

Weaponsmith 61

Chapter 61: Wonderful composition

Hearing those words, Bai Liu Jing suddenly recalled something.

Bai Ruo Qi constantly claimed that Huang Yue Li used demonics techniques to defeat her. Obviously, that was impossible.

The more likely probability was she had used some high levelled Profound Skill.

But how could this girl possess such a precious thing? It was definitely something left behind by Bai Liu Feng!

Ever since the disappearance of Bai Liu Feng, Bai Liu Jing had interrogated Bai Ruo Li numerous times. He wished to find all the pills and Armaments left behind by Bai Liu Feng, but failed to find any clues.

It didn't seem like Bai Ruo Li had lied to him. Her personality was cowardly and weak, so Bai Liu Jing could only give up.

But it was different now. The reasons why this girl could become this strong and courageous could possibly be.....she found Bai Liu Feng's legacy?

Coming to this conclusion, Bai Liu Jing's gaze changed.

If she really had the things left behind by Bai Liu Feng within her grasp, he must obtain them at any cost!

He must make this his priority, taking advantage of the current situation. He must first drive her away from the back courtyard and then slowly search around. One by one, he will uncover all the things left behind by Bai Liu Feng!

Putting on a bemoaning expression, he sighed out: "Ai Qi'er, what you say is correct! My elder brother left too early.....the pitiful Li'er. She lost her mother and father at such a young age..."

As he spoke, his eyes seemed to be on the verge of dropping tears.

After a while, he wiped his tears away: "Li'er ah, recently you...it would be best for you to accompany your Fourth Sister and move to the farmstead for a while!"

"Eh?" With a smile that was not quite a smile, Huang Yue Li gazed at him.

For some odd reason, when Bai Liu Jing felt that penetratingly profound gaze sweep over him, his heart palpitated.

His heart shivering was unexpected.

This girl was clearly someone who could not cultivate, so why was her gaze this frightening. It was like a gaze of an powerful person, not allowing others to look at them directly.....

He must have made a mistake.

Composing himself, Bai Liu Jing continued to display his most amicable smile: “Li’er ah, do misunderstand. Second Uncle doesn’t have any intention of blaming you! It’s just the day that you were meeting with that man, there were just too many witnesses.....if rumors were to spread, you will no longer be able to maintain your integrity anymore. Second Uncle is doing this for your own good. Stay in the farmstead for a while and wait for the heat to die down before coming back!”

Smiling, Huang Yue Li replied: “Is that so? However people say that only girls who committed mistakes would be sent to the farmstead. Second Uncle.....could it be that you dislike your niece of yours?”

Hastily Bai Liu Jing smiled: “How can that be? Li’er, you over-thought this!”

Though his words he said this, he thought differently. What he more than anything was to get rid of this girl as soon as possible.

But now this girl had become smarter, so he could not do things like he used to. To prevent her from speaking carelessly, he could only reply on good words and compliments to cheat her away.

The Manor Madam chimed in: “That’s right. Li’er, your Second Uncle is your closest relative. How could he harm you? Since you are young in age, you do not know of the full consequences this scandal can cause for a young girl like you! This is all for your future!”

Even Bai Ruo Qi spoke: “Third Sister, father and mother are with good intentions. Why do you not appreciate it?”

With the combined chanting of the three people, they earnestly tried to persuade Huang Yue Li. If she were to reject their concern, she would be like scum, heart of a wolf and the lungs of a dog!

Holding the teacup, Huang Yue Li took a sip while watching the brilliant performance by the family of three.

Only after they finished their act, did she open her mouth.

Chapter 62: Careful, a loose tongue can cause a lot of trouble

“So Second Uncle was doing all this for me. I assumed...that Second Uncle wanted to send me away. You wanted to drive me away from the Back Courtyard so you could go search for things!”

Slowly and deliberately, Huang Yue Li said.

Bai Liu Jing’s heart shook, “Search for what? How come I cannot understand your words?”

Smilingly, Huang Yue Li replied: “Eh? Are you not searching for something Second Uncle? That day when Fourth Sister came to my courtyard, she said that it was Second Sister who asked her to come. She said that you wanted to find a key.....”

Reaching this point, she directed an innocent and naive gaze towards Bai Liu Jing and asked: “Second Uncle, what key are they talking about? How could I have any sort of key? And why are you searching for it?”

Hands shaking, Bai Liu Jing immediately directed a seething glare towards the Manor Madam and Bai Ruo Qi!

The key that Huang Yue Li was referring to, naturally was the key to Bai Liu Feng's treasure trove!

His older brother the most powerful man in South Yue, had collected countless treasures. He had heard that there were even Sixth Level Pills and Armaments!

The key to these treasure should logically have been left with Bai Ruo Li. Unfortunately she did not have knowledge.

Bai Liu Jing naturally coveted this key. But he afraid to alert his niece, causing her to open the safe first. So every time he mentioned the topic, he would be very careful and probe around in the dark.

He did not expect that Bai Ruo Qi would leak this out and alerted Huang Yue Li of this affair!

She really couldn't do anything right! Failing miserably!

If they were unable to obtain Bai Liu Feng's inheritance, then the blame would be all on those two women!

Currently, Bai Ruo Qi was full of embarrassment. Hastily she said: "Third Sister, what key are you talking about? I have not said anything of the like! And I don't know what you are pointing at. Fourth Sister recently fell under evil possession and has become muddled-headed. She definitely is speaking mindless drive!"

"Is that so? But didn't you just states that Fourth Sister wasn't possessed by evil but fell under my schemes? Resulting in her naked lap around the streets?"

"It's.....it's not like that. Third Sister, look at what you're saying. The words that Fourth Sister says when she is muddled cannot be believed. And it wasn't me who asked her to go to the back courtyard. Please do not wrong me!"

During her little explanation, Bai Ruo Qi was bloodily cursing at Bai Ruo Yan.

Asking her to complete such a little thing and she wasn't able to. Furthermore, she leaked the news of the key outside!

Now that their father knows, who knows how angry he will become! Really dragged down by her!

Huang Yue Li said: "Then I must have misheard that day! Since it is like this, then Second Sister you must acknowledge you have wronged me? The matter of the Fourth Sister running around naked was the result of her own sickness. Unrelated to me in any way? And the question of my demonic techniques, are but baseless rumors?"

Following this sequence, this was the only possible conclusion.

Bai Ruo Qi could only admit it: "...Yes. Yes, I wrongly accused Third Sister!"

Gently smiling, Huang Yue Li said: "Second Sister, you are the eldest daughter of the Wu Wei Manor. How can you casually accuse people? In the future, do not speak nonsense like that! Just look at your face's condition. This may become a case of a loose tongue that causing trouble! In the future if you were beaten to a worse state, what will you do?"

"You....."

Bai Ruo Qi nearly shattered her teeth from biting too hard!

She being hit and Bai Ruo Yan running around naked, were clearly linked to Huang Yue Li.

But she had found a weak point of hers, forcing her to admit that she had slandered her!

This little slut, not only did she free herself of the mess, she also added such sarcasm. Wasn't she clearly scolding her of 'deserving it' and 'should have been beaten' with a raised nose?

Furthermore, she could not say any words in retaliation!

There was nothing more infuriating than this!

Chapter 63: You are fit to become the Crown Prince's Imperial Consort?

Ignoring Bai Ruo Qi's murderous gaze, Huang Yue Li turned her attention back to Bai Liu Jing.

"Look at that Second Uncle. Did I not say that the matter of Second Sister being hit is not related to me in any way? She has admitted it herself, so there should not be any more problems with me?"

What more could Bai Liu Jing say?

He knew that Huang Yue Li was aware of the key, and was afraid of alerting her of anything more. As a result, he could only continue to act oblivious and hope to gloss over the leak that Bai Ruo Qi made.

"Li'er ah, this was Second Uncle's fault. But you secretly meeting with men outside is not correct. You are still a conferred Region Princess. If news of this were to spread out, even the Emperor himself would lose face! Worst case, he might strip you of your title!"

Huang Yue Li's thought this was laughable, lips curving.

Want to use the Emperor to scare her? This Second Uncle of hers is really short sighted.

In her previous life, even the Lord of the South Sky Region would treat her with extreme deference. Say nothing of a measly South Yue, who was but a tiny country in the South Sky Region?

This so-called Emperor, she did not put him her eyes.

Purposefully she smiled: "Many thanks for Second Uncle's reminder! Since you are not searching for anything, there is no need for me to move! The Manor's Back Courtyard is where I grew up. If I were to move and unable to accustom myself, I might might say the wrong things. There is also the possibility I might secretly come back. If this were to be misunderstood by others that Second Uncle was treating me badly, how bad that would be!"

Hearing those words, Bai Liu Jing's face turned steaming red from anger!

This damn girl really was not the same!

If it were the previous her, she would have long been scared speechless and obediently complied.

But now, she clearly saw through all his motives and was evidently threatening him.

If he were to forcibly drive her away, this girl would go around spreading malicious rumors. Ruining the name of the Manor.

And if those rumors were to reach the Emperor's ears.....

Biting his teeth, Bai Liu Jing replied: "Good! You are old now and your wings have hardened. Your Second Uncle can no longer control you! Since you do not want to take shelter from the wind, you cannot blame your Second Uncle if you cannot be married off!"

"Then I won't trouble Second Uncle for his worry. Afterall, I am someone who has a verbal engagement with the Crown Prince. Who knows, I may wed into the Royal Family and become the Crown Prince's Imperial Consort?" Huang Yue Li lightly replied.

Just as she finished her words, Bai Ruo Qi uncontrollably cried out.

"You sure dream well! On what basis.....want to become the Crown Prince's Imperial Consort?"

Calmly, Huang Yue Li answered her: "Why can't I? My father was a famous and the strongest person in South Yue. While I am a Region Princess whose title was personally conferred by the Emperor! Even when I was young, the Emperor mentioned marriage between the Crown Prince and I! If I cannot become the Crown Prince's Imperial Consort, who can? Could it be you, Second Sister?"

"You! Don't always think about the past! The current master of Valiant Martial Manor is my father! Also, do you think that the Emperor will allow the Crown Prince to choose someone whose is a cultivation trash as his Imperial Consort? The Crown Prince is a mighty Fifth Grade Talent, who would definitely need to choose a female of similar talent as he is to match him. A trash like you.....don't think about soaring your entire life!"

"Looks like Second Sister has some intention towards the position of Imperial Consort.....determined to win!"

"Oh, of course! Apart from me, who else can match with the Crown Prince?"

"Qi'er!" Interrupting them, the Manor Madam cried out, "Don't speak anymore!"

Startled, Bai Ruo Qi finally reacted. Under the provocation of Huang Yue Li, she had said all the things which had kept secretly within her!

If those were words were to be heard by those within the Royal Palace, it would be great disrespect!

Hastily she shut her mouth. Clamping down hard, she glared hatefully at Huang Yue Li.

Presently, Huang Yue Li confirmed the motive behind this mother-daughter pair's accusation of her of illicit relationship. It was all due to the position of Imperial Consort.

Chapter 64: Demanding back the estates

She no longer wanted to waste anymore time in the manor filled with evil-hearted people. Placing the teacup down, she stood up.

“Second Uncle, the time is no longer early so I will first return! But I still have a task to trouble you with.”

Finishing, Huang Yue Li took out a piece of paper that was filled with small words.

Knitting his eyebrows together, Bai Liu Jing asked: “What is this?”

Pronouncing each word clearly, Huang Yue Li replied: “This is list of my father’s private properties and items in my mother’s dowry. I will trouble Second Uncle to look over it.”

“What is your intention?” Bai Liu Jing’s facial expression shifted.

Smilingly, Huang Yue Li said: “Second Uncle, since I was young in age, I asked you to look after the estates and properties that my mother and father left behind for me. But my heart would not me feel to feel at peace. How can I continue to trouble you? Now that I am older, if I were to allow Second Uncle to work hard like this, people will say that I am unfilial!”

“You.....”

He did not expect that today’s visit of Huang Yue Li was for this. She even prepared a written list, waiting to meet him!

He was leading a wolf into the home!

Though her words were nice to listen to. The sarcasm that mocked him for bullying his niece due to her young age to possess her property was heard very clearly.

If he was not willingly to return it, was she prepared to cause a large fuss?

With great difficulty, Bai Liu Jing steadied his emotions and said: “Li’er ah, your intention, Second Uncle understands. But this is not something that can be done in one or two days. I must take time to calculate everything clearly and accurately before handing everything back to you. What do you say?”

Very quickly he decided to stall for time. He will first stabilise his position with this girl, before slowly refuse to admit anything.

Afterall, she was just a girl who had yet to experience society. The management of the properties was not an easy task, she would understand anything. When the time came, he would transfer all the money away and send her an empty statement. She wouldn’t be able to find a way out!

Huang Yue Li long expected he would say this. Smiling, she didn’t refute his words.

“Since it’s like this, then do not worry about any changes. I ask that Second Uncle send a compiled list of all the properties to my back courtyard within three days.”

“This.....don’t be so hasty. The storehouse needs to make in inventory of all the treasures and the like...”

Smiling: “Second Uncle, I forgot to tell you. The items listed on the list were all bestowed by the Royal Palace. If the Empress were to ask me of the those bestowed items when I enter the Royal Palace in a few days, I would be committing a grave sin if any were to be missing! Second Uncle, you wouldn't dig such a pit for me?"

Bai Liu Jing was stunned for quite awhile.

Forcibly possessing items bestowed by the Palace would definitely result in conviction from the Emperor. He could only return that portion to her.

But the things that Bai Liu Feng left behind, how was he to know which ones were Palace bestowed and which wasn't? Didn't he still have rely on Huang Yue Li's word?

If she said they all were, he wouldn't be able to tell the difference!

But what if the few items he did not return were the bestowed items, wouldn't he be leaving a handle for her to grab onto?

And coincidentally, all the things that Huang Yue Li listed were priceless and invaluable. Forcing him to give them up so easily, really made him want to spit blood! The pain was equivalent to slicing his flesh away!

Bai Liu Jing forced out a smile: "Okay, Second Uncle will do his best to sort things out and send it over for you!"

"I shall give my thanks first Second Uncle!"

Completing her objective, Huang Yue Li waved her hands and walked out. She ignored Bai Liu Jing's fiery gaze.

Chapter 65: It's all her fault!

Just moments after Huang Yue Li left, Bai Liu Jing whipped his body around. With a loud 'pa', he gave Bai Ruo Qi a slap.

"Father! You....."

Clutching her cheek, Bai Ruo Qi could not react.

She was the most favoured daughter of Bai Liu Jing. She had never been hit by him before.

Who would have imagined that Bai Liu Jing would take his anger on her. Furthermore, he did not offer an explanation before landing that slap.

Bai Liu Jing was immensely angered by Huang Yue Li, but had no method to release it. When he turned around and saw that pig-headed daughter of his, he slapped her in a fit of anger.

In the past, the more he saw the more he liked her. But now, just looking at her made him disgusted.

"It's all because of you! If it weren't because of your loose mouth with Yan'er, how would she be able to alert that damn girl of the key? Now that she become this powerful should all be because of Elder Brother's inheritance!"

Even in his dreams, Bai Liu Jing dreamed of obtaining those treasures. He had been stuck in the Ninth Level of the Defensive Profound Realm for many years already. He was hoping to find a pill within those treasures and hopefully be promoted to the Spirit Profound Realm!

With that increase, he would become one of the powerhouses in South Yue. He would no longer need to spend his days in fear over the happiness and moods of the Emperor.

He didn't expect that Bai Ruo Qi would leak the news out. Halting his grand plans!

Not to mention how many properties and treasures Huang Yue Li had asked him to return! Such heavy losses!

If it weren't for the fact that Bai Ruo Qi could not reconcile with Huang Yue Li, how could he possibly be blackmailed by that girl?

Prostrating tearfully, Bai Ruo Qi said: "Father, this truly was not daughter's fault. It was all due to Fourth Sister's loose tongue, she definitely heard of the conversation between mother and I! It's all her fault!"

The burning flames of anger, burned even more ferociously within Bai Ruo Qi's heart!

It's all because of Bai Ruo Li, that cheap slut!

She was clearly a wastrel, yet beat her to such an ugly appearance! She also dreamed of becoming the Crown Prince's Imperial Consort!

If Bai Ruo Li were to end up in her hands, she would suffer a fate worse than death!

At the Manor entrance

Bai Ruo Yan was currently in the midst of an argument with the Manor Madam's confidante, Mama Liu.

"Move aside for me! I want to see my father! I don't believe that my father would drive me away from the Manor! There is definitely someone working from the shadows. Let me see my father, so I can explain everything to him!"

Putting in a false smile, Mama Liu said: "Fourth Young Miss, the Master already said he no longer wants to see you again. Why don't you obediently go to the farmstead and not lose anymore face for the Manor!"

"Not possible! How can my father not want to see me? Then I want to see Second Sister! Second Sister will definitely help me!"

Just as Huang Yue Li was leaving, she happened to see the exchange between the two parties. Watching this, she smiled from amusement.

Looking at her blankly, it took Bai Ruo Yan sometime before she recognised that person.

Soon afterwards, she stormed over. In a fit of anger, she raised her hand and slapped towards Huang Yue Li!

“Little slut! It’s all your fault! What demonic technique did you use on me, making me act like that? Now you are pleased? I’ll beat you to death!”

With a light move her foot, she kicked a stone right under Bai Ruo Yan’s foot.

Stepping on the stone, Bai Ruo Yan lost her equilibrium and fell heavily onto the floor.

Furthermore, she landed in a sprawled position!

Giggling, Huang Yue Li said: “Ai, Fourth Younger Sister I know that you feel very grateful towards me. But there is no need for you to go to such lengths to express this. You make your elder sister embarrassed to accept it!”

Chapter 66: The falling out between sisters

Raising her head, Bai Ruo Yan’s face was full of hatred. Suddenly she felt her nose turn cold.

Feeling her nose, she was startled to see that her nose had started to bleed. Coupled with her dust covered clothes, what part of her seemed like a high society lady. She seemed worse than a beggar.

“Bai Ruo Li, you’re looking for death!”

Hearing the jeers of the passer-bys, Bai Ruo Yan was flustered and exasperated!

“You harmed me like this and still have the mood to be sarcastic? You are too shameless! Just you wait you lowly wastrel, wait for me to find my Second Sister. She will help me vent my anger and ruthlessly beat you up!”

Laughing while shaking her head, Huang Yue Li replied: “Ai, I have meet stupid. But never have I meet such stupidity.”

“What do you mean? ? You say I am stupid? ?”

Sweeping over her, Huang Yue Li began: “Are you not stupid? You think that Bai Ruo Qi will plead for you? To tell you the truth, the reason behind your expelling was because of her instigating to Second Uncle today.”

Bai Ruo Yan coldly laughed, “It seems you are the one trying to sow disharmony between us! I am on very good terms with Second Sister, she looks after me in many areas! It was definitely you who said bad things about me to my father. You want to place the blame on Second Sister’s head? You think I would believe you?”

“Oh? You think it was me? Do you think that your father would believe me if I were to say those things to him? He believed one word from me and drove you out of the Manor? It’s very clear the one who badmouthed you was someone your father trusts very much. That’s why you so justly driven away!”

“That’s not possible. It’s not possible.....you must be lying to me!”

“Speaking bluntly, Second Sister is just using you! You helped her with so many things, yet she so easily turned her back on you. So pitiful.....”

“Shut up! Shut your mouth for me!”

What Huang Yue Li said was very reasonable. Bai Ruo Yan’s mind believed it, her heart was not so ready to believe her.

Sighing out, “It’s up to you whether you believe me or not! Tsk, tsk. Being used, yet you are still counting money for them!”

Not speaking anymore, she left.

Turning around the corner, Huang Yue Li glanced back. What she was Bai Ruo Yan staring at the Manor’s gates with an expression of poisonous blame.

Her lips curved up.

Looked like from that moment onwards, those two sisters would become enemies.

One was treacherous, the other malicious. Those two people, who would be the final victor?

By the time Huang Yue Li returned to her back courtyard, the sky had already darkened.

Cai Wei was anxiously running around in circles as she waited. Only when she saw Huang Yue Li step through the doors, did she release a sigh of relief.

“Young Miss, you have finally returned! This servant was worried to death for you!”

“Relax, your Miss is fine! Quickly go and rest!”

Dismissing Cai Wei, Huang Yue Li walked straight to her bedroom.

As soon as she pushed open the doors, she sensed something was off.

Within the air was a thin thread of danger; incompatible with the room’s atmosphere.

Unconsciously she took out a flying needle. Using a deadly technique, she threw it!

This flying needle was also an uncommon type of Profound Weapon. Under her refinement, its killing power was no less than a blades. And due to its small size, it was very hard to sense.

Even Defensive Profound experts would be hard pressed to defend against this attack once she released it!

However, the moment the needle flew away, Huang Yue Li felt an immense suction force towards her.

The opponent’s power was far too great. She could not resist as her wrists were grabbed, throwing her straight onto the bed!

Chapter 67: Your attacks are so deadly

A warm body suddenly appeared on top of her body, filled with dominating strength. The suffocating pressure nearly caused Huang Yue Li to be unable to breathe.

The hot air engulfed her, while warm fingers went straight to her neck. Straight afterwards, they captured her chin and forced her to look up.

Because Huang Yue Li was thrown on to the bed, it took her a moment to regain herself. When she did, another needle flew out with a flick of her fingers.

The body of the man pressing her down shifted and dodged the incoming needle.

Taking the chance, Huang Yue Li's ten fingers were like lightning as they lashed out!

As fast as she was, the man moved even faster.

Moving easily to the side, he effortlessly avoided Huang Yue Li's attack. Grabbing onto her wrists, he lightly smiled: "Your attacks are so deadly. If my cultivation was a bit poor, then I would have been injured by you!"

That voice was a sexy and husky sound, and sounded very familiar.

Stunned, Huang Yue Li raised her head to look at him.

With the moonlight peeking in from the open window, the man's perfectly chiseled jawlines were revealed, not a single flaw to be seen. The silver mask on his face reflected the cold moonlight. This caused others to be unable to look at him clearly.

"It's you?" Huang Yue Li's brows knitted together.

Pointing out a finger, he shook it.

'Pu' it lightly sounded.

A small flame shot towards the oil lamp on the table. Instantly lighting up the room.

The man's masked face also became much clearer.

As he reclined to the side of the bed, his golden robes had opened slightly. This revealed a small amount of his jade skin chest, chiseled and enticing.

Huang Yue Li's gaze landed on his body. However, her expression did not change in the slightest. She said in a detached voice: "Lord Owner, this is my room. It doesn't seem to be a place where you should appear?"

"Young Miss Bai's indifference really breaks my heart! This Lord had rushed here to personally inform you of the auction's news. I did not think.....not only would you not welcome this Lord, you also used such vicious techniques....."

Due to Huang Yue Li's abundant experiences, her expression did not change. On the contrary, it was the man's expression that became exceptionally terrible looking!

His words carried such a coquettish tone and easily inverted black into white.

It was clearly the man's fault for trespassing into a young lady's room during the night. Not matter how you looked at it, she was performing justifiable self-defense. How did it become her fault?

Furthermore, while the man spoke his hands firmly tied down Huang Yue Li's wrists. His fingers were also freely rubbing her tender palms.

This move was one that invoked deep and tender emotion, causing a her to feel an itch within her. Though she wanted to resist, the disparity between their power did not allow her to.

(Z: As Captain Jack Sparrow says, it's the uncontrollable itch~)

Narrowing her eyes, she opened her mouth.

"Lord Owner, the small task of passing on auction information can be left to one of the auction hands. I really do dare to trouble you Lord!"

"Third Young Miss is too courteous. Afterall, you are a Third Rank Armament Master. This must be treated much care, especially since it involves our Thousand Treasure Pavilion's business! The basic courtesy we can give is for this Lord to personally come. You do not need to feel embarrassed."

As the man smiled, his lips distinctly went upwards.

Even though you could not see his entire face, that small enticing action would cause any girl to shriek out.

Chapter 68: This Lord also has beauty standard

Unfortunately in the eyes of Huang Yue Li, apart from annoyance, there was only annoyance!

No matter how dignified his words may sound, the fact still remained. He had trespassed into her bedroom during the middle of the night. It painted a picture of a suspicious and scandalous scene.

If she were to swap with her previous self, that girl would have long started to cry for her mother in front of such a lecher. Teaching her why flowers were so red!

But now that the tiger was out and but with no resistance possibility, she could only pretend to comply.

With that man's cultivation, it enabled him to walk horizontally in South Yue. Any kind of beauty that he wished for, he would be able to obtain.

But her current appearance, really couldn't be counted as any beauty.

Unless this man's tastes were that special, liking the young ones. Otherwise.....he was just bored and wanted to play with her.

With great difficulty, Huang Yue Li suppressed her anger and said in a level voice: "Since it is like this, I ask the Lord Owner to say your important news. There is no need to dally any longer, you have met the person you wanted. Your days are filled with work, so I will not waste anymore of your precious time!"

The man grinned: "No rush. How can you say that you are wasting my time? This is what this Lord wants."

His grin was unrestrained and fully presented his kingly charisma for all to see. Only those at the very top with were gifted with such an aura!

Instantly the temperature within the room plummeted. That icy coldness was stifling like an innate essence, infiltrating every corner of the room.

Though his face was covered by a mask, Huang Yue Li was still able to sense his scrutinising gaze. Steadily, his gaze travelled from the top of her head to the bottom of her feet.

It was like.....she had become one of his possessions in his grasp.

While Huang Yue Li revealed a smiling expression, she was secretly cursing the man inside her heart: "Lord Owner you are too polite. But currently I am ready to rest...."

The man's profound gaze wavered a bit, this was unexpected.

The reason why he did not withdraw his pressure was in hopes of scaring this girl. That would allow her to realise the the gap in her abilities and make her attitude soften.

With his cultivation and status, how many powerful experts could withstand his pressure. Each one of them, when faced with his gaze could only bow down their heads.

Yet this girl seemed to wholly unaffected.....

As the man's gaze landed on the bed behind her, his smile turned somewhat ambiguous: "Resting so early? How about this Lord rests with you on the bed and we'll talk in the morning?"

Huang Yue Li's expression finally cracked!

"Lord Owner, honest people do not say obscured words. Why do you need to play with me? Why don't you state your aim openly! Afterall, I am a cultivation trash and have no way to reject you!"

His smile becoming mysterious, the man stood up with ease. Releasing his grip on her hands, he strode a table beside the bed and sat down.

"Little girl, I think you have misunderstood this Lord. Going by your words, it seems you think that this Lord wants to do something to you?"

"You do not?" She glanced at him.

His slender fingers on his jaw, the man replied in a somewhat languid one: "This Lord also has beauty standards. Not just any woman can catch this Lord's interest..."

That is why he chose this hard to take care of little fox.

Chapter 69: Want to drink tea you brewed

But in the ears of Huang Yue Li, those words became the opposite of their original meaning.

After eating her tofu, must this man use such a disliking tone to state she did not catch his interest!

Good. Very good. Extremely good!

Standing up, her finger pointed towards the door. With a smile that wasn't quite a smile, she said: "Since it is like this, why did you come? My back courtyard is very lacking and poor. I expect that it also won't amount to much in your eyes?"

Raising her chin, her tone was frosty while her eyes burned with anger. But it was because of this that astonished people.

Staring into that pair of brilliantly coloured eyes, the man felt bewitched by them.

He constantly felt that gaze was oh so familiar. Like he had been bewitched by those eyes, many years ago. Lost by her crafty and enticing smile.

Henceforth, he yearned it even in his dreams.

Even crossing the jade bridge of the yellow river, he would not be able to escape.....

But clearly his first meeting with this girl was only a couple days ago.

As the the man was distracted, his gaze towards Huang Yue Li turned even more profound.

On the other hand, Huang Yue Li became further enraged by his staring.

What was hidden within that lecherous gaze? Seeing this man's posing, could he really be a bit of a pervert? ?

After quite some time did the man regain himself. His eyes travelling over her taut face, his mouth hooked.

"It seems that you are really unwelcoming of this Lord?"

Huang Yue Li chuckled in response, "If the Lord Owner did not burst into my room during the night, humming and speaking unintelligent drivels, I would be quite welcoming."

Lazily, he replied: "How can you blame this Lord? It is you who does not the proper etiquette of treating guests. It has been quite some time since this Lord arrived, yet you have yet to even pour a single cup of tea. How do you expect this Lord to inform you of the news?"

Huang Yue Li said: "That is simple. Cai Wei....."

Raising her voice, she wished to ask Cai Wei to go brew a pot of tea.

Before the words could leave her lips, a warm and white as jade finger landed on her lips, silencing them.

Leaning forward, the man closed in and smirked: "Why are you calling the maid? This Lord.....wants to drink tea you brewed."

The dominating smell of a man assaulted her nose. His clear lips where in such proximity of her face, that a single incline of his face and they would kiss.

Instantly, Huang Yue Li cheeks were dyed red. Her breathing irregular.

Slapping the man's hands away: "Brewing tea the is fine, why was there is need for you to move your hands? But I must tell you, I only have cold water here. If you want to drink tea, you can only drink cold tea."

If not for the fact that she still needed to rely on him to increase her cultivation, she...endured!

But this debt she will remember. Sooner or later she will return it to him!

Watching her fake composure, he already guessed his thoughts.

But he had nothing to worry about. This little fox was destined to never leave his palms.

If in the future they are together and this little wanted to stretch her claws from boredom, he wouldn't mind playing with her. Making his Imperial Consort smile was worthwhile.

Following Huang Yue Li's hand movements, he leaned back to say: "Is there a problem?"

Eyes twinkling, the slender and boney hands landed on the the teapot lid. Soon after, hot steam began to rise from the spout.

It was clear to see that the water within had turned into boiling water.

Chapter 70: The taste isn't bad

Retracting his hand, the man smiled at Huang Yue Li, "The tea is hot now."

Unable to say anything, Huang Yue Li could only pour out a cup of tea. Once done, she pushed the cup towards him.

"For you, to drink!" She said in an ill tone.

He didn't take up the cup. Raising his eyebrows, he questioned: "What? This is the attitude that you give to guests? Speaking in such a rude tone, to outsiders it would seemed like you have some sort of grudge with this Lord!"

Eating so many benefits from her, how would she not a grudge?

Rolling her eyes are him, Huang Yue Li saw the the frivolous curve on his face. She couldn't help but want to give him a big slap!

But the man saw through her intentions, his gaze carrying traces of ridicule. Though his body was relaxed, his spirit encompassed the entire room. Every single detail and movement of Huang Yue Li's would not be able to escape his notice.

Biting her teeth, Huang Yue Li told herself to be level headed.

Looking straight at the man, she said in a unhappy voice: "Lord Owner, please drink the tea!"

The man still did not move.

Huang Yue Li was further angered and asked: "What is the matter now?"

“Inviting someone to drink tea, shouldn’t you use both your hands and hand the teacup to them? Pushing and shoving the tea like this, isn’t that too rude? And you are esteemed young lady from the Manor!”

Huang Yue Li smirked, “Is that so? My apologies, I did that incorrectly. Let me try again.”

As she spoke, her hand went to pick up the teacup. But as she neared the man’s face, she splashed the tea out towards his face!

Though the man was momentarily mesmerized by Huang Yue Li’s smile, he still reacted when she moved.

Just as Huang Yue Li’s hand began to tilt, her wrist was securely caught.

The slender jade hand with a strong as steel-like grip enveloped her tender hands. Firmly trapping them.

Huang Yue Li wished to retract her hands. But even after several rounds of struggling, she was unable to move an inch.

Amused, the man continued to exert pressure. Bit by bit, little by little he pulled her hand and the teacup closer towards him.

Under the hateful gaze of Huang Yue Li’s, the teacup and her hand arrived at his mouth. Lightly, he took a sip of tea.

Purposely or accidentally, his lip brushed with Huang Yue Li’s fingers. His tongue gently slide over, leaving a faint damp feeling.

“The taste isn’t bad.” The man couldn’t help but smile.

“You!”

As soon as her hand was free, Huang Yue Li vigorously wiped her hand on her clothes.

He smirked: “What’s the matter? Was the tea too hot and burned Third Young Miss’ hand? Let this Lord see it? This Lord has some ointment for burns, how about applying some?”

Hearing his words become more and more excessive, Huang Yue Li’s patience ran out. With a loud ‘bang’ she slammed the cup onto the table.

“Okay, you have already drunk tea. You have also put up the necessary airs, what information do you need to pass on?”

Seeing her exasperated manner, he smiled secretly.

But he knew that this little girl’s methods were many. As fun as provoking this little fox may be, she was only holding back due to some apprehensions.

If he really pushed her to her limits, forcing her hands, perhaps he would suffer a bit.

More importantly, the purpose of his visit was to provoke his future Imperial Consort a bit.

So, it should be about time he stopped. It was enough.
