Chapter 551: Successful advancement

However just at the instance when the guards were pouncing towards Huang Yueli, a blinding red ray burst out from Huang Yueli who had been sitting in a lotus position!

The ray was extremely dazzling and in an instance, no one was able to open their eyes. Everyone subconsciously blocked their eyes and some of them couldn't help but shed tears.

It took quite some time before the blinding ray gradually weakened.

Li Xue'er was the first to respond as the expression on her face changed.

"Dammit, this slut actually managed to advance successfully! Why is her luck so good! Damn it! What are you guys still staring into empty space for? Quickly capture this little slut!"

A few guards rubbed their eyes and immediately they turned over and pounced towards Huang Yueli's direction.

Huang Yueli's eyes were originally shut tight but at this moment, she suddenly opened her eyes and beneath it manifested a cold glare!

The guards had not been able to touch her yet as they felt a surge of exploding Profound Energy sweeping towards them. Some of them were already flying out by this surge of power as they spat out blood in mid-air.

Blood from mid-air drew out an arc as it spilled along the way.

It was only after they crashed into the wall of the study room and making a huge dent in the wall before they fell onto the ground.

The event that had happened was too sudden and was completely not following the normal trail of thoughts.

At that moment, everyone was stunned.

The entire study room was dead silent.

Li Xue'er was stunned momentarily before her brows were raised in anger as she furiously retorted, "Bai Ruoli, you actually dared to hurt this Princess's guards, what punishment should you deserve!"

Huang Yueli swept her a glance before she frowned and replied, "Who are you?"

Li Xue'er fumed, "Bai Ruoli, what act are you playing! We had not met for barely a year and you're pretending not to know this Princess? No matter how you pretend, don't even think about escaping the crime of profanity!"

Huang Yueli innocently replied, "I really don't know you! Don't believe me, ask my servants in my household! Such an ugly person like you, normally I won't even let them enter the manor. What would happen if you scare the little kids, that would be bad!"

Li Xue'er was taken aback and she realised that her face had been burnt from a bundle of flame from god-knows-where, so she had a horrifying face now!

Although practitioners may suffer injuries on their faces, but the difference between them and normal people are they tend to recover much faster than non-practitioners. But she still had to wear this ugly ghost-like face for quite a bit of time!

She was one of the top beauties in the South Yue Kingdom and was the idol of many prestigious young masters. So every day before she leaves her room, she would carefully dress herself up and there hadn't been a single instance where she was ever so ugly?

When she thought of this, Li Xue'er's rage intensified!

It was all this little slut's fault! She really deserved to die ten thousand times!

Li Xue'er angrily retorted, "Bai Ruoli, isn't this all your doing? If it wasn't for you who used such a sinister method to hurt this Princess's face, would I need to look like this now? Your methods are so sinister, it's no wonder you're a venomous woman!"

Huang Yueli's lips curled into a smile, treating her rage as nothing.

She calmly seated herself on the seat of the host and casually lifted up a pot of water as she poured herself a cup of water and slowly drank it.

"I say, this is my home. You're the one who unfathomably came over and you're trying to pin the blame on my head for your god-knows-where face injury came from? What does it have to do with me? Are you a swindler who came to swindle money? And you still dare to claim that you're a what princess? With such messy hair and dirty face, with the attitude of a shrewd shouting abuse in the streets, you're no different from a roadside female beggar! Still dare to claim you're a princess? Are you here to make a fool of yourself?"

Chapter 552: Is this this year's fashion?

Just from one look at the wound on Li Xue'er's face and Huang Yueli already knew that it must be the doing of Wang Cai.

In her heart, she secretly gave that little thing a thumbs up but her face showed an expression of being slandered as she taunted Li Xue'er disdainfully.

As expected, Seventh Princess was infuriated by her and could not say a single word.

"Outrageous! Seventh Princess is the legal child of our Empress, and the blood sister of the Crown Prince. Their status are of noble birth, who are you to babble gibberish and besmirch them??"

Seventh Princess's guards were unable to see her being besmirched and retorted sternly.

Huang Yueli showed an enlightened expression, "So you're the Seventh Princess.... As I was saying, you must be my Second Sister's friend. No wonder you also like to paint your face in a gaudy look, is this this year's fashion?"

Li Xue'er almost spat out blood and as she ferociously stared daggers at Huang Yueli and finally she snapped.

"Bai Ruoli, you're simply seeking death! Do you think that you've just advanced and this Princess can't do anything to you? Humph, this Princess shall let you see the difference in level between you and a real second degree realm practitioner!"

Saying that, she pulled out a long snake-shaped sword from her waist and stabbed towards Huang Yueli's direction!

Li Xue'er was the core disciple of the Celestial Light Academy, and she had already advanced to the second degree realm in the previous year. Right now, her cultivation was currently at the Defensive Profound Realm third level!

She totally could not tell that Huang Yueli's advancement had directly reached the Defensive Profound Realm nine level!

The reason was because at the peach blossom banquet that was held more than ten days ago, Huang Yueli had just reached the Qi Profound Realm nine level. This was something that was known to all because she had managed in such a short amount of time to leap across an entire realm?

This was not just freakish but rather to talk big without a manuscript!

Li Xue'er had naturally thought that Huang Yueli had just broken through the Qi Profound Realm and advanced to the Defensive Profound Realm first level!

Even so, she felt that that Huang Yueli's luck was just too good since she was able to breakthrough to the second degree realm at such a young age, her future was limitless. Even among the sixth grade talents, she had outstanding luck and strength!

It was exactly because of this that Li Xue'er wanted to use this opportunity to throttle her future threat in the cradle before it was too late!

Li Xue'er's sword dance was like a breeze as the snake sword shone out some chilling shimmer as it caused one to be dazzled by it.

As a direct disciple of a fourth ranked Armament Master, Li Xue'er's long sword was outstanding and it was a fourth tier lower grade armament!

This was extremely rare for a second degree realm practitioner to be holding on to such an armament. Even if it was the Crown Prince whose cultivation was much higher than his own sister, he was not able to afford a fourth tier armament. Even when he wanted to purchase a set of third tier Profound Armor in the previous auction, he was severely played around by Huang Yueli.

Not only was the sword an excellent item, the swordplay that she was exhibiting was a Profound Skill that only the core disciples of the Celestial Light Academy could learn – the Shadow Snake Swordplay!

Once exhibited, its might was astounding!

In that one instance, it had completed eighteen thrusts!

And within that eighteen thrusts, only one thrust was a killer move, the remaining seventeen thrusts were just fake moves!

Once one had been blinded by the shimmer of the sword causing a mistake in the judgement, one's throat would be strapped by the sword!

Huang Yueli's eyes shone as she smiled, "Hmmm? This Profound Skill is rather extraordinary, the sword should be refined specially for this Profound Skill right? Not a simple task, finally I have met a practitioner with some qualifiable skills in the South Yue Kingdom. This swordplay certainly looks impressive....."

Chapter 553: Keep on dreaming!

Although she said such words, but the expression on her face didn't display any signs of distress. Even while she was commenting on Li Xue'er's swordplay, it felt like she was a renown senior giving pointers to her junior.

Li Xue'er was fuming with rage between gritted teeth after she heard such fleeting comments, cursing Huang Yueli inside her heart.

Pretence! Continue to pretend some more!

She coldly sneered, "Your talking seems clear and logical, if you have the capability, try to avoid my thrust? Looking at you standing at the same spot, aren't you unable to avoid it? Take my move!"

The distance between them were not too far apart and as Li Xue'er continued with her swordplay, the snake sword had already extended its reach as it thrust towards Huang Yueli's chest!

Huang Yueli didn't avoid it, and even her feet didn't shuffle a single step.

Li Xue'er's heart lighted up: this little slut could only use her mouth and talk. In actual fact, she didn't have enough ability to avoid the move, simply looking for death! Today, she shall let her know her power!

Li Xue'er's smile slowly spread across her face but at the next moment, the smile that congealed against that reddish black face looked extremely hilarious.

Because when her sword thrust to a position just three inches before it could reach Huang Yueli, it totally stopped in its tracks!

Li Xue'er lowered her head and found Huang Yueli had stretched out two long slender fingers, firmly holding her snake sword in between her two fingers.

Li Xue'er turned pale from the overwhelming shock as she had never expected Huang Yueli to be able to stop her long sword!

She had, in that instance, struck out eighteen thrusts! A normal same levelled practitioner would not be able to see clearly, what's more predict accurately which thrust was the killer move!

Even if one had predicted accurately, that one thrust had been instilled with the full strength of her Profound Energy, the sharp penetrating thrust was not something that could be stopped! Unless the other party exceeded her by several realm levels, otherwise, who would dare to use their fingers to block this move? It was absolutely certain that all her fingers would be shaved off on the spot!

Li Xue'er would never believe this.

However, the fact was placed right in front of her eyes, so she didn't have any choice to not believe it!

Her hand subconsciously increased the strength and impounded her entire Profound Energy into the sword, hoping that it would strike towards Huang Yueli!

Alas, no matter how she tried, the snake sword was firmly gripped in between Huang Yueli's hand.

The two slender and fair fingers, skin as white and delicate like snow, looked like it had never required to handle any heavy workload. But these seemingly powerless fingers, at this moment, seemed to contain ten million pounds of strength, totally indestructible!

Li Xue'er was now experiencing true fear.

She realised that the young lady standing in front of her, whom she had treated like trash, held tremendous power and it was she herself who was unable to compare with her accomplishments!

Li Xue'er's wrist turned and gave up thrusting inwards. Instead she was using her strength to pull back the sword outwards!

Now, she did not harbour any further thoughts of thrusting Huang Yueli. Tather she only wanted to take back her sword!

This was a fourth tier Profound Armament, she absolutely cannot lose it! No matter how much her Master valued her, it was impossible that he would refine another one for her!

However, how would Huang Yueli let her claim back the sword just like that?

Li Xue'er tried hard to pull back the sword, even to the extent of using all her strength until her face flushed through and through!

However, she was still unable to pull it out.

She spoke out embitteredly, "Bai Ruoli, let go! Are you intending to snatch this Princess's sword?"

Huang Yueli smiled lightly, "Seventh Princess, please don't distort the truth deliberately! This sword... was sent to my hands willingly by you and now you're regretting it? Keep on dreaming!"

Chapter 554: Slapped on her face

Saying that, Huang Yueli's wrist shook.

Li Xue'er felt a strong wave of Profound Energy emitting from the sword blade and her two arms were jolted till it was sore and tingling with numbness. Unable to bear with the pain, she was unable to hold on to the long sword.

Following that, her entire body fell heavily outwards as she spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Seventh Princess!”

“Your Highness, what happened to you??”

The guards had not been able to react and it was until Li Xue'er crashed against the corner of the wall before they regained their senses as they hurriedly pounced over to check on her condition.

Li Xue'er coughed in a hoarse voice as dull pains were felt from her chest. Following every cough she made, bloody foam kept spilling out from the corners of her mouth!

She wanted to lift her hand and wipe the blood stains from the corners of her mouth but the minute she moved, she realised that her two arms were painful like hell as it felt extremely heavy and she was unable to lift it up!

She lowered her head to take a look and realised that her two arms were not able to straighten and it could only droop downwards. At that very moment, her eyes opened wide as her heart entered a state of shock and fear!

Just at that instance that Huang Yueli shook her off, that powerful Profound Energy completely shattered the bones in her arms and it had broken into chunks, totally unable to be used.

Li Xue'er suffered an extreme amount of pain as she almost shed tears from it. Moreover, something else made her even more angry.

Huang Yueli held her precious snake shaped long sword and after she looked at it against the light, her forehead creased into a frown as she said unsatisfyingly, “This sword.... is refined in such a lousy way! The fusion intensity of the materials is way too low, it seems like the armament master's handling power of material was done rather badly and this side here is slightly crooked. Looks like the skill towards the shape forming stage at the end is way below quality. Tsk tsk, this must be a junior who had just rose to a fourth tier armament master, using this type of workmanship as practice material? This simply cannot be shown on stage!”

Li Xue'er fumed with anger till her eyes turned red.

This sword was her precious baby! It was something that her Master had personally refined, a fourth tier Armament Master's works. If it was brought out in an auction house, the amount would be at a heavenly cost and she was the envy of so many young practitioners!

The result however, was criticised by Huang Yueli to be totally worthless, as though it was a piece of rubbish which was to be thrown away directly!

What's more, after Huang Yueli had finished her ridicule, feeling that it was a great pity as she shook her head, in the end... she actually kept away that sword!

Li Xue'er stared daggers at her with her eyes till it was almost fuming with fire.

Since she didn't take a fancy to the sword, why didn't she return it back to her? She acted like it was such a difficult task for her to accept the sword!

Wasn't it a piece of trash? Why did she have to keep it?

As though she had heard the thoughts in Li Xue'er's mind, Huang Yueli threw her a fleeting glance and replied, "Even though it's a piece of trash, even if I were to return it to the furnace, I won't be able to save it. However, it was after all a piece of your goodwill! If I were to reject the Seventh Princess's gift, it would seem that I'm disrespectful and if I'm pinned with this crime... wouldn't I get into big trouble?"

This was throwing Li Xue'er's earlier threats right back into her face!

Li Xue'er felt that the wounds on her face had gotten even more painful, as though someone had slapped her viciously on the face!

What type of status did she have, she had always been held in the palms of others since she was young. And because she had an innate talent for becoming an Armament Master, even if she were to go to the Sky Cloud City and enter the Celestial Light Academy, she was still able to be in the same standing as though she was back in her own country.

This was her first time that she was being humiliated viciously!

Li Xue'er gritted her teeth and couldn't wait to tear Huang Yueli apart with her own hands. But too bad she was not even able to climb up on her own.

Chapter 555: Overestimating your own strength!

Li Xue'er stared fiercely at Huang Yueli and every single word hissed out from her clenched teeth.

"All of you attack! Capture this little slut! All of you Golden Scaled Guards attack together. Whoever managed to capture her, I'll ask my Master to refine a Profound Armament for him personally!"

The people whom Li Xue'er had led here were not only her own guards. The mass included quite a number of Golden Scaled Guards who had been deployed from Li Mojun.

Initially, these Golden Scaled Guards' hearts were pounding hard when they saw Li Xue'er being easily defeated by Huang Yueli and they didn't dare to attack.

However, the bait that Li Xue'er threw out was simply too tempting!

Who on heavens doesn't know that Li Xue'er's Master was a fourth tier Armament Master!

A Profound Armament personally refined by a fourth tier Armament Master, such a great thing was something that they would not even dare to dream of having!

Now that such a large meat pie had fallen onto their heads, whoever doesn't catch it would be the biggest idiot on earth! For cultivating practitioners, their only aim was to strive towards higher heights! If an opportunity knocks on your door and you don't grab it, then there's no chance to breakthrough at all!

So upon hearing that, all the Golden Scaled Guards eyes flashed a tint of greediness as they looked at one another before they moved towards where Huang Yueli was.

All of them had the same idea in their minds.

From the looks of it, Huang Yueli's power had indeed gone out of their calculations and could not be at the ordinary first degree realm. Her battle power should have exceeded by several little small realms.

If they were to go up against her one by one, they would probably not be Huang Yueli's match at all.

But their biggest advantage was the huge number of people they had! If they were to consolidate their attacks together, against the single Huang Yueli, they might not need to struggle that much.

Besides the Golden Scaled Guards were totally different from those trashy guards. The Golden Scaled Guards were all practitioners in the second degree realm. As for Huang Yueli who had just broken through to the second degree realm, so the difference in their abilities were originally not too huge.

Including the fact that they had so many people, how would they not able to capture her?

With this thinking set in their minds, the Golden Scaled Guards didn't hesitate further. All of them drew out their swords and outdoing the others to unleash their attacks towards Huang Yueli!

Li Xue'er lay crippled on the ground but her eyes were glued on Huang Yueli, just waiting to see how she was going to be defeated and dragged in front of her to see her pathetic sight!

Although she was not able to beat Huang Yueli personally, but that was because she had slighted her enemy earlier!

With so many men charging together, would that little slut.... be able to fly up into the sky to avoid all of these??

In actual fact, Huang Yueli didn't have the ability to fly into the sky or burrow herself into the ground, but.... she had the ability to defeat the opponent with her outstanding power directly!

A group of fiendish Golden Scaled Guards charged towards her but they were not even able to touch the corners of her sleeve.

As Huang Yueli looked at this bunch of Golden Scaled Guards, the corners of her mouth gave out a chilling laughter.

"Overestimating your own strength!"

She did some footwork and turned her body. Her pose was just like a demon as she turned a ghostly figure.

The Golden Scaled Guards eyes were dazzled as they lost all traces of Huang Yueli's trail.

Following that, they felt an irresistible huge force coming from their backs and before they could react, they had already been struck flying out.

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

The sound of impact was continuously heard. The Golden Scaled Guards who were thought to be unexcelled were all flying out within a blink of an eye and all of them were facing down as their foreheads crashed heavily onto the ground, blood spilling out.

Not long after, no one was left standing in the entire room except for Huang Yueli.

Li Xue'er was completely stunned by this scenario as she turned wide-eyed as though she had seen a ghost.

Huang Yueli had finished handling everyone as she slowly turned and walked over.

Chapter 556: Sit back and enjoy it!

Huang Yueli's steps were graceful and elegant but in Li Xue'er's eyes, she looked even more terrifying by a thousand times than a devil who had climbed out from hell!

Li Xue'er curled up even tighter as her voice gave a shiver, "You... what do you want to do? Go.... Go away!"

Huang Yueli smiled, "Didn't you keep calling out for me to send my greetings to you? Now that I'm here, you want me to leave instead? Your Highness, aren't you a little hard to please!"

Li Xue'er's heart was extremely uncomfortable but she didn't dare to rebut her.

The only thought on her mind now was to hurry and escape! Escape from this hellish Valiant Martial Manor!

Huang Yueli, she..... was not a human at all! She was much too abnormal!

Didn't she just breakthrough to the second degree realm? How could she use just one move to injure all the Golden Scaled Guards? This was simply too devious! Too terrifying!

However, Li Xue'er used all her might and wiggled around, but she had only nudged a small distance.

Because of the fact that her arms were broken and she laid crippled on the ground, even if she wanted to climb up, she was unable to exert any force from her body so naturally it would be difficult to move around.

So she could only see Huang Yueli slowly nearing her with her own eyes, nearer and nearer.....

Thereupon, she squatted down beside her.

"You.... what do you want to do? I'm warning you, I'm the legal child of the Empress, if you dare to..." Li Xue'er's voice started cracking up as she put up a brave front.

Huang Yueli sneeringly cut into her words, "Legal child... so what? Even if Li Mojun was standing here, I'd beat him up the same!"

These words of hers were from the depths of her heart as she could no longer put up with that hypocritical maverick look and she had long wanted to teach him a lesson!

What to do, she had not advanced in level during the previous days so she didn't had a chance to do so, but now that she had already advanced, after Li Mojun had been taught a lesson by Li Moying, he turned into a cowardly turtle and hid himself up so even if she wanted to beat him up, she couldn't find him at all!

Li Xue'er could not imagine that Huang Yueli actually had such guts to disregard the royal family status in her eyes.

In this case, she had absolutely nothing at all to threaten Huang Yueli at all.

Once she realised this point, Li Xue'er shivered more ferociously than before.

Huang Yueli gave a rather warm smile, "Ai ya, your Highness, look at the fright you have suffered..... I'm such a gentle and kind lady, why would I anyhow hurt or kill people? Don't worry, I won't hurt you at all!"

When she heard Huang Yueli say she "won't hurt her", not only did Li Xue'er experience any joyous feeling, her instincts told her that something bad was about to happen.... Huang Yueli would definitely come out with more sinister moves which are much horrendous than being beaten up.....

As expected, Huang Yueli reached out for a small medication bottle hidden within her sleeves.

Li Xue'er's turn wide-eyed, "Wh... what is that?"

Huang Yueli laughed, "This is something really good. Only because you're the Seventh Princess am I willing to bring this out! Just sit back and enjoy it!"

"What is th...."

Just as Li Xue'er opened her mouth, Huang Yueli stuffed a pill in.

She wanted to spit it out subconsciously but her chin was held by Huang Yueli who forcefully stuffed it down her throat!

Li Xue'er was frightened stiff!

No matter how silly she was, she knew that this could not be anything good!

But no matter how she resisted, she still had to swallow the pill down!

Huang Yueli released her grip and Li Xue'er immediately gave out signs of vomiting, trying to spit out the pill.

Unfortunately, it was just a waste of effort.

Chapter 557: Your guess is right

Huang Yueli stood up and clapped her hands calling out, "Men! Why isn't there anyone around at all?"

Most of the Valiant Martial Manor's guards and servants were injured by the men whom were brought over by the Seventh Princess and they were blocked at the entrance, so they could only watch from afar.

They had initially thought Huang Yueli would definitely come to a dead end this time but who knew that even under the attack of so many Golden Scaled Guards, Huang Yueli easily ironed out the difficulties.

Looking at the groaning Golden Scaled Guards laying all over the ground, everyone's respect towards Huang Yueli rose to newer heights!

Upon hearing her summon, all the servants dragged their injured bodies, limped and hobbled over to show themselves in front of their Third Miss.

To be able to follow such a strong Master, in future.... they would be able to bask in envy!

"Third Miss, what commands do you have? This servant will handle it properly!"

"This servant can also do the same, please tell us your commands Third Miss!"

Everyone crowded over, all talking together to promote their own services.

Huang Yueli nodded and pointed to two people, "You, and you, come over here!" She passed the bottle of medication in her hands to them and commanded, "The both of you bring along some men and feed the medication to the guards that the Seventh Princess had brought over. One person shall take one pill. After ensuring that they have taken the pill, drag all of them and the Seventh Princess out and using a carriage, send them back to the palace. Do you hear me clearly?"

"Yes, loud and clear!"

"Third Miss please rest assured, I guarantee that I will complete this task!"

Both of them accepted and very quickly they organised the team to carry out their task.

Those guards who were injured by Huang Yueli basically had fractures everywhere and were unable to get up on their own. Even their meridians were damaged so they didn't have any ability to resist.

The few people followed Huang Yueli's instructions and first fed them with the pill before dragging them out one by one.

Finally, there was only the Seventh Princess left in the study room who had yet to be dragged out.

The few of them returned to the entrance of the study room and looked inside while asking for further instructions, "Third Miss, this.... Seventh Princess too, erm... that...."

He hemmed and hawed, feeling embarrassed to say out the words "drag the Seventh Princess out".

After all, she was a respectable royal princess. Under the eyes of those born as slaves, her existence was extremely valuable! Just the thought of being rough with her made many feel jittery in their hearts.

Huang Yueli however, did not have any of these misgivings. She waved her hand and replied, "That's right, drag her away too! If you don't hurry, the medication in the Princess's body might just start to take effect now...."

Just at the same moment, Li Xue'er already could feel the strange feeling spreading within her body.

She only felt the temperature in her body raising higher and higher, her skin becoming more sensitive and itchy and her face gradually flushing red. It was as if a scorching heat from within was spreading from her heart all the way to all her four limbs.

She bit her lips, trying hard to suppress the uncomfortable feeling in her body and stared at Huang Yueli furiously, "You.... what on earth did you feed me.....what was that thing?"

Huang Yueli's brows raised as she replied, "Actually, you have already guessed it, isn't it? It's exactly what you think it is!"

"What? Y....What did you say? How do you know what I'm thinking? Impossible, you dare to feed.... feed me that.... that type of.... medication?"

"Take what kind of medication?" Huang Yueli asked laughingly.

Li Xue'er's eyes rimmed red but she was not able to say voice out a single word!

Huang Yueli lowered her head and whispered by the side of her ear with a laugh, "Um, your guess is right, what I fed you is indeed the pill that will bring a person to heat, and your guards had all taken the same pill."

Chapter 558: If you dare to come out to mess, there's always a price to pay

"You.....!"

Li Xue'er was wide-eyed as her face drained cleanly of all traces of blood!

Even though she had already guessed it, but hearing the words "Estrus Pill" coming out clearly from Huang Yueli's mouth, she was still unable to believe it!

Following that, a deep fear arose from the bottom of her heart!

Huang Yueli actually.... dared to do this!

And the scariest part was not only did she feed her this medication, she also fed the same medication to so many guards! And she's going to place her in the same carriage to be sent back to the palace!

Th...th...this..... won't she be able to protect her chastity?

A mouthful of blood rushed up from Li Xue'er's chest and unable to suppress it further, she spat it out.

"Bai Ruoli, you dare to do such an outrageous act! If you dare to ruin my innocence, even if I become a ghost, I will not forgive you!"

Li Xue'er was conceited over her outstanding status and innate skill and had always wanted to get acquainted to several reputable direct descendant's disciples in Sky Cloud City. Although the amount of suitors she had were plentiful, but if she were to lose her chastity and if anyone found out about it, then her hopes of marrying into any powerful or reputable aristocrats would be dashed!

Huang Yueli laughingly replied, "Seventh Princess, what are you saying? You tried to interrupt my advancement because you wanted my life! I only want your chastity, so comparing the two, I'm much kinder than you!"

Li Xue'er's eyes almost shot out streaks of fire!

Under her ashamed and resentful glare, Huang Yueli chortled gleefully as she slowly opened her mouth to add on.

"What's more..... don't say that I didn't give you any chances. The speed of the medication that I had fed you with doesn't take effect immediately. So to say, if the speed of the carriage is fast enough, perhaps, all of you might not even advance to the last step, and reach the palace in time. If you were to slowly drag on her, chirping non stop, then perhaps in the middle of the journey, the effect would have taken place. By then, with so many men and only you.... if the Emperor were to see this scenario, I wonder if he will die from an excess of anger on the spot?"

When Li Xue'er heard this depiction, she almost fainted!

No wonder Huang Yueli wanted to stuff her up the carriage and transport her back to the palace!

If such a scandal were to be seen by so many people at the palace doors, and if her Imperial Father and Empress were to see this.... she wouldn't need to live in this lifetime!

Li Xue'er's eyes were filled with poisonous grudges as she stared at Huang Yueli, "You.... you're such an evil and malicious lunatic, you will die a horrible death!"

Huang Yueli sneered coldly, "That's interesting. When you tried to kill me, why didn't you feel that you're evil and malicious? And now you're trying to act like a pure white lotus? My advice to you is if you dare to come out to mess, there's always a price to pay! Today is your time to slowly pay back your debts!"

She waved her hand and ordered her men to drag Li Xue'er away.

Li Xue'er kept struggling and pedalled her feet, expressing her unwillingness to get on the carriage.

Huang Yueli spoke in a chilling voice, "If Seventh Princess is not willing to get on the carriage, don't force her to, otherwise she will say we did not treat her with respect! Just wait a little while more. Perhaps after a while more, the medication effects completely take effect on those guards in the carriage!"

Li Xue'er froze when she heard such words.

After a long time, her pale lips trembled, "Bai...Ruoli, I... I want....." she shut her eyes and clenched her teeth and using a small voice like a mosquito, she buzzed, "I want to get up the carriage....."

Huang Yueli smiled lightly, "What do you want? You're speaking so softly, my hearing isn't that good, so I can't hear you!"

Chapter 559: I'm so pure and cute

Li Xue'er was embarrassed to the extreme but facing a motionless Huang Yueli, she had no choice but to raise the volume of her voice and repeated what she said earlier.

Huang Yueli gave a smile which didn't look like a smile, "You really deserve to be called the Seventh Princess, your hobby is really special. You already know that this carriage has many men who had taken the ***** and still want me to quickly let you get on the carriage! Aren't you being a little too unconstrained? If others were to know about it, the entire South Yue Kingdom's Royal family's face..... will be thrown away by you!"

Li Xue'er's emotions were mixed in between embarrassed and anger and that type of despondent feeling was simply indescribable!"

It was obviously Huang Yueli who forced her to say these kind of words and forced her up the carriage, but unexpectedly when the words reached Huang Yueli's mouth, it became totally twisted and had the opposite meaning!

If people heard what Huang Yueli said, then they would most probably think that she was a shameless, immoral woman!

It had been such a simple thing, to teach Huang Yueli a lesson on behalf of her brother and her best friend but Li Xue'er had never dreamt that the results would end up in her losing so badly, to the extent of her reputation being shred to pieces!

She recalled that before she came over, Bai Ruo Qi constantly reminded her, "Don't even look down on this Third Sister of mine. Ever since she committed suicide the last time, she seemed to have changed into a different person. Her thoughts are deep and frightening, if you were to belittle her, then you'd fall into her trap easily!"

Li Xue'er had casually acknowledged it earlier and didn't take it to heart.

But now, she really regret her actions for not taking heed!

Alas, it was all too late now!

Huang Yueli had personally sealed her meridians and got her men to carry her onto the carriage!

In front of the carriage was a coachman.

When Li Xue'er got up the carriage, the coachmen followed Huang Yueli's instructions and striking the horsewhip, proceeded towards the direction of the palace.

Huang Yueli wanted to join in the fun and exhibited her footworks, following behind the carriage at an casual speed.

Not long after the carriage had started on its journey, heavy panting and moaning can be heard from within.

Huang Yueli raised her eyebrow and turned her head towards the little bird sapling resting on her shoulder.

"Wang Cai, make a guess.... Have they.... started doing the deed already?"

The little phoenix covered its eyes but since it wasn't covered totally, from the chinks of the feathers, without even blinking, his large watery eyes could be seen staring at the carriage's direction filled with curiosity.

Little Phoenix kept stealing peeks and at the same time replied, "Female Devil, what deed are you talking about? That deed does it mean? This little lord is such a pure and cute Divine Magical Beast, don't you dare to use your evil thoughts to contaminate me!"

The corners of Huang Yueli's mouth twitched.

This wimpy brat! When he was saying such things, could his eyes first stop to steal glances?

Huang Yueli glimpsed at him and intentionally said, "See that little hole at the back of the carriage's window? Shall I help to stuff you inside, so that you can go in and take a look!"

"Chirp chirp! Chirp chirp!" [Yes, yes!]

Little Phoenix excitedly flapped its wing and fluttered.

But after the excitement when he saw the ridicule in Huang Yueli's eyes, he immediately hung its head down weakly.

"Cough cough, why would this Little Lord want to do such a thing? Female Devil, don't be shameless and try to throw such an innocent person like me into that place! You're so bad!"

Even Huang Yueli was defeated utterly by this shameless little thing, and remained wordless for a short period of time.

By now, the carriage had turned into another street.

Chapter 560: Too shameless!

The entire journey from Valiant Martial Manor to the Royal Palace would pass through several busiest streets in the city and these streets were mainly for commercial use so traffic was extremely busy and pedestrians were closely woven.

When the carriage had arrived at these areas, it could not maintain the previous speed to go as fast as possible so it could only reduce its speed as it moved slowly, moving and halting every few seconds.

However, the minute the carriage decreased its speed, the sounds from within the carriage could be heard visible.

"Enn....Enn.... Ah.... Ahh...."

The slight moaning could be heard indistinctly.

The pedestrians on the streets were plentiful and quite a number of them had already noticed the unusual situation in that carriage. They ambiguously turned their heads to look and following that, discussions in a lowered tone could be heard.

"Look at that carriage! Those sounds earlier, did it come from that carriage?"

“That’s right, it’s this carriage. I’ve heard sounds coming from it for quite a while. Oh my, aren’t the people inside too ‘thirsty’, so do such an act in the middle of the day at such a busy place?”

“He he” a bystander gave a lewd smile, “You’re all inexperienced. If I were to say, there are several men inside and only one woman. Tsk tsk, such heavy taste.....”

“What? How can such a thing happen? Isn’t that woman being forced to do such a thing? We have to report to the authorities!”

“What’s the hurry?” the lewd man smiled wretchedly, “From the sound of this, it seems that the woman is enjoying herself, we can’t be sure that she’s not a willing party!”

A stir started to arise.

Little Phoenix turned his head towards Huang Yueli and asked, “Wa sai, if that what princess’s reputation has gone down in the mud. If she were to hear these, won’t she die of anger?”

The corners of Huang Yueli lips curled upwards, “Don’t worry, she heard it loud and clear!”

Regarding this, Huang Yueli was very sure.

Because the medication that she had given would not make the party lost their rationale. Instead, they remained clear-headed but they were unable to control their actions and feelings, so the effect of this medication was extremely useful for tormenting others!

Although the levels of the voices of those pedestrians were intentionally lowered, but Li Xue’er was after all a second degree realm practitioner. Her senses were much higher than ordinary people by several folds, so the volume of these voices were absolutely loud and clear to her!

The carriage continued on its journey, although the speed was slow, but it eventually passed by this street.

Just up in the front was the gate to the Royal Palace.

Just a distance before the carriage reached the main gate, it was stopped.

The Golden Scaled Guards held in their hands long spears and blocked the way in front of the carriage.

“Who is inside? In front of the Royal Palace, why aren’t you coming down to report your who you are?”

Although the carriage had stopped but still no one stepped down. The coachman stopped the carriage and as though he had done something guilty, he sped away immediately.

The Golden Scaled Guards had not imagined that he would run away so naturally they didn’t thought of stopping him. It was only after he had ran away did the few guards looked at one another in dismay, unclear of the current situation.

“What’s the situation now? Why did he run away? Why aren’t the people inside getting down from the carriage?”

“Don’t bother so much, go over and take a look!”

The Golden Scaled Guards walked towards the carriage and just a distance away, they heard noises of moaning and panting, and a powerless woman's voice from the carriage.

"Go away.... en... en.... don't.... don't do this ah....."

The few of them grew wide-eyed as they all recovered their senses at the same time.

"Kao! This carriage.... Are they having.... having..."

"Heavens, aren't they too shameless? To do such a thing is already too indecent, to think that they actually stopped the carriage in front of the royal palace gate? Isn't this a provocation to the Emperor?"
