

Weaponsmith 491

Chapter 491: Because I want to wallop you!

Murong Ni was appalled to the max and knew that she cannot hesitate further. Her fingers dug deep into her realm ring, drew out something and threw it towards Huang Yueli

Even though her action was pretty fast, Huang Yueli was faster!

Before Murong Ni had a chance to strike, she felt her feet were unsteady as if something had tugged at her. Subsequently she plopped onto the ground.

The Profound Artifact that she held in her hands dropped onto the ground.

“Has no one ever told you that you should never provoke an Armament Master in their territory, or else..... you will die terribly?”

An Armament Master’s nest was always filled with plenty of mechanisms so most practitioners do not dare to barge in without permission.

This array’s boundaries naturally were Huang Yueli’s territory. Surrounding it were some little mechanisms. Murong Ni had dared to take action against her at this type of place so she would have a terrible ending.

Huang Yueli walked over and bent down to pick up that item.

It was a delicate ball-shaped Profound Artifact. The entire thing was dazzling with the radiance of the rainbow colours and looked exquisite. But in actual fact, this was a very powerful Profound Artifact and was extremely dangerous.

Huang Yueli naturally recognised this.

“The Rainbow Profound Photosphere.....a photosphere which condenses attack power of seven different Profound Energy. It can only be used once and the intensity depends on the tier of the Artifact. This is a seventh tier Profound Photosphere and so, just one attack is enough to launch the power of a seventh degree realm practitioner. It’s no wonder you’re the daughter of a big Sect, this thing is worth lots of silver.”

“You... you know about this too?”

“Of course, I’m an Armament Master. Murong Ni, your memory is really bad!”

Murong bit her lips, “Let me go and return the Profound Photosphere to me, I... I will let you off.”

Huang Yueli gave her a surprised look and chuckled, “Do you think I’m dumb? Do I need to let you off? Think carefully about how you’re going to beg me for mercy!”

As Huang Yueli was talking, under the embittered gaze of Murong Ni, she calmly kept the Rainbow Profound Photosphere into her own realm ring.

She was sighing in her heart, a daughter from a reputable Sect is just rich. This seventh tier Rainbow Profound Photosphere was worth a fortune and they just gave it to this brainless junior.

But it was because of this that she could make a small fortune out of it.

Huang Yueli kept the Profound Photosphere and bent over to pick up a long whip.

This whip was Murong Ni's weapon and it was a fourth tier upper grade Profound Weapon. She pleaded with the Sect's most powerful Elderly Armament Master to refine it for her when she reached her marriageable age. It used up a lot of valuable and rare materials and had always been her favourite.

Seeing Huang Yueli pick up the whip, she stared till her eyeballs were about to fall out.

"That is my whip.... You... how dare you snatch my whip?"

Huang Yueli took the whip and brandished it several times to test the feel of it and lightly laughed lightly, "This kind of fourth tier item, I'm not interested so don't worry, I'll return you the whip after I'm done."

"Who are you trying to cheat? Once you laid your hands on such a good Profound Armament, would you return it? Lay it down if you have the ability!"

Huang Yueli's lips curled upwards and with a deep meaning, she replied, "I'm not bluffing you. The reason why I'm holding it is not because I've taken a liking to it, but entirely because.... I want to wallop you!"

Murong Ni heard the words and fell into a daze. Before she had yet to come around it, Huang Yueli had already raised the whip and struck it towards her face.

"Pow!"

"Ah! Yueli.... You.....you dare....."

Murong Ni's face instantly flashed a deep and long bloody scar, causing her to scream in pain on the spot.

Chapter 492: Someone from the Sect

Huang Yueli's wrist roused and without stopped, another whip was struck out!

"Tell me if I dare to or not?"

"Pow!" "Pow!" "Pow!"

One lash after another, Huang Yueli continuously struck without stopping.

The method that Huang Yueli struck was extremely vicious. She specially struck the extremely painful positions. Just a few lashes and Murong Ni was already rolling around in pain, her tears kept flowing.

However, Murong Ni's feet were clasped tightly by Huang Yueli's trap, held tightly by the iron chain. There was no way to struggle free so she could only roll around with no escape route!

"Ah!.....Ah! You b***h, how dare you treat me in this way, my father will never let you off! .... Help, HELP! Fifth Brother save me! .... Woo woo woo, Miss Yue Li, I'm in the wrong, please let me off..."

Murong Ni couldn't stop screeching.

Initially she used her status in an attempt oppress Huang Yueli but when she realised she didn't even bother about this, she attempted to look for Luo Jiyun for help. However Luo Jiyun had entered the tent to look after Li Moying so he didn't pay any attention to this area. Besides that, this array was soundproof so her cries for help did not reach him.

After that, she finally gave up and couldn't care less about her face and continued to ask for mercy.

Huang Yueli sneered, "Stop using your father to scare me, I'm educating his daughter a lesson! Obstinate, conceited, self-centered, full of malicious schemes but yet you don't have the equivalent ability and discernment, you deserve a lesson! Today I will let you know that no matter who makes a mistake, that person deserves to pay the price!"

"Help... help..."

Huang Yueli lashed out viciously but she managed to do it in a way where she didn't faint.

Murong Ni could only continue to struggle, blood stains appeared everywhere on her entire body, her clothes were shredded to pieces, almost unable to cover up.

Just at this moment, the sky echoed a weird sound.

It sounded like the wind like the sound of some huge flying Magical Beast flapping it's wings.

Following that was the appearance of a large shadow, the rays above were slowly dimmed as if something was blocking the sky.

Huang Yueli sensed this strange predicament, stopped whipping and looked up.

She only saw that afar was a huge flying ship of at least over ten meters, flying steadily towards their direction.

Flying ship was a commonly seen flying Profound Artifact of at least eight tier and above. The construction was vast and generally required a few Armament Masters of eight tier and above to work together for a duration of at least a year or more before its completion.

This type of flying ship was absolutely not something that commoners could use. Even among the ninth degree realm top practitioners, there were few who had the fortunes. Generally it would be those big Sects who had accumulated the fortunes for several thousands of years before they could afford a few fleets.

And generally only when the Sect Master or Elderly Seniors set off on a long journey, then will it be used.

Upon hearing the noise, Luo Jiyun excitedly ran out and used all his might to wave his hands towards the direction of the flying ship.

The people onboard the ship had apparently seen him and slowly descended towards the empty field in front of the Profound Lunar Jade mine.

Huang Yueli raised her brows and in her heart, she had already some understanding.

From the looks of it, this flying ship was from the Sect that Li Moying belonged to. It should be here to receive him.....

Outside the array.

Luo Jiyun's face was filled with smiles as he stood out to receive them.

"This is great, Brother Mo Yi, Senior Brother should be fine! We are really lucky today. The Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror that Sister-in-law refined is effective and looks like Senior Brother is going to regain his consciousness anytime soon. Now the someone from the sect has arrived, we can take the flying ship back immediately. This time, there shouldn't be any more problems!"

Chapter 493: Why is it him?

Mo Yi heard Luo Jiyun but his reaction wasn't as enthusiastic. Instead he frowned.

He didn't know if he had thought too deeply but Mo Yi had the feeling that things wouldn't be as smooth as what Luo Jiyun thought.

He simply replied, "Young Master Luo, let's go over and take a look."

The flying ship stopped steadily in front of them and a flight of stairs slowly descended. A pack of people walked out from the ship.

The minute he saw the leader of the pack, Luo Jiyun's expression fell, "Wh... Why is it him?"

He murmured in a low voice, but unknowingly the other party heard him, the leader of the pack curled up his lips and said, "Fifth Junior Brother, what is it? You don't seem to be too happy.... to see me? Don't you know how to greet me? Or could it be that after you've gone out on a journey with Senior Brother, you have forgotten how to spell the word 'courtesy'?"

Luo Jiyun was extremely unhappy with his sarcastic words but he didn't dare to defy him. He could only lower his head as he walked over and greeted him, "Second Senior Brother, long time no see. Why did you.... come over today?"

The man who was known as Second Senior Brother by Luo Jiyun looked refined and handsome. The long green robe that he was wearing gave out an elegant and graceful feel and some delicateness.

If one had not known the truth, they would never have thought that he was an extremely powerful practitioner.

His voice was soft and when he talked, his tone was gentle. He was the total opposite of Li Moying, who gave out a pressurizing feel with just a glance.

Even so, Luo Jiyun, Mo Yi and the rest did not dare to slight him.

That man looked deeply at Luo Jiyun and said, "Fifth Junior Brother..... you don't welcome me?"

"N...No, it's just that... I heard from the elders that you had gone to Sky Emperor City to gain experience and you had the intention to sign up for some competition, so I thought you would be gone for quite some time....."

"Too bad, I've let you down. Something happened to Senior Brother so no matter what, I should make this trip down personally. What's more, the annual Sect competition is about to start, so Teacher and the rest are very busy. How could they be alarmed by such a small matter? So naturally..... I'm the only one who can come over."

Luo Jiyun was wailing bitterly in his heart and felt that he was super unlucky.

After Li Moying fainted, he hurriedly sent out a SOS order to the Sect. This special tablet could only be used once and only the core disciples would bring it with them. Usually, only when they met with a life and death situation then would this be used.

Once the Sect received this safety call for help, they would immediately send out their elders for assistance.

Li Moying had one tablet with him, and his carried the most weight. This was because he carried with him, the entire Sect's expectations so if he were to fall into trouble, it was natural that the Sect Master would personally come forward to rescue him.

Luo Jiyun had thought it would be a certain Elder, or even their Teacher.

Who knew, the person who came was the Second Senior Brother, who was most disagreeable with Li Moying.....

This was the weirdest part, where on earth did he receive their rescue order? And how did he manage to convince the Sect's Elders to allow him to bring his force to come forward?

Even so, Luo Jiun didn't dare to express his thoughts.

"Second Senior Brother, listen to what you're saying. Of course it's great that you came."

The man opened his eyelids and his handsome face expression a gentle smile.

"What exactly happened to Senior Brother? This seems to be the first time he sent out a rescue order to the Sect? To think that with his ability, he still requested for help, so the trouble he has met with, must not be something small."

Chapter 494: No way to hide

Momentarily, Luo Jiyun didn't know where to start from and started hemming and hawing, "Yes.... We met with a bit of trouble...."

His thoughts kept swirling around.

Li Moying and this Second Senior Brother, Li Lingchuan, had never been able to get along, with plenty of tussles between the two of them. Li Lingchuan had chosen to appear at this timing and since no one knew his motive, should he tell the truth about Li Moying's current condition?

But if he didn't say and delayed Li Moying's condition, it would result in a serious consequences. If he were to tell, how much should he reveal?

Just as Luo Jiyun was hesitating, Li Lingchuan was already looking in the direction behind him.

"I never thought that Senior Brother would send out the rescue order since his subordinates are around. It seems that things are not as simple as I thought. Let me guess, could it be that Senior Brother's illness has acted up again?"

"...." Luo Jiyun had not expected him to make an accurate guess so he was dumbstruck.

However, silence means consent.

Li Lingchuan's lips curled into a smile and he continued, "It's not the first time Senior Brother had left the Sect for such a long period of time. His symptoms acting up doesn't seem that often but this round, obviously there's a reason for it. Let me guess, was Senior Brother surrounded by Magical Beasts in the Dark Moon Forest and sustained some serious injury?"

Luo Jiyun remained silent.

Although Li Lingchuan's innate skill was not as deep as Li Moying, he had always been shrewd and deep. People like him were often smarter than the straightforward person like Luo Jiyun. He only needed to observe the actions and tone and he could roughly guess the situation.

It was impossible for Luo Jiyun to play mind games with him.

Li Lingchuan looked at his expression and knew he was right, so he smiled and continued, "What's the matter? Fifth Junior Brother, why won't you say a word? Did I guess wrongly? Senior Brother is actually fine? Why won't he come out and meet me then?"

"Senior Brother is..."

"What happened to him? Has he remained unconscious ever since his symptoms acted up? It's best that you explain the situation to me clearly, otherwise... I don't know how I can help you?"

Luo Jiyun took a deep breath and he knew he could not hide Li Moying's condition any further, so he could only briefly brush through it, "Second Senior Brother, your guess is correct. Senior Brother had indeed gotten into an accident and sustained some injuries. Subsequently his illness acted up and till now he has yet to come around. I'm a bit worried so I used the safety order."

Li Lingchuan's expression was unfathomable as he stretched out his hand and patted Luo Jiyun on his shoulder.

"I see, what's there to hide? In this case, Senior Brother is still inside the tent? Let me go in and take a look!"

Saying that, Li Lingchuan took a few big strides past Luo Jiyun and proceeded into the tent.

Luo Jiyun frowned with an unsettling feeling in his heart as he turned back and looked at Mo Yi.

Mo Yi shook his head at him and said, "Young Master Luo, don't worry. Although Master has yet to wake up, but no one can hurt him. What's more, not everyone on the flying ship are Young Master Li's men. Unless he kills all of us, otherwise... he wouldn't dare to take action under so many pairs of eyes."

Luo Jiyun felt slightly relieved and followed closely into the tent.

Once Li Lingchuan saw Li Moying, his faces showed traces of surprise.

He had originally thought that based on past cases, after Li Moying's symptoms acted up, the entire condition would be extremely terrible. Including the fact that it had acted up in the Dark Moon Forest, they didn't have time to make much preparations, he should be at least half dead.

But who knew, Li Moying looked like he was doing well.

Chapter 495: Useless fools who cannot even protect your Master

Li Moying quietly laid on the beast skin and although he was unconscious, his complexion looked normal, his breathing was stable and the centre of his eyebrows reflected a peaceful look. If he had not known about his condition beforehand, he would have thought that he was just sleeping.

Li Lingchuan raised his eyebrows and stretched out his hand. He had yet to reach Li Moying before he was stopped by Mo Yi.

"Young Master Li, Master is very weak now so he cannot be disturbed. Please allow us servants to do the manual tasks such as carrying or taking care of him. You're Master's Junior Brother so your status is very distinguished. You would probably not have any experience in tasks such as taking care of others."

A blunt but reasonable conversation.

Most people would probably not insist further.

But not only did Li Lingchuan not retract his hand, he retorted, "How did the few of you take care of Senior Brother? As his subordinates, you didn't risk your lives to protect him? Senior Brother is so heavily injured and yet the few of you are not harmed at all? You still dare to claim you know how to take care of others? All of you, get lost, you're not in a position to talk!"

Mo Yi, Mo Er and Mo San stood in front of Li Moying and refused to budge.

Li Lingchuan's eyes flashed a sliver of coldness and the Qi he released caused Mo Yi and the rest to turn pale instantly!

They were just in the fifth degree realm but Li Lingchuan was a genuine sixth degree realm practitioner!

Not only was Li Lingchuan's cultivation higher than them, he had alarming innate skills in terms of Profound Skill and Cultivation Method.

If it wasn't for the fact that he had met the evildoer like Li Moying, in the South Sky Region, he would be labelled as a super genius that could only be found in every one hundred years!

"Get lost! You useless fools who cannot even protect your Master!" he shouted sternly.

The oppressing power of high level practitioners were extremely powerful. Every word he spat out felt like thousand grams of weight, weighing heavily on their chests, causing their blood to boil to the extent of spitting out blood!

But Mo Yi and the rest didn't step back!

Li Lingchuan started to worry. He had hurried over because he knew Li Moying was weak now and his soul damage was extremely critical. Once there were hiccups in his recuperation stage, it would lead to a long term damage, and if it was serious enough, he might not be able to cultivate further.

If he were to make some small moves, even if something were to happen to Li Moying, they would not be able to find any evidence.

Li Lingchuan had thought that since Li Moying set off the rescue order, his subordinates should have been seriously injured so whatever he had planned to do could be easily done.

He didn't expect that not only were Mo Yi and the rest not injured, they were loyally blocking his way.

Now things took a turn and it was not as easy as he thought. If he were to take action, unless he killed everyone and not leave any witness, otherwise if the actions were to flow to the Sect Master's ears, he would get into big trouble.

Li Lingchuan's thoughts turned quickly as he let out a cold grin.

"How dare you block me? If it wasn't for you who didn't protect Senior Brother, how would he get injured? Men, drag these useless fools who got Senior Brother into trouble away! Whoever dares to resist will be counted as betrayal to the Sect. Don't blame me if my subordinates don't show any mercy!"

He had pinned a charged on Mo Yi and the rest, so that he could get his men to hold them back.

Even if his subordinates cultivation levels were not as high as Mo Yi, but now that Li Moying was unconscious, if Mo Yi dared to resist against Li Lingchuan, it would be counted as insubordination.

By then Li Lingchuan would have a legitimate reason to kill them all.

Mo Yi and the rest realised his intentions and their faces turned pale instantly!

They had never expected Li Lingchuan to be so vicious and scheming!

The few of them were willing to throw their lives away for Li Moying but.... if Li Moying were to fall into the hands of Li Lingchuan, what should they do?

Chapter 496: Li Moying's fiancée

Just at this critical moment, a clear voice echoed from outside of the tent.

“Stop! Who dares to touch Mo Yi and the rest?”

Everyone looked towards the door with query.

The slender and graceful figure who slowly walked in was Huang Yueli.

Even though she had constantly rushed around and refined armaments for seven days continuously, her clothes were dirty and her face showed signs of tiredness, her eyes were clear and penetrative and there was nothing to pick on her dignified temperament.

When Li Lingchuan first looked at her, his eyes brightened.

His vision was different from the rest. On first look, he could tell.... that this juvenile looking lady was not simple.

Luo Jiyun, Mo Yi and the rest fretted when they saw Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli appearing in front of Li Lingchuan was not a good matter. Li Moying was still unconscious and he could not protect her. If Li Lingchuan had wanted to use her to attack Li Moying, there was nothing anyone could do to stop him!

The few of them used eye contacts to hint Huang Yueli for her to leave quickly.

Even though their eyes were going to cramp up, Huang Yueli appeared as if she had not seen anything. Her footsteps slowly but steadily walked closer.

Li Lingchuan's gaze stopped on her and as he watched her walk in front of him, his eyes reflected an undetectable interest.

“Who are you? Why did you stop my men from taking action?”

He looked at the immobile Li Moying then looked at Huang Yueli and when he opened his mouth to speak, he used an unsuspecting tone to test her.

“Don't tell me... you're one of the women who admires Senior Brother?”

Huang Yueli indifferently swept a glance at him and said, “I am not. I am.... Li Moying's fiancée.”

“What? Senior Brother has a fiancée?” Her words gave him a big shock.

“That's right. I'm Li Moying's fiancée, Mo Yi and the others' future Mistress. Li Moying is unconscious so they must listen to my orders! Who are you to lay orders on other people's subordinates?”

Li Lingchuan's eyes squinted as he stared at Huang Yueli for a while. He suddenly thought of something and slowly let out a smile.

“You are Senior Brother's fiancée? I think you must be thinking too much? The women who admire Senior Brother are plentiful! A woman like you... in terms of looks, you're just above average. In terms of innate skill, the distance is heaven and earth. He will be willing to get engaged with you? Do you think that since he's unconscious, you can pretend to be his fiancée?"

He was clearer than anyone on Li Moying's luck with ladies. The women who chased him were countless. Every other day there would be someone who claimed to be his fiancée, and without a doubt, every single claim was fake.

This was one of the main reasons why Li Lingchuan could not stand Li Moying.

He was obviously the charming handsome man but he paled in comparison when he stood beside Li Moying.

In the eyes of those ladies was only Li Moying. However, Li Moying had an expression filled with coldness, rejecting all of them far far away. He had broken countless hearts of these young ladies.

Daughters from large Sects with innate skills that high, looks that beautiful and their parentage so elegant, however Li Moying could never find anyone suitable. How would he ever choose someone as common as Huang Yueli?

Li Lingchuan naturally categorised Huang Yueli as one of those who admired Li Moying. In order to stop him from bringing Mo Yi and the rest away, she had jumped out as an imposter.

Chapter 497: Other women have no chance at all

Huang Yueli smiled slightly, "Really? There're so many women who likes my Li Moying? But too bad, he's already engaged to me, so the other women have no chance at all!"

Li Lingchuan's eyes rolled upwards. When he didn't smile, he looked slightly sinister.

He stared at Huang Yueli's eyes and shook his head, "Miss, I think it's better for you to stop pretending. Did you think you're helping him? Li Moying won't thank you for this. When he wakes up and realises that you're imposing as his fiancée, he'd be very angry! He has never been known to show tenderness to any woman!"

Huang Yueli pouted secretly, her heart gave a tingling feeling.

Why did Li Moying have so many rotten romances! It wasn't only that blind lass, Murong Ni who secretly admired him, there were always people who hinted that she didn't match up to him!

What was wrong?

If it wasn't Li Moying who pestered her first, she wouldn't even bother about him!

But this was not the time to haggle over this.

Huang Yueli shook off the distracting thoughts and calmly said, "I'm not lying to you. Li Moying and I are absolutely fiancé and fiancée. I'm sure you know that Li Moying's biological father is the emperor of South Yue Kingdom and I... am the fiancée whom his father had selected. If you don't believe, you may ask Mo Yi and the rest."

Li Lingchuan heard her clear and logical narration and turned his head suspiciously to glare at Mo Yi and the rest.

Mo Yi immediately replied, "Master had personally introduced Third Miss was his unwedded fiancée. For the duration that Master was unconscious, we heeded Third Miss's orders."

Li Lingchuan raised his eyebrows, and had a surprised look.

Mo Yi and the rest were very loyal to Li Moying. So even if it was a ruse, they would never succumb to randomly acknowledging anyone as their Mistress.

Since they have already spoken then it should be real, but.....

"To be honest, I really can't tell which part of you could attract such a high-sighted man like Li Moying, and for him to personally acknowledge you as his fiancée....." Li Lingchuan sneered.

Huang Yueli's expression remained unchanged, "For that part, I won't need Junior Brother, you to worry about that. But is that the attitude that you should use and talk to your future sister-in-law?"

Li Lingchuan started laughing when he heard that.

"Ha ha ha, you have got guts. Did you really think that just because of his parents' orders, you can get married to Senior Brother? I'll have you know that with Li Moying's status, his marriage has to go through the Sect's consent! Based on your status and innate skill, there's no way you can be his proper wife. At most you'd be made a concubine! As a concubine, do you think you're worthy of me greeting you as Sister-in-law?"

Listening to him ridiculing Huang Yueli, the expression on Luo Jiyun's face changed and he charged outwards.

"Don't you dare say that about Sister-in-law! Senior Brother has already said, Miss Yue will get married to him!"

Li Lingchuan glared sternly at him, "Looks like.... You've been bought over by this lass! As one of the direct inherited disciples from a reputable Sect, greeting a country bumpkin as Sister-in-law. Whatever next! Men, bring Young Master Luo onto the ship and let him calm down! Reflect on your mistake!"

A few bodyguards surrounded and pressed Luo Jiyun down.

Luo Jiyun had intended to resist but Li Lingchuan released a strike of Profound Energy directly at his chest, causing him to spit out blood on the spot!

This scene came as a shock to Huang Yueli.

Li Lingchuan's cultivation.... wasn't bad at all. Looks like even if Mo Yi and the rest worked together, they would not be his opponent at all.....

Seems like Li Moying is in deep trouble this round!

Chapter 498: Li Moying has awoken

Although Huang Yueli was worried on the inside, her face still showed calmness and her spoke in a gentle tone, “Junior Brother Li, you’re not following the rules in this way.”

Although Li Lingchuan’s smile was gentle but his expression was totally cold.

“Miss Yue, I’ve already said, you’re not qualified to greet me as Junior Brother! It’s right and proper that I’m teaching my Junior Brother a lesson, it’s not your turn to butt in!”

Hearing that, Huang Yueli’s smile disappeared and she said coldly, “I think the one who doesn’t have the authority is you! Your Senior Brother is still here! If it was to teach Junior Brother a lesson, that should be his matter. Does he need you to meddle in his affairs?”

Li Lingchuan’s gaze froze, “Senior Brother is currently unconscious, so I’m fulfilling my obligation as a Senior Brother! What I’m doing is for his own good. Even if Senior Brother awoke, he would not say I’m in the wrong!”

Huang Yueli raised her head and looked at him on equal footing, “What if... Li Moying has already awoken?”

“What do you mean?” Li Lingchuan paused momentarily.

Huang Yueli replied, “It is what is is! Li Moying had already awoken earlier in the morning and it’s because he’s overly tired, so I specially fed him pills that can aid him in his sleep, so that he can recuperate in peace. However, we didn’t expect you to suddenly appear!”

“I had originally thought that since you’re Li Moying’s Junior Brother, naturally you will make proper arrangements and not disturb him. But who knew, you took matters into your hands with no respect for him! The powder I’ve fed him is the Respite Powder! If you dare to touch him and he wakes up and flies into a rage.....even I won’t be able to stop him!”

Her face was peaceful as she used a calming tone to talk.

The Respite Powder was a commonly seen tranquilizer, often used when a practitioner was recuperating from their injuries. It was an inexpensive first level mid quality medication.

When this medication was taken, it would aid in sleep and hasten the speed in recuperation of wounds. The best part was no matter how noisy the surroundings were, it would have no effect on the patient.

However, once there was external contact to the body, even if it was just a light touch it would make patient to wake up in shock.

When Huang Yueli said these, Li Lingchuan’s brows indistinguishably twitched.

His stare towards Huang Yueli became extremely sharp and cold, as if it was a blade shooting towards the space in the middle of her eyebrows.

“You’re talking as if it’s real! Did you think that based on those few sentences, I’d believe you? Whenever Li Moying’s condition acted up, didn’t he always require at least half a month before he wakes up? What you’re saying was just to scare me off!”

Li Lingchuan’s gaze turned swift and fierce, his Profound Energy emitting out!

The huge oppression caused Luo Jiyun, Mo Yi and the rest to turn pale.

However, Huang Yueli didn't seem to have any adverse reaction, her expression and talking were as per normal, as though she wasn't facing any sixth degree realm expert, but just an ordinary person.

She laughingly said, "Since you think I'm bluffing... why don't you go over and test it out for yourself!"

Saying that, she turned, "Mo Yi Mo Er, Mo San, all three of you, stop blocking the way. Although his recovery will be slightly affected by this lack of sleep, but once he boards the ship, he can continue sleeping! All of you please move away and allow Junior Brother Li to take a look. Otherwise he will think that you have caused the death of his Senior Brother!"

Her smiling eyes swept across them and after a moment of hesitation, Mo Yi and the rest heeded her words and took two steps aside.

Seeing this, Li Lingchuan's smile slowly wiped away, he gazed deeply at Huang Yueli, Mo Yi and the rest, considering and hesitating on his next step to take.

Chapter 499: Heartbeat nearly stopped

By right, Li Moying's soul should be damaged and he should be unconscious.

But after Huang Yueli's deliberate narration, Li Lingchuan started to feel doubts.

Because Li Moying's condition looked different from usual. In the past, after his condition acted up, his entire face would turn green and purple. Just one look and you would know that he was seriously injured.

But today... he looked like he was just sleeping!

This scenario had never happened before in the past.....

Huang Yueli saw that he didn't give any reaction, shrugged her shoulders and said laughingly, "Junior Brother Li, didn't you think that I was lying? Then what are you hesitating for? Quickly go over! If he was really unconscious due to his illness, he shouldn't wake up no matter how you shake him!"

Hearing Huang Yueli said these, Mo Yi and the rest sweated profusely, anxious till their heartbeat nearly stopped.

Master's future wife's guts....was extraordinary! This type of words, she had dared to keep repeating!

If Li Lingchuan was agitated by what she said and he really went over to touch Li Moying, then the entire scenario would fail and by then, the few of them would have no place to hide!

However, compared to their frightened looks, Huang Yueli's expression was calm and collected. A sarcastic smile was hanging by her mouth as if she was purposely provoke the other party!

The more she acted in this way, the more suspicious Li Lingchuan became, and the more he couldn't get what she was up to!

If she was really lying to him... he only needed to move one finger to expose her. This lass was just in first degree realm, would she dare to make up such a big lie?

But if it's true.....

To be honest, Li Lingchuan didn't have the guts to provoke the conscious Li Moying. Even if he was seriously injured, the minute he woke up, it was enough to intimidate whoever who was using the opportunity to stir things up!

Li Lingchuan had long experienced several terrifying times when Li Moying flew into a rage!

Li Lingchuan was hesitant and Huang Yueli became even more pleased with herself.

"Mo Yi, please go and pack our things from the surroundings. I had asked you all to handle the Scarlet Eyed Blood Bats corpses, have you settled it yet? Don't forget to bring along those materials!"

"Mo Er, don't forget the barbecue sauce that I gave you the other time. I took an entire month to marinate that one bottle, so if it's lost, we'd have nothing else to eat!"

"Mo San, please pack up the items outside the tent and check if the stretcher is tough enough. When you're carrying your Master later, be gentler and don't awake him....."

Seeing that this ordinary little lass not scared of his own power, Li Lingchuan went into deep thoughts.

He had never seen anyone being able to command Li Moying's bodyguards before.

Huang Yueli actually managed to tame them?

Could it possibly be that she really was Li Moying's fiancée and Li Moying... was indeed just sleeping?

If that was the case, he shouldn't go and disturb the tiger in its den and since matters have yet to blow up, he should quickly pack up and leave.....

Just at this moment, the tent's hanging screen was pulled open.

"Second.... Senior Senior Brother, don't be fooled by this slut, Yue Li. Her... her mouth doesn't contain any real words!"

This voice sounded extremely familiar and everyone turned to take a look.

Murong Ni appeared at the entrance.

Her entire face was filled with blood and she could barely stand. Her fingers were gripping tightly against the sides of the tent to stabilise herself and her eyes were filled with hatred, staring daggers at Huang Yueli.

Chapter 500: Hard to distinguish truth or lies

Li Lingchuan almost couldn't recognise her!

Murong Ni looked very different from her usual unruly but dazzling appearance.

In his wildest dreams, he'd never expected the Junior Sister who had been pampered to the skies by everyone in the Sect, to appear before him in such a pathetic sight.

Although his heart was filled with shock, as he was well known for not showing any expressions. So he merely creased his eyebrows slightly.

"Junior Sister, what caused you to become like this? And.... You know this Miss Yue? Is she really Senior Brother's fiancée?"

"No! She's absolutely not! How would Senior Brother choose her? She's just another slut who is harassing Senior Brother! She took the opportunity and collude with Mo Yi and the rest when Senior Brother was unconscious, to harm me!" Murong Ni started screeching.

"Second Senior Brother, look at how pitiful I am, to have been bullied by her! All these injuries on me are caused by her! You must help me to redress my injustice!"

Murong Ni fell onto the ground crying hysterically, at the top of her voice. That stance was as if she had met her family!

But Li Lingchuan was indeed considered as her family.

Although Li Lingchuan and Li Moying were on loggerheads, secretly fighting over the future Sect Master's position for many years, but towards the Sect Master's youngest daughter, they took good care of her.

Li Moying was only giving face to the Sect Master so he was tolerant towards Murong Ni's behaviour.

Li Lingchuan was different. He had secretly admired Murong Ni's sister, Murong Fei for a long time, so in association, he treated this future sister-in-law well too.

Li Lingchuan looked at Murong Ni's pathetic sight, he felt astonished and a little difficult to believe Murong Ni's words.

No matter how he looked at this "Miss Yue", she was just a first degree realm practitioner. And since she came from a small country like the South Yue Kingdom, he estimated that she didn't have any good Profound Artifacts on her.

On the other hand, Murong Ni was the daughter of a reputable Sect, her cultivation is much higher and she had a survival trump card.

What ability did Huang Yueli have to bully Murong Ni to such a state?

He frowned, "Was it really this Miss Yue who did this to you? Why did she have the audacity to do this to you? Is she really Senior Brother's fiancée?"

"No, I already said she's not!"

Murong Ni stamped her feet in rage.

"This vixen used some underhanded methods to seduce Senior Brother and almost caused him to die! In order to save her, Senior Brother was seriously injured by the magical beast and later on was the full moon's night. His symptoms suddenly acted up and his wounds on his back erupted! Senior Brother was so seriously injured that since the full moon's night, he had been unconscious and have yet to awaken! Second Senior Brother, don't be hoodwinked by her!"

Huang Yueli's heart thumped wildly, chopping Murong Ni in several pieces!

She had already revealed the happenings so how could she continue to cheat him?

Li Lingchuan's glare fell onto her at the same timing as his eyes glinted a hint of laughter.

What Murong Ni said was apparently the truth. Li Moying..... had not awoken since the night of the full moon!

In that case, Huang Yueli was telling him lies!

He stared at that pretty face, his lips curled upwards and he said in a low voice, "Miss Yue, I'm starting to believe that you are really Li Moying's fiancée! Your lies are very convincing, even I.... am almost cheated by you!"

Huang Yueli's smile didn't change.

"I'm cheating you? What I have said are the truth! It's not up to me if you choose not to believe me!"
