

Weaponsmith 501

Chapter 501: Quickly take action!

Since Li Lingchuan already knew in his heart the truth, naturally he wouldn't be swayed any further.

He looked at the calm and collected Huang Yueli and couldn't help but feel some bits of admiration for her.

Although this lass's cultivation wasn't much, her guts, however, was something above the others. As compared to those experts who were much higher levels than her, she didn't bat an eyelid when plotting her scheme, nor did she appear flustered when she was exposed, as if she had a high chance of success.....

This bearing..... was truly worthy of being the woman behind the king.....

It was no wonder that Li Moying had good foresight and chose her.

Li Lingchuan couldn't help but stared at her a couple more times before he spoke, "Indeed, I don't believe you. No matter what you say to cheat me, I'm not going to believe it! Be it true or false, I'll know once I touch him."

Saying that, he couldn't care less about Huang Yueli's reaction and took a big stride forward towards where Li Moying laid.

Mo Yi and the rest had just heaved a sigh of relief, thinking that Huang Yueli had Li Lingchuan fooled but who knew the sudden appearance of Murong Ni turned the entire situation around.

As Li Lingchuan walked nearer and nearer, everyone started to fall into despair.

Looked like.... There was really no hope this round.

Luo Jiyun had long been held down by Li Lingchuan's subordinates, so he could only helplessly look at Li Lingchuan moving forward. He couldn't bear to see what will happen next so he shut his eyes and waited for that moment to happen.

But, the laughter that he had expected to hear from Li Lingchuan did not surface.

There was a sudden loud "bang" in the tent, followed by Li Lingchuan gritting his teeth as he said "Damn it!"

Huang Yueli shouted at the top of her lungs, "What are you guys waiting for? Quickly take action! Mo Yi, carry your Master and everyone else rush out of the tent!"

There seemed to be something weird about this scenario?

Luo Jiyun stared in astonishment as a row of traps suddenly arose in front of where Li Moying laid and Li Lingchuan had fallen onto the ground.

Huang Yueli was holding a Thunder Flame Ball in her hand and threw it directly towards Li Lingchuan's face!

“I’d long said this, when you’re in your grandaunt’s array, that means you’re in my turf! Trying to stir up trouble in an Armament Master’s turf, you must be tired of living!” she mumbled to herself as she pulled a face at Li Lingchuan.

Although her words were pretty, but deep down in Huang Yueli’s heart, she knew clearly that based on Li Lingchuan’s power, she was not able to trap him at all! It was because Li Lingchuan had not expected her to secretly activate her traps and he was caught unawares, that was why he fell into her trap!

Even so, they didn’t have much time!

Luckily, Mo Yi and the rest reacted very quickly. The minute they saw Li Lingchuan’s figure falter and fell downwards, they took action immediately.

Mo Yi rushed forward and dragging the stretcher, he flew towards the outside of the tent.

Mo Er and Mo San coordinated with Huang Yueli’s Thunder Flame Ball and released their strongest attack towards Li Lingchuan!

In a moment, flames filled the surroundings and the entire tent was blown up into the sky!

Everyone knew they were not Li Lingchuan’s opponent so they didn’t dare to engage in a long battle. After they have struck their moves, they turned and ran off immediately.

When Luo Jiyun saw this, he suddenly felt energised and the internal injury which was dealt by Li Lingchuan didn’t hurt anymore. He immediately coordinated with Mo Er, cast aside the surrounding bodyguards and dashed out with Huang Yueli.

Although their actions were fast, Li Lingchuan wasn’t slow at all!

At the very moment that he fell, he subconsciously noted that he had been schemed once again, by the innocent looking lass!

Chapter 502: Sister-in-law, you’re so resourceful!

Li Lingchuan had wanted to get back on his feet but he suffered the attack of the Thunder Flame Balls that Huang Yueli had thrown out next!

He had never expected Huang Yueli to throw out a fifth tier Profound Artifact, and so many at one go!

Adding on the obstructions of Mo Er and Mo San, all he could do was to defend himself.

But this sort of attack could only stop him from chasing up to them, and not seriously injure them. So once the Thunder Flame Balls attacks had halted, Li Lingchuan’s expression was filled with fury and he arose immediately!

Huang Yueli’s speed was the slowest amongst all of them.

When Mo Yi turned back, he saw Li Lingchuan’s shadow pouncing towards Huang Yueli and he couldn’t help but shout, “Third Miss, be careful!”

Li Lingchuan sneered, "Trying to escape? Just based on your first degree realm speed, are you able to escape? There's no woman who dares to play a trick on me! Don't you even think of...."

Before he could complete his sentence, he suddenly "Thud" and fell onto the ground again.

And this round, he fell even more seriously than the previous time!

The reason was because the previous time it was a small obstacle that tripped him but this round....

Li Lingchuan clenched his teeth as he raised his head, and in front of him appeared a large area of faint blue light array pattern!

Before Huang Yueli started refining the armament, she laid a Beast Diversion Array around the tent's surroundings, with the initial intent of preventing Magical Beasts from attacking Li Moying and the rest.

But now, since everyone had ran out of the tent, she took the opportunity to activate the array and trapped Li Lingchuan in the boundaries of the array!

As Li Lingchuan had not expected her to plan this, he used his fastest speed and chased them with his might. With such an incredible speed, the force that was used to bang onto the boundary of the array was no different from banging into a wall.

Just thinking about it made one feel extreme pain.

This scene left Luo Jiyun, Mo Yi and the rest dumbstruck.

After a while, Luo Jiyun spoke, "Sister-in-law.... You.... you are really too black-bellied and too resourceful.... You can even think of this?"

Mo Yi spoke out too, "Young Master Li doesn't seem to have taken such a big disadvantage before, and this round he had to fall in the hand of a woman whose cultivation level is lower than him by that much, I gauge that he should be mad with fury!"

Mo Er and Mo San laughed out loud.

Huang Yueli's expression remained heavy.

"Don't be happy so soon! My array was not mean for defence, so if he spends some time on it, he will be able to break it. It can only stop him for a quarter of an hour! We must get on the flying ship immediately before he breaks out of the array and clear everyone on the ship out, and fly off!"

"That's right, what Third Miss is saying is true! We must make haste!"

"Quick, everyone follow up!"

Upon hearing Huang Yueli's words, everyone stopped laughing and hurriedly sped towards the flying ship.

Li Lingchuan saw the direction they were running to and guessed what they were thinking. He felt a sense of urgency and fury!

As he drew out his long spear, while attacking the array to break out, he couldn't help but to start cursing!

“Sly and cunning woman! Just wait and see, don’t you fall into my hands! The rest of you don’t even think of escaping. There is no way for all of you to escape today!

However his voice was blocked out by the sound-proof features of the array, so it could not be heard from the outside.

Huang Yueli and the rest had took the opportunity and rushed up the flying ship.

There were few people on the flying ship and they were all brought over by Li Lingchuan from the Sect.

Some of they remained loyal to Li Lingchuan and started attacking the party!

However, the powerful ones were trapped in the array along with Li Lingchuan and those left on the ship, were not the strongest.

Chapter 503: Fall into enemy’s hands

Mo Yi and the rest settled the remaining resistance and those remaining, although they didn’t strike, Huang Yueli was worried that there might be some spies who had mixed themselves into the crowd.

Mo Yi listened to her instructions and hesitated.

“Third Miss, this is a flying ship. The ship will require a number of crew. If we were to clear everyone, I’m afraid there is no way this ship will be able to proceed....”

Huang Yueli’s glance swept past everyone on the deck and she casually pointed as she said, “I don’t trust these few people, you must make them leave the ship! The positions they are occupying are not important, I can arrange for someone to fill in their places! Don’t worry, even if the flying ship was short of some people, it will still move!”

“This....”

“Don’t hesitate any further, I can tell that.... Li Lingchuan is going to break out of the array anytime now!”

On the campsite not too far away, the sound of the tremors vibrated strongly and the ground was in a mess. Apparently the array would not last for a couple more breathes time and was going to be broken very soon!

Mo Yi didn’t hesitate further and hurriedly followed her instructions and chased those people whom Huang Yueli had picked, down the ship.

“The remaining people on board quickly assume your positions and drive the ship now!”

However, it was too late.

As a loud “RUMBLE” sounded, Huang Yueli’s array was broken to smithereens and a huge force caused the ship to vibrate.

“Go quickly!” Huang Yueli clenched her teeth as she urged them!

Li Lingchuan pointed his spear and snarled, "Want to escape? Impossible! You will have to all stay behind! Whoever dares to fly the boat, when you get on, I'll kill you all!"

He sped forward and rushed towards the direction of the boat!

The disciples had already prepared to start the boat but when they saw the appearance of Li Lingchuan and heard his threat, momentarily no one dared to move!

Huang Yueli gritted her teeth and attempted to steer the boat herself.

However, her speed was simply too slow.

Li Lingchuan flashed and appeared in front of her, blocking her way.

On his handsome face was no longer that fake, peaceful look. In replacement was a sinister look with a cold glint fixating his glare on Huang Yueli.

Huang Yueli didn't attempt to run as she knew escaping with not an option.

She stopped her footsteps and coldly said, "Junior Brother Li, may I ask what can I do for you?"

"Do for me? No need!" Li Lingchuan's smile was icy cold, "I just realised that you and Li Moying are just as irksome! I believe now that you are really his fiancée!"

"That's good. Since the misunderstanding has been cleared, let's all go on our separate ways and find our own mothers!"

Li Lingchuan glowered at her, "It's too late for you to escape now! Since you've fallen into my hands, I will naturally 'take good care' of you! Who asked you to be Li Moying's woman? What do you say... if I were to sleep with you. When he awakens, will he directly be angered till he enters the state of Qi Deviation?"

There wasn't a trace of panic seen on Huang Yueli even after she heard this threat.

On the country, she calmly said, "Want to get me in your bed? I don't think you're quite there yet!"

When he heard what she had said, Li Lingchuan started laughing with rage!

"I shall show you now if I have such an ability!"

Saying that, his pale-cold fingers started to reach towards Huang Yueli's delicate face.

But before his fingertips could even reach Huang Yueli, he suddenly felt a painful sensation on his fingers.

"Ah~~~~~!"

Chapter 504: Get lost!

Amidst the screeching, a finger drenched in blood flew towards the sky!

Fresh blood splattered everywhere! It almost splattered onto Huang Yueli's face.

She hurriedly turned her head to one side and avoided it.

Following that, she heard a familiar, low-toned voice arising from her back!

“Li Lingchuan, we’ve not met for several months. It seems that you have grown some guts and placed your designs on my woman? Looking for death!”

Even though this vocal sounded hoarse and melancholy, it was obvious that the owner had yet to fully recover as the feeling was different from normal times.

But at this very moment, to be able to hear this voice that she had not heard for such a long time, an excited Huang Yueli covered her mouth and turned behind unbelievably!

Li Moying’s lofty figure appeared before her.

There were signs of fatigue underneath his eyes and due to dryness, some parts of his lip started to peel. But that extremely handsome face dazzled and captured all of her attention.

Li Moying slowly walked over and put his arm around Huang Yueli’s waist. Lowering his head, he gave a peck on her face.

Huang Yueli was caught unawares and received his kiss directly, her face flushing with shyness.

This.... what timing was this now? This shameless lecher, Li Moying, actually..... calmly stole a kiss? And she hadn’t seem to allow him kissing her?

But before she could protest, Li Moying had shifted his glance towards Li Lingchuan.

“What? You want to get my woman into your bed?”

Li Lingchuan felt a chilling sensation down his spine from that cold glance.

“Senior Brother, this round... you woke up really quickly!”

Li Moying coldly replied, “If I didn’t wake up earlier, perhaps I might have lost my life, since even my fiancée....have been watched by someone else.....”

“Misunderstanding... .this was just a.... misunderstanding.....” Li Lingchuan’s forehead slid down a few drops of sweat beads.

Ever since Li Moying woke up, his vigour instantly reduced by a great deal and were showing signs of retreat.

No one knew why Li Moying had such a strong overbearing forcefield. Even if Li Lingchuan thought highly of himself, felt that his power surpassed all the others and his innate skill excelled all others, but every single time he stood before Li Moying, he was instantly shortened by a head, completely unable to fight with him!

Li Moying’s glare was icy cold, “A misunderstanding....”

“Yes, that’s right!”

“Unfortunately, I don’t care if it’s a misunderstanding or not, I only believe in what I see with my own eyes! I will not let off any men who dares to harbour any designs on Li’er! On account that we are from the same Sect, I shall spare your life for today. Get off the flying ship on your own!”

Li Moying’s put it simply but his motive was to get Li Lingchuan to “get off” by himself!

Li Lingchuan was the next talent in line, after Li Moying and his existence was like a star waiting to be borne.

However, only Li Moying never gave him any face.

Li Lingchuan’s expression changed instantly.

But he didn’t dare to show any signs of resistance.....

It was because, based on Li Moying’s temper, he was already showing mercy when he didn’t kill him on the spot.....

Pressurized by Li Moying’s cold stare, step by step, Li Lingchuan walked towards the edge of the flying ship.

Suddenly, his footsteps came to a halt.

Something was wrong, something was extremely wrong!

He had rushed over with the intention of harming Li Moying while he was seriously injured, and earlier he had clearly offended the little lass that Li Moying obviously pampered.

By right, he should have already stepped on Li Moying’s bottom line. When he killed, he would never be soft-hearted!

But today, he didn’t make any moves.

Why was this so?

Could it be... although he had regain his conscious, his injuries had yet to recover so he actually didn’t have the energy to fight it out?

Chapter 505: You are, after all, my woman!

Li Lingchuan’s footsteps slowed down considerably and in his heart, this thought kept swirling around.

Li Moying didn’t bother about him and shifted his glance back to Huang Yueli.

He held Huang Yueli’s waist and turned her towards him. With her face facing him, he stretched out his arm and cupping her face, a pair of ink black eyes focused entirely on her.

Huang Yueli’s face blushed fiercely by that pair of bottomless pupils and couldn’t help but push against his chest.

“Hey, what... are you looking at? Is my face dirty or something? Stop looking!”

Li Moying gave a gentle laugh, "Indeed it is dirty, like a little cat, as ugly as can be! Can't you feel it for yourself?"

Huang Yueli immediately felt her rage flourish!

This man was only cute when he was sleeping; when he was awake, he could make anyone throw up blood anytime!

Did he know how to talk properly? She finally managed to save him and helped him escape the danger zone several times. Now that he was finally awake, not only did he show gratitude, he actually said she was ugly??

"Don't look if you think I'm ugly? Let me go!" Huang Yueli stared at him.

Li Moying's lips curled upwards and slowly leaned towards her, "I'm not letting go. Although ugly, you are, after all, my woman, so I won't abandon you....."

His voice still sounded slightly hoarse and when he spoke in his low-pitched voice, it contained another level of deep seduction, as if a small rock rubbing against the heart, causing Huang Yueli's heart to tremble.

Subconsciously, she lifted her head and was sucked into a deep sea-like pupils. Those flawless features, his strong and deep presence could easily seduce any woman's heartstrings.....

Li Moying saw her expression of enrapturement, and his smile deepened.....

In the near distance, on the ship's railing, Li Lingchuan's footsteps had deliberately become slower, and even to a halt.

He secretly turned to look at Li Moying and saw him and Huang Yueli in an embrace.

He had never seen such a gentle expression before. That lass..... was indeed Li Moying's beloved woman?

Li Moying's body stood tall and straight, the arm holding on to Huang Yueli's slender waist looked like it was full of strength. He didn't look like someone who had just regained his consciousness from a serious injury.

Had he.... already recovered?

Or was Li Moying trying to act tough, under his serious injury, so that he could cheat him to get off the ship?

Looking at Li Moying nonchalantly kissing Huang Yueli, this made Li Lingchuan unable to get the meaning.

Li Moying raised his head and from the corner of his eye, his gaze swept past the immobile Li Lingchuan.

"Why? What are you still hanging around here for? Did you think I won't kill you? I'll count to three, if you still don't get lost, don't blame me for not considering the fact that we are from the same Sect!"

"One.....Two.....Three!"

The “Three” word had just come out when Li Lingchuan suddenly drew out his spear and pounced towards the direction of the duo.

The tip of his spear was pointing straight at Huang Yueli’s back!

Li Lingchuan was considered as an unwavering man. Since he already knew that no matter how he guessed, he would not know the real answer, why not just directly try his luck!

What’s more, he had ninety-over percent confidence that Li Moying had yet to recover, otherwise he would never believe that Li Moying would be so kind-hearted!

Li Lingchuan was fast as lightning, his powerful Profound Energy instantly unleashed.

The person he was dealing with was the almighty Li Moying, whom was unmatched in a very long time! Li Lingchuan didn’t dare to have any signs of neglect nor luck, hence when he struck, it would be his strongest killer move!

It didn’t take a blink of an eye before his spear tip almost reached the back of Huang Yueli!

Chapter 506: If you wish to die, just tell me straight!

Although his movements are fast, Li Moying was even faster!

Although Li Moying’s eyes were half-closed, his arm abruptly tightened and pulled Huang Yueli behind his back. At the same time, his sleeve waved slightly towards Li Lingchuan’s direction.

The rigid spear was sent flying away!

Li Lingchuan grasped his chest and moved backwards several steps, until his back banged heavily against the railing and came to a stop.

Blood slowly dripped out from one corner of his mouth. That stream of blood looked especially contrasting against his pale white complexion.

Li Lingchuan coughed and felt a dull pain from his chest!

He knew several ribs had already been broken and he had also suffered a considerable amount of internal injury!

His eyes were wide open as he couldn’t believe and couldn’t understand how his deduction could be wrong!

Not only Li Moying awoke ahead of time, he had also regained eighty percent of his power. At this current state, he was completed unrivalled!

Li Moying held Huang Yueli’s slender waist and his arm stroked her back lightly to comfort her. At the same time, cold words spat out from his mouth.

“Li Lingchuan, if you wish to die, just tell me straight! Looks like my mercifulness towards you made you think..... I’m weak and can be taken advantage of? Since that’s the case.....”

He squinted his eyes and beneath that look..... his murderous intent appeared!

Li Lingchuan instantly shivered because that gaze of Li Moying's.... he was more than familiar! Every time he looked at someone like this, within three breaths, that person would definitely shed blood within five steps!

Li Lingchuan was so scared that without thinking, he immediately shot to the ship's railing and leapt off from there!

Sixth degree realm practitioners had not attained the ability to fly, so when he jumped down from such a height, although he won't die, there was a ninety percent chance of incurring a serious injury.

Even so, it was much better than losing his life by the murderous gaze behind his back!

On seeing that their master had fled the scene, Li Lingchuan's subordinates lost all their morale to continue the battle. Some of them followed and jumped down the ship while the rest who didn't dare to were all quickly subdued by Mo Yi.

Hanging on Huang Yueli's face was a smiling expression as she turned and gently patted Li Moying's chest.

"You're still the powerful one! You've just awoke and managed to settle that weirdo! Speaking of this, what's his backing? Isn't he your Junior Brother? Why is it that he seems more like your enemy?"

"He....." Li Moying had just said one word before he suddenly stopped.

Huang Yueli raised her eyebrows, "What? Hemming and hawing like that, just speak directly!"

Li Moying continued to be silent.

Huang Yueli curiously turned her head to take a look. She saw his face had turned pale white and sweat started trickling down his forehead.

She turned pale with fright and shouted, "Li Moying, what's wrong with you? Where are you feeling uncomfortable?"

But Li Moying still didn't reply her.

His tall figure leaned against her and slowly dropped down. Both his eyes were shut tight and he slipped into unconsciousness once again.

Huang Yueli used all her energy to support his body but she didn't dare to shake him so she could only softly call out his name.

"Master. How are you?"

"Senior Brother, wake up!"

The others anxiously rushed over and surrounded Li Moying.

His fainting spell this time scared everyone out of their wits. Everyone brought him into the main cabin in a flurry and let him lie down.

Luckily the living conditions in this flying ship was a lot better than the crude and simple tent in the Dark Moon Forest. Li Moying would be much more comfortable lying down on the big and soft bed.

Chapter 507: Only gentle towards her alone

The Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror that Huang Yueli had refined was placed on Li Moying's chest once again.

Li Moying's collar was slightly loosened and that piece of icy blue lit mirror laid quietly on his sturdy chest. The perfectly chiselled pectoralis major shone under the sunlight and looked especially alluring.

Huang Yueli silently looked at him for a short moment and turned around to ask Mo Yi.

"What exactly is wrong with him? Why did he suddenly wake up but fainted again?"

Mo Yi explained, "Third Miss, there's something that you don't know. The Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror that you had refined is extremely effective, much better than the previous Profound Armament blueprint that I had seen! After Master had it put on, his complexion turned much better and the progression rate was also faster than before. We were guessing that if luck has it, he should be able to regain his consciousness before nightfall."

Huang Yueli heaved a sigh of relief, as though the heavy rock weighing on her heart had been lifted.

"It's good that it's effective..... So the reason why he regained his consciousness in time was because of the therapeutic effect of the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror?"

"I'm guessing it must be because Master could sense the dangers lurking on the outside world, and with the help of the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror, he managed to wake up in time. But as he had yet to fully recover, he had forcefully unleashed his Profound Energy to attack Young Master Li. It was possible that he had used up too much energy which led to him fainting once again....."

Huang Yueli couldn't help but sighed when she heard this.

"Your guess should be correct.... I have the same thinking too."

It was apparent as she had witnessed with her own eyes, the confrontation between Li Moying and Li Lingchuan that happened earlier.

Li Moying had indeed not regained much power, so if the both of them were to really start fighting, she gauged that Li Moying would probably not be Li Lingchuan's match. This was the reason why he chased Li Lingchuan down the ship.

And Li Lingchuan didn't believe that he would recuperate that fast so he tried his luck.

Li Moying was a daring talent. He actually used all his remaining Profound Energy in this one shot and caught Li Lingchuan unprepared.

His influence over Li Lingchuan was normally very deep, so Li Lingchuan was originally frightened of his. So after he was injured, he didn't have time to dwell upon this and hurriedly jumped off the ship to save his own skin!

By now, Li Lingchuan should have thought things through and realised that Li Moying was bluffing.

However, it's too late for regrets. With the speed of the flying ship, it was impossible for Li Lingchuan to chase up!

Moreover, he jumped from such a high height, he was possibly seriously injured.

This was what you called black-bellied and sinister, killing someone without shedding any blood.....

As Huang Yueli reminisced, her fingertips were feeling Li Moying's face uncontrollably as it went past his nose bridge and continued downwards.

This man was extremely good looking, not only his features were beautiful like a painting, what was rarer was that he had a bearing of an emperor, who could naturally..... torment anyone.

Such an aloof, arrogant person, yet he was only gentle towards her alone.

Whenever she was in peril, he was always able to jump out without a care for himself, and used all methods to save her.

Every single time, it was just in time.....

If it wasn't because she already had Mu Chengying in her heart, perhaps.... she might have fallen in love with him long ago?

As Huang Yueli absent-mindedly thought about it, suddenly her heart winced as she realised that Li Moying had been occupying her thoughts recently.

Or she should put it this way, the image of the both of them were often entwined together in her thoughts and many times, she would even mix up the events that the both of them had done.....

Was this her hallucination? Or was she too lonely? That was why her imagination was running wild.

Chapter 508: Don't know how to take your own medication?

"Third Miss, Third Miss, what are you thinking about?" Mo Yi's voice echoed from behind.

Huang Yueli snapped out of her thoughts and tried to shake those thoughts out of her head.

She really shouldn't be considering these affairs of the hearts at such a time when everyone in the midst of fleeing.

Mo Yi gave her a questioning look, puzzled as to why she suddenly went into a blank.

"Third Miss, there are still a number of people who Li Lingchuan had brought onto the ship. Although it looks like they have given in and are obediently steering the ship, we cannot be sure that we are clear of any spies. The few of us will need to run through checks frequently. To leave master here....."

Huang Yueli understood his meaning and immediately replied, "Please go ahead. Li Moying will be safe in my care!"

After Mo Yi and the rest left, Huang Yueli personally poured some Saint Spring Water and tried to feed Li Moying the medicine refined by Liu Buyan.

However, no matter how she tried to feed him, the pills kept rolling down from Li Moying's mouth.

Huang Yueli tried several times and was still unsuccessful. She resignedly gave out a sigh.

"Seriously, you are already on the verge of recovery, why do you still refuse to take your own medication? On those days when I was refining the Armament, Brother Mo Yi and the rest must have spent a lot of effort to feed you the medication?"

Saying that, she took a mouthful of Saint Spring Water and holding the pill in her mouth, she lowered her head and pressed her soft lips against the man's elegant thin lips.

This action of feeding medication was done repetitively over the past few days, so she had become very skilful and did not feel that anything was wrong with this action as she did it subconsciously.

The only thing was, during the process of feeding the medication, she seem to have felt Li Moying's tongue moving, and it seemed to be licking her tongue.

However when she stopped to verify the feeling, there was no action from Li Moying.

It might be..... her misperception?

Huang Yueli didn't dwell too long on this matter and continued to feed Li Moying all his medication. After she was done, she sat on the chair next to the bed.

Even though it was the third day that he had lost his conscious, his facial expression compared to the previous days, was a lot better.

And this round, his breathing was stable, expression was peaceful and his wound didn't rupture open.

Everyone unanimously deduced that he should be able to regain his consciousness very soon. So they were not as anxious as before.

After Mo Yi and the rest had completed their duties on the ship, they dropped by to check on Li Moying and following that, each of them lodged an excuse to left the room, leaving only Huang Yueli to care for him.

She didn't leave the cabin for the entire day and for the entire duration, she busied herself with wiping off his sweat, feeding his medication and changing his clothes. Mo Yi brought in the dinner for them once it was ready.

The entire process lasted till the middle of the night and this caused Huang Yueli to be extremely tired.

In this entire duration, although Li Moying was the one injured, it was Huang Yueli who felt the impact most and used up most of her energy.

First, she fell from the cliff and almost ended up dead. Next, it was followed by Li Moying suffering from a serious injury, so she had to carry him on her back for the entire route down the mountain. After that, they met with the bunch of scum, the Werewolf Mercenaries. She practically didn't have a night of sleep as she had to guard against their plots. Just when she had gotten rid of the mercenaries, Li Moying's illness suddenly acted up and after killing everyone at the campsite, he continued his killing spree in the forest!

After she had pacified Li Moying, without any rest, she hurried to the Spirit Jade mine vein to obtain the Profound Lunar Jade just to refine the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror for him!

The entire refining process took three days and three nights, and she didn't get to shut her eyes at all!

Based the entire duration, she had no opportunity at all to take a good rest for the past five to six days.

Chapter 509: How did she climb up his bed?

Huang Yueli was strung up tightly like a taut bow, always under the greatest pressure.

Now, upon seeing that the few of them had already got out of the danger zone and Li Moying's condition started to stabilise, she could finally heave a sigh of relief.

In an instant, she relaxed all her senses and the sense of tiredness crept over her as her eyelids started to get heavier and heavier.

Finally, she huddled herself against the back of the chair, her head prodding lower and lower and fell into deep sleep.

In the middle of the quiet night.

In the darkness, the man on the bed opened his eyes.

That pair of dazzling peach blossom eyes, when it first opened, it was a bit lost. But very quickly, it became sharp and clear and his gaze instantly fell onto the young lady beside his bed.

Looking at her tired composure, the man's eyes flashed past a glint of tenderness.

He stretched out his hand and arranged the messy strands of hair on the lady's forehead before he carried her lightly and gently put her onto the bed.

The young lady seem to have felt something, and with a "en" in her throat, her head subbed against the man's body uneasily.

"Li'er , be good!" He lowered his head and gave her a quick peck on her face. The young lady obediently stopped moving.

The man smiled lightly and let her down gently on the bed. Following that, he climbed onto the bed and held her soft body on his crook of his arm. He shut his eyes shortly after that.

This was his first time sharing a bed with someone else. He had initially thought he would not be used to it. But the truth was, his entire body relaxed as he whiffed in the faint fragrance from the young lady's body.

Shutting his eyes, within an instant, he was fast asleep.

And it was a dreamless night.

The next morning, just as the sky shot out its first ray of light, Huang Yueli awoke.

She slowly opened her eyes and momentarily, she couldn't make out where she was.

After she had clearly seen herself lying on the bed and beside her was a man, she had a shock. She gently rubbed her eyes and shut her eyelids for a while before reopening her eyes.

However, it was the same scenario as before.

Lying beside her..... was still a man.

A incomparable handsome, unsurpassed charming devilish man!

She shockingly sat up from the bed and frustratingly patted her own face. In her mind, she kept trying to recall what had happened last night.

Last night... she took care of Li Moying for the entire night. After that she got too tired so she crawled up to the back of the chair and fell asleep.....

Her memory up to this point was very clear, but how did she climb up to Li Moying's bed then? What's more, she was like an octopus, clamouring all over his chest and slept for the entire night?

Could it be that, she didn't know she had the habit of sleepwalking?

Just as she was frustrated over this, the man on the bed had silently opened his eyes.

Looking at the little fox break out into different expressions, one moment she was frowning, the next she was biting her lips, and followed by pouting. The confused, melancholy and helpless expressions caused him to burst out into laughter.

Huang Yueli was startled, "You....."

Before she could react, her shoulders were locked by the man and pressed down on the bed.

Li Moying's strong and masculine body frame immediately covered her, his arms were propped against the sides of her body as he slightly lowered his head and looked at her oppressively.

Huang Yueli blinked, "You... you're awake?"

Li Moying's lips curled into a smile. That perfect lips curvature looked extremely sexy under the first glimmer of dawn.

"Yes, good morning, my Li'er."

"G... Good morning." Huang Yueli subconsciously replied.

Chapter 510: Be good and lie down

Li Moying lowered his head and inched nearer to her. His body also lowered by several inches and his powerful chest stuck close to Huang Yueli's body.

In a low voice, he expressed, "It was hard on you for taking care of me for the past few days. Last night.... Did you sleep well?"

The vocals of this man was filled with a husky yet-to-wake up voice, deep and magnetic.

Huang Yueli hadn't noticed that she was blushing.

"Not bad..... let go of me first! I want to get up!"

As she felt the man getting nearer, her heart set off an alert and she hurriedly pushed him aside in an attempt to make him get up.

However, Li Moying remained immobile and continued to half lean against her, gently taking a whiff of the fragrance in her hair.

"Li Moying, get up!" Huang Yueli used a bit more strength and shot him a furious glance.

However, compared to Li Moying's strength, that little force of hers was only enough to scratch an itch.

Li Moying laughed with a hint of evilness, "Why the hurry? It must have been tough for you to take care of me for the past few days, so rest a little while more. Be good and lie down, close your eyelids!"

She would be in danger if she really shut her eyelids and laid properly!

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him, "Alright, stop these nonsense! You've just woken up, are you feeling uncomfortable anywhere? Quickly lie down and rest properly. I need to get up and let Mo Yi and the rest know that you've already awoken."

She gave a push again but he didn't budge as she felt enraged.

"Li Moying, move aside and let me get up!"

Li Moying lowered his head, "I can get up.... But I'm injured and I feel a loss of security, so I need you to give me some comfort."

".....comfort?" Huang Yueli instinctively felt something was up.

As expected, Li Moying's lips curled upwards, "A kiss. Kiss me voluntarily and I'll let you get off."

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him, "What on earth goes on in your head? Knock it off!"

"I'm not fooling around, I want a kiss. I've saved you several times so I'm only asking for a kiss as compensation, that isn't too much right?" Li Moying insisted.

Huang Yueli raised her eyesight and stared at his insistent black pupils and her heart trembled.

After some time, she responded, "Alright, I do feel gratitude for you saving me, and I will definitely think of a way to repay you back! But you cannot just ask a girl to repay you using her kiss, that is very immoral....."

"In what way is it immoral? You are my fiancée!"

"When have I ever admitted.... that I am your fiancée?" Huang Yueli denied flatly.

Li Moying smiled slyly, that expression resembled a cat which had stolen a fish.

"What? Have you forgotten? Yesterday when Li Lingchuan appeared, you admitted in front of him repeatedly that you are my fiancée, and you claimed that you are Mo Yi and the other's future Mistress. Although I was immobile, but my consciousness was very clear. So I heard those words loud and clear!"

Huang Yueli stared blankly and felt her head swelling, following by her blood rushing upwards, scorching her entire face as red as a tomato.

This...was there a need to be so deceptive?

Li Moying actually heard what she said?

She took a deep breath and tried to explain her way out, "You..... don't misunderstand alright? I was..... only using a plan of convenience! If I didn't say that at that point of time, would Li Lingchuan have let off Mo Yi and the rest? If not for the safety of all the other Mo Brothers and Junior Brother Luo, I won't say such things blindly, so please don't misunderstand me!"
