Chapter 421: Beast in human form

Mercenaries which dared to risk entering the Dark Moon Forest's inner zone were basically not good-natured people. In such a place, no one would find out if they killed anyone, not to mention any form of punishment.

It wasn't Huang Yueli's first day in society so naturally she was very clear-headed that pretending to be some worthless character was safer for them.

If her identity as an Armament Master and Li Moying was a disciple from a large Sect was exposed, they would easily be threatened.

There was no mental burden if other people found out that they had valuable items on them and they would be attacked and possibly killed, with their possessions taken away from them as both of them were weak.

So she immediately exhibited her acting skills and pretended to be a female student who was on her first training session.

Luckily, the current situation they were in look exactly like what she described.

She was only at the Qi Profound Realm Ninth Level, and Li Moying was genuinely injured seriously and had lost a lot of Profound Energy. All year round, he carried along a Profound Artifact which could hide his cultivation level, so he looked as though he was in the Defensive Realm, Seventh or Eighth level at most.

Some of South Sky Region's famous schools students were mostly around their age and cultivation levels.

That was why the mercenaries did not suspect anything and believed her words.

The bearded captain revealed a taunting smile and said, "Do you know what place is this? This is the inner zone of the Dark Moon Forest! Both of you are pretty daring and count your lucky stars that you have yet to be torn to pieces by the Magical Beasts!"

"Ah? This... this is the inner zone??"

Huang Yueli acted dumb, acting the role of an idiot marvellously.

Bearded captain and the surrounding members exchanged a deep and provoking glance, looking at Huang Yueli's exquisite features, their eyes seem to have some wretched meaning to it.

Although they didn't say out loud, Huang Yueli knew, they were planning to make them two as baits! And they probably had evil intentions on her!

A strand of coldness flashed across her eyes.

These scums, they were actually having designs on a young girl who had yet to reach marriageable age!

If they had met in her previous life, these scums would definitely become minced meat on the spot!

But now..... although a little troublesome, don't mention about her limited strength, the most important issue was Li Moying's safety. If they were to clash now, the person who would most probably lose his life is him!

For this reason, she could only swallow her anger.

Anyway there would be plenty of opportunities to deal with this bunch of scum.

The bearded captain spoke again, "Miss, what's your name? And that man beside you, what is your relationship with him? He seems to be in bad shape, is he seriously injured?"

She replied, "My name is Yue Li and this is my senior. Senior, he..... he was injured because he was protecting me....."

There was no point in hiding Li Moying's injury as it was clear for all to see.

It was most appropriate to tell the truth, so as to lower the captain's vigilance.

Bearded Captain laughed heartily, "Count your lucky stars, you've met us the Werewolf Mercenaries! Otherwise if it was just the both of you, one being seriously injured, I'm afraid that you won't have to wait till sunrise to become a meal for the Magical Beasts!"

"Wh... What should we do!", Huang Yueli stared with her eyes wide open.

"That's why I said to count your lucky stars!", Bearded Captain twirled his beard whiskers, "Since you've met us, the Werewolf Mercenaries, we won't leave you alone to die. So you can tag along with us and leave the Dark Moon Forest!"

Chapter 422: The fatty meat was already at the mouth

When Huang Yueli heard those words, her face showed an awkward expression.

"Ah? It.... It's ok... we don't want to trouble you! We... We have the map in our possession.. When day breaks.... We should be able to find out way out....."

Bearded Captain frowned because he had not expected his proposal to be rejected.

He had thought, once he suggested the intention to let them tag along, this inexperienced young lady would gladly accept and follow them!

From this situation, it looked like she had some brains! Probably their academy teachers had taught them about such situations before they came out for training.

No matter how much he thought about it, she was still an inexperienced lass. It was impossible for her to escape from their clutches.

Since the fatty meat was already at the mouth, if he would be an idiot if he don't eat it!

Bearded Captain gave a silent snort within but he still hung a smile on his face and said, "I say, little girl, this is your first time at the Dark Moon Forest right? Do you know, even though this is the safety zone, there are still Magical Beasts prowling when night falls! Without an array master to set up a spell formation, without anyone to stand watch, plus your senior is seriously injured, just based on you, what can you do? Hmmm?"

"That's right!", a tall and slender soldier spoke out, "Think about it, the safety zone is so big. When we set up a spell formation, when the Magical Beast passes by, it will only see the two of you. Without a doubt, you will become their supper!"

This round, another fat soldier walked by, his attitude was extremely unfriendly.

"Alright everyone, stop flowing your kindness indiscriminately. She doesn't want to accept it, just let it be! We don't have much energy to let these two useless people drag us down! If they want to die, just let them die! Don't be such busybodies. So many people have died in this inner zone, how can we save everyone!"

Huang Yueli pretended to tremble when she heard the conversation.

These mercenaries were quite adept at using strategies, one acting as a black face while the other was a goodie-pie, using the carrot and stick approach just to make them join their party.

In their eyes, she reckoned that in their eyes, Li Moying was no different as a dead man, while she seemed like an ignorant young lady, waiting for them to take advantage of.

Huang Yueli had considered that they should be able to avoid a lot of trouble if the two groups do not camp together.

Unfortunately, it seemed that this was not possible now.

These group of mercenaries had their eyes on them, if they do not agree, there is a possibility that the mercenaries might use violence against them.

It was impossible for her to deal with more than ten Fifth Level experts at her current level, and there was no escaping because she still had to take care of the unconscious Li Moying, so... she could only agree to their suggestion.

Huang Yueli thought for a moment and pretended to display a shocked look. In a small voice she said, "Then... then can my senior and I follow you? Will it be too troublesome?"

Bearded Captain laughed, "Of course! No problem at all!! Everyone knows that the Werewolf Mercenaries had always placed helping others as a priority!"

He had just finished his sentence when the fat soldier cut in, "Captain, you're forever so kind-hearted!. We are mercenaries and we open our doors to make money. You're forever saving those people who holds us back, and not to mention that we are wasting food on them. What are we to establish our business in future? We might as well change a line of business!"

"Ermmm... this....", Bearded Captain showed a perplexed expression, "They are still students... what does it matter to help them out?"

Chapter 423: A short-lived ghost

“Can’t do, if you remain like this, refusing to accept money while saving others, I’ll not follow you from now on!”

“Fatty, don’t be like this.....”

The two men actually started to quarrelled in front of Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli gave a silent snigger.

She had seen plenty of such tricks, to echo one another, wasn’t the main motive to ask her for silver?

Too bad her money was not that easily earned!

Those who intend to swindle money from her would probably need to pay the price by at least hundred-fold!

These scum mercenaries had better have some savings, or they would probably not be able to afford the price of offending her!

Huang Yueli silently removed a interspatial ring from her finger. To hide the fact that she had the Sky Phoenix Ring in her possession, the interspatial ring was worn as a disguise.

There was nothing much kept inside the interspatial ring. Just some spare gold, silver, spirit stones and some leftover pills which she used to feed Li Moying.

She passed the interspatial ring to the bearded captain saying, “Captain, please don’t quarrel over us. I don’t have much silver or gold, so whatever I have in this interspatial ring, I’ll give it all to you.”

Fatty soldier snatched the interspatial ring from her, took a look and showed a look of disgust.

“Just these amount of things? Only the pills are worth some money, the rest are all rubbish!”

Huang Yueli sneered in her thoughts but continued, “We are only poor students.....”

The soldiers stole glances at one another, as if they had come to some common understanding.

Fatty soldier turned to look at her and opened his mouth to speak.

“How about your senior? This interspatial ring is only enough to save your life! If you want to save him, then give us him interspatial ring as well!”

When Huang Yueli heard these words, her heart went thumping hard!

These mercenaries were really greedy! They’ve even placed their designs on Li Moying!

Li Moying’s interspatial ring should be filled with plenty of valuables, unlike hers. Not including the other items he might already have, the half god relic that they’d obtained from Master Yun Tian’s cave should be kept inside his interspatial ring as well!

However, since the half god relic had already acknowledged its master, no one would be able to take it away.

However, Li Moying social status was extraordinary so there should be plenty of valuable items which matched his status.

Just as he was finishing his words, the fat soldier walked towards Li Moying and was about to pull up his hand.

Huang Yueli hastily stopped him, "Wait, don't touch senior. His injury is very serious, and he doesn't have anything valuable at all. He's even poorer than me!"

Fat soldier coldly snorted, "Poor? No matter how poor, he should have brought along some pills right? Move aside! If you don't move, I don't mind letting your senior die earlier! Anyway he's a short-lived ghost, there's definitely no cure for him. Might as well let him reincarnate earlier!"

Huang Yueli's eyes flashed across a murderous intent.

She could stand them bullying her, but they cannot do the same to Li Moying!

After tonight, she would definitely make this fatty pay the price!

But now.... allow her to criticize former mistakes to prevent larger scale repetitions later on!

Huang Yueli's fingers moved slightly and a flying needle silently slicked against the ground.

Just as the fat soldier reached the side of Li Moying, he suddenly shouted, "Owwww".

Following that, a loud thud was heard and dust filled the sky. The fat soldier had slipped and fell flat on his face!

"Damn it, why is there a porthole here!"

He struggled to get up and both nostrils started bleeding, looking very comical.

He would never had guessed the person who made the secret move was the delicate young lady whom he had thought of as a fat cow. He assumed that he himself failed to see the obstacle on the ground and had lost his own footing.

Chapter 424: One glance and you know she's a chickling

The fat soldier had disgraced himself and attracted the laughter from the other soldiers.

At this moment, he couldn't care less about Li Moying's interspatial ring.

At the same moment, bearded captain looked at the sky and told the others, "It's not early already, since the young lady had already passed us the engagement fee, then you're considered to be part of our group now. Come on and stay with us!"

Huang Yueli expressed, "We have our tent."

Her finger pointed at a small tent which was set up halfway and replied, "My senior and I will be staying in our own tent. There's no need to trouble all of you, brothers."

Bearded Captain didn't insist further.

Huang Yueli supported Li Moying and walked back to their tent.

She had just closed the curtain of the tent when the fat soldier could not resist grumbling to the bearded captain.

"Captain, you're too compassionate! Earlier when I said to get that man's interspatial ring, why didn't you help me? I only fell and you just let them go?"

While eyeing Huang Yueli's tent, bearded captain touched his moustache and slowly spoke out.

"What's the urgency? Look at you, you look as though you can't wait to reincarnate? And to make matters worse, you actually slipped and fell. Isn't it embarrassing enough? Didn't you see how seriously injured that man was? When that man is dead, won't that interspatial ring eventually fall into our hands?"

"That... that's right too.....", fat soldier retorted, "But, why must we wait? You're so polite to that little lass. Why can't we just snatch his things and deal with that lass? Anyway, we're deep in the forest, who will find out?"

Bearded captain heaved a deep sigh, giving him a resentful look for failing to meet his expectation and also for his impatience.

"Why haven't you gained any brains after being a mercenary soldier for so long! We are not in the city but in the inner zone of the Dark Moon Forest! There are so many Magical Beasts around, waiting for us to fall. If we were to struggle with that little lass now and she starts to run about screaming and alarms a powerful Magical Beast, then we are all going to be in deep st! What is more important, can't you tell?"

"But Captain, do you mean we must really protect these two little imps and help them leave the Dark Moon Forest? Then won't we make a huge loss? That little lass looks fresh, one look and she can tell she's a chickling, so dainty. clicking his tongue 'tsk tsk'. If she were to run away, I'd definitely be pissed off!"

Fat soldier couldn't help but feel a sense of urgency.

"Why don't you just die of stupidity!"

Bearded captain couldn't stop himself from exploding at the fat soldier.

"Who said anything about protect these two imps? Didn't we just managed to deceive them to join our group? When the night is deep and she is asleep, we will go bind and gag her, then.... heh hei..... when this sort of stuff has happened, the little lass can only follow us around. As for that man, it's even easier to handle. Since he's already half-dead, perhaps he might just die in the middle of the journey. Or perhaps when we are attacked by Magical Beasts, we have the option to throw him out to shield us temporarily!"

Fat soldier's face immediately showed an enlightened look.

"I see! Captain, you're so brilliant for planning so far ahead. It's my fault, my fault!"

"It's good that you're aware now!", Bearded Captain heaved a long sigh, "Make preparations for tonight. In the middle of the night when that lass is fast asleep, we shall...."

Fat soldier hurriedly nodded, "Yes yes yes, I'll listen to captain's arrangement!"

Chapter 425: A full moon tonight

Saying that, his rounded face showed a wretched expression as he whispered, "Captain, the lass' first time definitely belongs to you. But luring her into our group, I have gained some credits as well. Can I be the second one, please?"

Bearded captain kicked his foot, "We're all brothers, what's there to snatch? How come I don't see your proactiveness when we're fighting the Magical Beasts?"

"Ooooh, Captain please be appeased!"

Fat soldier left mockingly.

The two of them lowered their voices and discussed quietly.

What they didn't know was the contents of all that they had discussed were overheard by Huang Yueli.

Both of them thought they had gone far enough and their voices were inaudible but with Huang Yueli's spirit consciousness was extremely strong, different from any ordinary Qi Profound Realm's experts' level, so naturally these could not be hidden from her ears.

Upon hearing the shameless and sinister plot, Huang Yueli started to laugh grimly.

These fellows had better not come, because if they did, she would let them know what is to use a rock and smash against their own feet!

In the tent, Huang Yueli cleaned Li Moying's wounds and wrapped him in a new bandage.

Li Moying's wounds had indeed ruptured during the day, or perhaps when he swallowed the Red Scorpion Blood Transfusion Pills, it had already ruptured.

By the time Huang Yueli undressed him, the white bandage was already soaked in blood. The blood stains had already dried and hardened as the bandage stayed stuck to his body.

Luckily Huang Yueli wasn't afraid of blood stench. She used flames to illuminate the tent, slowly tore apart the blood stained bandage and carefully treated Li Moying's wound.

She took some pills out from the Sky Phoenix Ring and proceeded to feed Li Moying by mouth.

While she was feeding him the pills, she somehow wished that Li Moying would be like this morning, suddenly using his tongue out to caress her tongue.

She didn't feel as embarrassed as before and weirdly, she secretly hoped that sort of thing would happen again....

Only... it didn't.

Li Moying lay on the Silver Wolf's skin, his eyes shut tight and pale lips, not making any movements at all.

The only thing worth celebrating was his heartbeat and breathing, although weak, it was very stable. It didn't look like he would be in critical situation anytime soon.

Huang Yueli obtained some materials for setting up arrays and some lower grade Profound Weapons, and proceeded to set it up in the tent.

If those scum mercenaries dared to come in tonight, they would definitely be very surprised.

After she was done with the preparations, she didn't have any intention to sleep so she sat by the entrance of the tent and silently observed the external situation through the tent curtain.

Outside the tent, the men kept walking around. They cooked, ate and arranged the manpower for night duty.

Fatty and bearded captain were well coordinated and proactively took this job.

The others were fully aware of their intentions so they teased them a little but didn't go any further than that.

Very soon, the others returned to their own tents to rest.

The night sky gradually grew darker but it was still pretty bright on the outside, unlike the normal dark nights.

Huang Yueli then noticed that there was a full moon tonight.

In between the crevice of the forest tree branches, a full moon could be seen vaguely, overlooking the land.

A few dark clouds were seen floating by the side of the moon.

"Dark clouds covering the moon... this premonition... it's not good at all!", Huang Yueli muttered to herself.

Just at this very moment, she heard a loud rustling noise, following a vague sound making its way through.

Chapter 426: Little Beauty, here I come

"How is it? It's already the middle of the night, should we take action?"

"En, it's time already. That little lass should be fast asleep."

“That’s great!”, Fat soldier excitedly exclaimed, “I’ve been waiting for the entire night until all the heat from within is going to burst into flames!”

“Look at your impatient attitude! You’re a disgrace to the Werewolf Mercenaries! What’s so urgent? We... Oh, wait, you’re just going to rush in like that without any preparations?”

Bearded captain hastily held on to Fatty.

“Of course, otherwise how should we enter?”

“You’re really stupid! If you were to enter like that, you’d startle her. What happens if she starts to scream? It’s better to be more prudent when handling these type of matters!”

“Then what should we do?”, Fat soldier was flabbergasted.

The bearded captain mysteriously took out a box of bewitching gas from his pouch, lightly opened the hanging screen door, dabbed a little on a pipe and blew the contents into the tent.

The bewitching gas flowed into the tent.

After the time spent to burn half an incense, bearded captain said, “Alright, let’s make a move now.”

Fat soldier finally heard his confirmation and without any hesitation, he opened the hanging screen door and took big steps inwards.

Bearded captain followed closely, not forgetting to lecture his team member.

“We’ve used so much bewitching gas, it should be safe now! That little lass must be tight asleep. No matter how much we torture her, she won’t wake up and resist. When she awakes tomorrow, the rice would have been cooked, heh heh.....”

On the surface of the tent lay a layer of beast skin. And on the skin lay a slender figure lying flat.

The eyes of the fat soldier gleamed and he rushed to the front, almost salivating.

“Little beauty, here I come! I’ve let you wait for too long~~!”

All the fats on his entire face had formed into a ball of wretched grin which looked extremely disgusting.

Bearded captain didn’t want to be left behind so he ran over as well.

Just as they were about to touch the figure, in an instance, the shadow shuddered and stood up from the ground.

“She... She’s awake? Captain, didn’t you say this little lass had breathed in the bewitching smoke so it’s impossible for her to be awake?”

“That’s right. That bewitching smoke of mine is especially effective for practitioners below the sixth degree realm.....”

The captain had yet to complete his sentence when he looked at the figure in front and gave a terrified look.

Fat soldier saw his reaction and hurriedly looked towards his direction. He only took one glance when he too, stood rooted to the ground, with a shocked expression.

That little lass had stood up, her hair dishevelled and face filled with blood. Her clothes were stained with different blood stains, giving off a devilish look. The sides of her lips curled up coldly and stretched out her arms with the intention to catch them.

“You.. killed me... and my senior... I want... your lives!”

Saying that, that shadow staggered and like a piece of paper carried by the wind, floated towards the both of them.

Fatty turned green with fear and shakenly asked, “Cap... Captain, there’s a g...GHOST! Did that lass just commit suicide and become a vicious ghost?”

“What kind of joke is this?” The bearded captain’s expression looked horrible as well but he was more composed.

“We have yet to touch her, how could she have died? Of course it’s not a ghost! This little lass must have figured out that we will be here tonight and pretended to be a ghost to scare us!”

“Re...Really?” Fatty shakily questioned.

Chapter 427: This is way too creepy

“Of... of course... that must be it... it must be the little lass playing trick on us!”

Bearded captain wasn’t too sure as well but at this very moment, he cannot show his fear, so he had to be confident of his conviction.

Fat soldier seem to have found his pillar of strength, continued to ask while trembling with fear, “Then... captain, what should we do now?”

Bearded captain gritted his teeth and forcefully replied, “Since she’s intentionally fooling with us, we don’t need to stand on ceremony with her. Just tie her up and do whatever we want to do! Come, let’s go!”

Fat soldier nodded, “Yes, let’s go!”

Bearded captain waited for the fatty to make a move but he didn’t.

He turned around and urged, “Fatty, why didn’t you move?”

Fat soldier replied, “Captain, you.. weren’t you supposed to go along with me?”

The saying, vile people has no guts, was typically referring to these two scums. Their words were loud but in their hearts, they were afraid of ghosts. They intended to let the other party go ahead first to verify the truth before going up themselves.

The result was both of them were thinking of the same thing!

Both of them glanced at each other and the bearded captain shouted, "Stop being long-winded, let's charge together! I don't believe in abnormality, just a first degree lass, what tricks can she come out with?"

Fat soldier could only agree, "Alright, let's charge together!"

Without any hesitation, both of them charged towards the direction of the female ghost.

That slender figure didn't move. Just as they were about to press her onto the ground, a moment of happiness flashed across the bearded captain's head.

"See what I said, it must be that stupid lass's tricks. Look now, she will have to quietly listen to us now... oh? What's this??"

He had yet to finish his words when the figure suddenly flashed and in an instance, there were two of the same figures!

Both of them pounced onto emptiness and their faces were filled with trepidation!

"Ca...Captain, how did this lass turn into two? Cou... Could she really be a ghost?"

"No... No idea, maybe it's some kind of deception?"

"Are you sure? I saw with my eyes... wait, something is wrong.... That female ghost... has multiplied....."

At this moment, the two figures suddenly flashed together and this time, turned into four!

Following that, four figures flashed again and turned into eight identical twins.

Fat soldier was scared stiff, "S....So... SO MANY....."

Bearded captain also turned pale, "This is way too abnormal! There must be a problem here, we cannot stay here any longer, let's..... let's retreat....."

Fatty was just waiting for this sentence so when he heard it, he immediately turned and ran!

The duo tried to get out of the tent but when they turned back, they could not find the hanging screen door!

"That's weird! Didn't we just walk in from here? Door? Where's the door?"

"To hell with it.. door, where's the door? There's no door?"

Both of them surveyed the surroundings and realised that the entrance had mysteriously disappeared. The surrounding was all white and there was no existence of any exit.

"What shall we do?"

"Who cares about the door? Let's just force our way out! No matter what, let's just leave this hell of a place!"

Bearded captain was indeed the stable one. Gritting his teeth, he staked everything in one throw.

Not waiting for them to take any action, the eight white floating figures flashed again and multiplied into sixteen!

Chapter 428: Huang Yueli's trap

All the sixteen female ghosts were floating towards them at the same time, forming a circle and surrounded them. Each had on a sinister look. Their bloody hands stretched towards the duo, attempting to grab them!

This time, fat soldier was scared beyond recognition, his two feet trembled with fear as he started screaming.

"Ghost! Captain, there are really ghosts!"

Bearded captain was unable to sustain his usual composure as his face had turned purple with horror.

They ran amok within the tent amidst their flustering when a cold female voice rang from behind.

"As expected, you are gutless villains!"

"What??"

"Who's that?"

Both of them consciously turned their heads together but all they saw was a pair of menacing pupils staring at them in the darkness, as though the strong force would suck their souls away.

Just one glance was enough to cause them a splitting headache. Their minds went blank and their consciousness also began to become fuzzy.

When the bearded captain and fat soldier started to have the lifeless look in their eyes, Huang Yueli silently walked out from a corner.

Her arms were crossed and using a cold glance, she stared at these two scums.

After the earlier episode, their hair were dishevelled and expressions extremely terrified. They were covered in mud entirely, their appearance were dirty and discomposed.

Huang Yueli crooned coldly and spat out two words, "Kneel down!"

"Plop", two powerful fifth degree realm mercenaries went down on their knees without any hesitation and started to outdo each other at kowtowing.

"Miss Yue, I must have been blind to have offended you. Please be magnanimous and let us off!"

"Yes, Miss Yue, please spare our lives!"

The brute force that they used to kowtow was very vigorous, as the banging made thumping sounds. Two huge bumps formed on their foreheads within a short period of kowtowing.

A mocking expression flashed across Huang Yueli's eyes.

She had predicted that these two scums would definitely drop by when night fell so she specially made some arrangements.

She had set up an Illusion Array within the tent. Once she activated the array, anyone who entered the array's boundaries would see the terrifying illusion.

It was an illusion when the duo saw the female ghosts upon entering the tent. But as Huang Yueli's Illusion Array was very realistic and they bore a guilty conscious, they entered into a temporary state of confusion.

Besides that, Huang Yueli also took the opportunity to utilise her Piercing Sky Eye technique, controlled their state of mind and subdued them easily.

By right, based on her current level of cultivation and soul trace, she would not be able to control these fifth degree realm practitioners, as they ranked much higher than her several folds. That explained why she went on a roundabout way to pre-set the illusion array, so as to intimidate them into a state of confusion and disorientation before using her Piercing Sky Eye technique and took control at one go!

Amidst these actions, she also made use of the moonlight effect.

Moonlight was very useful in adding special effects, especially that tonight was a full-moon night with the moon being particularly clear. What exceptional good luck it was.

That was why her plan was executed so successfully.

Huang Yueli looked at the two scums who were kneeling and the sides of her lips curled.

Hmph, dare to have designs on her? Tried to con her silver? Cursed Li Moying to die?

How could she let them go easily like that without paying the price?

Count their bad luck that they have fallen into her hands!

Looking at beardy and fatty kowtowing till their foreheads were almost broken with blood spilling all over the ground, Huang Yueli sat on the animal skin and began to speak slowly.

Chapter 429: Just this bit of money? Are you trying to dismiss a beggar!

"Your nerves are made of steel, isn't it? How dare you even have designs on us and steal my interspatial ring? How should I make you pay... for this matter?"

Bearded Captain hurriedly dug for Huang Yueli's interspatial ring and offered it back to her with both arms.

"Miss Yue, your interspatial ring here here! We have not touched anything inside, I guarantee that it's the same as before, nothing has changed! Please accept it!"

Huang Yueli lazily stole a glance at the interspatial ring but she didn't take it.

"What? Took my things? And hope that I treat that nothing had happened? Not even intending to compensate me?"

“Oh, yes...yes! Of course!”

Bearded captain quickly nodded and took out a pile of spirit stones from his own interspatial ring and placed it on the ground.

This pile was almost the height of a person, with at least a few thousand pieces of medium quality spirit stones. To a powerful group such as the Werewolf Mercenaries, this was worth a large fortune!

“Miss Yue, this is the reward that our Mercenaries has earned for this assignment, please kindly accept it!”

Beardy looked at Huang Yueli nervously, fearing her refusal to accept these.

Huang Yueli touched her chin and felt some satisfaction from this scenario.

Hmm, who would have known that the Werewolf Mercenaries was pretty rich. Just one assignment could gain that much earnings! Since that was the case, she should make hay while the sun rises!

However, Huang Yueli did not accept the offerings and added, “Just this bit of money? Are you trying to dismiss a beggar! The things you did today was not just to steal our items, you’ve also caused distress to my senior, causing his injury to be even more serious now! All these.... are caused by you! Don’t you feel ashamed? Guilty? Remorse?”

Every time she asked a question, bearded captain and fatty lowered their heads a little.

Finally, Huang Yueli concluded, “So, these amount of spirit stones that you had just offered.... are barely enough!”

“Th... then.... then Miss Yue, what do you think we should do?”

Huang Yueli took a glance at the interspatial rings on their hands and announced, “You took my interspatial ring so naturally you should return another one to me as compensation. So that makes a total of two interspatial rings! Both of you please hand in your interspatial rings now!”

“Ah? interspatial ring?”

“But.....”

Both men became hesitant upon hearing the daylight robbery request.

Even though their minds were being controlled by the Sky Piercing Eye technique causing their judgement to be cloudy, their inner sense could still feel that the interspatial ring was something extremely valuable. The accumulation of the fortunes throughout these years of life and death situations, were all in it!

Huang Yueli sensed their hesitation and rose her eyebrows.

It was no wonder they were fifth degree realm practitioners, their willpowers weren’t too bad.....

While she was thinking, her fingers moved and once again activated the illusion array within the tent!

Silver-white sheen spilled down from above and blended together with the array pattern!

In an instance, all sixteen female ghosts appeared before their eyes again.

And this round their images were even more menacing and sinister; even their eyes started spilling blood and their eyeballs shone like luminous green ghost fires. Anyone who had seen this would feel a tingling sensation on their skin.

Both of them were scared out of their wits.

“Oh my god, Ghost! There’s ghostsss~~~~~!”

“Help! Save me!! I’m scared!”

Huang Yueli chuckled, “Go on, scream all you want to! Even if you screamed till you are hoarse, no one will come and save you!”

Chapter 430: Polluting her eyes

Even if their screams had resonated to the skies, with the array that Huang Yueli had set up in the tent, none of the sounds were transmitted out!

Bearded captain was slightly more gutsy. He took out the dagger he had around his waist and attempted to chop the female ghosts up!

Unfortunately, these ghost were illusions which could not die. Every single time he managed to dispel the ghost with a single stab, the ghost would auto generate itself and became even fiercer and more terrifying than before.

Huang Yueli sat by the corner and enjoyed her Abstinence pill while watching their performance.

The duo were struggling and screaming. Even though they felt that they had already ran far away, in actual fact they were simply frolicking around a small area near the entrance of the tent.

As their screaming was way too wretched, Huang Yueli cut a piece of cloth from her dress, rolled them into small balls and stuffed it into Li Moying’s ears to prevent him from being disturbed.

Soon after, both of them collapsed from exhaustion.

Huang Yueli stood up and once again used her Piercing Sky Eye technique on them.

This round, the shock they received was much more intense and since this was the second time she used the Piercing Sky Eye technique to affect their conscious, the suggestion made to them was even stronger than before.

“How is it? Have you considered carefully? Will you compensate senior and me fully?”

By now these two scum balls were scared stiff so they did not dare to defy Huang Yueli’s order.

“Of course, of course! Miss Yue, we will give all out fortunes to you. We do not dare to hide anything from you. Please let us go!”

“Yes Miss Yue, all these are you for... for you!”

While they were speaking, they quickly removed their interspatial rings and threw it in front of Huang Yueli.

She didn't stretch out her hands to receive it, but claims, "What else? Just a spoilt interspatial ring? Give all that you have to me, no hiding of any sorts!"

Both of them searched everywhere and removed all the Profound Weapons, Profound Artifacts, Medicinal Pills, spare silvers, everything they had on them. Finally, they even wanted to take off all their clothing and offer it to Huang Yueli to settle their debts.

Huang Yueli saw what they were doing and urgently told them, "That's enough!"

Their figures were horrible as a pig and yet they still dared to strip! Simply trying to pollute her eyes!

Bearded captain and Fatty immediately stop and awaited for her instructions while trembling with fear.

Huang Yueli used two fingers to pick up bearded captain's interspatial ring. Upon looking inside, she let out a satisfied expression.

"Oh? I didn't expect, the Werewolf Mercenaries to be pretty rich. There're plenty of good things inside!"

There were few thousands of high quality spirit stones, and a few uncommon fourth tier medicinal pills and plenty of materials and spare Profound Armaments. Adding up the total, it was enough to buy the entire South Yue Kingdom!

Next up was fatty's interspatial ring and kept all the items for "compensation" into the interspatial ring.

Her vision fell once again on the duo.

Seeing their half naked bodies shivering with cold, the tips of her lips curled into a cold laugh.

This little fortune was only enough to compensate the incident of attempting to rob Li Moying and her interspatial rings!

As for the other matter, which was attempting to enter her tent with the intention to rape her.... She had yet to mete out the punishment for that!

Her lips curled and as she spoke, her voice seemingly having some tones of demagoguery.

"What were your intentions, coming to the tent so late at night?"

"We..."

Looking at the deep expression in her eyes, both of their consciousness were lost in a daze once again.
