Chapter 641: Fallen into the enemy's hands

As time passed, Huang Yueli's Profound Energy was finally exhausted completely.

She had no other choice but to jump out and raising both her hands, she said, "Alright, alright, I surrender! I've admitted defeat, okay?"

When Zuo Fangping heard her admitting her defeat, the chilly smile hanging on his lips became even more obvious.

"Wretched lass, now do you know how powerful I am? Why didn't you surrender earlier? Or beg for mercy? Now you're showing this tricks, don't tell me you're trying to delay for more time? But no matter how you try to delay, no one will come and save you. Today, you're a goner!"

Huang Yueli's mouth twitched as she thought to herself that this killer had some brains instead of all brawn, and could tell what her motive was.

She had automatically begged for mercy, not because she was naïve and thought that he would let her off because she begged.

She just didn't want to be struck dead in the intense battle upon one strike or her meridians severed. If that was the case, then there would be no way of going back.

There wasn't any life threatening injury on her now, so no matter what, while there's life, there's hope. Perhaps she would be able to socialise around with Zuo Fangping and dupe him!

However, Zuo Fangping was no fool as he saw through her scheme.

He gave a cold laugh, "If you had not tried to escape from the start, perhaps I can let you have a quick death and not suffer. But you had tried time and again to cause hurt to me, and you even made me lose such a priceless Blood Smelt Talisman, these.... cannot be forgotten easily! If I don't torment you till you're half dead, my surname is not....."

Zuo Fangping almost spoke out his revered name and luckily he reacted at the last moment and immediately shut his mouth.

Huang Yueli originally pricked her ears to listen but upon seeing him stop, a sense of disappointment came over her.

Zuo Fangping was filled with embitterment and gloominess. His task today had not been smooth at all, even considered to be a total mess!

He had actually suffered such a heavy injury while chasing after a second degree realm practitioner! This was simply unimaginable.

What was worse was the Sect's derby was about to start and he was initially prepared to show off his skills at the derby but now that he had suffered an internal injury, by then he probably would had yet to recover from it!

This was simply ruining his own future!

Not to mention, the Blood Smelt Talisman that he had wasted was ridiculously expensive.

He had counted all of these debts onto Huang Yueli's headcount and had decided to torture her viciously, making her wish that she was better off dead than alive!

However, even though Zuo Fangping was despondent, Huang Yueli was in fact even more despondent than him.

It was because the Blood Smelt Talisman that Zuo Fangping had used to determine her whereabouts was actually refined by her in her past life!

In actuality, the number of Blood Smelt Talisman in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent were actually refined by Huang Yueli twenty over years ago.

Because of this, no one was clearer than her on the structure and usage of these talisman. This was why she was able to break the blood patterns on the talisman in a blink of an eye and also successfully absorb the blood essence and energy from the talisman.

This type of talisman was invented solely by her and there was none other in Soaring Heavens Continent.

That year, Mu Chengying was seeking to kill an enemy who excelled at concealment which was why she helped him to refine this. She refined thirty pieces at one go, Mu Chengying took only ten pieces and the remaining twenty pieces, either she sold it off at an auction or she gifted it to friends to return a favour.

Never would she had thought that the Blood Smelt Talisman that she had casually refined years ago would now appear right before her again in such a manner.

Chapter 642: Li Moying's foe

Besides that, because of the fact that she had refined it way too successfully, the might of these talisman were very high and to eradicate the concealment mode was extremely strong, which resulted in her falling head first into this talisman!

This was simply a hole which she had dug for herself!

Huang Yueli had unspeakable embitterment and gloominess, wishing that she could knock herself dead on the tree trunk.

Zuo Fangping saw her unpredictable expression and had thought that she was afraid which made him feel delightful.

"Why? Now you know what is to be afraid? If you were to crouch on the ground and use your tongue to lick my shoes, I can....."

He opened his mouth with elation but before he could finish talking, Huang Yueli interrupted his speech.

"Since I'm going to die soon, can't you let me be an unequivocal ghost? Who wants me dead?"

Zuo Fangping was shocked as he had never expected her to ask this question. But following that, he showed a smile of ridicule.

“Why? You want to know who wants you dead? Too bad, I’m never going to tell you. You’ve offended someone whom you shouldn’t even had the chance to offend! After you die, think carefully when you’ve gone down to Hades!”

Huang Yueli twitched her lips and said, “Even if you don’t tell, I also know. You’re Li Moying’s foe?”

When Zuo Fangping heard Li Moying’s name, his eyes turned wide and the expression on his face turned even more malevolent.

Li Moying was a name that he really didn’t want to hear because in his inner heart, he was the man who he was most jealous and had the most hatred for!

Because such a peerless talent like Li Moying could not be compared to any other talents at all.

Before Li Moying had joined the Sect, Zuo Fangping was also one of the many talents in the Sect and had obtained the Sect Master and elders all-out grooming.

But all these changed the minute Li Moying came to the Sect.

In front of that matchless and peerless genius, all others had completely become a prop. No, perhaps it could be said that they were not even fit to be considered as a prop because the disparity was simply too large!

Not only that, the thing that made Zuo Fangping most jealous was even the goddess in his heart, Murong Fei, only liked him!

If you were to ask who Zuo Fangping hated the most in his entire life, it would absolutely be Li Moying.

However, he didn’t dare to show this in the Sect, otherwise Li Moying could just crush him to death using just one finger.

Zuo Fangping gritted his teeth as he hissed, “How do you know Li Moying??”

When Murong Fei had asked him to come and kill her, she only mentioned that Huang Yueli had offended her sister Murong Ni and on a short note, ever mentioned Li Moying’s name.

After all Murong Fei was extremely intelligent.

She had asked Zuo Fangping to come and kill his rival in love’s fiancée. If Zuo Fangping were to find out the truth, perhaps he might not be willing to come.

After all, if Li Moying was married, Zuo Fangping would have more chances to get into her heart.

So the surprised look on his face was not faked at all.

Huang Yueli raised her eyebrow as she observed the expression on his face.

When he heard Li Moying’s name, the man in front had indeed expressed a vengeance glare. It looked like both of them had some enmity but he didn’t seem to know her relationship with Li Moying?

That was weird. If it wasn't because of Li Moying, why would a fifth degree realm practitioner sought her out and without a word, tried to kill her?

In this lifetime, she seemed to not have provoked such a powerful enemy yet?

Thinking of this, she suddenly got an idea and thought of the other possibility.

"Could it be that.... you're sent here by Murong Ni?"

Chapter 643: From the same Sect

When Murong Ni's name was mentioned, Zuo Fangping gave a snigger.

"So, you actually know what bad deeds you had done!"

Huang Yueli raised her eyebrow as she inquired, "What do you mean by that? Murong Ni.... What did she say about me?"

"She....." Zuo Fangping wanted to continue but he suddenly remembered Murong Fei's instructions that this matter shouldn't be brought up.

He forcefully swallowed back his words.

"Wretched lass, what are you trying to find out by chirping non-stop? I will never tell you who is the one who wants you dead! You can throw whatever schemes you have in your head away and lick my shoes obediently!"

Zuo Fangping's face turned more and more sinister as he tried to make a grab for her.

Huang Yueli shifted her position in an attempt to avoid him but as the distance between them were very near to each other and her Profound Energy had been completely depleted, there was no way she could hide from him and eventually she was caught in the neck by Zuo Fangping.

"Little slut, didn't you want to escape? How about now?" Zuo Fangping hissed through his clenched teeth.

Although Huang Yueli's life was already in the hands of others, but she didn't express much panic on her face. On the contrary, she calmly asked, "Actually, you're from Li Moying's Sect right?"

Zuo Fangping's hand trembled as his entire body jolted!

He had never ever thought that Huang Yueli was able to tell where he had originated from and..... so accurately without any error!

Impossible, this was impossible! How could she tell where his origins were?

He had not leaked out his identity from the start till now, and even if he almost divulged some information, but that was only to state that Li Moying and him were acquainted.

However, Li Moying was a peerless talent known by all in the South Sky Region so even if he was acquainted to him, it wasn't anything strange and it was not enough to prove that they were from the same Sect.

So.... this lass should be..... making a wild guess?

Right, that must be it. He absolutely cannot fall into disarray!

Zuo Fangping squinted his eyes as he hid the puzzlement on his face and said sternly, "You're going to be dead person soon, so why bother to make wild guesses? Did you think that by making pointless delay in time, you will be able to be acquitted of death?"

However, Huang Yueli didn't seem to hear what he said and continued deducing.

"I have sufficient proof to say such a thing. Firstly, there are not many experts among the people who I know. So to have the ability to find such an expert like you to assassinate me, either you're Li Moying's enemy or it would be Murong Ni that unruly Young Miss. Besides that, when you heard their names earlier, your response was rather intense, so it's obvious that you know them."

"Secondly, for a fifth degree realm expert like you to assassinate such a lowly character like me, you actually wore a human skin mask before you took action. As the saying goes, a guilty person conspicuously protests his innocence. Doesn't this mean that you're afraid of me or other people here that will recall your real looks? You don't dare to reveal your own face, so who are you afraid of? Who would have such power and ability to exact revenge on you? The only person around me can only be Li Moying."

Zuo Fangping's heart thumped hard and he was unable to control his emotions momentarily, almost jumping up in fright!

How could this wretched lass tell that he was wearing a human skin mask?

The mask on his face was a third tier upper level Profound Armament, and had been imitated to perfection. One just needed to inject a little bit of Profound Energy and it would merge with one's skin perfectly, unable to tell the difference!

How could this country lass tell?

By right, a country bumpkin like her should not have even heard of such a thing like a human skin mask?

Chapter 644: Malnourished beansprout

Just as Zuo Fangping was figuring out his misgivings, Huang Yueli continued talking again.

"Thirdly, which is also the most important point. That is the long sword that you are holding, I'd seen Li Moying welding an identical sword as well. He once told me that this was your Sect's specially refined longsword and any practitioners who had reached the fifth degree realm will be able to obtain it....."

"In total, you must have come from the same Sect! And according to my conjecture, you must have taken Murong Ni's entrustment to help vent her anger, right? She is really an unruly and arrogant Sect's Young Miss. She was obviously at fault in the first place but still want to come and exact revenge on me and even wanting to claim my life! I really regret that I had given Li Moying face and didn't kill her!"

Huang Yueli's calm and collected tone seemed like she wasn't the one who was held up by the neck.

A wave of peril swirled in Zuo Fangping's heart when he heard her words!

He had never thought that this ordinary girl would be able to observe that clearly and make such a logical and detailed deduction!

Her guesses were not too far off from the truth.

The only point that was different was the person who had ordered him to kill Huang Yueli was not Murong Ni, but Murong Fei!

But the reason Murong Fei told Zuo Fangping was that Huang Yueli had bullied Murong Ni and challenged the prestige of their Sect!

That was why in Zuo Fangping's ears, there was no difference between the two.

Zuo Fangping's expression was unsettled and he quickly thought of another problem.

"What relationship do you have with Li Moying? How did you see Li Moying's specially crafted longsword? And why did he tell you about the long sword's history??"

Hearing her talk about Li Moying every second, it was as though she was very close to that terrifying Number One Talent?

But her origin was from the weak little South Yue Kingdom, so how could she possibly know Li Moying?

Huang Yueli threw him a glance and said, "Me? I'm Li Moying's fiancée... of course, I know you and Li Moying have a feud and you can kill me directly! But Li Moying will definitely look for you to exact revenge!"

Zuo Fangping obviously had a feud with Li Moying and if there were any other ways, Huang Yueli would never choose to expose her relationship with Li Moying which might infuriate Zuo Fangping further and made him do anything extreme.

But now, Zuo Fangping was obviously not going to let her off so no matter what she said, it wouldn't make any difference so she had no choice but to bring Li Moying out.

It was because when she mentioned Li Moying, she could tell that there was no only hatred and jealousy in Zuo Fangping's eyes, but there was also a kind of fear, a fear that arose from the inner depth of his heart!

Only a peerless genius like Li Moying would have such deterrent force!

Just hearing his name along would make his enemies tremble uncontrollably!

As she had no other options to choose from, Huang Yueli could only wish that the other party would fear Li Moying taking revenge and give up the idea of killing her. Although the possibility was low, but this was her only chance!

As expected, when Zuo Fangping heard her words, he was stunned for a few moments.

But not long after, he suddenly started laughing madly.

“Hahaha, laugh die me. You claim you’re Li Moying’s fiancée? Who are you trying to cheat? If you were to claim that you are Li Moying’s sister, I might believe. As for his fiancée..... he would not even lay his eyes on Junior Sister Murong, so what could he possibly see in you, a malnourished beansprout??”

Chapter 645: Grow up quickly, defend my master

Junior Sister Murong? Was he referring to Murong Ni?

Something seemed to flash past Huang Yueli’s mind when she heard what he said, but she didn’t manage to capture that thought.

Zuo Fangping apparently didn’t believe in what she said and had completely lost his patience as he controlled her meridians.

Huang Yueli could not move a single bit and as entire body turned feeble, she fell on her back onto the ground.

“Damn it!” Huang Yueli cursed in her mind.

This Zuo Fangping really wasn’t a gentleman, he actually treated such a delicate young lady in such a vicious manner.

And why was it that every single time she told someone that she was Li Moying’s fiancée, no one actually believed her??

This stinky man, although.... He was wee bit handsome, his power was a bit, bit, bit more powerful and his status was much, much, much, much higher, but.... BUT! Surely she, Huang Yueli wasn’t that bad right?

Even though this marriage agreement was a makeshift stratagem, but was there a need for other people to mock at her. This really made her feel emotionally stuffed.....

As Huang Yueli fell, her gaze shot to the behind of Zuo Fangping as she blinked her eye.

On a huge tree not too far away from Zuo Fangping was a little golden, red bird sapling hiding among the dense leaves. It was anxiously looking towards this direction as its two little claws couldn’t help but keep fidgeting around, feeling especially unsettled.

If it hadn’t been for Huang Yueli who kept comforting it with her gazes, he wouldn’t be able to bear it any longer and flew over here.

On seeing Huang Yueli’s last glance, it turned more anxious than ever.

As Huang Yueli’s contractual spiritual pet, Little Phoenix and her could be said that their minds and hearts were interconnected.

Little Phoenix was very clear that what Zuo Fangping had told Huang Yueli earlier including the guesses and analysis of his identity was actually not to delay the time or to anger the other party, but.... was for it to hear!

After Zuo Fangping had defeated Huang Yueli, he had also injured Little Phoenix and little vulture but had not bothered about them since.

Since Little Phoenix was an ancient spiritual beast, he had recovered around thirty to forty percent of his strength. Although his power was just that much, but at least its movements were not hindered anymore.

So Huang Yueli had commanded it not to come too close, and using this method, she spoke out all her guesses so that Little Phoenix would know about it and.... deliver a message to try and inform Li Moying about this news.

If she was really killed, then at least Li Moying would be able to exact revenge for her!

Huang Yueli had wanted to extract more inside stories from Zuo Fangping but not knowing why, the term fiancée seemed to agitate his senses as he completely lost his patience and stuck immediately!

If she died, Little Phoenix would not be able to show his physical body outside of the Sky Phoenix Ring and would be instantly retracted back into it, to wait for the next Master to awaken it.

Because of that, Huang Yueli had felt that her life was coming to an end and used a glance to hint Little Phoenix for him to go quickly!

Even if she had to die, it had to spread the news out to Cai Wei and the rest who were still alive outside the forest, before she died!

But Little Phoenix repeatedly hopped around on the tree, refusing to leave.

Two watery eyes were tearing as its heart was filled with reluctance.

It hadn't been busy to get out of the Sky Phoenix Ring and he had even found a Master who could cook tasty chicken drumsticks so he didn't want her to die like this!

Why was he only a young sapling phoenix? If he had been a powerful and mighty big phoenix like its brother, would the outcome turn out differently?

For the very first time, little Wang Cai wished he would grow up quickly and defend its Master!

Chapter 646: A marvellous idea

Little Phoenix hesitated for a while but he knew that he didn't have much time and couldn't afford to waste any further. So in the end, it still reluctantly turned back to look at Huang Yueli and fluttering its wings, it flew out of the forest.

Zuo Fangping walked over and with a gloomy face, he squatted next to her.

"Little slut, make a guess which method I will use to kill you?"

Huang Yueli didn't say a word.

Zuo Fangping leaned in closer and said, "What do you think, if I severed your hands and legs then throw you into the pig cage to wait for death or smear your entire body with honey and throw you into the queen bee's beehive? Or maybe, I can throw you into the White Headed Meadow Viper's hole and let them swallow you alive?"

His voice was doleful and scary, and in order to make Huang Yueli terrified, he intentionally listed several sinister and disgusting methods, just to hear her appalling screams.

It would be best if he could make this sharp-tongued wretched lass kowtow and beg for mercy, acting like a fool.

However, there was no expression on Huang Yueli's face as she silently shut her eyelids.

She naturally knew that the best option now was for her to beg for mercy.

It wasn't because after Zuo Fangping would let her off after begging for mercy, and in this way, she would be able to delay even more time and allow Little Phoenix to pass the message successfully.

But even though she was very clear on this, she was unable to force herself to bow and bend her knee.

Zuo Fangping grew angrier upon seeing her peaceful look.

He sniggered, "Why? Did you think I won't do that? Hehe, I'm just thinking these three methods are just plainly too easy for you, so I've thought of a marvellous idea....."

Although these three methods were already disgusting and horrifying enough, but Zuo Fangping still felt that it was an easy death for her and had thought of another perverted way to deal with her?

If it was any other young lady here, she would had already been frightened out of her soul.

But Huang Yueli was extremely peaceful.

Anyway she had already died once before so dying one more time didn't make any difference to her.

If Zuo Fangping had wanted to torment her, then she wouldn't obediently allow him to do so. Under no way of retreat, she would choose to self-explode again!

However, that was the last resort and she wasn't going to do it now. After all, she still had to gain a little more time for Little Phoenix.

Zuo Fangping saw that she wasn't frightened at all and felt upset.

To say such things to threaten someone was naturally to make the other party as frightened as possible. The more pitiful she cried, the tormentor would feel more pleasurable. If the tormented person had no reaction at all, then it was all meaningless, and even feel a sense of dejection!

Zuo Fangping was currently in this state.

Hence he didn't hesitate any further and placed his hand directly on Huang Yueli's chest.

"You....."

Huang Yueli wanted to say something but suddenly, she felt a somber Profound Energy instilled into her body.

Dark attribute Profound Energy!

Dark attribute was a rare Profound Energy and was extremely somber and strange. The instance the Dark attribute Profound Energy was instilled into her, she immediately felt cold like ice, as though all her energy had been frozen.

Following that, she felt her brain “hum” as though it was about to explode!

Intense pain raided her next and at the same time, her conscious seemed to turn fuzzy.

Huang Yueli gritted her teeth as she tried her best to bear with this pain, but this was just the beginning. As time went past, the intensity of the pain became stronger and stronger.

Chapter 647: Seven character soul extinguishment skill

Not only that, she could also clearly felt that her soul train had been invaded by the dark attributed Profound Energy, her conscious didn't seemed to be under control and gradually drifted away from her.

Huang Yueli knew things were taking a bad turn and hurriedly used her last bit of determination and bit hard on the tip of her tongue!

Pain invaded her senses and as the heavy blood stench filled her mouth before Huang Yueli became clear-headed slightly.

Just at this moment, she heard Zuo Fangping's sinister snigger.

“Ha ha, painful? Unbearable? Do you feel like dying because of the pain? But don't worry, I won't let you die and in fact, this is just the beginning! Have you heard of the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill?”

Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill?

When the name of the cultivation method was transmitted to Huang Yueli's ears, it let her regain a slight sense of soberness momentarily because... this cultivation method was simply too vicious!

Dark attributed cultivation methods excelled in changing the environment, creating hallucinations and affecting one's conscious and condition. In the middle of a battle, it could often lead the enemy to enter a state of confusion, thereby obtaining victory.

But the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill was the most outstanding among the dark attributed cultivation methods as the effects were the most sinister type.

As expected, Zuo Fangping continued, “I think a country lass like you definitely have not heard of this. Then let me tell you more about it! After your brain had been invaded by my dark attributed Profound Energy, you'd become a living corpse with no conscious and you will also possess animal instincts, often lusting for blood and.... very wanton.”

“Very soon, you will behave like a dog, climbing on the ground on your four limbs and devouring raw meat like a dog, attacking any living animal the minute you see it! And bite it to death! More importantly, your body will also turn very *, even if it was a roadside hound, as long as it’s a male, you can also do ‘it’ with it...”

Huang Yueli’s conscious gradually turned fuzzy but Zuo Fangping was still sniggering non-stop, ridiculing and describing all sorts of miserable conditions which she might possibly encounter.

However, she was unable to focus on what he was saying exactly.

She knew the current situation was anything but assuring, because whatever Zuo Fangping had said was not empty threats but.... things that would really happen!

In her previous life, she had personally witnessed a practitioner who was struck by the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill. That person gradually lost his consciousness and became extremely loose and wanton, even worse than a dog.

As that scene was too shocking, until now, she was unable to forget about it.

If she had to turn into that manner.... Huang Yueli felt that she would not be able to bear this sort of thing, and she would rather die!

But, this amount of time was simply too short. From the time where Little Phoenix had flown away to the time when she had been injected with the dark attributed Profound Energy, invading her body, it had only been a quarter of an hour. It was not even enough for Little Phoenix to fly too far, not knowing if it was enough for it to locate Cai Wei already.

If only, she could hold on a little while more.....

But once she lost her consciousness, she would lose the possibility of self-explosion, and can only turn into a human shaped beast with no conscience.....

Forget it, even if no one could exact revenge for her, she would not be able to bear the fact that she would eventually turn into that way!

Huang Yueli grinded her teeth and bit through her tongue once again, and using her last piece of consciousness and her strongest determination, she forced herself to adjust all the Profound Energy in her body to consolidate in her Dantian.

Zuo Fangping had always been by her side and he sensed the unusual movements of her Profound Energy, and immediate reacted to it.

“Wretched lass, you want to self-explode??”

Chapter 648: Self explode once again

Zuo Fangping shot forward like an arrow and placed his right hand on the position of her Dantian.

His expression was malevolent as he yelled, “Want to self explode? Do you think that once you’re in my clutches, I’ll let you do that? I said I’d let you go through utter misery, hoping to die but you can’t! With my Profound Energy suppressing you, you have absolutely no way to self explode!”

Zuo Fangping spoke with absolute self confidence.

In actual fact, it was exactly as it was shown. In order to self explode one's dantian, Huang Yueli must consolidate all the Profound Energy in her body at that one point and at the same time, unleash it out, thereby bursting her dantian.

But Zuo Fangping's cultivation was higher than her by several big realms. He only needed to use his Profound Energy to his advantage and control the flow of her Profound Energy, so even if Huang Yueli wanted to burst her dantian, it was an impossible task to do!

However, Huang Yueli was laughing coldly in her heart.

She had, after all, a Flame Spirit Physique and had learnt various cultivation methods. Her heaven level cultivation method, Nine Phoenix Transformations utilised an extremely abstruse way of operating the Profound Energy in her body. It was something that a person like Zuo Fangping would not be able to understand.

Hence, if she wanted to self explode, Zuo Fangping would not be able to stop her!

Even if Zuo Fangping had pressed on her dantian and kept exerting pressure on her, but the Profound Energy in Huang Yueli's body still gradually consolidated together.

In a couple of breath's time, it would be able to completely congeal.

When it had reach this life and death juncture, Huang Yueli's heart was filled with regrets.

Or it could be said that she had too many regrets, too many things that she wanted to do but did not have the opportunity to do so.

No matter if it was the previous life's scheme or this life's love debt, she had no time to settle it at all.

She finally had the chance to be reborn but she had not expected that her lifespan in this lifetime was merely two months before it came to a sudden halt. And she would die under just a fifth degree realm practitioner dubiously!

Could it be that this was her fate?

Even after reincarnation, she was still a lonely soul, never able to attain what she desired.....

She remembered Mu Chengying and.... uncontrollably thought of Li Moying.

In her fuzzy conscious, the two men's looks layered together and initially there was only a thirty to forty percent similarity but now it had completely matched up.

That unexcelled number one expert in her previous life and that overbearing, arrogant peerless genius, both of their figures were unable to be split apart.

Huang Yueli felt that this must be an illusion at her brink of death because both of their figures kept appearing repeatedly and many times, she was unable to tell who was who....

Gradually, even their figures became fuzzy.

Huang Yueli shut her eyes and prepared to stake all in one throw and self explode once again!

But just at the moment when she was about to ignite the Profound Energy, suddenly a voice could be heard from not too far away.

“I say... why is the forest so noisy and flames spewing everywhere... so looks like someone had struck out against such a dainty young lady.....”

Zuo Fangping had never expected anyone to appear at this moment.

Furthermore, he had interrupted him at such a critical juncture.

He suddenly turned back and stared at the figure behind him, “Wh... who are you? Why did you come to the forest at this timing? What is your intention??”

Huang Yueli sensed that the pressure and restriction on her dantian had lessened in that instance.

When she heard that man’s voice, she had initially thought it was her hallucination from the pain and pressure, but when Zuo Fangping suddenly stood up, it made her realised that... someone had really appeared.

Chapter 649: The mysterious expert

Huang Yueli tried her best to pry open her eyes and looked towards the direction of the voice.

However, no matter how hard she tried to open her big eyes, with her consciousness under the attack of the dark attributed Profound Energy, she was unable to focus and could only see a blurry white coloured figure, wandering a short distance away.

Zuo Fangping stood up and raised his alert against the man in front of him.

The white robed man stood facing the wing as his sleeves fluttered lightly. That delicate features looked right out of a painting, unable to shift one’s eyes away from that elegant demeanour, especially pleasing to the eye.

After Zuo Fangping laid his eyes on him, he heaved a sigh of relief.

It was because he could not sense any obvious Profound Energy fluctuations from this white robed man, as though... he wasn’t a practitioner.

In that instance when he was called, Zuo Fangping had a shock. For someone who could break his momentum while he was utilising his cultivation method, he was certain that it was a practitioner whose strength was much higher than his, so he turned around while staying alert.

Now at one glance, it was possible that he was a wealthy Master who happened to pass by?

As for how he managed to break his utilisation of his cultivation method, perhaps, it was just a coincidence.

Zuo Fangping stared at the white robed man and scorned coldly, “What does it have to do with you? I’m warning you, mind your own business! Hurry up and scram! I’ll count to three, if you still don’t disappear by then, I don’t mind taking your life!”

Saying that, he unleashed his vigour and the surrounding air seemed to congealed slightly, attempting to force the white robed man to retreat.

However, unexpectedly, the white robed man stood there but his expression was still as calm and collected as before, not moving a single inch!

Zuo Fangping sensed a hint of abnormality and hurriedly raised his power to his peak but there was still no response from the white robed man.

The white robed man pursed his lips slightly as he spat out a sentence frostily, "Just like this and you think you can claim my life?"

Zuo Fangping immediately knew he had messed things up.

If one was unable to sense another's Profound Energy's fluctuations, there was only two possibilities. One was an ordinary person with no ounce of Profound Energy and the other could only be that the other party's cultivation was much higher than him, so he was unable to investigate his true strength.

Now that this white robed man had no reaction to his fifth degree realm's Profound Energy, then it would mean that he was not an ordinary person, so it could only be the latter.

Zuo Fangping immediately retract his Profound Energy and lowered his stance as he nodded his head furiously and bent over.

"Th... This Senior, are you passing by this forest? I'm extremely sorry to have disturbed you. Earlier what I had said, please treat that I'm passing gas and let me go. I... I have some personal feud that I must settle, and I had no intention to offend you. Please have mercy on me. I'll bring this person away right now....."

White robed man didn't say anything.

Zuo Fangping waited for a little while but didn't get a response, and felt that he should be more tactful.

So he hastily tugged at Huang Yueli's collar as he dragged her from the ground.

His steps were at lightning speed, only thinking of leaving the boundary of the forest immediately.

Even though he didn't know where this expert had appeared from, but he didn't want to complicate matters further, so changing a spot to deal with this wretched lass was all the same, as he didn't need to risk offending this unknown expert.

However, just as he was about to pass by the white robed man, the man stretched out his arm and blocked his way.

"Wait!"

Zuo Fangping's footsteps came to a halt as he raised his head to look at him, "Senior, you are....."

The white robed man lowered his chin as he gazed at Huang Yueli who was by his feet.

Chapter 650: Obviously making a fool out of him!

By now, Huang Yueli's conscious had become very blurry and she had been relying on her willpower to hold on. Her soul trace had always been stronger than ordinary people so she could still barely figure out what was happening in the outer world.

White robed man's vision fell onto her and he suddenly smiled.

"That's interesting, this lass is not of marriageable age! Her cultivation is also really bad as well. Why did you drag her to the outskirts and use the Seven Character Soul Extinguishment skill on her? Could it be that you wanted to be rough with her but met with resistance so you flew into a rage out of humiliation?"

"This... Senior....."

Zuo Fangping was dumbfounded as he had not expected such a powerful person like this white robed man would actually ask this kind of question.

Moreover, most powerful practitioners were cold and aloof, and would barely smile to those weaker practitioners.

Unfortunately, there was no affinity in that white robed man's smile. On the contrary, it seemed rather evil and a glint of ill intention flashed past that set of pupils.

Zuo Fangping turned anxious as he was not able to grasp this white robed man's background.

He hemmed and hawed, "Senior, things are not what you're thinking about... This wretched lass and I do not have that kind of relationship..... I have been entrusted by someone else to kill her only....."

"Oh, not that kind of relationship?" White robed man raised his eyebrow, "Originally, if you really were unsuccessful at ra*ing her, I'd let you go. After all, being a Casanova is part of a man's nature, I can understand that part... but now that you say you're not, then I'm curious. Before you have satisfied my curiosity, then both of you must stay!"

When Zuo Fangping heard what he said, he almost roared with laughter.

Wh... what kind of logic was that? He was afraid that this senior who had passed by was bursting with righteousness and wanted to be chivalrous, to bring justice to him for forcing a girl who had yet to meet the marriageable age so he hurriedly clarified himself.

However, the white robed man actually said if he would let him off if he was compelling the young lady and if he wasn't, they had to stay?

What kind of situation was this?

He quickly added, "No, No, Senior.... I said it wrongly! This lass, ughh, was someone I wanted to play around but I did not expect her to carry so many Profound Armaments on her and unexpectedly she had hurt me. I was furious and.... and rashly dealt her a murderous hand....."

"Heh hehh, that's not true right? This lass has been injured by you from head to toe but yet her clothes are still intact, and it cannot be more intact, so how could it be that you're forcing yourself on her? You dare to lie to me, so you'd better stay behind!"

Zuo Fangping raised his head in surprise and met directly with the white robed man's glare.

White robed man leaned slightly against a big tree with a lazy expression as he smiled wilfully.

His looks were exceedingly handsome and with this smile, it was comparable to the highest quality jade, faultlessly talented.

Zuo Fangping's heart thumped loudly.

This man's gaze was just too evil and in connection to what he had said earlier, he was obviously making a fool out of him!

No matter what he said, this white robed man was not intending to let him leave easily?

Zuo Fangping was upset but as the other party's power was much higher than his, he did not dare to show his rage and could only swallow this down, explaining in a nice tone.

"Senior, nothing can escape your eyes. I had indeed no intention to do anything improper to this lass. What I said earlier was the truth. I had been entrusted by someone else to assassinate her. But as there were some accidents, it had dragged until now. So Senior, please have mercy and let us go."
