Chapter 621: You can all scram!

“Without his protection, you’d better wise up and tuck away your tail!” Li Xue’er snapped.

Huang Yueli’s brows lifted after she heard what she said.

She was still thinking when these scums had met her earlier, they didn’t even dare to lift a finger against her so obviously they were frightened of her. But just a day had passed and Li Xue’er was now actively provoking her? The change was simply too sudden?

So the reason was because they realised that Mo Yi wasn’t around so they had thought.... that she, Huang Yueli was a little lamb waiting to be sacrificed?

How naive and foolish was that!

Huang Yueli replied, “Oh? How did you know that Mo Yi did not follow me on this trip? Perhaps he had just left for a little moment and after a little while, he will meet up with me.”

Li Xue’er saw her composed look and let out a snigger.

“That’s enough, stop pretending! I’m very certain that bodyguard didn’t follow you here! Our carriage had been following behind you for the entire route and had not seen that black-robed bodyguard at all. What’s more, there were only two ladies in the carriage. As for that well-built man, surely he won’t squeeze into the carriage with you? As for your horses, they’re not bad as well. There wasn’t an extra horse so that all goes to show that there is no extra person!”

Huang Yueli blinked and showed some signs of surprise.

No wonder Li Xue’er was accepted as a Armament Master’s apprentice. Her intelligence was indeed much higher as compared to Bai Ruo Qi.

“You’re dead sure?” Huang Yueli smiled unperturbedly.

Li Xue’er retorted, “What? Still trying to put on a show to scare us off? I’m telling you, it’s impossible! Today there’s only one superior room left in this inn and you have to let us have it. Otherwise, don’t blame us for not impolite to you! Without that black-robed bodyguard, you don’t even have any second degree realm practitioners under you right? How are you going to deal with Imperial Tutor?”

Huang Yueli nodded when she heard her clear and logical explanation.

“Yes your analysis is correct! According to your thinking, I should indeed tuck my tail away and hide myself. Not only should I give up the toom to you, it would be best if I help to pay for your bills as well! After all, you have a fourth degree realm practitioner whom I cannot afford to offend!”

Li Xue’er lifted her chin as she said arrogantly, “Since you’re so tactful, we are not unreasonable people as well.....”

“...unfortunately, I don’t know how ‘tactful’ is written! Besides that, unfortunately, I’m not a reasonable person!”

Huang Yueli swept them with a cold glance as the smile on her face had completely disappeared.

“You can all scram, this superior room.... I want it! Innkeeper, this is the payment for tonight so give me the room key!”

She slammed an ingot of silver onto the table.

Initially, Huang Yueli was not so finicky and whether she stayed in the superior room or not, it wasn’t something she was too bothered with. But since Li Xue’er and gang had intentionally provoked her, thinking to fight with her, then she purposely would not give in!

She wasn’t the Holy Mother, so how could she let those who intentionally provoke her so many times off that easily?

Li Xue’er’s face turned green when she heard this.

“How dare you reject the proffered wine and ask for the punishment wine! Now that we’ve already left the South Yue Kingdom, even if you were to die in the middle of the journey, my Second Royal Brother would not know that we did it, and will not exact revenge for you! If you know what’s good for you, you better scram now! Innkeeper, this room belongs to us so give me the key now!”

Chapter 622: Don’t be discredited

Saying that, Li Xue’er also smashed an ingot of silver onto the counter which let out a “bam” sound.

Both sides were ready to draw daggers and left the shopkeeper who was standing by side shivering.

The shopkeeper was an ordinary person and to him, even though the person was only a second degree realm practitioner, he didn’t dare to offend them. Now that there’s so many of them and they were really to fight it out, it had long left him turn green with fright.

Now that these young ladies were both powerful with exceptional looks, they had both slammed ingots of silver right before him and were staring at him with a pair of chilly eyes.

It was as though if he made a decision which did not match their wishes, they might just struck out against him!

Shopkeeper’s heart was already weeping, thinking that these ladies were too much. If they wanted to fight, why can’t they leave his little shop to settle this? He was only out to make a living, so who had he offended?

However, both sides were pressurizing him, with no intent to let him off.

Shopkeeper was filled with fear and trepidation as he assessed the situation and commented in a small voice.

“I say... this young lady, although you’re a powerful practitioner too but the senior’s cultivation over there seem to be much higher than yours? You’re still young so why be discredited at this point of time? I shall pass the key over to them instead.....”

These words were meant for Huang Yueli.

After all, on this end she was a second degree realm practitioner while on the other end, there seemed to be several second degree realm practitioners plus the existence of a fourth degree realm practitioner.

Wasn’t there a huge disparity between the two powers?

You could call him a wallflower but he was just an ordinary man and all he wanted was to protect his shop and his own life!

“You are much more reasonable than that little slut Bai Ruoli!”

Li Xue’er’s face broke out into a smile when she heard the shopkeeper said that.

She glanced at Huang Yueli delightfully and stretched out her hand to retrieve the key from the counter.

However just before her fingers could even feel the key, it was snatched away by someone.

Huang Yueli held out her hand and grabbed the key in her hand.

“You... let go! That’s mine!”

Li Xue’er stretched out her hand to snatch but Huang Yueli’s fingers contracted and held the key in her palm. At the same time, a jet of scorching fire-attributed Profound Energy shot outwards!

Li Xue’er knew things were going astray and also performed her Profound Skill, attacking her.

Two gusts of Profound Energy smashed against each other within the shortest time possible and immediately a winner was borne.

Li Xue’er couldn’t match up against Huang Yueli’s perfected Profound Energy and was defeated instantly. Fire attributed Profound Energy pushed hard and struck onto Li Xue’er’s chest.

“Omphh~~!!”

Li Xue’er let out a series of dull moaning as her body flew outwards uncontrollably!

“Seventh Princess!”

“Xue’er!”

Bai Ruo Qi and Imperial Tutor cried out in shock and Imperial Tutor had on the first moment flew out to catch Li Xue’er’s falling figure.

He pushed Li Xue’er into Bai Ruo Qi’s arms and without stopped, he shot out a palm strike towards Huang Yueli’s chest!

“You little slut, it seems that you won’t shed tears till you see the coffin! How dare you hurt her in front of me! Do you really think I cannot do anything to you??”

Imperial Tutor was infuriated and display his ultimate Profound Skill – Pentium Thunder Strike!

This Profound Skill was surly and overbearing, savage and rigid, and had been the ultimate skill that Imperial Tutor used to gain fame two hundred years ago!

Utilising one's ultimate skill to deal with a second degree realm practitioner was originally an embarrassing matter.

Chapter 623: You're too modest

However at this moment of time, Imperial Tutor didn't have the time to considered if it was an embarrassing matter or not.

He only knew that Huang Yueli this lass was extremely abnormal. No matter if her cultivation realm was much lower than him, but once he was not careful, the possibility of failing in her hands was very large!

Imperial Tutor had used all his power in this one strike but the ending was out of his expectation!

Huang Yueli didn't hide nor move but only waved her hand gently.

Imperial Tutor saw a silver light flashed past and by the time he was able to see clearly, a total of eighteen flying daggers had already formed into a battle array, sealing of his left, right, up and down with no possible way out!

Imperial Tutor was not able to evade and judging by the dull sea moss green shimmering on the flying daggers, it was likely tempered with deadly poison. One's life might be in danger if one had grazed just a little bit.

Imperial Tutor had no choice but to forcefully retract his attack, turning into a defensive position.

But in this way, although he had successfully avoided the flyer daggers attack, the retraction of his Profound Energy irrigated back into his meridians causing a backlash which resulted in him spitting out a mouthful of blood on the spot!

Under another wave of Huang Yueli's deft porcelain hands, that thin like cicada's set of flying daggers retracted back into her arms.

Imperial Tutor had suppressed the second mouthful of blood but upon seeing this, he couldn't help but spat out that suppressed blood.

T...Th... just how powerful was that! A Profound Armament so powerful that could restrain a fourth degree realm expert and to be able to retract and reuse?

Wasn't she undefeatable with that set of Profound Armament? Ordinary fourth degree realm practitioners had no possibility of going anywhere near her!

Where on earth did this lass gotten such a high level Profound Armament? Was it Li Moying who had gifted it to her?

Never in his wildest dreams would the Imperial Tutor ever thought that Huang Yueli was a fifth rank Armament Master so she had refined plenty of items like this, in various patterns as well.

If Imperial Tutor refused to give in and continued to fight it out with her, she didn't mind to offer him the chance of trying it out individually.

Luckily, Imperial Tutor weighed the pros and cons and felt that it was not advantageous to go into a conflict with her in this little town, so he managed to oppress his anger.

"Humph, such an ill bred lass. No matter what, I'm still your senior, how dare you use your flying daggers against me? Do you even know a single bit of morals?"

Huang Yueli twirled the set of keys with her little finger and dangled it in front of her.

"Old man you're too modest. If we're going to talk about upbringing and morals, how can I be compared to you? But I must still thank you for generously giving up this room to me! To refuse would be impolite so I'll accept it. I shall not waste any more time and will be going ahead to rest. Grab your time wisely and find yourself another lodging, I cannot be of help!"

Li Xue'er and the others stared at the set of keys hanging on Huang Yueli's slender fingers.

That glare was about to give out smoke!

Even Imperial Tutor could not gain any advantage over so, what more the others. So they naturally couldn't afford to be rash!

They could only watch Huang Yueli walk up the stairs as she used the keys to open up the doors to the most luxurious guestroom in the entire inn.

"Dammit!" Li Xue'er's expression turned ugly as she slammed her fist onto the counter.

Bai Ruo Qi had a cold expression on her face as she watched the door of the superior room shut tightly.

"Master, what's going on? Don't tell me that even you can't do anything to that wretched lass Bai Ruoli?"

Chapter 624: Never seen anyone that thick-skinned

Imperial Tutor's face flushed into a shade of red when Imperial Tutor heard what Bai Ruo Qi asked.

"Dealing with her naturally can be done. That wretched lass's cultivation is far from mine! But she had several pieces of high level Profound Armaments with her. I'm guessing that Li Moying left it in her possession as a form of defence, so if we were to go up against her directly, not only will loss outweigh gains, it will also delay the time we have to rest."

Hearing that, Bai Ruo Qi and Li Xue'er nodded their heads at the same time.

"This wretched lass had always been sinister. Although her cultivation was not high, but she brought along so many high level Profound Armaments, not even knowing if she is able to draw out the greatest force of the Profound Armaments! So weak and yet she brought so many treasures, she should be careful of being mugged!”

“Isn’t that right? Her own power is sparse and in terms of cultivation, she cannot even match me. She only knows how to hug Second Royal Brother’s thigh to gain status, I despise such people!”

Imperial Tutor heard their discussions and felt somewhat embarrassed.

Because only he knew the might that Huang Yueli unleashed seemed to carry a sense of someone who had once helmed everything in her hands and as for her Profound Energy, the purity level was universally shocking. Even Imperial Tutor who had cultivated for several hundred years felt far more inferior than her!

If Huang Yueli had not displayed her Profound Armament but directly accepted his strike, even Imperial Tutor could not tell who would have the upper hand.

However, these matter would definitely not spill out from his mouth.

Now that he was already been banished from South Yue Kingdom, he was already in dire straits, so he must never lost his face in front of Li Xue’er and Bai Ruoli, these two lasses. Otherwise he might really not have any way out.

After rounds of discussion, their angers were still not appeased.

Imperial Tutor said, “Just let this wretched lass count her lucky stars today. It’s impossible for her to on alert all the time. Now that we have confirmed that Shadow Guard is no longer by her side, then we will have plenty of chances on the route, so sooner or later, we will be able to find an opportunity to teach her a lesson!”

Li Xue’er nodded as her lips curled upwards evilly.

“That’s really great. She has so many high level Profound Armaments and it was obvious that she cannot retain it all. After we have dealt with her, we can make full use of it. That’s a windfall!”

“Yes, that flying dagger set earlier, I wonder which Armament Master had refined it. It looked simply mystical! We must put our hands on it!”

No matter what, night had fallen and even if they wanted to continue on their journey, it was not possible.

Li Xue’er and the rest could only choose to settle down in a standard guestroom.

In the superior room.

Huang Yueli was listening to Cai Wei’s depiction of Li Xue’er and the others’ evil ways and words.

“Third Miss, you didn’t see it with your own eyes! Seventh Princess and the rest have not given up yet and earlier they were still discussing downstairs that next time we meet on the route, they would find opportunities to teach you a lesson that you will never forget, and.... and they even had their eyes on that set of flying daggers that you own, saying they would definitely lay their hands on it! That tone sounded like Third Miss, your Profound Armament was already in their possession.”

“Pui! Never seen anyone that thick-skinned before!”

Huang Yueli looked at her agitated look and found it amusing as she shook her head.

“Alright, alright, stop getting angry over such people. They can only daydream! If they have the ability, I would definitely.....”

Saying that, Huang Yueli suddenly stopped talking.

Her heart leapt as she subconsciously gazed towards the main door and her eyebrow..... was slightly creased.

Chapter 625: A life threatening crisis!

Cai Wei was shocked by her abnormal look and hurriedly questioned, “Third Miss, Third Miss, what happened to you?”

Cai Wei stared at the entrance for a moment, suddenly got up and walking to the side of the door, she pulled it open.

The corridor outside the room was empty. She put her head out to take a look at the surroundings but didn’t see any suspicious figure.

Huang Yueli closed the door firmly and walked back to her original seat, her expression seemed to be lost in thought.

Cai Wei was frightened and quickly inquired again, “Third Miss, what’s the matter with you? Is there really someone outside the door?”

Huang Yueli shook her head, “Nothing, perhaps I’m just too sensitive and had some misperception.....”

However, after the candle flame extinguished, Huang Yueli laid on the bed and another weird feeling appeared, as though she was being spied on. But yet she was unable to pinpoint what was wrong.

She had been vigilant and didn’t sleep too deeply for the entire night. Until the next morning dawn, nothing had happened.

“Could it be that it was really my misperception?” She shook her head trying to sway the distracting thoughts away.

Early next morning, Huang Yueli led her men onto the route to continue their journey.

This time, she could clearly see that Li Xue’er’s carriage was following right behind them. The distance was not too near nor too far but no matter how they tried, they could not shake them off.

Huang Yueli knew what they had in their minds. She gauged that they were waiting for an opportunity to assassinate her and mug the Profound Armaments in her possession!

Towards this sort of thinking, Huang Yueli only found it amusing and didn't put it on her mind.

The more worrying thing was the weird feeling that she encountered last night. Even though she couldn't find the cause, but her many years of past experience told her that.... there was a problem somewhere!

It was noon time when the carriage halted for a rest and under the shade of a tree, they stopped to groomed, ate and rest for a little while.

Cai Wei distributed the flat bread and ham that she had taken out from her bag.

Huang Yueli took a piece as well and was just about to deliver it to her mouth when her heart stopped at this very moment!

An indescribable fear arose from her heart!

She subconsciously turned around and at the same time, took out the powerful Thunder Flame Ball, three pieces in total, and threw it behind her back all at the same time!

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

Shocking crepitation could be heard and intense flames immediately arose, shooting out into the sky!

Amidst the flames, a sword tip suddenly appeared and with lightning fast speed, pierced towards Huang Yueli's chest area!

This strike was extremely fast and it was a swift and fierce attack. The strike was wrapped in powerful Profound Energy and the surrounding air quivered by the movements, letting out an ear splitting sound of breaking the void space!

After Huang Yueli threw out the Thunder Flame Balls, the flying daggers followed next immediately and sword spells were consecutively launched!

At the same time, her body was rapidly retreating and using a touch of her toes, she displayed her footwork as she retreated far away!

She had displayed all her methods not to defeat the opponent but to delay the other party by a few breathes' time, so that she could have the chance to escape!

The reason was because at the moment they crossed hands, she could clearly feel that the opponent this round was extremely strong and had already surpassed the boundary which she could handle!

She.... had no chance of winning!

Not only that, the chances of escaping was extremely little!

At such a precarious moment, Huang Yueli's inner heart still retained calmness.

Chapter 626: Something you deserved

As the disparity between their cultivation levels were too huge, no matter how much effort she put into escaping, it was impossible to shake the opponent away!

Although Huang Yueli had taken action first, but it could only stop the other party momentarily. Using just this bit of time, there was no way she could run too far a distance away the disparity between their speed was too large. It would only take a short moment for the other party to chase up to her.

Therefore Huang Yueli's line of sight had fallen onto the few carriages following behind them.

She squirmed her eyes and thought secretly: Who asked you to keep following me, even intending to scheme against me? Since trouble had come knocking on the door, for you to become my scapegoat is something you deserved!

Without stopping, she displayed her footworks and rushed towards the direction of Li Xue'er's carriages.

The unforeseen event that Huang Yueli met here was extremely sudden.

Li Xue'er and the rest had seen it happening from afar but before they could react, in that one instance of lightning and firestone speed, Huang Yueli had already flew charging towards them.

It was until she appeared at the front of the carriage before the few of them made screeches of surprise.

Huang Yueli directly stepped onto the carriage's roof and jumped ahead and at the same time while leaping into the air, she continuously threw out several hidden weapons!

The horses leading the carriages were in shock. One of the flying dagger which Huang Yueli threw out had stabbed deeply into the horses back and as the steed was in pain, it immediately raised its head, neighing non-stop and charged wildly towards the front!

The horse leading the carriage charged out directly, totally uncontrollable.

Those sitting in the carriage were already scared stiff.

Li Xue'er shouted, "Stop the carriage! Quickly stop the carriage! Why are these horses running around wildly? Why are their speed getting faster and faster? Quickly stop otherwise the carriage will overturn!"

The coachman convulsed with fear as he replied in a quavering voice, "Your Highness.... St.... unable to stop... these horses seem to have gone mad, and... and.... we are going to smash against something!"

Bai Ruo Qi was tumbled into confusion.

Imperial Tutor immediately stood up from his seat and tried to use Profound Energy to suppress the horses' movements.

But it was all in vain.

Just within a few breathes time, the few carriages were smashing right towards Huang Yueli's killer, Zuo Fangping!

Zuo Fangping had been concealing himself and he finally found the best opportunity yesterday.

In this desolate area outside the city, no one would notice if a few people had died.

The most amazing thing was as Imperial Tutor and several others were present, he only needed to kill everyone there and made it look like both parties had got into a conflict and ended up in mutual destruction. So even if Li Moying managed to find his way here, he could only accept this conclusion would not suspect him.

Zuo Fangping waited for Huang Yueli to stop and rest and put his greatest effort into this attack!

Originally he was one hundred percent sure that Huang Yueli would definitely die on the spot, not even able to make a cry for help, under that one strike of his!

After all, the disparity between second and fifth degree realm was too huge. Moreover, he dealt her with a secret hand and caught her unprepared!

However, reality seemed to be topsy-turvy from Zuo Fangping's imagination!

He was just preparing to go near Huang Yueli and while concealing his presence, prepared himself for an opportunity to attack. But this young lady seemed to have noticed something and opened her eyes abruptly.

Zuo Fangping knew something was amiss and immediately chose to strike first!

However, this lass's reaction was faster by one hundred times of what he could imagine!

It only took a blink of an eye where she had continuously threw out countless Profound Armaments, especially that powerful Thunder Flame Ball, directly onto his face!

Chapter 627: Carriage crash incident

Zuo Fangping had not expected such a matter to happen.

Huang Yueli was already detected his presence even before he struck out!

Zuo Fangping was an extremely rare Dark attributed practitioner, so in terms of concealment and assignation, he had an exceptional innate talent. Even same level practitioners were not able to detect his presence.

However, this seemingly weak lass, whom he could crush with just one finger, had actually discovered him?

How did she do it?

The more ridiculous thing was the Profound Armaments that this lass threw out were all fifth grade items! The power concealed in these fifth grade Armament Weapons were exceptionally high and were more than enough to cause damage to peak fifth level practitioners!

Luckily Zuo Fangping was quick in his response and after he immediately avoided the place where the Thunder Flame Ball had dropped, otherwise his face could have been ruined!

Even so, Zuo Fangping's arm was grazed by a flying dagger and was bleeding. His face had also been hit by the ashes of the Thunder Flame Ball's explosion and was full of dust, looking especially discomposd.

Zuo Fangping had never expected himself to be hurt by a second degree realm lass!

As one of the direct descendant disciples, not only did he had exceptional cultivation, cultivation methods, profound skills and treasures were much better than the others. So same levelled practitioners were not his match at all.

He had never imagined that this time he would be hurt by such a weak lass!

Zuo Fangping's expression turned ugly, feeling a loss of face!

His intent to kill grew stronger and couldn't wait to tear Huang Yueli into two halves at the first moment possible!

But Huang Yueli's reaction was simply too fast. At the time when she used the Thunder Flame Ball to force his retreat, she had already flew a great distance away.

Zuo Fangping rushed out from the black smoke, feeling exasperated while chasing after her.

Just as their distance was narrowing, Zuo Fangping's eyes flashed a chilly glint, "You wretched lass, no wonder Junior Sister Murong want you dead so badly, you're not a good thing after all! Too bad, today will be your death anniversary!"

Just at this moment, Huang Yueli's silhouette wavered and rushed into Li Xue'er's carriages.

The horses leading the carriages instantly turned mad and ran wildly, carrying the carriage and collided towards Zuo Fangping.

The speed of the carriage was simply too fast!

The wheels in the carriage sped so fast that dust from the ground made the visibility of the surroundings to become blurry.

Zuo Fangping's speed was extremely fast too and by the time he had reached, even though he knew he would crash into them, there was no way to stop at all!

"BAM~~~!!!"

A huge sound reverberated and Zuo Fangping had already collided with the galloping horse carriages!

Profound Energy was unleashed from Zuo Fangping's body and instantly formed a protective bubble, encapsulating his entire body. But he flew several meters away from this impactful crash and simultaneously a mouthful of blood flushed towards his throat.

He forcefully swallowed back that mouthful of blood but felt that his entire body was filled with pain. Apparently, he had sustained rather severe internal injury.

However, with his fifth degree realm power, this injury would recover in time and would not hinder his actions.

On the other end, Li Xue'er and the rest were not that lucky.

Their carriage was originally not any Profound Armament and was slightly toucher and lavish than usual. Upon the impactful crash against Zuo Fangping, half of the horses that were pulling the carriages were dead as the body of the carriage completely split open.

As for those sitting in the carriage, they were already tumbled in all directions by the sudden speed of the horses and at this moment, all of them came rolling down the carriage.

Chapter 628: Makes one feel restless

To tumble down from a speeding carriage was an extremely dangerous thing and even though those on the carriage were not weak practitioners, however under the circumstances of being caught off guard, they were not able to deploy their Profound Energy to protect their body so all of them fell heavily onto the ground.

Besides that, as the speed of the carriage was extremely fast, after they fell onto the ground, they were not able to stop and started rolling several rounds far, far away before they collided with a thick, huge tree trunk.

“Bam!”“Bam!”“Bam!”

A few dull sounds echoed as Li Xue'er, Bai Ruo Qi and Imperial Tutor banged against the tree in succession. Their heads were bleeding from the impact and as they spotted spinning stars, all of them fainted on the spot!

As for their clothes, it had been tattered from the rough ground as they rolled past earlier and all of them were half naked. In the process of the rolling action, several bones had been broken!

As they were all practitioners, although heavily injured, none of them died.

However for the guards which they had brought along, around half of them had died instantly under just one strike from Zuo Fangping!

As Zuo Fangping pressed against the dull pain on his chest, his lips let out a chilly smile.

“You dare to obstruct my way, death is what you deserve! That wretched lass deserves to die even more! How dare you hurt me! When you fall into my hands, I won't let you die that easily! Just you wait!”

Zuo Fangping's sinister laughter could be heard.

Li Xue'er had just regained conscious and was trembling with fright, afraid that she would incur Zuo Fangping's wrath.

However, Zuo Fangping couldn't be bothered with them. In his eyes, they were so insignificant that their life or death didn't matter to him. What mattered the most was that he must quickly complete Murong Fei's orders and kill that resourceful country bumpkin!

On both sides of the pathway was a dense forest.

At this moment, Huang Yueli had already charged into the forest and still increasing her speed forward into the deep ends of the forest.

Zuo Fangping secretly hurled out a sentence "That's bad"!

If this wretched lass were to run into the forest, then the variables would change. After all, there were many obstacles in the forest and were advantageous for hiding oneself.

Although he was mighty and would still be able to capture Huang Yueli, but in this way, he would have to put in more effort than before!

Zuo Fangping immediately decided and bearing the internal injury within his chest area, he sped up and started chasing after Huang Yueli!

Escape! Escape! Escape!

The only thought that was in Huang Yueli's mind was to escape and quickly run away!

Using the collision between Zuo Fangping and Li Xue'er and the rest, she practically used all her energy and ran madly, gaining several thousand meters of distance between them in that instance!

But she was very sure of the disparity in cultivation between Zuo Fangping and herself so no matter how fast she ran or how many obstacles she created, it might end up in a waste of effort.

However, she had no other choice. The only thing she could do now was to take one step at a time.

After she had hidden herself in the forest, the leeway for her resistance would become much bigger as hiding spots were now easier to spot and she could make better use of the Profound Armaments in her possession.

Hearing the screeching and cursing sound from behind, Huang Yueli increased her footsteps.

However, the minute Huang Yueli entered the forest, her eyes suddenly turned dark!

As though night had fallen in that instant, she was not able to anything suddenly. The tall trees and all of the surrounding seemed to have disappeared.

Besides that, the raucous noises from the surroundings have all disappeared as well and became exceptionally quiet, so quiet that... it stirred up a sense of uneasiness in one's heart.

The next moment, numerous white ghostly figures sprouted up from the darkness. A strange smile hung around their ghastly and deadly white faces, floating towards her!

Chapter 629: Unable to obstruct her way

The sound of a breeze could be heard by the ear and moaning which could be seemingly heard at times could send chills right down the listener's spine.

As the change of events was too sudden and the scenario was extremely shocking, if it had happened to any ordinary person, his spirit would probably have left his body out of shock. Even if one could maintain composure, but one would probably still be stumped by the sudden change of events.

However, Huang Yueli maintained her calm and collected expression, not even showing any sign of distress.

At the instance that darkness fell, she had already distinguished that it was not reality that was happening right before her eyes, and was likely to be some sort of hallucination.

The aim of extending this hallucination was naturally to confuse her and ultimately delaying her escape.

Hence, Huang Yueli didn't slow down and continued to head on forward, charging straight towards those horrifying spirits.

Just at the moment where her body was about to collide with the spirits, Huang Yueli's wrist moved and took out a long piece of soft whip.

"Break~!!"

That tone was clear and melodious, as though orioles leaving the valley, she drew a lining in the vast horizon.

Following her voice, the soft whip thrashed across the front of the spirit!

A shrilling shriek was heard as the spirit which was whipped split into two halves. Following that, it seemed to melt and slowly dissipated into the sky.

Whip after whip, the spirits in front of her were gradually being smashed to pieces.

Just slightly after a few breathes' time, those spirits which had obstructed her way were all eliminated and the sky slowly turned brighter and brighter, gradually restoring a sunny mid-afternoon weather.

Huang Yueli's lips curled upwards slightly and increasing her speed, she slipped into the forest at top speed.

Zuo Fangping held his chest tight and felt another mouthful of blood surge upwards. This round, he couldn't bear it any further and spurted out a mouthful of blood!

The expression on his face was a cross between anger and embarrassment!

"Damnit, how is this possible? Why was that wretched lass able to break my Thousand Demons Illusionary Field? Although my cultivation is not enough, but I had managed to train successfully the Thousand Demons Illusionary Field to a small realm. Even a sixth degree realm expert would normally fall head first into this technique of mine. Her cultivation is only at second degree realm so how could she escape unscathed?"

It was simply abnormal that this lass was so weird to the extreme as though her existence was here to put other people down!

The Thousand Demons Illusionary Field was a type of heaven level lower grade Profound Skill and its might was extremely powerful. It was a skill which could only be practiced by Dark attributed physique practitioners. Using the adjustment of their dark Profound Energy, they were able to produce a terrifying illusionary scenario to confuse their opponent... if the cultivational disparity was too huge, they would be able to strip their opponent's compos mentis, thereby turning them into their plaything.

Logically speaking, the higher one's cultivation was, the stronger one's willpower would be, and the higher the chances of defending against the illusory scenes of the Thousand Demons Illusory Field.

For a second degree realm practitioner like Huang Yueli, it was already an amazing feat that she was not stunned into a vegetable after encountering into this scenario.

Once the Thousand Demons Illusory Field was utilised, it would require a lot of Profound Energy and it was exactly because of this reason why Zuo Fangping did not dare to use it too often.

The only reason why he used this skill was because he was angered by Huang Yueli and he had prepared to torment her thoroughly after he had controlled her consciousness.

Even if it did not work, he would be able to obstruct her way into the forest.

However, from the way things had turned out, Zuo Fangping felt a sense of shock once again!

Not only did Huang Yueli not fall into his trap to be confused and become a retard but on the contrary, her speed of escaping had not decreased any bit.

Chapter 630: Fooled till face ashened

Before Zuo Fangping could feel stunned, he had already saw Huang Yueli pulling out her soft whip and smashing fiercely outwards himself!

If it had been others, they might perceive Huang Yueli as being pressed to the state of insanity and could only raise her whip in an disorderly manner towards those spirits. But to the originator of the evil Thousand Demons Illusory Field skill, Zuo Fangping could tell from one glance that every single whip that Huang Yueli made was coincidentally on the weakest point of this skill!

Although her Profound Energy was not considered strong, but the accuracy of her attacks had reached a hundred percent.

The weakest point of the Thousand Demons Illusory Field was being broken by her one after another and finally, it had completely vanished!

As for Zuo Fangping, as his skill had been broken, he had once again suffered another backlash!

In this short quarter of an hour, Zuo Fangping had struck out consecutively and even utilised one of the skills which he was most complacent about.

However, the result was although Huang Yueli was put into a slightly difficult situation, but she had not even lost a strand of hair. Whereas for him, he had been fooled till ashen-faced and had sustained quite a substantial internal injury out of nowhere!

Zuo Fangping was both furious and anxious, and could not wait to tear Huang Yueli into pieces!

As a fifth degree realm practitioner, he was also one of the proud figures from a large Sect. Would it even make sense if he could not even take down a second degree realm country lass?

More importantly, his mission this time was because of Murong Fei's entrustment.

He waited for so long before he finally had a chance to fawn on the goddess of his dreams and if it was fouled up with neither rhyme or reason, then wouldn't he become a complete piece of trash in Murong Ni's eyes?

This was a matter of a man's pride!

The more Zuo Fangping thought, the more anger he felt as he continued chasing after her, flustered and exasperated!

But as he had been obstructed by Huang Yueli several times and due to the backlash that caused a couple of breaths' time, that was more than enough time for Huang Yueli to escape into the forest.

By the time Zuo Fangping had entered the forest, Huang Yueli's figure could no longer be found.

Zuo Fangping sought high and low, but the surrounding shrubs were around a human's height tall and were extremely dense. Looking from afar, one could only see the hovering shades from the trees and not be able to tell clearly if someone was amongst them.

As he walked into the forest, he shouted loudly, "Bai Ruoli, get your ass out here now! Don't think that you've hidden yourself and I won't be able to find you! I only need to use my soul trace and slowly search every inch of the forest and sooner or later, I'll be able to whisk you out! If you are to come out by yourself now, I can still let you die a quick death. Otherwise by the time I find you, you... will be in deep shit!"

Zuo Fangping threatened her but Huang Yueli was no fool, so of course she wouldn't believe in his bullshit.

The only reply he got was the breeze gently rustling the leaves.

Zuo Fangping squinted his eyes slightly as a sense of urgency shot up in his heart.

That wretched lass... could she had really slipped away?

No, it was impossible. She had just ran into this forest and it was just ten over breaths time earlier than him. No matter how far she ran, there was no way she could escape a huge distance away. At most she would still be in the vicinity of around two kilometres.

What's more, this should be the first time that wretched lass had passed by this place and this was not South Yue Kingdom so she couldn't have set up any hidden traps in the forest, so she couldn't possibly have disappeared into thin air!

Thinking of that, Zuo Fangping set his heart at least and started to gather his Qi and with rapt attention, used his soul trace to search the surrounding environment.

Innate talents for cultivation and concentration levels differs among practitioners and that in turn would affect the boundary of their soul trace.
