

Weaponsmith 521

Chapter 521: Little lass is shy

Li Moying raised his head slightly and locking her arms in front of him, he said in a love-hate tone, "You little thing with no no conscience, every day you must conjure different ways to drive me up the wall!"

Huang Yueli was vexed to the peak.

What happened to her, why was she easily settled with just a kiss from him?

She used her might and pushed Li Moying from advancing, "You're too much, I've told you that you cannot just kiss me without notice!"

Li Moying raised his brow. Although he was rejected, but he was not upset.

Because in that earlier passionate kiss, Huang Yueli had unknowingly accepted it, which deeply delighted him.

And he had heard from Mo Yi that when he was unconscious, Huang Yueli had shown different ways of protecting him.

This little lass must be feeling shy..... that right, this little fox was just fourteen and had yet to reach the marriageable age, so to show resistance towards relations between the two sexes was perfectly normal.

Anyway what he had were time and patience, so he need not push her too hard now. He can slowly, bit by bit tear her down and digest her up.... That would be another type of feeling.

As Li Moying thought of these, he released his grip slightly and tried to amuse her, "Alright, don't be angry. You'll turn ugly when you are angry. These few days must have tire you out, right? Go rest a little in the cabin. When we have reached to South Yue Kingdom, I'll wake you up."

Huang Yueli nodded and turned to leave.

.....

South Yue Kingdom, Capital.

A lavish carriage went through the city gates and as it travelled along the bustling and wide road, the sound of clapping against the ground was heard.

The carriage's speed was extremely fast, the surrounding vendors nearby were not able to avoid in time and were sent reeling onto the ground.

It was only when the carriage reached the doors of the Royal Palace before it came to a stop.

The palace guards frowned, with an unpleasant expression.

For many years, there was no one who had dared to rush head in to the doors of the Royal Palace. Even a revered minister such as the Valiant Martial Marquis would stop their carriage three miles before the palace gates.

However, the person inside the carriage had not only stopped short of a few steps in front of the palace doors, and was still seated comfortably inside the carriage, showing no intention to alight.

Who on earth was it who could be so arrogant and despotic?

The imperial guard commander stepped forward and interrogated, "Who is that? How dare you rush towards the doors of the Royal Palace? What punishment do you think you deserve?"

The coachman had no intention of answering them. Instead he stepped down from the carriage and bowing courteously, he lifted the curtains.

Behind the curtains peeked out a dainty hand, following that, a young lady slowly descended.

Her looks were dainty, and an air of elegance eluded from her. She pursed her lips as though something was upsetting her.

"You.... you....." The imperial guard commander formed a guess from one glance.

The coachman impatiently whipped him, retorting, "Are you blind? This is our Seventh Princess! Why aren't you sending someone to inform Her Majesty?"

The Imperial Guard Commander hurriedly knelt down, "Greetings to Seventh Princess!"

The news that the Seventh Princess had returned quickly reached the ears of the Empress.

When she heard the news, she agitatedly stood up from her seat, her eyes seemingly shedding some tears of joy.

"My little seven is finally back, finally back! I have been waiting for such a long long time! Mo Jun had been paralysed in bed for so long, and till now there are no signs of recuperation. If Little Seven is still not bad, I really have no idea what to do! Quickly, bring the Seventh Princess to my palace, and inform the Crown Prince of the return of the Seventh Princess!"

Chapter 522: The hussy had given birth to

The Seventh Princess, Li Xue'er was brought to the Empress's palace immediately.

When the Empress saw her, her tears couldn't stop flowing, "Little Seven....."

Anxiety spread all over Li Xue'er face and when she saw the Empress sobbing, she hurriedly rushed up to help her up.

"Mother, what happened? Stop crying! When I receive the your letters, it wasn't stated very clearly. What exactly happened? Why did Royal Brother suddenly get injured, to the extent of.....rupturing his meridians? In the South Yue Kingdom, who else would be able to hurt him!"

The Empress choked and fighting back her tears, receiving a silken handkerchief from the palace maid, she simply briefed though the happenings as she dabbed her face.

"It's a long story, till today, I still find it unbelievable....."

“That day, at the peach blossom banquet held by the Empress Dowager.....”

The more Li Xue'er heard, the more shocked she received as her eyes grew exceedingly large till her eyeballs almost dropped out from it's sockets.

“Mother, you.... say it once again? Who... who did you say injured Royal Brother??”

The Empress was unable to suppress her hatred, “Who else! It's the Second Prince that the hussy had given birth to – Li Moying!”

Li Xue'er was still in a state of shock as she blinked her eyes, she felt that she must have misheard somewhere along the line.

“Mother, you are saying..... second brother injured Royal Brother?? Am I hearing things? Th... this... how can this be possible? Second Brother had always been weak from birth. Not only can he not cultivate, what's more, wasn't he about to lose his life anytime? Where on earth would he have such abilities to injure Royal Brother who was in the Defensive Profound Realm, seven stage?”

The Empress clenched her teeth as she spoke, “He's no wastrel! He had all of us completely fooled! In actuality... his cultivation was so high that not only did he injure your Royal Brother, even the Imperial Tutor was inflicted serious damage. He had rested for half a month and it was only these few days that he recovered slightly.”

“How.... How could this be? I must still be dreaming?”

Seventh Princess pinched herself hard on her thigh and immediately shrieked in pain.

“I'm not in a dream, don't tell me this is for real?”

The Empress responded, “I too wish that this is not real! But alas, this matter.... cannot be truer than a pearl! Your Royal Brother is now severely injured. Not only is the medical institute not able to cure him, even the divine doctors from our neighbouring countries whom I had painstakingly invited, are able to cure him!”

Saying to this point, the Empress started to be agitated and grabbed hard on Li Xue'er's arm.

“Xue'er, your Royal Brother said if we brought you back here, perhaps you will have a way to save him! Is this true? Do you really have a way? Your Royal Brother is now depending on you. If you too do not have a way to save him, then he's really a goner!”

Li Xue'er frowned and patted the Empress's hands.

“Mother, please don't fret. Your daughter will not leave my Royal Brother like this. But... you mentioned that Second Brother had suddenly become a top-notch pugilist, and even injured Royal Brother and Imperial Tutor? This... this is preposterous!”

“Sigh, you little lass! It's better that you take a look at your Royal Brother with your own eyes! By then, you will realise what had happened!”

Li Xue'er followed the Empress into the sleeping chambers behind.

Upon opening the door, a piercing alcoholic smell whiffed out, mixing with a strange sourish smell, the odour was unbearable.

Li Xue'er subconsciously covered her nose and frowned.

The Empress used her hanky to cover her mouth and said, "Mojun, you... why have you started drinking again?"

Chapter 523: It was Prince Yu Wang

The room fell silent, no one answered.

The Empress sighed inwardly, her feelings weighted down.

Ever since Li Moying had severed all the meridians in his body, the Crown Prince's cultivation had dropped from heavens to hell, and he was totally unable to cultivate at all. The minute he tried to summoned his Qi, all the meridians that were severed summoned excruciating pain, to the extent of fainting of the spot!

Because of this, the Emperor and Empress had sourced for all the renown doctors.

However, everyone's conclusion were the same. With such a serious injury, they would need the Bone Vessel Replenishment Pill, a fifth grade pill, which could extend and replenish the arteries and veins before he could be cured. And within three months, if they were unable to find this Bone Vessel Replenishment Pill, he would be deemed paralysed forever.

Not even considering the ability to cultivate, he might even be paralysed and confined to the bed for the rest of his life!

Even though this pill was not expensive, it was extremely rare.

The Empress had sent her aides to surrounding countries to search for this pill and till today, she had yet to be able to find it. In the end, she could only send someone to the Sky Cloud City to see if they had any other avenues.

The problem was, the entire journey to and fro would take at least two months, and they might not be able to find the pill!

When the Crown Prince found out about this, he was crushed entirely. He would drink continuously everyday while lying on the bed, and making himself completely drunk! Using alcohol as an avenue to escape the reality of becoming paralysed!

As a mother, the Empress felt indescribable pain tearing at her heart when she saw the Crown Prince in this state!

Thinking back to the days when the Crown Prince was full of mettle and was the number one genius of the South Yue Kingdom, his resolutely powerful prince had always been held to the skies. All the ladies in the country thought it would be the ultimate glory to be able to be married to him!

But now, not only was he rejected by Huang Yueli, even the person whom he had always looked down upon stole his love away!

What's more, Li Moying had not only stolen away his fiancée, he had easily defeated him as though he was crushing an ant, in front of everyone. Besides that, he had viciously maimed him!

Not only did the Crown Prince need to suffer from the pain and torture from his injuries, the thing that he could not stand was his pride and face was entirely stepped upon by Li Moying!

Now, who would still remember him, Li Mojun?

In the entire South Yue Kingdom, it was now widely known that Prince Yu Wang's elegant pose during the peach blossom banquet, Prince Yu Wang's absolute power and handsome looks, and his overbearing love and fury for a beautiful woman.

What about Li Mojun?

Although the Emperor had yet to decree the imperial edict to depose the Crown Prince, but in everyone's eyes, he was no different from a dead person.

The Empress called out a few more times and there was still no reply. Instead there was only clear shattering sounds of wine flasks dropping onto the ground.

She could only cry out, "Mojun, Mother is coming in. Stop drinking. Take a look at who's coming in? It's Little Seven, she's back! Haven't you been waiting for her return? Now that she's back, there's hope for you, so stop being despondent!"

"What?! Little Seven is finally back??"

A surprised and happy cheer echoed from the room.

Li Xue'er rushed in to the bedside and looked at the Crown Prince, paralysed on the bed with a disheartened expression, as she unbelievably covered her mouth.

This Royal Brother of hers had always been high-spirited, having an elegant and graceful carriage. He was also known as a handsome youth in the Celestial Light Academy.

But now.... he had this half dead look, as though he had already lost all hopes for the future.

Even though she had heard the Empress saying this earlier, but to see it with her own eyes, the impact was much stronger by several folds!

Within her heart, Li Xue'er flew into a huge rage.

Chapter 524: Li'er is leaving

"Royal Brother, this... how did you end up like this? What exactly happened?" Li Xue'er's face was filled entirely with shock.

Crown Prince stared at her and speaking through his clenched teeth, every single word hissed out from the gaps in between his teeth!

“Li Moying! It was entirely Li Moying’s fault that I became like this! I must quickly recover and think of ways to kill him, and grind his bones into ashes! Oh, that’s right, there’s another person, and that’s Bai Ruoli, that slut! If not for her, I wouldn’t have ended up in such a terrible state!”

Li Xue’er stood dumbstruck, “Bai Ruoli? The person you’re talking about is Bai Liu Feng’s daughter, that trashy Third Miss at Valiant Martial Manor?”

“That’s her!” Crown Prince venomously hissed, “She’s no trash at all and she’s now at Qi Profound Realm, Nine Level! What’s more, she.... had long been in cahoots with Li Moying, making me wear the green hat, that fickle woman!”

It was all the Crown Prince’s own fault that he was the one who refused to admit the engagement initially, fully intending to marry Bai Ruo Qi instead. And this entire thing had nothing to do with Huang Yueli at all but Crown Prince would never think in this way.

In his wishful thinking, he had chosen Huang Yueli but she had refused the marriage with him. To make matters worse, she had gotten herself engaged to his biggest foe Li Moying. This... was her betrayal to him!

Li Xue’er’s face flashed hints of viciousness.

“Wasn’t it just the Qi Profound Realm Nine Level? What’s so great about that? Royal Brother, don’t worry. Just nice, I have here with me, a Bone Vessel Replenishment Pill. It will be able to treat your meridians! As for those cheap sluts, whoever dares to go against us will only await a tragic end!”

.....

Another night had passed.

The sky was slowly breaking into dawn.

A huge flying ship gradually descended on the wilderness of the South Yue Kingdom’s outskirts.

That scene was witnessed by the surrounding civilians and caused a huge commotion and many spectators to surround nearby.

In a small country like the South Yue Kingdom, there had never been an appearance of a flying ship, to the extent of not even hearing about it. Only seasoned practitioners had only see a sketch of the flying ship from a painting and had never encountered the real deal.

Even so, all the spectators only dared to see it from afar, not daring to go any closer.

It was obvious that to be able to own a flying ship, it would naturally be some shocking peerless expert. Who would dare to risk offending such a powerful person and go nearer to take a look?

On the deck of the flying ship.

Li Moying personally sent Huang Yueli down from the ship.

The both of them walked alongside on the deck all the way to the ramp before they stopped.

“You.....”

“You.....”

Both of them turned towards each other at the same timing and spoke out.

After a moment of astonishment, Li Moying’s lips curled upwards, the sharp blossom-shaped eyes showed a hint of gentleness, “Li’er, what were you going to say?”

Huang Yueli pursed her lips and said in a low tone, “Nothing, then I..... I’m leaving now.”

Li Moying stared at her, and said in a dissatisfied tone, “What? Are these really what you wanted to say?”

Huang Yueli nodded, “Yup!”

“Is there really nothing else?” Li Moying was extremely discontented, continued his unforgiving questioning.

Huang Yueli looked at his arrogant expression and suddenly felt it was slightly comical. Such a cool and overbearing man, in front of others, he held an aloof and desolate look, but in front of her.... he was actually very cute.

Her heart softened and thinking that since it would be some time before they met again, so she put down her proud façade.

“You... you have to take note of your own safety. I know your power is very strong and you’re not afraid of any danger, but it doesn’t hurt to be more prudent. You never know when the ship will overturn in a moment of negligence. By then you’d have suffered a loss.....”

Chapter 525: In future when we get married

“One more thing, make sure you always carry the Profound Lunar Spirit Mirror on you. The wine that I fermented with the Saint Spring Water, you must drink it every day. Although the effect is not that obvious now, but if you persevere, it would definitely be advantageous.....”

“Another thing is during the night of the full moon, you must never be alone. The pills that Divine Doctor Liu had refined, remember to take it on time. If the accident like what happened a few days ago, happens again, it will make everyone worried about you and your body is also not able to take the stress from this.....”

“Oh yes, any idea what happened to Li Lingchuan? Although he is a Sixth degree realm practitioner, even if he jumped from the flying ship, he should not die from it. He will definitely go and look for you, so you must take caution.....”

Huang Yueli had only intended to bid him with one sentence – “Take caution on everything” but who knew once she started, she suddenly worried about plenty of other things. So she started to brief about this and that, and unknowingly, she had said a bunch of stuff.

Li Moying looked at her as his smile grew wider and wider.

Sensing the man’s gaze, Huang Yueli suddenly brought herself to a halt, looking very embarrassed.

“Alright, that’s about it. I’ll just.... stop here for now.... Hey, why are you staring at me for? And you keep chuckling. What’s so funny for you to keep laughing?”

Li Moying couldn’t stop himself from laughing out loud but when he saw Huang Yueli’s utterly discomfited look paired with her eyes rolling up, he gave out a stifled cough and finally stopped.

“I was smiling because I thought you were just too lovely.”

Huang Yueli pouted her lips and ignored him, so Li Moying hurriedly explained himself.

“It’s true, Li’er! I just discovered that you’re actually very meticulous and virtuous. You had already thought of everything for me. In future when we get married, you’d definitely be a thoughtful wife.... I feel that I’m the luckiest man on earth so happiness shot up to my head and I was smiling all ears because of that....”

“Lucky... Lucky your big head! When did I agree to marry you?” Huang Yueli stomp her feet, feeling that her top of head was going to shoot out fumes very soon.

Li Moying mumbled, “Didn’t you? You were obviously admitting it in front of everyone else that you’re my fiancée?”

“That was just an advantageous ploy, how many times do you want me to repeat it!” Huang Yueli glared at him.

Li Moying could only snub his nose and replied, “Alright, alright, an advantageous ploy....”

He was plotting in his heart to turn a drama into reality. What’s more, their engagement was not fake. Anyway, he should just register the fiancé-fiancée status first before they actually went further.

By the time Huang Yueli had accustomed to his presence, how would she be able to fly out of his palms in future?

Upon seeing that he had admitted his mistake, Huang Yueli pursed her lips and said, “En, as long as you don’t sprout rubbish..... then I..... I’m really making a move now. Good....”

Before she could complete her sentence, Huang Yueli felt a pulling sensation from behind.

Li Moying had pulled her into his embrace and lowering his chin, he teased smilingly, “Just going to say goodbye in this fashion? Li’er, you seem to have forgotten something?”

“What?” Huang Yueli looked at the peerless appearance that had gathered in front of her, and felt slightly faint.

Li Moying replied, “When couples bid farewell, don’t they always end with a goodbye kiss?”

“Goodbye.... Kiss....” Huang Yueli suddenly retracted her thoughts and retorted, “Kiss what goodbye. I told you already, we’re not a real cou..... mm mmm mmmmm!!”

When he heard the words that he didn’t like to hear, Li Moying lowered his head hastily and used his lips to stuff the words back into her mouth.

However, this kiss only lasted briefly.

Li Moying lowered his head, their lips barely touched with a half-hearted attempt.

The cool and sexy lips and a pair of delicate and tender pink lips had briefly touched each other and came apart.

Chapter 526: To render my services for Third Miss

This action disappeared in time.

Huang Yueli was barely aware that she had been forcefully kissed again and had yet to express her displeasure and it had all ended.

Li Moying gently let her go and said, "This is considered as bidding farewell."

"Shameless!" Huang Yueli glared.

Li Moying gave a perfunctory expression as he gave an demonic grin. On the handsome face showed signs of devilish glints which eluded indescribable sexiness.

Huang Yueli puckered her lips and lowered her head.

Li Moying released the arm that had restraint her and in a low voice, he reminded, "Alright, it's late already, I shouldn't keep you here. Quickly go back and have a good rest! Wait for me, I'll definitely be back to look for you!"

Huang Yueli thought to herself that perhaps she might not stay in South Yue Kingdom for long. By the time Li Moying came to look for her, he might not be able to find her.

But she didn't tell him her thoughts and simply nodded before she turned around and got descended from the stairs.

If she cannot be found and the connection had been broken, perhaps.... it wasn't a bad thing after all.

As Huang Yueli thought about this, her heart..... flashed an indescribable sense of disappointment.

As she reached the last rung of steps, she couldn't help but to turn around to take another look at Li Moying.

Li Moying raised his brow as he said, "What's wrong? Can't bear to part with me?"

Huang Yueli shook her head, "You're too narcissistic! I just wanted to ask, Brother Mo Yi..... what's up with him?"

She raised her finger and pointed towards Mo Yi who was standing nearby.

Ever since she had starting walking from the deck, Mo Yi had been following her footsteps. Initially, she thought Mo Yi was following Li Moying and didn't put it to heart. But she didn't expect that once she got off the ship, Mo Yi actually followed her.

Li Moying explained, "Mo Yi will follow you and be responsible for your safety. Otherwise I'll be worried when I am not by your side."

Huang Yueli was dumbstruck, and felt touched in her heart.

This man... had really considered everything in her best interest, but....

“There’s no need. I’m in the South Yue Kingdom, what dangers could there possibly be? At most it’s just that Crown Prince and Bai Ruo Qi, those clumsy clowns. I can handle them alone. On the country, you’re going to the Sect and who knows what dangers is lurking over there. Let Mo Yi stay with you instead!”

Li Moying shook his head, “Listen to me! Let Mo Yi stay with you! Alright, I have to continue with my journey, I’ll make a move first!”

Saying that, the flying ship’s stairs slowly retracted and the ship slowly rose as it stayed afloat in the sky.

He simply left Mo Yi on the ground.

Huang Yueli cannot help but shook her head, knowing she was unable to reject him.

This man was always like this. When he treats someone well, he would never allow any form of rejection and the other party must accept his kindness.

Besides, even if she refused, Mo Yi would still follow her in secret, to fulfil Li Moying’s order.

She could only turn around and conveyed, “Brother Mo Yi, in this duration.... I will have to trouble you again!”

Mo Yi lowered his head and in a respectful manner, “To render my services for Third Miss is something that your subordinate should do!”

Huang Yueli nodded and together, they walked towards the direction of the city.

Hanging lowly among the clouds, the flying ship hovered in mid-air, in no hurry to fly away.

Li Moying leaned against the pole and as he watched that slender figure slowly walked far away until her shadow had completely disappeared into the city before he raised his head and softly commanded, “Let’s start on our journey!”

.....

Huang Yueli entered the city and directly returned to the Valiant Martial Manor.

Inside the Manor, lights lit up brightly.

And outside the entrance of the Manor, the traffic flowed unendingly, bustling with noise and excitement.

There were many rich visitors, and in their arms were gifts of all sorts, delivering the gifts to the doorstep with an adulate expression.

Chapter 527: Wishful daydream

Seeing the current situation, Huang Yueli’s eyebrow was raised as a puzzled feeling came over her.

Before she had gone to the Dark Moon Forest, she had already ordered Bai Liu Jing's entire family to move to the side manor and emptied the Valiant Martial Manor.

But because she had yet to move into her new home completely and the meeting time with Li Moying was up, she rushed to the Dark Moon Forest immediately and left only Cai Wei and the rest to oversee the moving of Bai Liu Jing.

From the looks of this, the bustling scenario of the Valiant Martial Manor, it was obvious that her words had fell on deaf ears!

Huang Yueli was sneering icily in her heart as she entered the manor in huge strides along with Mo Yi.

However, the minute she entered the main gate, she was blocked by the crowd.

The gatekeeper of the Valiant Martial Manor was newly hired and he did not recognise her. Seeing her appearing empty-handed, he immediately shouted in a high pitched tone, "Hey, that little lass in front, halt! Do you know what place is this? This is the Valiant Martial Manor! It's not a place where you can simply enter indiscriminately. Aren't you going to move aside?"

Huang Yueli's lips hooked upwards coldly, "You're asking me to move aside? Do you know who I am?"

"Who else can you be? Aren't you here to congratulate our Marquis on his birthday celebrations?" The gatekeeper scorned, "No matter which family's daughter you're from, In the eyes of our Valiant Martial Manor, you're just an ordinary visitor! Do you know who our Marquis is? Marquis Bai's niece, Miss Bai Ruoqi, if Prince Yu Wang's fiancée. And what's more, she is an heavenly sixth grade talent!"

Huang Yueli almost laughed out, "You know who is Prince Yu Wang? You know the Third Miss of the Bai family?"

The gatekeeper's gaze seemed to be looking at an idiot!

"Why would I not know? Who doesn't know Prince Yu Wang is the most powerful talent in the entire kingdom's history since he was born, even Bai Liu Feng would not be able to surpass him! Besides that, Prince Yu Wang's looks are outstanding, his backing is powerful and he is the Emperor's favourite. He will replace the Crown Prince in time to come! Tsk tsk, such a honourable Prince Yu Wang, paired with our Manor's beautiful and outstanding Third Miss, it's a match made in heaven!"

"Third Miss had lost her parents since young and it was out Marquis who had painstakingly brought her up. So the Marquis was equivalent to the Third Miss's biological father! Now that Third Miss had become Prince Yu Wang's fiancée, our Marquis is the future Imperial Uncle! Such an honourable standing, who wouldn't want to win his favour?"

When Huang Yueli heard those words, she felt nauseated, totally disgusted to the extreme.

How did Bai Liu Jing treat her during that year? He was simply pushing her to her death bed. In order to obtain Bai Liu Feng's inheritance, he allowed his Lady and Bai Ruo Qi to torture her.

If it wasn't for her lucky stars, she would have been dead long ago.

With this, he had the cheek to claim that he was like his biological father? Using her fame to enjoy the respect from everyone?

This wishful daydream..... was very much pretty!

Huang Yueli's face darkened and retorted, "Are you done talking? If you're done, move aside!"

The gatekeeper was used to be ostentatious and didn't know how to observe the expressions of other people. He totally missed the warning signs and continued to boast.

"Aiya, I say, this lady, I can tell that you come from a well-to-do family, but why are you so insensible? Today is our Marquis's birthday and all the visitors are here to send in their congratulatory messages and have all brought along valuable gifts. You came empty-handed and you're not embarrassed to just come in like this?"

Huang Yueli slowly turned towards him, her glare icy cold.

"What, you're asking me about my gift?"

Chapter 528: This sword... is to reward you!

Towards the icy cold expression in Huang Yueli's eyes, the gatekeeper suddenly sobered up.

He finally realised that something was not right.

This seemingly ordinary young lady, seemed.... extremely complicated! S..Sh..She... couldn't be here to kiss up a fuss right?

"Arg, this... this miss....." the gatekeeper cannot help to take a step backwards as he wiped the sweat on his forehead.

Huang Yueli laughed icily and turning towards Mo Yi who was standing behind she asked, "Where's the Soaring Heavens sword that I had refined previously?"

Mo Yi drew out a flexible sword from his realm ring and respectfully handed it over to Huang Yueli.

"Third Miss, please take a look."

Before she entered the Dark Moon Forest, she had refined several Profound Weapons, with the consideration to distribute among Li Moying's bodyguards. Those extra ones would be auctioned off at the Thousand Treasure Pavilion. This flexible sword was gifted to Mo Yi.

Precisely because this sword was not only pliable and tough, it was also long and slender with a silverish colour, named Soaring Heavens, was a fourth grade upper grade armament.

Huang Yueli swept her gaze over the flexible sword and asked the gatekeeper, "How is it? This gift is pretty good right?"

Although the gatekeeper was a snob and had not seen too much of the world, but this sword emitted a special feeling from the others. Just by looking at the appearance, even an ordinary person would be able to judge that this was an extremely high grade quality Profound Armament.

As for the surrounding practitioners, their eyes almost popped out of their sockets and everyone were secretly discussing where did a rich tycoon suddenly popped out to have delivered such a priceless treasure!

The gatekeeper hurriedly replied, "Not bad, not bad, Miss is indeed generous."

Huang Yueli's lips slightly curled as she turned her head towards Mo Yi and said, "Reward him!"

The gatekeeper was dumbstruck and an overwhelming delight rushed into him!

Reward... him? Did the lady mean to gift him such a valuable flexible sword as a reward?

What background did this lass come from, to be such a spendthrift? Couldn't she tell that this sword was extremely valuable?

Aiya, this time he had really met a nobleman, heaven actually gave him such a good opportunity!

The gatekeeper was all smiles as he prepared to receive his reward.

Suddenly a glint of light flashed past him, fast as lightning.

He felt a throbbing pain on his head as if his brain had been sliced into two halves, and immediately lost conscious.

Amongst the crowd, the gatekeeper's body flew outwards, into the Valiant Martial Manor's pavilion, directly into the main hall and crashed heavily onto the ground.

His face had a deep scar from the sword, all the way from the roof of his head passing his nose bridge, chin till his waist. Wherever the scar ran across, his flesh split apart and blood sprayed everywhere with his bones exposed.

A terrified expression hung on the crowd's face as they looked at Mo Yi.

Mo Yi's hand was still holding on to the flexible sword stained with blood, but his expression remained peaceful as if he had just patted the dust off, and not soberly injuring a person viciously.

This method and this stance.....

Everyone gave a shudder and ran backwards in shock.

Mo Yi bowed at Huang Yueli and reported, "Third Miss, I've rewarded him with a sword but that guy didn't seem to have the fortune of accepting your reward."

Huang Yueli laughed lightly, "Well executed. Although his fortune was bleak, we can still reward his Master later on. It's all the same."

"Yes, your subordinate obeys Third Miss's orders."

Saying that, a shuffling of footsteps can be heard from the direction of the Main Hall.

Bai Liu Jing appeared headfirst, furiously berating, "Who dares to create havoc at the Valiant Martial Manor? Come out before me this instance!"

Chapter 529: Bai Ruoli is back!

Huang Yueli's back was still facing the main hall so Bai Liu Jing had not recognised her at the first instance.

Seeing that the opponent had not only injured the people in his residence, that person was totally ignoring him made Bai Liu Jing even more enraged.

He heavily swept his sleeves and in an enraged tone, he shouted, "What kind of place did you think the Valiant Martial Manor is? I think you must have a lot of guts to even dare to make a scene here! Men, take this fool down! Let's see who is more arrogant!"

Bai Liu Jing turned around and upon his command, the guards in the manor responded by charging towards Huang Yueli and Mo Yi.

As the person who was injured was a gatekeeper, who was a normal person with no cultivation, the manor's guards confidence raised, believing that they were proud practitioners who had helmed in various battles. With their mountainous experience, to take down a petty thief who was causing the disturbance was surely as easy as frying up a small plate of appetizer?

However, the truth was the exact opposite.

As the guards rushed out, before they could even reach a distance of one hundred meters, a silvery glint flashed past.

Following that was a continuous "Thud thud thud" sound.

All the guards were, at the same time, flying towards the direction of the main hall!

Moreover, every single one of them by lucky coincidence had fallen into the main hall, stacking nicely on top of each other, blocking the entire entrance. The remaining few were unable to fit in so as they crashed on top of the human pile, it subsequently fell out from the door.

Similar to the gatekeeper earlier, right in the middle of their faces displayed a long gaping wound which was inflicted by the Soaring Heavens flexible sword. With their bloody faces along with the wound which revealed the whites of their bones, it looked extremely horrifying!

There were quite a number of guests who had come for the celebratory event in the main hall, who were terrified by this scene. Shriill cries and screams could be heard constantly.

At this moment, Huang Yueli turned around and looked towards the direction of the door.

Following that, she took a glance at Mo Yi and with an unpleasant look, she said, "I don't recall the order to reward them right? Isn't it a waste to reward these garbage?"

Mo Yi immediately took a step backwards and replied with a guilty look, "Y..Yes, your subordinate was too nosy. Third Miss, please punish me."

Huang Yueli waved her hand as she replied, "Sigh, forget it. Next time be more attentive."

"Yes, your subordinate understands."

Hearing the two of them conversing, the surrounding people reached a peak of silence.

So the flexible sword's stabbing was called as a reward! And not everyone had this privilege! This type of reward, who would dare and be able to accept it?

Of course, what was more flabbergasting was that seemingly ordinary guard in black clothes held extreme power!

Everyone present had heard that the guards at the Valiant Martial Manor were all experienced in various battles and not many had dared to provoke them. In the end, so many people..... were sent flying by just one person?

And they were powerlessly oppressed. In one single move, all the guards had been seriously injured.....

This was really terrifying.....

And to be able to use such a powerful practitioner as her guard, who and what was this young lady's background?

As the crowd looked at Huang Yueli, a few were already able to recognise her.

"That is.... The Third Miss of the Bai family! It's Bai Ruoli!"

"That's right, after what you mentioned, I also managed to recognise her, it's really her!"

"Oh it's her, no wonder she has such a powerful bodyguard!"

"But why did she injure the Valiant Martial Manor's guards? Isn't the Marquis her uncle?" a puzzled bystander inquired.

The people next to him secretly stole a glance at Bai Kiu Jing and intentionally lowered his voice as he spoke, "It's something that most people didn't know. It was said that Marquis was bias to his daughter, and in the past they had their share in bullying the Third Miss. So both parties were no different from enemies."

Chapter 530: Too shameless!

"Huh? There's such a thing? I thought that the relationship between the Marquis and Third Miss was very close! If I had knew this earlier, I wouldn't have bothered to offer my birthday congratulations to that filthy old man! He only know how to put on airs, who does he think he is!"

Once the crowd found out the truth, they were extremely vexed and felt they were being fooled.

He made an prompt and immediate decision, turned around and left.

Upon seeing him, the other remaining visitors suddenly woke up to reality.

"That's right. Wasn't our intention here to deliver the gifts just to please Prince Yu Wang? In the end, the flattery had fallen on the hooves of the horse! What would happen if Prince Yu Wang thinks that we are intentionally going against him? Let's hurry and leave!"

"I'm going too! This sinister and deceitful cad, Bai Liu Jing, he actually misled us intentionally! If Prince Yu Wang were to blame us for this, I will definitely have no end with Bai Liu Jing!"

"Exactly, that's right!"

As the crowd agreed in unison, the gazes towards Bai Liu Jing held contempt and hatred, their face steely green as they turned and left.

Before they left, many visitors had not forgotten to claim back their gifts which they had brought when they had registered at the entrance of the door.

"We cannot let that old fool surnamed Bai have any advantages!"

"That's right, he cheated us to send him the gifts. He's simply too shameless!"

When Bai Liu Jing heard the discussions among the crowd, his chest felt surges of pain and his blood boiled, almost spitting out a mouthful of blood!

These people... these people were initially coming to please him, each one of them were following him closely as if they were his grandsons. Besides the invaluable gifts, they were also blarneying him with compliments to win his favour.

Bai Liu Jing was thinking in his mind that it was better left unsaid.

He had never expected that once Huang Yueli appeared, everyone's attitudes had taken a 180 degree change, spurning him incessantly!

Although he was feeling indignant in his heart, he could not reveal his emotions on his face.

Because the young lady standing at the entrance of Valiant Martial Manor was indeed his niece!

Now, Huang Yueli was totally different when she was young. She had already broken out of her cocoon and transformed into a butterfly. She had flown to the skies and became someone whom he was not able to offend!

Even if Prince Yu Wang had not turned up with her, in reality, who doesn't know the backing behind her is Prince Yu Wang?

Besides that, at one glance, the bodyguard behind her had exceptional power!

Just based on that bodyguard alone, it was enough to kill off everyone in the Valiant Martial Manor!

Bai Liu Jing was feeling both angry and anxious, but he could only swallow this grievance down as he forcefully drew out a smile and with a respectful attitude, he greeted Huang Yueli.

"My dear niece, you're finally back! Look at your travel-worn look, you must have suffered greatly while you were travelling outside the kingdom? Quickly come in, let Second Uncle hold a welcoming dinner to welcome you back?"

Bai Liu Jing felt that he had already brought out his utmost patience.

However, Huang Yueli didn't answer his questions but silently casted an icy glance at him.

That glance contained utter disdain and contempt and anyone was able to tell that glance was as if it was directed towards a lowly servant!

“You.....”

Bai Liu Jing held another air of indignance his in chest, almost cursing out loud!

At that critical timing, when he thought of the shocking methods and outstanding innate talent this lass had shown, and the man backing her up... Bai Liu Jing managed to curb himself in time!

As he clenched his teeth, his face expressed a smile which looked worse when he was crying.

“Li’er, don’t stand on ceremony with Second Uncle. Quickly come in! This way please!”