thought of this scared him so bad.

However, what made him even more angry was that his Little Fox still had on a confused expression!

This woman was usually very smart...but why couldn't she properly protect herself?

"You...be good and wait for me to clean this up. Give me a moment and let me teach you a lesson later!" Li Moying said curtly as he glared at her.

Chapter 386: Let me teach you a lesson later! (2)

Although he really wanted to properly teach his Little Fox a lesson right now, the magical beast that was running rampant was in his way so he had to get rid of it first.

Although the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard had been hit by Li Moying's lightning sword, however, its defense was pretty insane and so it received only a light injury.

It was stunned and had retreated a few steps back before it observed Li Moying for a short while when it suddenly leapt forward.

Li Moying flourished his sleeves and Huang Yueli was pushed even further back before he started to engage the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard in battle.

Huang Yueli was thrown into the far corner and almost fell over.

By the time she had turned around, Li Moying had already exchanged a few moves with the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard.

Because they were fighting in a cave, Li Moying could not use the thunderbolt which was too powerful. He was worried that if he used it, the mountain may be split open and he might cause a landslide and bury themselves alive.

That was why, he had only been using simple moves to battle against this fire leopard.

Despite this, he was still dominating this fight.

At first, Huang Yueli was still very nervous and was watching Li Moying intensely, worried that he may be torn into half by the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard. After all, this was a seventh grade magical beast we're talking about!

Seventh grade magical beasts were equivalent to cultivators of the eighth realm while Li Moying... was only at the sixth degree realm of the ninth level!

The difference between the two... was by a large margin of two realms!

It could be said that in front of a Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard, an ordinary cultivator of the sixth degree realm was very vulnerable. Even if Li Moying had a deep comprehension and had a wealth of experience, she still thought that this difference of two realms was really too wide.

However, things weren't what she had expected.

Whenever Li Moying attacked, each strike was powerful, fast and accurate. His movements were fluid like a flowing stream of water. Very soon, the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard was forced into one corner and its entire body riddled with wounds and the floor was dyed red in its blood.

A moment later, Li Moying threw out a thunderbolt and with a smooth and fluid manner, he kept his sword back in its scabbard. Without even looking at the fire leopard, he turned around.

Until the moment he had arrived before Huang Yueli, the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard collapsed onto the ground.

Huang Yueli looked on with a stupefied expression.

"You... You've killed the Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard already? But... but ..aren't you only in the sixth degree realm of the ninth level?"

With such an incredulous fighting prowess, it was very similar with Mu Chengying! Moreover... both of them were both cultivators of the thunder attribute!

In her mind, suddenly there was a spark. However, it flashed by too quickly and she couldn't think of anything.

Li Moying did not answer her question but held her shoulders and pushed her to the wall. His tall and strong body leaned against her weak and petite body in a strong and overbearing manner.

At this moment, he had just fought a big battle and the profound qi in his body had still not settled, giving a sense of oppressive pressure that couldn't be resisted.

He bowed his head down and his handsome face slowly approached Huang Yueli and very soon, they were so close to each other that their noses almost touched.

His eyes seemed to contain a thousand words as he looked at her beautiful eyes which reflected some trepidation.

Huang Yueli looked at his perfect face so close to hers and all the words that she had wanted to say and all the questions that she had wanted to ask instantly flew out of her head. She could only stare blankly and felt as if she was a small fox that had been entrapped by a hunter.

“Little Li’er....”

Li Moying said in a raspy voice, his warm breath could be felt on her lips. They were so close, yet, their lips had not touched. This felt even more ambiguous than a real kiss.

Chapter 387: How Should I Punish You?

“Before I left, I had obviously told you to be good and wait for me to come back. In the end, you’ve let yourself come to be in such a precarious situation. Tell me...how should I punish you?”

Li Moying spoke in a low, magnetic voice in a tone that was filled with threat.

However, Huang Yueli did not seem to notice the danger at all. She was already confused and lost because he was so close.

“Wha...what?”

Looking at her entranced and seemingly lost, a glint flashed by his eyes.

The next moment, he pressed his lips upon hers and started to plunder deeper and deeper.

A scorching deep kiss...was as if it could burn everything into ashes and it rendered the maiden in his arms not the slightest resistance.

Huang Yueli who was leaning in his arms felt her consciousness blur.

She knew that she should push him away, because her heart belongs to another. She should not allow any other man to be so close to her but she just couldn’t resist it!

The man tasted her sweetness until her delicate lips were swollen from being kissed before he unwillingly let her go gently. However, his arm was still wrapped tightly around her waist.

Until he felt the warm body in his hands did he finally feel that this was all real.

His Little Fox...was now out of danger and safe in his arms.

“You...how can you kiss me?!” Huang Yueli finally came to her senses and asked him angrily with a red face.

Li Moying raised his brows, “Why can’t I? You are mine...your kiss, of course it also belongs to me!”

“I am not...”

Before she could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by him

“I advise you to think twice before you speak because my mood now isn’t all too good. If you say something that I am not happy with, I may get even more upset and I will kiss you even more to vent my anger!”

Huang Yueli eyes widened and wanted to scold “shameless!”, however she did not utter a thing.

Based on past experience, Li Moying was a man who was true to his words. As long as he says it, he would do it!

His threat...was naturally effective...

Li Moying saw her flustered face but yet she did not say anything. That pair of sparkly bright eyes filled with grievance that were left unsaid, made it hard for him to endure.

His heart softened immediately, however, his tone was still stern.

“What would you like me to say? I know that you are smart and ingenious...But! No matter what you are still a cultivator of the first realm! Remember this well! Why do you want to act like a hero? Did anyone ask you to go save Murong Ni? Did anyone ask you to lay an array? Thank heavens I had put a spirit imprint on your body...or else... it would be a dead body that I’m talking to!”

His harsh words made Huang Yueli unhappy.

“Hey! What are you talking to me like that? It’s not as if I wanted all that! How would I know that Murong Ni would antagonize the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats? She can lose her life but what about Big Brother Mo Yi and the rest who had been dragged into her mess? Don’t tell me that I should also not care about them? What’s more, the reason why I laid an array was because I had it all planned out carefully! It was the perfect plan! Well, it would have been.... if not for Murong Ni.... If not for her, such a laughable accident wouldn’t happen at all!”

“Murong Ni? Why did you mention her? Didn’t you accidentally fall off the cliff yourself?”

When Li Moying heard her words, he was stunned for a moment. He found it strange and quickly asked.

Chapter 388: Taking the Initiative to Approach

“What did she say to you?”

Huang Yueli sneered and told everything that had happened on that cliff from head to toe.

Li Moying’s expression started to crumble and contort in anger.

“That damned girl! I only thought that she’s been too pampered and spoilt, didn’t think that her personality was so twisted! Never would I have imagined that she would even dare to do such atrocities! If I had known earlier, I would have just smacked her to death with one strike!”

Huang Yueli was slightly taken aback as she asked with furrowed brows: “Smack her to death? But isn’t she your Master’s precious daughter...?”

“So what?” Li Moying replied angrily, “She even dares to harm you, that itself deserves the death penalty! She’s not even worth a finger of yours! Moreover, she is so young yet she has such a vicious heart. Just because you are more talented than her, she wants to kill you? Tell me, what use is there to keep the life of such a venomous woman?”

When Huang Yueli saw his outburst, she felt a warm wave wrap her heart.

This man here....he really placed her as the most important person in his heart. Even if it was the daughter of the Master that he held deep gratitude for, still did not make him waver.

How in the world had she managed to get such a remarkable man to treat her like this?

She let out a long sigh as she took a step forward and leaned her head on his shoulder.

“Alright, don’t worry anymore. Am I not well? Also, I don’t think that she had deliberately harmed me, it could well be just an accident. But this matter is not over just like that. Don’t interfere and let me teach her a lesson myself!”

Never in his wildest dreams did he think that she would take her own initiative to approach him and he stood there petrified.

Truth be told, after an entire day of adventures of climbing, rolling and fighting, Huang Yueli’s entire body was grey, covered in dust and filth. Not to mention earlier on when she had also been ‘blessed’ with the saliva from the White Winged Golden Crested Vulture, she wasn’t exactly looking her best at this moment.

However, to Li Moying, she was incredibly adorable and the most beautiful lady in his heart.

He hugged her tightly and asked in a low voice, “You nearly scared me to death, being a cultivator in the first degree realm and falling from such a high place...how did you manage to survive?”

“Umm.....”

Huang Yueli was suddenly tongue tied.

She had preserved this little life of hers all due to the outstanding performance of Little Phoenix.

But the existence of Little Phoenix wasn’t something that she could casually mention. Afterall, he was one of her most important secrets.

She tried to evade it and replied in a casual tone, “I was very lucky, when I fell, I actually landed in a nest of White Winged Golden Crested Vultures. I then hid behind the eggs and fortunately, the White Winged Golden Crested Vultures did not notice me and I managed to sneak off after they fell asleep!”

Li Moying scrunched his brows as he looked at her. It was obvious that she was not speaking the entire truth.

Huang Yueli was afraid that he would pry further and she quickly changed the topic.

“Oh right, I stumbled upon this place by chance. It belongs to a ninth grade Armament Master from three thousand years ago! I’ve just discovered quite a number of manuals related to armaments. This time round, I’ve struck it rich! Hehehe!”

She smiled brightly and revealed her two little sharp teeth.

Li Moying was still sullen and remain unmoved.

Huang Yueli pouted and said thoughtfully, "However, I've only been into one room and before I could explore the rest, I met that hateful Flowing Cloud Fire Leopard! Now everything's great, with you as my bodyguard, we can go and explore all the other rooms!"

Li Moying looked at her coldly, trying hard to maintain his stance

This little girl still wants to try to get away with it so easily? Hmph! How could it be so easy?!

Chapter 389: Treasure Hunting with Little Fox

"You..."

Before Li Moying could say anything more, Huang Yueli had held his wrist and pulled him along as she ran off in the direction of another door jovially.

"Come on, let's go have a look together!"

Whatever Li Moying had wanted to say had all been swallowed back.

He lowered his head and saw the slender little hand that held his wrist in disbelief. She would actually take the initiative to hold his hand? And it was a very natural move, not as if she had mulled over it.

Thinking of this, all his rage that had been suppressed could no longer be vented.

Forget it, he thought to himself. If he want to tame his wife, he could do it at any time. Since the atmosphere now was so good, he shall first accompany his Little Fox to hunt for treasure together!

Li Moying found an excuse for himself without realizing that he had already been led by the nose by Huang Yueli. But alas, this poor man did not know that this manner that they got along continued on in the future....

When Huang Yueli opened the door to the second room, she cried out in surprise at the same time.

"There is actually an armament furnace here, it looks like this is the armament room of Master Yun Tian!"

Li Moying followed her and strode in.

The room was quite large and it had a very high ceiling as well. The walls were covered in a thick layer of grey which were apparent traces of smoke and ash. The entire floor was scattered with many remnants of discarded byproducts, piles of ashes and soot all around and it looked very messy and dirty.

Huang Yueli was unfazed by this scene and the moment she stepped in, she let go of Li Moying's hand as she skipped off to the armament furnace in the centre of the room.

When Li Moying felt her release her hand, he felt a little lost.

But when he saw her face lit up with excitement, he shook his head helplessly and followed closely behind.

"What are you looking at?"

Huang Yueli had bent over overenthusiastically, she almost sprawled onto the furnace as she looked left, right, up and down, her little face all scrunched up, seemingly searching hard for something.

Li Moying couldn't help but laugh, with his curiosity piqued, he walked closer to see what his Little Fox was up to again.

Huang Yueli was extremely focused and she didn't seem to hear the man by her side as she started to talk to herself.

"This is...but it shouldn't be...but no matter what, three thousand years have passed...it can't be, but then again it could be possible? ...hmmm...but looking at these traces, it looks like..."

"What does it look like?"

"Ahhh!"

Huang Yueli got a shock from the face that suddenly appeared before her and subconsciously waved her right hand that was covered in soot, leaving a few black handprints on Li Moying's face.

Li Moying froze on the spot.

Huang Yueli let out a 'pfft' before she burst out in laughter.

This man had always been cold and aloof, however now that his face had been besmirched by her with all the black smudges on his face, he now looked like a cat. Mmm Hmm, a very proud and aloof cat.

It was simply too hilarious!

When Li Moying saw that she was laughing with so much delight, he knew that his face should have messed up quite a bit by her.

He pursed his lips and with one tug, he pulled her over.

"What do you want to do? Let go of me!" Huang Yueli started to struggle.

"You dare to smear soot on my face?" Li Moying revealed his white teeth with a cheeky grin, "I want to take revenge!"

"Ah! What do you want to do? Go away, go away!"

After a long while, Huang Yueli covered her face while she glared at the man between her fingers.

Never would she have thought that Li Moying could be so childish to such an extent!

Didn't she just smear some soot on his face? Of course...she did laugh then...but..that really was too funny a sight so she couldn't resist and laugh out loud. How could she be blamed?

Of course she couldn't be, right?

Chapter 390: The Deviant Flame That Doesn't Extinguish After Three Thousand Years

In the end, that petty man not only did he not forgive her, he even pulled her over and started to smear soot all over her face!

Now, Li Moying's face had already been cleaned.

And her sorrowful self....although she couldn't see it, but she could imagine how her soot smudged face would look like.

She lowered her head and looked at her dirty clothes, she then looked over at Li Moying's clean and spotless robes. It was truly a huge contrast, this was just like the disparity between a Prince and a maid!

Seeing Huang Yueli glaring at him, Li Moying felt rather pleased and he raised his eyebrows as he laughed lightly, "Why? Do you still want to come and have another round? That's fine, but I doubt you have this ability!"

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him, "Do you think that everyone is as free as you? I have better things to do!"

She was well aware of the great difference in their abilities. How could she have her revenge? It was highly likely that this man was purposely trying to anger her and trick her to voluntarily run into his arms and he can take some advantage at the same time!

Wishful thinking!

Huang Yueli turned her head away sharply and brought her focus back to the armament furnace.

Li Moying immediately felt a little gloomy.

"This broken furnace is almost buried by ashes and the side is also covered in rust. How can it look better than me? Looking at it so intensely, what can you see? Will it grow flowers?"

"You...what nonsense are you spouting? You are too ignorant!"

What Huang Yueli disliked most was when others criticize armaments with their limited knowledge and spout a bunch of nonsense.

Of all things, Li Moying was exactly like Mu Chengying in this aspect. In the past, he would always speak as if that armament was worthless and this made her exceptionally mad.

What she didn't know was that they did this deliberately to tease her.....

Huang Yueli turned and stared angrily back at Li Moying as she pointed to the armament furnace and said, "As for growing flowers, that's definitely not possible. But if I did not guess wrongly, there is a treasure in there!"

"Oh? Really?" Li Moying asked with surprise.

Huang Yueli continued to explain, "Yes, for you people who do not understand armaments, of course you wouldn't know. On the surface, this armament furnace may look dilapidated but it has a profound mystery actually concealed within. Such types of armament furnaces are very special. The fire is not lit on the outside but there's actually a hidden compartment within it at the bottom to put in a deviant flame. Only then could one start to refine."

“To use such an armament furnace, one’s mastery in flames must be much higher but the effect is amplified by few times. That is why this is only used when the Armament Master wants to refine a treasure.”

“It’s so unique?” Li Moying’s interest was also piqued and he started to walk around the furnace. He even reached his hands out and knocked on it.

“Wait! Don’t knock on it!” Huang Yueli quickly rushed forward to stop him.

Li Moying looked at the flustered Huang Yueli in amusement.

“Why are you so petty, wasn’t it just a light knock?”

“What are you saying?” Huang Yueli glared at him, “I am worried about your safety! If this armament furnace explodes, if you are in the seventh realm or even if you are in the eighth realm, you’ll still suffer!”

“Explode? How can it be? This is an antique from millenniums ago...”

“How could it not be possible? The deviant flame that’s burning in this armament furnace most probably hasn’t extinguished yet and has been burning to this day!” She replied earnestly.

“How can that be?! There’s such a thing?”

Even if Li Moying had seen the world and saw many mysterious marvels, he still couldn’t help but reveal an incredulous expression.
